Travel Arr.

On February 10, 1964 PHILIPPE PITER E. VAN DER VORM advised that he had departed Mexico City at 8:30 AM on October 2, 1963 by a bus of the Transporte Del Norte Company en route San Antonio and Dallas, Texas. He stated that the bus arrived at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, approximately 1:00 AM on October 3, 1963 and that the passengers at that point changed to a greyhound bus. He said that the change of buses and the border crossing formalities, including luggage examination, required approximately two hours and that the greyhound bus actually crossed the border at Laredo, Texas, approximately 3:00 AM on October 3, 1963 and continued to Dallas arriving there in the early afternoon of the same day.

Mr. VAN DER VORM did not recall having seen the subject aboard either of the buses on which he had been a passenger or in the Nuevo Laredo area. He added that in view of the subsequent publicity attached to the subject he felt sure that he would recall having seen him if such had been the case. Mr. VAN DER VORM related that the greyhound bus on which he traveled had approximately 15 passengers, some being Americans and others, Mexicans. He stated that he was traveling alone on vacation and did not know the names of any of his fellow passengers.

Mr. VAN DER VORM went on to say that on October 3, 1963 he departed Dallas by bus en route Flagstaff, Arizona, as part of an extended vacation bus tour of the United States.

Mrs. EUGENE (LOLA) LOVING, Forest Grove, Oregon, recalls that ALBERT OSBORNE's last letter, now destroyed, came from Mexico. Clothing contribution, however, was to be sent to Post Office Box 308, Laredo, Texas.

- RUC -

DETAILS:

Mrs. EUGENE (LOLA) LOVING, 2617 17th Street, Forest Grove, Oregon, advised on February 11, 1964, that she had destroyed the last letter which she had received from ALBERT OSBORNE. This was the letter which bore the return address of ALBERT OSBORN, Emilio Carranza 4-A, Texmelucan, Pue. Mexico. Mrs. LOVING went on to say that she felt that the letter was written from Texmelucan although this may have been only because she was aware that that was his normal address. She recalled definitely that the letter had come from Mexico because it bore Mexican postage stamps which she had removed and saved for a friend.

Mrs. LOVING further advised that every month she sends a financial contribution to OSBORNE, always sending the contribution to him at Texmelucan. The contributions are usually by check, the checks being cashed at American Express in Mexico City.

Mrs. LOVING added that she was currently preparing a contribution of clothing which was to be sent to OSBORNE.

PD 44-225

She pointed out, however, that regulations prevent shipment of such clothing into Mexico and consequently such clothing contributions are picked up by OSBORNE when he comes to the United States for visits. He normally informs her as to what point she should mail such clothing. These locations are usually in Texas, Mrs. LOVING said, since that is where he usually visits.

Mrs. LOVING recalled that in the last letter received from OSBORNE, the one which had been destroyed, he had told her that the clothing this time should be sent to him in either name ALBERT OSBORNE or JOHN HOWARD BOWEN, Post Office Box 308, Laredo, Texas. Mrs. LOVING said that this was the address of a friend of OSBORNE's but that she had never known the name of this individual. She commented that she presumed, in view of his mailing instructions to her, that OSBORNE might be at this Laredo, Texas address either at present or soon if he is not currently in Texmelucan.

Memorandum

SUBJECT: CARL WARD CHAPPEL,
ALSO KNOWN AS CARLOS CAPILLA INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA

Reference is made to memorandum, Brennan to Sullivan, dated 2-4-64 wherein it was recommended and approved that my office call on Congressman Claude Pepper (D-Fla.) and determine whether they had received any information from above-captioned individual, it being noted that he had shipped four taped reels to the Congressman which purportedly dealt with the Panama situation and the assassination. Referenced memorandum pointed out that Chappel may be mentally disturbed.

Kemper called at the office of Congressman Pepper and talked to his secretary, Miss Warner. When apprised of the problem, Miss Warner immediately responded by saying that they had received four reels from Chappel and furthermore he had also sent a tape recorder to play the reels on. She said she had no idea why this individual sent this material to Congressman Pepper and that she just didn't know what to do with it. She planned to just send it back to the party without taking any further action. She made the tapes available to Kemper.

RECOMMENDATION:

The tapes have been forwarded to Mr. Wannall in the Domestic Intelligence Division and it is recommended they be reviewed so that they may be returned to Congressman Pepper's office.

BY COURIER SERVICE

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, Northeast
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Attached is a memorandum dated February 14, 1964, which contains information apparently originating with Carl Ward Chappel of Miami, Florida, who is also known as Carlos Capilla, which indicates that those connected with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy were communists.

You will note in the attached communication the possibility that Chappel may be mentally disturbed.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

CARL WARD CHAPPEL, also known as Carlos Capilla

The subject under the name of Carlos Capilla, 774 Northwest First Street, Miami, Florida, recently sent Congressman Claude Pepper of Florida four taped reels of information which reportedly contained information concerning the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. The tapes were made available to this Bureau by Congressman Pepper's office and, upon review, were found to contain the following information concerning Lee Harvey Oswald:

According to the tapes, an individual who apparently is identical with Capilla, stated that Oswald's naming of "the New York lawyer" and Oswald's statement that he was from New Orleans convinced Capilla that Oswald had direct connections with Castro. The speaker wondered who had hired Oswald but when Ruby appeared and killed him, Capilla knew "he" was the leader. When the bondsman showed up and said he had connections in Los Angeles, California, that cinched the deal that they were communists. The speaker further stated that all of the books that Oswald read were of the communist variety.

The foregoing tapes also contained information concerning a number of other subjects, including a claim by Capilla that plans furnished by him to the Secretary of Defense at the time of the blockade of Cuba were the ones used in carrying out the blockade. In discussing his background, Capilla claimed that during World War II he, as a private in the United States Army, headed a force of 3,000 men which included several commissioned and noncommissioned officers.

In June, 1963, a Chicago businessman who had been in touch with Capilla stated that it was his impression that Capilla was mentally confused and seemed to have an obsession to talk about the liberation of Cuba.

Capilla's full name is Carl Ward Chappel. He is an American citizen, born January 5, 1915, in Louisville, Kentucky.

SUMMARY FROM ITALIAN

From: "L'Unita" (Unity), a daily newspaper and the organ of the Italian Communist Party published in Rome (with local editions in various Italian cities), issue of February 5, 1964.

This article is illustrated with pictures of Chief Justice Warren, Mrs. Marina Oswald, Lee Harvey Oswald and FBI Director Edgar J. Hoover (sic).

It bears several headlines. They read: "A Sensational Deposition By Oswald's Widow," "Oswald Was Working For the CIA and the FBI," "Edgar J. Hoover (sic) Accuses the Former Marine in Order to Cover Up For the FBI," "The CIA Sent Oswald to the U. S. S. R. and the FBI Used Him As a Provocation Agent" and "Sensational Disclosures By the Washington Correspondent of "Il Messaggero' - the CIA and the FBI Are Said to Have Financed Oswald in Order to 'Plant' Him Into the Castroite Organizations of the United States of America."

As the headline indicates, this news item by "L'Unita" quotes the Washington correspondent of a Rome conservative newspaper as the source of the information.

It describes the physical aspects of the deposition by Mrs. Marina Oswald before the special Presidential Commission investigating President Kennedy's assassination and quotes Legal Counsellor J. E. Rankin stating that Mrs. Oswald had related "....new things....things which we had not heard before...."

It is reported that Chief Justice Warren, according to the Messaggero correspondent, stated, "The testimony of Mrs. Marina Oswald probably will not be made public during the span of our life. It is a matter which involves our national security."

The news item reports very insistent rumors to the effect that the FBI and the CIA are the agencies which kept Lee Harvey Oswald supplied with money from early 1961 until the summer of 1963. The letters which Oswald was sending on a periodical basis to the Committee for Fair Play to Cuba are said to have been written by FBI Agents.

After a brief mention of the heavy file which is being collected on Lee Harvey Oswald, this statement is made: "On November 25, one day after Oswald's killing, Agent Kline of the Investigative Service of the Laredo Custom House on the boarder with Mexico, declared that Oswald had visited Mexico City in September and that his movements had been watched at the request of a

'federal agency' in Washington."

From this point on the article trains its guns on the FBI. It says:

"On November 26, the New York Times published a daring editorial in which it asked that full light be shed on the entire story of the assassination: 'They must tell us everything about the motives which impelled Oswald, about his activities, about his trips, about the organizations with which he was in contact during his life. They must tell us everything that the local police and the FBI know about Oswald.'

"However, on November 27, confronted with this demand, the President of the FBI (sic), 'cunning' Mr. Hoover, declared that the investigation could be closed within one week and attributed all the responsibility for the assassination to Oswald, excluding all suspicions of collusion between Oswald and Ruby.

"Nevertheless, pieces and morsels of truth kept coming to the surface: on November 28, it was learned that upon being arrested, Oswald had in his pocket a slip of paper which bore the name of an FBI Agent who had paid him a visit a few days before the assassination and who had not found him at home. Marina Oswald had written down the Agent's name and the license number of his car.

"On November 29, Oswald's mother stated that her son had told her in confidence that he had been interrogated by FBI Agents quite recently. As a matter of fact, there had been three interrogations: one, at Ft. Worth in 1962 after his return from the Soviet Union, one at New Orleans in the summer of 1963 when he got himself arrested as a Castro supporter and one at Irving after his return from Mexico where he had gone to apply for a visa for the Soviet Union via Cuba.

"On December 2, 'The Observer,' an English weekly publication published a detailed report from staff reporters sent to Dallas. According to this report, while in New Orleans, Oswald had been quite articulate as a Marxist and as a Castroite. Under the circumstances, the most puzzling circumstance was the fact that Oswald had been able to secure an American passport in a matter of 24 hours (June 24 and 25), while it is a well-known fact that in the U. S. A. a passport is granted only to people who can demonstrate that they are not Communist.

'What had Oswald done in Mexico? What money had he used for his trip if, as it were, he was unemployed. Why had he used a false name to register in the Dallas boarding house? With whom was he talking every single day and in a foreign language over the telephone of the boarding house?

"Finally, 'The Observer' report brought out the fact that the FBI had interrogated one Mrs. Paine, the landlady of the Oswald's at Irving, four days prior to the assassination.

"On December 3, speaking with journalists, Oswald's mother disclosed that on Saturday, November 23, 24 hours before her son was killed, an FBI Agent paid her a visit to show her a photograph of Ruby. She had not recognized the subject. But, on the morrow, when the newspapers were full of the photographs of Ruby, she could not help recognizing the man whom she had been shown the day before as the man who had killed her son.

"The press kept bringing up small fragments of a disconcerting sequence of events: The correspondent of 'Il Giorno,' a Milan daily newspaper, (his name is Auro Rosselli), reported that in a Dallas night club he had witnessed a strange conversation whose first phrase went like this: 'You may bet that also James Hosty of the FBI will be gotten rid of.' The reporter explained that FBI Agent James Hosty was the man who shortly before Oswald's killing had prepared a report in which he called him (Oswald) a harmless extremist.

"Other unexplicable questions arose, such as who was sending Oswald money orders on a rather frequent basis? What was the reason for the telegram Oswald sent himself a few days prior to the assassination? The Moscow 'Izvestiya' openly wrote that the FBI could not help but be involved. It said 'There is evidence of its involvement in the attempt at erasing the trail of the killer or killers of President Kennedy'.

"And here is a last item to be added to the Oswald file: On December 3, a source from within the Department of Justice (which is headed by President Kennedy's own brother) let it be known that a few hours before Oswald's death, FBI Agent Gorden Shanklin in Dallas had received a phone call from an anonymous man who told him that young Oswald was about to be disposed of. The FBI Agent had warned the Dallas Police, but his efforts had been rewarded with generalities to the effect that all measures would be taken to protect the former Marine."

The byline on this article reads Saverio Tutino.

SUMMARY FROM ITALIAN

From: "Paese Sera" (The Nation - Evening), a daily evening newspaper published in Rome, Italy, issue of February 5, 1964.

This news item carries two headlines. They read: "According to an Implicit Admission by Justice Warren, Lee Oswald was Working for the FBI" and "After the Deposition and Interrogation of Marina Oswald, the Chairman of the Investigating Commission Declared That Certain Facets of Kennedy's Assassination Will Be Disclosed Only Several Years From Now 'in the Best Interests of the Security of the Nation'."

This news item starts with a direct quotation of Justice Warren's statement: "Certain elements connected with Kennedy's slaying will not be made known during our lifetime for reasons of national security."

It is commented that this statement from such an authoritative source provides an official confirmation to the assumption that obscure background maneuvers surround the death of the President of the United States. The "easy" version offered by the Dallas Police and the FBI is seriously questioned after the latest disclosures.

After explaining that in all likelyhood the details of the assassination will not be learned until after the year 2000, the news item points out that the logical assumption is that Lee Harvey Oswald was either an Agent of the FBI (a supposition offered by a famous attorney: Mark Lane) or he was acting on behalf of the CIA.

In the light of these suppositions, the strict isolation of Marina Oswald receives a very logical explanation. It is to be pointed out that Marina Oswald has not been allowed to talk with Lee Harvey Oswald's mother.

The news item reports that the interrogation was recorded and filmed.

The news item concludes: "One cannot help but labor under the impression that the reasons that led Jack Rubenstein to kill Lee Harvey Oswald are a great deal less complex than the psychological reasons mentioned in the official version."

SUMMARY FROM ITALIAN

From: "Il Messaggero"(The Messenger), a daily newspaper published in Rome, Italy, issue of February 4, 1964.

The news item bears three headlines which read: "The Investigation of President Kennedy's Assassination," "The Testimony of Oswald's Widow is Important to the Security of the United States" and "Supreme Court Justice Earl Warren, who presides over the Commission before which the wife of the presumed assassin of the President appeared, declared that her deposition will not be made public 'at least during our generation'."

The dateline is New York, February 3.

After reporting that Mrs. Oswald's deposition will probably last an entire week, the news item states: "Legal Adviser J. E. Rankin stated that Mrs. Oswald told us things which we had not heard before - decidedly new things, new evidence."

Rankin added that "these new things" are no sensational disclosures, but rather important bits of information concerning the movements and the activities of Lee Oswald after he returned from the Soviet Union last November.

A rather detailed description is made of Mrs. Marina Oswald. Then the following appears textually: "All attempts by the newspapermen to accost her and speak to her were repelled by a wall of silence erected around her by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Only after the men of the press protested against this high-handed procedure, Mrs. Marina Oswald was allowed to issue a few statements on television. It was in this connection that Mrs. Oswald admitted that the facts, as presented to her, point to her husband's guilt."

Supreme Court Justice Earl Warren refused to answer all questions the journalists wanted to ask about Mrs. Marina Oswald's deposition. He did make one statement, however, which indirectly confirms one of the most alarming rumors about the personality and activities of Lee Harvey Oswald. The Justice said that Mrs. Oswald's deposition, in all likelihood will not be made public during our generation. It is a matter which involves the national security of the United States.

The news item concludes by relating rumors to the effect that Lee Harvey Oswald traveled to Russia in the employ of the CIA and kept in constant touch with the FBI after his return from that country.

SUMMARY FROM ITALIAN

SUMMARY FROM ITALIAN

From: "La Stampa," a daily newspaper published in Turin, Italy, issue of February 5, 1964.

This news item is headlined: "Did Oswald's Widow Make Important Statements About Her Husband?" and "A Second Interrogation By the Warren Commission."

After a discription of the arrival of Mrs. Marina Oswald, the automobile in which she came and the security measures taken in connection with her deposition, the news item reports that Marina Oswald "translated" for the benefit of the members of the commission certain Russian documents prepared by her late husband (application for passport, etc.) and a few pieces of correspondence also written in Russian by Lee Harvey Oswald.

Again this news item quotes Justice Warren saying: "It is probable that the entire text of the deposition by Mrs. Marina Oswald will not be given to public opinion during our lifetime.... If there is something useful to be made public, the communique will relate it.... However, should the deposition contain something of significance and importance where our national security is concerned, no disclosure will be made for decades and .... I mean it."

The news item ends with several question marks providing food for thought and speculation about this cryptic statement by Justice Warren.

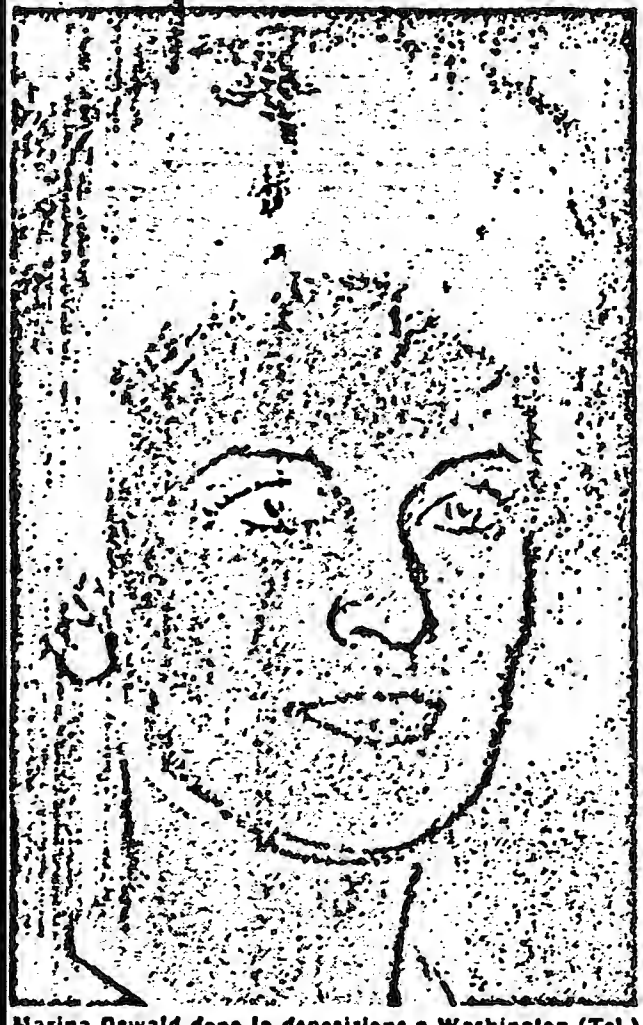
La vedova di Oswald ha fatto importanti dichiarazioni sul marito?

Interrogata per la seconda volta dalla commissione Warren



Marina Oswald dopo la deposizione a Washington (Tel.)

New York, 4 febbraio.

La vedova di Lee Harvey Oswald, il presunto assassino del presidente Kennedy, ha oggi deposto per la seconda volta davanti alla commissione Warren.

La deposizione avviene a porte chiuse. Marina Oswald, stamane, è giunta al Palazzo degli archivi di Stato, dove la commissione si riunisce, quasi contemporaneamente al presidente Warren. E' scesa da un'auto senza targa, appartenente al servizio segreto. Era scortata da quattro agenti in borghese. E' apparsa molto graziosa, semplice, spontanea: gli occhi vivi, un fare discreto e riservato.

Per quel che riguarda la deposizione di oggi, si è appreso da fonti indirette (ed è stato implicitamente confermato anche da alcune laconiche dichiarazioni stampa del presidente Warren) che la commissione ha voluto soprattutto investigare sui numerosi tentativi di Lee Harvey Oswald per ritornare in Russia. Pertanto, Marina ha tradotto per uso dei membri della commissione, alcuni documenti, richiesta di passaporti, visti, stilati in russo dal suo defunto marito e, soprattutto, i testi di alcune lettere scrittele dal marito stesso in russo.

Il giudice Warren ha detto che, dalla deposizione di oggi, non è emerso niente di nuovo che già non fosse in dominio della stampa. Ha però sorpreso (e tuttora non si è arrivati a darne spiegazione) l'altra frettolosa dichiarazione rilasciata alla stampa la rivista in Italia da un solo [illegible], Il Messaggero di Roma, il corrispondente da Washington del quotidiano romano, Lucio Manisco, ha inviato al suo giornale una serie di informazioni e un commento sulla prima udienza per l'interrogatorio di Marina Oswald, che recano un clamoroso quanto insperato squarcio di luce sui retroscena dell'attentato a Kennedy e dell'inchiesta sui tragici fatti di Dallas. Vi si trova una netta conferma di quanto già si sospettava due mesi or sono: tra il presunto assassino di Kennedy e i servizi segreti americani esistevano da molti anni stretti rapporti. Su questi rapporti ora sembra che la Commissione Warren abbia concentrato le sue indagini, o perlomeno una parte importante e preliminare delle sue indagini.

Secondo Il Messaggero l'avvocato Rankin ha spiegato ai giornalisti che cosa intendeva, parlando di nuove prove emerse dal primo interrogatorio di Marina Oswald: si tratta di «importanti informazioni concernenti l'attività e i movimenti di Lee Oswald dal suo rimpatrio dall'Unione Sovietica al novembre scorso». Secondo il corrispondente del Messaggero, lo stesso presidente della Commissione, il giudice Warren, avrebbe rilasciato questa sensazionale dichiarazione che serve a dilatare enormemente l'importanza di quelle di Rankin: «La testimonianza della signora probabilmente non verrà divulgata durante la nostra generazione. Si tratta di una questione concernente la nostra sicurezza nazionale».

Ed ecco il commento del corrispondente del Messaggero: «La dichiarazione del giudice Warren potrebbe essere messa in relazione con la voce che corre da più di un mese, secondo la quale Oswald avrebbe lavorato per la CIA durante il suo soggiorno nell'Unione Sovietica e una volta ritornato negli Stati Uniti sarebbe stato impiegato più volte dal FBI con il compito di infiltrarsi nelle organizzazioni filocastriste che operano negli Stati Uniti».

Il 25 novembre, dichiarò che Oswald si era recato nella [illegible] messicana nel mese [illegible] settembre e che i suoi movimenti erano sorvegliati su richiesta di «un ente federale di Washington».

Il 26 novembre il New York Times pubblicò un ardito editoriale in cui chiedeva che fosse fatta piena luce sull'intiera storia dell'assassinio: «Ci devono dire tutto sui motivi che hanno spinto Oswald, sulle sue attività passate e sui suoi viaggi, di quali organizzazioni ha fatto parte, con quali organi in realtà è venuto a contatto durante la sua vita, che cosa sapevano in realtà di Oswald la polizia locale e il FBI».

Ma il 27 novembre, dinanzi a questa campagna, lo stesso presidente del FBI, il «destro» Hoover, dichiarò che l'indagine poteva essere chiusa in una settimana attribuendo tutta la responsabilità dell'attentato a Oswald e eliminando ogni sospetto di collusione tra Oswald e Ruby, il suo assassino.

Elementi di verità continuarono a venire a galla lo stesso: il 28 novembre si apprese che al momento dell'arresto Oswald aveva in tasca un pezzetto di carta sul quale era annotato il nome di un agente del FBI che era venuto a cercarlo a casa qualche giorno prima dell'attentato e che non l'aveva trovato. Marina Oswald aveva annotato il nome dell'agente e anche la targa della sua macchina.

Il 29 novembre, la madre di Oswald dichiarò che suo figlio le aveva confidato di essere stato interrogato tre volte recentemente da agenti del FBI: una prima volta a Fort Worth nel 1962, dopo il ritorno dall'URSS, una seconda a New Orleans, nell'estate del 1963, mentre si faceva arrestare come filocastrista, e una terza volta in settembre a Irving dopo il viaggio nel Messico, dove era andato per cercare di ottenere un visto per l'URSS via Cuba.

Il 2 dicembre, il settimanale inglese The Observer pubblicò una dettagliata indagine dei suoi inviati a Dallas [illegible] novembre, [illegible] quattr'ore prima che suo figlio venisse ucciso, un agente del FBI era venuto da lei per mostrarle una fotografia del Ruby. Lei non lo aveva riconosciuto. Ma il giorno dopo, dalle fotografie dei giornali, aveva visto che era lo stesso che aveva assassinato suo figlio.

Uno strano colloquio

La stampa seguitava a scovare piccoli brani di una verità sconcertante: il corrispondente del Giorno di Milano, Auro Rosselli, in un night di Dallas, era testimone di uno strano colloquio che cominciava con la frase: «Vedrai che faranno fuori anche Jim Hosty del FBI» e continuava spiegando che si trattava di un agente che, poco prima dell'attentato, aveva steso un rapporto su Oswald, definendolo un innocuo estremista.

Sorgevano altri conturbanti interrogativi: da chi riceveva Oswald frequenti vaglia? A che serviva un telegramma che Oswald aveva spedito a se stesso, qualche giorno prima dell'attentato? Le Isvestia di Mosca scrissero apertamente che il FBI doveva essere implicato: «Vi è la prova della partecipazione al tentativo di cancellare le tracce dell'uccisore o degli uccisori del Presidente Kennedy».

Ultimo elemento, da versare al dossier: il 3 dicembre una fonte del ministero della Giustizia (retto dal fratello di Kennedy) fece sapere che poche ore prima dell'uccisione di Oswald, l'agente Gordon Shanklin del FBI di Dallas aveva ricevuto una telefonata che gli annunciava che il giovane indiziato stava per essere «fatto fuori». L'agente aveva avvertito la polizia di Dallas, ma non aveva ottenuto che generiche assicurazioni sulle misure prese per proteggere l'ex marine.

Sensazionali rivelazioni del corrispondente da Washington del «Messaggero» - La CIA e il FBI avrebbero finanziato Oswald perchè si infiltrasse nelle organizzazioni di appoggio a Cuba

Marina Oswald, la vedova del giovane accusato di avere ucciso Kennedy, è stata interrogata l'altro ieri per due ore e mezzo dalla Commissione presieduta dal giudice Warren. L'interrogatorio è ripreso ieri alle quattordici. Si pensa che la signora continuerà a deporre per tutta questa settimana. Dopo la prima udienza — naturalmente segreta — il consulente legale della Commissione J. E. Rankin ha dichiarato che la signora Oswald aveva riferito «cose nuove»: «La signora Oswald ci ha detto delle cose che non avevamo sentito prima... cose decisamente nuove, nuove prove».

Uno squarcio di luce

Questa dichiarazione è stata riferita in Italia da un solo giornale, Il Messaggero di Roma. Il corrispondente da Washington del quotidiano romano, Lucio Manisco, ha inviato al suo giornale una serie di informazioni e un commento sulla prima udienza per l'interrogatorio di Marina Oswald, che recano un clamoroso quanto insperato squarcio di luce sui retroscena dell'attentato a Kennedy e dell'inchiesta sui tragici fatti di Dallas. Vi si trova una netta conferma di quanto già si sospettava due mesi or sono: tra il presunto assassino di Kennedy e i servizi segreti americani esistevano da molti anni stretti rapporti. Su questi rapporti ora sembra che la Commissione Warren abbia concentrato le sue indagini, o perlomeno una parte importante e preliminare delle sue indagini.

Secondo Il Messaggero l'avvocato Rankin ha spiegato ai giornalisti che cosa in[illegible] ti Uniti. L'Ente federale di investigazione avrebbe mantenuto costanti contatti con l'ex marine, sarebbe stato a conoscenza dei suoi spostamenti entro e fuori gli Stati Uniti, avrebbe saputo della sua presenza a Dallas, ma non ne avrebbe informato le autorità locali di polizia. Le illazioni correnti vanno più in là: "Il FBI e la CIA sarebbero stati gli Enti che avrebbero fornito e più riprese denaro all'Oswald dal 1961 all'estate del 1963. Agenti del FBI avrebbero scritto le lettere che Oswald inviava periodicamente al Comitato per una politica equa verso Cuba».

Il dossier comincia a farsi pesante. Possiamo aggiungere altri indizi, a quelli elencati dal collega Manisco. Il 25 novembre, un giorno dopo l'uccisione di Oswald, l'agente Kline, del servizio investigativo delle dogane di Laredo, alla frontiera con il Messico, dichiarò che Oswald si era recato nella capitale messicana nel mese di settembre e che i suoi movimenti erano sorvegliati su richiesta di «un ente federale di Washington».

Il 26 novembre il New York Times pubblicò un ardito editoriale in cui chiedeva che fosse fatta piena luce sull'intiera storia dell'assassinio: «Ci devono dire tutto sui motivi che hanno spinto Oswald, sulle sue attività passate e sui suoi viaggi, di quali organizzazioni ha fatto parte, con quali organi in realtà è venuto a contatto durante la sua vita, che cosa sapevano in realtà di Oswald la polizia locale e il FBI».

Ma il 27 novembre, dinanzi a questa campagna, lo stesso presidente del FBI, il «destro» Hoover, dichiarò che l'indagine poteva essere chiusa in una settimana attribuendo tutta la responsabilità dell'attentato a Oswald da cui emergeva che a New Orleans Oswald fingeva di avere una personalità politica marxista e castrista: non si capiva come, se fosse stato davvero filocastrista, avrebbe potuto ottenere in ventiquattr'ore, tra il 24 e il 25 giugno, un passaporto che negli USA viene concesso solo a chi può dimostrare di non essere comunista; e che cosa aveva fatto nel Messico? Con quali soldi vi si era recato, se era disoccupato? Perchè, nella pensione di Dallas, aveva dato un nome falso? Con chi parlava al telefono, da questa pensione, ogni giorno, in una lingua straniera? Risultava, infine, che agenti del FBI avevano interrogato la signora Paine, locataria della famiglia Oswald a Irving, quattro giorni prima dell'attentato.

Il 3 dicembre, parlando con altri giornalisti, la madre di Oswald rivelò che il sabato 23 novembre, ventiquattr'ore prima che suo figlio venisse ucciso, un agente del FBI era venuto da lei per mostrarle una fotografia del Ruby. Lei non lo aveva riconosciuto. Ma il giorno dopo, dalle fotografie dei giornali, aveva visto che era lo stesso che aveva assassinato suo figlio.

minuto arrivati i fotografi e gli operatori della televisione. Era vestita di nero, si muoveva con composta dignità. Accompagnata dal suo avvocato, John M. Thorne, e da un interprete del Dipartimento di Stato, la signora ha raggiunto quindi gli uffici del quarto piano e vi è rimasta per alcune ore con una sola breve interruzione per la colazione.

La vedova del presunto assassino di Kennedy era stata accompagnata a Washington dagli agenti del servizio segreto domenica pomeriggio. Per più di due mesi era stata mantenuta in «custodia protettiva» dallo FBI in una località segreta nei pressi di Dallas.

Tutti i tentativi fatti dai giornalisti per avvicinarla e parlarle avevano cozzato contro un vero e proprio muro del silenzio eretto intorno a lei dal «Federal Bureau of Investigation». Solo quando la stampa aveva protestato contro tale singolare procedura fu consentito alla signora di rilasciare alcune dichiarazioni alla televisione. Fu in tale occasione che la vedova Oswald ammise che i fatti posti a sua conoscenza indicavano la colpevolezza del marito.

Il supremo magistrato Earl Warren ha declinato di rispondere questa sera alle domande dei giornalisti sulla deposizione della vedova, ma ha rilasciato una dichiarazione che indirettamente conferma una delle più singolari e allarmanti voci sulla personalità e l'attività di Lee Harvey Oswald. «La testimonianza della signora — ha detto il magistrato — probabilmente non verrà divulgata durante la nostra generazione. Si tratta di una questione concernente la nostra sicurezza nazionale».

Sibilla sibillina che lascia adito a diverse ipotesi poiché la «sicurezza nazionale» è concetto vasto nel senso che ad esso possono risultare connesse in molti casi, direttamente o indirettamente, le circostanze attinenti al delitto delle quali la vedova Oswald sarebbe a conoscenza.

Tra l'altro la dichiarazione del giudice Warren potrebbe essere messa in relazione alla voce, che corre da più di un mese, secondo la quale Oswald avrebbe lavorato per la C.I.A. durante il suo soggiorno nell'Unione Sovietica e una volta ritornato negli Stati Uniti sarebbe stato impiegato più volte dallo F.B.I. con il compito di infiltrare le organizzazioni filocastriste che operano negli Stati Uniti.

L'Ente federale di investigazione avrebbe mantenuto costanti contatti con l'ex marina, sarebbe stato a conoscenza dei suoi spostamenti entro e fuori gli Stati Uniti, avrebbe saputo della sua presenza a Dallas ma non ne avrebbe informato le locali autorità di polizia. Le illazioni correnti vanno più in là: l'FBI e la CIA sarebbero stati gli Enti che avrebbero fornito a più riprese denaro allo Oswald dal 1961 alla estate del 1963. Agenti dell'FBI avrebbero scritto le lettere che lo Oswald inviava periodicamente al comitato per un equo trattamento di Cuba. Gli stessi agenti avrebbero saputo il 23 novembre u.s. che si stava per attentare alla vita dello Oswald e ne avrebbero informato in due diverse occasioni la polizia di Dallas.

LE INDAGINI PER L'ASSASSINIO DI KENNEDY

Investe la sicurezza degli Stati Uni
la testimonianza della vedova Oswald

Il Supremo magistrato Earl Warren che presiede la Commissione dinanzi alla quale è comparsa la moglie del presun assassino del Presidente ha dichiarato che la deposizione non sarà divulgata almeno « durante la nostra generazione

New York, 3 febbraio

Marina Oswald, la vedova del presunto assassino di Kennedy, è stata interrogata dai membri della Commissione Warren che da due mesi circa sta indagando sulle circostanze dell'uccisione del Presidente. La signora continuerà a deporre per l'intera settimana ma sin dalla sua prima comparsa dinanzi alla Commissione ha gettato luce su eventi e sviluppi fino ad ogni ignorati. « La signora Oswald — ha poi dichiarato il consulente legale J. R. Rankin — ci ha detto delle cose che non avevamo sentito prima... cose decisamente nuove, nuove prove ».

Il Rankin ha soggiunto che non si è trattato di rivelazioni sensazionali ma di importanti informazioni, specialmente i movimenti e l'attività di Lee Oswald dal suo rimpatrio dall'Unione Sovietica al novembre scorso.

La Commissione sta conducendo le sue indagini nel più assoluto segreto e non è stato pertanto reso noto quanto e la sostanza della deposizione odierna. Scortata da numerosi agenti del servizio segreto nella sede dell'organizzazione nazionale dei reduci delle guerre all'estero dove il giudice Warren ha stabilito gli uffici dell'inchiesta, l'attraente Marina Oswald ha posato per qualche minuto dinanzi ai fotografi ed agli operatori della televisione. Era vestita di nero, si muoveva con composta dignità. Accompagnata dal suo avvocato, John M. Thorne, e da un interprete del Dipartimento di Stato, la signora ha raggiunto quindi gli uffici del quarto piano e vi è rimasta per alcune ore con una sola breve interruzione per la colazione.

La vedova del presunto assassino di Kennedy era stata portata in una località segreta nei pressi di Dallas.

SECONDO UNA IMPLICITA AMMISSIONE DEL GIUDICE WARREN

Lee Oswald lavorava per conto dell'FBI?

Dopo l'interrogatorio di Marina Oswald, il presidente della supercommissione d'inchiesta ha dichiarato che taluni elementi connessi all'assassinio di Kennedy saranno svelati soltanto fra molti anni «nell'interesse della sicurezza dello Stato»

Dal nostro corrispondente

WASHINGTON, 5. — «Alcuni elementi connessi con l'uccisione di Kennedy non saranno resi noti per motivi di sicurezza nazionale durante la nostra vita»: questa clamorosa dichiarazione è stata rilasciata dallo stesso presidente Warren, che dirige la supercommissione incaricata di indagare sull'assassinio di Kennedy, al termine dell'ultimo interrogatorio subito lunedì scorso dalla vedova di Lee Harvey Oswald. Giungendo da una fonte di autorevole, la dichiarazione assume un particolare significato e conferma in forma ufficiale l'esistenza di oscuri retroscena nell'uccisione del Presidente degli Stati Uniti. La «facile» versione della polizia di Dallas e dello stesso FBI ne esce gravemente scossa.

In base a deduzioni molto verosimili e valendosi anche di precedenti analoghi di silenzio prolungato sull'appartenenza di civili ai servizi segreti la frase di Warren, che dovrà attendere al meno fino al 2000 prima di svelare tutta la verità sull'assassinio del Presidente, può benissimo essere interpretata come una implicita ammissione che il presunto omicida appartenesse a una delle organizzazioni ufficiali segrete degli Stati Uniti. Si osserva, infatti che il «segreto» copre appunto l'appartenenza di una persona a questi occulti servizi della nazione. Per cui, o Oswald era effettivamente un agente dell'FBI (come supposto dal noto avvocato Mark Lane), oppure egli, durante la sua ancora sempre misteriosa permanenza in URSS aveva agito per conto del CIA (il servizio americano di spionaggio).

Così si spiegherebbe anche la forzata isolamento di Marina Oswald, la quale, pur forse sapeva dell'appartenenza di Oswald a uno dei due servizi segreti statunitensi.

E' significativo, del resto, che l'FBI non abbia permesso a Marina Oswald di entrare in contatto nemmeno con la suocera, cioè con la madre di Oswald. Si apprende anche che l'intervista concessa da Marina Oswald a una stazione della TV la settimana scorsa, dopo più di due mesi di silenzio, è stata girata sotto il controllo diretto di agenti dell'FBI che hanno poi revisionato interamente il documentario filmato e tutto il nastro delle registrazioni orali.

Ora è sulla sconcertante personalità di «Ruby», l'assassino di Lee Oswald, che si concentra l'attenzione della opinione pubblica americana.

La ricostruzione delle circostanze che hanno preceduto e seguito l'assassinio di Kennedy è infatti giudicata, generalmente, piuttosto lacunosa. Si ha l'impressione che le ragioni che hanno spinto Jack Rubenstein ad uccidere Oswald siano meno complesse dal punto di vista psicologico di quelle spiegate ufficialmente, e siano quindi anche più attendibili dal punto di vista della logica. A questo riguardo si mette in rilievo negli ambienti giornalistici ameri-

Memorandum Branigan to Sullivan 2-14-64 set forth current status of investigation in Mexico relating to letter 12-2-63 directed to President Lyndon B. Johnson by Mexican department store credit investigator Pedro Gutierrez Valencia which was furnished to Legat by U. S. Embassy official in Mexico 1-23-64, for any action deemed appropriate.

Gutierrez allegedly saw individual now believed by him to have been Lee Harvey Oswald at Cuban Embassy in Mexico engaged in heated discussion with unidentified Cuban. While walking through courtyard the names Castro and Kennedy were overheard and Cuban allegedly was counting American money which he gave to Oswald as both entered Renault auto and drove away.

Investigation to date has failed to identify Cuban involved nor corroborate or disprove allegation. By cablegram 2-12-64 Legat Mexico was instructed to intensify efforts to definitely resolve this allegation and specific additional leads were set forth.

The Director noted "Press vigorously. I have not been too impressed with the thoroughness of our investigations in Mexico City nor their supervision from here. H."

In addition to specific instructions which have been furnished previously to Legat relating to individual allegations concerning Oswald's activities in Mexico, we are advising Legat of Director's observations and instructing that all leads in Mexico in the Oswald matter be given preferential and immediate attention and a daily cablegram summary be furnished regarding all outstanding investigation in Mexico relating to this matter. DAVID WOLPER, Television Producer, 8720 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, advised SA JOHN S. TEMPLE that he and members of his staff were reviewing a documentary film that his company had produced entitled "Making of the President, 1960." This film which concerned the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY, contains some film clips of KENNEDY's appearance in Houston, Texas, in September, 1960, where KENNEDY gave his famous speech on religion before the Texas Ministerial Council.

A number of individuals on WOLPER's staff were convinced that one of the spectators sitting in the front row of the large group of people in attendance to hear KENNEDY's speech was LEE HARVY OSWALD. WOLPER stated "It was either OSWALD or somebody who sure looked like him."

On 2/13/64, WOLPER Productions furnished the Los Angeles Office with a 7½ by 9½ blowup of a 16mm frame which contains a photograph of the picture whom WOLPER thought to be OSWALD. Re: Lee Harvey Oswald
Internal Security - R

A source made available the December, 1963 issue of "L'unita", a monthly and/or bimonthly newspaper printed in Italian and published in New York, New York.

A characterization of "L'unita" is attached.

An article appeared in the December, 1963 issue of "L'unita" and was translated from Italian to English as follows:

The World Is Waiting For The Truth About Kennedy's Assassination.

Also The F.B.I. Closes the Case In A Hurry.

The FBI report accusing Lee Oswald of being the man who is solely responsible for the assassination of President Kennedy has already been presented to the Department of Justice and is now in the hands of the Presidential Commission "of seven wise men" headed by Supreme Court Justice Warren. The conclusions of this report have been known for a week now. The fact that the most secretive FBI has not been able to keep the conclusions of its investigation secret (rumor has it that the investigation was concluded one week after the assassination of President Kennedy) thickened the mystery around the Dallas tragedy and added fuel to the flames of disbelief which are sweeping America and world public opinion with respect to the very conclusions of the FBI report. As a matter of fact, a public opinion poll conducted with the well-known Gallup method showed that only 29% of the Americans are willing to "swallow" the contention of the FBI which, in substance, is the same contention as was put forth by the Dallas police who were unable to protect the life of the President and even allowed the assassination, while they were holding him by the arms, of the man, who could have told a lot of things and shed a lot of light on many incredible facts.

Many are the questions marks which surround the Dallas tragedy. Many disclosures are being made, drop by drop, by hard-digging journalist from foreign countries. Among them, a detail of extreme importance was made public by the Department of Justice a few hours after the first indiscretions about the final FBI report leaked out. At 2:15 AM Sunday, November 24, an unknown man, "whose voice did not appear to be abnormal," telephoned the FBI office in Dallas to warn that an attempt would be made on the life of Lee Oswald. Upon receipt of this information, FBI Headquarters in Washington gave orders to the Federal Agent on duty, J. Gordon Shanklin, to advise the Dallas police. The agent called the police and, also, the office of the County Sheriff. He received assurances that Oswald would be protected while being transferred from the city jail to the county jail. The rest of the story is known. Now Oswald cannot defend himself from any accusations and the question marks have remained what they were.

The Governor of Texas, upon being discharged from the hospital, made a statement to the effect that there are still many unknown aspects of the case. The wounds Governor Connally suffered confirm the suspicion that not one but two shots were fired from an overhead passage and not from a window of the book storage building. There is a glaring contradiction between the earlier statements by the police and the later claim that Kennedy was killed by two of the three shots fired at his back. The FBI impounded the medical reports and categorically ordered Dr. J. J. Humes, who performed the post mortem on Kennedy, not to say anything about the results of his examination.

Re: Lee Harvey Oswald
Internal Security - R

Finally there is the above statement by Governor Connally which comes as the latest official testimony pointing to the fact that the hurried conclusions by the FBI are not to be relied upon. As is known, the Governor of Texas was sitting on one of the jump seats in front of Kennedy. He was wounded in the chest, the right wrist and the right thigh. Fully aware of what he was saying, Connally stated that the State Board of Inquiry "may shed and perhaps will shed a lot of light on many details which heretofore are unknown to the public at large." Perhaps, what he means is that he himself furnished to the board presided over by State Attorney Waggoner Carr decisive elements conducive to the reconstruction of the assassination.

Be it as it may, the wounds on his right wrist and in his chest are proofs which the FBI cannot hide. These wounds show that the shot that hit the Governor was not coming from behind: the bullet struck his chest near the stomach, pierced his wrist and lodged itself in his right thigh. Therefore, it must have come from a point located high, on the left side and facing the position of Connally. Probably, it was the same point from which the bullet was fired which struck Kennedy in the throat and lodged itself in his chest. At any rate, they cannot have come from the book storehouse which, at that precise moment, was behind the automobile. It is very likely that the two shots came from the overhead passage under which the car was about to pass and toward which the many agents escorting President rushed immediately after the shooting.

There are so many obscure points that a list is impossible. There is a hodge-podge of contradictions, bits of information which have been denied and bits of information which have not been denied, presenting a picture of confusion which seems to have been painted for the express purpose of hiding the truth.

Internal Security - R

There have been discussions and newspaper and magazine articles galore about the shame which has befallen the country because of the event. They point out that this shame is heightened, if at all possible by the liquidation of the true or accused assassin of President Kennedy by the savage practice of a semilegal lynching. However, it now seems that this country is going to hang its head in even deeper shame, should it find out that the people in our government are unable to break the silence which surrounds the reactionary and criminal plot which, as is plainly obvious, was hatched and carried out in Dallas. It looks as though the American people and the world will never know the whole truth.

The Presidential Commission Digs Deeper Than the FBI Report

The Presidential Commission which has been asked to conduct a full inquiry to find out the truth and dispel the mystery surrounding President Kennedy's assassination decided to examine one by one all the documents, information and data which have been used by the FBI to prepare its final report on the Dallas tragedy.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Mr. Earl Warren, who heads the Presidential Commission, upon conclusion of a three-hour hearing, said that the Commission intends to "go beyond" the reports submitted to the Government and added that it will not release to the press "not even a summary" of the FBI report. This means that the members of the Commission are convinced that the FBI report did not provide any reliable answers to the many questions which surround the double assassinations of President Kennedy and Lee Oswald. In other words, it means that the publication of this document may only add to the many doubts which the press and other circles have already raised.

APPENDIX

"L'UNITA"

A source on May 19, 1958, advised that "L'Unita" is the successor to the Italian language newspaper "L'Unita del Popolo." It is a pro-Communist Italian-American progressive monthly, published by a group of Italian-American Communists. The administrative Committee of "L'Unita," in March, 1958, approved a resolution and submitted it to the National Committee of the Communist Party approving the policies of that committee.

The April, 1963, issue of "L'Unita" reflects that Post Office Box 45, Cooper Station, New York 3, New York, is the address of this newspaper.

The California Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 1948, Page 225, describes "L'Unita del Popolo" as among the publications which the committee found "to be Communist initiated and controlled, or so strongly influenced as to be in the Stalin solar system."

It is noted that "L'Unita del Popolo" ceased publication on July 10, 1954.

Rojas is Mexican citizen in Mexico who volunteered information that he knew Oswald in company with unidentified Cubans and an American named Albert, were attempting to smuggle Cuban propaganda material into Mexico and reportedly plotted assassination of President Kennedy. Numerous discrepancies in his account have been developed and San Antonio has been previously instructed to conduct investigation in Nuevo Laredo regarding travels of Rojas. The above additional investigation is warranted at this time.

A review of NYO files disclosed that MIGUEL ERICE alias "Nono", referred to in anonymous letter enclosed in Buairtel to NY 1/21/64, is not identical with MICHAEL ANGEL ERICE, a newspaperman, subject of NY file 105-37297; Bufile 62-100695. For information of Dallas, anonymous letter, mentioned above, alleged that one MIGUEL ERICE, a plumber residing in basement apartment at 22 Menahan Street, Brooklyn, had been in contact with subject two weeks before the assassination. In addition, the letter contained accusations that ERICE is a Communist and pro-CASTRO.

ADMINISTRATIVE CONT'D.

NYO files did reveal, however, that MIGUEL ERICE is identical with subject of NY file 105-60263, captioned "MICHAEL ERICE aka Miguel, Mike; IS - CUBA", inasmuch as this subject is also described as a plumber residing in the basement apartment at 22 Menahan Street, Brooklyn, NY, and having the alias "Nono". Furthermore, a reference appearing in NY file 105-43196 pertaining to MIGUEL ERICE aka "Nono", same address as above, reflects that on 2/9/62, an anonymous letter was received at the NYO stating that ERICE was a member of the Communist Party (CP). Subsequent investigation in both NY files 105-60263 and 105-43196 failed to substantiate allegations re ERICE and cases were placed in a closed status.

ALBERT MORE, referred to herein as an acquaintance of MICHAEL ERICE, is believed to be identical with ALBERTO MORE, NY file 100-99188; Bufile 100-322005.

Anonymous letter dated 12/10/63, referred to herein, and furnished by LUIS MENENDEZ on 1/24/64, is being maintained in NY file 105-60263 for possible future reference.

NYO will continue to conduct investigation re subject based on information received from Bureau, office of origin - Dallas, and other offices.

DETAILS:

In connection with an anonymous letter dated January 8, 1964, and directed to the Attorney General of the United States, alleging that one MIGUEL ERICE alias "Nono" was in contact with subject two weeks prior to assassination of President KENNEDY, the following investigation was conducted by SAS JAMES O. INGRAM and JOHN JAMES O'FLAHERTY:

105-82555-2069

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On January 23, 1964, CELIDA VILLARINO, ROSA GARCIA and Mrs. M. RODRIGUEZ, all tenants at 22 Menahan Street, Brooklyn, New York, advised that MIKE ERICE, a Cuban, approximately 50 years of age, resides in the basement of the above premises and works all day as a plumber, place unknown. They stated that the superintendent of the building is JULIO GUERRA, 222 Seaman Street, New York City. They advised that to their knowledge ERICE has no telephone in his basement apartment. They were unable to furnish any additional information regarding ERICE or his political sentiments.

On January 24, 1964, MICHAEL ERICE telephonically contacted the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and advised that he is presently employed as a plumber for Ambrose and Baron, 164 Driggs Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, and that he would be available for interview by the New York Office.

Michael Erice was advised that he did not have to make any statement; that any statement he did make could be used in a court of law, and that he had the right to consult an attorney.

Erice advised he is 58 years of age, born August 12, 1905, Rodas, Cuba; entered the United States at Key West, Florida, in May, 1929; arrived in New York City, May, 1929; and became a naturalized United States citizen in approximately 1938. He stated that he is presently residing alone at 22 Menahan Street, Brooklyn, basement apartment, and has resided there ever since he became separated from his wife, Mary Erice, six years ago. His previous address was 548 West 163rd Street, New York City, where his wife presently resides with their son, Robert, age 16. Erice stated he has another son, Michael, age 20, presently in the United States Navy and stationed in either Los Angeles or San Francisco, California, and a daughter, Camil de Rochemont, husband Eugene, 399 Ocean Parkway, Brooklyn. He advised that he is a plumber by occupation and has been employed by Ambrose and Baron for the past three months. Prior to this, he was employed by Parkside Plumbing, 167th Street and Hillside Avenue, Queens, New York.

Erice stated that sometime in 1952 he purchased two real estate lots in West Babylon, Long Island, New York, with the intention of building a home thereon. He advised that in 1959 he built a home at 152 New York Avenue, West Babylon, but encountered difficulty when neighbors began to destroy his property and told him to move out of the neighborhood. He remarked that this harassment was due to the fact that the people in the area did not welcome any Spanish speaking homeowners. Erice stated that as a result of these incidents he sold his home sometime in 1959 and returned to 22 Menahan Street, Brooklyn. He commented that he has no telephone at his basement apartment on Menahan Street.

On 1/24/64 at Brooklyn, New York File # NY 105-38431

by Date dictated

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

NY 105-38431

Erice advised that he had never heard of Lee Harvey Oswald prior to the assassination of President Kennedy and denies ever knowing or being in contact with Oswald. He stated that in May, 1962, he travelled to Mexico with some friends for a one month vacation but reiterated that he has no knowledge concerning Lee Harvey Oswald.

Erice stated that he is not interested in politics and has no interest in what Castro or anyone else is doing in Cuba. He admitted that he has visited the Casa Cuba Club (CCC), New York City, on two occasions, the last time being approximately six months ago, but alleges that these visits were purely social and he never engaged in any political discussions or meetings. He advised that he is not a member of the CCC. He denied membership in any other pro-Castro or Communist organization and stated he has never participated in any picketing at the United Nations building.

Erice furnished the names of two women that he feels are his enemies in the neighborhood, namely Caridad Ortega and Maria Antonia Baluja. He stated that Baluja still resides at 22 Menahan Street and that Ortega formerly resided there but has since moved. He commented that Antonio Soto Rodriguez, 18 Menahan Street, Brooklyn, known as the "Mayor" of the block because he knows everyone, would be able to furnish Ortega's present address. Erice remarked that these two women have objected, on occasions, to some of Erice's female companions. He could offer no explanation for this apparent jealousy.

[illegible, NY]

A characterization of the CCC appears in the Appendix of this report.

On January 24, 1964, Mrs. VERLENE SOTO RODRIGUEZ, 18 Menahan Street, Brooklyn, advised that her husband was unavailable for interview. She stated that CARIDAD ORTEGA presently resides at 946 Bushwick Avenue, and MARIA ANTONIA BALUJA at 22 Menahan Street, both Brooklyn. She commented that in her opinion both of the women are extremely anti-CASTRO and pro-United States. She stated that MICHAEL ERICE has the reputation in the immediate neighborhood of being pro-CASTRO. She was, however, unable to furnish any specific information regarding ERICE's activities nor any information indicating any association between ERICE and OSWALD.

On January 24, 1964, MARIA ANTONIA BALUJA, 22 Menahan Street, Brooklyn, advised that on several occasions MIKE ERICE has voiced pro-CASTRO sentiments and in her opinion ERICE is still pro-CASTRO although she and ERICE have not been on friendly terms for almost a year. She admitted that on one occasion she manifested her dislike for ERICE by breaking his automobile window. She added that ERICE did the same to her car. She did not know whether ERICE was a member of any pro-CASTRO organization nor was she able to furnish any information pertaining to a possible association between OSWALD and ERICE.

On January 24, 1964, LUIS MENENDEZ, 18 Menahan Street, Brooklyn, brother of MARIA ANTONIA BALUJA, stated that on one occasion ERICE boasted that he was a member of the Communist Party (CP). He added that on another occasion ERICE voiced pro-CASTRO remarks. He stated that a short time after the assassination of President KENNEDY and while he was in a conversation with ERICE, the latter remarked that he thought the accused assassin was identical with a friend of his, one "Tom Oswald", who ERICE reportedly stated he knew from the CCC. MENENDEZ exhibited an anonymous letter dated December 10, 1963, written in the Spanish language, which in effect states that MIKE ERICE is a Communist and unless the tenants at 22 Menahan Street oust ERICE, the tenants will be subjected to harassment, destruction of automobiles, et cetera, until ERICE is ejected. The letter set a deadline of December 20, 1963, for ERICE's removal and in addition advised the recipient of the letter to contact the FBI and furnish any information concerning ERICE. MENENDEZ stated that every tenant at 22 Menahan Street received a copy of this letter but he was unable to furnish any information regarding the identity of the writer.

On January 27, 1964, ROSA MARIA ORTEGA also known as "Carie", 946 Bushwick Avenue, Brooklyn, N.Y. voluntarily appeared at the New York Office of the FBI and furnished the following information:

She stated that she was born in Cuba and entered the United States at New York on October 20, 1957. She advised that she likes the United States and is very anti-CASTRO although her father, ANTONIO PIEDRA MONTES DE OCA, presently in Cuba, is pro-CASTRO. She advised that one DAISY GUERRA, wife of the superintendent at 22 Menahan Street, JULIO GUERRA, informed her that on the evening of November 22, 1963, DAISY and ANNA BOSCH nee GUERRA were conversing in the kitchen of ANNA's apartment at 22 Menahan Street when ERICE entered, apparently intoxicated, and remarked to DAISY and ANNA, "If Oswald talks, what will happen to me?". She was unable to furnish any further information indicating a possible association between ERICE and OSWALD. She stated, however, that about two or three years ago ERICE told her that he was "an active member of the Communist Party", and when she suggested that he go to Russia if he likes Communism, his alleged reply was that he had "a mission here". Mrs. ORTEGA denied writing any anonymous letter to the Attorney General concerning ERICE but did admit that she had thought about it but then decided against it. She did not know whether ERICE was active in any pro-CASTRO organization but remarked that he used to associate with one MORE, a newspaperman who she believed to be a Communist.

On January 27, 1964, Mrs. ANNA BOSCH nee GUERRA, 22 Menahan Street, advised that she is acquainted with MIKE ERICE but denied that ERICE made any remarks while in her presence regarding an association with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She stated that she did not know what ERICE's political sentiments were and was unable to furnish any information concerning his activities.

On January 27, 1964, Mrs. DAISY GUERRA, 222 Seaman Street, New York City, advised that her husband JULIO is the owner of the building at 22 Menahan Street, Brooklyn. She stated that MIKE ERICE is a friend of her and her husband's and that ERICE resides in the basement apartment at 22 Menahan Street rent free inasmuch as he performs maintenance work for the various apartments at 22 Menahan Street in the absence of her husband JULIO. She advised that in her opinion ERICE is in sympathy with the CASTRO Government but she does not believe that he is active in any pro-CASTRO organization in the New York City area. She stated that ERICE did not, on the evening of November 22, 1963, or any other evening, make any remark indicating any contact or association on his part with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Michael Erice was reinterviewed regarding the alleged incident on November 22, 1963, in which he reportedly commented "If Oswald talks, what will happen to me?".

He was advised that he did not have to make any statement; that any statement he did make could be used in a court of law, and that he had the right to consult an attorney.

Erice denied making any statements concerning Lee Harvey Oswald and advised that he never knew or contacted Oswald. He also denied making any statement to the effect that he was a member of the Communist Party (CP). He remarked that his loyalty is with the United States and if there ever is a national emergency he would gladly fight for the United States against any nation, including Cuba. Erice did admit that he occasionally drinks to excess and while in this condition, he has a tendency of being loquacious to the point of exaggeration.

He stated that in approximately May, 1962, he travelled to Mexico for a one month vacation. He stated that an acquaintance of his, ALBERT MORE, had sustained a heart attack and requested Erice to drive him, his wife and mother-in-law to Mexico for a vacation.

On January 31, 1964, Robert Taber, former head of Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC), 118 West 79th Street, Apartment 10B, New York City, was interviewed regarding information alleging that he was in the company of Lee Harvey Oswald approximately three weeks after the April, 1961, Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba. NY

Taber stated that he was temporarily discharged from the military hospital in Cuba during the third week after the April, 1961, invasion. He added that despite the fact that he was using crutches, he admitted that he visited several taverns in Havana, Cuba, and in all probability, "Sloppy Joe's" was one of these. He commented, however, that while frequenting these various taverns, he had never been in the company of any individual known as Oswald. Taber stated that he never heard of Lee Harvey Oswald prior to the assassination of President Kennedy and, furthermore, based on newspaper photos of Oswald which he has viewed since the assassination, he does not recall ever meeting any individual who resembles Oswald. He stated that if he had ever met or seen Oswald, he is certain that he would have recalled such an acquaintanceship. He stated that he was not acquainted with any individual known as Lieutenant Harvey Oswald.

A characterization of the FPCC appears in the Appendix of this report.

On February 5, 1964, ALEXANDRA TAYLOR, care of YENO, Dover Plains, New York, was recontacted concerning subject and subject's wife. She furnished the following information to SA LOWELL W. BARTON:

She was unable to recall the specific date that she and her ex-husband GARY TAYLOR helped move MARINA OSWALD from Fort Worth to Dallas, other than it was sometime in the late fall, 1962.

She believed they rented the U-Haul trailer at a place on Maple Avenue, Dallas, in a yard which dealt exclusively with U-Haul trailers and which was opposite a service station. She related that MARINA originally had stayed with them for a few weeks while getting her teeth treated at a clinic in Dallas. MARINA then moved to Fort Worth to stay with a Mrs. JOHN ELENA HALL. Mrs. HALL had an accident and MARINA stayed with her for a longer period than originally intended due to the injuries suffered by Mrs. HALL. ALEXANDRA suggested the date of the move may be determined from the date of Mrs. HALL's accident.

It was ALEXANDRA's belief that OSWALD had stayed at the Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), Dallas, during the period MARINA stayed with the TAYLORS and with Mrs. HALL. She had no knowledge of any other place OSWALD may have stayed temporarily except possibly with her father, GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, and her stepmother. She related that during this period she was not on speaking terms with her father so she had no direct knowledge of whether or not OSWALD stayed with him. Her father then lived on Cooper Street in Dallas, specific address not known to her. She believed GARY TAYLOR would be able to point out the specific house.

ALEXANDRA advised that when MARINA moved into the apartment on Elsbeth Street, Dallas, LEE OSWALD also moved in with her. She suggested the possibility that the move may have been prior to November 2, 1962, and that OSWALD had occupied the apartment prior to the actual commencement of the rental period. She related this sometimes occurs in Dallas, having experienced such a situation herself. She was sure that the move most likely had occurred on a Sunday inasmuch as neither her husband nor OSWALD was working. She confirmed that they had picked up LEE OSWALD in front of the YMCA in Dallas.

ALEXANDRA stated that another person who knew LEE OSWALD was an ALEX (Last Name Unknown) (LNU), who was a suitor of Mrs. HALL and who spoke several languages, including Russian. She related ALEX often engaged in violent arguments with LEE OSWALD.

She was unable to furnish any more specific information concerning dates of the move.

On February 4, 1964, Bureau of Customs, New York City, was recontacted in an effort to determine if subject's Customs Declaration reflected any information concerning the purchase, by subject, of a Cuera-2 camera, Serial Number 627250, while subject was in Russia.

On February 4, 1964, THOMAS FARRELLY, Assistant to the Collector, Bureau of Customs, advised that under the customs regulations in effect on June 13, 1962, the date of subject's re-entry into the United States, it would have been necessary for OSWALD to have declared all articles in his possession that he purchased abroad regardless of the cost. This would, therefore, have included subject's camera referred to above.

It is to be noted that OSWALD's Customs Declaration failed to reflect a listing for any camera purchased abroad and in fact, subject did not list any articles in the declaration form.

On February 6, 1964, THOMAS FARRELLY, Assistant to the Collector, Bureau of Customs, New York City, telephonically contacted the New York Office and advised that in connection with information he previously furnished, as set forth above, concerning subject's Customs Declaration, he wished to furnish the following additional information:

He stated that inasmuch as subject was accompanied by his wife upon re-entry into the United States and as a non-resident entering the country, subject's wife would not have been required to declare any articles that she purchased abroad. The possibility existed, therefore, that a camera in their possession may not have been declared based on the technicality that the camera was the property of subject's wife and not subjects'.

He added that a husband and wife entering the country only have to prepare one Custom's Declaration Form.

APPENDIX

CASA CUBA CLUB

On July 26, 1961, a source advised that the Casa Cuba Club (CCC), 691 Columbus Avenue, New York City, was originally founded as a social club by persons of Cuban background living in the New York City area, and was generally regarded as the focal point for Cuban social activities in New York City. During the years when FIDEL CASTRO was struggling to overthrow the BATISTA government in Cuba, the general membership of the CCC was predominantly sympathetic to the revolutionary aims of CASTRO and supported CASTRO's 26th of July Movement by contributing funds and clothing for the needy and oppressed peoples of Cuba.

After CASTRO came to power in Cuba, on January 1, 1959, and it became apparent that he was establishing a Communist form of government in Cuba, the membership of the CCC gradually declined in numbers, and the loyal supporters of CASTRO, and the leaders of the 26th of July Movement, New York City, assumed leadership in the activities of the CCC.

A second source advised, on August 20, 1962, that at a CCC meeting, held on August 14, 1962, CCC member (and later Vice-President) HUGO JIMENEZ, spoke of the need to follow Marxist-Leninist policies.

On October 22, 1962, this same source advised that CCC President JOSE GARCIA, at a CCC meeting held October 17, 1962, discussed holding weekly classes or indoctrination meetings on Marxism-Leninism.

This same source also advised on a number of occasions during October-November, 1962, that the CCC participated in pickets held in New York City during that period to protest United States policy during the crisis which arose from Russian missiles being stationed in Cuba.

On March 26, 1963, a third source advised that at a CCC meeting held on March 20, 1963, CCC Vice-President HUGO JIMENEZ said the CCC should concern itself with orienting its membership in socialism and communism and prepare them for their eventual return to Cuba, to fit into the new society that is now Cuba.

APPENDIX

CASA CUBA CLUB

On May 22, 1963, the second source advised that newly-elected CCC President JUAN GONZALEZ MONAGAS announced, at a recent CCC meeting, that there would be a series of fifteen forums held at Casa Cuba during the next few months, designed to assist members in understanding the purposes of socialism.

The 26th of July Movement was a revolutionary organization founded and led by FIDEL CASTRO, present Prime Minister of Cuba. It was dissolved during 1962 when it was absorbed into the Integrated Revolutionary Organization in Cuba, along with the Communist Party of Cuba, and the other principal political parties.

1. APPENDIX

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening In Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the afore-mentioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence is negligible.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Broadway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the Fall of 1962 and was filled by VINCENT "TED" LEE, who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed LEE has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations including the CP and the SWP when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, LEE has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. LEE feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

The CP and the SWP have been designated pursuant

RE BURAD TODAY REGARDING INTERVIEW GENERAL EDWIN A. WALKER.

WALKER INTERVIEWED TODAY IN PRESENCE OF ATTORNEY, JOE MATHEWS, IN MATHEW'S OFFICE. WALKER'S REMARKS WERE RAMBLING AND AT TIMES INCOHERENT. HE STATED IN SUBSTANCE THAT THERE MUST BE COMMUNISTS IN DALLAS AND THERE WERE DIFFERENCES OF OPINION AS TO WHAT CONSTITUTED COMMUNIST ACTIVITY. IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION CONCERNING HIS ALLEGED STATEMENT THAT LEE HARVEY OSWALD WAS WORKING WITH A COMMUNIST CELL IN DALLAS, HE STATED IN EFFECT THAT MRS. MARINA OSWALD MUST HAVE BEEN A COMMUNIST BUT IT WOULD REQUIRE LOTS OF INVESTIGATION IN MINSK, RUSSIA, TO DETERMINE THIS. WALKER THEN STATED HE HAD BEEN UNABLE TO OBTAIN INFORMATION CONCERNING HIS CASE, MEANING THE ATTEMPT ON HIS LIFE, AND FROM NEWSPAPER ACCOUNTS UNDERSTOOD THE PRESIDENTIAL COMMISSION AND FBI HAD ALL INFO CONCERNING THIS MATTER. HE SAID HE INTENDED TO CONTINUE HIS PERSONAL INVESTIGATION OF THIS MATTER SINCE HE HAD RECEIVED NO REPORTS OF THIS INVESTIGATION FROM LOCAL AUTHORITIES OR FBI. AT THIS POINT, ATTORNEY MATHEWS INTERRUPTED THE INTERVIEW

Lonnie Hudkins, the reporter who wrote article in the Houston "Post" entitled "Oswald Rumored as Informant for U.S.," has refused to identify the source of his information that Oswald was on the payroll of either the Federal Bureau of Investigation or the Central Intelligence Agency. He claimed he was told this by a Government official, not a Federal official, in Dallas, Texas. He added he had talked to Assistant District Attorney Wm. Alexander re this matter.

Alexander was interviewed by SAC J. Gordon Shanklin and SA Vincent E. Drain of the Dallas Office 1-25-64, at which time he admitted contact with Hudkins. Alexander claimed Hudkins had told him he was working on a real good story, trying to prove that Oswald was an informant of the FBI, CIA or some Governmental agency and that he had learned that Oswald's address book contained the name of Agent Hosty and latter's telephone number and license number. Alexander stated Hudkins asked him if this didn't mean Oswald was an FBI informant but that he told Hudkins he didn't know anything about Oswald being an informant. He also stated that when Hudkins questioned him about Oswald's address book he told Hudkins "It looks like you have the story there."

During this same interview Alexander also stated that he had appeared before the Warren Commission 1-24-64 and had told the Commission he had no information as to Oswald being an informant for the FBI, CIA or any other Governmental agency. He added that he told Chief Justice Warren and Mr. Rankin that on the afternoon of 1-21-64 after conclusion of the bond hearing in Dallas for Jack Ruby and while the reporters were waiting for some statements from the judge, there were a number of reporters discussing the possibility that Oswald was a counterspy for the FBI, CIA or some Governmental agency. He also stated that he heard the words "special service" mentioned and remembered some reporter making the statement that Oswald was possibly on the payroll of the Government at $200 a month beginning September, 1962, and that he heard payroll #179 or voucher 179 mentioned. Alexander claimed he did not know the names of these reporters.

Memo Branigan to Sullivan
re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
IS - R - CUBA
105-82555

We reinterviewed Alexander 2-13-64 in an attempt to pin him down on his allegations that Oswald may have been a counterspy for the FBI, CIA or some governmental agency. Alexander again claimed that he overheard a group of from 5-50 reporters discussing such possibility and that he remembered hearing some reporter make the statement that Oswald was supposedly on the payroll of the Government at $200 a month beginning September, 1962, and had payroll #179 or voucher 179. Alexander stated he has no idea as to the source of this information and at the time he heard it he considered it only rumor. He claimed he was not the originator of these allegations and could furnish no information as to who the originator might be. Alexander further stated that much speculation and rumor of all kinds concerning Oswald has cropped up from time to time, but he has reached the point of not paying any attention to them. Alexander also stated that should he learn the identity of the originator of these false remarks he would immediately notify the Bureau.

OBSERVATIONS:

Dallas Office reports that Alexander was obviously shaken and was extremely nervous during its interview with him 2-13-64. Although our inquiries strongly point to Alexander as the source of the scurrilous rumors that Oswald was a counterspy for the FBI, CIA or some other governmental agency, was on the Government payroll and had payroll #179 or voucher 179, Alexander denies he is the source.

ACTION:

(1) Attached is a letter to Mr. J. Lee Rankin setting forth results of our interviews with William Alexander. By letter 2-11-64 we furnished Mr. Rankin results of our interview with Lonnie Hudkins 2-8-64 at which time Hudkins stated his story in the Houston "Post" was based upon information he received from Alexander.

(2) In accordance with the Director's instructions, SAC Shanklin of the Dallas Office has been instructed to have no more contacts with William Alexander and to be most circumspect with Henry Wade.

Dallas teletype 2-14-64 advised General Walker during radio interview 2-12-64 stated that Lee Harvey Oswald "was working with a communist cell in Dallas." Dallas was instructed to interview Walker and pin him down. The Director noted: "Okay but I hope we are right and this is not another gap. H."

Results of Dallas interview with Walker (attached) reveal Walker rambling, at times incoherent, and could furnish no information of substance. Dallas advised by teletype 2-18-64 Bureau concurs with Dallas that no further contact be had with Walker; however, if Walker contacts office to accept information furnished and advise the Bureau. Copy of Dallas report will be furnished President's Commission.

Enclosed are two Xerox copies of a news release on the letterhead of the "National Soldiers Newspaper," a German veterans organization publication which was furnished to the Bureau by Frank A. Capell, editor of "The Herald of Freedom," 56 Bay Street, Staten Island, New York. Capell has advised that he used the enclosed news release as a source in an article on the assassination of the late President Kennedy in the 1-17-64 issue of "The Herald of Freedom." Bufiles negative regarding "National Soldiers Newspaper."

Through sources available to you, you should attempt to determine if the contents of the enclosed news release appeared in the 11-29-63 issue of the "Deutsche National Zeitung" of Munich, Germany, as alleged in Capell's article or, if not, determine in what issue of the "Deutsche National Zeitung" the information did appear.

As you may be aware, information regarding Oswald's reported attempt on the life of General Edwin A. Walker in Dallas, Texas, in April, 1963, was not developed by this Bureau until several days after 11-29-63. If information regarding Oswald's attempt on General Walker's life did appear in the 11-29-63 issue of the "Deutsche National Zeitung," you should attempt to determine the original source for such information.

Submit results promptly.

as a publication devoted to combating Communism, Socialism and un-American activities, published weekly. [redacted] 94-59029). In 1943, Capell was arrested by this Bureau for accepting a $1000 bribe in violation of an order of the War Production Board and he received a sentence of a year and a day, but this sentence was suspended and he was put on probation for two years. (58-827) The 1-17-64 issue furnished to New York Office by Capell is devoted to the assassination of President Kennedy. Capell advised New York that the article was written from public source material. Bureau desires determine whether "Deutsche National Zeitung" did in fact carry story re Oswald's attempt on General Walker's life on 11-29-63 as alleged in Capell's article. New York airtel 2-12-64 furnished copies of the news release on letterhead of the "National Soldiers Newspaper" which Capell claims is a source for his 1-17-64 article.

SUBJECT: ALLEGATION THAT OSWALD WAS FBI INFORMANT
ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

[redacted] called from New York 2-11-64 and stated there appeared to be a slight build-up on the allegation that Oswald was an FBI informant. I asked him where he had received such information. He stated that he had noted articles in communist publications. He added he wanted to do an article which would completely hit this hard and knock it down once and for all. He will write his article in such a manner as to indicate the communists are specifically attempting to spread this rumor so as to destroy the fact that Oswald was a Marxist.

I told [redacted] in confidence of the statement made by the Communist Party in Italy as well as certain statements made by the Communist Party in the United States. We are attempting to get further information of a public source nature that will enable [redacted] to write his article.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation

Washington, D. C. 20530

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We have read with interest your Bureau memorandum dated January 29, 1964, entitled "Lee Harvey Oswald" and the related report of Special Agent James J. O'Connor dated January 23, 1964, both of which deal with the allegation that Oswald met a Cuban official in a restaurant and later in an automobile in Mexico City on October 2, 1963.

The Commission is of the opinion that Salvador Diaz Verson probably passed the allegation on to Angel Hernandez Varela who in turn transmitted it to Jose Ignazio Lasaga. One forward step in determining the validity of the allegation's content would seem to lie in the determination of whether the allegation originated with Verson or Edwardo Navarro.

Inasmuch as Verson is a Cuban exile, now residing at Miami, Florida, we wonder whether you would be agreeable to attempting to obtain a polygraph examination of Verson on the issue as to whether Navarro in fact passed the information to him. If, after the examination of Verson, indications develop that the allegations did not begin with the latter, but in fact were received by him from Navarro then further investigation can be centered upon Navarro.

At your convenience I would appreciate your advising me whether you share the same evaluation of the matter and the feasibility of further development by polygraph examination of Verson.

Thank you for your continuing cooperation in the work of this Commission.

Sincerely,

J. Lee Rankin

Navarro, contact Verson and inform him that at request of President's Commission we desire to ascertain if he is willing to undergo polygraph examination dealing with his receipt of the allegation from Navarro and his passing on same to Angel Varela. Should Verson indicate willingness to undergo polygraph examination, proceed with same.

Sutel results of approach to Verson and if he is agreeable as to when examination will be completed.

NOTE:

Dr. Jose Lasaga, an exiled Cuban psychologist, wrote treatise on possible psychological motivations of the assassination and furnished to White House, alleging he had reliable info that Oswald met in a restaurant on outskirts of Mexico City with Cuban Ambassador and they left together in a car for a private conversation. Lasaga said received story from Varela who obtained it from Verson who at the time of the assassination was doing investigative work in Mexico City. Verson was in Mexico City in late November attending newspaper congress and not on investigative assignment. He said he was told by Dr. Navarro, a writer for Mexican paper "Excelsior," that Oswald met with Cuban official (not the Ambassador) at the restaurant. He said Navarro made no mention of Oswald leaving in car with Cuban official. Dr. Navarro has denied furnishing any such story to Verson and Verson insists he did not tell Varela that the official was, in fact, the Ambassador. It is clear that at least from Verson to Varela to Lasaga there has been at least great embellishment and in view of the denial of Navarro that he instigated the story, it appears to us certain that it was a fabrication. However, Commission would like to polygraph Verson if he is willing to undergo same.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We understand you already have furnished the Central Intelligence Agency with the Summary Report entitled "Investigation of Assassination of President John F. Kennedy, November 22, 1963," and accompanying exhibits; the Summary Report entitled "Investigation of Killing of Lee Harvey Oswald, Dallas, Texas, 24 November 1963;" and the two Supplemental Reports to these summaries. At a conference on January 28, 1964, attended by Mr. Malley and representatives of the Secret Service and the Central Intelligence Agency, we discussed the possibility of supplying additional reports of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to the Central Intelligence Agency in order to enable that agency to be of further assistance to the Commission. It was agreed that F.B.I. reports would be made available to C.I.A. and that representatives of the two agencies would consult regarding the precautions to be taken in the use of these materials.

Accordingly, the Commission would appreciate your furnishing the C.I.A. (Attention: Mr. Richard Helms) copies of the following reports:

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated January 31, 1964, wherein you itemized communications prepared by the FBI which should be furnished to the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). Separately, CIA is being furnished with a copy of all the communications mentioned in your letter, in addition to all reports under the Oswald caption prepared in our Dallas Office.

With regard to a communication captioned "Oswald Trip to Mexico," dated December 23, 1963, we are forwarding to CIA a memorandum captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald," dated December 23, 1963, which contained information relative to Oswald's trip to Mexico. It is believed that this is the pertinent document.

With regard to correspondence carried on by Lee Harvey Oswald with persons in the Soviet Union, as you know, some of this correspondence is currently being fully translated at your request and upon completion of this translation, copies of the pertinent letters will be furnished to CIA.

As you requested, this Bureau will furnish CIA communications on a current basis which fall into the general areas outlined in your letter.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: In order to furnish all reports of interviews of Mrs. Marina Oswald to CIA, it is necessary to furnish all DL reports. We are forwarding to CIA the complete reports rather than only itemized pages from these reports since it is more feasible to handle dissemination in this manner. This was done in line with the Director's comments: "Let them have everything and do it promptly so CIA can't blame delay on us."

Mr. Rankin's letter requested info re Oswald's Mexican trip, his subversive activities in the U.S.; his trip to Russia be furnished to CIA on a current basis.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of February 7, 1964, sent in response to my letter of February 4, 1964, requesting a detailed description of the so-called evidentiary facts upon which the Bureau based its ultimate conclusions that (a) Q1, Q2, and Q3, a bullet and bullet fragments, were fired from K1, the rifle, (See Special Agent Gemberling's report dated November 30, 1963, at pages 162-164); (b) Q6 and Q7, two cartridge cases, were fired in K1 (See Special Agent Gemberling's report dated November 30, 1963, at pages 162-164); (c) Q48, a cartridge case, was fired in K1 (See Special Agent Gemberling's report dated December 10, 1963 at pages 333-334); and (d) Q74-77, four .38 Special cartridge cases, were fired in K3, the revolver (See Special Agent Gemberling's report dated December 10, 1963, at page 351).

The Commission, myself and the staff are faced with the problem of eventually making a public explanation which can be readily understood in concrete evidentiary terms rather than by expert conclusion, much in the same manner as ballistic evidence and testimony of experts is demonstrated to a lay jury. We would therefore appreciate it if you could set forth, in detail, a comparison of the markings on the fired bullet and cartridges with the test bullets and cartridges.

The identification of the bullet and the two portions of bullet jacket is based on a comparison of microscopic marks left on these specimens with microscopic marks left on test bullets fired from Oswald's rifle. The microscopic marks are the result of the bullet scraping over the inside of the barrel of the rifle when it is fired. The marks in the barrel originate as the result of manufacturing processes and as a result of changes in these manufacturers' marks through subsequent use of the weapon and from corrosion of the barrel. In general, when a gun barrel is made, it is bored and reamed. This operation produces circular microscopic marks on the inside of the barrel. Spiral grooves or rifling grooves are then cut or pressed into the barrel, removing some of the circular scratches and in turn leaving minute scratches from the cutting edge or surfaces of the rifling tool. Because of the manner in which the barrel is made, the pattern of scratches in each barrel manufactured will be different. Experience has shown that no two barrels, even consecutive barrels made on the same machine, will produce the same intricate pattern of microscopic marks on the surfaces of bullets fired through them. The marks themselves are not subject to verbal description because of their nature. Further, identifications are based on orientation of the marks as well as on their shape and size rather than on the number of marks present. The bullet, C1, and two portions of bullet jacket, C2 and C3, recovered in connection with the assassination of President Kennedy possessed microscopic marks comparable to those on test bullets obtained from Oswald's rifle. To determine whether or not the microscopic marks on the evidence and test bullets were comparable, a comparison microscope was used. This microscope is so constructed that the fields of view from two microscopes are optically brought together so that the firearms examiner can see the surfaces of two different objects at the same time side by side. In this way the magnified surfaces of two bullets can be directly compared.

The bullet fragment, C3, was placed on the left side of the comparison microscope and a test bullet which had been fired from the gun, C 14, into a cotton-filled box to protect any barrel markings left on it, was placed on the right side of the microscope. Whether or not two bullets were fired from the same barrel can be determined only as the result of a microscopic comparison such as described above by a firearms identification specialist trained in this type of laboratory examination. In this case, independent examinations by several of the top firearms identification specialists in the FBI Laboratory resulted in identical, independent conclusions that the bullet fragment, C3, was fired from Oswald's rifle.

Similar microscopic examinations were made in which specimens C1 and C2 were compared with test bullets obtained from Oswald's rifle. As a result of these examinations, it was concluded that specimens C1 and C2 were also fired from Oswald's rifle. Enclosed are photographs showing some of the microscopic marks appearing on the C1, C2 and C3 bullet evidence and some of the marks appearing on a test bullet obtained from the C14 rifle. These photographs in no way entered into the conclusion reached by the firearms identification specialists but are enclosed merely for demonstrating the character of the marks present on the specimens.

The identification of cartridge cases as having been fired in a particular weapon is based on the examination of marks left on cartridge cases by the breech face or bolt and by the firing pin of the weapon. The marks on the weapon are impressed into the head of the cartridge due to the pressure of the explosion which forces the cartridge case to the rear. These marks originated in the weapon during the manufacture when the face of the breech or bolt is formed by machining or filing and when the firing pin is shaped in manufacture by filing, machining or polishing or by subsequent wear and corrosion of these parts. It has been found that no two firing pins nor two bolt or breech faces bear the same microscopic marks even though consecutively manufactured. Each cartridge fired in a particular weapon will be marked in such a way that it may be possible to identify the cartridge case with the weapon in which it was fired.

The three 6.5 mm. cartridge cases, C6, C7 and C38, recovered in the Texas School Book Depository Building were compared with test cartridge cases fired in Oswald's rifle. The comparisons were made by placing the three cartridge cases, C6, C7 and C38, individually on the left side of the comparison microscope and a test cartridge case obtained from Oswald's rifle, C14, on the right side of the comparison microscope. The magnified images of the breech face marks and firing pin marks on specimens C6, C7 and C38 were compared with the marks on the test cartridge case. It was concluded as a result of these comparisons that specimens C6, C7 and C38 were fired in Oswald's rifle. Again in this instance the identifying marks are not subject to verbal description because of their nature, orientation, shape and size. Whether or not two cartridge cases were fired in the same weapon can only be determined as the result of a microscopic comparison of the marks by firearms identification specialists trained in this type of Laboratory examination. Enclosed is a photograph showing some of the breech face marks appearing on specimen C6 and some of the marks appearing on the test cartridge case from the rifle, C14. This photograph in no way entered into the conclusion reached by the firearms identification specialists but is enclosed merely for demonstrating the character of the marks present on the specimens.

Similarly, the four .38 Special cartridge cases, C47, C48, C49 and C50, were microscopically compared in the same manner as described above with test cartridge cases fired in Oswald's revolver, C15. As the result of these microscopic comparisons, specimens C47, C48, C49 and C50 were identified as having been fired in Oswald's revolver, C15.

Enclosed for illustrative purposes only is a photograph showing a portion of the breech face marks present on specimen C48 and on the test cartridge case from C15. This photograph in no way entered into the conclusion reached by the firearms identification specialists but is enclosed merely for demonstrating the character of the marks present on the specimens.

SYNOPSIS

Purpose of memorandum is to explore allegation Lee Harvey Oswald was FBI informant and related points covered by President's Commission last week during appearance before Commission of Henry Wade, District Attorney of Dallas County, Texas, and to set forth pursuant to Director's request (1) procedures we use in development and control of FBI informants, (2) the system used in handling informants in Special Intelligence Service (SIS) program, and (3) details concerning Wade's SIS service while in the FBI.

Contrary to testimony, Oswald was never FBI informant, was never paid money for information and was never assigned any symbol number. Procedures we use in informant program preclude the possibility of Oswald's connection with FBI as an informant without knowledge of Seat of Government.

We closely supervise all aspects of informant program. Field offices cannot develop security informants without Bureau authorization, which is based on exhaustive background investigation to determine reliability, trustworthiness and stability.

When we do authorize, we follow informant's development through progress letters which field offices submit at four-month intervals.

5 FEB 24 1964

We approve use of symbols and code names, maintain an index of these and none may be used twice by the same field office.

We authorize payments on regular basis and maintain current records of every expenditure made showing to whom made and why.

SAC has only limited authority to make payments without Bureau authority in certain instances and we control this by limiting amount, and by end-of-month accounting procedure which lists all such payments, to whom made, and for what purpose.

These procedures enable us to apply a cross check to our operations. Our records show (1) no payments were listed to Oswald, (2) no symbol number was assigned him, and (3) no field office requested authorization to consider Oswald for development as informant--a necessary requisite in our program.

We have already informed Commission purpose of three interviews Bureau Agents had with Oswald prior to assassination and one interview afterward. During none of these were any efforts made to develop Oswald as an informant and we have secured affidavits from every Agent in contact with Oswald at any time which substantiate this fact. We have also secured affidavits from their respective Special Agents in Charge (SAC's). These affidavits will be available in event Director desires to furnish them to the Commission.

In regard to SIS program, we had a control system whereby we have records of payments to informants similar to records maintained under our present domestic informant program.

Henry Wade served in undercover capacity under SIS program from August, 1942, to April, 1943, and did not have unlimited funds for informant development. He was required to account strictly for his expenditures and did so. Copies of the vouchers and receipts he submitted are available.

A brief of Wade's Bureau service record has been prepared separately for the information of the Director.

It would be desirable to furnish President's Commission with facts which clearly and unequivocally refute allegation that Oswald was a paid informant for the FBI operating with a symbol number. We should point out desirability of Commission issuing statement at once refuting allegation because (1) Communist Party has been carrying on propaganda campaign to spread this allegation; (2) allegation has developed enough interest to warrant even Commission's inquiry; and (3) if allegation goes unrefuted it will gain increasing public acceptance and prove damaging not only to FBI but Government as a whole.

I do not agree in asking Commission to issue statement

Should Commission refuse to act, we should follow accepted policy of meeting such lies head on and issue statement ourselves. We can do so without referring to testimony before Commission since allegation has appeared in public source publications, notably communist press.

Prepare statement for me which Bureau may issue. Done - memo 2/4/64 CDB

RECOMMENDATION:

That this memorandum be referred to Director for information and approval of proposal to have statement issued either by President's Commission or by us if Commission declines.

Memorandum Mr. W. C. Sullivan

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

DETAILS

Background

Reference is made to the discussion January 28, 1964, between the Director and Mr. J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel of the President's Commission, concerning appearance before the Commission last week of Henry Wade, former FBI Agent who currently is the District Attorney of Dallas County, Texas.

According to Rankin, the Commission was advised that speculation had been made that Lee Harvey Oswald had been an FBI informant with symbol number 179 and had been receiving payments from the FBI in the amount of $200 monthly.

Wade reportedly told the Commission Oswald could have been active in this capacity without FBI headquarters personnel knowing about it because of the manner in which informants are developed and handled. In support of this contention, Wade is said to have pointed to his own experiences in the FBI, specifically in regard to his service in South America (in the Special Intelligence Service (SIS) program), when, allegedly, records of his activities were not maintained, and he did not have to account for money furnished him to develop and pay informants.

Purpose

The purpose of this memorandum is to explore these specific allegations and to set forth, pursuant to the Director's request, (1) the specific procedures we use in the development and control of our security informant program, (2) the system used in handling informants in SIS program years ago, and (3) details concerning Wade's SIS service while he was employed as a Special Agent of the FBI.

Memorandum Mr. W. C. Sullivan
to Mr. A. H. Belmont
RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

I. Development and Control of Security Informants

First, it can be said unequivocally that Lee Harvey Oswald was never an FBI informant, was never paid any money for furnishing information, and was never given a symbol number of any kind much less the specific one allegedly assigned him. Furthermore, we are in a position not only to state this but also to produce records which would prove the impossibility of such being the case. These records cover every aspect of the procedures used in the development and control of informants.

Informant Program Closely Supervised

In order to fulfill our responsibilities in the internal security field, we use security informants to penetrate the Communist Party (CP), USA, and keep us advised of the Party's plans and activities. Recognizing the importance of this phase of our operations, we afford close supervision at the Seat of Government (SOG) to the security informant program and have established safeguards to insure against any misuse or abuse of its operation by our field offices.

Bureau Authority Necessary

Our field offices cannot develop anyone as a security informant without authorization from the SOG. To obtain this authorization, they must conduct an exhaustive background investigation of the prospective informant, the results of which are analyzed at the SOG before approval for development is given. Prior to giving such approval, the SOG automatically eliminates as a prospective informant any individual with questionable factors in his background, such as evidence of mental instability, a dishonorable discharge from the armed forces, narcotic addiction, perversion, unusual credit risks, complicated marital or domestic situations, and the like.

Progress Letters Necessary

When we do authorize a field office to proceed with the development of an individual as an informant, we follow the development through progress letters. At the end of four months, and at four-month intervals thereafter, the field office must submit progress letters containing an informative summary of information furnished and assistance rendered by the individual under development. These include a current certification each time concerning the individual's stability and reliability.

Symbols and Code Names Assigned

As the individual develops, he is assigned a permanent symbol number and code name to afford him security. The informant never knows the symbol number assigned to him. It is a number permanently assigned to him, and the same number cannot be used again by the field office under any circumstances for any other individual. The individual also is given a fictitious or cover name by the field office which he, of course, is made aware of and he affixes it to his communications with the office. Every symbol number and code name is indexed here at the SOG.

SOG Authorizes Regular Payments

If the services of an informant warrant payment on a regular basis, the field offices must also obtain authorization from the SOG to make such payments. In every such case, this too is re-evaluated every four months at the SOG to determine if continued payments are warranted.

Special Agents in Charge (SACs) Authority Limited

SACs of our field offices are authorized to make payments to individuals not utilized on a regular basis as informants, but here too the SOG controls this by limiting the amount an SAC can pay to any one individual in this category to $200. SACs are under instructions to make such payments only in specific instances in which it is necessary and expedient to do so to obtain information concerning matters or persons under investigation when such information is not otherwise obtainable or when it is necessary to advance expense money to an individual to enable him to secure the information.

Controls in Effect

The SOG maintains additional control of such payments by the SAC in several ways. Such payments can only be made to individuals who have never been paid on a regular basis for services or expenses with Bureau authorization; such payments cannot exceed $200, regardless of the number of payments; and such payments must be accounted for by the field offices at the end of each month through the submission of a detailed accounting to the SOG.

Funds Accounted For

When payments are made to anyone for information or assistance, either on the SAC's authority or on prior Bureau authority, receipts must be obtained in every instance in which it is possible to so obtain them. If a receipt cannot be obtained for a particular payment, complete circumstances concerning the payment must be set forth by the field office on a voucher at the time reimbursement is claimed at the end of the month. Receipts must clearly show: (1) the date on which the payment was made; (2) the period for which made; (3) the total amount paid, broken down into separate amounts for services and expenses; (4) the name of the FBI Agent making the payment; and (5) the signature of the person receiving the money.

Records of Expenditures Maintained

Receipts and vouchers prepared by field offices in this regard are transmitted to the SOG generally on a monthly basis (more frequently in many instances). They are reviewed to insure that all such payments are being made in accordance with Bureau instructions and are recorded in ledgers pertaining to each field office operation.

It is to be noted that the Bureau's precise handling of such matters is demonstrated every time an informant, a former informant, or other persons to whom we have paid sums of money are prospective witnesses. In such cases, we must and do furnish the Department a set of photostats of the original receipts signed by the prospective witnesses.

Control Measures

In regard to control of informants, field offices are under instructions to maintain close contact with them. The informants must be contacted as often as necessary with at least one personal contact every two weeks. The net result of these close contacts, as previously noted, are evaluated at the SOG in the four-month progress letters submitted. When it is necessary for any reason to discontinue the services of an informant, the field office must promptly notify the SOG.

Oswald Precluded as Informant

It can readily be seen then how such policies and procedures completely preclude the possibility of Lee Harvey Oswald even being considered as an FBI informant much less having been developed as one by us. The statement that he was is, in fact, ridiculous. The CP, USA, through its press has been spreading this outrageous lie in order to divert attention from the fact that Oswald was a confessed Marxist who was active in support of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) (a pro-Castro organization) and who was in correspondence with the CP, USA.

Nature of Contacts with Oswald

As we have already pointed out to the Commission, the only contacts FBI Agents had with Oswald prior to the assassination of President Kennedy involved three interviews Bureau Agents had with him. The first was on June 26, 1962, at Fort Worth, Texas, shortly after his return home from the Soviet Union. The purpose was to assess the possibility of his having been given intelligence assignments by the Soviets. The second, on August 16, 1962, was in the same connection. The third was at his specific request on August 10, 1963, following his arrest in New Orleans the preceding day on a charge of disturbing the peace and creating a scene. At that time, he described some of his activities in connection with the FPCC.

Affidavits Secured

Oswald was again interviewed by FBI Agents at the Dallas Police Department following his arrest after the assassination of the President. This interview was aimed at eliciting any admissions he might make in connection with the assassination, as well as to obtain any information he might have been able to furnish of a security nature.

During none of the interviews with Oswald by Bureau Agents were any efforts made to develop him as an informant. We have obtained affidavits from every Agent who was in contact with Oswald. In addition, we also have secured affidavits from their respective SACs. These affidavits show that none of the FBI Agents ever made any effort to develop Oswald as an informant. These affidavits will be available in the event you desire to furnish them to the Commission.

II. Handling of Informants Under SIS Program

With regard to the handling of informants under the SIS program, file review shows that as a result of a control system then in effect we do have a record of payments made, the identities of informants and Agents handling them, and receipts for payments. In the few instances where informants refused to sign receipts, Bureau was furnished all other data and record was still made of payment and informant who received same.

III. Henry Wade's SIS Service

Mr. Henry M. Wade entered on duty as a Special Agent on December 4, 1939, and resigned September 1, 1943, to enter the Armed Forces. He was in Ecuador for eight and one-half months (undercover), beginning August 16, 1942. We received from SIS agents a periodic summary on informants in Ecuador. Such a list was furnished by Wade on September 23, 1942, a few weeks after his arrival in Quito. This was supplemented by other letters from Wade on November 5, 1942; February 26, 1943; and April 5, 1943, and a complete list of all informants handled by him, listing the disposition of each, prepared April 30, 1943, before his departure from Ecuador. In these, Wade indicated the amount being paid to each informant and his intentions to continue such payments as justified by services received. Wade had eleven informants, paid ten of them, and his vouchers for this period clearly show amounts paid to each and list receipts obtained.

Funds Handled by Wade in SIS

Concerning funds handled by Wade, he was required to account for his expenditures and reclaim them by voucher, as mentioned above. In July, 1942, he did receive an advance of $1,075. This money was not primarily for operational expenditures but for subsistence and travel in connection with his assignment. His passage from New Orleans to Guayaquil, Ecuador, for example, cost over $500. Wade was required to make full restitution of this advance and completed repayment on June 28, 1943.

Therefore, it can be seen that Wade did not have unlimited funds for the purpose of developing sources, was required to strictly account for expenditures made and did furnish such an account, supported by receipts. Copies of Wade's vouchers and receipts submitted have been prepared and are available for delivery to the Commission if such action is desired.

A brief of Wade's complete Bureau service record has been prepared separately for the Director's information.

OBSERVATIONS

It is definite that we have all the facts to clearly and unequivocally refute the wild and ridiculous allegations that Lee Harvey Oswald was a paid informant for the FBI and operated with a symbol number. It would be desirable to furnish these facts to the President's Commission and point out that in the interest of setting the record straight, the Commission should issue a statement refuting these allegations.

It could be pointed out to the Commission that this is important for several reasons. Less than two weeks after the assassination, the communist press began a campaign to develop the idea that Oswald was an FBI informant and that, as an agent of the Government, he assassinated President Kennedy. The story has developed enough interest to result in calling individuals before the Commission to inquire into it. If the allegations continue unchallenged and unrefuted, there is bound to be increasing acceptance of them on the part of the public -- an acceptance that will prove damaging not only to the FBI but to the Government as a whole.

Should the Commission refuse to issue a statement refuting the allegations, we should inform the Commission we intend to issue such a statement. We should point out that the allegations are not confined to testimony before the Commission but have appeared publicly, notably through the campaign of the CP to hammer away on these points. As a result, we are free to deal with the allegations as we see fit.

Memorandum Mr. W. C. Sullivan Confidential
to Mr. A. H. Belmont
RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

We should point out to the Commission that it has always been our policy to face such allegations head on and we intend to follow the same policy in this matter if the Commission will not take prompt and effective action. If we do not do this, remaining silent, attacks against us in the press on this point may increase. Our silence will be taken as an admission of guilt. Six months from now when the Commission issues its report, the falsehood will be so widely distributed that it will be much more difficult to refute it.

Re: Lee Harvey Oswald

On February 7, 1964, Miss Rosalynd Laidler, telephonically advised Mr. ~~Rakin of the Warren Commission at his home in New York City~~ that she had seen Lee Harvey Oswald in Brooklyn, New York, approximately one year ago.

On February 8, 1964, Miss Laidler was contacted at her home, 982 Garfield Place, Brooklyn, New York.

Mrs. Agnes Laidler, mother of Rosalynd, advised that she tried to stop her daughter from making a phone call to Mr. Rakin and advised that there was no truth to her statements. Mrs. Laidler advised that her daughter is thirty years of age, and is mentally unbalanced. She stated that her daughter has been receiving psychiatric treatment for the past ten years and is always imagining things.

Miss Rosalynd Laidler stated that she had seen Lee Harvey Oswald on Fulton and Jay Streets, Brooklyn, New York, when he was giving out pamphlets for The Fair Play For Cuba Committee one year ago. She stated she overheard him talking to an unknown male. Oswald stated that he was unhappy with President Kennedy and had bought a rifle from a mail order house in Chicago, Illinois and was going to kill the President. Miss Laidler then became very incoherent and irrational at which time the interview was brought to a conclusion as it was evident she was very upset.

RE: ALBERT OSBORNE, aka JOHN HOWARD BOWEN

Re Bureau airtel to New Orleans and Portland 1/28/64, furnished New Orleans photographs of BOWEN - OSBORNE.

Enclosed for Charlotte are two (2) photographs, one (1) of "ALBERT OSBORNE" and one of "JOHN HOWARD BOWEN" taken 2/3/64, by the Birmingham Office.

For the information of Charlotte, OSBORNE - BOWEN is believed to have sat next to OSWALD on the bus trip from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City on 9/26-27/63. BOWEN has denied he is identical to OSBORNE, although several people have positively identified him as being identical.

In efforts to locate OSBORNE - BOWEN, investigation was conducted in Mexico where it was determined that at a residence of BOWEN on 1/21/64 there was noted a letter addressed to him from "The Beam", 6248 Camp Bowie, Fort Worth, Texas.

On 2/18/64, Mr. JIM JOHNS, Southern Baptist Radio & Television, 6248 Camp Bowie Boulevard, Fort Worth, Texas, advised that "The Beam" is a monthly religious magazine published by this organization, and is distributed mainly in the Southern and Southwestern parts of the United States.

This deals with Albert Osborne, aka John Howard Bowen, fellow passengor of Oswald during Red Arrow bus trip from Neuvo Laredo to Mexico City 9-26-63. Enclosed for Memphis is one copy each of Buairtel to Indianapolis 1-27-64, Legat, Mexico City, cable dated 1-27-64, Birmingham airtel 2-11-64, San Antonio tel 2-17-64 and copy of Buairtel to Legat, London, 2-6-64. Also enclosed are photographs of John Howard Bowen in sun helmet, Osborne-Bowen in suit standing in front of stone building, Albert Osborne taken in connection with 1-53 Caradian passport application, Albert Osborne taken in connection with 10-63 Canadian passport application, John Howard Bowen standing full face with glasses and profile taken at Florence, Alabama, Resident Agency 2-8-64.

The Osborne-Bowen in whom we are interested was interviewed 1-7-64 by Legat, Mexico City, at Texmelucan, Mexico. He admitted identity of Osborne and furnished false information regarding travels in U. S. of Bowen. On interviews at Florence, Alabama, and at Laredo, Texas, 2-8 and 2-16-64, respectively, he maintained he was John Howard Bowen and furnished false information concerning his activities since 10-1-63.

Walter Osborne and Mrs. Lillie Featherstone, brother and sister of Osborne, state he was born at Grimsby, England, and visited them in England in 11-63. They identified the first four photographs described herein as pictures of their brother. Walter

Osborne has corresponded with his brother at Laredo, Texas, in care of John H. Bowen. Several witnesses have advised that they know Osborne under both the Osborne-Bowen identities.

Legat, Mexico City, advises that American Express there on 2-22-64 received letter from Bowen postmarked 2-19-64, Nashville, Tennessee, return address in care of Central YMCA, 226 Seventh Avenue, Nashville. He requested his first class mail be forwarded to above address.

Reinterview Osborne-Bowen. Press him for full specifics concerning nature of his activity since 6-62 and with particular reference to period from 9-26-63 to date. Develop full identifying data including date and place of birth, citizenship status, identity of all living relatives. Develop specifics concerning his training for the clergy and nature of his missionary work. Ascertain why he has used dual identity and why he was untruthful during the three previous interviews. Question him concerning his application on 10-10-63 for Canadian passport at New Orleans under name Albert Osborne. Interview of Osborne-Bowen is to be handled by mature, experienced agents who are to definitely pin him down regarding points as indicated above and regarding his recollection of fellow passengers on bus trip in question. Note in this regard that while he maintains all fellow passengers were Mexicans there were at least six English-speaking passengers in addition to Oswald and himself on bus in question. Memphis handle interview earliest possible date. Sutel results to Bureau and Dallas. Fingerprints of Bowen taken 2-8 last at Florence, Alabama, reveal he is identical to John Howard Bowen who was printed in 1935 by Bureau Field Office Nashville for identification purposes and by Houston Police Department 12-18-53 under number 64246 for investigation. Was described as born Chester, Pennsylvania, 1887. Houston instructed by teletype today to check on 1953 arrest.

Enclosed for Legat, Mexico City, is one copy each of San Antonio teletype 2-17-64 and Birmingham 2-11-64 airtel. Legat handle logical investigation as a result of interviews of Bowen per enclosures.

Specimens received 2/17/64, from Legat, Ottawa :

Q493 One-page typewritten letter bearing heading "Emilio Carranza 4-a Texmelucan, Pue. M E X I C O." addressed to "Central Y.M.C.A. Montreal, Canada." beginning "Dear Sir- If you have...." and signed "Albert Osborne"

Result of examination:

The typewriting on Q493 matches most closely the Laboratory standard for an Underwood pica style of type spaced ten letters per inch. This typewriting was not identified in the Anonymous Letter File and a photograph of the typewriting will be added to this file.

The typewriting on Q493 was not identified with any of the previous typewriting in this case.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

On February 19, 1964, WF T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Marina Oswald, wife of the accused assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, and her party stayed at the Willard Hotel, Pennsylvania Avenue and 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., during the recent period when she testified before the Presidential Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy. By her party, WF T-1 meant her child, a nurse, Secret Service Agents, a Mr. John Thorne, and a Mr. Jim Martin. WF T-1 stated that Thorne was reported to him as her lawyer, while Martin described himself to WF T-1 as her business manager.

WF T-1 stated that the Abraham Lincoln Suite had been arranged for Mrs. Oswald through the United States Secret Service; that this suite consists of rooms 301-2 and room 345. He explained that the suite is entered from the hotel hallway into a small alcove or hallway; that off this alcove to the left is room 345 with two beds, and to the right 301 and 302, a combination bedroom and adjoining living room space. The two bedrooms face each other across the common alcove. Entrance to the suite, however, can only be gained through the common entrance from the hotel hallway. Occupants of the suite control access through this common entrance as well as to the individual rooms within the suite.

WF T-1 advised that registration E4246 in the name of Tom Kelley, Secret Service, was arranged for Marina Oswald for rooms 301-2 of the suite. A date stamp disclosed she registered at 9:23 a.m. on February 2, 1964. A date stamp also revealed her departure from the hotel at 9:41 a.m. on February 9, 1964.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

WF T-1 advised that registration E4247 in the name of Tom Kelley, Secret Service, revealed that room 345 was assigned to unnamed Secret Service Agents; that a date stamp indicated registration at 9:23 a.m. on February 2, 1964. A date stamp on the reverse indicated that departure was at 12:55 p.m. on February 7, 1964.

WF T-1 advised that room 345 was occupied by two Secret Service Agents; that registrations E4286 and E4285 pertain to these two agents and actually are clarifications of registration E4247. WF T-1 advised that Registration Number E4286 in the name of William Carter, Little Rock, Arkansas, revealed he occupied room 345. The time of departure stamped on the reverse is 12:55 p.m., February 7, 1964. WF T-1 advised that Registration Number E4285 in the name of Bob Jamison, Miami, Florida, revealed he occupied room 345. The time of departure stamped on the reverse side is 12:55 p.m., February 7, 1964. No in stamp of registration appeared on E4286 and E4285, but WF T-1 said that the date stamp on registration E4247 of 9:23 a.m., February 2, 1964, applied to them; that they came in with Mrs. Oswald. WF T-1 said that registrations E4235 and E4286 bore a notation that they were associated with the Secret Service.

Thus, WF T-1 pointed out, these two Secret Service Agents checked out of room 345 on the morning of February 7, 1964. He said he had learned that the Secret Service exercised responsibility for Mrs. Oswald only during the period she testified before the Commission.

WF T-1 believed that a nurse stayed with Mrs. Oswald and her child during the period of her testimony; that because of the fact that there was no separate billing for this woman, he believed she was utilized by the Secret Service; that she departed the same time they did. WF T-1 said nurse occupied one of beds in same room as Mrs. Oswald, he believed. Mrs. Oswald's child slept in a crib moved into the suite.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

WF T-1 said that Mrs. Oswald's registration revealed that she did not check out according to a departure stamp thereon until 9:41 a.m. on February 9, 1964.

WF T-1 said that registration number E4310 in the name of Jim Martin, 11611 Farrar, Dallas, Texas, revealed a stamped arrival of 8:00 p.m., February 2, 1964. According to this record, Martin was originally assigned room 633. He subsequently moved to room 625. Then according to a room change or change of rate slip he moved from 625 to room 345 in the Abraham Lincoln Suite on February 7, 1964 at 5:19 p.m., as indicated by a date stamp on the slip. The time of departure stamped on the reverse of the registration form is 2:02 p.m. on February 9, 1964.

WF T-1 said that registration card E4311 for John M. Thorne, 302 W. College, Grand Prairie, Texas, revealed a date stamp showing he checked in at 8:01 p.m. on February 2, 1964. Thorne was originally assigned to room 632, moved to room 618, and then to room 345 of the Abraham Lincoln Suite. According to a room or rate change slip dated February 7, 1964, Thorne moved to 345 from 618 on that date. Although there is no time stamp on this slip, WF T-1 said the change was undoubtedly at the same time as Martin's since the same clerk's name appears on both slips. The time of departure stamped on the registration card reverse is 2:02 p.m., February 9, 1964. No further change of rooms was indicated for Marina Oswald, Martin or Thorne, WF T-1 said.

WF T-1 said that the Presidential Commission was billed for expenses of Mrs. Oswald until the departure of the Secret Service Agents on February 7, 1964. Her subsequent expenses of about $95.00 were billed to: Mr. Jim Martin, Box 1407, Prairie, Texas. Thorne's entire expenses were billed in the same manner.

WF T-1 said he had gained the impression from the way Mrs. Oswald looked at her business manager, Martin, that she was "sweet" on him. He remarked to an unrecalled Secret Service Agent that Mrs. Oswald seemed to be enamored with Martin, and the latter remarked, as if in agreement, that he felt sorry for Martin's absent wife. WF T-1 said the housekeeper who handled the suite in question said that Martin and Mrs. Oswald always seemed to be together whenever she was around the suite. WF T-1 said he had no further information in this respect. He did mention that Martin was quite attentive to her child while they were at the hotel, but thought part of this was for publicity effect.

WF T-1 said he had received no complaints whatsoever pertaining to Mrs. Oswald's stay at the hotel. He said that a complaint of any nature would have been brought immediately to his attention.

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated February 18, 1964, requesting appropriate investigation to develop all circumstances surrounding the incident involving Marina Oswald and James Herbert Martin. Reference is also made to our letter dated February 19, 1964, concerning interviews of Marina Oswald on February 17 and 18, 1964.

There is enclosed a memorandum dated February 20, 1964, setting forth the results of our interrogation of Marina Oswald on February 19, 1964, concerning the Martin incident. There is also enclosed a copy of a February 19, 1964, memorandum setting forth the results of inquiries conducted at Washington, D. C., concerning the residence at the Willard Hotel of Marina Oswald, Martin and John H. Thorne. Copies of the enclosed memoranda are being furnished to the U. S. Secret Service.

ENCLOSURE

Our interview of Marina Oswald is continuing and further details will be furnished to you as received. In this connection, Mr. William A. McKenzie, Mrs. Oswald's attorney, has requested that Mrs. Oswald not be reinterviewed until his return to Dallas, probably on Friday, February 21, 1964. Accordingly, we will attempt to continue our interrogation of Mrs. Oswald when Mr. McKenzie returns to Dallas.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

T. C. D.

Marina Oswald was interviewed on February 19, 1964, concerning her relationship with her former manager James Herbert Martin. She stated that while residing at the Inn of Six Flags near Dallas under the surveillance of the Secret Service immediately following the assassination she was informed by a Secret Service agent that Martin invited her and her children to reside at his home. She accepted an invitation to visit the Martin residence on Thanksgiving Day and while at the Martin home on that occasion she accepted an invitation from Mr. and Mrs. Martin to reside with them.

She moved to the Martin residence about November 29 or 30, 1963, and left the residence on Sunday, February 9, 1964. Mrs. Oswald said that during her residence at the Martin home she was under the surveillance of the Secret Service.

She advised that shortly after taking up residence at the Martin home her intuition told her that Martin had feelings of love toward her. On New Year's Eve, after refusing to be kissed by Martin when he asked permission to give her a New Year's kiss in the presence of his wife, Martin subsequently caught her in the hallway and told her he loved her and then kissed her. She stated she believed him to be sincere. Following this event, according to Mrs. Oswald, Martin almost daily professed his love for her and frequently surreptitiously hugged and kissed her. In addition, he propositioned her to have [redacted] which she refused. She said she told Martin that she was willing to be his mistress and they made plans when she would have a place of her own at which he would visit her clandestinely. Martin also gave her several gifts.

About January 4, 1964, Martin took her alone to the La Tunisia restaurant in Dallas. Two Secret Service Agents occupied a table nearby. On this occasion Martin professed his love to her and she replied to the effect that everything would be fine if it were not for Martin's family. She maintained that she did not have [redacted] with Martin at the Martin home.

Following her testimony in Washington, D. C., on Friday, February 7, 1964, she requested the Secret Service to withdraw its surveillance on her and, accordingly, the surveillance was withdrawn about noon that day. She said she had two rooms at the Willard Hotel in Washington, D. C., on the third floor and that on Friday, February 7, 1964, John H. Thorne, her attorney, and Martin moved into the room adjoining hers which the Secret Service occupied until its withdrawal. On February 7, 1964, she, Martin and her daughter, June, ate together and, thereafter, took a walk in Washington. They returned to the hotel about 7 or 8 p.m. [redacted] This was done with Mrs. Oswald's consent and there was no force whatsoever on the part of Martin.

While in Washington, Secret Service Agent Leon Gopadze told her that there were rumors Martin loved her and these rumors might be so detrimental as to lead to her deportation from this country. She said that Martin told her he had friends who could fix up a fictitious marriage which would forestall deportation.

On Sunday, February 9, 1964, Robert Oswald came to the Martin home in Dallas and took Marina and her daughter, June, to the cemetery to visit the Oswald grave. Robert Oswald suggested she leave the Martin home and after agreeing to do so, she accompanied Robert Oswald to his home in Denton, Texas. On February 11, 1964, she telephoned Martin at his home from Robert Oswald's home and while Mrs. Martin listened on an extension, they engaged in a three-way conversation. She, at that time, told Martin she was dispensing with him as a manager and as a lover and suggested that Mrs. Martin be told the whole truth. Mrs. Martin told her that her husband had told her the whole truth.

On February 14, 1964, she sent registered letters to both Martin and Thorne dismissing them as her manager and lawyer, respectively. The letters were sent on the advice of Mr. and Mrs. Declan Ford, friends of Mrs. Oswald, with whom she now resides. On the advice of Ford and Robert Oswald, she has retained Mr. William A. McKenzie of Dallas as her attorney.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

After taking up temporary residence with Robert Oswald in Dallas she decided to return to Dallas and contacted Mrs. Ford. Mrs. Ford came to Denton, Texas, and Mrs. Oswald asked her if she could stay in the Ford home temporarily. Mrs. Ford agreed to this and on Thursday, February 13, 1964, Mrs. Oswald took up residence with the Fords where she now resides.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated February 18, 1964, requesting this Bureau to undertake appropriate investigation in an effort to develop full circumstances surrounding the incident involving Marina Oswald and James Herbert Martin.

For your information, we interviewed Mr. Robert L. Oswald, brother of Lee Harvey Oswald, on February 18-19, 1964, at which time he stated he first met James Herbert Martin approximately November 26 or 27, 1963, at the Inn of the Six Flags, Arlington, Texas. He met Mr. Martin through United States Secret Service agent, Mike Howard, at which time Martin was assistant manager of the Inn of the Six Flags. At that time Martin indicated a willingness to take Marina Oswald and her two children into his home at Dallas and consider them part of his family. Marina Oswald moved into Martin's home at 11611 Farrar, Dallas, Texas, on November 29 or 30, 1963, with the understanding she was not to pay anything for room and board.

According to Robert Oswald, on Saturday, December 7, 1963, Martin mentioned some business contracts he desired Marina to sign. On Sunday, December 8, 1963, Robert Oswald met John H. Thorne, an attorney, at Martin's home at which time a typed contract was reviewed by him which he discussed with Marina Oswald. Robert Oswald did not advise Marina to sign this contract on December 8, 1963, but on Monday, December 9, 1963, he consulted an attorney and later, on that same date at the home of Martin, Marina, on his advice signed a contract in the presence of Martin and Thorne.

Robert Oswald continued that at the same time a contract was drawn between Marina and Robert Oswald appointing him as her assistant business manager and providing for his receipt of ten per cent of all funds received by Marina Oswald from personal appearances, books, pictures, movie rights and the like, and ten per cent of all increases in the trust funds received by Marina Oswald as donations.

Robert Oswald stated that during the period after December 9, 1963, Martin and Thorne did not come up with any positive results in the way of contracts and earnings for Marina Oswald and for this reason, he was dissatisfied with their handling of Marina's business.

On Wednesday night, February 5, 1964, James Wakefield Burke, an author, and Carl E. Schafer, business agent for Burke, visited Robert Oswald's home at Denton, Texas. Burke and Schafer had met with Martin and Thorne on two occasions to the best of Robert Oswald's recollection, negotiating with respect to writing a book on Marina Oswald's story. Robert Oswald stated Burke and Schafer were critical of the manner in which Martin and Thorne were handling Marina Oswald. Mr. Burke allegedly commented that Martin and Thorne were referring to Marina to the effect that they had the wife of the killer of the President of the United States in the palm of their hand. Robert Oswald stated he was upset by this conversation and after Burke and Schafer departed, Robert Oswald's wife, Vada Oswald, told him about a conversation she had with Marina Oswald Sunday, December 29, 1963, at which time Marina had told Vada that Martin was in love with Marina but that Marina was not in love with Martin.

Robert Oswald advised he was in telephonic contact with Martin at approximately 12:30 A.M. on the morning of February 6, 1964, at Washington, D. C., where Marina, Thorne, and Martin had gone so that Marina could appear before the President's Commission. Martin told Robert Oswald that Marina was in her room "three floors down" and Robert told Martin to have Marina call him at 6:00 P.M., February 6, 1964. According to Robert Oswald, he did not receive the call at the appointed time.

He stated he again telephonically contacted Martin at approximately 12:30 P.M. February 7, 1964, at Washington, D. C., at which time Marina was there and she came to the phone. Robert told Marina he wanted her to return home and she replied that they were planning a news conference and some sight-seeing and that she would return home on Saturday, February 8, 1964. Robert Oswald stated he called the Martin home at Dallas, Texas, at approximately 9:00 P.M., February 8, 1964, and talked to Marina Oswald telling her that he was coming to see her the next day.

On Sunday, February 9, 1964, Robert Oswald and his wife visited Marina Oswald at the Martin home. Robert spoke with Marina privately and immediately Marina said, "You want to talk to me about Jim." Robert stated he told Marina that he did not think it was right for there to be any personal relationship between Marina and Martin and that he wanted her to come to Denton, Texas, with him and his wife to which Marina immediately agreed. Martin interposed several reasons, mostly business, as to why Marina should remain at his home, but Marina left at the request of Robert Oswald at approximately 6:30 P.M., Sunday, February 9, 1964. Robert Oswald stated he told Martin on that date that he wanted Marina Oswald to move out of the Martin home because there was something personal between him and Marina to which statement Martin did not answer. On Monday, February 10, 1964, Robert Oswald stated that after consulting with a Denton attorney, he was advised he should meet with Thorne and Martin and tell them he wanted them to terminate their connections with Marina.

Robert Oswald continued that on Monday afternoon, February 10, 1964, his wife called him at work and told him that Marina had told her that Marina [redacted] with Martin in Washington, D. C., on Thursday night, February 6, 1964. Robert stated he did not understand that there was any [redacted] involved but that Marina had consented. He also stated he understood the [redacted] incident occurred after the United States Secret Service had discontinued its protective custody of Marina Oswald.

After Robert Oswald received the call from his wife, he called Thorne and told him he wanted to meet with Thorne and Martin because of the personal involvement of Marina with Martin. According to Robert Oswald, Thorne seemed shocked and indicated it was the first he had heard of it and suggested that he meet with Robert Oswald without Martin present. That same night, Thorne and his wife came to the Robert Oswald home in Denton, Texas, at which time Thorne indicated Martin should be dismissed. Robert Oswald told Thorne on this occasion that he knew Martin had slept with Marina in Washington, D. C. Subsequently, at approximately 11:30 P.M., February 10, 1964, after Thorne had returned to Grand Prairie, Texas, Thorne telephoned Robert Oswald and stated that the best thing to do was to buy out Jim Martin's contract but Thorne did not mention a figure.

Robert Oswald further stated that on Tuesday, February 11, 1964, Marina Oswald met Mrs. Martin at Mrs. Martin's home as Marina was getting some of her belongings from the Martin home. Mrs. Martin questioned Marina about the relationship between Marina and Mr. Martin. According to Robert Oswald, he learned of this through his wife, Vada, as he was not present at the time. On Tuesday night, February 11, 1964, when Robert Oswald arrived home from work, Marina was on the telephone and he understood that she had both Martin and his wife on the other end of the line. Marina proceeded to tell Mrs. Martin everything while Martin was listening. Robert Oswald heard very little of this conversation as it was almost over when he came in. Marina was crying after she hung up the telephone. Robert's wife, Vada, told him what the conversation was about and about an hour later Marina stopped crying and told Robert she hoped he understood. Robert told Marina he did not hold her completely blameless but that Martin was more at fault.

Robert Oswald further advised that that same evening Carl Schafer recommended William A. McKenzie of Dallas as an attorney with whom Robert Oswald might discuss the contract between Marina and Martin. TEXAS

According to Robert Oswald, on Wednesday, February 12, 1964, Kathy Ford, a friend of Marina's, and John Thorne came to Robert Oswald's residence at which time Thorne said Martin wanted $5000 to terminate his contract. Robert Oswald added that Marina returned to Dallas with Kathy Ford to spend the night at Kathy Ford's home. Thorne furnished the transportation.

On February 13, 1964, in accordance with Mr. McKenzie's suggestion to Robert Oswald, Marina decided to discharge Martin and Thorne. On February 14, 1964, Robert Oswald and his wife learned that Kathy Ford's husband had prepared two letters, one to Martin and one to Thorne, both of which Marina had signed, and that they had been mailed Registered Mail, Return Receipt Requested, to Martin and Thorne notifying each that his services to Marina Oswald were terminated immediately.

Robert Oswald further advised that on Sunday, February 16, 1964, Marina told him that she had been faithful to Lee Harvey Oswald while he was alive and that what had happened to her and Martin was after Lee had gone. Marina did not directly mention any [redacted] between her and Martin and neither at this time nor any other time did Robert Oswald understand from talking to her or anyone else that there was a [redacted] of Marina Oswald by Martin.

Robert Oswald's wife had told him that Marina had said Martin loved her and that he was going to divorce his wife for Marina. Martin made such statement to obtain Marina's consent to their having [redacted] in Washington, D. C. Robert Oswald added that Marina Oswald also told his wife, Vada, that Martin stayed in her room at the Willard Hotel on Thursday and Friday, February 6 and 7, 1964, after the United States Secret Service had ceased its protective custody of Marina. Vada Oswald also told Robert Oswald that Marina said Martin moved into Marina's room but added Thorne kept Martin's clothes in Thorne's room, which was adjoining Marina's room, after the Secret Service had moved out.

Robert Oswald further stated he had seen a picture of Marina Oswald and Martin sitting on the sofa in Marina's hotel room in Washington, D. C. He understood such picture was made by Thorne. Robert Oswald stated it was his belief that Marina moved from his home to the residence of Kathy Ford because she did not want to be a burden to him in his small home and because she feels at ease talking to someone who also has Russian for her native language.

For your added information, during our interview with Robert Oswald, he advised that on January 13, 1964, James Herbert Martin told him that Marina had told Martin that when Richard Nixon visited Dallas, date not indicated, Marina learned that Lee Harvey Oswald intended to shoot Nixon. Marina reportedly locked Lee Harvey Oswald in the bathroom all day to prevent him from doing so. Robert Oswald added that Marina related the same story to him on January 13, 1964, when they made a trip to the cemetery to visit the grave of Lee Harvey Oswald. Robert Oswald stated he does not know where Lee Harvey Oswald and Marina were living at the time of the alleged intention of Lee Harvey Oswald to shoot Nixon and he does not know the date of such incident but vaguely recalled that Nixon reportedly planned to visit Dallas during the summer or early fall of 1963. Robert Oswald also does not recall Marina stating how she knew Lee Harvey Oswald planned to shoot Nixon.

Mr. Maurice Carlson, President, Reliance Life and Accident Insurance Company, Dallas, Texas, who is a close friend of Richard Nixon, informed this Bureau February 19, 1964, that Richard Nixon was invited to Dallas in April, 1963, to the Southeast Dallas Chamber of Commerce to receive the Good American Award. Mr. Carlson stated that at the last minute Nixon was unable to attend. Mr. Carlson also stated he does not know if press coverage of this contemplated visit by Nixon was given in Dallas newspapers. Mr. Carlson also stated that Mr. Nixon did come to Dallas on November 21, 1963, arriving by private plane with the President of the Pepsi Cola Company.

We plan to continue our interviews with Marina Oswald on Friday, February 21, 1964. During our next interview with Marina, we will question her in detail concerning the allegation that Lee Harvey Oswald planned to shoot Richard Nixon. Results of such interview will immediately be furnished to the Commission.

We have obtained a signed statement from Robert Oswald in connection with the interview of him described above. This signed statement will be immediately furnished to the Commission upon receipt from our Dallas Office.

Sincerely yours,

In connection with the incident that occurred between Marina Oswald and her business manager, James Herbert Martin, during Marina's recent stay in Washington, D. C. when she testified before the Commission, the Commission has requested this Bureau to conduct appropriate investigation to develop full circumstances surrounding the incident. One of the things the Commission desired us to obtain was whether the [redacted] between Martin and Marina Oswald occurred at a time when she was under protective surveillance of the Secret Service.

We contacted the Secret Service in this matter February 19, 1964, and have obtained from them the memorandum setting forth details of its protective detail for Mrs. Marina Oswald. In its memorandum, Secret Service sets forth circumstances which placed Marina Oswald in contact with James Martin on November 24, 1963. Secret Service also sets out data concerning its protective custody of Marina in Dallas during the period following the assassination.

Secret Service also sets out in detail its coverage of Marina Oswald during the period February 2 - February 7, 1964, when Marina testified before the President's Commission. Secret Service reports that it afforded Mrs. Oswald protective attention until 2/7/64 at approximately 2:30 P.M. when Secret Service discontinued its protection at the request of Mrs. Oswald.

The Secret Service memorandum reports that Agent Gopadze notified his superior February 3, 1964, that Mr. Norman Redlich of the Commission's staff reported to him a rumor which had been received by the Commission that Martin and Mrs. Oswald were in love with each other. Special Agent Gopadze was instructed to interview Marina about this rumor and Marina indicated that she felt Martin was falling in love with her and that Martin had told her she should buy a small house in Dallas and perhaps some day they could be married. Special Agent Gopadze indicated he told Marina she was playing a very dangerous game; and that if she got messed up in a divorce suit, she might find herself in trouble with immigration authorities.

MR. FORD ACCOMPANIED MARINA TO MC KINZIE-S OFFICE THAT DAY AND ALSO ON FEBRUARY EIGHTEEN LAST FOR PURPOSE OF CONFERENCES WITH MC KENZIE. MARINA CONTINUES TO RESIDE AT FORD HOUSE.

MR. FORD STATED THAT ALTHOUGH HE WAS AWARE THAT SOMETHING HAD HAPPENED BETWEEN MARINA AND MARTIN IN WASHINGTON, HE DID NOT KNOW THE DETAILS UNTIL THIS INVESTIGATION BEGAN.

ON FEBRUARY FOURTEEN LAST MR. FORD WROTE OUT REGISTERED LETTERS DIRECTED TO THORNE AND MARTIN ADVISING THEM THEIR SERVICES

AS ATTORNEY AND MANAGER WERE TERMINATED. MARINA SIGNED THE LETTERS. THESE LETTERS SENT BECAUSE MR. MC KENZIR HAD ADVISED HE COULD NOT REPRESENT MARINA WHILE SHE WAS REPRESENTED BY ANOTHER ATTORNEY. MC KENZIE IS NOW MARINA'S ATTORNEY.

MRS. FORD ADVISED SUBSTANTIALLY THE SAME AS HAD MR. FORD WITH CERTAIN ADDITIONAL INFORMATION. DURING JANUARY LAST, WHILE MARINA RESIDING MARTIN HOUSE, MARINA CALLED HER ON PHONE SEVERAL TIMES. ON ONE OCCASION, MARINA SAID WHILE SHE WAS TALKING ON PHONE, MARTIN WAS THROWING KISSES TO HER AND MRS. FORD GOT THE IDEA MARTIN WAS MAKING PASSES AT MARINA.

WHEN MARINA RETURNED FROM WASHINGTON, MARTIN CALLED MRS. FORD ON PHONE, FEBRUARY EIGHT OR NINE LAST, STATING ROBERT OSWALD HAD TAKEN MARINA TO HIS HOME AND MARTINE WAS AFRAID ROBERT WOULD TAKE MARINA MARINA'S MONEY AS HE (ROBERT OSWALD) WAS MORE INTERESTED IN MONEY THAN MARINA. MARTIN ALSO TOLD HER, THAT MARINA HAD TOLD ROBERT ABOUT LOVE AFFAIR BETWEEN MARTIN AND MARINA. A DAY OR SO LATER, MARTIN CALLED REQUESTING MRS. FORD TO ACCOMPANY THORNE TO SEE MARINA AT ROBERT OSWALDS HOUSE,

WHICH SHE AGREED TO DO. ENROUTE, THORNE TOLD MRS. FORD MARTIN WAS A HELL TO HAVE DONE WHAT HE DID TO MARINA. THORNE SAID MARTIN WANTED TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS TO ALLOW MARINA TO CANCEL CONTRACT WITH HIM BUT HE, THORNE, HAD TALKED MARTIN DOWN TO FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS. THORNE SAID THIS HAD BEEN HARD TO DO BECAUSE MARTIN SAID HE WOULD USE WHAT WAS BETWEEN HIM AND MARINA TO RUIN HER IF SHE DID NOT PAY HIM. THORNE AT THIS TIME TOLD MRS. Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated February 18, 1964, requesting this Bureau to undertake appropriate investigation in an effort to develop full circumstances surrounding the incident involving Marina Oswald and James Herbert Martin. Specific reference is made to your request that this Bureau undertake appropriate investigation to determine whether the intercourse between Martin and Marina Oswald occurred at a time when Marina Oswald was under the protective surveillance of the Secret Service.

For your information, we contacted the United States Secret Service February 19, 1964, to obtain data bearing on its protective custody of Marina Oswald. Enclosed is a copy of a letter we received from the United States Secret Service dated February 19, 1964, in this matter. You will note that the attachment to the United States Secret Service letter sets forth information concerning its protective detail for Mrs. Marina Oswald.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel for the President's Commission, called at 12:15 P.M., February 21, 1964, and advised he had received information through William McKenzie, the newly selected attorney for Marina Oswald to the effect that James Martin, the individual who had previously represented Marina Oswald as her business manager, had a Vasectomy operation* sometime within the last two or three years. Mr. Rankin indicated that the Commission would be very much interested in knowing if this were true inasmuch as such an operation on the part of Martin could influence the relationship between Martin and Marina Oswald. Mr. Rankin advised that he did not want an open investigation made concerning this matter but would appreciate the Bureau bearing in mind in connection with other interviews and subsequently mentioned that during the next interview with Marina Oswald questions should be asked of her as to whether she had knowledge of Martin undergoing this operation. Mr. Rankin was advised that he would be furnished with the results of information that would be available concerning this matter.

At 5:30 P. M., February 21, 1964, Mr. Rankin advised that the President's Commission was endeavoring to have James Martin voluntarily appear before the Commission on Thursday, February 27, 1964. He stated that it appeared Martin and his attorney were attempting to avoid his request for them to contact him. Rankin stated that if Martin refused to appear voluntarily a subpoena would be issued for his appearance.

Rankin requested the Bureau make available all information that it could obtain concerning James Martin for the Commission's use in interviewing Martin. He stated he did not desire open investigation but requested that all information be made available

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Synopsis:

Anonymous telephone call received at Cleveland FBI Office, 12/31/63, indicating that a prostitute named NANCY was living with LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Cleveland, during early 1963. Subsequent investigation revealed this prostitute is a NANCY JANE RITZ, nee Mc Clain, who lived in a common-law relationship with a WILLIAM MARLOWE, Jr. in Cleveland during 1963. No connection developed between NANCY RITZ and LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and hotel records do not substantiate that OSWALD resided in Cleveland during early 1963. NANCY JANE RITZ not known to be presently in Cleveland area.

- RUC -

DETAILS:

This phase of the LEE HARVEY OSWALD investigation was predicated on an anonymous telephone call received at the Cleveland Office of the FBI on December 31, 1963.

The anonymous caller stated that early in 1963, he met a prostitute in Cleveland, named NANCY, who was living with LEE OSWALD at the Dakota Hotel on E. 18th Street, Cleveland. This NANCY also knew JACK RUBY in Dallas, Texas. Source stated that OSWALD was attempting to locate a gun, talked of committing some armed robberies, and threatened one of NANCY's customers with a knife when the customer did not pay her. Source said that NANCY and OSWALD left Cleveland intending to hitchhike to Tucson, Arizona. Source stated that several months later, he again saw NANCY in Cleveland, at which time she stated that OSWALD had not gone to Arizona, but instead went to Dallas. Source stated that sometime in 1963, NANCY was arrested by BAILEY and KENNELLY of the Cleveland Police Department Vice Squad on a charge of prostitution at the Greyhound Bus Station, Cleveland, and also arrested with her was FRANK REYNOLDS, who was charged with being her pimp. Source stated that he did not know the disposition of NANCY's case, but believed that REYNOLDS was acquitted. Source stated that REYNOLDS is presently incarcerated in the Cuyahoga County Workhouse. Source refused to identify himself, but promised to call back on January 6, 1964, so that he could be questioned further, if necessary.

The anonymous caller did not recontact the Cleveland Office at anytime following the initial contact.

The files of the Cleveland Office reflect that a NANCY JANE MC CLAIN, aka, Nancy Marlowe, Nancy Ritz, was arrested on September 25, 1963, by Officers JAMES KENNELLY and JOHN BARRY of the Cleveland Police Department on a charge of prostitution, operating at the Cleveland Greyhound Station and also in the vicinity of East 14 and East 16 Streets and Prospect Avenue, Cleveland. (It is noted that the Dakota Hotel, where the anonymous caller said she lived with OSWALD, is on East 18th Street near Prospect Avenue.) Also arrested on September 26, 1963, by Officers KENNELLY and BARRY in connection with the investigation of NANCY MC CLAIN was a FRANKLIN REYNOLDS and WILLIAM MARLOWE. NANCY stated that she and MARLOWE had just come to Cleveland two days ago from Tucson, Arizona.

NANCY MARLOWE was interviewed by SAs of the Cleveland Office on September 26, 1963, at which time she stated that she first met MARLOWE in Cleveland about one year ago and has been living in a common-law relationship with MARLOWE since April, 1963; that she is separated from, but not divorced from, her husband, EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; that she and MARLOWE had been living together in Phoenix, Arizona, but left there and hitchhiked to Cleveland, arriving separately on September 21, 1963 and September 23, 1963.

AT CLEVELAND, OHIO

Officer JOHN BERRY, Third District Vice Squad, Cleveland Police Department, on January 8, 1964, informed that he arrested NANCY JANE RITZ, nee MC CLAIN, on September 25, 1963, together with WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, Jr., and FRANKLIN REYNOLDS, who were actually arrested on September 26, 1963. He stated that NANCY JANE RITZ is a prostitute who was conducting her profession from the Greyhound Bus Depot, 1465 Chester Avenue, Cleveland, during September, 1963, for which she was eventually arrested. He stated that his investigation revealed that FRANKLIN REYNOLDS was her procurer and that WILLIAM A. MARLOWE was an individual who was living in a common-law relationship with NANCY JANE RITZ. He pointed out that at the time of arrest it was assumed that NANCY JANE RITZ was actually married to WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, although it was determined that she was married to an individual named RITZ.

Officer BERRY noted that he has not seen NANCY JANE RITZ and WILLIAM A. MARLOWE since their arrest and, inasmuch as they are no longer in the neighborhood of the Greyhound Bus Depot, assumes that they have left Cleveland. In this respect, he noted that NANCY JANE RITZ was carrying on her immoral dates at the Ohio, Dakota and Grand Hotels, which are in the immediate neighborhood of the Greyhound Bus Depot.

He stated that FRANKLIN REYNOLDS is a small-time hoodlum and gambler who hangs out evenings at the Greyhound Bus Depot waiting to meet destitute girls whom he feels he can place in this illicit profession. He stated that he last saw FRANKLIN REYNOLDS during November, 1963, and has not seen him since. He stated that this is odd, inasmuch as REYNOLDS can be located any night of the week at the Greyhound Bus Depot. He stated that REYNOLDS is a resident of the Town Apartments, 2344 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland. Officer BERRY related that he, as well as all members of the Vice Squad, knows NANCY JANE RITZ, and should she be still in the area of the Third District Vice Squad, her presence would come to their attention.

Officer BERRY was recontacted on January 13, 20, and 28, 1964, and again on February 11, 1964. On these occasions, he related that all members of the Vice Squad are on the lookout for NANCY JANE RITZ and WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, however, no information has come to their attention that they are still in the Cleveland area. He stated that each of the members of the Vice Squad have contacted their sources and, as a consequence, all avenues have been alerted.

Officer W. C. DOTY, Scientific Investigations Unit, Cleveland Police Department, on January 9, 1963, related that their records reflect that WILLIAM ALBERT MARLOWE, Jr., FBI Number 849 560D, a white male, was arrested on September 26, 1963, and charged with hustling. He was released on a suspicious person's waiver on September 27, 1963.

Cleveland Police Department records reflect that WILLIAM ALBERT MARLOWE, Jr. was born December 2, 1942, at Cleveland, Ohio, and he lists a residence of 1320½ West Filmore Street, Phoenix, Arizona. His parents are WILLIAM and MARY MARLOWE, Jr., and he was previously arrested on May 18, 1963, on stolen auto charges; released same date on a suspicious person's waiver.

A photograph of WILLIAM ALBERT MARLOWE, Jr. was obtained from this source.

These records further reflect that FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT REYNOLDS, a white male, with FBI Number 628 454D, was arrested on September 26, 1963, for hustling and was released on September 27, 1963, on a suspicious person's waiver. His mother is listed as KATHERINE and his residence is listed as 2344 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland.

These records further reflect that NANCY JANE RITZ, nee MC CLAIN, aka., NANCY MARLOWE, "SUGAR", was arrested September 25, 1963, and charged with prostitution. She was referred to the Cleveland Municipal Court on this charge for which she received a sixty-day jail sentence and costs which were suspended, and she was placed on probation. She has a prior arrest on May 18, 1963, on a charge of "stolen auto", and she was released on the same date on a suspicious person's waiver. It was noted that NANCY RITZ was actually arrested about 11:45 PM on September 25, 1963, and was not booked until September 26, 1963.

NANCY JANE RITZ is a white female, 5'5" tall, 115 pounds, black hair, blue eyes, pock-marked face, and she has a scar above her wrist. She was born December 25, 1941, at Shelby, Michigan, and her spouse is listed as EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ. Her Cleveland Police Department Number is 114 323, and her addresses are listed as 879 West River Street, Elyria, Ohio, and 245 Fifth Street, Elyria.

A photograph of NANCY JANE RITZ was obtained from this source.

Miss L. C. ABBOTT, Probation Officer, City of Cleveland Probation Office, Cleveland, Ohio, on January 9, 1964, related that she handled the probation for NANCY JANE RITZ who was sentenced by the Cleveland Municipal Court on September 27, 1963, at which time she was sentenced to sixty days in jail and costs which were suspended.

Miss ABBOTT stated that her records reflect that NANCY JANE RITZ was placed on "inactive probation," on September 27, 1963, and that her only contact with her was on this date. She stated that inactive probation means that the individual is not required to report to the probation office and can leave the state at any time. However, should the individual be arrested within a period of one year from the date of sentencing, the individual's probation can then be revoked.

She stated that her records reflect that NANCY JANE RITZ comes from a broken home, and that she never knew her mother. Her father, ERNEST MC CLAIN, 1051 Fountain Street, Grand Rapids, Michigan, is presently married to LOIS MC CLAIN, and NANCY JANE has never been able to adjust herself to this marriage. These records reflect that NANCY JANE RITZ was married to EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ on June 17, 1962, at Lorain, Ohio, and they were separated during April, 1963, because EDWARD RITZ was unable to hold a steady employment. NANCY JANE RITZ came to Cleveland, Ohio, from Phoenix, Arizona, with WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, and Probation Office records reflect that it was her idea to prostitute herself to financially help MARLOWE, and that it was the first time that she had ever prostituted herself. These records also indicate WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, Jr., had been a friend of EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ, and it was through this relationship that MARLOWE and NANCY JANE met.

Mr. RAYMOND STITT, Chief Investigator, Cuyahoga County Welfare Department, Cleveland, Ohio, on January 9, 1964, produced a Welfare application for EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ.

This record reflects that EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ on April 2, 1963, applied for relief and was rejected on the same date as "ineligible because childless couple."

Mr. STITT noted that this was a telephonic application and that EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ and his wife did not appear at the office.

Background contained in this record reflects that EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ, born February 17, 1942, and NANCY JANE RITZ, born December 25, 1941, had been in Cleveland for one day and they were "homeless." They recorded their last address as 224 Park Street, Willard, Ohio, and noted that they had come to Cleveland the previous day from Willard, Ohio. EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ noted in his application that he enlisted in the United States Air Force on May 21, 1958, at Willard, Ohio, and was honorably discharged August 3, 1961. His Air Force Serial Number is listed as AF 15624314.

Miss T. ROGERS, Room Clerk, Ohio Hotel, 1627 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland, on January 9, 1964, produced a registration record which reflects that a Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM MARLOWE, no address, checked in the hotel on September 25, 1963, and stayed overnight.

Miss ROGERS viewed pictures of both NANCY JANE RITZ and WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, however, she stated that these individuals are not known to her.

Miss ROGERS caused a review to be made of all hotel registration records from January 1, 1963 through the present, however, no further record could be located for NANCY JANE RITZ, WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She stated that no one resembling LEE HARVEY OSWALD has ever resided at the Ohio Hotel.

Mrs. MARY ALICE BENNETT, Owner, Dakota Hotel, 2045 East 18th Street, Cleveland, on January 9, 1964, checked her registration records from January 1, 1963 until the present, and could find no record pertaining to WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, NANCY JANE RITZ, or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She viewed photographs of NANCY JANE RITZ and WILLIAM A. MARLOWE and advised that she has seen both of these individuals in the immediate area during the Fall of 1963, but has not seen them since. She stated that no one resembling LEE HARVEY OSWALD has ever resided at the Dakota Hotel.

Mrs. ELLEN CHITHAM, Floorlady, Dakota Hotel, on January 9, 1964, identified photographs of WILLIAM A. MARLOWE and NANCY JANE RITZ as individuals who have stayed at the Dakota Hotel on at least two occasions during a period from the Summer of 1963 to the Fall of 1963.

She stated that she recalls that on occasions that these two people were at the hotel they would be guests for overnight only and recalls that the individual identified as WILLIAM MARLOWE would leave the hotel in the morning and leave the girl in the hotel room. On one occasion, he remarked that he was going to the Greyhound Bus Depot to meet a man on business.

In respect to the above, she stated that she has not seen RITZ or MARLOWE since the Fall of 1963, and felt that if they were still in the neighborhood she would be cognizant of their presence.

In view of the above, all hotel registration cards for the period June, 1963 through November, 1963, were reviewed, however, none could be identified with MARLOWE and RITZ.

Mr. GEORGE POULAS, Owner, Grand Hotel, 2107 East 18th Street, Cleveland, on January 9, 1964, reviewed all his hotel registration records from the period January 1, 1963 through the present, and could find no reference to NANCY JANE RITZ, WILLIAM A MARLOWE, or LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

He further advised that he did not recognize WILLIAM MARLOWE or NANCY JANE RITZ as individuals he has seen in the neighborhood or at the hotel.

Mrs. ANGIE POULAS, wife of the owner, Grand Hotel, on January 9, 1964, related that the photograph of NANCY JANE RITZ looks familiar to her, although she does not know this individual. She recalls seeing a white female with a pock-marked face, whose hair was extremely long and stringy. It was for this reason that she remembered this individual, however, does not recall when she last saw this individual, although she believes it was some time ago. She noted that she also operates the Grand Restaurant which is in the Grand Hotel building, and that this individual may have been a customer at the restaurant.

MYRTLE HALL, Waitress, Grand Restaurant, on January 9, 1964, advised that the photograph of NANCY JANE RITZ looks familiar, although she is not positive, and further noted that it is actually no one she knows, but rather someone she may have seen in the restaurant. In this respect, she stated that she does not recall when she last saw this individual but believes it must have been some time ago. She stated that the photograph of WILLIAM A. MARLOWE does not look like anyone she knows.

Mrs. HELEN PUMA, Desk Supervisor, YWCA, 1716 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland, on January 9, 1964, related that the YWCA has no present registration for NANCY JANE RITZ, aka, and further noted that registrations since the first of January, 1963, contain no reference to this individual. She added that she usually knows all the girls staying at the YWCA by sight, however, noted that the photograph of NANCY JANE RITZ does not look like anyone who has ever stayed at the YWCA.

Cleveland, Ohio

EDNA BRANNING, Telephone Operator, YWCA, on January 9, 1964, viewed the photographs of WILLIAM A. MARLOWE and NANCY JANE RITZ. She stated that she has never seen WILLIAM A. MARLOWE, although there is something familiar about the photograph of NANCY JANE RITZ. She was positive that NANCY JANE RITZ had never resided at the YWCA inasmuch as she is in a position to observe all the girls entering and leaving the premises, however, felt it may have been someone she may have seen in the neighborhood. In this connection, she stated that she has not seen this individual whom she believes may be identical to NANCY JANE RITZ, since probably the Summer of 1963.

LIL PEARSON, Manager, Open Kitchen Restaurant, 1612 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland, on January 9, 1964, stated that she has never seen WILLIAM A. MARLOWE on the premises. However, she did state that the photograph of NANCY JANE RITZ looks like a customer who used to stop in at the restaurant occasionally during late 1963. However, she has not seen this person for about the past five months. She stated that she never spoke to this individual concerning her personal background and would have no idea where she is presently located.

RUTH BARTLEY, Waitress, and LARRY WINNTERS, Handyman, Open Kitchen Restaurant, on January 9, 1964, viewed photographs of NANCY JANE RITZ and WILLIAM A. MARLOWE and advised that they had never seen these individuals.

Mr. HOWARD BORHAM, Manager, Town House Apartments, 2344 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland, on January 10, 1964, related that FRANKLIN REYNOLDS and his brother, DONALD REYNOLDS, were tenants of his apartment from February 26, 1963 until December 10, 1963. He stated that DONALD REYNOLDS lived alone at the apartment from approximately the first of December, 1963, until he vacated the apartment and advised that his brother, FRANKLIN REYNOLDS, had gone to Kentucky. Mr. BORHAM stated that he had no forwarding address for FRANKLIN REYNOLDS, although his brother, DONALD, advised that FRANKLIN would be back in Cleveland around March, 1964, and that he would probably rent another apartment at the Town House Apartments.

Officer ROBERT RIEDTHALER, Cleveland House of Correction, Cleveland, Ohio, on January 10, 1964, related that FRANKLIN R. REYNOLDS was committed to the House of Correction on November 30, 1963, and is presently incarcerated.

He stated that FRANKLIN REYNOLDS was sentenced to eight months on a charge of assault and battery and petty larceny by the Court of Common Pleas, and he was fined $300 and court costs of $39.75. FRANKLIN REYNOLDS will be released on July 13, 1964, if he pays the fine and court costs, otherwise he will be released on December 19, 1964.

FRANKLIN R. REYNOLDS was interviewed in the House of Correction, Cleveland, Ohio, on January 10, 1964. He stated that he was born April 26, 1933, in Cleveland, Ohio, and that he last resided at 2344 Prospect Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

He stated that he first met NANCY JANE RITZ and WILLIAM A. MARLOWE during April, 1963, at the Greyhound Bus Depot, Cleveland. He stated that they appeared to be destitute and in dire need of some help, and he, therefore, bought them some food. He stated that since this initial contact with them he saw them on numerous occasions during the period April, 1963, until he was arrested with MARLOWE and NANCY JANE RITZ on September 26, 1963.

He stated that it was always his impression that WILLIAM MARLOWE and NANCY JANE RITZ were married to one another, and he always knew her as NANCY MARLOWE. He stated that during the period that they resided in Cleveland, they had no permanent place of residence, but rather they used the Greyhound Bus Depot as a place where they would sleep. He explained that NANCY and WILLIAM kept their clothing in a bus station locker and would use the washroom facilities of the depot for sanitary purposes. In addition, they would purchase what food they needed locally or else if they had enough money would eat in the nearby restaurants.

He stated that WILLIAM MARLOWE and NANCY JANE would solicit "dates" from men they would meet at the Greyhound Bus Depot and if they were lucky enough to solicit a customer would have the customer rent a hotel room at either the Ohio or Dakota Hotels where NANCY JANE would later meet the customer.

FRANKLIN REYNOLDS noted that NANCY JANE and WILLIAM did not have very much luck in soliciting male customers inasmuch as NANCY JANE is considered unattractive and had an unkempt and unclean appearance.

FRANKLIN REYNOLDS stated that he has not seen WILLIAM MARLOWE and NANCY JANE RITZ since the time of their arrests. He also stated that had either WILLIAM MARLOWE or NANCY JANE been in the neighborhood of the Greyhound Bus Depot, he would have known of this, and this surely would have come to his attention prior to his own incarceration on November 30, 1963.

He stated that he has no idea of the present whereabouts of NANCY JANE and WILLIAM MARLOWE, although he does recall that some time prior to their arrests they both left Cleveland and went to Phoenix, Arizona, for a visit, where WILLIAM MARLOWE's parents are alleged to reside. They later returned just prior to their arrest, on September 26, 1963.

REYNOLDS did note that RITZ and MARLOWE never made any mention to LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY, and that during the period that he was closely associated with them did he ever see anyone resembling OSWALD in their company. He further noted that had NANCY RITZ been living with anyone other than MARLOWE while in Cleveland, this would have come to his attention.

AT ELYRIA, OHIO

The following investigation was conducted by SA ROBERT H. WILSON on January 14, 1964:

WILLIAM GWIN, President, Northwestern Adjustment Company, 304 Robinson Building, Elyria, Ohio, advised he recalled that NANCY RITZ was employed by the former owner of that company, HOWARD HEAD, in 1962. She rented HEAD's house at 879 West River Street, Elyria, during this employment, which only lasted about one month. He recalled that when she obtained the job she was practically destitute. He stated he knew nothing of her background and inasmuch as Mr. HEAD is no longer with the company and is located out of town, he knew of no one who could furnish any information concerning NANCY RITZ. Mr. GWIN stated he has an account in the amount of approximately $20.00 he had tried to collect from NANCY RITZ but had never been able to locate her after she left her employment. He stated her husband's name was EDWARD, and he identified the Cleveland Police Department photograph of NANCY RITZ as being identical with the one who had worked in Elyria.

Elyria

Mrs. SALLY HILDEBRANDT, Elyria Credit Bureau, advised a file was opened in October, 1962, for EDWARD and NANCY RITZ whose address was 245 Fifth Street, Elyria. No previous address was listed, and the only information in the files was that a hardware company wrote off a loss of $94.00 for an uncollectable account in 1963.

Mrs. MARY SHURLEY, Record Room, Elyria Police Department, advised the files of that department contain no record of EDWARD or NANCY RITZ.

T. P. DUKEMAN, 243 Fifth Street, Elyria, Ohio, advised the former owners of the residence at 245 Fifth Street have moved out of town. He did recall that about two years ago a NANCY and EDWARD RITZ rented a small apartment at 245 Fifth Street, but they only were at that address for a period of a month or less, and they moved out and no one knew of their forwarding address. He stated they did not associate with the people in that neighborhood, and no one knew anything concerning them.

AT WILLARD, OHIO

The following investigation was conducted by SA RICHARD W. SHIMER on January 15, 1964:

Mrs. ORRA TANNER, 224 Park Street, advised that she has owned the house at this address for the past three years and has lived in the house continuously and at no time during the past three years did either EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ or NANCY RITZ ever live in it. She said she did not know either of them.

Mrs. KENNETH COX, 304 Park Street, next door neighbor to 224 Park Street, advised that EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ lived at 224 Park Street many years ago with his grandfather, HARRY RITZ, who died five years ago. EDWARD was only a young boy at the time, and the grandfather finally put him in a home.

She said that about one year ago EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ and his wife, NANCY RITZ, came to her front door on a Sunday and told her they were broke. They attempted to borrow some money from her, but she did not loan them any. They stayed only a few minutes and then left, and she has not seen them since. She identified the photograph of NANCY JANE RITZ, nee MC CLAIN, as the NANCY who was with RITZ at the time they visited her. She said she is sure neither of them are presently in Willard as Willard is a small town, and she would see them or hear about them if they were here. She said EDWARD RITZ came to Willard because he thought his grandfather, HARRY RITZ, might have left the house to him or mentioned him in some way in his will, and as he was broke, he was in dire need of money. She said EDWARD RITZ has no relatives in Willard, since his grandfather died years ago. She said MICHAEL RITZ's mother, IDELL RITZ, went to Lorain, Ohio, about eight years ago, but she does not know if IDELL RITZ has remarried or anything about her.

Mrs. NEVA CHRIST, Clerk, Jackson's Drug Store, Myrtle Avenue, advised that she knew EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ to see him, but has not seen him around Willard for years.

The following were contacted, but could not offer any information concerning EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ or NANCY RITZ:

CALVIN FILLINGS
Chief of Police
Willard Police Department

RAY SNOOK
Willard Credit Bureau

Mr. and Mrs. ARTHUR MC ELFISH
Jewelry store owners
Myrtle Avenue

There is no listing for EDWARD MICHAEL RITZ or NANCY RITZ in the Willard Telephone Directory. There is no Willard City Directory.

Character:

INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Synopsis:

INS, Laredo, Texas, has no file on OSWALD. ORAN PUGH, U.S. Customs, Laredo, recalls making statement OSWALD checked by U.S. Public Health, Laredo upon his exit from Mexico; PUGH obtained this information from assistant. Records U.S. Public Health, Laredo, fail to reflect OSWALD checked through U.S. Public Health on 10/2-4/63. Investigation Kerrville Bus Company and Greyhound Bus terminals Austin, Texas, negative regarding OSWALD. H. DOLGNER, bus driver, Continental Trailways, Laredo, negative regarding OSWALD. McCULLOUGH, Texas Employment Commission, Austin unable to locate letter from individual who made claim indicating writer of letter would not receive due consideration just as person who appealed to Governor CONNALLY about rescinding a discharge from Marine Corps did not receive satisfaction. JOHN H. BOWEN advised he took Flecha Roja Bus about 2 p.m., 9/26/63, from Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, and arrived in Mexico City about 10 a.m., 9/27/63. He described man sitting next to him on bus and said he could not identify OSWALD's photo as being identical to this man. BOWEN stated he returned to Laredo, Texas, on 10/2/63. After furnishing some information about his travels and background BOWEN became indignant and terminated the interview.

The following investigation was conducted by SA LEOPOLD[illegible]ARMIJO:

AT LAREDO, TEXAS

On January 26, 1964, ALLAN SKINNER, Chief of Immigration and Naturalization Service, advised that his office has no record or folder on LEE HARVEY OSWALD's trip to Mexico. He added that this "rumor", was started by someone shortly after President KENNEDY's assassination and as a result, he had several inquiries from news media whom he advised he had no such record in his office.

Laredo, Texas

ORAN EUGENE PUGH, Agent in Charge, U.S. Customs Investigators, advised on January 27, 1964, that he does not recall being interviewed by HAROLD FELDMAN, adding that he received a number of calls from all parts of the country after the President's assassination. He does recall making a statement to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was checked by U.S. Public Health, International Bridge, Laredo, Texas, upon OSWALD's exit from Mexico. PUGH did not check this himself, adding that his Assistant, WILLIAM KLINE, had furnished him this information. He stated that apparently KLINE had checked this and located the record reflecting that OSWALD was vaccinated by U.S. Public Health when he left Mexico.

U. S. Customs - Laredo, Texas

PUGH claims he did not say that OSWALD was checked by U.S. Immigration and Naturalization officials on entering and leaving Mexico. He did say that Americans are not required to check in with U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service when crossing the border.

In connection with the statement, "U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service has a folder on OSWALD's trip", he claims he was misquoted. He made the statement that U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service had a folder on OSWALD, however, he was referring to a folder which U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service supposedly has on OSWALD's return to the United States from Russia. He got this information from his assistant, WILLIAM KLINE, who in turn got it from LOU MACK, U.S. Immigration Investigator, Laredo, Texas, who told KLINE that he, MACK, was Officer in Charge, Immigration and Naturalization Service, in Dallas, Texas, when OSWALD returned from Russia, and there was a record of this entry with Immigration and Naturalization Service in Dallas, Texas.

FBI/DOJ

Mr. PUGH concluded by saying that all of the above information he furnished the news media was based on what he received from WILLIAM KLINE.

ALLAN SKINNER, Immigration Chief, was recontacted on January 27, 1964, and advised that U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service in Dallas had a file on OSWALD but this was in connection with the petition OSWALD was required to file with Immigration and Naturalization Service upon bringing a Russian wife into the United States. This occurred when OSWALD returned from Russia with his wife and he does not know if this file is still in Dallas. He reiterated that he has no file whatsoever on LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

ION

Records of U. S. Public Health, Laredo, Texas, were examined on January 27, 1964, by Special Agent LEOPOLDO E. ARMIJO and they fail to reflect anyone by the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was checked through U. S. Public Health on October 2,3, or 4, 1963.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOSEPH JONES:

AT SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

On February 6, 1964, Mrs. MARIA JUANA ALANIZ, 719 Flanders, advised that she is 47 years old, an American citizen, and is married to AVEDON T. ALANIZ. She said that she has made various trips by bus to Monterrey, Mexico. She recalled that she made one such trip about October 1, 1963, traveling to Monterrey via Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, where she secured her tourist card at Mexican Immigration at the International Bridge. She said she returned on the third day, although she could not be certain as to the exact day.

She said that she went and returned from Monterrey via Transportes del Norte Bus Lines, not Transportes Frontera.

She viewed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and advised that she did not remember ever having seen such a person. She said there were many passengers on the bus by which she traveled from Monterrey to Nuevo Laredo, but that all, so far as she could remember, seemed to be Mexican citizens and she did not remember any person who looked like a North American who was a passenger on that bus.

Mr. LELAND O. INGRAM, 2322 Westrock Drive, Austin, Texas, advised he is a bus driver for the Kerrville Bus Co. and as such, drove a Kerrville bus from Austin, Texas, to Houston, Texas, on September 25, 1964, departing from Austin, Texas, at 6:15 p.m., and arriving at Houston, Texas, at 9:55 p.m.

He observed photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and also of JACK RUBY and advised that he is not personally acquainted with either of them and does not recognize the photograph of either of them as having ever ridden on a bus of which he was the driver. He explained that it is possible that OSWALD or RUBY either one could have been a passenger on his bus, but he does not pay sufficient attention to the average passengers to be able to identify them after they leave the bus at destination.

He was unable to furnish any positive information to indicate that OSWALD did or did not ride on his bus on September 25, 1963, because he did not recognize his photograph as being familiar to him.

Mr. C. R. BROWNING, home address 1119 Mission Ridge, Austin, Texas, Greyhound Bus Terminal Ticket Agent, advised he was on duty during the afternoon on September 25, 1963, until after the departure of Kerrville Bus Company bus that departed at 6:15 p.m. and was on duty at all times after 12:00 noon. He observed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and one of JACK RUBY and stated he could not state that he had ever sold a bus ticket to either on September 25, 1963, or at any other time. He pointed out that due to the large number of tickets sold to passengers enroute to Houston, Texas, from Austin, Texas, it would be almost impossible to recall any one passenger who purchased a ticket as far back as September, 1963.

He admitted it would have been possible for him to have sold a ticket to OSWALD or RUBY and him not be able to identify either of their pictures at this time.

BROWNING pointed out that he and Miss LOUISE HAMILTON were the only ticket agents on duty from noon to after 6:15 p.m. on September 25, 1963.

H. O. DOLGNER was interviewed at the Continental Trailways Depot, Laredo, Texas, at which time he furnished the following information:

He is a bus driver for Continental Trailways and on October 3, 1963, he drove the Trailways bus from Laredo, Texas, to Corpus Christi, Texas, leaving Laredo at 7:25 a.m. and arriving in Corpus Christi, Texas, at 10:05 a.m. He added that this bus goes by way of Alice, Texas.

Upon viewing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he advised that this individual was not on his bus on October 3, 1963, or any other time. He stated that this morning run is usually light with passengers, and if OSWALD had been on that bus, he would remember him.

He was exhibited a photograph of JACK RUBY and stated that he did not know this individual and had never seen him before.

Mr. J. PAUL McCULLOUGH, Claims Examiner, III, Insurance Department, Texas Employment Commission, TEC Building, advised that sometime in November, 1963, he recalls receiving a letter from an individual who apparently was attempting to file a false claim. He stated that he has been unable to locate the letter, that he will continue to look for the letter; however, he doubts that he will ever find it, inasmuch as there are some 400,000 claims in the TEC office. He exhibited work papers reflecting his efforts to date to locate the letter which he recalled receiving.

Mr. McCULLOUGH stated that in substance the two- paragraph letter related that this individual who was making the claim indicated he probably would not receive due consideration just as "that person who appealed to Governor CONNALLY about rescinding a discharge from the Marine Corps and did not receive satisfaction."

Mr. McCULLOUGH said that the writer of the letter indicated he, the writer, might also have to take matters into his own hands. Mr. McCULLOUGH said the writer of the letter did not mention OSWALD by name and only described his appeal in a way that suggested to McCULLOUGH that the writer was referring to OSWALD.

Mr. McCULLOUGH stated that should he be successful in locating the letter he would immediately notify the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date February 24, 1964

OSCAR FERRINO, Owner of St. Anthony Hotel, Laredo, Texas, viewed photographs of JOHN HOWARD BOWEN, one taken with pith helmet and other in business suit in front of what appears to be old English castle, and stated that both photographs appeared to be photographs of the JOHN HOWARD BOWEN that has been staying periodically at the St. Anthony Hotel, P. O. Box 308, for several years.

FERRINO stated that BOWEN usually stays at

Date February 20, 1964.

JOHN HOWARD BOWEN was interviewed at the St. Anthony Hotel, Room 105, Laredo, Texas, at which time he related the following information.

He made available two ticket stubs from the "Flecha Roja" (Red Arrow) Bus Lines, one purchased at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, bearing number 0921, dated September 26, 1963, reflecting fare of $71.40 pesos, from Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, the other purchased in Mexico bearing number 1142 and dated October 1, 1963, reflecting fare of $71.40 pesos from Mexico - Nuevo Laredo.

BOWEN stated he departed Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, approximately 2:00 p.m., September 26, 1963, on a Flecha Roja bus and arrived in Mexico City around 10:00 a.m., September 27, 1963. He stated there were no other Americans or English speaking persons on this bus and to his knowledge, none of the Mexican passengers spoke English. He sat near the front of the bus next to the window and there was a young man sitting next to him.

This man appeared to be Mexican, about 29 years of age, dark brown hair, had Spanish look, about 5'8", 150 pounds. He was shabbily dressed, wearing khaki pants and was carrying a brown zippered traveling bag which he placed on the top rack of the bus.

BOWEN stated he did not talk to this man, nor did this man speak to him, or anyone else on the bus. He stated that upon leaving Sabinas Hidalgo, after stopping there for lunch, this person went to the rear of the bus and went to sleep. He stated he does not know where this man got off the bus.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was exhibited to BOWEN, and after viewing it carefully, stated that he could not identify this photograph as being identical to the man who sat next to him on the Flecha Roja bus September 26, 1963. He viewed the photograph of OSWALD again and stated that he has never seen that person at any time.

On 2/16/64 at Laredo, Texas File # SA 105-2909

by SA LEOPOLDO E. ARMIJO/mkd Date dictated 2/18/64

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

BOWEN stated that this bus arrived in Mexico City about 10:00 a.m., September 27, 1963, and he boarded another bus on the afternoon of the 27th and went to Puebla, Mexico, where he stayed at the Teresa Hotel overnight. From there he boarded a train and went to JESUS CARANZAS, Mexico, and stayed at the Railroad Hotel about two nights, and returned to Laredo, Texas, on October 2, 1963.

When queried about his activities since September 1, 1963, he became indignant, and wanted to know why the FBI was interested in his itinerary, adding that this was a free country and he could travel whenever and wherever he pleased.

Under further interrogation, BOWEN stated that during the month of September, 1963, he stayed at the St. Anthony Hotel, Laredo, Texas, until his trip to Mexico on September 26, 1963. After returning from Mexico on October 2, 1963, he remained in Laredo at the St. Anthony Hotel until the latter part of October when he went on a lengthy t ip in the United States, visiting churches and collecting religious books. He added that the records at the St. Anthony Hotel would not reflect that he stayed there in September or October inasmuch as the owner of the hotel owed him momey from a typewriter that was stolen from his room and did not charge him for use of the room and therefore, did not sign his name on the hotel register.

Referring to the lengthy trip he took in the United States the latter part of October, November, and most of December, he stated that he first went to Houston, Texas, where he stayed two nights at the Spur Hotel near the Greyhound station having left Laredo, Texas, in mid-October. From Houston, he went to Memphis, Tennessee, to see Dr. A. D. MULA; however, did not see him as he arrived there at night. He stayed in Memphis two nights at the William Len Hotel. From there, he went to Charlotte, North Carolina, where he stayed at the YMCA and then went on to Columbia, South Carolina, and back to Laredo, Texas, just before Christmas. After Christmas, he went on another trip and visited Houston, Texas; Lake Charles and Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and returned to Laredo, Texas. He added that this occurred in January, and in February, he made a trip to Birmingham, Alabama.

BOWEN stated that he has never stayed in Texmelucan, Mexico, adding that he has only been through there on his way to Mexico City. He denied being interviewed in Mexico by anyone, and denied ever using a dual identity or ever having been in any other foreign country. He further stated that he has never used the name of ALBERT OSBORNE. He knows a man by that name who is also a preacher and missionery in Mexico. He last saw OSBORNE in Mexico City in mid-summer of 1963, and he and OSBORNE were last together in Oaxaca, Mexico, in 1959. He added that he and OSBORNE look very much alike and were often mistaken for each other in Mexico.

BOWEN stated that during his travels in Mexico, he always stays with Pastors and Christian people and sometimes does the same thing in the United States. He could not furnish names of people in the United States with whom he has stayed, explaining that he just could not remember their names. He stated that he is well known in Mexico, particularly Vera Cruz, and Oaxaca, and mentioned the following names of persons who know him and with whom he has stayed in the past: MOSIS NAUM, Pastor in Vera Cruz; LEONARD INGRAM and PERCY COX, both preachers in Mexico City; JOHN HARRIS, Preacher in Arizaba, Vera Cruz. He added that COX and INGRAM are both listed in the directory, Mexico City. He also knows the man in charge of the Bible Society in Mexico City, however, cannot recall his name. He stated that he visits other cities in Mexico, however, could not recall all the names.

BOWEN was again exhibited photograph of OSWALD and reiterated that he could not identify OSWALD as being on the same bus with him on September 26, 1963, and has never seen him at any time. When confronted with the fact that three other people on the same bus identified him and OSWALD as being seated in the same seat, he stated that he was saying only what he knew, and that possibly other people are not being truthful.

When queried about his background, BOWEN stated that he organized the Boys Club in Knoxville, Tennessee, in 1934, now known as the Boys Club of America. At this point,

BOWEN was pressed for his full background, specific details regarding his activities since September 1, 1963, names of friends, relatives, and people he has visited, etc., and he became very indignant. He stated that he had furnished all of this information to the Birmingham FBI Office and did not have to furnish it again. He stated that he did not understand why the FBI was interviewing him everywhere he went, and wanted to know what he was being charged with as he might get a lawyer. He was advised that he was not charged with anything and was not under arrest. At this point, he stated that he did not want to make any further statements. When asked where he intended to go from Laredo, Texas, he stated he did not know, and refused to say where he was going.

OSCAR FERRINO, owner, St. Anthony Hotel, Laredo, Texas, advised that he recalls JOHN HOWARD BOWEN staying at this hotel in October and November, 1963; however, did not recall the dates and his records would not show inasmuch as a typewriter belonging to BOWEN was stolen from his room and he, FERRINO, paid BOWEN $30.00 for the loss of this typewriter. He did not actually give BOWEN $30.00, but let him stay in the room free, which would be about fifteen days for that amount of money.

In view of this, he did not record BOWEN's name on the register. In checking his records further, he noted that BOWEN stayed at the St. Anthony hotel three nights in December, 1963, commencing on December 29.

FERRINO added that BOWEN checked out of the hotel at 7 a.m., February 17, 1964, and did not say where he was going.

The following investigation was conducted by SA FRED T. LEE, JR., at Eagle Pass, Texas.

On February 18, 1964, Reverend WALTER L. HLUCHAN, Minister, Penecostal Church of God, advised that on about February 8, 1964, he had received an undated letter from ALBERT OSBORN who he knows as JOHN HOWARD BOWEN. Return address on the letter was ALBERT OSBORN, Emilio Carranza-4-8, Texmelucan, Pue., Mexico. In this letter OSBORN indicated that on about December 20, 1963, he had returned to Texmelucan after preaching for some time in England, Spain, Northern France, and Northern Africa. OSBORN did not indicate in his letter the length of time he had spent in Europe, but did indicate he expected to remain in Texmelucan for some time. Reverend HLUCHAN advised he could not furnish any additional information concerning the whereabouts or travel plan of OSBORN.

On February 19, 1964, Reverend JAMES TIMMONS, Baptist Minister, advised he has known OSBORN since about 1944. TIMMONS advised he has not seen OSBORN for some two years and does not know anything concerning his present whereabouts or activities. TIMMONS indicated that he recently sent a letter to OSBORN with a return address Eagle Pass, Post Office Box 517, but that he has not received any reply to this letter. TIMMONS continued by stating that in the past OSBORN had frequently visited Reverend JOE AMARINE, Mission Secretary, Southern Baptist Convention, Alice, Texas.

Further, Mr. TIMMONS described OSBORN as a person who "acted mysteriously and secretively" and that to his knowledge had not attended any ministerial school and his only affiliation with any religious group was the "Plymouth Brothers" which he described as an English non-denomination sect.

On February 18, 1964, lookouts were placed with the Immigration and Naturalization Service at Eagle Pass, Texas, and a lookout was placed with the Immigration Service at Piedras Negras, Mexico. Both of these services indicated they would advise should OSBORN enter or leave Mexico at either of these locations.

Report of:	SA EDWIN DALRYMPLE	Office:	Houston
Date:	2/20/64
Field Office File #:	Houston 105-1291	Bureau File #:	105-82555
Title:	LEE HARVEY OSWALD
Character:	INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Synopsis:

No record located at Houston of air travel by OSWALD from Houston to Austin, Texas, on 9/25/63. Pan American World Airways unable to locate any record that OSWALD inquired regarding flights from Houston to Mexico City. E. P. HAMMETT, Continental Trailways ticket agent at Houston, identified ticket stub of ticket sold on 9/25/63 at Houston for travel to Laredo, Texas, as ticket he sold. HAMMETT went on duty at 10:30 PM on 9/25/63. HAMMETT viewed photographs of OSWALD and stated he believes he recalled selling a ticket to OSWALD in approximately September, 1963. HAMMETT stated person in question inquired as to price of tickets to Mexico City and had difficulty making up mind regarding travel. Other employees of Continental Trailways Bus Terminal on duty at above period unable to recall seeing OSWALD. Mrs. LOLA E. HOLLMAN, operator of employment service at Houston, reportedly had conversation with OSWALD in approximately October, 1963, but upon interview unable to positively identify him.

DETAILS: AT HOUSTON, TEXAS:

The following investigation was conducted concerning OSWALD's reported travel and movements between New Orleans, Louisiana, and Mexico City, Mexico, during the period September 25 - 26, 1963. Previous investigation established OSWALD cashed a check at New Orleans, Louisiana, after 8:00 AM on September 25, 1963. He was reported to have telephoned Mrs. HORACE TWIFORD at Houston on the evening of September 25, 1963, at a time she believed was between 7 and 9:00 PM. In the interim, an employee at Social Security Headquarters, Austin, Texas, reported she believed she was contacted by OSWALD at Austin on September 25, 1963, at approximately 1:00 PM. When OSWALD talked to Mrs. TWIFORD at Houston, he indicated he was considering flying to Mexico. Other witnesses have reported OSWALD boarded a Continental Trailways bus at Houston, Texas, at approximately 2:00 AM on September 26, 1963, on which bus he traveled to Laredo, Texas, and thereafter traveled to Mexico City. Investigation was conducted to determine if OSWALD might have flown from New Orleans to Houston and thence to Austin, Texas, on September 25, 1963.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On January 16, 1964, DON RODGERS, Continental Airlines, Inc., Houston International Airport, stated that in September, 1963, Continental had the only air schedules between Austin and Houston, although these routes were subsequently taken over by Trans-Texas Airways in November, 1963. RODGERS checked his records and schedules and reported that on September 25, 1963, Continental Airlines had no flights to Austin from Houston between 6:50 AM and 12:20 PM. A person could have left Houston on Continental Flight 215 at 12:20 PM and would have arrived at Austin at 1:10 PM on that date. RODGERS located the manifest for Flight 215 on September 25, 1963, and the passenger list was examined. Neither OSWALD's name nor any of his known aliases appeared on this manifest.

RODGERS reported that a passenger could have left Austin on Continental Flight 212 at approximately 2:30 PM on September 25, 1963, arriving at Houston at approximately 3:20 PM. There were no more scheduled flights from Austin to Houston from 2:30 PM until 10:00 AM on September 26, 1963. RODGERS pointed out the identities of passengers on flights from Austin to Houston would not be available in the records maintained at Houston, Texas.

In view of the possibility that OSWALD, after arriving at Houston from New Orleans, actually considered flying to Mexico City, JAMES D. GIBSON, Station Manager, Pan American World Airways (PAA), Houston International Airport, was interviewed on January 16, 1964. GIBSON made available copies of PAA flight releases for September 24, 25,26, 1963. These are lists of the persons who requested space on PAA Flight 501 from Houston to Mexico City on those dates. OSWALD's name was not on these lists nor was any of his known aliases. GIBSON pointed out that persons who fail to appear at flight time, who cancelled previous reservations, or who appeared at the last minute without reservations are also recorded on these lists, sometimes in ink by the employees on duty. These flight release lists are actually prepared by the PAA Central Reservations Department at Miami, Florida, and are furnished interested offices by teletype. GIBSON pointed out that the PAA Central Reservations Office at Miami had previously been carefully checked in connection with this investigation without locating OSWALD's name. GIBSON stated his office had no record of any request or inquiry on the part of OSWALD in connection with possible air travel to Mexico City.

Houston Texas

On January 17, 1964, DAVID R. TAYLOR, District Sales Manager, PAA, 1210 South Main Street, checked all available records in an effort to find a file card or other data indicating that OSWALD may have made an exploratory inquiry concerning possible travel to Mexico City without actually making a reservation. Mr, TAYLOR stated he could find no such record and his records had been searched thoroughly at an earlier date without locating any record pertaining to OSWALD. Mr. TAYLOR pointed out that PAA has the only direct air travel to Mexico City from Houston.

On January 24, 1964, S. R. COBB, Station Manager, Continental Trailways Bus Terminal, 1114 McKinney, made a thorough review of personnel and payroll records to identify all employees of his company who were physically present at the Continental Trailways Bus Terminal on the evening of September 25, 1963, and up to 2:30 AM on September 26, 1963. It was determined that the following twelve employees, consisting of six ticket agents, one information clerk, three porters, and two snackbar attendants were on duty at that time and could conceivably have observed OSWALD. Each of the listed employees was interviewed on the dates indicated and photographs of OSWALD and of his baggage were displayed to them. With the exception of E. P. HAMMETT, mentioned below, none of these employees could recall having seen OSWALD in the Continental Trailways Bus Terminal:

LUCILLE LAUGHLIN 10:30 PM - 6:30 AM	January 28, 1964
VIRGINIA HUGHES 2:30 PM - 10:30 PM	February 4, 1964

On January 21, 1964, GEORGE PRATT, Manager, Continental Trailways Cafeteria, advised the cafeteria closes at 7:20 PM and between that time and 7:00 AM the only employees on duty in connection with his facility are the snackbar attendants who were identified and interviewed as set out above.

Previous investigation at the Continental Trailways Bus Terminal, Houston, Texas, revealed that for the period September 24, 1963, through September 26, 1963, only one ticket, bearing number 112230, was sold from Houston to Laredo, Texas, the price being $10.60. It was indicated the stubs of all such tickets were permanently filed at Dallas, Texas.

On January 17, 1964, CONNIE WALTERS, Continental Trailways Bus Company, 2805 Logan, Dallas, Texas, made available a copy of auditor's stub for Continental Trailways bus ticket number 112230. A rubber stamp impression on this stub indicated the ticket was issued on September 25, 1963, at Houston, Texas, for travel from Houston, Texas, to Laredo, Texas, at a price of $10.60. This rubber stamp impression carried "die number" 12, which Mr. WALTERS pointed out would identify the ticket agent at Houston who made this sale.

On January 21, 1964, E. P. HAMMETT, 8603 Detroit Street, Houston, Texas, employed as a ticket agent by Continental Trailways Bus Company, observed this copy of the above ticket stub and identified this as a ticket which he had sold on September 25, 1963. Photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and of a small zipper bag used by OSWALD were exhibited to HAMMETT. HAMMETT furnished the following information:

There are very few tickets sold for travel between Houston and Laredo, Texas, and HAMMETT sometimes will not sell more than one in a week. He stated for this reason any sales or inquiries about tickets to Laredo and/or Mexico are unusual and he usually remembers them. On September 25, 1963, HAMMETT went on duty at 10:30 PM and was the only ticket agent on duty from 10:30 PM until 6:30 AM on September 26, 1963.

HAMMETT stated he could recall a man strongly resembling the photograph of OSWALD coming to his counter at some time which would have been approximately in late September, 1963, and making inquiry concerning travel to Laredo and to Mexico City. HAMMETT believes this man came to his counter at approximately midnight. The man HAMMETT recalls was wearing a pull-over sweater which he believes was brown and white, white dungarees, and dirty white canvas shoes. This man inquired as to prices of tickets directly to Mexicc City and also to Laredo. HAMMETT stated this man seemed to be very undecided and could not make up his mind and after considerable discussion he left the counter and was not observed for a short period. There was no discussion of visas or Mexican tourist cards, these matters normally being handled when passengers arrive at Laredo, Texas. This man did not give HAMMETT his name, and normally there is no occasion for ticket agents to learn passengers' names.

HAMMETT stated after leaving his counter for some time, the above man finally returned and stated he decided to buy a ticket to Laredo, which HAMMETT sold him. This man was alone at the time and HAMMETT did not observe how he arrived at the bus terminal. HAMMETT noted that he believes it was about 1:30 AM or possibly 2:00 AM before this man finally purchased a ticket for use on a Continental Trailways bus which left Houston at 2:35 AM on September 26, 1963, for Laredo.

HAMMETT stated that the date stamp which he uses at the ticket counter is not changed at exactly midnight but is normally changed at 2 or 3 AM. He stated the date September 25, 1963, appearing on the ticket in question would not establish that it was necessarily purchased prior to midnight but could have been purchased as late as 2:30 AM.

After further study of the photograph of OSWALD, HAMMETT stated this photograph was definitely familiar to him and he believes he can associate OSWALD with the person who discussed with him travel from Houston to Laredo and Mexico City several months ago.

HAMMETT stated that between mdinight and 2:00 AM there is only one ticket agent at the counter, two porters work in the driveways, and normally one person is on duty in the snackbar operated in the lobby. The restaurant opening onto the lobby closes every night at 7:20 PM.

On January 29, 1964, Mrs. MARINA OSWALD, widow of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, was interviewed at Dallas, Texas, and advised that to the best of her knowledge LEE HARVEY OSWALD had not owned a brown and white pull-over sweater or white dungarees or white canvas shoes.

On January 25, 1964, JOHNNY W. JACKSON, 1111 West 26th Street, Houston, Texas, advised that he had recently applied for a job at the Spring Branch Employment Service on Long Point Road, which was operated by a woman approximately 55 years of age who conducted this business alone. JACKSON related that while talking with this woman she mentioned that she believed LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been in her agency to seek employment on or about October 24, 1963. This woman allegedly told JACKSON the man she believed to be OSWALD had told her his wife was in Dallas and was expecting a baby and that he was staying with friends while visiting in Houston. This woman also stated the man referred to remained in Houston for about four days before returning to Dallas. JACKSON stated this woman indicated she had not reported this matter to the FBI because she "did not want to become involved."

On January 28, 1964, Mrs. LOLA E. HOLIMAN, owner, Spring Branch Employment Service, 7511 Long Point Road, advised that she is the sole employee of her company and that she deals mainly in office and technical personnel. She stated occasionally a transient "wanderer" will come to her office from the Texas Employment Commission located directly across the street.

Mrs. HOLIMAN related she could recall that one afternoon in late October a young man came in who stated he was looking for a job and would take any kind of work. She recalled this man was wearing a white shirt and stated he had been selling books but was not making any money. This man had a slight accent, stated his wife was expecting a baby and that he needed a job badly. Mrs. HOLIMAN asked this man if he was a local man and he replied he had been working in New Orleans. Mrs. HOLIMAN commented that she had formerly lived in New Orleans and this caused a short conversation. This man commented that "things were rough" in New Orleans and he was trying to get back to Texas. He stated his mother resided at Fort Worth. Mrs. HOLIMAN asked this man if he was from Fort Worth and he said he had lived there a long time and went to school there. Mrs. HOLIMAN did not obtain this man's name and did not take an application from him, but suggested that he go across the street to the Texas Employment Commission.

Mrs. HOLIMAN stated when she later saw photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the newspapers she immediately thought that this man may have been OSWALD. At that time she recalled that the man mentioned above had visited her about one month before the assassination of President KENNEDY. She recalled that this man was about 25 years of age, approximately 5'7" in height, wore no hat and had a very soft voice with a definite accent. He was wearing some type of jacket rather than a suit.

Photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD were exhibited to Mrs. HOLIMAN, and she stated she now feels very uncertain as to whether the man she spoke to was OSWALD, although the photograph did look familiar. Mrs. HOLIMAN stated she had mentioned this matter to several of her customers but she denied having said to anyone that she knew this to be OSWALD or that the man in question had made any statements about staying with friends in Houston or how long he had been in Houston. Mrs. HOLIMAN stated she may have associated this man with OSWALD because of the published accounts that OSWALD was from Fort Worth and had been in New Orleans, although she believed she associated OSWALD with this man because of the similarity in appearance.

Houston, Texas

On January 27, 1964, BOYD A. LARSEN, Manager, Northwest Office, Texas Employment Commission, 1806 Woodvine, made a thorough check of all records maintained by his office and stated there was no record of LEE HARVEY OSWALD having applied for work through his agency at any time. Mr. LARSEN telephonically checked with the downtown offices of the Texas Employment Commission and was advised that records of those offices had previously been thoroughly checked and no information pertaining to OSWALD had been located.

It is noted the Northwest Office of the Texas Employment Commission is located directly across Long Point Road from the Spring Branch Employment Service.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Synopsis: [MARTHA ZANFES] advised approximately 2 months ago [SILAS JONES], accompanied by 4 young men, attempted, unsuccessfully, to rent a building from her in Colbert, Oklahoma, to open a private club. She stated [JONES] and his wife were staying with [RUTH SHARPE] and the 4 young men were allegedly staying with [KERSHELL DRIGGS] and gambling at the "Bamboo Inn," Cartwright, Oklahoma, which is owned by [DRIGGS]. [JONES] told [ZANFES] he had been in Houston, Texas, but she believed [JONES] and the men arrived in Colbert the afternoon President KENNEDY was shot. [ZANFES] advised she felt it strange these 5 men had remained in the Colbert area since the assassination of the President. [ZANFES] advised she had no information indicating these 5 persons had any connection with the assassination or were acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY. [RUTH SHARPE], mother of [JONES], advised he was not in Colbert in November, 1963, but did visit with her during Christmas, 1963, at which time he was accompanied by his wife and child. He again visited her from about 1-16-64 to 1-26-64, when her husband was killed, and again during the approximate period 2-11/15-64. She states the [JONESES] are presently in Houston, and are in the process of moving to a new address in Houston. The Town Marshal at Colbert advised he has no knowledge of [JONES] being around Colbert 11-22-63.

contacted the Dallas FBI Office, at which time she stated she possessed information concerning events which occurred on November 22, 1963, the day President KENNEDY was assassinated, which might pertain to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. ZANFES requested she be contacted personally by an FBI Agent for details concerning this matter.

MARTHA ZANFES Colbert, Oklahoma, advised she first met SILAS JONES about three years ago when she leased him a building near Colbert in which to operate a private club. He promised there would be no gambling, but she subsequently found out there was gambling going on and she made him close the building.

About two months ago, she ran into JONES at Colbert, and he had four young men in their early twenties with him at the time. He asked her to lease him a building again in order that he could start up another private club, but she refused.

She stated JONES and his wife were staying at the home of RUTH SHARPE Colbert, and the other four young men, N.M., names unknown, are allegedly staying with HERSHELL DRIGGS and gambling at the Bamboo Inn, at Cartwright, Oklahoma, which is owned by DRIGGS.

She advised JONES told her they had been in Houston, Texas, but she thought they had arrived in Colbert the afternoon President Kennedy was shot. Although she has nothing on which to base her suspicion, she felt it strange that these five persons have remained in the Colbert area since the President's assassination. She advised she has no information indicating these five persons had any connection with the assassination or were acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

[BETTY SHARPE] Colbert, Oklahoma, identified herself as the mother of [SILAS JONES] and furnished information concerning [JONES] as follows:

[JONES] at present, is residing in the city of Houston, Texas, his exact address is unknown to her as he is in the process of moving from one address to another in Houston.

Mrs. [SHARPE] recalls [JONES] did not visit her in Colbert, Oklahoma during November, 1963; however, he did visit her during the Christmas holidays in 1963. He was accompanied by his wife and child at that time. [JONES] again visited with his mother in Colbert on January 10, 1964, at the time her husband [CLAUD SHARPE] was killed. [JONES] visit to Colbert, at this time, lasted for approximately ten days, after which time he returned to Houston, Texas.

[JONES] accompanied by his wife and child, again visited [Mrs. SHARPE] in Colbert during the approximate period from February 11 to 15, 1964, when they returned to Houston, Texas.

On February 17, 1964, Colbert, Oklahoma Town Marshal PAUL JENKINS advised SA ROSCOE J. HATFIELD he has no information of SILAS JONES being around Colbert on November 22, 1963. JENKINS stated he has no personal knowledge of JONES being a gambler. He advised he had observed two men, who are strangers to him, in Colbert to some extent recently. He did not know their identities but noticed they are using a 1963 Oldsmobile, which bears Arkansas license plates. JENKINS advised this group cannot be gambling actively at HERSHELL DRIGGS' "Bamboo Inn" as that establishment has only one room which could be so utilized, and that room is currently being used as a public dining room.

ADMINISTRATIVE:

It is noted that although VICTOR COHEN several times during the interview reported in letterhead memorandum expressed a desire to cooperate in all ways possible, the interviewing agent was not impressed by his sincerity in this regard. It is likely that he may have considered the interview a subterfuge designed to obtain information concerning his possible contraband activities.

Typewriting samples are being forwarded separately directly to the Laboratory.

The pretext utilized in neighborhood investigation in Tapachula was that of seeking a room to rent.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

NOSC

A typewritten letter in Spanish, postmarked January 17, 1964, Mexico, D. F., was sent to Attorney General ROBERT F. KENNEDY by one ERNESTO FLORES LUNA, not further identified.

The letter states in part: "We take the liberty of reproducing with care certain documents which arrived from Tapachula, State of Chiapas, addressed to OSWALD, assassin of your brother." The letter continues that these documents were addressed by a clerk in the shoe store of VICTOR COHEN, FIDEL CASTRO's intimate friend, and the man who was delivering shipments from him to OSWALD and three other people who were to assassinate President LOPEZ MATEOS of Mexico. The letter states that COHEN indicated he was interested in the President of the United States. It is also indicated that more documents possibly exist in COHEN's residence.

The writer claims COHEN was CASTRO's treasurer and that it was noted prior to all this that he was keeping various individuals of different nationalities in his house, including OSWALD, who was in Mexico looking for work and then went to Texas. There were no enclosures to this letter.

T-1, on June 27, 1961, furnished the results of various inquiries and investigations made in the vicinity of Tapachula, Chiapas, Mexico.

band is widely practiced by many, if not most, of the residents of the area.

[redacted] of the Mexican Federal Highway Police stationed at Tapachula, on February 11, 1964, advised that he is acquainted with VICTOR COHEN, who has a store and other property in Tapachula. He said COHEN owns at least two large trucks and a motor launch, and is almost certainly engaged in contraband; although this has never been established. Reportedly, in the past, COHEN has been involved in arms traffic, but [redacted] has never been able to confirm this rumor. It was his opinion that COHEN might engage in any type of activity which would gain him money, but that he would not involve himself personally in illegal activities for political reasons. He stated he knew of no pro-CASTRO groups or activities in the Tapachula area.

[redacted] of the Mexican Immigration Service at Tapachula, advised on February 11, 1964, that he was well acquainted with VICTOR COHEN, a prosperous local merchant. He said he is quite certain that COHEN, for years, has been involved in contraband activities. He and his men have tried to follow COHEN's activities and establish a violation of Mexican laws, but so far without success. There have been rumors that COHEN has been involved in transporting arms, but this has never been established.

During the course of their investigations and surveillances, they have never noted any contacts between COHEN and any North Americans or other foreigners. [redacted] said it was ridiculous to consider that COHEN would ever do anything from political motivation, as he was certain COHEN was only interested in making money. He was certain that COHEN is not pro-CASTRO and advised that there are no pro-CASTRO groups or activities in that vicinity, to his knowledge.

It was determined through pretext neighborhood inquiry that COHEN resides with his family at 3a Calle Oriente #54, Tapachula. Neighbors have not noted any North Americans or other foreigners residing or visiting with the COHENS.

None of the above persons contacted at Tapachula was acquainted with an ERNESTO FLORES LUNA. [redacted] conducted inquiries concerning such a person with negative results.

VICTOR COHEN CHARAFF was contacted February 11, 1964, at his store, La Nacional, 3a Calle Poniente 35, Tapachula. He was advised briefly concerning the contents of the letter directed to the United States which indicated that he was pro-FIDEL CASTRO and had been in contact with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated he would be happy to cooperate in all possible respects to resolve this matter.

COHEN stated he is not at all interested in politics, neither the politics of the United States nor of Cuba nor of any other nation. He is not pro-CASTRO, he has never known CASTRO or any of his adherents, has never belonged to any CASTRO type organization, and would not belong to any such organization. He is a practicing capitalist with a prosperous business and extensive property in Tapachula, where he has 40 employees. His businesses in Tapachula take all his time. He is well regarded by the municipal authorities in Tapachula and suggested that, among others, the head of the local Immigration Office could be contacted concerning him.

Because he is prosperous and because he is Jewish, he has many enemies locally.

The name ERNESTO FLORES LUNA has no significance whatever for him.

He has no business or properties in Mexico City and has never lived in Mexico City, although he frequently visits his father in Mexico City. He stated this could be confirmed by his father, but added that his father is an elderly man and should not be disturbed.

He has not had contact with any North Americans or other foreigners in the past year and has never let rooms at his house or other property to North Americans or other foreigners. All his rental units are occupied by doctors.

[redacted]

As far as he knows, none of his employees is pro-CASTRO. He has one typewriter and none of his employees use it. He furnished samples from this machine. He is at his place of business all day every day, not even leaving the premises for lunch.

He is unfamiliar with OSWALD and was unable to identify a photograph of OSWALD from a group of representative photographs. He recalled reading that OSWALD had been in Mexico, but knew nothing further concerning this visit.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

A typewritten letter in Spanish, postmarked January 17, 1964, Mexico, D. F., was sent to Attorney General ROBERT F. KENNEDY by one ERNESTO FLORES LUNA, not further identified.

The letter states in part: "We take the liberty of reproducing with care certain documents which arrived from Tapachula, State of Chiapas, addressed to OSWALD, assassin of your brother." The letter continues that these documents were addressed by a clerk in the shoe store of VICTOR COHEN, FIDEL CASTRO's intimate friend, and the man who was delivering shipments from him to OSWALD and three other people who were to assassinate President LOPEZ MATEOS of Mexico. The letter states that COHEN indicated he was interested in the President of the United States. It is also indicated that more documents possibly exist in COHEN's residence.

The writer claims COHEN was CASTRO's treasurer and that it was noted prior to all this that he was keeping various individuals of different nationalities in his house, including OSWALD, who was in Mexico looking for work and then went to Texas. There were no enclosures to this letter.

T-1, on June 27, 1961, furnished the results of various inquiries and investigations made in the vicinity of Tapachula, Chiapas, Mexico.

As outlined in attached letterhead memorandum, it has been impossible to resolve discrepancies growing out of the fact that the name OSWALD appears on the manifest of the Transportes Frontera Bus Company without an accompanying ticket number and the fact that, although the manifest lists 9 passengers for Laredo, there are 10 names, including that of OSWALD, on the list with indicated destination of Laredo. All persons connected with the bus company who have been intensively interviewed on this matter are unable to explain the discrepancies although it has been suggested that OSWALD may have purchased a ticket on a date prior to 10/2/63, when the bus trip on which he was listed actually departed Mexico City, that he arrived at the last minute, and that his name was entered on the manifest after the recapitulation of 9 passengers for Laredo and 7 for Monterrey had been entered on the manifest.

Consideration has been given to the possibility that the Mexican investigators who originally located the list may have entered the name on the list themselves in order to avoid further work. This matter has been discussed with [redacted] [redacted] who originally made the list available to this office, and he is most emphatic in stating this could not have occurred.

It is noted that the Transportes Frontera bus manifest was submitted for Laboratory examination by Mexico City letter of 12/11/63. The Laboratory Report of 12/17/63 stated that due to the limited amount of comparable writing no conclusion was reached as to whether the name and destination of OSWALD were written by the writer of other entries on the manifest. The Laboratory transmittal letter of the same date stated that characteristics of the handwriting on the manifest indicated that at least two persons made entries on the manifest and that one of these persons may also have made the entries on line four, this being the OSWALD entry. It was also stated that similarity in several lines of writing on the manifest indicates that persons other than the passengers themselves may have entered the names and destinations on the manifest. The Laboratory Report also concluded that the name of the passenger (OSWALD) and the destination on line four of the manifest were not written by subject OSWALD.

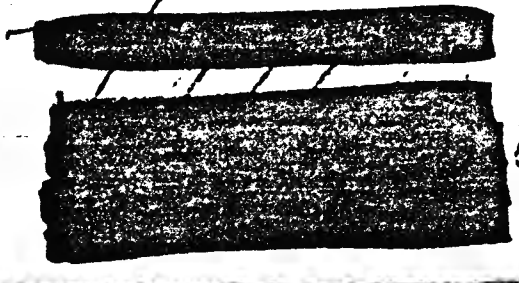
RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

As has been previously reported, a confidential source abroad on November 28, 1963, made available a copy of the bus manifest of a company called Transportes Frontera. This manifest covered the trip of the bus of this company which departed Mexico City on October 2, 1963, for Nuevo Laredo. The bus had a scheduled departure time of 1:00 p.m. from Mexico City on October 2, 1963, and a scheduled arrival time at Nuevo Laredo of 6:00 a.m. on October 3, 1963. The passenger listed as occupying seat 4 on this manifest was "OSWLD," no first name given. The destination of this individual was given as "Lared."

No ticket number was listed by the name "OSWLD" although ticket numbers appeared beside the names of the remaining passengers. It is to be noted that this passenger manifest was rather poorly prepared in longhand with the names of some of the passengers being incomplete and in some cases almost illegible. Toward the bottom of the manifest is a notation, "9 Laredo, 7 Monterrey"; however, including the name "OSWLD," 10 passengers appear on the list with a destination of Laredo.

FRANCISCO ALVARADO, ticket salesman and dispatcher at the Transportes Frontera terminal in Mexico City, was interviewed several times by two reliable sources, the last of these interviews being on December 17, 1963. ALVARADO had no personal recollection of OSWALD and could offer no explanation as to why no ticket number appeared beside the name "OSWLD" or as to the reason for the discrepancy in the number of passengers listed for Laredo.



ALVARADO advised that no information concerning the identities of the passengers other than that appearing on the bus manifest is maintained by the bus company.

As has been previously reported, FRANCISCO SAUCEDO VELEZ and DIONISIO REYNA PAZ, chauffeurs on the trip on which the name "OSWLD" appeared as a passenger, were exhaustively interviewed on two different occasions. They had no personal recollection of OSWALD nor could they offer any explanation concerning the discrepancy in the number of passengers and the fact that no ticket number appeared beside the "OSWLD" entry.

In the course of the second interview SAUCEDO explained that tickets bearing a prefix of 39 covered travel from Mexico City to Monterrey and those with a prefix of 10 covered the travel from Mexico City to Nuevo Laredo. SAUCEDO also pointed out that tickets collected from the passengers on a given trip are forwarded to the offices of the bus company in Monterrey.

On 12/9/63 TELESFORO QUIROGA, ticket agent at the Transportes Frontera Office, Calle Zimapan 104, Monterrey, was interviewed. All tickets listed by number on the passenger manifest for the October 2-3, 1963, trip from Mexico City to Nuevo Laredo were located. QUIROGA could offer no explanation as to why no ticket number was listed for "OSWLD," and it was impossible for him to locate a ticket which might have been used by OSWALD.

It has been previously reported that OSWALD stayed at the Hotel Del Comercio, Calle Sahagun 19, Mexico City. On January 20, 1964, GUILLERMO GARCIA LUNA, manager of this hotel, advised as follows:

The hotel does not use a system of registration cards for guests arriving at the hotel, but rather uses a registry book. On the first day a guest arrives he, himself, makes the initial entry in the book, this including the name of the guest, the place from which he is arriving, his occupation, and his nationality. Thereafter on each day the guest continues at the hotel the same information is entered in the book on the page designated for that day, but the entry is made by a hotel employee. No exact home address is obtained from the guest since he is required to pay in advance. As has been previously reported, OSWALD registered at the hotel on September 27, 1963, with the point from which he was arriving being shown as "USA (Texas)," his occupation was shown as "photo," and under the column for nationality was listed "U. S. citizen." The handwriting on this entry in the registry book has been identified with the known handwriting of OSWALD by the FBI Laboratory.

OSWALD was listed as staying in room 18 of the hotel during his entire stay there from September 27 through the night of October 1, 1963. Mr. GARCIA LUNA pointed out that rooms 18 through 23 occupy one floor of the hotel. He examined the registry book for the period OSWALD was at the hotel and was able to furnish information on three of the guests who occupied rooms on the same floor as OSWALD during a part or all of the time that OSWALD was at the hotel. He said he recalled these guests because they frequently stop at the hotel when in Mexico City. The guests he recalled were the following:

Mr. PEREZ PLIEGO, who registered from San Luis Potosi, is a railroad employee who visits the Hotel Del Comercio frequently. He occupied room 19 on September 26, 27, and 28, 1963. A Captain ESQUIVEL of Veracruz occupied room 19 on September 30, 1963. Mr. GARCIA LUNA described him as a Mexican Army Captain whom he believes to be well-known in Veracruz.

MARIO RESENDIZ, a merchant who registered from Saltillo, Coahuila, occupied room 21 from September 26, 1963, to October 3, 1963. This individual reportedly has a merchandising business involving the sale of flowers and miscellaneous items in Monclova, Coahuila. GARCIA LUNA claimed that he is well-known in Monclova.

Mr. GARCIA LUNA could furnish no information on other guests occupying rooms on the same floor as OSWALD which would assist in their location.

On January 21, 1964, ALFONSO PEREZ PLIEGO, home address Espana 304, Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, office address Bolivar 8-401, Mexico City, was interviewed in Mexico City. He advised that he frequently stops at the Hotel Del Comercio and confirmed that he had resided at the hotel during the period September 26-28, 1963, in room 19. He said that unfortunately he had not noticed OSWALD's presence in the hotel during that time and could furnish no information concerning OSWALD's activities while in Mexico City.

[redacted]

The following investigation was conducted in Veracruz on January 23-24, 1964:

ERNEST HOLM, Vice Consul, American Consulate, contacted logical sources of his office. None of these sources was able to identify Captain ESQUIVEL.

Lt. Commander CHARLES EDSON, assigned to the Mexican Naval Academy as an instructor by the U. S. Navy, was unable to locate any information identifiable with Captain ESQUIVEL.

Inspector ALBERTO MORALES, Veracruz Police Department, contacted sources at the military establishments in the Veracruz area and was unable to obtain any information concerning Captain ESQUIVEL.

Investigation to locate ESQUIVEL is continuing.

Intensive investigation is continuing to locate and interview MARIO RESENDIZ of Monclova who has not been located to date.

It should be noted that the Workers Defense League (WDL) has several offices at 112 East 19th Street, New York, NY. Mr. ROWLAND WATTS, President of the WDL, chose Room 706 at this location for the site of the interview. According to WATTS, Room 706 was actually the office of NORMAN THOMAS, well known leader of the Socialist Party. NORMAN THOMAS, according to WATTS, was out of town and his office provided the type of privacy necessary for such an interview.

The initial attempt to interview DOBBS was made on 1/24/64 by SA ALESIO SAVIOLA and SA ANTHONY D. LEONE, who visited the SWP National Headquarters, 116 University Place, New York, NY. On that occasion, it was determined from EDWARD SHAW, SWP National Organizational Secretary, that DOBBS was not available, but SHAW arranged with WATTS for DOBBS to be interviewed in the presence of WATTS at 4:00 p.m., January 27, 1964, at the offices of the WDL.

During the 1/24/64 visit to SWP Headquarters, the SAS determined from THOMAS KERRY that WATTS was not actually the SWP attorney, but WATTS was representing the SWP in the matter of LEE HARVEY OSWALD's connection with the SWP.

At 4:00 p.m., January 27, 1964, FARRELL DOBBS, National Secretary of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), was interviewed in the presence of his attorney, ROWLAND WATTS, at Room 706, 112 East 19th Street, New York, New York. Also present was THOMAS KERRY.

DOBBS was advised that Mr. J. LEE RANKIN, General Counsel for the Presidential Commission investigating the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, had specifically requested that the SWP turn over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) any data in the SWP's possession concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD, including any correspondence the SWP might have had with OSWALD.

WATTS stated that following the assassination of President KENNEDY, when a photograph of OSWALD carrying a copy of the "Militant" became known, DOBBS searched the SWP files to determine the extent of OSWALD's association with the SWP. DOBBS found that OSWALD had had a trial subscription to "The Militant," which had expired. OSWALD had also sent a letter to the SWP setting forth a change of address. In addition, OSWALD had written a letter to the SWP indicating a desire to join the organization. According to WATTS, this latter letter was answered in "a routine manner" to the effect that it took more than just filling out an application to become an SWP member. OSWALD was told that since there was no SWP branch in his locality, perhaps he would desire to distribute "The Militant" in his home area. WATTS believed that this request for membership had come from OSWALD while he lived in Texas, but WATTS could not be certain without reviewing the actual correspondence.

On 1/27/64 at New York, New York File # NY 105-38431-377

by SAS ALESIO SAVIOLA & ANTHONY D. LEONE/ghc Date dictated 1/30/64

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

ENCLOSURE

In connection with the "routine" answer sent to OSWALD regarding membership in the SWP, DOBBS added that perhaps OSWALD might have been sent "a form letter," setting forth the information as explained by WATTS.

WATTS continued that after the above material was found in the SWP files, a public statement was released by WATTS to PETER KIHSS, "New York Times" Reporter, which statement disclosed that OSWALD had held a trial subscription to "The Militant." Thereafter, the material relating to OSWALD was removed from the SWP files by DOBBS and turned over to WATTS "for safekeeping."

WATTS stated he still has possession of this material and it was the desire of DOBBS to willingly turn it over to the Presidential Commission if Mr. J. LEE RANKIN would write a letter to WATTS requesting the data. WATTS stated that upon receipt of the request, he would forward the material directly to Mr. RANKIN.

WATTS stated that the letter requesting the data should be addressed to him as follows:

ROWLAND WATTS
President, Workers Defense League
112 East 19th Street
New York, New York 10003

WATTS pointed out that he and Mr. RANKIN knew each other.

WATTS was instructed that the Committee would prefer to have the original documents rather than copies. WATTS stated that he would have the records copied for his files prior to sending the originals to Mr. RANKIN.

DOBBS was advised that his desire to deal directly with the Presidential Commission would be conveyed to Mr. J. LEE RANKIN.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On February 14, 1964, HARVEY CASH, American Consul, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, advised Special Agent ROBERT L. CHAPMAN that the list furnished Special Agent CHAPMAN by CASH on December 2, 1963, of persons entering and departing Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and October 3, 1963, respectively, was furnished to him by Mexican Immigration and Customs officials as a complete list of entries and departures on those dates.

The name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD appeared on both of these lists.

The Mexican Immigration records of persons entering Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on September 26, 1963, is as follows concerning OSWALD:

Tourist Permit:	Number 24085
Name:	LEE HARVEY OSWALD
Sex:	Male
Age:	23
Marital status:	Married
Nationality:	North American
Occupation:	Photographer
From:	New Orleans, La.
Destination:	Mexico, D. F.
Method of travel:	"Sindatos" (translation - without records, meaning record was not available or out of file).

The Mexican Immigration records reflecting cancellation of Mexican tourist permits at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on October 3, 1963, concerning OSWALD is as follows:

It is noted that the "Method of Travel" contained on Mexican Immigration tourist cancellations or departure list of October 3, 1963, shows the abbreviation "Auto.". This could mean either automobile or autobus (bus).

GILBERTO CAZARES GARZA, Chief of Mexican Immigration, stated that the abbreviation of "auto." could mean either automobile or autobus (bus) and normally it is used for automobile as autobus is not normally abbreviated.

It is further noted ALBERTO ARCAMENDI CHAPA, Mexican Immigration official who cancelled Tourist Permit Number 24085 on October 3, 1963, was interviewed November 25, 1963, by Special Agent HAROLD H. CROSSETT of the San Antonio FBI office, and he could not recall anything concerning the departure of OSWALD.

The list of persons entering Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, as received from Mr. CASH, was set out in its entirety in the report of Special Agent JOHN M. KEMMY dated December 4, 1963, at San Antonio except for the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, while the October 3, 1963, departure list, as received from Mr. CASH, was limited to only those persons departing by bus or those persons for whom the method of transportation was unknown.

Re Miami letter to Bureau, dated 1-9-64, in which it was stated that Miami would review Alien Registration Cards of USINS, Miami, for record of any individual with the dual surname FERNANDEZ FEITO. It will be recalled that one (FNU) FERNANDEZ FEITO is allegedly associated with the subject.

On 1-23-64, [redacted] CIA representative, Miami, Florida, advised that no new information concerning the allegation involving the subject and FERNANDEZ FEITO in the assassination of President KENNEDY had been received.

A review of the Miami Office indices failed to locate any reference under the name FEITO with a second surname of FERNANDEZ, either paternal or maternal.

On 2-12-64, inquiry at the office of the USINS, Miami, Florida, resulted in the determination that the address report cards which are submitted in January of each year by aliens in the United States, are executed by the aliens themselves and in the vast majority of cases reflect only the first surname of the alien. In light of this, no effort was made to review the address report cards under the name FERNANDEZ.

Also on 2-12-64, a review of records at USINS, Miami, pertaining to Cuban refugees who are in the United States under an order of indefinite voluntary departure were reviewed. These records are composed by INS personnel and reflect in most instances both surnames of the individual refugee. A review of these records failed to reveal a single individual with the dual surnames FERNANDEZ FEITO. It was pointed out by INS personnel, however, that these cards represented only about one-tenth of the Cuban refugees who have arrived in the United States.

In view of the lack of logical names to identify (FNU) FERNANDEZ FEITO at Miami and in the absence of any other lead in this matter, the case is being made RUC by Miami.

THE FANTASTIC DECISION OF APPEALS COURT AGAINST REUTER, WILL BE APPEALED TO THE U. S. SUPREME COURT

The recent majority decision of the U. S. Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, which sustained the contention of the Subversive Activities Control Board that the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born must register as a "communist front organization" is completely devoid of any logic or democratic content. Moreover it flies in the face of its own contention, as we shall see.

The Court admitted that "The Committee. . .undoubtedly devoted the major portion of its efforts to contesting the deportation of aliens." It also conceded that "The protection of the foreign-born is not only a laudable objective; it is a basic one in this country. This is true not only theoretically and philosophically but also historically."

If this is the thinking of the majority of the Court, why in heaven's name the contrary ruling. Obviously you cannot maintain, on the one hand that the defense of the rights of the foreign-born is a laudable act, and at the same time punish the same organization or individual for performing such laudable acts, unless the Court wants to go along with the SACB and rule the (McCarran) Internal Security Act constitutional, when it is in reality unconstitutional.

The decision of the American Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born to appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court is well taken. We trust that the Court will reverse the Appeals Court's fantastic decision.

The Committee's statement points out that it places its case not only before the highest tribunal in our land, but also "before the court of public opinion."

In common with many other Americans, states the Committee, "we regard the (McCarran) Internal Security Act which set up an administrative censorship, the Subversive Activities Control Board, as in violent conflict with basic American tradition Passed over President Truman's veto in an hour of hysteria, the Act flagrantly violates the Bill of Rights, especially the First Amendment guarantees of freedom of speech and association."

It is worthwhile recalling the characterization made of the McCarren Act by the late Senator Herbert Lehman, who was decorated only recently posthumously by President Johnson.

"The potentialities for evil in that broad and sweeping statute," Sen. Lehman siad, "its incipient danger, lie embedded in our laws like a time bomb aimed at labor unions, fraterna organizations, charitable foundations, and associations of every kind."

In seeking reversal of this decision, the Committee said, "we fight not only for the rights of the foreign-born, but for the rights of every American".

Obviously, the decision to appeal the fantastic ruling entails tremendous expenses. That is why the ACPFB calls upon all Americans and organizations to lend a helping hand, by sending financial help. Its address is: American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, 49 East 21st Street, Suite 405, New York 10, New York.

Article entitled "OSWALD's widow in front of the Warren Commission of Inquiry."

Article states that MARINA OSWALD will testify in front of the Warren Commission in Washington.

Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, mother of LEE OSWALD, is not satisfied by the way her daughter-in-law, MARINA, was kept isolated by Secret Service Agents and the "FBI." She insists that she be heard before the Commission, where she will be represented by Lawyer MARK LANE from New York, a former democratic state representative.

Article concludes by stating that LANE will have a conference in Detroit on February 14, at 8 p.m., concerning OSWALD and the different aspects of the assassination of President KENNEDY. The conference will be held at the Central Methodist Church, Adams and Woodward. Lawyer ERNEST GOODMAN will preside.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD, IS-R-CUBA.

REBUTEL TO DALLAS AND SAN ANTONIO AT FIVE FIFTY-ONE P. M., DATED FEBRUARY FOURTEEN LAST, BEGINNING THE COMMISSION NOTES AND INQUIRIES, AND BUREAU TELEPHONE CALL TODAY.

HARVEY CASH, AMERICAN CONSUL, NUEVO LAREDO, MEXICO, ADVISED SA ROBERT L. CHAPMAN ON DECEMBER TWO, SIXTY THREE AND AGAIN ON FEBRUARY FOURTEEN, SIXTY FOUR, THAT LISTS OF PERSONS ENTERING MEXICO ON SEPTEMBER TWENTY SIX, SIXTY THREE, AND DEPARTING MEXICO ON OCTOBER THREE, SIXTY THREE, AS OBTAINED BY HIM FROM MEXICAN IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOMS OFFICIALS AND AS FURNISHED TO SPECIAL AGENT CHAPMAN ON DECEMBER TWO SIXTY THREE, WERE GIVEN TO HIM BY THESE MEXICAN OFFICIALS AS COMPLETE LISTS.

NAME OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD APPEARED ON BOTH LISTS AND WAS NOT SET OUT IN THREE NAUGHT TWO OF SA CHAPMAN DATED DECEMBER TWO, SIXTY THREE, SINCE IT WAS PREVIOUSLY REPORTED BY THREE NAUGHT TWO DATED NOVEMBER TWENTY SEVEN, SIXTY THREE. THREE NAUGHT TWO DATED NOVEMBER TWENTY SEVEN, SIXTY THREE, WAS FORWARDED TO DALLAS BY AIRTEL DATED NOVEMBER TWENTY NINE, SIXTY THREE, STATING THAT OSWALD HAD ENTERED MEXICO ON SEPTEMBER TWENTY SIX, SIXTY THREE, AT NUEVO LAREDO AND HAD DEPARTED ON OCTOBER THREE, SIXTY THREE, AT NUEVO LAREDO.

THREE NAUGHT TWO OF DECEMBER TWO, SIXTY THREE, WAS BROKEN DOWN BY STATE AND WAS PREPARED FOR INVESTIGATIVE LEAD PURPOSES, AND CONTAINS NAMES OF PERSONS OTHER THAN OSWALD ENTERING AND DEPARTING MEXICO ON SEPTEMBER TWENTY SIX AND OCTOBER THREE, SIXTY THREE. IN THIS REGARD, THE NUMBER OF PERSONS DEPARTING MEXICO OCTOBER THREE, SIXTY THREE, WAS LIMITED TO NUMBER OF PERSONS DEPARTING MEXICO BY BUS OR UNKNOWN MEANS AS SO STATED IN THREE NAUGHT TWO AND THEREFORE DID NOT PURPORT TO BE COMPLETE LIST OF PERSONS LEAVING MEXICO ON OCTOBER THREE, SIXTY THREE, WHICH EXPLAINS APPARENT DISPARITY OF NUMBER ENTERING AND LEAVING MEXICO. FROM INFORMATION AND SOURCES AVAILABLE AT NUEVO LAREDO, IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO DETERMINE WHO MIGHT HAVE BEEN IN ANY AUTOMOBILE WITH OSWALD AT THE TIME HE CROSSED THE BORDER OR THEREAFTER.

REGARDING REQUEST THAT SAN ANTONIO RECHECK MEXICAN IMMIGRATION RECORDS AT NUEVO LAREDO, THIS WILL ADVISE THAT THE INFORMATION WHICH WAS OBTAINED CAME FROM A LIST MADE AVAILABLE BY MEXICAN AUTHORITIES TO MR. HARVEY CASH. SINCE ORIGINALS IN MEXICO CITY AND SINCE THIS LIST WAS MADE UP BY MEXICAN OFFICIALS FROM OFFICIAL MEXICAN RECORDS, BUREAU MAY DESIRE TO MAKE THIS REQUEST OF LEGAL ATTACHE, MEXICO CITY. LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On February 14, 1964, Mr. HARVEY CASH, American Consul, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, advised Special Agent ROBERT L. CHAPMAN that the list furnished Special Agent CHAPMAN by CASH on December 2, 1963, of persons entering and departing Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on September 26, 1963, and October 3, 1963, respectively, was furnished to him by Mexican Immigration and Customs officials as a complete list of entries and departures on those dates. The name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD appeared on the September 26, 1963, list of persons entering Mexico and the October 3, 1963, list of persons departing Mexico.

It is to be noted that CASH, on November 24, 1963, had furnished the data appearing on Mexican Immigration records concerning OSWALD's entrance into Mexico on September 26, 1963, and his departure therefrom on October 3, 1963, which information was reported.

The Mexican Immigration records of persons entering Mexico on September 26, 1963, as furnished by Mr. CASH, is as follows concerning OSWALD:

Tourist Permit:	Number 24085
Name:	LEE HARVEY OSWALD
Sex:	Male
Age:	23
Marital status:	Married
Nationality:	North American
Occupation:	Photographer
From:	New Orleans, La.
Destination:	Mexico, D. F.
Method of travel:	"Sindatos" (translation - without records, meaning record was not available or out of file)
Mexican Immigration Inspector:	HELIO TUEXI MAYDON.

4 COPIES DESTROYED

44 FEB 15 1973

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The Mexican Immigration records reflecting cancellation of Mexican tourist permits at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on October 3, 1963, as furnished by Mr. CASH, is as follows concerning OSWALD:

Tourist Permit:	Number 24085
Name:	LEE HARVEY OSWALD
Sex:	Male
Age:	23
Marital status:	Married
Nationality:	North American
Occupation:	Photographer
From:	Mexico, D. F.
Destination:	New Orleans, La.
Method of travel:	"Auto."
Mexican Immigration Inspector:	ALBERTO ARZAMENDI CHAPA.

On February 19, 1964, CASH advised Special Agents LEOPOLDO E. ARMIJO and ROBERT L. CHAPMAN that he still has in his possession a verbatim copy of the Mexican Immigration records concerning entry of OSWALD into Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and his departure at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on October 3, 1963, which were prepared by Assistant Chief of Mexican Immigration, ARNOLDO TIJERINA. CASH furnished this information to Special Agent CHAPMAN on November 24, 1963. This record shows OSWALD was traveling by "Auto," when he reached the Mexican border at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963. CASH stated it was his opinion that "Auto " in Spanish was a complete word meaning automobile, but, upon reflecting on this matter, stated it could be the abbreviation for autobus.

On February 19, 1964, Special Agents LEOPOLDO E. ARMIJO and ROBERT L. CHAPMAN, Mr. CASH, GILBERTO CAZARES GARZA, Chief of Mexican Immigration at Nuevo Laredo, and TIJERINA together reviewed the Mexican Immigration records (FM 11) concerning the entry of OSWALD on September 26, 1963, and departure of OSWALD on October 3, 1963. These records are as set forth above, and show that OSWALD was traveling by "Auto " when he arrived at the Mexican border from Mexico City on October 3, 1963.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

According to GARZA, ALBERTO ARZAMENDI CHAPA, Mexican Immigration official who cancelled OSWALD's tourist permit on October 3, 1963, is not available for interview since he is on vacation until February 21, 1964, and CHAPA's location is unknown to GARZA. GARZA commented that CHAPA recalls nothing concerning OSWALD or the particular events of October 3, 1963.

It is noted CHAPA was interviewed on November 25, 1963, by Special Agent HAROLD H. CROSSETT of the San Antonio FBI Office, and he could not recall anything concerning the departure of OSWALD from Mexico.

Mr. GARZA continued, explaining that the routine on October 3, 1963, and at the present, is that tourist permits of persons leaving Mexico at Nuevo Laredo by bus and automobile are collected at Kilometer 26. This is a Mexican Immigration and Customs station located 26 kilometers from the city limits. According to GARZA, when the tourist is traveling by bus, an inspector from Mexican Immigration boards the bus and collects all tourist permits of everyone on the bus who is required to have them. Mexican Customs at this same station, Kilometer 26, examine the luggage of the bus passengers. If the tourist is traveling by automobile, the Mexican Immigration official collects his tourist permit and Mexican Customs checks the luggage. If the tourist is traveling by train, the permit is collected at the train station, and, if traveling by air, at the airport.

GARZA also stated that CHAPA was the Inspector who stamped OSWALD's tourist permit on October 3, 1963. These permits are then placed in the outgoing mail and are sent to GARZA's office located in the Immigration and Customs Building, International Bridge, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. These permits are sent to GARZA's office at the end of each day. The next day clerical personnel enter information thereon into a ledger book which is Form FM-11. According to GARZA, in the case of OSWALD, CHAPA did not note on OSWALD's tourist permit at the time he cancelled it on October 3, 1963, the mode of travel, thus accounting for the reason why the tourist card of OSWALD did not reflect mode of travel. The clerk who recorded the cancellation in the ledger book noted the mode of travel was "Auto." According to GARZA, this clerk was ROSA MARIA SOLALINDE.

ROSA MARIA SOLALINDE, on February 19, 1964, advised Special Agents ROBERT L. CHAPMAN and LEOPOLDO E. ARMIJO in the presence of CASH, GARZA, and TIJERINA, that she did not recall making the entry in the ledger book on OSWALD. She said that to her "Auto." means automobile, and, if it was autobus, she would have written autobus.

GARZA continued, advising that Clerk SOLALINDE was wrong in making this entry of "Auto," since it was not so recorded on the tourist permit of OSWALD by Inspector CHAPA when OSWALD arrived at the border on October 3, 1963, and that Mexican Immigration headquarters in Mexico City has been so advised that this was a mistake on SOLALINDE's part since she had no idea how OSWALD was traveling. According to GARZA, the actual mode of travel of OSWALD when he arrived at the Mexican border October 3, 1963, is unknown to Mexican Immigration officials at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. He further stated his records in Nuevo Laredo are copies of the original ledger book (FM-11) and that the original is in Mexico City, as is the original tourist permit of OSWALD cancelled at Nuevo Laredo, on October 3, 1963.

It is to be noted the name "Oswald" appeared on passenger manifest of Transportes Frontera, Mexican bus line, of bus leaving Mexico, D. F., October 2, 1963, and arriving Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, October 3, 1963.

It is to be further noted Transportes Frontera Bus Line does not cross the International Bridge into Laredo, Texas, but has its bus station at the International Bridge on the Mexican side. Therefore, a passenger on a Transportes Frontera bus could have walked across the International Bridge to Laredo, Texas, which is approximately three blocks, or taken a taxi, since no shuttle bus operates across the bridge.

On February 11, 1964, H. O. DOLGNER advised Special Agent ARMIJO he is a bus driver for Continental Trailways, and on October 3, 1963, he drove the Trailways bus from Laredo, Texas, to Corpus Christi, Texas, leaving Laredo at 7:25 a.m., and arriving in Corpus Christi, Texas, at 10:05 a.m. He added that this bus goes by way of Alice, Texas.

Upon viewing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, DOLGNER advised that this individual was not on his bus on October 3, 1963, or any other time. He stated that this morning run is usually light with passengers and if OSWALD had been on that bus, he would remember him.

He was exhibited a photograph of JACK RUBY and stated that he did not know this individual and stated that he had never seen him before.

Concerning the question as to whether OSWALD was actually in an automobile when he crossed the Mexican border at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on October 3, 1963, this has not been determined from records and sources available.

Similarly, from information and sources available at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, it has not been possible to determine who might have been in any automobile with OSWALD at the time he crossed the border or thereafter.

The complete list of names obtained on December 2, 1963, from Mr. CASH of persons entering Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, except that of OSWALD's, was set out in the report of Special Agent JOHN M. KEMMY dated December 4, 1963, at San Antonio. A complete list of names of persons departing Mexico on October 3, 1963, by bus and by unknown means, with the exception of OSWALD, was set out in Special Agent KEMMY's report. This was done in view of the information set forth above concerning the name "Oswald" appearing on manifest of Transportes Frontera Bus Lines of bus arriving Nuevo Laredo October 3, 1963. Names of persons departing by other means on October 3, 1963, were not set out in Special Agent KEMMY's report.

The complete list of tourists entering Mexico on September 26, 1963, as obtained from CASH, was set out in its entirety since the fact of OSWALD's travel by bus to Mexico City was not known at that time. This was done to determine his mode of travel. It was subsequently determined that he traveled from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City by Flecha Roja (Red Arrow) Bus Lines and some fellow passengers were located and interviewed.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The information pertaining to OSWALD's entry into Mexico on September 26, 1963, and departure on October 3, 1963, was not set out in Special Agent KEMMY's report since this information had been reported elsewhere.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

HARVEY CASH, AMERICAN CONSUL, NUEVO LAREDO, MEXICO, REINTERVIEWED THIS DATE BY SAS ROBERT L. CHAPMAN AND LEOPOLDO E, ARMIJO. CASH STILL HAS IN HIS POSSESSION A VERBATIM COPY OF THE MEXICAN IMMIGRATION RECORDS CONCERNING ENTRY OF OSWALD INTO MEXICO AT NUEVO LAREDO ON SEPTEMBER TWENTY SIX LAST, AND HIS DEPARTURE AT NUEVO LAREDO, MEXICO, ON OCTOBER THREE LAST, WHICH WERE PREPARED BY ASSISTANT CHIEF OF MEXICAN IMMIGRATION, ARNOLDO TIJERINA, AND CASH FURNISHED THIS INFORMATION TO SA CHAPMAN ON NOVEMBER TWENTY FOUR LAST. THIS RECORD SHOWS OSWALD WAS TRAVELING BY QUOTE AUTO PERIOD UNQUOTE, WHEN HE REACHED THE MEXICAN BORDER AT NUEVO LAREDO ON OCTOBER THREE, SIXTY THREE.

CASH STATED THAT IT WAS HIS OPINION THAT AUTO IN SPANISH WAS A COMPLETE WORD MEANING AUTOMOBILE BUT UPON REFLECTING ON THIS MATTER IT COULD BE THE ABBREVIATION FOR AUTOBUS.

PHOTOSTATS HAVE BEEN MADE FOR THE BUREAU OF THE VERBATIM COPY OF THE ENTRY AND DEPARTURE RECORDS OF OSWALD IN CASH'S POSSESSION. THESE ARE VERBATIM COPIES OF FM ELEVEN, WHICH IS A LEDGER MADE TO REFLECT ENTRIES AND EXITS OF MEXICAN TOURISTS.

SAS CHAPMAN, ARNIJO, MR. CASH, GILBERTO CAZARES GARZA, CHIEF OF MEXICAN IMMIGRATION AT NUEVO LAREDO, AND TIJERINA, ASSISTANT CHIEF OF MEXICAN IMMIGRATION, THIS DATE REVIEWED TOGETHER THE MEXICAN IMMIGRATION RECORDS PAREN FM ELEVEN END PAREN, CONCERNING THE ENTRY OF OSWALD ON SEPT. TWENTY SIX LAST, AND THE DEPARTURE OF OSWALD ON OCTOBER THREE LAST. THESE RECORDS ARE AS PREVIOUSLY REPORTED IN SAN ANTONIO TELETYPE FEBRUARY EIGHTEEN LAST AND SHOW THAT OSWALD WAS TRAVELING BY QUOTE AUTO PERIOD UNQUOTE WHEN HE ARRIVED AT THE MEXICAN BORDER FROM MEXICO CITY ON OCTOBER THREE LAST.

ALBERTO ARZAMENDI CHAPA, MEXICAN IMMIGRATION OFFICIAL WHO CANCELLED OSWALD'S TOURIST PERMIT ON OCTOBER THREE LAST, IS NOT AVAILABLE FOR INTERVIEW

SINCE HE IS ON VACTION UNTIL FEBRUARY TWENTY ONE NEXT, AND LOCATION UNKNOWN TO GARZA, WHO SAYS CHAPA RECALLS NOTHING CONCERNING OSWALD OR DAY IN QUESTION.

GARZA EXPLAINED THE ROUTINE ON OCTOBER THREE LAST AND AT PPRESENT IS THAT TOURIST PERMITS OF PERSONS LEAVING MEXICO AT NUEVO LAREDO, MEXICO, BY BUS AND AUTOMOBILE ARE COLLECTED AT KILOMETER TWENTY SIX. THIS IS A MEXICAN IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOMS STATION LOCATED TWENTY SIX KILOMETERS FROM THE CITY LIMITS. WHEN THE TOURIST IS TRAVELING BY BUS, AN INSPECTOR FROM MEXICAN IMMIGRATION BOARDS THE BUS AND COLLECTS ALL TOURIST PERMITS OF EVERYONE ON THE BUS WHO IS REQUIRED TO HAVE THEM. MEXICAN CUSTOMS, AT THIS SAME STATION KILOMETER TWENTY SIX, EXAMINES THE LUGGAGE OF THE BUS PASSENGERS. IF THE TOURIST IS TRAVELING BY AUTOMOBILE, THE MEXICAN IMMIGRATION OFFICIAL COLLECTS HIS TOURIST PERMIT AND CHECKS THE LUGGAGE. IF THE TOURIST IS TRAVELING BY TRAIN, THE PERMIT IS COLLECTED AT THE TRAIN STATION, AND IF TRAVELING BY AIR, AT THE AIRPORT.

END PAGE THREE

CHAPA WAS THE INSPECTOR WHO STAMPED OSWALDS TOURIST PERMIT ON OCTOBER THREE LAST. THESE TOURIST PERMITS ARE THEN PLACED IN THE OUTGOING MAIL AND ARE SENT TO THE OFFICE OF GILBERTO CAZARES GARZA LOCATED IN THE IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOMS BUILDING AT THE INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE IN NUEVO LAREDO, MEXICO. THESE TOURIST PERMITS ARE SENT TO THE OFFICE OF GARZA AT THE END OF EACH DAY. THE NEXT DAY CLERICAL PERSONNEL ENTER INFORMATION THEREON INTO A LEDGER BOOK PARENS FM ELEVEN END PARENS. IN THE CASE OF OSWALD, CHAPA DID NOT NOTE ON OSWALDS TOURIST PERMIT AT THE TIME HE CANCELED IT ON OCTOBER THREE LAST THE MODE OF TRAVEL THUS ACCOUNTING FOR THE REASON WHY THE TOURIST CARD OF OSWALD DID NOT REFLECT MODE OF TRAVEL. THE CLERK WHO RECORDED THE CANCELLATION IN THE LEDGER BOOK, HOWEVER, NOTED THE MODE OF TRAVEL WAS QUOTE AUTO PERIOD UNQUOTE.

THIS CLERK WAS ROSA MARIA SOLALINDE. SOLALINDE WAS INTERVIEWED THIS DATE BY SPECIAL AGENTS CHAPMAN AND ARMIJO IN PRESENCE OF CASH, GARZA AND TIJERINA, AND STATED THAT SHE DID NOT RECALL MAKING THE ENTRY IN THE LEDGER BOOK ON OSWALD.
SHE SAID THAT TO HER QUOTE AUTO PERIOD UNQUOTE MEANS AUTOMOBILE
AND IF IT WAS AUTOBUS SHE WOULD HAVE WRITTEN AUTOBUS. GARZA
STATED THAT CLERK SOLALINDE WAS WRONG IN MAKING THIS ENTRY OF QUOTE AUTO PERIOD UNQUOTE SINCE IT WAS NOT SO RECORDED ON THE TOURIST PERMIT OF OSWALD BY INSPECTOR CHAPA WHEN HE, OSWALD, ARRIVED AT THE BORDER ON OCTOBER THREE LAST, AND THAT MEXICAN IMMIGRATION HEADQUARTERS IN MEXICO CITY HAS BEEN SO ADVISED THAT THIS WAS A MISTAKE ON SOLALINDES PART SINCE SHE HAD NO IDEA HOW OSWALD WAS TRAVELING. THIS TYPIFIES THE HAPLESS MANNER IN WHICH SUCH RECORDS ARE MAINTAINED BY THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT AT BORDER CROSSING POINTS. THE ACTUAL MODE OF TRAVEL OF OSWALD WHEN HE ARRIVED AT THE MEXICAN BORDER OCTOBER THREE LAST IS UN-KNOWN TO MEXICAN IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS AT NUEVO LAREDO, MEXICO. GARZA FURTHER STATED HIS RECORDS IN NUEVO LAREDO
ARE COPIES OF THE ORIGINAL LEDGER BOOK PARENS FM ELEVEN END PARENS, AND THAT THE ORIGINAL IS IN MEXICO CITY AS IS THE ORIGINAL TOURIST PERMIT OF OSWALD CANCELLED AT NUEVO
LAREDO ON OCTOBER

RECORDS, TRANSPORTES FRONTERA, MEXICAN, BUS LINE, AS FURNISHED BY LEGAT, MEXICO, REFLECT PERSON NAMED OSWALD ON MANIFEST OF BUS LEAVING MEXICO, D. TRANSPORTES FRONTERA DOES NOT CROSS THE INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE INTO LAREDO, TEXAS, BUT HAS ITS BUS STATION AT THE INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE ON THE MEXICAN SIDE. THEREFORE, OSWALD WOULD HAVE HAD TO WALK ACROSS THE INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE TO LAREDO WHICH IS APPROXIMATELY THREE BLOCKS, OR TAKE A TAXI SINCE NO SHUTTLE BUS OPERATES ACROSS THE BRIDGE.

H. O'DOLGNER, ORN FEBRUARY ELEVEN LAST ADVISED SA ARMIJO HE IS BUS DRIVER FOR CONTINENTAL TRAILWAYS AND ON OCTOBER THREE LAST DROVE THE TRAILWAYS BUS FROM LAREDO, TEXAS, TO CORPUS CHRISTI, TEXAS, LEAVING LAREDO AT SEVEN TWENTY FIVE A.M., AND ARRIVING IN CORPUS CHRISTI, TEXAS AT TEN NAUGHT FIVE A.M. THE COMPLETE LIST OF TOURISTS ENTERNING MEXICO ON SEPTEMBER TWENTY SIX LAST AS OBTAINED FROM CASH WAS SET OUT IN ITS EENTIRETY SINCE THE FACT OSWALD-S TRAVEL BY BUS TO MEXICO CITY WAS NOT KNOWN AT THAT TIME. THIS WAS DONE TO DETERMINE HIS MODE OF TRAVEL.

IT WAS SUBSEQUENTLY DETERMINED HE TRAVELED FROM NUEVO LAREDO TO MEXICO CITY BY FLECHA ROJA PAREN RED ARROW END PAREN BUS LINES AND FELLOW PASSENGERS LOCATED AND INTERVIEWED.

THE INFORMATION PERTAINING TO OSWALD-S ENTRY INTO MEXICO ON SEPTEMBER TWENTY SIX AND DEPARTURE OCTOBER THREE LAST WAS NOT SET OUT IN THE THREE NAUGHT TWO OF DECEMBER TWO LAST, SINCE THIS INFORMATION HAD PREVIOUSLY BEEN REPORTED IN THREE NAUGHT TWO OF SA CHAPMAN DATED NOVEMBER TWENTY NINE LAST.

Mr. and Mrs. FRED B. ALLEN, Sr. are long time friends of JOHN HOWARD BOWEN, whom he described as an 84-year old missionary who has worked in Mexico for the past 22 years. Rev. ALLEN had no information re whereabouts of BOWEN, but stated that on 2/20/64 he received a post card from BOWEN postmarked 2/18/64 at San Antonio, Texas. ALLEN advised this was an air mail post card of the type purchased at U. S. Post Offices and said the only message on the card was BOWEN's new mailing address "Niza 22, Mexico DF" and a message that BOWEN hoped to hear from him soon. Rev. ALLEN stated he would immediately notify the Knoxville FBI Office if he or his parents heard anything further from BOWEN.

NOTE:

Ylario Rojas Villanueva, a Mexican citizen in Mexico, volunteered information that he knew Oswald in company with unidentified Cubans and an American named Albert were attempting to smuggle propaganda material to Mexico and plotted assassination of President Kennedy while in Cozumel, Mexico. Numerous discrepancies in his account have been developed and are being run out including alleged trip to Nuevo, Laredo, where he also allegedly met Oswald. Above being immediately furnished to Mexico for information in view of continuing investigation in Mexico. It appears interview with Floyd is pertinent as Rojas at no time has indicated correspondence with or knowledge of Floyd.

Ernesto Flores Luna has also furnished wild allegation concerning Oswald receiving some undescribed documents in Mexico through clerk of a shoe store run by Victor Cohen who also harbored Oswald in Mexico. Investigation to date has failed to substantiate this allegation and no information developed indicating Cohen involved in political activities or acquainted with Oswald. Bureau desires current status of this matter.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

ALBERTO ARZAMENDI CHAPA, Mexican Immigration Inspector, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, was interviewed on February 22, 1964, in the presence of Assistant Chief of Mexican Immigration ARNOLDO TIJERINA. CHAPA is an elderly person in his late 60's. CHAPA stated he has been interviewed on several occasions by Mexican officials and from the Mexican Immigration records showing that he, CHAPA, cancelled the tourist permit of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on October 3, 1963, he knows that he, CHAPA, was on duty at that time and cancelled OSWALD's tourist permit, but that he personally recalls nothing concerning the cancellation of OSWALD's tourist permit.

CHAPA viewed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated he did not recognize the photograph as being that of anyone he had seen previously. CHAPA did not recall who else was on duty with him on October 3, 1963, but stated that he, CHAPA, was "Jefe de Turno" (translation, in charge of the shift) and was the person who actually stamped OSWALD's tourist permit cancelled.

CHAPA stated it was his duty to collect the tourist permits of persons departing Mexico and to stamp them cancelled and take them to the Mexican Immigration headquarters located in Mexico at the International Bridge. The clerical employees, according to CHAPA, in the Immigration headquarters then record the cancellations on the ledger books. CHAPA denied it was his duty to record the mode of transportation being used by the tourist. He stated, however, that if he were to record the mode of transportation being used by the tourist, he would write "auto." for automobile and "autobus" for bus.

COPIES DESTROYED

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On October 3, 1963, CHAPA was stationed at Kilometer 26 (Mexican Immigration check point), Nuevo Laredo - Monterrey, N. L., Highway.

Assistant Chief TIJERINA stated that CHAPA did not understand his duties and that he should place upon the tourist permit at the time he stamped it cancelled the mode of transportation being used by the tourist.

The following investigation was conducted by SA FRED T. LEE, JR.:

AT EAGLE PASS, TEXAS:

On February 3, 1964, Reverend WALTER LADDIE HLUCHAN, Church of God, 711 Madison, advised he has known ALBERT OSBORNE for about twenty-five years. Reverend HLUCHAN stated OSBORNE, who has also used the name JOHN HOWARD BOWEN, is presently residing at San Martin, Puebla, Mexico, which city is also known as Texmelucan, Puebla, Mexico, and is about seventy miles southeast of Mexico City.

Reverend HLUCHAN stated he recalls that OSBORNE told him many years ago that when he, OSBORNE, was in Mexico some twenty years ago he was associated with a missionary by the name of JOHN HOWARD BOWEN. According to OSBORNE, he, OSBORNE, lost his Mexican tourist card at about the time JOHN HOWARD BOWEN was leaving Mexico to return to the United States for residence. Reverend HLUCHAN stated that OSBORNE told him that inasmuch as BOWEN would have no further need for a Mexican tourist card and that as he, OSBORNE, had lost his Mexican tourist card, he obtained the Mexican tourist card of BOWEN and for some time used this identification card of BOWEN for residence in Mexico. Reverend HLUCHAN stated that OSBORNE told him that inasmuch as he became widely known in that area of Mexico as JOHN HOWARD BOWEN, he has since that time used his true name, ALBERT OSBORNE, and also the name of JOHN HOWARD BOWEN. Reverend HLUCHAN stated that since he has known OSBORNE, OSBORNE has used his true name and also the name JOHN HOWARD BOWEN and that other than for the reason given above, he did not know why OSBORNE had continued to use both his true name and the name JOHN HOWARD BOWEN.

Reverend HLUCHAN advised that inasmuch as OSBORNE is a tourist in Mexico he is required to renew this tourist permit every six months and for this reason he travels usually to Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, or Laredo, Texas, to obtain a six months tourist permit. Reverend HLUCHAN advised OSBORNE is approximately eighty years of age, and to his knowledge always travels by bus. Reverend HLUCHAN pointed out that he has not seen OSBORNE or heard anything of him for over two years and does not know anything concerning the travel or activities of OSBORNE during this period. Reverend HLUCHAN stated there would be no difficulty in locating OSBORNE in San Martin, Puebla, Mexico, as he was well known in that city and is associated with a non-Catholic church in that area.

Reverend HLUCHAN stated OSBORNE is not a missionary, but is in some way connected with a non-Catholic church in San Martin, Puebla, Mexico. Reverend HLUCHAN explained that OSBORNE maintains a home where a small number of young boys reside and that in this home he, OSBORNE, affords these young boys some religious training. Reverend HLUCHAN pointed out that he does not know the name of the church with which OSBORNE is associated in San Martin and does not believe OSBORNE is active in the leadership of the church with which he is associated.

Reverend HLUCHAN stated he does not know anything concerning the religious training of OSBORNE, but in conversations with OSBORNE, OSBORNE had indicated a connection with missionary work for some fifty years. Reverend HLUCHAN stated that missionaries in Mexico maintain a tourist status as some Mexican law forbids religious activities on the part of foreign missionaries.

Reurairtel 2/11/64 enclosing revised pages 23 and 23a for your 2/6/64 report.

Reinterview Reverend Hluchan and develop specifics as to his knowledge of Osborne-Bowen. If Hluchan has known Osborne-Bowen for twenty-five years he should be in possession of more information concerning him than the data in enclosures to re airtel. Note that explanation as to Osborne's assumption of Bowen identity as put forth by Hluchan appears to be an oversimplification. Develop specifics re this point. What are views of Hluchan as to true reason for use of dual identity? What does Hluchan know of Bowen? Advise as to date FD 302 submitted to Bureau and Dallas re interview of Osborne-Bowen. Also advise as to results of check of records of St. Anthony Hotel, Laredo, concerning residence there of Osborne-Bowen since June, 1962. Submit new report covering interview of Hluchan in such fashion as to justify dispatching same to President's Commission. Note that your previous interviews of Hluchan have been most superficial and reporting of same has been of poor quality. Discuss this with personnel responsible therfore to insure this does not recur.

NOTE: 3 ENCLOSURE

Osborne-Bowen was fellow passenger of Oswald on trip to Mexico 9-26/27 last. He denies this and in three interviews he has been untruthful with us. He claims to be a missionary but evidence developed to date indicates he is probably a faker or a mental case. San Antonio's interviews of an old associate of Osborne have been very skimpy and it is necessary to push them on this point.

February 25, 1964

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of February 18, 1964, requesting this Bureau to conduct appropriate investigation to resolve the allegation of Mr. Arturo Alcocer Ruiz, his wife, Dolores Ahodo De Alcocer, and their friend, Maria Luisa Leon, that they saw a woman believed by them to be a sister of Jack Ruby in the vicinity of the Presidential caravan in San Antonio, Texas, on November 21, 1963, and again on television at the time a man apparently connected with Oswald's Beckley Street address was being interviewed.

For your information, we have determined that Jack L. Ruby has four sisters: Mrs. Eva L. Grant, 3929 Rawlins Street, Apartment 1, Dallas, Texas; Mrs. Marian Carroll and Mrs. Ann Volpert, both of whom reside at 1044 West Loyola Avenue, Chicago, Illinois; and Mrs. Harold Kaminsky, 6724 North Talman, Chicago, Illinois.

We interviewed Mrs. Marian Carroll, Mrs. Ann Volpert and Mrs. Harold Kaminsky in Chicago immediately following the arrest of Jack L. Ruby on the charge that he shot Lee Harvey Oswald. They advised that they had not been to Texas during the period immediately before or after the assassination of the President. We also interviewed Mrs. Eva L. Grant at her residence in Dallas on November 25, 1963. Mrs. Grant was at that time recuperating from an operation. She indicated she was in her apartment in Dallas during the immediate period prior to and following the assassination of the President and had been visited at her apartment by her brother, Jack L. Ruby, after the assassination of the President and before Ruby was arrested for shooting Lee Harvey Oswald.

We interviewed Mrs. Rex B. Goodman, manager of the apartment house at 3929 Rawlins Street, Dallas, Texas, on December 21, 1963, at which time she furnished information concerning Mrs. Eva Grant. Mrs. Goodman also told us that Mrs. Grant was recovering from an operation at the time of the assassination of President Kennedy, and that it would have been impossible for her to have been in San Antonio, Texas, on November 21, 1963.

In connection with your request that this Bureau review the tapes of television interviews broadcast in the San Antonio, Texas, area on November 22, 1963, at 6:00 P.M., we determined from James M. Gaines, President, WOAI TV; Bob Roth, President, KONO TV; and Wayne Kearl, Manager, KENS TV that their stations were carrying live television network programs from 6:00 P.M. to 6:30 P.M. on November 22, 1963, and that tapes were not made of the programs.

No additional inquiries concerning this allegation are contemplated by this Bureau in the absence of a specific request from the Commission.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

BUREAU NOTE:

We received an allegation through the Legat, Mexico from Mr. Ruiz and his party that they had been in San Antonio on November 21, 1963, and saw a very fat woman approximately fifty years of age who acted peculiar inasmuch as she stood in front of a certain store for several hours. They added that the following day on November 22, 1963, they saw what appeared to be the same fat woman on a television program which showed interview of an individual at Oswald's rooming house on Beckley Street. They further stated they subsequently saw a television program on 11-24 where Jack Ruby's sister was being interviewed and they felt she was the same fat woman seen in San Antonio and at the Beckley address on television. Obviously, the allegation has no basis and fact. This is another of the many false reports we have run down in this investigation.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
Department of Justice
Washington, D. C. 20530

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Your Bureau's memorandum report dated December 3, 1963, entitled "Lee Harvey Oswald" sets forth information furnished by Mexican attorney Arturo Alcocer Ruiz and his wife, Dolores Medo De Alcocer, and their friend, Maria Luisa Leon, that they saw a woman believed by them to be a sister of Jack Ruby in the vicinity of the Presidential caravan in San Antonio, Texas, on November 21, 1963, and again on television at the time a man apparently connected with Oswald's Beckley Street address was being interviewed.

If you have not already done so, it would be appreciated if your Bureau would conduct an appropriate investigation including a review of tapes of television interviews broadcast in the San Antonio area on November 22, 1963 at 6 p.m. to determine the possibility of the Ruiz and Leon claim.

Thank you for your continued cooperation in the work of this Commission.

Sincerely,

This cartridge case found sixth floor Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm, Dallas, Texas, by Dallas Police Department, 11/22/63. Laboratory determined fired in Item C14 (assassination rifle) and that cartridge manufactured by Western Cartridge Company, East Alton, Illinois. Efforts to trace ammunition to LEE HARVEY OSWALD have been negative. Action complete.

C7 6.5 mm. Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge case from building (Laboratory specimen Q7). Remainder same as C6.

C8 6.5 mm. Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge from rifle (Laboratory specimen Q8). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 159, 162-165, 169 and 12/10/63, page 376. This cartridge found in 6.5. mm. Mannlicher-Carcano rifle, Serial Number C2766 (Item C14) on sixth floor of Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm, Dallas, Texas, by Dallas Police Department on 11/22/63. Laboratory determined manufactured by Western Cartridge Company, East Alton, Illinois, as were Items C6 and C7. Efforts to trace ammunition to LEE HARVEY OSWALD negative. Action complete.

C9 Metal fragment from arm of Governor CONNALLY (Laboratory specimen Q9). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 154-159, 162-165. This fragment removed from right arm of Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY at Parkland Hospital, Dallas, 11/22/63. Laboratory determined the lead metal of this fragment similar to lead of the core of bullet fragment Item C2 which was previously determined as having been fired from Item C14 (assassination rifle). Action complete.

C10 Wrapping paper in shape of large bag (Laboratory specimen Q10). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 128, 144, 159, 162-165, 316-319; 12/10/63, pages 294-297, 383, 386, and 1/7/64, pages 47, 50, 57 and 184. This brown wrapping paper and tape in shape of large bag found on sixth floor Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, by Dallas Police Department 11/22/63, which may have been used to conceal assassination rifle. OSWALD was in possession bulky brown paper sack which he claimed contained curtain rods when he went to work at this building on the morning of 11/22/63. Laboratory found several fibers on this paper matching in microscopic characteristics the fibers composing Item C12 (blanket) which could have originated from the blanket. It is pointed out, however, it is not possible to make a positive identification. No fibers found on paper which could be associated with Item C11 (shirt). Latent print found on paper identified as left index fingerprint impression of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as well as latent palm print identified as right palm pint of OSWALD. Action complete.

C11 Suspect's shirt (Laboratory specimen Q11). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 159, 162-165 and 12/10/63, pages 302, 312, 314-317 and 352. This shirt was being worn by LEE HARVEY OSWALD when arrested by Dallas Police Department 11/22/63. Laboratory located small tufts of fibers adhering to butt plate of Item C14 (assassination rifle) which fibers match in microscopic characteristics the fibers in above shirt and could have originated from the shirt although it is not possible to make a positive identification. Action complete.

C12 Blanket (Laboratory specimen Q12). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 104, 144, 159, 162-165, 197 and 203. This blanket released to Dallas Police Department 11/22/63, by Mrs. MICHAEL R. PAINE, Irving, Texas. Blanket was in her garage and had been used to wrap the rifle belonging to LEE HARVEY OSWALD while stored in the PAINE garage. Laboratory found several fibers on Item C10 (wrapping paper) which were similar to fibers present in the composition of this blanket. Several brown limb hairs and brown pubic hairs, all of Caucasion origin, were found in debris previously removed from blanket that matched in microscopic characteristics the limb hairs (Item C23) and pubic hairs (Item C24) of OSWALD. These hairs originated from OSWALD or from another Caucasion person whose limb and pubic hairs exhibit the same individual microscopic characteristics. Action complete.

C13 Bullet from Officer TIPPIT (Laboratory specimen Q13). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 160, and 162-165. Bullet recovered from body of Dallas Police Office J. D. TIPPIT who was shot by LEE HARVEY OSWALD 11/22/63. Laboratory determined bullet is .38 Special copper-coated lead bullet having characteristics of 158 grain Western-Winchester revolver bullet but was so badly mutilated it was not sufficient for identification purposes. Item C15 (.38 Special S & W revolver) is, however, among those weapons producing general rifling impressions of the type found on this bullet. Action complete.

C14 6.5 mm. Mannlicher-Carcano rifle with telescope sight, Serial Number C2766 (Laboratory specimen K1). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 104, 124-127, 144, 160, 162-165, 166, 169, 203, 390, 392, 397-398; 12/10/63, pages 180-194, 367, 378, 382 and 1/22/64, pages 39, 42, as well as report of SA WARREN C. DE BRUEYS dated 12/2/63, at Dallas, pages 660-669. Rifle found sixth floor Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm, Dallas, by the Dallas Police Department 11/22/63, with one live round of ammunition in chamber. Gun sold by Crescent Firearms, New York, New York, to Klein's Sporting Goods, Chicago, Illinois, 6/18/62, after being received from Italy. Weapon with mounted scope shipped 3/20/63, to A. HIDELL, P. O. Box 2915, Dallas, Texas. Was ordered by air mail letter postmarked Dallas, 3/2 or 13, year not shown, with return address A. HIDELL, POB 2915, Dallas, Texas. Envelope contained Klein's ad on which order written. Order prepaid in amount $21.45 by money order. Post Office box 2915 on 3/20/63, was listed to LEE H. OSWALD. Records of Post Office, Dallas, reveal money order number 2202130462 for $21.45, payable to Klein's Sporting Goods, signed A. HIDELL, issued 3/12/63, at Dallas. Handwriting on money order blank, envelope and order blank determined written by LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Small tufts of textile fibers found by Laboratory on butt plate of gun after assassination similar to fibers in Item C11 (OSWALD's shirt). Latent palm print obtained from underside of gun barrel near end of foregrip identified as right palm print of OSWALD. Action complete.

C15 — .38 Special Smith and Wesson revolver, Serial Number V510210, Assembly number 65248 (Laboratory specimen K3). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 84-85, 160, 162-165, 170; 12/10/63, pages 224, 228-231, 334-336, 353; 12/23/63, page 131 and 1/7/64, pages 39-40. Gun taken from LEE HARVEY OSWALD at time of arrest by Dallas Police Department 11/22/63. Records George Rose and Company, Los Angeles, California, reveal gun ordered January 27, no year shown, by A. G. or A. J. HIDELL, P. O. Box 2915, Dallas, Texas. Invoice of Seaport Traders, Los Angeles (name used for mail order business by George Rose and Company), prepared 3/13/63, to ship S & W .38 Special 2 inch Commando to A. J. HIDELL, P.O. Box 2915, Dallas, and gun shipped 3/20/63, which bore Serial Number V510210. Laboratory determined writing on mail order coupon ordering above gun written by LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Action complete.

C16 — Three metal fragments recovered from rear floorboard carpet (Laboratory specimen Q14). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 163-165. Found by FBI Laboratory personnel during examination of President's limousine. Laboratory determined lead metal in these fragments similar to lead of core of bullet fragment of Item C2 (bullet fragment from seat cushion). Action complete.

C1 Scraping from inside surface of windshield (Laboratory specimen Q15). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 163-165. Found by FBI Laboratory personnel during examination of President's limousine. Laboratory determined lead metal in these fragments similar to lead of core of bullet fragment of Item C2 (bullet fragment found in front seat cushion). Action complete.

C18 Fingernail scrapings from right hand of LEE HARVEY OSWALD (Laboratory specimen Q17). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 143-144. Obtained by member of Dallas Police Department 11/23/63. Laboratory advised no fibers were found that could be associated with Item C12 (blanket). Action complete.

C20 Head hair sample from head of LEE HARVEY OSWALD (Laboratory specimen K7). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 143-144. Obtained by member of Dallas Police Department 11/23/63. Laboratory made comparison with negative results. Action complete.

C21 Axillary hair sample from LEE HARVEY OSWALD (Laboratory specimen K8). Remainder same as C20.

C22 Chest hair sample from LEE HARVEY OSWALD (Laboratory specimen K9). Remainder same as C20.

C23 Limb hair sample from right forearm of LEE HARVEY OSWALD (Laboratory specimen K10). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 143-144. Obtained by member of Dallas Police Department 11/23/63. Laboratory advised several brown limb hairs of Caucasion origin found in debris removed from Item C12 (Blanket) which matched in microscopic characteristics the above specimen which was obtained from OSWALD. Action complete.

C2 Pubic hair sample from LEE HARVEY OSWALD (Laboratory specimen K11). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 143-144. Obtained by member of Dallas Police Department 11/23/63. Laboratory advised several pubic hairs of Caucasion origin found in the debris removed from Item C12 (blanket) which matched in microscopic characteristics the above specimens obtained from OSWALD. Action complete.

C25 Limb hair sample from right leg of LEE HARVEY OSWALD (Laboratory specimen K12). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 143-144. Obtained by member of Dallas Police Department 11/23/63. Laboratory made a comparison with negative results. Action complete.

PRESIDENT'S CLOTHING

C26 Pair of black moccasin shoes (Laboratory specimen Q19).

C27 Pair of black socks (Laboratory specimen Q20).

C28 and C29 Trousers and coat (Laboratory specimens Q21 and Q22).

C30 Belt (Laboratory specimen Q23).

C31 Neck tie (Laboratory specimen Q24).

C32 Shirt (Laboratory specimen Q25).

C33 Handkerchief (Laboratory specimen Q26).

C34 Comb (Laboratory specimen Q27).

C35 Bandages (Laboratory specimen Q28).

C36 White shorts (Laboratory specimen Q29).

Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/23/63, at Dallas, pages 153-154. Examination of President KENNEDY's clothing (Items C26 through C26) was made by the Laboratory. Such examination reflected a small hole in the back of the coat (Item C29) and his shirt (Item C25) which was typical of bullet entrance holes located between five and six inches below the collar of each of these items and less than two inches to the right of the middle. Spectographic examination of the fabric around the holes revealed minute traces of copper. It is noted the evidence bullets are clad with copper metal. A one-half inch ragged slit-like hole was located in front of the shirt below the collar button which is characteristic of an exit hole for a projectile. No bullet metal was found. A small elongated nick was located on the left side of the tie knot which may have been caused by a projectile after passing through the shirt. Action complete.

C37 Enco map of Dallas and Fort Worth (Laboratory specimen Q47). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 136-137; 12/10/63, pages 333, 336, 363; 12/23/63, pages 136-144, and 1/7/64, pages 183-184. Mrs. RUTH PAINE, Irving, Texas, advised she gave LEE HARVEY OSWALD a map on 10/7/63, so he could use same to look for work. Item C37 was taken from the room of OSWALD at 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, by the Dallas Police Department on 11/22/63. The Laboratory advised this map, when examined, contained no indented writing. Three latent palm prints and two latent fingerprints of LEE HARVEY OSWALD were found on this map. Explanations for markings on map set forth, it being noted only two points which are marked appear on the motorcade route. It is also noted OSWALD, when interviewed while in custody of the Dallas Police Department prior to his death and after his arrest for the shooting of Dallas Police Officer J. D. TIPPIT, advised he had marked a map denoting the location of business firms advertising business vacancies. Action complete.

C38 6.5 Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge case from Depository (Laboratory specimen Q48). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, page 181, 12/10/63, pages 333-334 and 382. Found by Dallas Police Department 11/22/63, on sixth floor of Texas School Book Depository. This Item was examined by the Laboratory and determined fired from Item C14 (assassination rifle). Action complete.

C39 Palm print found on box by window of sixth floor, 411 Elm, Dallas. Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, page 181, and 12/10/63, pages 363 and 382. Located by member of Dallas Police Department 11/22/63, at Texas School Book Depository. Laboratory identified palm print as the right palm print of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Action complete.

C40 Four cardboard boxes from Depository. Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, page 182 and 12/10/63, pages 363 and 382. Dallas Police Department obtained from sixth floor Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm Street, Dallas. Laboratory examined and developed one latent fingerprint and one latent palm print on box marked A, identified as a fingerprint and palm print of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Action complete.

C[illegible]-C46 Paraffin casts of OSWALD's hands and cheek. Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63, at Dallas, pages 145-148B. Cast made by Dallas Police Department and Dallas County Criminal Investigation Laboratory, Parkland Hospital, Dallas, Texas, determined nitrate was present on the cast made of the right hand and left hand of OSWALD. No nitrate was found to be present on the cast made of the right cheek of OSWALD. These items forwarded to Laboratory but no report of examination located. Action requested Laboratory submit report.

C47-C50 Four .38 Special cartridge cases (Laboratory specimens Q74-Q77). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/10/63, at Dallas, pages 351-352 and 12/23/63, pages 206-207. Found in 400 Block East 10th Street, Dallas, 11/22/63. Two found by DOMINGO BENAVIDES, one by BARBARA JEANNETTE DAVIS and one by VIRGINIA DAVIS and turned over to Dallas Police Department. This location is the scene of the shooting of Dallas Police Officer J. D. TIPPIT. Laboratory determined all four were fired from Item C15 (.38 Special S & W revolver). Action complete.

C51-C54 Four .38 Special cartridges (Laboratory specimens Q78-Q81). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/10/63, at Dallas, pages 351-352 and 12/23/63, pages 206-207. Six live rounds found in revolver of OSWALD (Item C16) when arrested 11/22/63, but two given to Secret Service by Dallas Police Department 11/26/63. These items found by JERRY HILL, Dallas Police Department. Laboratory advised no firing pin impressions present and no marks suitable for comparison with Item C15. Action complete.

C55-C59 Five .38 Special cartridges (Laboratory specimens Q82-Q86). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/10/63, at Dallas, pages 351-352 and 12/23/63, pages 206-207. Found in left front pocket of OSWALD when searched at Dallas Police Department by ELMER BOYD following arrest on 11/22/63. Laboratory advised no firing pin impressions present suitable for comparison with Item C15. Action complete.

C6 Gray jacket (Laboratory specimen K42). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/10/63, at Dallas, pages 351-352; 12/23/63, page 206 and 2/11/64, pages 90&92. Found by Dallas Police Department on parking lot west of Patton Street between Tenth and Jefferson in Dallas. Shortly after shooting of Dallas Police Officer J. D. TIPPIT, OSWALD was observed discarding a jacket later recovered by Police. Laboratory found fibers similar to those composing Item C11 (shirt of OSWALD). Action complete.

C61-C70 Ten cartridge cases, 6.5 mm. Japanese caliber, recovered at gun range, Dallas, Texas (Laboratory specimens Q91-Q100). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/10/63, at Dallas, pages 233-234 and 351-352. Obtained from Sports Dome Gun Range, Dallas, 12/1/63. Laboratory advised none fired from Item C14 (assassination rifle). Action complete.

C71-C136 Sixty-six 6.5 mm. Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge cases from gun range, Dallas, Texas (Laboratory specimens Q105-Q170). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/10/63, at Dallas, page 355 and 12/23/63, page 104. Obtained from FLOYD G. DAVIS, Sports Dome Rifle Range, Dallas, who furnished two boxes of assorted cartridge cases weighing 25 pounds. Laboratory advised sixty-six 6.5 cartridge cases found in above but none was fired from Item C14 (assassination rifle). Action complete.

C137-C138 Two .38 Special cartridges obtained from Secret Service (Laboratory specimens Q177-Q178). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/23/63, at Dallas, pages 161 and 206-207. These two cartridges were part of the six live rounds found in the revolver of OSWALD (C15) at the time of his arrest 11/22/63. Laboratory found no firing pin impressions or marks suitable for comparison. Action complete.

C139-C147 OSWALD's clean clothes - belt, tie, tan sweater, olive sweater, blue-gray shirt, blue sport shirt, white shirt (Laboratory specimens Q179-Q187 respectively). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING 12/23/63, at Dallas, pages 162-163. Clothes received from Secret Service. Examined by Laboratory and no information of pertinence developed. Action complete.

C148 Bullet from EDWIN A. WALKER's residence (Laboratory specimen Q188). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, 12/10/63, at Dallas, pages 438-443 and 12/23/63, pages 168-169. Unknown person fired shot at General WALKER's house night of 4/10/63, while WALKER was at his residence at Dallas, Texas. Bullet missed WALKER passed through wall and found in adjacent room. Laboratory advised bullet extremely mutilated and not possible to determine if fired from C14 (assassination rifle). Remaining physical characteristics same as bullet and bullet fragments recovered in connection with assassination of President KENNEDY and same as those of 6.5 mm. Mannlicher-Carcano bullets manufactured by Western Cartridge Company. Copper jacket and lead core slightly different in composition from bullets listed as Items C1 and C2. Action complete.

C149-C151 Three cartridge cases from A. R. PAPURT, Barr's Gun Shop, Dallas, Texas (Laboratory specimens Q221-Q223). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/23/63, at Dallas, pages 98 and 176. Believed fired at Sports Dome Gun Range, Grand Prairie, Texas, about 11/12/63. Laboratory determined none fired in Item C14 (assassination rifle). Action complete.

C152 6.5 mm. cartridge case made available by Mrs. LOVELL T. PENN (Laboratory specimen Q231). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/10/63, at Dallas, pages 267-270 and 12/23/63, page 182. Obtained from pasture of LOVELL T. PENN farm between Cedar Hill and Grand Prairie, Texas, and believed fired about 10/6/63. Laboratory determined not fired in Item C14 (assassination rifle). Action complete.

C153-C156 Four 6.5 mm. cartridge cases from Irving, Texas Police Department (Laboratory specimens Q254-Q257). Reported in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/23/63, at Dallas, pages 95, 194. Obtained by Irving, Texas Police Department 11/29/63, from temporary shooting range, Highway 183 at Belt Line Road. Laboratory determined none fired from Item C14 (assassination rifle). Action complete.

C157-C160 Four 6.5 mm. cartridge cases from Mrs. VIRGINIA GOODWIN (Laboratory specimens Q258-Q261). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING 12/23/63, at Dallas, pages 115-117, and 1/7/64, page 49. Obtained from field used by residents of Carrollton, Texas. Laboratory advised none fired from Item C14 (assassination rifle). Action complete.

C161-C225 Sixty-five cartridge cases from gun range, Dallas, Texas (Laboratory specimens Q267-Q331). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/23/63, at Dallas, pages 100-102, and 1/7/64, page 51. Obtained from Dr. DONALD D. WHITCOMB, Grand Prairie, Texas, who secured from Sports Dome Rifle Range. Laboratory determined none fired from Item C14 (assassination rifle). Action complete.

C226 Blue jacket from Depository identified by Mrs. MARINA OSWALD as being property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD (Laboratory specimen Q350). Reported in reports of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/23/63, at Dallas, page 209; 1/7/64, page 183 and 1/22/64, pages 52-53. Found on first floor of Texas School Book Depository, 411 Elm, Dallas, about 12/16/63, and not claimed by employees. SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

--At his request, J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission was furnished a duplicate set of the vouchers and receipts of former Special Agent Henry M. Wade with the Director's letter of 2/10/64. This recommends that a letter be sent to Rankin reminding him that any public disclosure of this material, even after more than 20 years, could be harmful to the informants handled by Wade and could be damaging to the relations between this country and Ecuador.

Vouchers and receipts forwarded by Wade in Ecuador disclosed the identities of the informants assisting him and the exact amounts paid to each. In memorandum, under this caption, W. C. Sullivan to A. H. Belmont, 2/4/64, it was pointed out that this data may become public information if furnished to the President's Commission. The possibility was also considered that the informants involved might be questioned by their government in Ecuador. We also believe that government might take strong exceptions to publicity on intelligence operations of United States representatives in Ecuador during World War II and could, at least for the record, register some type of protest.

Now that the Commission has had the opportunity to fully evaluate the statements of Wade after receiving the Director's affidavit, copies of Wade's vouchers and receipts, and results of our interview with him on 2/8/64, the entire question of his manner of operating in the Special Intelligence Service has undoubtedly been clarified and placed in proper perspective for the Commission.

We deem it advisable, however, to specifically point out to the Commission that public disclosure of data from our records regarding Wade's confidential assignment in Ecuador would be most undesirable. This is because the informants named could be placed

I am reluctant to do this. Warren has already stated some testimony may never be made public & as a result he has been vigorously criticized in the press. All I would say I would like a letter like this to hang it on protest from FBI.

1 February 1964

The Honorable Kenneth B. Keating
United States Senate,
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Keating,

It is my hope that you might remember me as the individual who sought your help in reenlisting with the United States Air Force last November. Consequently, I was reenlisted shortly thereafter. However, that is not the subject of my letter.

You informed me that if in the future I required assistance of any sort, I should not hesitate to call upon you; which I am now doing.

Yesterday I purchased a book from the local newstand. It was titled "Four Dark Days in History (November 22, 23, 24, 25, 1963)." This book was published by Matthews Rotary Press, Inc., of Los Angeles California. It covers in pictures the assassination and burial of our late President.

Leafing through the pictures my eye suddenly stopped on one in particular, that of the President's motorcade passing in front of the Dallas School Book Depository. What caught my eye was a dim picture of a man peering out of the doorway of this particular building. True, it is far from being a clear picture. But I cannot convince myself that this man is anyone other than the accused assasin himself. What made me even more certain was comparing this one with the picture taken of Oswald less than an hour after the assassination. The opened shirt, the physical characteristics of Oswald at this time are worthy of note.

For risk of being laughed and humored, I have kept my convictions to myself. But, I can longer restrain myself from confiding in someone. Former President Eisenhower, when asked if the security of America was jeapordized due to the assasination, and if the American people would be thrown into confusion replied; "I think every American will unite in spirit and that each will act as a security agent." Sir, that is what I am doing now. Having every confidence in the people who are investigating into this tradgedy, I none the less feel that I have to submit to you, for I know no one else, what I believe I have discovered. At any, rate it will make my mind less troubled to pass on the burden.

I hope that you shall accept this letter in the vain that it is meant.

I remain, respectfully
yours,

Kenneth D. Poehler

Dear Senator Tower,

My name is Lee Harvey Oswald, ex. of Fort Worth up till October 1959, when I came to the Soviet Union for a residence stay. I took a residence document for a non-Soviet person living for a time in the U.S.S.R. The American Embassy in Moscow is familiar with my case.

Since July 20th 1960, I have unsuccessfully applied for a Soviet Exit Visa to leave this country, the Soviets refuse to permit me and my Soviet wife (who applied at the U.S. Embassy Moscow, July 8, 1960 for immigration status to the U.S.A.) to leave the Soviet Union. I am a citizen of the United States of America (passport No. 1733482, 1959). And I request you, Senator Tower, to aid the question of letting by the Soviet Union of a citizen of the U.S., against his will and expressed desires.

Yours Very Truly
Lee H. Oswald

Was this the motive behind Lee Oswald's assassination of President Kennedy and the shooting of Texas Gov. John Connally? While living in Russia in 1961, Oswald petulantly demanded that Connally, then Secretary of the Navy, reverse the dishonorable discharge he received after leaving the Marines and traveling to the Soviet Union. Was Governor Connally the true target for killing by Oswald?

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Synopsis: PAMELA MUMFORD identified photographs of ALBERT OSBORNE, also known as JOHN HOWARD BOWEN, as being identical to the person who sat next to OSWALD on a bus from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City on 9/26/63. PATRICIA WINSTON has returned to New Zealand.

Miss PAMELA LILLIAN MUMFORD furnished the following information:

She continues to be employed as a legal stenographer at Dillavou and Cox, Attorneys, 611 Wilshire Boulevard, Room 700, Los Angeles. She resides at the Jaqueline Apartments, 153 North New Hampshire Avenue, Apartment No. 212.

Miss PATRICIA WINSTON, who was her former roommate and with whom she was traveling around the world, departed Los Angeles on January 21, 1964, and is presently residing with her parents in Flat 4, #8 Wood Street, Manly, Sidney, Australia.

Three photographs of ALBERT OSBORNE, also known as JOHN HOWARD BOWEN, were displayed to Miss MUMFORD. The first photograph was taken in October, 1963, in connection with his passport application and shows his head and shoulders. He is wearing a white shirt. The second and third photographs were taken on February 8, 1964, and he is wearing a dark suit, white shirt, and striped tie, and is holding a pipe in his right hand. These are stand-up, full face and profile photos.

Upon viewing these photographs, Miss MUMFORD advised that she was positive that this individual was identical to the man whom she had seen and who sat next to LEE HARVEY OSWALD on the bus which had come from Nuevo Laredo, and which she and Miss WINSTON had boarded at Monterey, Mexico, on September 26, 1963, and which arrived in Mexico City on September 27, 1963. During the time that Miss MUMFORD was on the bus, OSWALD sat next to this man, whom she had previously described as "the Englishman".

Re San Antonio teletype to Bureau 2/20/64, 1:45 A.M., and San Antonio airtel to Bureau 2/20/64.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are two photostat copies each of verbatim copies of Mexican Immigration records, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, reflecting entry of OSWALD into Mexico on 9/26/63 and his departure from Mexico on 10/3/63. These copies were furnished to SA ROBERT L. CHAPMAN on 2/19/64 by HARVEY CASH, American Consul, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico.

CASH stated that Assistant Chief of Mexican Immigration at Nuevo Laredo, ARNOLDO TIJERINA, typed the information concerning OSWALD from the Mexican Immigration records onto the 3x5 cards that CASH still has and CASH was present when TIJERINA typed this information on these 3x5 cards.

CASH further noted that the information furnished SA CHAPMAN on 11/24/63 on OSWALD's entry into Mexico on 9/26/63 and his departure on 10/3/63 was furnished from these 3x5 cards obtained as set out above from TIJERINA.

On February 18, 1964, Mr. WILLIAM A. MC KENZIE, Attorney at Law, 631 Fidelity Union Life Building, Dallas, Texas, contacted SA VINCENT E. DRAIN and stated he wished to furnish a copy of a letter which had been prepared in his office, signed by ROBERT L. OSWALD and a copy of a letter prepared in his office signed by MARINA OSWALD, which letters were directed to Mr. MC KENZIE. These letters stated in part that MARINA OSWALD and ROBERT L. OSWALD were giving full and unequivocal authority to MC KENZIE as their attorney to release, give and tell the Federal Bureau of Investigation any and all evidence on all matters relating to or which might be uncovered or told to him (MC KENZIE) in connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY. Mr. MC KENZIE stated that he did not desire to represent ROBERT L. OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD if they started lying to him and that he had impressed this fact upon them. He further related that he was not going to be in receipt of any information which dealt with facts surrounding the assassination of the President of the United States, or anything connected with it unless it could be immediately made available to the FBI and that he wanted both of these clients to realize this.

Mr. MC KENZIE is a highly respected lawyer in Dallas and it is believed he is sincere in his efforts to elicit the truth from his clients. Copies of the two above described letters are being retained in the Dallas file.

RE: DAVID CONRAD GLASS

The following letter dated January 4, 1964 was received from Mr. LAWRENCE LOUGHLIN, Administrative Assistant, office of Senator EDWARD M. KENNEDY, Federal Building, Boston, Massachusetts, which letter was included in a large group of letters of condolence which had been set aside in Senator KENNEDY's office as possibly being from emotionally and mentally disturbed persons. The letter was received in the Senator's office on an unknown date although it was postmarked January 11, 1964 at Klamath Falls, Oregon.

"Jan 4, 1964

"Dear Sir:

"I can give you a lead to the persons who aided Oswald in the assassination of your son. Last summer, about July 15, in a conversation with two lesbian, marxist females named Ona Jane Murphy and Rose Dorfer I was told by them the name of the assassin, the date of the assination, the type of rifle to be used, the rifle bore in millimeters, the fact that he had shot at Walker, the fact that the Paines had been helping him and that he would shoot at Connally. Also - that the assassination involved "a law protecting adult, consenting, homosexuals."

"Had I been certain that they were serious I might have warned you ---- although I was not an admirer of your sons socialistic, pro-negro behavior I feel that killing your son was a pointless, ineffectual move.

"The reason that I'm writing this letter is that those homosexuals (Oswald, Dorfer, Murphy) are in my opinion, seriously insane. - there are probably more marxist queers in their gang. Also, they (Dorfer & Murphy) showed great enthusiasm for shooting then Vice President Johnson. I am certain that Dorfer and Murphy could provide you with leads to names of persons who aided Oswald financially and otherwise. Remember, they told me about Oswalds plan over four months before November 22nd. ---- in detail.

"If you want further, detailed, information, my address is - David C. Glass, Camp 9, Beatty, Oregon. Dorfer and Murphy are partially semitic, lesbian, and married (They

"Sincerely,

/S/ D. C. Glass"

On January 12, 1964 DAVID CONRAD GLASS residing at Logging Camp No. 9, Weyerhaeuser Lumber Co. in Lake County, Oregon upon interview furnished the following information:

In 1954, he was residing in Lakeview, Oregon, and was separated from his wife. He met a girl named JANE WARD in a local bar and began dating her. This continued until February, 1956, when she broke off the relationship. In the spring of 1957, she began appearing to him in dreams and engaged him in what he termed "small talk." These dreams occurred infrequently after he had had a few drinks the night before. He considered these occurrences dreams until about a year later. At that time he was employed by United Air Lines as a mechanic in the International Airport at San Francisco. He recalled that JANE WARD appeared to him in a dream and asked him if he thought MARILYN MONROE would commit suicide. He made a prediction then that she would commit suicide about August 5, 1962. The next day a fellow employee named RAY ANDREWS repeated to him word for word the conversation about MARILYN MONROE in his dream the night before. He said he had no explanation for this other than the fact that it did occur. He said he also had no explanation as to why MARILYN MONROE committed suicide about the time he predicted.

From 1957 to 1959, he thinks he had about twelve dreams in which he had a conversation with JANE WARD and the conversation in the dreams was repeated to him by ANDREWS word for word the next day. About 1959, JANE began talking with him about KENNEDY in the dreams. She insisted that KENNEDY was a relative of his and also that KENNEDY was a friend of Queen ELIZABETH. She would question him about whether he thought that KENNEDY would live through his first term as President and he would reply that he did not think so. He quit United Air Lines in June, 1959, and got a job in Medford, Oregon, for Skeeters Logging Company and during the summer of 1959, he also completed his training for a commercial pilot's license at the Medford Airport. In early 1960, he went to work for Lockheed Missiles in Sunnyvale, California. He had a limited security clearance and at this time he had another dream in which JANE WARD asked him everything he knew about restricted activities at Lockheed. He said the next day he telephoned JANE at her sister's place in Palo Alto, California, and she admitted that she talked to him in his dreams. He resigned from Lockheed in June, 1960. He then became employed by Weyerhaeuser at Klamath Falls, Oregon. The dreams continued infrequently and in one dream she told him she was now residing in Albuquerque, New Mexico, at 506 Sycamore S.E. As a memory aid to remember the address, she told him to think of the Heinz Company, 57 Varieties, subtract 1 and put a 0 in the middle. She also gave him a song title with the name of a tree but told him he should substitute Sycamore. In the spring of 1963, she appeared to him in a dream and asked him what was going to happen to WALKER. He said she referred to General WALKER in Texas. He replied that he did not know but thought nothing would happen to him. She also asked him what was going to happen to KENNEDY and he predicted that KENNEDY was going to get shot. She insisted that KENNEDY was his relative and stated again that he was a friend of the Queen.

In April, 1963, in a dream, JANE first mentioned OSWALD and asked him if he knew OSWALD.

In June, 1963, Weyerhaeuser shut down so he went to JANE's mother, NORA WARD, who verified the address JANE had given him in a dream and Mrs. WARD told him JANE was living there with her husband GENE MURPHY. He said he thought he would go and visit her so he drove to Albuquerque, arriving there on June 18, 1963, and went to see JANE. He talked with her a few times in a park near her residence. He said she had intended to get a divorce but told him she had patched things up with her husband. During the time he was in Albuquerque, he stayed at a rooming house at 602 Arno Street. He returned to Lakeview but on July 9, 1963, he flew his plane, a Piper Cub, to Albuquerque, and again stayed at the Arno Street address. He saw JANE again and she told him her marriage was okay and she did not want to see him any more. He accused her of appearing to him in his dreams and she denied it and he said he was going to punch her in the nose and she still denied it and he hit her in the eye and gave her a black eye. Right after this he hid out in some shrubbery near a church but when the police did not find him he went to his roominghouse. In the meantime, he had got a job in the service department of Montgomery Ward Company.

On July 16, 1963, two deputy sheriffs came there and arrested him on an assault charge. He said they were driving a green "bathtub" Nash, 1952 or 1953 model. It was not a police car although the deputies were in uniform. They took him to Central Street in Albuquerque, to the office of a justice of the peace named [ROSE DORFER] [JANE] was at the office. There he was placed under oath and was required to furnish a peace bond to keep the peace and pay $32, after which he was released.

On December 10, 1963, at [Camp No. 9, Weyerhaeuser Lumber Company] he had just finished reading an account of the assassination of President KENNEDY and the surrounding events when it suddenly occurred to him that these matters had been mentioned at the hearing before justice of the peace in Albuquerque on July 16, 1963. Between July 16, 1963 and December 10, 1963, it had not occurred to him that anything had been said at the hearing other than matters connected with the assault charge, but after reading of these matters in the magazines, he suddenly began to remember that both the justice of the peace and [JANE WARD] had talked to him and during a long conversation they had talked about KENNEDY being a socialist, pro-Negro and a civil rightist. At that time [JANE] had admitted that she had appeared to him in his dreams and talked with him. They asked him to make a prediction about how long President KENNEDY would live and it appeared to him that nothing would happen to KENNEDY if he made no prediction, so to please the women, he told them that KENNEDY would die between November 15 and December 15, 1963. The justice of the peace said that was right and [JANE] nodded okay. They asked him about OSWALD so he said OSWALD would kill KENNEDY and that he had about a thirty caliber rifle with a four power scope. They asked him what OSWALD looked like and he said that he had short and kinky hair and was about 5'10". They asked him to predict the details of the assassination and he told them that KENNEDY would be shot twice in the head. They also mentioned CONNALLY, the governor, and wanted him to predict that CONNALLY would be killed, but he said that CONNALLY would be shot and not killed and he would not predict that CONNALLY would be killed. They then asked him about RUBY and he said that RUBY was the short form of the Jewish name RUBENSTEIN and that RUBY would kill OSWALD two or three days after the assassination.

[GLASS] repeated that he remembered none of the above conversations until December 10, 1963, when he had read the account of the assassination in a news magazine, and after that time, as he was working in the woods, he would begin to recall different bits of conversation as set forth above.

GLASS said that since July, 1963, he has had no conversations with JANE in his dreams and does not expect any more since it appears that he will never see her again.

He said that when these dreams first started, he thought they were just dreams, but after other people seemed to know about them, they appeared real although he has no explanation for what has happened.

The following description of GLASS was obtained observation and interview:

NAME	DAVID CONRAD GLASS
RACE	White
SEX	Male
NATIONALITY	American
AGE	39, born January 5, 1925, Hurst, Illinois
HEIGHT	5'11"
WEIGHT	150 pounds
BUILD	Slender
HAIR	Light Brown
COMPLEXION	Ruddy
SCARS AND MARKS	None
EDUCATION	Graduated from Moscow High School, Moscow, Idaho, in 1943
MILITARY SERVICE	Inducted Army Air Force, 1943, Serial No. 39463842, Honorable discharge in 1946.
MARITAL STATUS	Divorced. Married MARY ALICE COOPER in September, 1949, at Reno, Nevada. Divorced at Susanville, California, April, 1956. One child, a boy, now age ten years, was born of the marriage and his former wife, now Mrs. ARNOLD BURKE, resides in Ceres, California

NEAREST RELATIVES	Father, [LEROY CONRAD GLASS] retired college professor, residing in [Marianna] Florida Mother, [ELLA, nee COOK] deceased. Half-brother, [ROBERT GLASS] employed Aerojet Corporation, Sacramento, California.
ARREST RECORD	States has received several traffic citations but has never been arrested other than for assault in Albuquerque as set forth above.

On January 27, 1964 Mrs. [ROSE DOERFER] was interviewed at her office at [302½ Central Southwest], Albuquerque, New Mexico, where she is a justice of the peace.

She advised that approximately one year ago, [JANE MURPHY] was referred to her officially by the District Attorney's Office in Albuquerque. [JANE MURPHY] complained that she had been struck by [DAVID C. GLASS] and also reported him as a nuisance. She thereafter held an informal hearing in the presence of both [JANE MURPHY] and [GLASS] after which time it was recommended that [GLASS] post a six-month peace bond with local bondsman [MAX BACA]. She could not recall the amount of the peace bond; however, immediately thereafter she determined that [GLASS] never made a downpayment on the bond and he left town after quitting his job. Therefore, the peace bond was dropped. She said she has not seen him since the original hearing before her.

Concerning the events which led to his appearance there, Mrs. [DOERFER] stated that she vaguely recalls that [GLASS] was apparently a brilliant scientist at one time who worked for Lockheed Aircraft Company in California. She stated, however, that when she was in contact with him he was mentally unbalanced and definitely needed psychiatric care. She also was of the belief that [JANE MURPHY] had at some time in the past dated [GLASS] but only on an extremely casual basis. Prior to the time that he was reported to her, Mrs. [DOERFER] stated [GLASS] would sit in the public park across the street from [MURPHY'S] residence and stare at [MURPHY'S] apartment for hours on end both during the day and the night. On one occasion he went across to her apartment and smashed the screen door. [MURPHY] became frightened and told [GLASS] that she would talk to him in the park where there were a lot of people around in view of the fact that she felt it would be safer there. When they got over to the park, he struck her and knocked her into a bench.

Mrs. DOERFER stated that GLASS seriously claimed that MURPHY would come to him through his keyhole no matter where he was and make love to him. He also claimed that MURPHY would come to him in his dreams and do the same thing. GLASS also claimed that JANE MURPHY put "stuff" in his Coca Cola and after drinking the Coca Cola, it would make him do things he was not supposed to do. GLASS also accused MURPHY of being a communist whereupon she accused him of being crazy. GLASS also accused MURPHY of asking him to come to Albuquerque in order to kill her husband for her.

Mrs. DOERFER also stated that the matter was resolved when JANE MURPHY told him that she would not come to him in his dreams anymore or come through his keyhole and would leave his body entirely alone. Mrs. DOERFER stated that she strongly urged GLASS to submit to a psychiatric examination to which he agreed. She thereafter made an appointment for him with a Dr. MILLER at the Bernalillo County Indian Hospital in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Mrs. DOERFER does not recall specifically but believes that GLASS appeared for several of these appointments and thereafter quit his job at Montgomery Ward and Company and departed from Albuquerque. She said she has not seen MURPHY or GLASS since the above hearing. She reiterated the fact that he was definitely in need of psychiatric treatment. She also advised she has no information concerning the assassination of the late President KENNEDY other than what she has learned through regular news media. She said she never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY prior to that time and could furnish no information concerning them or any possible relationship between the two. She advised that she doubts if any record exists concerning the hearing and stated that if one did exist it would be extremely difficult to locate it at this time in view of the fact that they have instituted a new records system and the old records are not filed in any particular order.

On February 15, 1964 GLASS contacted the Albuquerque FBI office and made reference to the previous information he had furnished to the Portland Division of the FBI on January 12, 1964. He also inquired if the United States Attorney General had received his letter, inquired as to whether the matter had been handled and if any arrests had been made. After leaving the Albuquerque FBI office, GLASS contacted the Albuquerque PD with the same information previously furnished to the FBI.

GLASS was photographed and fingerprinted at the Albuquerque PD but was not held, and advised them that he was en route to Dallas, Texas to testify at the JACK RUBY trial. He stated he was going on his own as no attorneys had contacted him. He was driving a 1960 Oldsmobile two-door, beige, with Oregon license No. 2Q7887.

On February 16, 1964 at 8:55 a.m. Lt. JACK REVILL, Special Service Bureau, Dallas PD, was advised that GLASS had allegedly indicated he was en route to Dallas to attend the JACK RUBY trial. On February 17, 1964 Detective DON STRINGFELLOW, Special Services Bureau, Dallas PD, was furnished descriptive information concerning GLASS.

On February 17, 1964 at 8:44 a.m., FORREST V. SORRELLS, Agent in Charge, U. S. Secret Service, Dallas, Texas, was furnished the information that GLASS had allegedly stated he was going to attend the JACK RUBY trial together with background information concerning him.

At approximately 9 a.m. on February 17, 1964 Deputy Sheriff MC COY was also furnished the foregoing information.

At approximately 12:25 p.m. February 17,1964 Sheriff BILL DECKER, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, telephonically advised that DAVID CONRAD GLASS had just been arrested and lodged in his county jail. He stated GLASS had been arrested in the vicinity of the courtroom where the JACK L. RUBY trial was in session and he was armed at the time of his arrest with a 32 caliber revolver.

RE: DAVID CONRAD GLASS

The following letter dated January 4, 1964 was received from Mr. LAWRENCE LOUGHLIN, Administrative Assistant, office of Senator EDWARD M. KENNEDY, Federal Building, Boston, Massachusetts, which letter was included in a large group of letters of condolence which had been set aside in Senator KENNEDY's office as possibly being from emotionally and mentally disturbed persons. The letter was received in the Senator's office on an unknown date although it was postmarked January 11, 1964 at Klamath Falls, Oregon.

"Jan 4, 1964

"Dear Sir:

"I can give you a lead to the persons who aided Oswald in the assassination of your son. Last summer, about July 15, in a conversation with two lesbian, marxist females named Ona Jane Murphy and Rose Dorfer, I was told by them the name of the assassin, the date of the assination, the type of rifle to be used, the rifle bore in millimeters, the fact that he had shot at Walker, the fact that the Paines had been helping him and that he would shoot at Connally. Also - that the assassination involved "a law protecting adult, consenting, homosexuals."

"Had I been certain that they were serious I might have warned you ---- although I was not an admirer of your sons socialistic, pro-negro behavior I feel that killing your son was a pointless, ineffectual move.

"The reason that I'm writing this letter is that those homosexuals (Oswald, Dorfer, Murphy) are in my opinion, seriously insane. - there are probably more marxist queers in their gang. Also, they (Dorfer & Murphy) showed great enthusiasm for shooting then Vice President Johnson. I am certain that Dorfer and Murphy could provide you with leads to names of persons who aided Oswald financially and otherwise. Remember, they told me about Oswalds plan over four months before November 22nd. ---- in detail.

"If you want further, detailed, information, my address is - David C. Glass, Camp 9, Beatty Oregon. Dorfer and Murphy are partially semitic, lesbian, and married (They

Marina Oswald was interviewed on February 24, 1964. She stated that approximately two weeks after the General Walker incident and while they resided on Neeley Street in Dallas, Oswald, some time between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m., dressed himself in a suit and tie and put a pistol underneath his jacket. (The General Walker incident occurred on April 10, 1963.) She said Oswald was unemployed at this time. She said she inquired where he was going, to which Oswald replied approximately, "Nixon is coming and I'm going to take a look."

Richland M. D.C. Texas

Mrs. Oswald said that at the time she realized she had to act fast, whereupon she walked into the bathroom and told Oswald to come into the bathroom with her, which he did. She said she then quickly jumped outside the door, closing it as she left the bathroom. She said she forcibly held the bathroom door shut holding on to the knob and bracing her feet against the wall. She said Oswald attempted to get out of the bathroom and was yelling, "Open the door." She said she forcibly held the door shut for about three minutes. In this respect she said that she cannot at this time accurately recall the length of time she forcibly held the bathroom door closed. She said she told Oswald it was difficult for her to hold the door and commented to him that something might happen to the baby. She said that she was pregnant at this time.

She said she told Oswald he was not going to shoot at anyone else and that if he wanted to come out of the bathroom, he would have to walk across her body. She said she reminded Oswald of his promise to her after the Walker incident that he would not try to do anything else like that. She recalled she said something like, "How can you deceive me after you gave me your word?" She said she told Oswald she would open the door if he would give his word to remain in the bathroom and not go anywhere and if he would undress and give her his clothing and pistol. Mrs. Oswald said that her husband agreed to this and she opened the bathroom door after holding it, as stated, for approximately three minutes.

Oswald then took off his outer garments, including his shoes, and gave them and his pistol to her. She said that she put the pistol under the mattress and that she does not know whether or not the pistol was loaded. Later that day Oswald took the pistol from under the mattress and put it on the shelf where he usually kept it.

Mrs. Oswald said that the bathroom door at their Neeley Street residence opened toward the inside and there was no lock on the outside of the door, although she believes there was a lock on the inside. She said that she feels that she kept Oswald in the house on the occasion in question by persuasion and that this was one of the times he did something that she wanted him to do.

Mrs. Oswald commented that Oswald remained in the bathroom approximately three hours. She said he asked her for a book and that he spent the time in the bathroom reading with the door shut. She recalled that at about 4 p.m. she told Oswald he could come out of the bathroom if he desired, and he did so. He thereafter sat in the living room in his shorts reading. She said that he did not leave the house that day.

Mrs. Oswald said that at the time she did not know who Richard M. Nixon was and she did not recall Oswald ever mentioning Mr. Nixon's name prior to the occasion in question. She said she knows at this time that Mr. Nixon once ran for the presidency, but she said she still knows very little about him. She maintained that she and Oswald did not talk about this incident or about Mr. Nixon after the incident and, in fact, did not discuss the matter during the time Oswald was sitting in the bathroom or after he came out of the bathroom.

Mrs. Oswald said that she told Mr. and Mrs. James M. Martin about the Nixon incident approximately three to four weeks after she moved into the Martin residence and, thereafter, she repeated it to Robert Oswald. She stated she cannot recall whether she told Robert Oswald about the Nixon incident in the presence of the Martins or whether she spoke to him about it alone.

Mrs. Oswald was again asked if she could remember anything which might have indicated to her that Oswald was to do anything unusual on November 22, 1963. She said that she could not remember anything which would indicate this and that the news of her husband's arrest had come as a "thunderclap" to her.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Mrs. Oswald stated that while she and her husband resided in New Orleans on Magazine Street toward the end of August or early in September, 1963, for a period of about two weeks, Oswald was making plans to hijack an airplane and force the pilot to take him to Cuba. She said he subsequently revised his plans to the extent that he included her as part of his planning. She said he told her that he was to sit at the front of the airplane with a pistol and that she was to sit at the back of the plane with a pistol. They were to be accompanied by their daughter June and were to attempt to force the crew to fly the plane to Cuba. Mrs. Oswald stated that she refused to have anything to do with the plan and told Oswald, "Only a crazy man would think this up." She said Oswald told her he would buy a lightweight pistol for her and that he wanted her to at least learn how to hold it. She said she refused to do this. She said her husband told her that he had seen some lightweight pistols, but that she told him not to purchase one as she would not participate in the scheme.

She said she recalled that Oswald, during the period of time when he was planning to hijack the airplane, studied a world map and figured out distances to various places. She said he told her it would be necessary to hijack a plane with sufficient gas to get them to Cuba. She recalled that Oswald wrote out timetables of airlines on a piece of paper. She does not know what happened to the map or to the paper on which he wrote the timetables. During this period she stated that Oswald began to take physical exercise to increase his physical strength.

She said that when she refused to take part in the scheme to hijack an airplane, she counseled Oswald to attempt to enter Cuba legally. Thereafter, her husband began planning to go to Mexico alone for the purpose of obtaining permission to enter Cuba.

(Refrain)

Was it not a dashing fellow who met her by the grove?
He met her, yet would not come close,
For she is quite a girl!
He looks at her murmuring:
"Oh, heavens forbid, I may fall in love!"
Yet, he is reluctant to leave;
He keeps gazing at her
Unable to take his eyes away.

Is it not she who comes down to the river?
Looking intently at the water
With her eyes so bright
She bends over the water;
She looks down and wonders:
"Could this be me?
"Perhaps this is only a red dawn
"That is flaming in the sky
"Which is reflected in the river?"

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 2-14-64

General Walker's supposition that Oswald "was working with a communist cell in Dallas" has no basis in fact. During the last quarter of 1963 there were 7 Communist Party (CP) members in the Dallas territory. We have excellent informant coverage and can identify each member. There has been no information that Oswald was connected with the CP in Texas. If you approve, we will instruct Dallas to interview Walker and pin him down.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka

Specimens received 2/17/64

Q494 One 8 mm motion picture film and one 16 mm movie film showing the assassination of President Kennedy which were obtained from Mr. Bert Reinhardt of UPI and which are copies of the 8 mm film made by Mrs. Marie Muchmore, Dallas, Texas

Result of examination:

The assassination portion of the Q494 film was found to contain only 66 frames with an elapsed time of approximately 3 seconds. This does not include the portion of the film taken along the motorcade route prior to the actual assassination. The third shot is recorded in the forty-second frame of this sequence.

Specimen Q494 is being temporarily retained and will be returned to the New York Office when it is no longer needed by the Laboratory.

Re Minneapolis letter to Bureau dated December 2, 1963 and report of SA EWALD I. CARLSON dated December 2, 1963 at Minneapolis.

By referenced letter it was pointed out the discrepancy of information given by Mrs. KATHERINE SHIRLEY HORST and Mr. and Mrs. HAROLD JEROME MANDERY. It was suggested in this letter that the Bureau may desire to resolve the discrepancy of these individuals by giving these persons a polygraph examination.

Both Mr. and Mrs. MANDERY have executed consent to a polygraph examination as has Mrs. HORST.

If a polygraph of the above individuals is desired by the Bureau, an early determination should be made inasmuch as the MANDERYS are constantly changing their place of residence and to this date have been advising the Minneapolis Office of their location.

Authority to interview Mrs. Katherine Shirley Horst and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jerome Mandery utilizing polygraph denied.

Review of Bufile concerning allegation of Harold Mandery indicates this appears to be a wild malicious allegation based on personal animosity. The allegation has been categorically denied by the Horsts and investigation has failed to develop any information supporting claim of Harold Mandery.

Bureau does not desire to become further involved in personal situations which appear to be based on personal animosity or jealousy.

In the event additional pertinent information is received indicating additional investigation warranted, immediately advise Bureau with recommendations for further action.

NOTE:

Harold Mandery alleged Mrs. Shirley Horst stated following assassination of President Kennedy, Oswald was a communist, some kind of a nut, and would kill the President if he had a chance. Statement reportedly made at dinner party at home of Horsts in Kansas City, Missouri, during course of evening of heavy dringing and conversation. Mention was reportedly also made concerning Jack Ruby who ran Carousel Nightclub in Dallas, Texas. All allegations categorically denied by Mr. and Mrs. Horst stating they had never met Oswald or Ruby. Mandery had been employee of Mr. Horst who reportedly had given him a job when in need and investigation revealed Mandery to be an unreliable untrustworthy individual apparently jealous of Horsts who in turn reportedly are reliable individuals. Mandery also has numerous arrests for petty offenses, has been described as an alcoholic and person who might make false allegation against Mr. Horst for spite purposes. Mrs. Mandery also has been described as a person who drinks to excess. Signed statements have been obtained from all persons involved and Mrs. Horst as well as Mr. and Mrs. Mandery have stated thay would consent to polygraph interviews. In view of the above, however, it is not felt polygraph or further investigation warranted in this matter.

DATE: February 18, 1964

FROM : Mr. J. A. Sizoo

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

At approximately 1:00 p.m. today SAC Shanklin of Dallas called and made reference to Bureau instructions to Dallas to interview General Walker for information which formed the basis for Walker's statement that Lee Harvey Oswald had been a member of the Communist Party in Dallas. Shanklin said that General Walker was contacted this morning in this connection and he said he would be glad to be interviewed by a representative of the Bureau but requested that the interview be conducted in the presence of his attorney at the attorney's office. Walker said he would contact his attorney and the attorney would call SAC Shanklin and indicate a time.

Shanklin said he subsequently received a telephone call from the attorney who said General Walker would be in the attorney's office at 1:45 p.m. Dallas time (2:45 p.m. Washington time) and would be available for interview. Shanklin said the attorney is known to the office and is a very reputable and reasonable person. Shanklin said he is a much more sensible person than Walker himself, and Shanklin, therefore, recommended that the interview be conducted in the attorney's office as he felt it highly desirable to pin General Walker down on this.

ACTION:

I told Shanklin to go ahead with the interview under these circumstances unless he was advised to the contrary in the interim; and that it should be carefully handled in order not to make available to the attorney or Walker any information concerning developments in this case.

ReButels 2-26 and 2-27-64 re Mexican immigration and customs records.

Enclosed for your office and Resident Agency, Laredo, are copies of FM-11 Forms received from Legat, Mexico City, dealing with entries at Nuevo Laredo 9-26 and departures therefrom 10-3-63. Also enclosed is copy Legat, Mexico City, letter 2-20-64.. Copies of the FM-11 Forms will be furnished to the Commission. Answers to the following questions dealing with the FM-11 records are to be included in LHM being prepared by your office.

The forms covering entries show that 106 people entered Nuevo Laredo 9-26-63 instead of the 90 which you previously reported as a complete list. Add in LHM the 16 additional people on FM-11, and determine why only 90 individuals were previously reported to you by Mexicans as entering on 9-26-63. Note the lines at various points on enclosures. For example, before entries 368 and 400 on the FM-11 recording entrance of persons holding FM-5 permits. Who drew these lines and what is significance of them? How can we tell from FM-11 that the records relate to entrances on 9-26 and departures on 10-3-63 as it appears in most instances in column 16 that the entries there relate to date and place of issuance of tourist permit rather than date of arrival and departure. Obtain interpretation of various entries in column 16.

Re entry concerning Oswald's arrival and departure why do entries in column 16 show date 9-16-63 when Oswald in fact obtained his tourist permit at New Orleans 9-17-63 as the permit shows. Did clerks making these entries both misread Oswald's tourist card or did Solalinde, in entering 9-16-63 date, consult with previous entry concerning his arrival? How do we know that Solalinde made the entry on FM-11 concerning Oswald's departure? As apparent that names on FM-11 are arranged thereon in alphabetical order by date, why was Oswald's name on departure list not in alphabetical order and why does it appear as "Harvey Oswald Lee," when tourist card shows name as "Lee, Harvey Oswald?"

Obtain interpretation of the single-letter entries in columns 4 and 7 and the "ff.cc." entries in column 13. Endeavor to match enclosures with records at Nuevo Laredo and note any discrepancies. If there are none, so state. Determine when the entries are made on the FM-11. Is this done on daily basis or at end of 15-day period? Bureau notes that the FM-11 form is a record of those individuls entering and leaving Mexico who travel on FM-5 and FM-8 tourist permits. Are there any other records relating to arrivals or departures of individuals traveling on other documents?

Legat, Mexico City, 2-20-64 letter states the information on FM-11 is taken almost entirely from tourist card. From what source in addition to tourist permit is the information obtained that appears on FM-11?

Your 12-4-63 report states that FM-8 tourist permits are valid for six months and that FM-5 permits are valid for 15 days. Is this correct? Note Oswald had FM-8 which was valid for 15 days.

NOTE: Commission inquired re highly inadequate Mexican immigration records and SA is in process of trying to unravel them. In order to do complete job, we will have to resolve questions herein which relat to FM-11 records.

Re Butel 2/13/64, captioned ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY concerning request of President's Commission for 8 mm. color motion picture camera belonging to MARIE MUCHMORE, 2980 Randy Lane, Dallas, Texas.

On 2/14/64, Mrs. MARIE MUCHMORE furnished her 8 mm. Keystone K7 movie camera, to SAS IVAN D. LEE and ROBERT H. BARRETT stating that she desires this camera be returned to her upon the completion of the examination by the FBI. Mrs. MUCHMORE furnished the following information:

She advised that on 11/22/63, she was standing on the northwest corner of the intersection of Main and Houston Streets, next to the curb, where she could obtain a good view of the motorcade as it turned west onto Houston Street toward Elm Street. She advised with her Keystone movie camera, Serial number 20648, she took approximately four or five feet of film of the motorcade as it passed in front of her. She stated that after hearing the first shot fired, she panicked and did not take any further pictures nor did she obtain any movie film of the Texas School Book Depository.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Exhibit J-5 is a New Orleans public high schools personal history form for the Beauregard Junior High School bearing the name LEE OSWALD.

This exhibit was made available by Assistant Principal WILFRED O. HEAD, Warren Easton High School, New Orleans, Louisiana on December 5, 1963.

The result of investigation pertaining to this exhibit is reflected on pages 8 - 15 of the report of SA JOHN T. REYNOLDS dated December 6, 1963 at New Orleans, Louisiana.

Page 180 of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated December 23, 1963 at Dallas, Texas states that it was determined by the FBI Laboratory that the names erased from the last item of this personal history form are "ARTHOR" or "ARTHER ABEAR" and "EDWARD VOGEL."

Pages 45 - 47 of the report of SA STEPHEN M. CALLENDER dated December 16, 1963 at New Orleans, Louisiana set out the investigation regarding "ARTHOR" or "ARTHER ABEAR."

Pages 281 - 283 and 313 - 316 of the report of SA WARREN C. DE BRUEYS dated December 2, 1963 at Dallas, Texas set out results of our interviews with EDWARD VOEBEL, 4916 Canal Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, an acquaintance of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at Beauregard Junior High School in New Orleans. EDWARD VOEBEL appears to be identical with "EDWARD VOGEL" mentioned above.

AGREEMENT

1. This agreement entered into this date between COMMERCIAL EMPLOYMENT AGENCY hereinafter referred to as the agency and_____ hereinafter referred to as applicant, in which the applicant agrees to pay and the agency agrees to receive in full payment for each employment procured a fee based on the following schedule, for permanent employment:

Up to $149.99—30%; $150.00 thru $249.99—35%; $250.00 thru $349.99—40%; $350.00 up 45% of applicant's first month's wages received in cash from any salary, drawing account, or commission.

For temporary employment 10% of applicant's wages received in cash from any salary, drawing account, or commission.

2. It is agreed by the parties hereto that permanent employment is procured employment lasting three or more consecutive and continuous calendar months; and that temporary employment is procured employment terminated in less than three calendar months by the employer.

3. It is further agreed that applicant shall at all times have the right to refuse any employment tendered without being required to give reasons for such refusal; and the service charge of the agency is earned when applicant accepts employment and is payable as salary is received.

4. If the charge made herein is for permanent employment which in fact becomes temporary, then applicant shall be entitled to a refund of the unearned difference of the service charge. If a temporary placement becomes permanent a full permanent fee shall be due.

5. Should applicant accept a sales position involving a training period then the agency shall have the right at it's option to determine a months wages received by taking an average of the first three months wages received as a basis for the fee due the agency. When this is done, applicant agrees to pay the agency 10% of all earnings received for the first three months, at the end of which period the final fee will be computed and any balance due paid.

6. Should applicant voluntarily leave a position that applicant has accepted, applicant agrees to pay the whole fee agreed upon, except that in no case will the fee amount to more than 45% of the total wage that applicant has received.

7. Should applicant accept a position through the agency and subsequently applicant's present employer offers better employment as a direct result of applicant's having accepted a better outside job through the agency, applicant agrees that such offer shall constitute a bona fide order to the agency authorizing referral and that acceptance of such offer from the present employer shall be considered as a placement for which applicant agrees to pay a fee in accordance with the schedule shown herein for permanent work.

8. The agency agrees that it will not under any interpretation of this contract make more than one service charge for any one referral.

9. It is agreed that acceptance of an introduction card by the applicant from the agency takes precedence over any previous application the applicant may have filed with an employer to which the introduction card is addressed.

10. Applicant hereby stipulates and agrees to a penalty of fifteen (15%) per cent as attorney's fee, on the earned charges and remuneration due the agency should it become necessary for the agency to obtain counsel or collection service, or resort to court action to collect same.

11. Applicant hereby permits investigation of business and personal references as given on registration card, and any information secured by such investigation shall be held confidential between the agency and the prospective employer.

12. It is agreed and understood that transportation to and from interviews will be borne by the job applicant.

13. Should applicant fail to pay the service charge as heretofore agreed, applicant may by mutual agreement with the employer authorize the employer with whom placed by the agency to deduct from any salary, drawing account or commissions the amount due the agency and to pay same to the agency.

14. I have read the above agreement, and I fully understand and will abide by its contents.

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING CONTRACT CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING

1. For convenience COMMERCIAL EMPLOYMENT SERVICE will hereafter be called COMMERCIAL.

2. This contract shall remain in force for a period of three years and so long thereafter as I accept services rendered by COMMERCIAL.

3. I agree to pay to COMMERCIAL, at Fort Worth, Texas, for any position or positions procured, either directly or indirectly, through COMMERCIAL and accepted by me a FEE of forty (40) per cent of the agreed first month's salary. All overtime compensation or other compensation received or to be received by me for said first month shall be included as a part of such salary. The first full month shall be considered as the basis of four and one-third weeks or one-twelfth of one year. Payment of the fee shall be made on installments. Forty (40) per cent of each payment made to me during such period shall be paid as soon as it is received by me, and in all events the full fee shall be paid within thirty-one (31) days after acceptance of such position.

4. If I accept a position with an employer to whom I was referred, either directly or indirectly, by COMMERCIAL within a period of one year from the date of my original contract with such employer, I agree that such position was procured through information furnished me by COMMERCIAL and that I will pay the fee provided for in Section 3 of this contract.

5. If through information furnished me by COMMERCIAL I am accepted by an employer on a trial basis for a short period of time, the permanency of the position depending upon me or my ability, I agree that such position shall be considered a permanent position and that I will pay the fee provided for in Section 3 of this Contract.

6. I agree that when COMMERCIAL refers me to a prospective employer that I will at that time inform COMMERCIAL if any other employment agency or person has referred such prospective employer to me.

7. If any employer to whom I am referred by COMMERCIAL does not employ me but in turn refers me to another employer and I procure a position as a result of such contact, I agree that such position was procured through information furnished me by COMMERCIAL and that I will pay the fee provided for in Section 3 of this Contract.

8. All past due payments due under this contract shall bear interest from maturity at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, and in the event a suit is brought for collection thereof I agree to pay a reasonable attorney's fee and court costs.

9. I agree that I will keep any and all information given to me by COMMERCIAL relative to the procuring of any position strictly confidential and will not divulge the same to a Federal or state affected employment agency or to any other person.

ВОДЯНАЯ БАНЯ

Кулинарная обработка требует иногда варки продукта на водяной бане или на пару.

Для устройства водяной бани нужны две кастрюли, одна меньше другой, чтобы меньшую можно было поставить внутрь большой, на ее дно, на две щепочки или на две проволоки.

В маленькую кастрюлю кладут продукты, которые надо сварить. Между стенками обеих кастрюль наливают воду с таким расчетом, чтобы вода не доходила до края меньшей кастрюли сантиметров на пять. Затем обе кастрюли закрывают крышкой и ставят на огонь. По мере выкипания воду нужно доливать. Так варят продукты до готовности.

Чаще всего на такой водяной бане варят каши и всякого рода тушеные блюда.

ОФОРМЛЕНИЕ ПРАЗДНИЧНЫХ БЛЮД

Каждой хозяйке хочется, чтобы ее праздничный стол выглядел нарядно. Сервировка стола во многом зависит от умения и вкуса хозяйки.

Самое лучшее украшение стола — умело приготовленные кушанья. Постарайтесь сделать их не только вкусными, но и привлекательными на вид. Начнем с такой распространенной закуски, как сельдь. Очищенную и нарезанную селедку укладывают на селедочницу или тарелку так, чтобы она имела вид целой рыбы. К голове селедки можно приделать «усики» из зеленого или репчатого лука, а вокруг разложить ломтики вареного картофеля, свеклы, огурцов.

Хорошие украшения для многих кушаний получаются из сливочного масла. Проще всего сделать из него «гвоздички». Для этого возьмите не очень твердый брикет масла и, придерживая левой рукой его нижнюю часть, завернутую в бумагу, ножом, который вы держите в правой руке, поскребите 12—15 раз верх брикета по направлению к себе. На ноже образуется веерообразная масса. Снимите ее с ножа и соедините концы внизу. Края готовой «гвоздички» слегка посыпьте красным перцем.

При помощи чайной ложки, которую время от времени следует опускать в горячую воду, можно сделать из масла «ромашку» или «розочку». Придайте маслу форму усеченного конуса, затем начните делать «лепестки»: вдавите ложку в середину конуса и, наклонив ее от центра к себе, рывком выньте из масла. Овальная поверхность ложки придает маслу форму лепестка. Чтобы получить «розочку», в промежутках между лепестками первого ряда, но чуть ниже, делайте второй и третий ряды. Цветами из масла хорошо украсить икру, паштет и другие кушанья.

Для украшения винегрета подходят вырезанные из вареной моркови или свеклы звездочки, кружочки и красиво уложенные ломтики овощей. Готовя салат, хозяйка думает о том, как его украсить сверху, и обычно отбирает для этого самые крепкие огурчики, самые аккуратные кружочки нарезанного яйца, ровные ломтики мяса, оставляет одну — две ложки зеленого горошка. Уложив салат пирамидой или иначе (это будет зависеть от формы посуды), полейте его майонезом или сметаной, тогда украшения будут резче выделяться. По краям посуды с салатом разложите зеленый горошек и огурцы, нарезанные кусочками или в виде веера, подрезав тонко огурец поперек почти до самого края, который закрепляет дольки, чтобы они не разошлись.

The Director has requested further analysis of the operations of SA Henry M. Wade while Wade was serving in the Bureau's Special Intelligence Service (SIS) in Ecuador. The requested information is set forth herein.

SA Wade entered on duty on December 4, 1939, and resigned September 1, 1943, to enter the Armed Forces. On June 1, 1942, he was placed on leave without pay after completing five weeks of SIS training. He left New Orleans, Louisiana, on August 3, 1942, and arrived in Quito, Ecuador, on August 16, 1942. He was in an undercover capacity as an employee of Transradio Press Service Incorporated, 521 Fifth Avenue, New York City. He was assigned SIS Number 345 and used the code name "James" in signing communications. Within Ecuador, he was referred to as Confidential Informant Number 6. He left Ecuador 5/2/43.

As an undercover man, Wade was not directly associated with the Legal Attache's Office in Quito but did submit his vouchers and reports through that office. He was also given a post office box in New York City through which he could communicate directly with the Bureau. While in training he received Spanish lessons, a course in coding and secret inks, and definite instructions regarding preparation of his expense vouchers.

Wade submitted vouchers twice monthly through the Legal Attache who reviewed and forwarded them to Bureau. They were then checked and approved and a check was transmitted to the SIS Office in New York City for Wade's account. The monetary unit in Ecuador is a sucre which was, during Wade's tenure, 7.3 cents or $7.30 per hundred.

1 - ENCLOSURE

File review shows Wade operated under a system of controls requiring him to furnish complete data identifying informants used and payments made. It was policy to insist that receipts be obtained whenever possible. In the few instances where informants refused to sign receipts, Bureau was furnished all other data and record was still made of payment and informant who received same.

Memorandum Mr. W. C. Sullivan
to Mr. A. H. Belmont
RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Wade handled a total of 11 informants. One was never paid. Two others accepted no money and one of these was taken to dinner on four occasions at total cost of $27.08 with each expenditure identified and fully described in Wade's vouchers. The other was given a radio which cost $43.80 and this item was clearly described in Wade's voucher and supported by the radio dealer's receipt.

Wade's vouchers clearly identified each expenditure as to informant paid and amount. Wade paid a total of $1438.21 to his other eight informants and furnished full data on each payment in his vouchers. He separately provided summary data on all informants he was using, amounts being paid, and evaluation of services.

Regarding receipts, five of the eight paid informants were the most productive and these five received a total of $1284.94 in 52 separate payments. Each of these payments was supported by a receipt from the informant and we have these in file.

Of the three remaining informants, two were paid only once by Wade and each received 100 sucres ($7.30) but gave no receipts. The third received four payments from Wade, totaling $182.50, and gave no receipts. However, the payments to all three of these informants were fully identified in vouchers submitted by Wade. There is attached a listing of Bureau funds spent by Wade on informants.

Wade, on July 6, 1942, received an advance from the Bureau of $1075.00. This was for subsistence and travel in connection with his assignment and also provided him some money for operations. His passage from New Orleans to Guayaquil, Ecuador, cost over $500. Wade was required to make full restitution of this advance and repaid $402.47 immediately after arriving in Ecuador. The balance was repaid in three installments during June, 1943, after his return to this country. Wade also received per diem at $7.00 per day until February 1, 1943, when this was discontinued.

Copies of Wade's vouchers and receipts received from informants have been prepared and are available for delivery to the Commission if such action is desired.

OBSERVATIONS: Our records show that Wade was operating under a control system and adhered to it by advising the Bureau of payments made and informants being paid, supported by receipts in nearly every instance. Nevertheless, the emergency wartime conditions prevalent at the time did not permit the tight supervision of SIS informant operations which we now have. SIS men were necessarily developing and paying informants on the spot without prior Bureau approval, reporting such payments after they were made. We can say from records that if Wade did use and pay any other informants, contrary to instructions given him, they were not paid from Bureau funds and the transactions were never reported to the Bureau.

ACTION:

For information. There is, of course, no further proof available that payments were actually made to the informants listed by Wade in his vouchers, particularly those from whom receipts were not obtained. It is conceivable that even the receipts could have been forged and represent fictitious payments. However, we have absolutely no basis for questioning the honesty of Wade in his handling of these SIS informants.

FROM : W. C. SULLIVAN

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD --
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Our attached memorandum, 2/3/64, details the Special Intelligence Service (SIS) operations of former SA Henry M. Wade, particularly his handling of informants. With regard to the $1,075 advance received by Wade before going to Ecuador, the Director has asked whether there was an accounting for this money. The Director also asked to see the copies of Wade's vouchers and of receipts received from informants by Wade. This is to provide the requested information.

With regard to the $1,075 advance to Wade on 7/6/42 before he left for Ecuador, this money was completely accounted for by Wade and was paid back to the Bureau in four installments. Wade's voucher for July, 1942, listed his expenditure for passage from New Orleans to Ecuador. Accordingly, when this voucher was paid, on 9/4/42, $402.47 was withheld to be deducted from his advance account. The balance of $672.53 was paid back to the Bureau by Wade in three installments during June, 1943, after his return to this country. Two installments, totaling $587.48, represented money which would have been paid to Wade for vouchers submitted by him covering his legitimate expenditures during the last month he was in Ecuador and included $307.55 for his air travel from Quito to Washington. Instead, this money was credited to the advance fund of Wade. The remaini $85.05 was repaid to the Bureau on June 4, 1943, by deducting this amount from money due Wade on an expense voucher for the period 5/15-31/43 after he was back in the United States. Therefore, the total amount advanced to Wade was completely accounted for and repaid to the Bureau in the form of deductions by the Bureau from money due him on his vouchers which itemized expenditures in detail. A copy of the Bureau's ledger sheet on Wade's advance account is attached.

Copies of the vouchers submitted by Wade while in Ecuador and the receipts he received from informants there are attached. In a few instances, we even have receipts from sub-informants who assisted Wade's informants but were not paid directly by Wade. As mentioned earlier, Wade had SIS #345 and, within Ecuador, was referred to as Confidential Informant #6. He also used the code name "James."

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Due to the bulk of this material, other receipts received from Wade for office supplies, Spanish lessons, typewriter repairs, et cetera, are not included.

If this data is furnished to the President's Commission, it may become public information. In such an event, the informants who signed the receipts may be questioned by their government in Ecuador, as Wade was in Ecuador on a clandestine basis. It is also possible, although we have not checked, that some of these informants were turned over to CIA when the FBI left Ecuador.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

MR. DE LOACH

Honorable J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel of the President's Commission on the assassination of President Kennedy, called and stated these matters in regard to Mrs. Marina Oswald and James Herbert Martin, et cetera, are developing very rapidly and the Bureau has been very good about getting reports to the Commission. He stated the thing he wanted to ask me about seemed to be something he felt he ought to take up with me directly. He stated the problem is that Marina Oswald is now living at the Ford's and presumably the Commission is going to want her back one of these days and he, Rankin, presumed I knew about the Nixon matter, too, because I had written them about it. Mr. Rankin stated he would hate to have her just run out on us, which is always a possibility, particularly down in Dallas, and he was wondering about a stake out on her which would watch her and see who is visiting her for a while. Mr. Rankin stated he hated to recommend it or urge it in view of the expense involved. I asked him how long he would anticipate it remaining on, and Mr. Rankin stated he thought it would be according to my judgment.

I told Mr. Rankin that we plan to interview her today, that we had wanted to do so last week but the lawyer for Robert Oswald was up here in Washington and asked us before he left Dallas if we would postpone any interview with Mrs. Marina Oswald until he got back from the hearing up here in Washington as she was exhausted. I stated I would surmise that he would be back there this morning as I thought Robert Oswald finished up with the Commission last Friday. I stated we will want to interview Robert, too, as we are interested in the Nixon angle that developed and also [redacted] that we planned to conduct the interview of her today if she is available and also of Robert Oswald if he is available. Mr. Rankin stated they asked Robert Oswald why he did not tell them about it and he said he felt the Commission would probably know about that, but in all his answers were generally very good.

Memorandum for Messrs. Tolson, Belmont, Rosen, Sullivan, Evans, DeLoach

I stated the thing in the Nixon matter which does not exactly ring sound with me is knowing the background of Lee Harvey Oswald and his makeup temperamentally, et cetera, how the wife would be able to lock him in a bathroom all day without his kicking the door down because he gave evidence of having a violent temper. Mr. Rankin commented also that he had beat her up on occasion. I stated that is the only angle of that story which did not seem to hold water. I stated she never mentioned it to us at any time nor did Robert Oswald mention it to us and that is why we wanted to question her again because we have not talked to her since she appeared before the Commission and, of course, Robert Oswald was here in Washington. I stated it is a fact that Richard Nixon was in Dallas sometime in 1963, and Mr. Rankin stated it was November 21st, the day before the assassination. I stated Nixon was invited to receive some award and had to cancel out and he got down to Dallas just the day before the assassination and the question is, was it at that particular time, as Mrs. Oswald's story purports, that she locked Lee Oswald in the bathroom. I stated that did not make sense to me.

I stated we can, of course, stake out the place where Marina Oswald is now living and find out who is going in and out to see her at this new place, but my question is, approximately how long does Mr. Rankin anticipate waiting. Mr. Rankin stated he would leave that to my judgment. I stated I would think if we can interview her today, if the new lawyer allows us to do so and we have no objection if he wants to be present even, and also Robert Oswald, that as soon as we finish those two interviews and get the facts and unless there are some other angles, that particular angle will then be pretty well bottled up and we could get the information to the Commission certainly by the middle of this week. Mr. Rankin stated that would be very helpful as they have Martin coming voluntarily before the Commission on Thursday so if he could get that information before that, it would be helpful. I stated we can do that and in the meantime we can put the surveillance on Marina Oswald.

Mr. Rankin stated that one thing the new lawyer, McKenzie (phonetic), did was to bring the contracts with both Robert and Marina and while they have the usual provisions, he also has the right to disclose anything in regard to this matter he should learn irrespective of the client-lawyer relationship, and McKenzie assured Mr. Rankin and the Commission he would make full and complete disclosure of anything he discovered, so Mr. Rankin thinks we will get full cooperation from McKenzie. I stated this fellow John M. Thorne is contending he is her lawyer.

Memorandum for Messrs. Tolson, Belmont, Rosen, Sullivan, Evans, DeLoach

Mr. Rankin stated he has copies of letters from Thorne to Martin and in one he is terminating Martin's relationship and there is another one to Mrs. Marina Oswald from Thorne in which he protests the termination of his employment and one from Martin to both Thorne and Mrs. Oswald saying he can't be fired. I stated I thought he had issued a statement this morning that he is still her "contractural lawyer," that while she has a right to hire as many advisors as she sees fit, he is still her "contractural lawyer."

Mr. Rankin continued that in Martin's letter he says he has sold various interests such as TV rights to Tex-Italia Film (phonetic) and her memoirs to a magazine of Hamburg, Germany, and he has sold the picture rights, et cetera. Mr. Rankin stated Thorne's letter says they have entered into contracts involving an excess of $150,000, so it can be seen what is involved. I commented this is just a nasty shakedown, notwithstanding her character; that these two individuals are doing everything in their power to make as much money as they can out of her and this applies to the other fellow in New York connected with Lee Oswald's mother.

Mr. Rankin stated that while working on this, he would like me to keep an eye on this thing to see whether it looks at all like this [redacted] was possibly with any idea of trying to get rid of Martin and Thorne. I stated that was within the realm of possibility. Mr. Rankin stated it looks like Marina Oswald was pretty quick to do that, but on the other hand, Robert Oswald, from the reports, is pretty straight laced and Mr. Rankin thought if she did not want to get rid of them, he would not have tolerated this. Mr. Rankin stated he thought maybe she got in with Oswald over in Russia that way and maybe other things have happened over here, as Mr. Rankin stated it looks like from our reports it is possible something went on before they came up to Washington although the Secret Service did not think there was any opportunity, but he was certainly looking at her any chance he had. I stated there was plenty of opportunity here in Washington, as according to the Secret Service, Martin and she stayed up to view television until the early hours in the morning and the Secret Service man was in the corridor, so what went on in the room nobody knows. I stated it is those angles we hope to explore with her today. Mr. Rankin stated with Martin chasing her and doing all those things with his wife around, he can imagine what he did when he was free from his wife. I stated he had no compunction so far as his wife was concerned as they were open and above board with the wife in the house. I stated it is an unfortunate thing, but what worries me is the possibility of a leak getting out on this as to the background of the Oswald woman and Martin, et cetera, because those people are talking around down there in Dallas, but it would unfortunate to have it get out before the Commission tten it down here as to these activities and anybody else who may have knowledge of it.

February 2[illegible]

Memorandum for Messrs. Tolson, Belmont, Rosen, Sullivan, Evans,

Mr. Rankin asked if I didn't think that business about her being willing [redacted] was a strange thing, and I stated I did; that it shows certainly the complete lack of any character and the thing that also impressed me was, if you look at the picture of Mrs. Marina Oswald when this happened and the picture of her afterwards, it is almost like two different people, as in the second picture of her she is not unattractive, but the first picture in Dallas, when this occurred, shows her as sloppy and unattractive; but somebody got hold of her and got her fixed up and that probably put ideas into her head also. I stated there is no question this fellow Martin was [redacted] and the thing about buying a house and divorcing his wife, although I did not know if he was serious, was a proposition and, of course, he was probably counting upon her money to buy the house. I stated there was no force, but complete willingness upon her and his part, and this just makes her out as a pretty questionable character. I stated that kind of thing if it gets out before it is nailed down and the Commission reaches a conclusion as to what and what not to believe, would be bad. I stated why she did not tell us about this Nixon matter, I did not know as she told us about the General Walker matter. I stated my reaction to this business about locking Lee Oswald in the bathroom is that there is something fishy here because she just would not be able to do this because he had beat her up on occasion, was nasty to her, had a bad disposition, and could have gotten out by breaking the window or kicking the door down and she would have been perfectly helpless and, further, she left out what he did then, as I don't think he would have taken it calmly. I stated it is a fact Nixon was there the day before the assassination and it will be a sensational story because he is a former Vice President and very anti-communist and General Walker is anticommunist and then the President of the United States was there. I stated it is such a thing that you could enlarge on it and have some sensational stories, just like the story of Dorothy Kilgallen about the FBI furnishing assistance to Ruby, that upon reading the article, you could see it does not support the headline, but you have down there in Dallas these "bleeding hearts" and "sobsisters" like Kilgallen, who will blow everything up as much as they can. I commented I had also wondered where Life Magazine got that photograph of Lee Oswald with the guns, but I understand they got it from the Dallas Police Department. I stated my first knowledge of it was when my attention was called to it by the Hearst people who had an advance copy as one of them called me and wanted to know who was giving it out and how it could be copyrighted. If Mrs. Oswald sold it, that is one thing, but if the Dallas Police gave it to Life, it was public property, and I advised the Hearst people they ought not to stir anything up on it, as we did not know whether the Dallas Police gave it out or if Mrs. Oswald sold it and if she sold it, it would be subject to copyright, but if given out by a law enforcement agency, it would not be subject to copyright.

Jones

Mr. Rankin stated he understood from my letter that the Nixon affair really seemed to originate from Martin who had been told that by Marina Oswald. I stated also Marina told it to Robert when he went to the grave with her, so it came from those two sources. I stated I did not think we got it from Martin but from Robert. Mr. Rankin stated that Martin the same day told Robert, but did not say how long he had known it. I stated the original information as I recall, was from Robert who was told it by Marina and also by Martin as she told Martin about it. I commented that why they did not tell the Commission, I did not know. I asked if Robert Oswald was questioned as to that aspect, and Mr. Rankin stated he was and he said he thought the Commission knew it. I stated they are going too much on assumption all the way through. I stated that is what worries me as it spreads out and gets to be a web almost. I stated we have been checking carefully in Mexico City and have additional agents down there and every one we run out fizzles out, but the average Mexican in my opinion is a psychological liar as they have visions probably of getting money or being brought up for testimony, but so far there is no confirmation of the various angles, but we have added men in Mexico to try to get that cleaned up within the next week or ten days, but something more comes up every day.

Mr. Rankin stated in connection with the stake out, to use my own judgment, but before terminating it, to let him know. He stated again he did not want to run up too much expense. I stated if we can get the interview today we will get that and we may want to talk to this lawyer that she now has and as soon as we get that we will have the facts which will be sent in by wire. I stated we will then get it to him, Mr. Rankin, and I thought the Commission may then want to consider getting her back quickly and getting it on record, because in the meantime she is going to be writing articles and books and she is bound to include this Nixon thing in it and if the Commission does not have it nailed down, it will become known. I stated Lee Oswald was not an individual who appeared to discuss things with his wife other than the Walker situation. I stated that did occur and while we are not able definitely to swear that the same gun was used

In the Walker case as in the assassination, because of the mutilation of the bullet, there are many similar marks and you certainly could draw the conclusion it was the same gun, but it is one of those instances where you can't say you are 100% sure.

Mr. Rankin stated there was one other thing - McKenzie told him that they had made a suggestion to the Fords that Dede Ford be her new manager. I stated everybody is going to move in on her and there will probably be some others move in from other parts of the country, and being the character she is they need only to invite her out and entertain her a little and she would probably go because she is her own free agent now.

Mr. Rankin stated he thought it well to check from a stake out what kind of people are visiting her when she does not know she is under surveillance. I stated we can also consider getting a telephone tap in there because there can't be any trial so any information would not be excluded in a trial, but if somebody were going to be tried it would be a different thing. I stated we will get on it right away.

I called Mr. Joseph Sizoo in the Domestic Intelligence Division and advised him of Mr. Rankin's call and his desire to have, if possible, a stake out of the place where Mrs. Marina Oswald is now living and he is very anxious to know who may be going in and coming out of that place seeing her in view of the turmoil about her seduction and also I think we ought to consider placing a technical on the phone where she is now living. I also stated that Dallas should be advised that we want to get Mrs. Oswald interviewed today, that we had held off because of the request of her new lawyer and I understand from Rankin he seems to be a pretty decent fellow, that we ought to see her today and get the details of the Nixon thing.

I stated the Commission wants to bring her back here before them and they will just as soon as we get this information from our interview with her. I stated I thought we ought to interview Robert Oswald also as to the Nixon thing because she told him about it when he went out to the grave with her. I stated the first person she told was Martin who was her business manager and who had relations with her. I stated Martin is under subpoena to be back here before the Commission so I doubt if we can interview him or if we did whether he would say anything, but I think we should interview her and Robert and have

Memorandum for Messrs. Tolson, Belmont, Loeen, Sullivan, Evans, DeLoach

Dallas wire that in at once as we ought to get this material to the Commission not later than Wednesday so our manpower will not be tied down with surveilling her and to also try to get a technical in. I told Mr. Sizoo it will run until they subpoena her back before the Commission as I suggested to Rankin it ought to last only as long as it takes us to get the information to the Commission. I stated she did not tell the Commission anything about it, that Robert did, but she did not and they want to nail it down and this so-called [redacted] that took place at the hotel, but we ought to get details of that from her today and get any other details we can from Robert and then we ought to get that by letter to the Commission not later than Wednesday. Mr. Sizoo stated it would be a discreet surveillance unknown to her to see who comes and goes to see her. I stated also if she comes out, where she goes, that it required discretion. I told Sizoo to also see that Dallas has sufficient manpower for the physical surveillance of her and the people coming to the house ought to be followed to see who they are. I stated her new lawyer, McKenzie, has suggested this man she is living with now become her business agent. I stated what the Commission is concerned about is this sudden development as to her [redacted] and Nixon, as it may leak out. I told Sizoo to get hold of Dallas and to get started on it right away. Mr. Sizoo stated he would.

Very truly yours,

Good evening ladies and gentlemen. My name is JAMES ARONSON. I am the Editor of the "National Guardian". I had intended to say just a very few words of introduction tonight and then turn the meeting over to the chairman, but a set of exasperating circumstances has caused a change of mind so I hope you will bear with me for a bit. If the circumstances were merely exasperating they could be shrugged off but they cannot because they hold the portents that are dangerous and, if you please, un-American. I would be remiss if I did not share them with you tonight. Stated simply and directly the fact is that the directors of Town Hall, which is owned and operated by New York University, did their utmost to prevent this meeting from taking place tonight. Please hear me out.. That this meeting is taking place can be credited to the persistence of the "National Guardian" with a most able assist from EDWARD J. (applause)..... a most able assist from EDWARD J. ENNIS, who is General Co-Counsel of the American Civil Liberties Union, and a group of devoted Guardian supporters (shouting)..... beg your pardon. Oh, well we can't prevent full coverage. We do believe in freedom of expression and freedom of information. And the third assist that I was just speaking about came from a group of devoted Guardian supporters who accept without qualification and without question the First Amendment to the Constitution. It was not until yesterday afternoon, a scant 24 hours before this meeting, that this hall was assured despite the fact that almost every ticket by that time had been sold. The events will be reported fully in the February 21 issue of the "National Guardian" but here are the pertinent details of a story which makes a mockery of the vaunted dedication of a 133 year old university without enough to know better to the spirit of free inquiry.

The "National Guardian" hired this hall on January 14, more than a month ago. We paid half the rent and Town Hall deposited the check and printed the tickets. Then, on January 24, the "New York Journal American" printed a story which said that Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD would appear on this program to proclaim her son's innocence. The words are the "Journal American's". I still don't know what Mrs. OSWALD is going to say here tonight. We really do believe in free speech down on East 4th Street where the "National Guardian" is printed. (Applause). Now, on January 28, we got a letter from ORMAN DRAKE (phonetic), Director of Town Hall, who is Associate Dean of New York University's Division of General Education. He said that the terms of the lease had been altered. We had told him, he complained, that MARK LANE was to speak. As a matter of fact, on January 14 we did not even know whether Mrs. OSWALD would be free to come nor did DRAKE mention the other speakers who had been listed in public advertising. On this basis, said DRAKE, Town Hall could not sign the lease. Mrs. OSWALD's appearance would be incendiary he said and would serve no useful purpose in his words. Town Hall, he said in language which was more appropriate to the COOLIDGE era, does not choose to be a party to the airing of a case that is presently being studied by the Presidential Commission. Quite a policy for an organization that for 20 years sponsored America's town meeting of the air. I wonder if they don't ever play back their old records. Reasonable remonstratives on our part were of no avail. We were referred to New York University's President JAMES HESTER (phonetic), who was remarkably unavailable. So we went to the law, and through our Attorney, I. G. NEEDLEMAN, we told our tale to EDWARD ENNIS who agreed immediately to represent us without fee in the event that legal action became necessary. And now let me interpolate something here. I had never met Mr. ENNIS before last week. I don't even know if he read the "Guardian" before MARK LANE's December 19 article appeared, but I will say this - in my lifetime I have encountered few people who have shown such a quick and selfless appreciation of uncivil liberty and acted accordingly. We are eternally grateful to him for all his assistance. (Applause). I talk about follow through. I am pleased to say that he is in the audience tonight and I know he is within my earshot so will he please take a bow. Mr. ENNIS. (Applause). Now this Mr. ENNIS is a man of some persuasion apparently because on February 5 the "Guardian" got another letter from Dean DRAKE and it said this: "Considering the total circumstances surrounding the issue between us, we now suggest that we enter into an agreement for a meeting on the evening of February 18" - but the concession was made with a tight fist and a new piece of nastiness. Town

Hall insisted on a $25,000 bond to protect the physical property at Town Hall against material damage by all you roughnecks. Back we went to Mr. ENNIS. In an eloquent communication to Dean DRAKE he suggested that there was little reason to expect damage, after all we had a FELIX GREEN (phonetic) here at Town Hall to a turnaway meeting last spring and there wasn't even a scratch on the wall. Furthermore, he said the demand for the bond was hardly consonant with the belief in and respect for the Constitutional right of free speech and peaceable assembly, and furthermore, New York's police were on record as being able and willing to protect the right of a peaceable assembly at petition and he quoted Commissioner MURPHY to this effect. Dean DRAKE replied, "No bond, no meeting". That was hardly a week ago. After a council of war we determined that legal action might carry us past the time of this meeting and thus effectively cancel it. We felt that the meeting itself and its contents were paramount at this point so we got a $25,000 one-day insurance policy, at considerable cost I can assure you, against damage. New York University turned it down. The bond or nothing it said. On February 14, a day dedicated to love, we went to several bonding companies and found them universally loveless. No bond. Finally, the directors of New York University, probably meeting in a vault under Washington Square Park, agreed to our placing of $25,000 cash in escrow in a bank. Well I think most of you know we don't have it. So, over the weekend we enlisted the financial aid of a group of dear friends of the "Guardian" who were outraged by NYU's action and at 3:30 p.m. yesterday, after banking hours, we met in the board room of a 5th Avenue bank, turned over $25,000 in cash and securities, and got the damn lease in our hands. (Applause). So that's how you're here tonight. But we don't intend to let the matter rest here and we hope you won't either. (Applause). I trust that every able-bodied penman and penwoman, when he or she leaves this hall, will write a letter of protest to President JAMES CHESTER of New York University, Washington Square, New York City. I'm sure he's left his vault by now.

Now this story goes beyond New York University and this single meeting. In his letter demanding the $25,000 pound of flesh, Dean DRAKE said that the decision to insist on it had been made, and these are his words: "Following conferences involving other interests and thus it reflects the concern of more than this institution". Now the persisting question must be asked again and with greater urgency than ever - "Why are honest efforts to present as much information as possible about the events in Dallas on the weekend of November 22, 1963, meeting with such resistance?". The "National Guardian", for its part, will not cease to raise this question nor will it cease to seek answers to it. (Applause). It was in this spirit, in the belief that no American is safe if an assassin can shoot down the President of the United States and the matter in effect is shoved under a rug, in the further belief in the fundamental principle that a man must be presumed innocent until proved guilty, in this spirit the "National Guardian" has undertaken to present all possible available facts in the assassination of President KENNEDY and the case of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. We do not seek here to prove a man's guilt or innocence. We seek to establish a body of information and evidence upon which such a determination may be made. This is the crucible of civil liberties in America. This is a foundation stone on which the "National Guardian" was established in 1948 and the principle which guides it today. We are under no illusion about the strength of our voice but we are confident that the facts we are publishing and the reasons why we will ultimately break through. We have sold 30,000 reprints of MARK LANE's brief printed on December 19. The mail on this case has been the heaviest in our history. The concern throughout the nation has been manifested by the crowds that have turned out wherever MARK LANE has spoken in these last weeks from coast to coast and we are particularly gratified that we had to give up at least 50 seats here tonight to the representatives of the press - local, national and foreign. (Applause). I hope they can break through. (Applause). And now, having said my preliminaries, to the business of the evening.

Let me say at the outset that nothing I have to say represents the views of my university nor do I speak as an expert on this case. I am here primarily because I have been impressed with the need for greater publicity connected with this case and I have been somewhat puzzled and taken aback by the aura of secrecy that has surrounded that case, especially right after it was first greeted with an extraordinary amount of publicity while Mr. OSWALD was still alive. Secrecy in an investigation, and investigation is a word after all, and it is very hard to know exactly when an investigation becomes a trial, but secrecy in an investigation always makes us think of the fact that someone is trying to hide something and that this is not the best way in which the truth can be discovered. I'd like to quote in this respect a now famous general who was born in a by now famous town. He said, I was raised in a little town of which most of you have never heard called Abilene, Kansas. Now that town has a code and I was raised as a boy to prize that code. It was meet anyone face to face with whom you disagree. In this country if someone dislikes you or accuses you, he must come up in front. He cannot assassinate you or your character from behind. Just this simple statement juxtaposed against many circumstances of this particular case bring us up sharply and must make us think about what may be happening to this simple code of Abilene, Kansas, which most Americans still think they believe in but which they rarely recognize in the course of current events, and it is to bring Americans up sharply so that their minds become more critical again in terms of their own philosophy that it is necessary to keep a continued publicity going on cases such as this. This investigation cannot easily be criticized in any standard terms but that doesn't mean that it should not be analyzed. I said an investigation may be a trial. It may not be. We don't know but it is possible that this commission will either directly or by inference convict someone though after his death. That too is an unusual circumstance but it's an important one. A man's reputation, his family's reputation, these are important things and the possibility of conviction by investigation is an important thing to recognize as a possibility and an analysis of the type of procedures by which this is done is an important thing. This tribunal is not a jury. It is not even a judge. There is one judge not acting as a judge. There are many people on the tribunal who have very particular identifications - to what extent are they the type of people who should be judges? How were they selected? Could they have been selected in a different way? Should there be an investigation of this sort at all? In what way should it have been organized if it shouldn't be one of this sort? Then the question of confrontation of witnesses reminds us also of the right of cross-examination, but here again it is difficult to know how you go about it because the question is who is entitled to cross-examine. The accused no longer is in a position to choose his own lawyer. Who can choose the lawyer for him? The very fact that this may be difficult doesn't necessarily lead to the conclusion that there should be no cross-examination at all. It may lead to the conclusion that a procedure must be found for finding a man who would undertake the cross-examination, whether that be the person MARK LANE who has volunteered to do so, or someone else who might be brought forth to volunteer to do so and be chosen in some other way. These are all questions and issues I think of vital importance to this country. And most important of all I want to remind you, and I think I may not have to remind this audience, but I think the American people should be reminded that when the shocking news came of the President's assassination that there was in this country an almost unanimous feeling that this assassination was not simply a singular extraordinary shocking event, that it had something to do with the temper and the nature of our times and the particular political and social controversies and problems that exist in our times. This investigation was started in the midst of that debate, which I think was of extraordinary importance, and one of the consequences, I believe, of the investigation has been that for the most part this debate was stopped. It is true that the commission is supposed to investigate this aspect of the case as well and that it will undoubtedly have a report that will deal in part with this aspect of the case. But again the very secrecy of the proceedings, the mystery that surrounds the case means that at this point people who would have been willing to talk, to make inquiry, to debate, to do what all the editorials called for, namely soul searching, American soul searching, has momentarily stopped and the result is that we will have a report. It will come to a conclusion of some sort on this major issue but it may not be the kind of timely report that will re-awaken in us this need to search our souls. I think this is perhaps the most important aspect of this investigation and therefore all the publicity, all the free discussion, I think, can only do good rather than harm. Now, as moderator, I would like to introduce to you first Mr. JACK MINNIS (phonetic) and Professor STAUGHTON LYND, who authored together an article in the "New Republic" connected with this case. Mr. MINNIS was recently a Research Director of Voters Education for the Southern Regional Council. He has been dismissed from that job because he issued an affidavit on behalf of Miss JOANIE RABINOWITZ, who is being tried in connection with the Albany - Georgia demonstration in the case of alleged perjury, and his affidavit was requested by his lawyer and by her lawyer and stated that it would not be possible for a jury in that area to give a fair trial, a white jury to give a fair trial to a white woman from the north who has associated with Negroes. Now for that, as I understand it, he was dismissed. The statement, as I gather, finally was that he was guilty of insubordination. Will you please stand up Mr. MINNIS. (Applause). Speaking on Mr. MINNIS' behalf and his own behalf will be Professor STAUGHTON LYND, who is a Professor of History at Spellman College, and is going to be teaching at Yale University next year. Professor LYND. (Applause).

Sta. Lynd.

Ladies and gentlemen. I don't know why but when I thought about this meeting in the wilds of Atlanta, Georgia, where I live, for some reason I pictured the Metropolitan Opera House going way way back and I thought we would, each of us, need foghorns to communicate and I'm very happy to find that we have such an intimate setting where we can really talk to one another. I happen to be a specialist in the period of the American Revolution and this reminds me of a town meeting which indeed the name of the hall suggests it should be and you know there were town meetings, in Boston for example on the eve of the revolution, that were this large. I believe that what most needs to be said about what happened in Dallas is that there has been something wrong with the feel of this affair from the very beginning. Three people are dead and that is really enough but these horrible tragedies have been enveloped in an atmosphere of artificiality, of manufactured information, of insubstantial and changing facts, so that occasionally the whole sequence of events seems a production of Madison Avenue or Hollywood. A grotesque blend of modern public relations with the ultimate reality of death, and after I had written those words I picked up the "New York Times" to find that a Hollywood company is proposing to release a movie, the subject of which, a final touch of irony, is the trial of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Ask yourselves why you are here and I wonder if you will not find that all along the story presented to us in the mass media has seemed to have something sleezy, something shoddy, something rotten about it which leaves then nagging doubt at the back of one's mind. Is it not strange that when radio, TV, magazines, newspapers are absolutely sure of what happened, when the Warren Commission seems to have lost interest in how the President was killed, when even poor MARINA OSWALD is brought forth to say that she is sure her husband did it - isn't it strange that when these things are so, you and I and so many many more Americans still have an uneasy feeling about the whole production from one end to the other? (Applause). One of the things that makes me uneasy about the Warren Commission is that it apparently does not intend to investigate how President KENNEDY was killed. I had assumed, and I imagine you assumed, that the Commission was set up primarily to answer the many questions that have nagged so many people as to how three bullets could have been fired so rapidly and accurately from one gun, how the President could have been shot from behind with a bullet which entered his throat from in front, and so forth and so on. But, according to Mr. RANKIN's ... statement on January 11, President KENNEDY's murder is not among the six areas of inquiry which the Commission has set itself. Mr. RANKIN says the Commission will investigate (1) every detail of LEE OSWALD's activities on the day of the assassination, (2) the life and background of OSWALD, (3) OSWALD's career in the Marine Corps and his stay in the Soviet Union, (4) the murder of OSWALD in the Dallas Police Station, (5) the story of JACK RUBY, and (6) the procedures used to protect President KENNEDY. He does not include the murder of the President. That would seem to mean that the Warren Commission intends to accept without question the FBI report on the details of the murder and that makes me profoundly uneasy. It makes me uneasy because the FBI is obviously an interested party. Mrs. PAINE, with whom MARINA OSWALD was living last fall, has stated that the FBI knew early in October that LEE OSWALD was employed at the Texas School Book Depository Building. Dallas Chief of Police CURRY stated on November 23 and then abruptly withdrew the information, that the FBI had interviewed LEE OSWALD himself a matter of days prior to November 22. Since the assassination the national magazines and newspapers....

D.C.
Texas

From suggestions that LEE OSWALD might have been an FBI agent. Certain facts such as the ease with which he repaid a large government loan and the fact that he obtained a passport last summer in one day, which I understand is an unusual occurrence. Certain facts do seem to point in the direction of the hypothesis that LEE OSWALD may have been an FBI or CIA agent. Given these circumstances for the Warren Commission to accept at face value the FBI version in an event in which the Bureau was so intimately involved strikes me as flagrant dereliction of duty. (Applause)

One may say does not the autopsy at Bethesda clear up all these doubts as to how the President was killed? The first question that arises about the autopsy is why its contents were leaked no earlier than December 17th, almost a month after the assassination. The apparent answer is that "Seeds of Doubt," the article by Mr. LEWIS and myself, was on the Washington newsstands the day before. Now this does not mean that the autopsy was forged or false and yet it is strange that the authorities permitted statement after statement by the Dallas doctors about an unquestionable wound in the front of the President's throat to go unchallenged until JACK LEWIS, RICHARD DUDMAN and I pointed out that if there were an entry wound in the throat the bullet could not have been fired by LEE HARVEY OSWALD. (Applause)

Further, newspaper accounts of the alleged autopsy report have the same confused contradictory aspect as newspaper accounts about every other facet of this case. Some source, as in the "Times" for December 17th, said that the first bullet did not hit the President's throat "where the right shoulder joins the neck". Other sources, as in the "Washington Post" on December 18th, place the bullet's entry 5 to 7 inches below the collar line. Moreover, the alleged back wound, which no one at Parkman Hospital noticed as the President's coat, shirt, undershirt were being removed, is said to have been only 2 or 3 inches deep with no injuries to vital organs. This raises other questions. If the first bullet was not fatal, why did the President make no sound in the 5 seconds before another bullet hit him? If the first bullet entered the President's back, why did his hand move convulsively to his throat and if no vital organ was injured, how it is that the Dallas surgeons were convinced that the first bullet that hit the President entered his lung? On November 30th the "New York Times" described the scene in the emergency room stating "then one of the doctors noticed a frothing of blood on the neck wound." 'He's bubbling air', the doctor said, "this means a hole in the lung." That description was consistent with Dr. KEMPLE CLARK's statement that the first bullet struck the President on the adams apple range downward into his body and did not exit. Another of the Dallas surgeons, Dr. ROBERT SHAW, went so far as to specify that the first bullet entered the throat and crossed downward to puncture the right lung. Thus, if one believes the leak about the alleged autopsy, one is required to reject not only the testimony of the Dallas surgeons as to the entry of the wound in the President's throat, one must also disqualify their repeated explicit statements that the bullet which entered the throat crossed downward puncturing a lung. The most serious contradiction in press reports of the autopsy involves the bullets as Mr. [redacted] and I state in "Seeds of Doubt", the identification of the gun allegedly belonging to OSWALD with the President's death was made on the basis of a bullet supposedly found on a stretcher by a Secret Serviceman. Now if we accept the autopsy leak, that bullet must have been the bullet that entered the President's back, for according to the leak, both bullets 2 and 3 fragmented, bullet 2, the bullet which struck Governor CONNELLY, was now said to have fragmented in such a way that a splinter passed through a windshield in the limousine. Bullet 3, which struck President KENNEDY's head, is now said to have fragmented that a splinter passed down through his neck and out at the adams apple. "Time" magazine, bullet 3 literally exploded in KENNEDY's head. Now by this explanation the hole in the windshield and the wound in the throat are accounted for after a fashion, but what thereby becomes impossible is the story of the bullet on the stretcher. Since bullets 2 and 3 fragmented, then the only bullet which could have remained intact to be found on the stretcher was bullet one. This was the bullet, which according to the autopsy, entered the President's back, but also, according to the autopsy, that bullet, and I am quoting now the "Washington Post", was found deep in the President's shoulder. "United States News and World Report," on December 30th, affirmed that this first bullet "struck President KENNEDY in the back and lodged in his body". After the first report of the autopsy leak somebody noticed that this new version of the assassination made the earlier story about the bullet found on the stretcher impossible, for on December 30th "Newsweek" had this to say about the bullet, which according to the "Washington Post" had been found deep in the President's shoulder: "This bullet, the Navy doctors believe, probably dropped out of the President's body and was the one reported found on the stretcher at Parkman Hospital in Dallas." Needless to say both the story that the bullet was found deep in his shoulder and the story that the bullet dropped out and was found on the stretcher were derived from usually reliable but always anonymous sources. Now I simply have been trying to demonstrate that the autopsy leak, far from settling all problems as to how the President was killed, only adds further complications. Consider how much more economical a hypothesis results if one supposes that the first bullet came from in front. It travels from the viaduct railroad overpass at a slight downward angle, crosses through the windshield at a point as Mr. DUDMAN has described the hole to me, about midway between the two sides of the windshield and midway between the bottom and top, still traveling at a slight downward angle, it enters President KENNEDY's throat at the adams apple. If one chooses to believe that there was a back wound, one can go on to believe that the bullet after entering the throat traveled through the body at a slight downward angle and exited, not entered about six inches below the collar line. The hypothesis of a shot in front restores credibility to a number of witnesses. It would even make believable for the first time the story of the bullet found on the stretcher, but of course also requires giving up the idea that the bullet found on the stretcher was fired by LEE OSWALD. In conclusion, with regard to the autopsy, I think the public is justified in saying flatly to the WARREN Commission any report from the commission which does not include the full text of the FBI report, full text of the Bethesda autopsy and the commission's evaluation of these documents, any report from the WARREN Commission which does not include these things is thereby disqualified as an adequate answer to the question the nation is asking. (Applause)

You may be saying, can one really suppose that here in these United States there may have been a conspiracy to kill the President or that if there was a conspiracy, parts of the federal government may desire to conceal it? Let me as a historian suggest an answer to these questions by a historical analogy. There was once a man accused of treason on the basis of circumstantial evidence. He was convicted when a secret dossier was sent to his judges by the counterespionage agency of his government. This dossier was sent with the consent of the Minister of War, but without the knowledge of the rest of the Cabinet. The prosecution was unable to suggest a motive for the crime of the defendant and the defendant steadfastly affirmed his innocence, yet the defendant was declared guilty. No one in public life questioned the judgment of the court, only the family of the condemned man protested the decision and were determined to bring about a revision of the trial by working to find evidence of the real traitor. Eighteen months later a new head of the Secret Service accidently discovered that the condemned traitor was in fact innocent. When this new head of the Secret Service attempted to have the case reopened he was broken in rank and given a job outside the country. Not until twelve years later did a court finally clear the name of ALFRED DREYFUS. (Applause)

The DREYFUS case suggests to us how a conspiracy may have worked in Dallas. Only a very few persons need have been part of the actual conspiracy to kill the President. After the crime, one or more of these persons would have directed the investigation away from the couple who so many people saw running from the viaduct and toward the killer who nobody saw, LEE OSWALD. The historian MARCEL THOMAS stated that no one suggested DREYFUS was guilty because he was a Jew, but that because he was a Jew the idea of his guilt was acceptable more easily than it would have been for another. Similarly with OSWALD, once it became clear that a man who had been to the Soviet Union and who was, it was said, had worked for Fair Play for Cuba, was a possible culprit, public opinion could consider no one else. Then of this hypothesis, federal agents who may well have known better, closed ranks behind the theory of OSWALD's guilt. To quote another historian of the DREYFUS affair it was not that the leaders of all these forces deliberately meant to invent a charge against an innocent man, but once it had been levied and its solidity assured, the innocence of the accused became really unthinkable. Still later when it was realized that the original trial of DREYFUS had gone astray because of evidence concocted by the French Secret Service, a military court of review comparable to the WARREN Commission, nonetheless once more declared DREYFUS guilty in the belief, to quote Professor THOMAS, that "the counterespionage service would have been disorganized with great cost to the national security if its methods had been divulged". (Applause)

Washington privately have their doubts about the received version of this crime. The real problem is what they do with their doubts, for I think most of them go on to say to themselves even if OSWALD is not guilty, isn't better things be left as they are? LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JOHN F. KENNEDY are dead, we can't help them now, so isn't it wiser to keep silent rather than challenge the prestige and authority of those agencies and individuals in government who are committed to the theory of OSWALD's guilt. No it is not better, the fundemental issue in this case is whether truth and the welfare of individuals should sacrifice to a supposed national interest and I say no. There is a time when Americans were convinced that MILTON would let winds of doctrine blow so long as truth be in the field then there was nothing to fear. There was a time when Americans could say with THOREAU and WALDEN that finally we want only the truth. Now we seem to have become a society in which when push come to shove and the blue chips are down we fall back on a previously prepared cover story. So we lied about the U-2, we lied about the Bay of Pigs and now in my judgment we are lying about the assassination of a President. (Applause)

Surely at some point we should stop and ask ourselves why our society has become so fearful of the truth. The answer to those who plead for silence in the national interest was long ago phrased by the French intellectural CHARLES PEGEE. PEGEE commenting on the DREYFUS case put the case of the pseudo-patriot as strongly as it can be put and then refuted it. Paraphrasing the condemners of DREYFUS, PEGEE said a nation is something unique, a giant assemblage of the most legitimate, the most sacred rights and interests. Thousands and millions of lives depend on it in the present, the past and in the future. The first duty of so unique an achievement is not to let itself be jeopardized for one man whoever he be however legitimate his interests. That is the right no nation possesses. DREYFUS had to sacrifice himself and be sacrificed against his will if needs be for the repose and safety of France. Thus PEGEE put the case of his opponents, and then he said I would like to lay these words on the conscience of each person here tonight but we answer that a single injustice, a single crime, a single illegality, especially if it be officially confirmed and registered, a single insult offered to justice and to right, especially if it be legally, nationally, conveniently acceptable, a single crime is enough to break the whole social pact. A single breach of honor, a single disgraceful act is enough to dishonor and disgrace a whole nation, it is a gangrenous spot which soon spreads over the whole body. What we defend is not out honor only, not only the honor of our nation now, but the historical honor or our nation, the honor of our ancestors, the honor of our children. Our adversaries, PEGEE concluded, were concerned with the temporal salvation of our country, we were concerned with the salvation of its eternal soul. I would like to conclude with a quotation from an American in 1735, the news printer JOHN PETER ZENGER charged with seditious libel. Defending him attorney ANDREW HAMILTON used words which I think might be the motto of all of us concerned about the case of LEE OSWALD. "And all the high things that are said upon the side of power will not be able to stop the peoples mouths". Thank you very much. (Applause)

Thank you Professor LYND. Our next speaker needs no introduction. He has been in the newspaper quite a bit of late. He is well-known as a fighter for civil rights against landlords, against corruption in this city and he is the volunteer who has asked for the privilege of cross-examining and informing the present commission. I give you Mr. MARK LANE.

Thank you, I have tried many cases here in this borough and I have discovered in my thirteen years of trying probably several thousand criminal cases that the foundation, the touchstone or our judicial system, the presumption of innocence is a cliche that is meaningless when it comesto actual practical application. I have questioned many respective jurors right here in New York County. Do you know what the presumption of innocence means? Of course. Will you apply it in this case? Certainly. You understand how important it is? Of course I do. Well look at my client sitting behind the table, JUAN SORANO, charged with murder in the first degree, do you think he is innocent? Well frankly Mr. LANE where there's smoke there's fire or he would not be here, etc. That is in the ordinary case here in New York and elsewhere, but when the media of this nation sinks its fangs into a case the presumption of guilt becomes almost insurmountable as in the case of the people of Texas against LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Exhibit number one, the generally careful "New York Times" "President's assassin shot to death" before there even was a commission to look into the case. Exhibit number 2, "Journal American" "today scales of justice" with RUBY and a smoking pistol, OSWALD and a smoking rifle. Exhibit number 3, "Life" magazine, current issue, I quote, LEE OSWALD with the weapon he used to kill President KENNEDY and officer TIPPET. When did that trial take place? Lets get to some of the facts in this most remarkable case. First we begin with the murder weapon. There is no question about it we have an affidavit here which someone thought important enough to secure for me from the District Attorney's Office of Dallas. Which I assume the District Attorney read about in the "New York Times" this morning, which states by the officer dated November 23, 1963, the date that the affidavit was taken that he found the rifle, "this rifle was a 7.65 Mauser bolt action". He goes on to describe it. The rifle was between some boxes by the stairway. The time the rifle was found was 1:22 PM. Do you get that, German Mauser 7.65 MM. The same day that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was arrested, immediately the District Attorney of Dallas, leaping before the first live television camera that he could find and there were plenty on the scene, stated that OSWALD had been arrested, that he had used an alias H. O. LEE number one, number 2 that he had murdered he had probably shot the President and in any event that they had found this Mauser, German Mauser 7.65 caliber. The next morning, however, the Federal Bureau of Investigation released for the fisrt time the statement that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had back in 1963 purchased an Italian carbine 6.5 MM under the alias A. HADEL. Immediately waved before the next live television camera, the weapon we found yesterday was an Italian carbine 6.5 MM. We also forgot to tell you yesterday when we arrested Mr. OSWALD he had in his possession "in his pocket book on his person" an identification card made out to the name of A. HADEL, with his picture on it. Clearly it was an alias he used, but he forgot to mention it to us the day before when he talked about the alias H. O. LEE. H. O. LEE, incidently, was an alias which he secured he told us by having police officers go to visit OSWALD's home in Dallas. The original alias A. HADEL he could have secured by looking on the papers in OSWALD's possession. Perhaps the most remarkable of all the changing shifting evidence in this case is in relation to the bullet wounds which I will not go into great detail because of the excellent job done in that regard earlier by Professor LYNN. But I will say this, the original version given out of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in background briefing sessions of the news media of this country stated that the first bullet entered the President's throat from the front. They base this upon the stories which had been given wide circulation "of the three doctors who worked upon the President, Dr. PERRY, who explained how he inserted the tube through the President's throat through the hole in the throat to prevent the President from strangling. How the wound started at the throat and ranged downward in the chest.

Dr. MC CLELLAN, who stated I know the difference between an entrance wound and an exit wound. We see a bullet wound at least every day in this hospital, he stated, sometimes more than one a day, and I know the difference between an entrance wound and an exit wound, and Dr. CLARK, who pronounced the President dead, took exactly the same position. And so the original version stated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation accepted these facts that the wound in the throat was in fact an entrance wound. Now if I may use that blackboard for a moment. Here we have the Book Depository Building, here we have Houston Street coming in this direction and turning into Elm Street in this direction. Here we have a triple railroad overpass, here we have a grassy knoll leading up to that overpass and here's a concrete facade right over there. The original versions given up by the Federal Bureau of Investigation was that OSWALD was here, second window from the right on the 6th floor of the Book Depository Building. The Presidential limousine was here approaching the Book Depository Building when the first shot was fired, entering the President's throat, shot number one. The automobile then turned and was past the Book Depository Building when shot number two was fired by OSWALD striking Governor CONNELLY. Shot number three was fired here into the rear of the President's head killing the President. Well we have a problem with that story, they had a problem with that story. In addition to the fact that it was totally false all of the witnesses present stated that it was totally false. They stated, including Governor CONNELLY, Mrs. CONNELLY and almost every single witness present when the Secret Service reinacted the entire crime shortly thereafter, to agree that the Presidential limousine had passed the Book Depository Building and had proceeded some 75 yards in fact behind the Book Depository Building, when the first shot was fired. Version number 2. Places the Presidential limousine here when shot number one was fired, here when shot number two was fired and right here in front of the overpass when shot number three was fired. Well now there's a new problem which of course has emerged and that is the question of how OSWALD shot the President from the front from the back. Not at all insurmountable for the police investigating authorities however. It was answered for us by "Life" magazine, a splendid publication which has given such fair account of this case. They explained that it was cure the first shot and with use of pictures, the first shot was fired by OSWALD after the Presidential limousine was some 75 yards beyond the Book Depository Building. Secondly that the shot which struck the President first had entered his throat from the front. This was in a full page banner headline called "An End to Nagging Rumors About Those Six Seconds" and they ended the rumor by stating simply that these two matters can be explained that that President had turned completely around and his head was facing the Book Depository Building when the first shot was fired. In addition to the fact that that story was totally false, there was another problem with it. The very week before "Life" magazine printed the pictures, the stills of the motion pictures, showing the President when he had been shot. Showing the President with their own captions detailing what was happening. Showing the President looking almost directly forward as the first bullet entered his throat and so version number two given to Mr. LUCEb publication by a leak from the Federal Bureau of Investigation and that is not an assumption that is a fact. Version number two went out of the window leaving prosecuting authorities with all that was left version number three, and this is the first time the first time the three physicians who worked upon the President were to be questioned. They were never asked before anything about how the wounds were caused or the nature of the wounds, nothing at all until this time and then two Secret Service agents, armed with the government hospital report at the naval hospital in Bethesda, visited the three doctors, not to ask them, but to explain to them how the wound had taken place and that they had been in error. And they stated in a statement made that they accepted the version that they had been in error, that the wounds, that the entrance wound in the throat was indeed an exit wound. They used different language to describe it, of course. However, a reporter for a national news magazine called Dr. PERRY on the phone and said, "How can you say now that the wound in the throat was an exit wound when you were so certain that it was an entrance wound, you were so certain that it ranged downward into the chest"and his statement to him was "All I can tell you is that you have just heard the official version which we are giving. I know much more about this case but I am not permitted to discuss it with you. All I can say in conclusion is this exit wound theory certainly ties up the case for the FBI in view of all of the rest of the evidence." And so the entrance wound has become an exit wound. Now, of course, if indeed it were an entrance wound, then one might look at that area near the overpass as a place from which perhaps the first shots were fired. I suggest the first shot was fired from there. One reporter by the name of THAYER WALDO, a reporter for the Fort Worth Star Telegram, was standing at the Dallas Trade Mart building with a police captain, standing near a police cruiser in which was seated a police sergeant. They were waiting for the President to arrive as he would have had he weathered that journey. The captain was talking to Mr. WALDO and the sergeant screamed from the automobile, "Come here at once, Captain" and the captain ran over and so did the reporter for the Fort Worth Star Telegram. And the reporter for the Fort Worth Star Telegram heard what his paper did not print, but he told to me, the first statement made over the Dallas police radio, the first official statement. It was as follows: "Repeat bulletin. The President has been shot. It is feared that others in his party have been shot as well. All of the firing appears to have comes from a railroad overpass directly in front of the Presidential limousine."

TEXAS

Now, four employees of the Dallas Morning News were standing near the overpass on the same side as the Texas Book Depository building, facing the Presidential limousine, with the overpass to their right and the book depository to their left. Among them was MARY WOODWARD, a society page editor of the Dallas Morning News, and the next morning in the Dallas Morning News appeared a story written by her in which she said "the four of us were standing there, we heard the shote. The shots all came from our right and slightly to the rear, from the overpass general direction." Do you know that these four witnesses were never questioned by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, although their names, addresses and place of employment appeared in the Dallas Morning News on the day after the assassination. They were not questioned until I raised this question publicly in Dallas and they shortly thereafter, and I raised the failure of the FBI to question them, and shortly thereafter, the FBI discovered these four witnesses. With hundreds and hundreds of FBI agents from all over the country in Dallas during those first few days questioning thousands and thousands of people, they could not find these four persons who had written an article published in the Dallas Morning News.

TEXAS

Now today I had a conversation with a teacher in the Dallas public school system, standing just opposite those four employees of the Dallas Morning News, and she was perhaps the closest spectator to the President when the shots were fired, and she said four to six bullets were fired. She heard them. She said she was with her friend who took a picture of the President and got in the background the entire Texas Book Depository building. And that camera and all the film was taken from her by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and they gave her a receipt but refused to give her back the film or let her see the picture which was taken. And she said that she kept on saying "I heard four to six shots." And she was told by an agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that there are just three shells and just three wounds. And so there were just three shots. And later she was asked "After the third shot, is it possible that you heard firecrackers or that you heard echoes, etc." I'd like to play for you a small portion of her statement to me today:

Woman: No sir, I don't.

Speaker: Would you recognize him if you saw him?

Woman: I'm not sure. There had been a kaliodoscope of faces all day.

Speaker: ..... wild day.

Woman: But I do know that one of them told me that a bullet ricochetted at our feet.

Speaker: I beg your pardon?

Woman: That a bullet did hit at our feet.

Speaker: The bullet hit your feet?

Woman: Right.

Speaker: Which side of the street were you on?

Woman: We were directly across from the book depository.

Speaker: I see. You were standing where the grass is.

Woman: That's right.

Speaker: In other words, you would be on the President's left as he is coming towards the overpass.

Woman: That's right.

Speaker: Where.....from where you heard them.

Woman: I thought they came from the knoll.

Speaker: From the knoll which is in front of the concrete facade of the book depository?

Woman: That's right.

Speaker: Near the overpass?

Woman: That's right.

Speaker: Did you see any activity in reference to that knoll or the overpass?

Woman: I saw a man running and I repeated that on the first TV interview that I had, had me telling this about the man running and they made so much fun of me, you know, I shut up. I said.....

(End of tape)

There have been a lot of things changing in this case. For example, we were told by Mr. WADE, you will recall that on November 24th, there was a statement made by Mr. WADE reprinted in full in the "New York Times" on November 26th, and that statement by Mr. WADE was, as he said, "I am going to made the evidence available to you piece by piece". And he, in essence, made 15 different charges all of which seemed quite impressive in terms of the case against LEE HARVEY OSWALD. I think one can fairly say that in checking out each of the statements, one can conclude that the statements were either not relavant or totally and absolutely false. Each and every statement made by the Dallas District Attorney on that day.....Among them was the statement that after OSWALD had fired the shots at the President and escaped by bus, he later went into a taxi driver. The taxi was driven, he said, by DARRYL CLICK. That name appears as the taxi driver in the text of the statement made by Mr. WADE. It appears in the "New York Times" on the 26th of November. My first trip to Dallas took me to the President of the Teamsters Union which has organized the taxi drivers in Dallas, and also the the personnel director of the City Transporation Company which is the one company monopoly for taxis in Dallas. They both agreed there was no DARRYL CLICK, there never had been a DARRYL CLICK in the history of Dallas who had ever driven a taxicab. Perhaps the most interesting document of all is this one which that same fellow was nice enough to get for me, which is a report of the parafin test. Now you may recall that on Saturday, November 23rd, we were told by Chief CURRY, told the press of the nation, told the press of the world, that the parafin test had come back. It was positive. It proved that OSWALD had fired a weapon, it proved that OSWALD was the assassin. Persons, different people, can get different things from the same document, I would suggest, which is the basic reason there is a need for full disclosure in this case and the right of cross examination and perhaps a classic example of that is this parafin test which states the tests were made on OSWALD's hands and on his face as well.

The parafin test is conducted in this fashion. Warm parafin is applied to one's hands and to one's face. A cast is made. The cast is then treated at a laboratory with certain chemicals. Unfortunately, the test cannot be perfect because the chemicals which are used are not sufficiently sophisticated to distinguish between nitrates and suspension present on the hands or face when a weapon has been discharged in the general or immediate vacinity and a hand which has been in the presence of a match which has been struck, a microscopic amount of toothpaste or any of another dozen household items. However, the test can be positive, can be certain in terms of its negative aspects. If there is a negative response, that is proof that one has not fired the weapon involved. There is a positive response in terms of both hands. In terms of the face, and one's face is in closer contact with the explosion of the bullet, then certainly one's left hand which is at least two feet removed, anything closer than one's right hand, but the test on OSWALD's face showed and I quote; exhibit number one was the mask of OSWALD's face; "No nitrates were found in exhibit number one". The conclusion is inescapable. On November 22, 1963, OSWALD had not fired a rifle.

Now in addition to this, we were told that originally OSWALD was charged with the murder of Officer TIPPITT because the case against OSWALD for the murder of TIPPITT was absolutely ironclad; there was no question. Mr. WADE told us he had sent 23 men to their death on less evidence. I don't doubt that that is possible. Nevertheless, the case against OSWALD for the killing of TIPPITT was hardly conclusive, which consisted of one affidavit. I'd like to read the affidavit to you. It's a short one. I'll read it entirely:

"At approximately 1:06 PM, November 22, 1963, I was standing on the corner of East Tenth Street and Patton Street, awaiting for traffic to go by when I saw a squad car stop in front of 444 East Tenth Street about fifty feet from where I was standing. I saw a young white man walk up to the squad car opposite the driver's side, lean over and put his arms on the door of the car for a few seconds and straighten up and step back from the car two or three feet. At this point the officer got out of the squad car and started around in front of the car and just as he got even with the left front wheel this young man shot the officer and the officer fell to the pavement. I screamed and the man ran west on East Tenth Street across Patton Street, and went out of sight."

Now anyone who has ever seen an affidavit prepared in any jurisdiction will tell you it's done this way. The police officer questions the deponent, gets the information generally, prepares the affidavit and says is this accurate. The witness is then asked to sign it. As a result, much of what a witness has to offer may be excluded by the officer for various reasons, because he thinks it's not material, sometimes because, as in this case I would suggest, because he thinks it's too material. Thereafter, this same woman was questioned by reporters and asked if she gave a description of the assailant to the police and she said yes she did. She gave a detailed description. You will, of course, recall there is not much of a description in here, merely young white man. She said she gave a description and she could give it to the reporters and she gave it to three different reporters at three different times. I think it's fair to state that OSWALD's general description was medium, you've all seen him on television, newspaper, medium height, slender with thin receding hair. The description given by this woman of the man who murdered OSWALD, short, stocky with bushy hair. That's the absolute case against OSWALD for the murder of TIPPITT.

Now let's just try to analyze this case quickly from the beginning and see what took place, if LEE HARVY OSWALD actually did do the things he's alleged to have done.

He decided Thursday night, while he was in Dallas, Texas, to kill the President. He decided he would go back to the home in Irving some many miles away in order to secure the rifle. Now why he would pick that particular rifle is difficult to know. Let me assure you can buy a rifle in any bakery store, in any grocery store, in any drug store throughout Dallas. They're easy to come by. He had enough money. He had thirteen dollars in his possession when he was arrested, he had $150.00 in the top draw of his dresser. But he decided he was going to go home, according to the prosecution, to get that particular rifle. There are only two reasons which I can think which could have motivated him. Number one, that was the only rifle in the entire world which could be traced to him because that was the one which he had purchased through the mail, and in Dallas as in many other cities and in many other states throughout this country, the vast majority, one can purchase a rifle without in any way having a record made of that. It's different from a pistol. In many jurisdictions one can even purchase a pistol. In many jurisdictions, however, one has to be registered and have a serial number entered on a police blotter when one purchases a pistol. Not so with a rifle, not so certainly with a rifle in Dallas. So OSWALD could have picked up a weapon superior to that weapon because I know you are aware of the fact that a number of Olympic rifle experts and others have said that that particular rifle, Italian carbine, 6.5 mm., made during World War One, was totally incapable of the performance which the FBI, Secret Service in Dallas insist it gave that day. For the thirteen dollars in his pocket, he could have purchased a much better weapon, but he decided to go home. So he went home and he picked up that rifle. He could have broken the rifle down in half by removing the barrel from the stock, but he decided not to do that. He kept it at full two feet or more and put a little brown paper around it and walked directly into the Texas Book Depository building, directly on the Presidential route with that rifle in his hand. Now one might wonder how he managed to get in there, whether or not the authorities knew that he worked there, etc. Well, we know that the Federal Bureau of Investigation knew that OSWALD worked in that building, clearly they knew that that building was on the Presidential route and their records indicate that they knew that OSWALD had purchased a rifle some months before. Agent HOSTY, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation assigned to the Fort Worth-Dallas area, had visited the PAYNES on at least two separate occasions and had asked to see LEE HARVEY OSWALD. On each occasion, Mr. HOSTY was told by Mrs. PAYNE and by MARINA that LEE worked in the Texas Book Depository building and they could see him there during the day, during the week, during the evening. During the week, he remained in Dallas and on weekends he was back there in Irving. Nevertheless, Agent HOSTY came back again during the day to Irving during the week. There was no question that they knew he worked there. Now the Federal Bureau of Investigation gave its answer as to why it was that OSWALD was not followed that day. You must remember, of course, that there were many persons high up in our government who said they had thought of telling the President not to go to Dallas, ARTHUR SCHLESSINGER, ADLAI STEVENSON among them. And for good reason. In 1960, when President JOHNSON, then a Senator and Vice Presidential candidate, campaigned in Dallas with his wife, persons spit in both of their faces, although they were born and raised in the Texas vicinity. In 1963, of course, ADLAI STEVENSON had been struck with a placard as he emerged from a meeting in Dallas. A good portion of the money for the lunatic right wing fringe comes from a couple of oil millionaires in the Dallas community and everyone was aware of the problem. In fact, there were posters given out on November 21, 1963, which were displayed all over the Dallas area. I'll see if I can find a copy of it. Well it's around here someplace. I got a copy of it from an Italian newspaper which reprinted it. I didn't see it reprinted anyplace around our country, unfortunately. But it said, it was a modest poster, it showed a full face picture of the President, of President KENNEDY, in a profile, and said "Wanted for treason" and then listed a few of the treasonous things the President had done. Everyone was aware of the situation which existed in Dallas just prior to the President's visit. Why then was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, very suspect from the FBI orientation, had been to the Soviet Union, married a Soviet national, acted in the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, undesirably discharged from the Marine Corps, why then was he not followed, and the FBI gave a splendid explanation. When pressed, they said "Our area of jurisdiction involves spies and saboteurs. We are not permitted to move into the area of political nonconformism". I think that's an excellent definition of what they should be doing. And if that's all that comes out of this investigation, perhaps that will be some small benefit.

Here's the poster, incidentally, which I've not seen reprinted in any of the American newspapers although I've seen pictures of LEE HARVY OSWALD all over all of them or.....some of them. Wanted for treason. This man is wanted for treasonous activities against the United States.

All right now, OSWALD got into the building somehow. Oh, let me just say to you that in the, what the Secret Service described as the greatest effort, they described it on November 21st as the greatest effort in the history of the United States to protect the American President, this was the effort they were talking about which was to take place the next day. I will tell you this, that a lot of people were followed. Persons who have done nothing more than publicly spoken out in favor of integration of the Dallas school system, were followed by the Dallas police as potential assassins on November 22, 1963, and I challenge the Dallas police to deny that because we have chapter and verse on that question. But in this atmosphere, OSWALD was not followed.

Well, all right, he got into the building and he went up to the sixth floor and he brought with him a Dr. Pepper celery tonic and some old chicken bones. First we were told he brought with him some fried chicken but unfortunately the laboratory test showed the bones were two days old. So he's sitting up there in the window with a rifle on some packing boxes and the Presidential limousine comes directly in front of him. Even with that old decrepit weapon he could have dropped it out the window and struck the President on the head at that point, but he didn't. He waited until the car had gone 75 yards beyond, until it was impossible to hit a moving target, according to the rifle experts, three times in a period of 5½ seconds, and then he shot the President from there in the front of the throat. After having concluded that, he placed the rifle where it could be easily seen, knowing it could be traced to him. We're told it had a fingerprint, incidentally, on the bolt. Let me tell you what the officer said who found the rifle. He said "Captain FRITZ took charge of the rifle and ejected a live round from the chamber." He pulled back the bolt and ejected a live round. I suggest they carefully examine that fingerprint on the bolt. They may discover it belongs to Captain FRITZ. Well, now he shot the President, he placed his rifle there where it could be seen and he walks down four flights, not six flights. He walks down four flights to the Coke machine and buys a Coke Cola, knowing possibly, having seen a movie on this question, that, of course, no one enters the building, no one leave the building. It's going to be surrounded by the police as indeed it was, but not quite yet. He was standing there and an officer came charging up the stairs, as the affidavit states, came charging up the stairs with his gun drawn and he stuck it into LEE OSWALD's ribs and indicated he was going to arrest him for the assassination. It was an officer who had great intuition about this, who knew the assassin had done it from the sixth floor, walked down four flights and would obviously be at a Coke machine. The Director of the book depository building came forward, however, and said that this man is employed here and so the policeman went on to another place. I think it's interesting, evidentally employment in Texas grants immunity from any number of things, it's interesting to note that at that time, the Director of the book building, ROY TRULY, stated (Thank you) ROY TRULY stated that OSWALD seemed extremely calm even with this gun in his ribs, although he did seem a little disturbed about the pistol being stuck in his ribs. Nevertheless, he said "What's the matter, what happened, I don't know what you mean". According to TRULY, he was quite calm at that point. Well, now the building is surrounded, OSWALD's waited long enough, no one can get in, no one can get out, and so we pick up the story as the District Attorney WADE gives it to us at this time.

Texas Schoolbook Depository Dallas Texas

He says next we hear of OSWALD, he's on the bus. One can understand his reluctance to state quite accurately where that bus was because, according to Mr. WADE, OSWALD got the bus approximately a half a mile down the road. However, the affidavit and the statement made by the bus driver to the reporters at the time printed in many of the newspapers in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, indicated that OSWALD got the bus right around there. Now that would be a little embarrassing for the Dallas District Attorney to explain since the bus was going in this direction and here's OSWALD running a half mile to get a bus which is going to take him directly back to the place that he just left. That, nevertheless, is the story given by the bus driver. He's on the bus and he told, the next thing he did was tell the first lady toward the back that the President had been shot and he started to grin and laugh about it, so the affidavit states, and the woman didn't like it so he felt a little rebuffed, he got off and decided to take a taxi. He got one driven by DARRYL CLICK, who was a non-existent taxi driver, and he took this taxi to the 500 block on North Beckley Street, according to the District Attorney, which means the taxi went a half mile beyond his own home after it had passed his home. He then got off and ran back a half a mile to his house, put on a jacket, I guess to f[illegible] the jurisdiction, leaving $150.00 in his top dresser drawer, keeping only the thirteen dollars which was certainly enough, in his pants pocket, and then ran to the first police car which he saw parked and, as you heard, went up, approached the police car, leaned on it, stepped back, shot the officer, and then, having killed the officer, wounded the governor, assassinated the President, he went to the movies.

In the movie house, in the movie house, he became very agitated. The cashier, who was out in front selling tickets, noticed that he was moving in the auditorium from one seat to another. This is the man who has [illegible] now made his getaway and he is now agitated [illegible], calm moment after he had shot the President, wounded the governor, with a policeman sticking a gun in his ribs, he was calm, but now he's made his getaway, he's four miles from the scene, now he's agitated for the first time. And he was arrested and charged with murder. Before he had a chance to present a defense, of course, he was shot to death while handcuffed to two police officers in the basement of the Dallas Court House, another story which we will go into at some later date after that trial down in Dallas is concluded.

Well, you would say clearly such a case is going to be exposed when it's heard before the commission. Well, I'm not so sure about that. It's been called the Warren Commission and I want to make this quite plain because I've been asked if I have faith in the ability of this commission to secure all of the facts and to release them to the American people. I have the greatest respect for the Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court who, with courage and integrity, has lead us through a very difficult period of days, as a consistant exponent of civil liberties, and civil rights. However, I have no faith that we will ever be given the facts by the commission. While called the Warren Commission, its majority is comprised of a former CIA director, a former FBI agent and two racist Dixiecrats and I would rely upon the Chief Justice for the opinion "that you may never get the facts in your lifetime and I mean that seriously". He later stated that if questions of national security arise, he will check with the involved agencies to determine what facts may be publicly reported. He will not have to go very far to find them. They sit with him right there on the commission. Since the commission has indicated that it will conduct no investigation of its own, but will rest solely upon the results of the investigations conducted by the governmental agencies, read for that FBI, Secret Service and Dallas police, one questions whether the commission will ever itself secure all of the facts let alone release them to the American people. Since the commission has established these panels to examine all the material, all dealing with, as Mr. LINTES indicated, matters other than who killed the President of the United States, one can suggest as I do that the commission has joined in the hysterical stampede to obliterate the presumption of innocence and to condemn LEE HARVEY OSWALD without a public hearing, without defense counsel, without the right to cross examine evidence, without the right to present evidence. In short, without a single right historically belonging to every American charged with a crime in an American court and I would remind the commission that when MARTIN BORMANN, a Nazi war criminal, possibly dead, was tried in abstencia at Nuremberg with another United States Supreme Court Justice prosecuting, counsel was appointed to BORMANN and all of the rights denied to OSWALD were granted to BORMANN in that Nuremberg trial. And should the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Secret Service and the Dallas police decide in this matter to conduct honest investigation and to give that information to the Warren Commission, an investigation not dedicated to a theory they know in all likelihood is false, I would suggest that they begin with an examination of a pre-arranged two hour meeting, which I have reason to believe took place a week before the assassination of the President. Present at that meeting, I'm informed, were BERNARD WEISMAN, author of the full page infamous advertisement appearing in the Dallas Morning News on the day of the assassination, Patrolman TIPPITT, and one other leading character on the Dallas scene, not LEE OSWALD. Within a period of weeks, I'll be free to reveal the name of the third person who was present at this meeting which took place in the Carousel, a strip tease club operated by JACK RUBY.

Because I was given a time card, it was a while ago, and when my time is up I'm going to conclude immediately now. Let me just tell you two things that took place in Washington, D.C. when I was present with Marguerite Oswald, who, I think, is a great and brave American hero who has all alone stood up to the pressures of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Secret Service and the Dallas Police. We were there for a few hours in the morning before the Commission Council on Tuesday morning and Mrs. Oswald was anxious to read a copy of "Time Magazine", and there was a copy on the desk as we were going over some documents and she picked it up and started looking through it and said that it is really terrible there are so many statements in here that are absolutely untrue and she was upset about it as well as she might be about a lot of the coverage of this case by the press and she said it's just terrible; these are all lies, I didn't tell them any of these things, and I said don't be too concerned trying to comfort her, I said don't be too concerned when "Time Magazine" writes a long article like that and there's nothing in it which is inaccurate that will be a pressing, shattering moment. I just said that to tell you that the responsive counsel to Panel #2 was Lee Leebler. He said I've read that article and it's absolutely accurate and what you say is very unkind; you read that article; that's the one with Marina Oswald on the cover. It said the Commissioner has concluded that Oswald was the assassin and he acted alone in those many words and then goes on to prove it in the rest of the article. His counsel for the Commission, and one of the attorneys for the Commission say that that is an accurate article in all respects and they haven't even taken one witness yet to testify as to the facts of what took place on November 22nd. Even more upsetting was my conversation with Albert Genna of Chicago who is Counsel to Panel #2, Oswald's background material. I told we first had a pleasant exchange. He asked me if I knew any lawyers in Chicago and I told him the names of a few I knew; asked him if he knew any; he told me the names of a few he knew and we knew all different lawyers. Our friendship started off on such a fine note, I then asked him, I told him I have never prosecuted a case, but I am very interested in the prosecution of this case; I've been involved in many criminal cases, but always as defense counsel, and I said how do you break this hearing down, for example, the six separate areas of investigation, and he said, well, I can't tell you about others, but I can tell you about this one; I'll show you the outline, he started to take an outline out of his briefcase and present in the room was Mrs. Oswald and Mr. Leebler as well as Mr. Genna and myself, and he took the outline out and he said I want to tell you, you see our ultimate goal here in terms of determining all the facts about Oswald's background is to determine his ultimate motivation on November 22nd, and then he took out the documents which he said was the outline which explained this, and I said I'd like very much to see the outline which expressed that ultimate goal and he said I'd better check with Mr. Rankin before I give to you, and he put it back away, I think, then realizing what he had said. For he said I never did see the document, that may be one of the documents that we never see in our lifetime. I haven't seen it yet. But, in stating that the Commission had established Panel #2 to find out why the President was killed by Oswald, but Oswald's motivation was, it is quite plain to me that the Commission not only has demolished the presumption of innocence, but began its investigation setting up this table of organization with the presumption of Oswald's guilt, at the very outset. Well, let me just conclude now by saying that I believe that this case is not closed despite press pictures, and despite the printing of official leaks. I've travelled through almost a dozen cities in the past two weeks speaking to huge overflow meetings. I've heard these questions raised on the campuses of our nation from the University of California to the University of Michigan, the University of Wisconsin, the Hastings Law School in San Francisco and every single city that I visited and that at every single school that I spoke a citizens committee of inquiry has been formed to continue to raise these questions for which there thus far has been no official answers. This case is not closed and no report brewed in the mystery of a Washington closed chamber proceeding based upon investigations conducted by secret police and screened through representatives of the CIA and the FBI can satisfy the doubts that persist and the doubts that grow daily. We have been told that the national security is involved in this case. Clearly if it is true as the prosecutors and investigators claim that Oswald was the assassin and that he acted alone, then there can be no question of national security involved in this assassination. Why then the secrecy? I would suggest that a question of national security has arisen since November 22, 1963.-- This notion, based upon the doctrine that the people must decide in a democratic society, can be secured as a free and open society only if the people are informed. The closed chamber proceeding in Washington, the secret police brainwashed all witnesses in Dallas. The concealed and changing evidence, the suppressed reports, all these threaten the image of our nation and far more important, they threaten its basic security as a free and democratic nation as well. I come here tonight with no fast answers and with no easy solutions, and with no infallible theories about how it happened on November 22nd, but I come here with the absolute committment that I shall continue to raise these questions that haunt our land until we pray long before 12 years have passed. Some intelligible answers are given.

Thank you, thank you, Mr. Lane; Thank you.

Our next speaker will be Miss Annette T. Rubenstein, former instructor/philosphy at NYU, principal of Robert Louis Stevenson High School, a famous lecturer and author of many books on literature, ethics, and politics----- Miss Rubenstein------ .

Indeed, we live in the dark ages. A guileless word is an absurdity. A smooth forehead betokens a hard heart. He who laughs has not yet heard the terrible tidings. Oh, what an age it is, when to speak of trees is almost a crime, for it is a sort of silence about injustice, and he who walks calmly across the street, is he not out of reach of his friends in trouble? It is, perhaps, not astonishing to those of us who have spent years and decades in fighting for unpopular and progressive causes, for radical causes, for causes which are not those of the majority or not understood by the majority; it is not surprising when we find that the Pentagon, an establishment, the FBI, other organizations of that kind are indifferent to the individual, to the individual fate, to the injustice to an individual, to the cry for help and an honest hearing. All too often in the pressure of time, in the pressure of difficulties, financial and otherwise, in the pressure of urgent work to be done, even organizations on the so-called list will form organizations, radical organizations, cannot find time for the individual miscarriage of justice, for the individual cry for help. The "National Guardian", which has now reached the ripe old age of 15 years and a bit began in 1948, in a presidential year in the heat of a hotly contested election, and it was a period of the cold war and a period of great struggle against many of the nations that are now coming home to roost from Korea and Viet Nam and other places, and at that time in a small town across the river, Trenton, New Jersey, there were six Negros being railroaded for a crime that was finally proven they had not committed. They were convicted almost without a hearing on evidence quite as absurd although it was local police only that presented the evidence. They were railroaded for their sentences for a robbery and murder. Of all the newspapers in this city and in the United States, of all the periodicals on the list, only the "National Guardian", in its second issue, convinced that the evidence was flimsy and dishonest, began a fight with no resources and no help for a re-trial for an appeal. And it won that fight, it won the re-trial, it won the appeal. Luckily, justice has not been as summarily executed as in this case, and the defendants were still alive in prison to gain the benefit of that appeal and that re-hearing. Only a year or so later, a distinguished journalist, a woman who had spent her life fighting for truth and justice and peace, Ann Louise Strong was falsely accused in the Soviet Union of being a spy and was condemned unheard by most of her former friends and associates and by most of the periodicals in this country, on the left as well as the right. The "National Guardian" in the teeth of a tremendous protest, tremendous pressure, from its friends this time, stood up, acknowledged its faith in earth that it could not believe on the record that this would be true printed material which she sent and she is as you now know a very honest correspondent of the "National Guardian" and of many other progressive publications from China. There were many other cases through the years; I'm not going to take time because we are all waiting for the next speaker; there are many other cases, the Rosenberg case fought accused as spies. The Rosenbergs, as you know, were framed and railroaded and executed. Julius and Ethel Rosenberg are dead, their friend Morton Sobel is still in prison under a life sentence on evidence which has been declared flimsy by the leading jurists of England, France, and many in the United States. The "Guardian" is still fighting for a re-hearing and a pardon there. I am not here today to go through this record, but I know that there are many who are not readers and not subscribers and I want to call to your attention that there is a subscription blank on the seats; ushers have them if in your enthusiasm during the earlier part of the meeting, they have fallen under-foot. We are asking you to cost us a great deal of money because we are offering a trial subscription, ten issues for $1.00, and as you know this doesn't cover the postage, and the printing; it hardly covers one of the two, but we feel that the people interested in hearing justice in this case, the people interested in having an open mind and judge for themselves, are the people that we need, that the causes the "Guardian" supports, need, and we are going to ask you, please, if you possibly can to fill that blank out tonight, turn it in when you're leaving at the hall; there are tables outside, either with a $1.00 or we will bill you for it with the first issue. But we want you to be a part of our "Guardian" family. Now, obviously since this is going to cost us money and since none of the Texas oil millionaires or their friends are going to give us that money we have to get it elsewhere. Don't have any illusions because we deposited $25,000 in cash to make it possible for you to come to this hall tonight. That money does not belong to anybody in the "Guardian" office; it will come back there rapidly; in fact it's costing us money because we wanted to insure it against any mishap and took out a one day insurance policy on it. So, friends, we're going to ask you tonight, besides filling out these blanks, if you possibly can to contribute something for the extraordinary expenses of these meetings and the continuing expense of the "National Guardian" I've had illusions of grandeur after having recently handled $25,000, even though none of it stuck, and so I'm going to say, I don't think there is anybody, but is there anybody here who can give us $500? Is there anybody who can give us a gift of $500 to the "National Guardian" to continue in its tradition of fighting to inform the public for free speech and for those who are unjustly condemned without a hearing? I won't be very disappointed if you don't, I didn't think you could, but, you know, it just sometimes happens. Is there anyone here tonight who can give us $100. There's somebody who will give us $100.; here I am-------, I think, perhaps, there are one or two people here who would give $100. tonight to the "National Guardian" and its fighting fund. There are checks, there are pledge cards, take a minute to them. Is there somebody who can give us, or will give us $100. here tonight. I'm not going to lengthen this because we still have the climax of the meeting to come, but I don't want to deprive you of the opportunity of doing something very substantial. Then we say, not a $100., but what you can, $25., $50., $100., will you make out a check in any amount of that nature, $10., $15., $25., $50. and give it to the ushers? Ushers, you will collect these as they are handed up, I see one or two already. We don't want to be snobbish about this, we want everyone to get into it; if you can't make it $10., make it for $5. Incidentally, there are gifts for you in the lobby and downstairs a free copy of the special issue of the "National Guardian", "Dallas, November 22, 1963, Oswald Innocent, a Lawyer Speaks". The brief, a Mark Lane brief, some of you have seen it, those who haven't can pick this up when you go out. I see people holding up bills ; I should have said that we don't have a strong prejudice in favor of checks, a $5. or $10. bill; I see two there, I see one there, will you please give us anything from $5. up and any moment we will come down to the bottom, and then go back to the proper program. $5., $10., $15., $25., $50., checks or currency. Now, I'm going to ask ----the photographers wanted evidently a picture of your response to the request, so let's go down where other people can get into it and hold up anything from $1. up; $1., $2., $3., $4., $5., all the way up. Oh, I'm sure more people than that can give us a single or two singles or three singles. Let us have those; I think that there are still people who have not raised their hands and up there I see many people, but I think even we can get more there. Let's have $1s, $2s, $3s, $4s, $5s; find me some above. I see people holding them up behind you; let's move a little more quickly so we can gather in all the money and I'm going to ask the ushers after they have collected all the bills to pass baskets or boxes because the change doesn't mean much to any one of you and when you multiply it, it will mean a great deal to us, so let's have all the money in the house right now and then let me make just one more announcement, please, of great importance to you and to the "National Guardian". There is, perhaps, one organization in this country, which has done as much as the FBI or almost as much to intimidate freedom of speech and freedom of thought. You know, Mark Twain said that in the United States, we have three precious needs, freedom of speech, freedom of conscience, and the prudence never to use either one of them. Well that last precious belonging doesn't belong to those here, but many people who are not here have been intimidated by the Un-American Activities Committee; tomorrow in Congress they are voting on a new appropriation, write (eh not tomorrow-the end of the week) write or telegraph your Congressman tonight urging that he vote against the Un-American Activities Committee appropriation and for the American Bill of Rights.

Thank you very much. Thank you Miss Rubenstein. Before I introduce the next speaker I want to inform you that after she is finished there will be a question period in which you can address questions to Mr. Lane who will stand here and answer them, but you may also ask questions of other speakers if you want to. Now, without any further introduction, I give you Mrs. Marguerite Oswald.

I think, first of all, that it is fitting that I apologize because I am just a layman and, coming before the microphone after such wonderful speeches, I feel inadequate, but my speech is just a humble, sympathetic speech.

There isn't much that I can do otherwise than to state the facts and the facts point to me an injustice has been done which is not our American way of life. I started this fight alone immediately upon returning to my home after being in protective custody by the Secret Service. While there, I continuously fought with them. I guess I'm to be known as a pretty good fighter. I stood up for some principles in my own way, that I knew were correct; for instance, my daughter-in-law, Marina, had testified in the court house with her friend who was an interpreter and I thought that she should have been represented by counsel, which I would not let her testify anymore until we got counsel for her. These little things have not endeared me to the Secret Service or the FBI, so in my own way, as a layman, all I can do is do what I have been doing. Immediately upon returning to Ft. Worth, I made the statement that I thought the Dallas police were to blame. The newspapers picked up my statement and I immediately became a public figure. I carried this fight on alone until someone sent me the brief by Mr. Mark Lane, not someone, but many people were writing about the wonderful work. I contacted Mr. Mark Lane and he came to Ft. Worth and I asked him if he would help me in this fight, and also would he represent my son, Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused. He said he would be most happy to. It is with deep gratitude that I can now carry on this fight along with Mr. Mark Lane. I have held many press conversations on my own as a layman, and it takes, I guess, a little courage to do this. I am not an ordor in any sense, all I have is humbleness and sincerity for our American way of life. On January 22nd, I sent three letters, nice letters, one to Chief Justice Earl Warren and one to J. Lee Ranken, both members of the President's Commission on the assassination of President Kennedy, imploring each to allow my son, Lee Harvey Oswald to have representation by counsel so that all witness including my son's wife, Marina, be cross-examined. I also sent a telegram to President Lyndon B. Johnson, informing him of my action. Of the three men, Mr. J. Lee Ranken answered. I will now read the letter.

"Dear Mrs. Oswald,

"I would like to acknowledge receipt of your telegram of January 22, 1964, requesting that yar attorney be permitted to cross examine any witness whose testimony

"is taken by this commission, and in this instance the testimony of Mrs. Marina Oswald. Mrs. Oswald will be entitled to have present an attorney of her own choosing. For your information I enclosed a copy of January 23, 1964, to your attorney, Mr. Mark Lane, who made a similar request in your behalf.

"Sincerely yours,

"/s/ J. Lee Rankin"

I wish now this is a press conference. I wish to make a direct appeal through a public statement to President Lyndon B. Johnson. I hope my statement will be aceepted in the sphere in which I operate; namely in the name of justice and our American way of life; a man is innocent until proven guilty.

"Dear Mr. President

"I can now address you as such because of the tragic death of your dear friend and late President John F. Kennedy, who was shot down by an assassin's bullet on November 22, 1963, in the City of Dallas. I can understand your grief and I also sympathize with you. However, on November 24, 1963, in Dallas, in the course of a different tragedy, I find myself the mother of the accused assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, who was tried and convicted within a few hours without trial or benefit of counsel. We are both human beings, we breathe the same free air, the right to them, and the right to question, but we would consider an injustice against another human being. I sincerely hope, Mr. President, that you will be so kind as to consider my request, thereby helping me to continue to have faith in our American way of life.

"Sincerely yours

"/s/Marguerite Oswald"

When I was asked to testify before the Warren Commission, I asked the three requests and they were granted. One, that I would be given counsel because Mr. Lane represents my son and not------. That request was granted and Mr. John Doyle was my attorney before the Commission, a very wonderful attorney. The other requested was that Mr. Mark Lane would be at the Senate as counsel for my son. That request was turned down, but I want you to know at that particular time I talked exactly, I guess, 20 to 25 minutes to Chief Justice Warren and the Commission in behalf of Mr. Mark Lane. I believe that speech might even come down in history. Now boys of the press, you're kind of putting me on the spot about being in the limelight and enjoying this I will say --if this is what it takes to become before the public I am going to be in the limelight. It was quite an emotional thing for me to do this. I am going to continue to fight because I beleive in the American way of life. I cannot help my son. He is gone and I accept the fact that he is gone, but the way he is gone I will never accept, and I will continue to fight. I would like at this time to thank the "National Guardian" for having the courage to help us in this fight, and all of the dear people in the auditorium at this particular time because I feel that you would not be present unless you were interested also in our American way of life. I hope that the public will continue to support us. I get many, many letters from mothers, like I am, and they give me much points, for instance one particular letter says, "Mrs. Oswald, don't forget that Lee did not smoke and yet the cigarette was found by the gun." That was stated in the paper immediately. We haven't heard any more about the cigarette; so you see the mothers that write to me give me these points which I turn over to Mr. Lane because he is doing the investigation. I have now approximately 15 letters, no 1500 letters of this type. In my modest little home, in the beginning were cards of sympathy because our dear President had been assassinated and that's all the people could think of, that a President was assassinated, and this young man who was supposed to be a Marxist and who was supposed to be a defector and who was supposed to be a Communist and who gave out Cuban literature was picked up and he was tried because of these affiliations, supposedly.

N.Y.

I believe, and I ask the question sincerely, if one of our good citizens, our so-called citizens, had been picked up, would the public have immediately tried a citizen, would they have said, yes, this is the man? I say no. The reaction would have been Oh, no, they absolutely have the wrong man. This is a good citizen, this is a citizen, he couldn't possibly have done that, but you see Lee was known as a Marxist, he was known as a defector, he was known to have Communistic leans; he was exploited because of these so-called affections, so immediately, the public judged and condemned my son. He was tried by the public. It is deplorable, absolutely. Words fail me, that we, human beings, can immediately judge and come to a conclusion on this side when we are supposed to be Americans, we should believe in the American way of life; that a man is innocent until proven guilty. I want to thank each and everyone who has helped me in this fight. I am going to continue in my small work;to continue in the American way of life. I believe in our country; however, I do not believe that the investigation in this particular case is the type investigation that we should have. I believe, like Mr. Mark Lane, that we should have cross-examination. I'm an authority on that. Yes, I am. I have been before the Warren Commission.

Yes, I am. I have been before the Warren Commission. The questions that were asked my daughter-in-law MARINA were absolutely correct probably, but they were not all the questions that should have been asked MARINA, because I was with MARINA from November 22 until November 28, and what I knew the Warren Commission couldn't possibly have known; so how could they have questioned MARINA thoroughly? That goes for myself. How could they question me thoroughly? How can they question any other witnesses thoroughly, without cross examination? The conclusion is absolutely wrong. I want to thank each and every one of you and I wish that you would write me personally. I tried to answer all the letters and as a matter of fact, I have answered every letter that has entered my home that has a return address, and I do appreciate any thoughts. Just one little thing, it may take a layman or laymans to solve this great mystery of our time. My box number is Box 9578, Fort Worth, Texas. Once again, thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Now, MARK, would you like to come up here and first read some of the questions you want to answer here, and then will you entertain the questions from the floor?

Alright. I will take the first question from the floor. Anyone have a question. That's so you see it isn't rigged. I didn't say anything. We're waiting for questions now. Anyone want to stand up and ask -- Yes sir.

Well, I, from my knowledge of the case, did--er-- yes, yes, yes I will. What do I think that the Chief Justice meant when he said that after MARINA's testimony had been completed, that in the interests of national security that testimony might not be released? I do not know if he made the specific comment about that particular testimony or about the facts in the entire case, but I believe that although MARINA testified for some three days, probably there was only one statement which she made that day. Of course, nothing she said would ever be admissable in a court because she would be testifying against her husband, but assuming that that little technicality was out of the way, the only thing which she said which would be in any way material to the inquiry, I believe, was in reference to the rifle, whether or not the rifle shown to her by the Chief Justice was indeed the rifle which was owned by her late husband. You may recall the Chief Justice predicted; he said we're going to show her the rifle tomorrow and I am pretty sure she's gonna say it is her husband's rifle. And, evidently, he was right, according to what he told us the next day. However, you should recall that as Mrs. OSWALD said, she knows a lot of things about MARINA's thinking during the first five days after the assassination, because she was with her, and MARINA OSWALD told her mother-in-law, upon coming out of the police station, when first she was questioned on Friday in there. She said Mama, they asked me if LEE owned a rifle and I told them the truth, that he did. And then, Mama, they showed me the wrong rifle and asked me if it was LEE's and I told them that I did not think so, it did not look like LEE's.

Nine weeks later, after being held incommunicado, after being given an attorney by the Secret Service, after being given a business agent by the Secret Service, after not having been permitted to visit any of her friends or have any of her friends visit her, nine weeks later, she testified before the Commission, the Chief Justice was able to predict, evidently with unerring adequacy, that her testimony would be changed. Now when I said that this was brainwashing in, in Los Angeles, the reporter for the Hearst publication there was very upset, asked me if I believe, don't I believe that only the Chinese Communists used that technique?

Unfortunately I think that these techniques, police techniques, are used universally throughout the world; they don't know anything about political ideology, and if taking a 22 year old girl, totally isolating her, a girl who doesn't know very much about our country, who's been here for a short period of time, barely speaks English, isolate her entirely for a period of nine weeks, to the point where you can predict that her statement, when asked nine weeks later would be entirely different from what it was originally when first -- if that's not a classic example of brainwashing, then I don't know what the word means.

Do you have a bodyguard? No, I don't have a bodyguard; do you think I need one? I will say this for those few fellows who are here who are taking down notes, who are not writing for the newspapers. There are four sets of these affidavits which I have made reference to and each one is in the hands of a flamboyant, loudmouth, respectable attorney in different portions of the country, and I assure you if I should ever leave this case, someone else will be involved.

There are a number of questions here about JACK RUBY. I believe very deeply that there should be -- be no comment upon that case prior to the time that the trial was finished, and I won't answer those. Any questions from the audience? Rive (phonetic)? Yes sir, the gentleman in the first row.

Question from audience (inaudible).

The reporter was supposed to be arrested for vagrancy? Oh, the porter. Well that was a fast story, that was a story leaked, they said, by the Fort Worth Star Telegram, as to this porter who saw OSWALD shoot, etc. They came very late. There are two problems with that story. First of all, anyone who knows the feelings between the citizens of Dallas and, and the citizens of Fort Worth, knows that the Dallas District Attorney was not leaking any story to the Fort Worth Star Telegram. I tell it is a very incisive rivalry there. But, secondly, that story came long after Mr. WADE's statement made November 24. Now OSWALD was dead. There would be no sense saving anything for the trial and if he had that information he would have released it and the story was that he had the information on the day of the assassination. In addition to that, the Dallas Police said it was not true.

In addition to that, the Justice Department said it is not true. This time, I am willing to accept their version of the facts.

OSWALD shot General WALKER. Well, that's an interesting one also. Oh, what about, I'm sorry. What about the charge that OSWALD shot at General WALKER? I talked with JOHN THORN (phonetic), who was the Secret Service appointed attorney for MARINA OSWALD about three weeks ago in Dallas. I had lunch with him and with MARINA's business agent, JIM MARTIN, both of Grand Prairie, Texas. At that time, THORN (phonetic) told me he talked to MARINA OSWALD thoroughly about that. There was a leak in the paper. I asked him how it got there. He said he didn't know. He discussed that thoroughly with MARINA. MARINA, when questioned by him, stated that LEE had never told her that he had shot at General WALKER. That was about three weeks before the testimony, and about six weeks after the assassination. In addition to this, this is a, you know, we're talking about an expert marksman, I mean there is no question, no one else in the world could have done this firing. The experts agree. In terms of the assassination, and the wounding of the Governor, here we have a man who, with WALKER in the window, sitting still, not moving, lit up by a bright lamp, was able to miss him by over ten yards, according to report in a French newspaper, does not sound like the same. Also, there was a 30 caliber bullet then. Now we're told it is a 6.5 Italian carbine.

Yes sir.

Where do we? Where do I go? Oh, I'm glad you asked that question. I didn't plant him. He is no relative of mine. We're putting together citizens committees of inquiry in every city of this country. We have one functioning the national office will function here, at this time, in New York City, and what we're gonna do is, we're gonna continue to raise the issues in this case. There are any number of ways of bringing this before the courts, I believe. We're exploring a number of those now. What we need now is as much help as we can get in every respect, and if you are, if you are sincerely interested in this case to the point where you, you would like to contribute your services, some time kindly, maybe you will find cards or something around here to fill out and leave them someplace in the auditorium.

Yes, in the back.

Do I believe OSWALD was innocent? Well, I start out with the presumption that anyone charged with a crime is innocent unless he has been proven guilty. I don't--- There are about 180,000,000 people in this country, I don't know what they were all doing on November 22, but I will tell you this, I started out with this case with just the approach that I told you about this moment. Since that time, a study of all the documents, discussions with the witnesses, has led me to the conclusion that in all probability, LEE HARVEY OSWALD was in no way connected with the assassination.

Yes sir.

Without any information, I'd be moving to the area of speculation and conjecture. So, I'd rather not. No, I'm sorry. I'm not answering it anyway, so--.

Another question?

What about the report that OSWALD drew a revolver and held it against the head of one of the officers, Officer MC DONALD? District Attorney WADE told us that that is exactly what happened. OSWALD drew a revolver, held it against the head of the police officer, pulled the trigger, the trigger snapped, the firing pin struck the bullet and marked the bullet, and we have it here where it hit it. We have as physical evidence the bullet with the mark on it. Unfortunately, however, the arresting officer had also talked to the press just before then, and he had indicated that OSWALD never was able to pull the trigger, and therefore, firing pin never snapped; therefore, the bullet never had a mark on it. When Mr. WADE was confronted with this contradiction, because a moment ago he had the physical evidence and now it could not have been there, he said, well, maybe he never pulled the trigger, maybe MC DONALD's right. So, I don't know what happened there.

Yes sir.

Well, I don't know if the - er - if the second bullet which struck the President came from the rear. RICHARD DUDMAN (phonetic), a Washington correspondent for the St. Louis Post Dispatch, stated that two witnesses told him that they had seen what looked like a bullet entrance wound on the President's forehead. Er--the statements by the physicians indicated that the whole part of the President's head, which was in--which was pretty much exploded, had a flap wound, with the top of it attached and not much else, which is consistent, according to what a number of physicians say was an exit wound when a bullet has gone through a skull bone. I don't know where all the shots came from. I tried to indicate that I don't know all of the facts in this case. I have indicated that much I know, and that is that the first bullet was, according to all of the evidence, including the medical evidence, when taken in conjunction with the eyewitnesses evidence, the first bullet, at least, came from the front. Perhaps they all did. I don't know.

Wash. D.C. 12 Kn. 5

the President, would it not be helpful to LYNDON JOHNSON in his campaign to expose that? I do not know.

Why then is there an urge by so many people not to investigate? I don't know the answer to that question. It goes entirely into the area of speculation and motivation. I had rather just comment upon the facts of this case.

Yes sir.

The question, from a gentleman who lived in Dallas for a period of time, whether or not it would be possible, in his view it would be possible, for OSWALD to have covered the area of four miles in that period of time, considering the congestion of the streets. That has been the conclusion of those of us also who tried to check that out in crowded traffic situations.

Yes, do you want to ask a question Mrs. OSWALD? ----could not been that was our conclusion. Yes, yes, sure. A question from Mrs. OSWALD--who--there was a question. We have to leave in just a few minutes. Could not give us the question please?

Yes. Alright, alright. --Can't understand it. Alright, one second now.

Friends, we are having a meeting here this evening which we consider to be important, and we are not going to disrupt it ourselves, even if anyone else wants to. So, let's behave ourselves, all of us. Next question.

Yes madam.

Quiet.

The first question by the reporter, I think might have been impertinent. I will agree, but I want to say this, that I have contracted to write a book and in this book the facts will be made known and the facts, the sets (phonetic) of divorce will be made known in my book, sir.

Answer the question.

Now the other question was what leads me to believe that my son was CIA. Well, there are many many things that lead me to believe such. I have 28 letters from LEE written from RUSSIA to his mother and --er-- many, many things indicate that he was a CIA. I will say this. In January, 1961, after LEE's so-called defection to Russia, and I have always said so-called defection, it was publicized highly, I went to Washington, D.C. Why did I go to Washington, why? I didn't go to Washington to bring my son home from Russia, because I believe people as an individual, that we each have a right to think as I said and to do as we please, so I accepted the fact there that LEE, if LEE wanted to live in Russia and wanted to even to become a Communist, every human being as an individual, that was his privilege and his right. I am not stating this now, this was stated in 1959 in the Fort Worth Star Telegram and the Fort Worth Press and gentlemen, you can research it. That was stated then, that as an individual that is his privilege. I believe in this. I believe that as individuals God's given people that. We have a right to think the way we want to. I, myself, if I wanted to go to Russia tomorrow, I would go.

The question, the question, yes gentlemen, I am going to write the book. I have many documents, I have many things that lead me to believe that LEE is a CIA, and as I said, that is why I went to Washington. The part of extenuating circumstances. That tuck (phonetic) by Congressman JIM WRIGHT, whom I wrote to about LEE's so-called defection, and he answered stating, Yes Mrs. OSWALD, there are many extenuating circumstances, I agree with you. Now I cannot go into this much further. I have exploited in the way my life and my son's life, and I am going to write the book. Let everyone else write all the books they want. They will be nothing but speculation and rumors. Believe me. I have the documents and I have the facts and the facts of my son's life and my life will be made known only by me.

Thank you.

There is a question here. Will you, will you comment, will you comment on the---. Excuse me. Yeah, I am reading some of the hundreds that have been set up here. Will you comment on the 15 mysterious hours, the hours that OSWALD was being interrogated by the Dallas Police? Has nothing transpired about that period? It is a very interesting and good question I think. He was questioned approximately four and a half hours on the first day and about five hours on the second day, on the third floor of the Dallas Courthouse in the Homicide Office. However, in addition to that he was taken to a cell and questioned almost through the night in relays by the FBI and by the Secret Service. A police officer, who was present when he was being questioned on the third floor solely by the Dallas Police, stated to a reporter who told him that he answered every single question he was asked, that is he, at all times denied that he was in any way involved in the assassination and that he gave, according to this police officer, an absolutely credible story as to where he was during the entire time of the assassination. Unfortunately, the officer won't tell us what that story is. Hopefully, there was a transcript kept and it has been given to the Commission and hopefully the Commission will one day release that.

Yes madam.

What is the Attorney General doing about the case?

I don't know. I have--er--. I recently sent him a copy of--er--the articles I have written on it and asked for his comments. And I am hoping, hopeful, that I will be able to see him within the next two weeks to discuss the matter.

Yes sir.

The question was did I believe that the Chief Justice of the United States might lend himself to the kind of effort that went on in France to conceal the truth in the Dreyfus Case. I really don't want to speculate about the motives of Chief Justice WARREN. What I was trying to point out by making the analogy of the Dreyfus Case is how persons, for what might seem to them the best, the most honorable, the most patriotic motives, even in the interests of justice, it is, as they saw it, how persons could be led to see the matter in this way and so to reason that one man might be sacrificed so that the nation, as they saw it, might prosper, and I think that that temptation could occur to you or to me or to any other human being including Chief Justice WARREN.

Yes madam.

Yeah. Well, yeah. We'll have an answer to that. But, let's try to keep questions related to the case from now on.

Yes. We have a question before us. It's okay.

While I was in Washington, I was asked by a reporter if I intended to go see Mrs. KENNEDY and I said no, I had no desire to see Mrs. KENNEDY and the question was persistent. Well, would you like to see Mrs. KENNEDY? And I said no.

To be perfectly honest with you, I feel a little bad about the situation. Mrs. KENNEDY did send condolences to Mrs. TIPPITT, but she did not consider MARINA or myself. We loved LEE as much as Mrs. KENNEDY loved her husband and I did feel that condolences were in order.

--Yes sir, up there.

I cannot hear you.

Well I have an affi---. Did everyone hear that question?

How do I explain the story of a witness who said that he saw LEE OSWALD running down the street with the revolver shortly after the shooting of Officer TIPPITT. Well, I have the affidavit and first of all the person running down the street was running down a different street from the one in which the officer was killed, nowhere near that street, and secondly, the physical description of the person who was running down the street in no way matches LEE OSWALD. I think one of the things we have to be careful about in this case is that in reading newspaper stories which are released by a District Attorney, who has almost continually falsified the facts, we sometimes tend to accept as a fact that which we read in the newspapers. In this, it is absolutely impossible to do that with accuracy.

Yes sir.

What is known about the background of Officer TIPPITT? I do not know anything about Officer TIPPITT's background.

Yes sir.

Well, did you all hear that question? Could RUBY take a lie detector test simply for public purposes, since it would not be admissable in the courts in Texas. Mr. RUBY has stated that he would like to take such a test, but, of course, the courts will not permit it in most jurisdictions. Of course, he can take a test and have the results of the test released publicly, although it would not be admissable in the court.

Yes. Can I explain why the..we have never heard of the..thus far of the Ballistic tests being made on the revolver which it is alleged OSWALD had in his possession and the bullets found in Officer TIPPITTor in the vicinity. I can't explain why that has not been made. I think we have time for just a couple of more questions. Let me remind you that those of you who are interested in doing some work in this case, please fill out these blanks; you will find them around, and leave them with the ushers as you leave.

Yes sir. Down here, easy, easy.

Did the rifle that was used have telescopic sites on it? Yes, the rifle, which was allegedly the murder weapon has a telescopic site. It is that which leads rifle experts everywhere to the conclusion that it could not be the rifle which fired three shots because when you look through a telescopic lens, you see a very small area greatly magnified, and after the shot the rifle, of course, moves, and you have to resite it and reorient yourself in order to zero in the moving target again.

Question in the balcony. Last question I'm afraid.

Yes. Well, I believe that everyone heard that question right. No. There was talk about a fourth or fifth bullet. Has the bullet been actually produced? Has the officer been questioned? Yes, there is such a bullet, because it appeared in almost a full page picture in the Dallas Morning News with the officer posing alongside of it picking it up in the grass. There is such a bullet.

I think that is the last question. Thank you all for coming this evening.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

This is in further reference to the letter dated January 10, 1964, from Chief Justice Warren to the Secretary of Agriculture, and my letter dated January 17, 1964.

I have caused a thorough check to be made of all files in the Department of Agriculture and we have no information related to Mr. Lee Harvey Oswald or Mr. Jack L. Ruby.

If I can be of further service to you in this matter, please advise.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Rankin:

On February 25, 1964, you requested that this Bureau make arrangements to have any talks or meetings at which Mark Lane appears recorded by any means.

On February 26, 1964, Mr. Howard Willens of the President's Commission, among other things, requested that this Bureau establish coverage of the future appearances of Marguerite Oswald.

In connection with the above, you are advised that this Bureau does not maintain physical surveillances of Mark Lane or Marguerite Oswald and such are not contemplated in the absence of a specific request from you. We are, therefore, limiting coverage to the publicly announced appearances of Lane and/or Marguerite Oswald. Coverage of these appearances will be limited to obtaining recordings through contacts and sources available to this Bureau.

For your information, enclosed are two copies of a letterhead memorandum prepared by the New York Office of this Bureau on the meeting at Town Hall, New York City, on February 18, 1964, sponsored by the "National Guardian" at which Mark Lane, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald and other

TO : Mr. Conrad

DATE: 12/23/63

FROM : R. H. Jevons

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA.
IS - R - CUBA

As you were advised by my memorandum of 12/19/63, necessary arrangements are being made with the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) to process (by neutron activation analysis) the paraffin casts from Lee Harvey Oswald for powder residues. This memorandum also pointed out that Dr. Spofford G. English, Assistant General Manager for Research and Development of AEC, advised that information relating to the desired activation analysis will be kept within a very small group at AEC. In particular, he advised that Dr. Paul C. Aebersold, Director, Division of Isotopes Development, who has fostered the contract with relation to the research on this matter would not be advised of the work to be done on the casts from Oswald.

Today Dr. Jack Vanderryn of Dr. English's office at AEC called Special Agent John F. Gallagher to advise that on December 11, 1963, Dr. Paul C. Aebersold sent a letter to Mr. Herbert J. Miller, Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, U. S. Department of Justice (copy attached), suggesting specific examinations by neutron activation analysis of the evidence in the Lee Harvey Oswald case. This letter was mailed from AEC unknown to all those outside of Dr. Aebersold's group.

In view of Dr. Aebersold's continued and intense interest in this manner, Dr. Vanderryn advised that it was judged necessary at this time to inform Dr. Aebersold of the preparations underway to analyze specimens in the Lee Harvey Oswald case by neutron activation analysis. Dr. Vanderryn stated that although the Aebersold letter of December 11, 1963, requests an answer, AEC realizes that no answer is necessary. At the time Dr. Aebersold was advised of this matter he was thoroughly briefed concerning the confidential nature of the examinations by AEC.

ACTION: For information.

Mr. Herbert J. Miller
Assistant Attorney General
Criminal Division
U. S. Department of Justice
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Miller:

Discussions have been held with various persons in your agency during the past few weeks regarding what additional light nuclear activation analysis might be able to shed upon the case of Mr. Kennedy's assassination. Within less than 24 hours of the assassination, we had effected verbally our assistance, and that of our laboratories experienced in obtaining criminalistics evidence by means of nuclear analytical techniques, to responsible officials in the FBI, Secret Service and Dallas police force. We believe it is not too late to outline what may yet be done.

First, had it been possible to examine by nuclear methods the paraffin casts from Oswald's hands and face before chemical tests were run on them, we feel sure that more useful information may have been obtained. It has been conceded for some time that present chemical tests are not entirely reliable and conclusive. However, that is beside the point now, in this particular case. It may be, nonetheless, that the chemical tests made on the paraffin casts, for gunpowder residues, did not ruin them for possible later examination by activation analysis for positive traces of antimony and barium (from the bullet primer), and possibly of lead and copper.

Earlier activation analysis work by our contractor, General Atomic, with revolvers and automatic pistols is now being extended to work with rifles. We would hope soon to have more details on whether the method will give useful information to distinguish between smoke deposits from revolvers and those from rifles -- by means of their distributions on the body of the person firing them, and by the levels of antimony and barium (and perhaps other elements) deposited. In the current study, we will also ascertain whether the usual chemical tests on paraffin casts preclude later meaningful examination by nuclear activation analysis. If the results are promising, we would then be happy to work with the appropriate agencies in examining the actual casts obtained on Oswald. The method will destroy that part of the sample analyzed, but does not require use of the entire cast -- just a portion of it.

ENCLOSURE

Second, should it be of value, it may be possible to determine by trace-element measurements whether the fatal bullets were of composition identical to that of the purportedly unfired shell found with the Italian rifle. If the same batch of ammunition was used in the sniper bullet fired at General Walker, the method might show a correlation in that case.

Third, there may be other pieces of physical evidence in the case, such as clothing or hair, that might lend themselves to characteristics by means of their trace-element levels.

Naturally, we do not wish to appear to be intruding in the investigation and we are not certain that our techniques can now give added useful information. On the other hand, we wish to indicate our eagerness to be of any possible help. Our work leads one to expect that the tremendous sensitivity of the activation analysis method is capable of providing useful information that may not be otherwise attainable. Should you wish us to be of assistance, our research contractor in the criminalistics work, General Atomic in San Diego, would carry out the measurements -- working directly with the appropriate government investigators and with proper safeguards regarding the physical evidence and information. The scientist in charge of this work at General Atomic is Dr. Vincent F. Guinn.

If you prefer, we can also provide experienced activation analysis services at a number of locations, including Oak Ridge, Tennessee and Texas A&M University.

We look forward to hearing from you in this matter.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel, President's Commission, by letter 2-12-64 requested a full-scale intelligence-type investigation of the De Mohrenschildts be initiated, if not already handled. Investigation to include background, marriages, education, employment, relatives, associates, travel and financial activity, in view of past association of the De Mohrenschildts with Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas, Texas.

BACKGROUND:

In connection with our investigation of Lee Harvey Oswald, information was developed that subjects were members of the Russian community in Dallas where they associated with and befriended the Oswalds. According to Marina Oswald, George De Mohrenschildt was highly respected by Lee Harvey Oswald who would listen to him and was also somewhat afraid of him. De Mohrenschildts' daughter also speculated that Oswald may have lived with her father from 10-19 to 11/2-3/62, during which time we have been unable to account for Oswald's whereabouts.

George De Mohrenschildt, born 1-4-11, in Russia, entered the U.S. 5-13-38 from Antwerp, Belgium. He has been subject of extensive periodic investigation by this Bureau from March, 1941, through December, 1948, based on allegations he had pro-German sympathies, and was suspected German agent. Investigation disclosed he was conceited, braggart and adventurer, fond of exaggeration and of poor moral character. He also reportedly appeared to have communist tendencies and was admirer of communist regime in Russia; however, no information was developed indicating he was actively engaged in subversive activities inimical to the internal security of the U.S. He came to the attention of the Dallas office in January, 1957, at which time Robert Le Gon advised that his wife, Jeanne Le Gon, had left him and was living with George De Mohrenschildt who possessed Russian literature. Investigation determined this literature to be anticommunist. Subjects departed the U.S. for Haiti during the Spring of 1963.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. SULLIVAN
RE: GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT
JEANNE DE MOHRENSCHILDT
100-32965

Following the assassination of President Kennedy, subjects were interviewed at Bureau's request by U.S. Embassy official in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, 12-4-63. They stated they had been acquainted with the Oswalds in the U.S. due to desire to assist Marina and her family and expressed willingness to assist U.S. investigative authorities. They were reinterviewed by State Department official 12-19-63 at Bureau request at which time they furnished considerable data regarding association with Oswalds. By letter 2-12-64 State was requested to again reinterview subjects specifically concerning knowledge of Oswald's whereabouts 10/19 to 11/2-3/62.

ACTION:

1. We have requested the New York Office, last office of origin, to prepare a summary report on George DeMohrenschildt concerning the investigation prior to the assassination and this will be forwarded to the Commission upon receipt.

2. We have requested Dallas to prepare a current report of DeMohrenschildt's activities including what has been done and what we are going to do.

3. Attached is a letter to Mr. Rankin advising him of previous investigation and that additional current investigation is being conducted in accordance with his request.

4. By separate communication field is being instructed to handle immediately in accordance with the above.

By letter 2-17-64 we furnished the Commission information received from a source that Marina Oswald [redacted] during her recent stay in Washington, D. C., when she testified before the Commission. By letter 2-18-64 Mr. Rankin requested this Bureau conduct certain investigation in this matter.

In accordance with the request of the Commission, we expeditiously conducted interviews February 18-19, 1964, with Robert Oswald and Marina Oswald. We have taken signed statements from both. John Thorne refused to furnish any information regarding this matter and claims he considers himself Martin's attorney and respects the attorney - client relationship. Thorne added he would advise Martin not to submit to interview and, in presence of Dallas Agents, telephonically contacted Martin and recommended Martin refuse to be interviewed by FBI in this matter. Martin then informed Thorne to tell Bureau Agents he did not desire to be interviewed in this matter.

Inasmuch as Robert Oswald is to appear before the Commission at 10:00 a.m., 2-20-64, we have incorporated details in Robert Oswald's signed statement in a letter to the Commission, which is attached. Other data developed will be immediately furnished to the Commission upon receipt.*

The January 30, 1964, issue of the "National Guardian" ("NG"), page 3, columns 3 and 4, contains an advertisement reflecting that the "NG" would sponsor "An Inquiry into The Oswald Case" on the evening of February 18, 1964, at Town Hall, 123 West 43rd Street, New York City, at which the speakers would be Attorney Mark Lane and his client, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, Staughton Lynd, Jack Minnis, co-authors of the "New Republic" article "Seeds of Doubt," and Professor David Haber, Rutgers University Law School, as Chairman.

A characterization of the "NG" appears in the appendix hereto.

On June 10, 1963, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that at a meeting of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC), which was held on May 28, 1963, at 74 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, Mark Lane was elected to the position as Vice-Chairman of the organization.

A characterization of the NYCAHUAC is contained in the appendix hereto.

In February, 1948, a second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, identified Staughton Lynd as a member of the Harvard Chapter of the American Youth for Democracy (AYD) as of December 14, 1947.

The AYD has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On February 13, 1959, a third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available a leaflet entitled "Emergency Civil Liberties Committee Program for 1959," which reflects that Professor David Haber is a member of the National Council of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC).

A characterization of the ECLC is contained in the appendix hereto.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) were in attendance at the meeting sponsored by the "NG" at Town Hall, 123 West 43rd Street, New York City, on the evening of February 18, 1964, at which there were approximately 1500 persons present.

James Aronson, the Editor of the "NG," opened the meeting, at which time he related how the officials of Town Hall had attempted to have the reservation for the meeting cancelled on the basis that Town Hall was not advised in the original lease that Mrs. Marguerite Oswald would appear on the program.

Aronson stated the "NG" solicited the aid of the American Civil Liberties Union to force Town Hall to honor the lease and which was finally accomplished when the "NG" did, after considerable expense, raise the sum of $25,000.00 to be held in escrow for any physical damages to the property as a result of the meeting.

Aronson then introduced David Haber, whom he described as a Professor of Law at Rutgers University and a former law clerk of Justice Hugo Black, as the Chairman of the evening.

David Haber stated that the primary reason for his presence at the meeting was that he believed there was a need for greater publicity of the Oswald case and the aura of secrecy which has surrounded the case.

David Haber then introduced Staughton Lynd and Jack Minnis, co-authors of the "New Republic" article "Seeds of Doubt," stating that Staughton Lynd, currently a Professor of History at Spelman College, Atlanta, Georgia, and who would be a Professor of History at Yale University next year, would be the next speaker.

Staughton Lynd, who described himself as a specialist in the period of the American Revolution, criticized the Oswald investigation, stating it was of manufactured information and of changing facts to a degree which made it appear to him as a Madison Avenue and Hollywood production.

Lee Harvey Oswald
IS - R

Lynd went into extensive detail on the contradictions of the autopsy reports concerning the President, pointing out how reports differed as to where the bullets entered the President's body.

He drew an analogy between the Dreyfus case and the Oswald case.

Lynd stated the Warren Commission does not intend to investigate how the President was killed, but intends to accept the FBI report without question and added that the FBI was an interested party, and this Lynd called a flagrant dereliction of duty.

He stated that if the Oswald case was a conspiracy, there were certain Government sources who wished to conceal it. He stated the United States lied about the U-2, then the Bay of Pigs, and now the assassination of the President.

Re: Lee Harvey Oswald
IS - R

The next speaker was Mark Lane described as a well-known civil rights attorney, a fighter against landlords and a volunteer to defend Lee Oswald.

Lane criticized the investigation made by the FBI, Secret Service and the Dallas Police. He used affidavits alleged to have been furnished him by a source in the Dallas District Attorney's office and a blackboard drawing to give three versions of how the President was shot. He did this in an attempt to prove that the first bullet could not have been fired by Oswald.

Lane related how he talked with a woman who said the FBI had taken film from her, had given her a receipt for the film, but had never returned the picture to her.

Lane played a tape recording of a telephone conversation he had on the afternoon of February 18, 1964, with Miss Hill, a Dallas woman who stated she had heard four to six shots but was told by a Secret Service Agent that they had only three bullets, therefore only three shots were fired. The agent suggested that she may have heard echoes or fire crackers. Miss Hill denied this.

Lane said that a paraffin test made on Oswald's face showed no nitrates therefore Oswald could not have fired the rifle. He also stated the rifle was totally incapable of doing what the FBI and others had stated.

Lane said the FBI's answer as to why they had not followed Oswald on the day of the assassination was that their area of jurisdiction was limited to spies and saboteurs and the FBI was not permitted to move in the area of non-conformists.

Re: Lee Harvey Oswald
IS - R

Lane said a two hour meeting was held one week before the assassination at Jack Ruby's Club Carousel, between Bernard Weissman, Patrolman Tibbett, and a third person whose identity he would reveal in about one week. He said he could not amplify on this matter at this time.

Annette T. Rubinstein, described as a former New York University teacher, was the next speaker. She requested contributions for the "National Guardian" and requested those present to write at once to their Congressmen. She explained that the reason for this request was because Congress would vote this week on appropriations for the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). Rubinstein described the HCUA as an organization which had done almost as much to intimidate "us" as the FBI.

> In public hearings before the Committee on Un-American Activities, House of Representatives, 87th Congress, First Session, held at Washington, D.C., on May 31, 1961, Annette Rubinstein invoked the principles of the First Amendment and the protection of the Fifth Amendment when questioned concerning Communist Party membership.

Mrs. Marguerite Oswald was the last speaker and she stated that an injustice had been done. She described herself as a humble layman, a pretty good fighter, an authority on cross-examination, one who has testified before the Warren Commission and held many press conferences.

She said the fact that her daughter-in-law had testified through an interpreter had not endeared her to the FBI or Secret Service.

Re: Lee Harvey Oswald
IS - R.

She stated that Mark Lane had sent her his brief after which she requested he represent her son. She thanked the "National Guardian" for sponsoring this meeting.

Following the speeches there was a question and answer period in which Mrs. Oswald stated she was writing a book in which all the facts would appear.

During this question and answer period, Mark Lane advised those present that in each city in which he had spoken there had been formed a Citizens Committee of Inquiry. He stated that at the present time New York would be the headquarters for the National Citizens Committee of Inquiry. He requested all those present who were really interested to write their name and address on a piece of paper and give it to the ushers, expressing their desire to form this committee.

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO APOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of FRANK WILKINSON, Field Representative of the National Committee To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

A second source advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a Communist Party member as of September, 1952.

A third source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution affirmed the intention to continue to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HCUA" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and co-ordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

Various sources have advised during March, 1962, that Communist Party (CP) members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

On May 6, 1963, the first source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, page 113, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film 'Operation Abolition,' Part 1, October 3, 1961, p. 5.)"

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee.

EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

"1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * * The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'FRANK WILKINSON was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 WILKINSON was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. * * * WILKINSON has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.'

(Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1958, House Report 187, March 9, 1959, pp. 34 and 35.)

'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection.'

The President's Commission requested that we conduct investigation concerning allegation by Mexican attorney Alcocer that Jack Ruby's sister, Eva Grant, was seen San Antonio 11-21-63 while President Kennedy that city and observed in background on television show 11-22-63 in Dallas. Commission further requested we review tapes of San Antonio television programs for 11-22-63. Attached teletype from San Antonio reveals tapes were not made of programs; that person who allegedly observed Grant in San Antonio previously interviewed and denies this. This information was reported to Commission. We are advising Commission by letter of investigation conducted referring them to our previous report on this matter and in addition advising them of fact Grant in Dallas 11-21-63 recovering from operation.

Remy Airtel 2/22/64.

RICHARD EDWARD KENDRICK, Age 17, #2119-LC, interviewed at the Federal Correctional Institute (FCI) Lompoc, Calif., by Bureau Agents on 2/22/64.

KENDRICK told confusing story which in many instances was in conflict with written statement he previously furnished to FCI authorities regarding the association with the Nazi Party of the United States and the involvement in the plan to assassinate the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

KENDRICK claimed he joined the Nazi Party of the U.S. in October of 1960 in San Diego, California at the age of 14 having been recruited by one JOSE PAGUA.

He claimed to have met a Marine Corps member named HARVEY OSWALD at Camp Pendleton in 1956 or 1957 who he believes is identical with the OSWALD accussed of assassinating The President.

KENDRICK'S step-father was an officer in the Marine Corps at the time and lived on the Marine Corps base with his family. KENDRICK later came in contact with OSWALD at the Marine Corps Recruiting Depot in San Diego in 1960, and at first, KENDRICK claimed he introduced OSWALD to the Nazi and Communist way of life but changed his story to say that JOSE PAGUA was the individual who introduced OSWALD to the Nazi and Communist way of life.

SOVIET SECTION

KENDRICK is unable to furnish any information concerning the aims or purposes of the Nazi Party except that they want to overthrow the Government.

KENDRICK claims he is presently a Colonel in the Nazi Party and that there are 130 to 140 of the Nazi Party confined at the FCI and that Nazi Party contingent at FCI is presently working on a moon and space exploration project; that they are getting materials for the project from the U.S. Government and from Oak Ridge.

KENDRICK also contends the Nazi Party and the Communist Party are working together to overthrow the Government and that there are 60 Communist Party members confined at the FCI.

About 5/11/63, shortly after release from custody, KENDRICK contends he received a letter from JOSE PAGUA requesting KENDRICK to come to Reno, Nevada and within forty minutes, KENDRICK was enroute from his residence in Stockton, California via bus for Reno.

KENDRICK was met at the bus station in Reno by TOM MC BETH who had been a school mate of KENDRICK'S in San Diego.

KENDRICK registered at a hotel, Hotel Nevada, in Reno, under a fictitious name and address and McBETH brought JOSE PAGUA and one DR. JOHPH MANELE to KENDRICK'S hotel room that evening.

PAGUA gave KENDRICK $5,000.00 in cash and instructed KENDRICK to buy two of the best rifles he could find with twelve power scopes on them.

Next day, KENDRICK accompanied by RONALD KELLY BROWN, Age 18, who had been introduced to KENDRICK by TOM MC BETH at Reno, went to a sporting goods store and bought two M-1 .30 caliber Semi-automatic carbines and two .44 caliber Rueger magnums, single shots, Hawkeye pistols.

PAGUA came to KENDRICK'S room that evening and told KENDRICK had lined up HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBINSTEIN to assassinate President KENNEDY but if they backed out he wanted KENDRICK to handle the job and offerred KENDRICK $15,000.00 as an initial payment.

KENDRICK stated that he accepted the offer and claims he would kill the President or any other person if the price is right.

KENDRICK was allowed to keep the balance of the $5,000.00 PAGUA had given him on the previous day as well as the guns he had purchased and was instructed to locate a place in Idaho or Washington, D.C., for the assassination of The President after which he should contact PAGUA in Reno to discuss the plans.

On 5/14/63 KENDRICK and BROWN stole a car in Reno and prior to their arrest in Crescent Mills, California, on the same date, threw out the guns in the mountains and buried the money, the location he would not disclose. Claimed he later received letters from PAGUA at Susanville, California Jail and at the Quincy, California Jail asking what had happened to their plan.

KENDRICK claims his motives in reporting the above is because he feels RUBY should get the death penalty for killing an ex-Marine and that he would not have cared had RUBY killed anyone other than an ex-Marine.

KENDRICK states he doesn't believe OSWALD actually killed The President as OSWALD, according to information KENDRICK received, had sufferred a shoulder injury prohibiting the firing of a shoulder weapon larger than a .22 caliber.

FCI records indicate KENDRICK has been institutionalized almost continually since November of 1960. FCI records contain a report on KENDRICK prepared by the U. S. Probation Officer of Sacramento, California on 6/22/63 stating: "While in the California Youth Authority, defendant received a psychiatric evaluation and was described as a sociopathic personalty, anti-social type. Psychological evaluations in February of 1961 found this person sufferring from severely retarded emotional development. Defendant never had any success relating with an adult figure. There is marked confusion in his concept of who and what he is. Does not understand how to play a masculine role; sexual relations seemed to be very confused."

FCI records reflect that while confined in Englewood, Colo., FCI from 7/13/63 to 1/29/64, KENDRICK received disciplinary reports for hiding out, planning to escape, and making derogatory remarks to an officer and on one occasion slashed his arm with a razor blade.

On 1/24/64 KENDRICK was sentenced to forfeiture of 28 days "good time" for attempting to stab one of the other inmates and KENDRICK stated at that time he was sorry the victim was not killed.

Warden at the FCI Lompoc facility stated that in his opinion, KENDRICK is a sociopathic personality who is emotionally unstable and completely unreliable.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Synopsis:

ROBERT PRESTON DICKINSON, Pulaski, Va., on interview, stated he sent letter to Sperry - Farragut Co., a division of Sperry Rand Corporation, Bristol, Tenn., applying for a job. Stated was single, "but am courting Mrs. Lee Oswald and her $24,000 via letter proposals." Denies being in Texas or writing to Mrs. OSWALD. States reason for using such wording was to express bitterness at being out of work. Local police describe DICKINSON as a chronic complainer, most of complaints being childish, some incoherent. Also described DICKINSON as being mentally ill.

- R U C -

DETAILS:

On January 17, 1964, J. C. WYGAL, Security Department, Sperry - Farragut, Company, a division of Sperry - Rand Corporation, Bristol, Tennessee, furnished copies of letters from ROBERT PRESTON DICKINSON dated January 12, 1964, and January 13, 1964. DICKINSON enclosed with his first letter a statement on his employment, showing various jobs as technical writer, editor, television actor, engineer, analyst, motion picture actor, etc. Mr. WYGAL said this statement appears to make sense, as many of the supervisors named are prominent in the fields mentioned; however, at the end of the described statement, he made the following notation in hand printing:

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

"Age: 39, marital status: single, but am courting Mrs. Lee Oswald and her $24,000 via letter proposals."

Mr. WYGAL noted that DICKINSON used good English but apparently is not of sound mind, making such remarks as "will not fill out any more application forms so don't send them. I mean it." Also, "don't want any local interview and will not come if it is offered." DICKINSON offered to work in his home as a "technical editor" for $42 per week, working on non-classified technical reports.

In the second letter DICKINSON offered to send all of his work to a BILL BEALER, Katt Engineering Corporation, Santa Monica, California, and this letter wanders and makes use of lengthy phrases making little sense.

Chief of Police CHARLES COMER, JR., Pulaski, Virginia, Police Department, advised SA FREDERICK A. COOK on February 7, 1964, that DICKINSON is mentally ill, though not violent, is a veteran, a graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute (VPI), Blacksburg, Virginia, with a degree in Chemical Engineering.

Chief COMER related that over the past year or two, DICKINSON has been a chronic complainer to the Pulaski, Virginia, Police Department, most of the complaints being somewhat childish. At times DICKINSON has mailed papers to the Pulaski, Virginia, Police Department containing clippings and photographs from newspapers and magazines and containing incoherent scribblings in the margins.

Chief COMER described DICKINSON's parents as elderly, hard working, reliable and loyal American citizens.

Date 2/14/64

ROBERT PRESTON DICKINSON was interviewed at his home located at 25 Lexington Avenue, Pulaski, Virginia.

He related he had submitted letters to the Sperry - Farragut Company, Bristol, Tennessee, in an effort to secure employment.

DICKINSON stated he felt that since he had such a wide work experience with various companies, the Personnel Officer of the Sperry - Farragut Company would recognize his name and realize that he had not been employed for five years. DICKINSON stated that to show his bitterness, he used the comment about courting Mrs. LEE OSWALD by mail to demonstrate his desperation regarding unemployment.

He stated he has never been to Texas, has not corresponded with Mrs. LEE OSWALD, and the only information he has regarding the assassination of President KENNEDY is what he has read in the newspapers and observed on the television.

DICKINSON exhibited a suitcase full of notebooks and papers which he claims document his feeling that companies having defense contracts are wasting scientific potential by releasing qualified scientists such as he when contracts are terminated. DICKINSON feels that scientists should be retained by these companies at a reduced pay scale until new contracts are obtained.

DICKINSON also complained that various companies had hired him, knowing of his vast experience and capabilities in order to show in their bidding for Government contracts that they had the best personnel available. He stated that after the contracts were obtained, these companies would then release him and refuse to rehire him.

DICKINSON felt that management in the entertainment field needs to be investigated.

DICKINSON verified that he had not worked in five years, is depressed and draws a disability pension of $20 per month and is mainly supported by his parents. He concluded by saying that his main concern is to obtain employment, and this is his sole reason for writing letters.

During the course of the interview with Mr. DICKINSON, it is noted by Special Agent COOK that DICKINSON rambled and made various complaints, non-specific in nature, dealing with Hollywood theatrical agents and foreign aid.

SUBJECT: Lee Harvey Oswald
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

With regard to the attached letter from Mr. J. Lee Rankin, I telephonically contacted SAC Shanklin, Dallas, at 5:10 PM, 2-24.

I advised SAC Shanklin of the receipt of Mr. Rankin's letter and dictated paragraphs 3 through 5. I told Shanklin that the Bureau desired a detailed teletype setting forth the exact reason or reasons the material mentioned by Mr. Rankin was not included in the Dallas report and asked that the identity of anyone who participated in reaching this decision be set forth, together with their reasons in full.

I advised Shanklin that the Bureau also desired that notarized affidavits be submitted by the personnel involved. Shanklin raised the question about personnel from other offices who might have participated in the review of the notebook and the decision as to what should be included in the report. I told him that if personnel from other offices were involved he should telephonically secure the necessary information so it could be submitted to the Bureau and furnished to the Commission. I said such personnel should also submit notarized affidavits, but that we should not go to any notaries outside the Bureau. I said if any questions arose, the Bureau should be consulted.

I requested Shanklin to submit the detailed teletype tonight if at all possible and to submit the affidavits by 2-25 and to advise the Bureau the means by which the affidavits were being submitted to the Bureau so that they could be obtained promptly and forwarded to the Commission.

Shanklin advised that the above instructions would be immediately complied with.

IN RUSSIAN OBTAINED AND OWNERSHIP OF VARIOUS ITEMS NOT PREVIOUSLY KNOWN WAS DETERMINED.

MARINA WAS QUESTIONED CONCERNING INFORMATION PREVIOUSLY FURNISHED BY HER THAT OSWALD HAD PHYSICALLY MISTREATED HER. SHE SAID OSWALD HAD MISTREATED HER PHYSICALLY ABOUT FOUR TIMES DURING THEIR MARRIED LIVE. SHE SAID THIS MISTREATMENT CONSISTED OF OSWALD HITTING HER IN THE FACE. SHE WAS ASKED IF SHE RETALIATED AND SHE SAID SHE DID. SHE SAID SHE HAD THROWN THINGS AT OSWALD. SHE RECALLED ONCE THROWING A RADIO AT HIM. MARINA SAID OSWALD STARTED THE FIGHTS WITH HIS MISTREATMENT OF HER. SHE WAS ASKED WHAT CAUSED THE FIGHTS AND REPLIED THAT HER CRITICISM OF OSWALD GENERALLY CAUSED THE FIGHTS. SHE CRITICIZED HIS POLITICAL IDEAS. SHE CRITICIZED THE BOOKS HE READ AND ONCE SHE ARGUED WITH HIM BECAUSE HE DID NOT WANT HIS MOTHER TO VISIT IN HIS HOME AND SHE THOUGHT IT WAS PROPER THAT THE MOTHER SHOULD VISIT.

MARINA WAS QUESTIONED CONCERNING THE LETTER FROM MRS. PAINE TO HER IN WHICH PAINE SPOKE OF HER DISPLEASURE WITH HER HUSBAND AND OF HER INTENTION TO TRAVEL TO NEW YORK TO FIND HERSELF A "LOVER". SEE PAGE THREE FIFTY-ONE, DALLAS REPORT, JANUARY TWENTY-TWO, LAST. MARINA SAID SHE BELIEVED THIS TO BE A JOKE ON THE PART OF MRS. PAINE AND THAT MRS. PAINE WAS NOT THAT TYPE OF WOMAN.

SHE SAID MRS. PAINE DID NOT LIKE OSWALD AND OSWALD DID NOT LIKE MRS. PAINE. SHE WAS SURE THAT THERE WAS NO ILLICIT RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN MRS. PAINE AND OSWALD.

he made, in substance, the following comments pertaining to the assassination of President KENNEDY. (It should be noted that Dr. FOWLER is rumored to be a potential Republican candidate for the U. S. Congressional seat currently hold by Representative JOHN PLATNIK.)

First, Dr. FOWLER played a tape recording of the interview of OSWALD, which presumably was the interview conducted in New Orleans relating to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

Dr. FOWLER stated he has been well acquainted with General WALKER, of Texas, and had been in General WALKER's room sometime in the past when an individual, CARLO or CARLOS VANEENZA, had had a conference with General WALKER. Dr. FOWLER indicated that this CARLOS VANEENZA was a Cuban refugee attorney who had had a debate with OSWALD in the taped recording above referred to. He said VANEENZA (phonetic) is now a reporter for a Chicago paper.

In his comments, Dr. FOWLER attributed the shooting at General WALKER to OSWALD, claiming that OSWALD had deliberately missed General WALKER. He charged that it was a definite fact that there was a Communist Party cell in Dallas which had six members, two of whom were JACK RUBY and LEE OSWALD.

He charged that the circumstances leading to the assassination of President KENNEDY arose from the fact that Mr. KENNEDY and Mr. KHRUSHCHEV had gone soft on one another and that both of them wanted to get rid of CASTRO. An agreement was made between them according to which KHRUSHCHEV was to allow Mr. KENNEDY to get rid of CASTRO provided Mr. KENNEDY would permit Cuba to remain Communistic. Mr. CASTRO heard of this arrangement and began his own operation.

Dr. FOWLER charged that OSWALD had made a trip to Mexico before the assassination. He allegedly returned to the United States in the company of one QUINTON PENZA (phonetic). OSWALD had $10,000 in his possession and had been given the job of assassinating President KENNEDY. It was intended that PENZA, after the assassination, was to take OSWALD to Cuba. Immediately following the assassination, OSWALD was supposed to take a taxi to a location near RUBY's home and thereafter be picked up by a representative of PENZA. OSWALD was to have worn a certain-colored jacket for identification. Contrary to instructions, OSWALD had gone to his home and had apparently put on a different jacket, thus causing a delay in his being picked up. When the police stopped OSWALD, OSWALD shot a policeman, and RUBY in turn killed OSWALD for bungling the assassination and to seal his lips.

Dr. FOWLER will be interviewed concerning the specific facts which he has in his possession and for his sources. An appropriate communication suitable for dissemination will then be submitted.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The Commission has received several communiques--mostly telegrams from a Mrs. Shirley Martin of Hominy, Oklahoma. In them she demonstrates an interest in Ruth Paine of Irving, Texas, and in one of them states she has just returned from a visit with the Paine woman.

It would be helpful if your Bureau would furnish to the Commission any information it may already have in its files concerning Mrs. Shirley Martin and if no information is already available then we ask that an appropriate inquiry be conducted so that the Commission may properly evaluate her interest.

Sincerely,

J. Lee Rankin

Re Oswald

Dear Mr. Rankin:

The following is in reply to your letter dated February 18, 1964, relating to Mrs. Shirley Martin of Hominy, Oklahoma.

This Bureau has received several communications from a Mrs. Shirley Martin of Box 566, Hominy, Oklahoma, who appears to be identical with the subject of your inquiry. Mrs. Martin has directed letters to the United States Department of Justice, which have been referred to us, as well as sending letters directly to this Bureau. One communication from Mrs. Martin inquired as to why we had shown a photograph of Jack L. Ruby to Lee Harvey Oswald's mother before Oswald was murdered. This letter was acknowledged and Mrs. Martin was advised no such photograph had been shown. She immediately wrote back and inquired if any other photographs had been shown.

This latter communication from Mrs. Martin was received at the same time we were handling a referral from the United States Department of Justice in which Mrs. Martin claimed to have seen a photograph in the December 14, 1964, issue of "The Saturday Evening Post," of an individual on a rooftop with a rifle near the assassination site. Inasmuch as Mrs. Martin did not fully identify the photograph, she was interviewed for this purpose by our Oklahoma City Office. At the time of interview Mrs. Martin was also advised that all evidence developed by this Bureau was being forwarded to the President's Commission and that we were making none of the information public.

We have developed no information which would indicate any connection between Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Ruth Paine of Irving, Texas, however, Mrs. Paine is being interviewed for any information she may have concerning Mrs. Martin inasmuch as your letter states Mrs. Martin has returned from a visit with Mrs. Paine. When the results of this interview are received you will be promptly notified. As you are aware, we have furnished the President's Commission numerous reports relating to the Paines.

Memorandum

TO : A. H. Belmont

DATE: February 26, 1964

FROM : A. Rosen

SUBJECT: THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION
ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT - Lee Oswald

While at the offices of the President's Commission on other matters, J. Lee Rankin requested Malley to stop by his office. Mr. Rankin advised that he desired to make it known that the Bureau had been of tremendous help to the President's Commission, that an extremely large volume of work had been produced by the Bureau and that the Bureau had been most cooperative in handling all requests which had been made by the President's Commission.

He commented that recently there had been quite an increase in the number of requests and there was a possibility that there would be many more additional requests. Mr. Rankin stated this was not intended as a criticism of the Bureau's work but instead was the following through of the Commission's desire to complete the Commission's record and leave no unanswered questions.

In this regard, Mr. Rankin went on to say that the Bureau, in conducting its investigation, had an extremely difficult and enormous task to perform and that he as well as other members of the Commission staff has been amazed at the amount of detailed information which had been developed by the Bureau in its investigation. He commented that the Commission in performing its tasks was of necessity making a most minute study of the Bureau's work as well as that of other Government agencies with the idea of picking the investigation to pieces to the extreme degree so that wherever it was possible to clarify any item, this could be handled while the Commission was in existence.

Mr. Rankin advised that in connection with the letter which had just recently been transmitted to the Bureau requesting an explanation concerning information relative to Special Agent James P. Hosty's name being omitted from a report prepared in the Dallas Office (report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated 12/23/63), he wanted the Bureau to know the following:

Memorandum A. Rosen to A. H. Belmont
Re: THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION

The Commission had noted in reviewing the notebook in question that Agent Hosty's name appeared in the book along with the office telephone number and a license number. It had been noted that this information did not appear in the Dallas investigative report and members of the Commission wondered why this item did not appear. Mr. Rankin stated that prior to the question being raised concerning this item, the Bureau in one of its letters to the Commission (dated 1/27/64) set forth full information for the Commission's information explaining the appearance of Agent Hosty's name in the Oswald notebook. As a result of this information being furnished by the Bureau, the members of the Commission were fully aware that there had been no effort on the part of the Bureau not to make this information available. Mr. Rankin stated that after some discussion concerning this item, the members of the Commission directed Mr. Rankin to request the Bureau for an explanation so that the record of the Commission would show the exact circumstances by which this item was omitted from the Dallas report of 12/23/63 by Special Agent Gemberling.

ACTION:

Attached is a letter to J. Lee Rankin setting forth the reasons why Agent Hosty's name was omitted from the Dallas report of 12/23/63. We are enclosing for the Commission affidavits from Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling and John T. Kesler wherein they set forth their explanations in handling the Hosty entry in Oswald's address book. Both affidavits are excellent and should satisfy the Commission that our handling of the Hosty entry was sound.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Reverend FRED B. ALLEN, Jr., 505 Oklahoma Avenue, advised he is pastor of the North Glenwood Baptist Church, Knoxville. He advised he and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. FRED B. ALLEN, Sr., 1400 North 4th Avenue, Knoxville, are long-time friends of JOHN HOWARD BOWEN, whom he described as an 84 year old missionary. Reverend ALLEN stated that BOWEN has worked as a missionary in Mexico for the past 22 years.

Reverend ALLEN advised he has not seen BOWEN for quite some time, but advised he had recently received a post card from BOWEN postmarked 2/18/64 at San Antonio, Texas. He advised this was an airmail postcard of the type purchased at U. S. Post Offices. He said the only message on the card was BOWEN'S new mailing address and that BOWEN hoped to hear from him soon. Reverend ALLEN stated the new address furnished by BOWEN was Niza 22, Mexico D.F.

Reverend ALLEN advised he had absolutely no idea as to BOWEN'S present whereabouts, but advised he would immediately notify the Knoxville FBI Office if he or his parents heard anything further from BOWEN.

Date February 25, 1964

Mrs. BESSIE WHITE, Vice President, Pisgah Home Movement, Pikeville, Tennessee, advised that she has known of JOHN HOWARD BOWEN for about the past four years. She stated she received information through some source, unrecalled at the present time, that BOWEN was a supervisor of a mission in Mexico, and she has been making contributions to be used to support one of the Evangelists. She said that BOWEN is a representative of the Pentacostal or Full Gospel Church and that he reportedly has several Evangelists working under him at this mission that he operates. She said that the Evangelists are reportedly Mexicans and are working throughout Mexico.

She indicated that she contributes $35.00 per month at the present time but originally only contributed $25.00 per month. This money is supposed to be used to support one of the Evangelists and she receives a receipt each month from the person who received the money. The money is sent to BOWEN, who, in turn, makes the money available to the Evangelist. BOWEN also furnishes a receipt indicating that he receives the money that she contributes. She stated that she makes the contribution in the form of bank drafts, which are drawn on the First National Bank of Pikeville, Pikeville, Tennessee, and these drafts are made payable to BOWEN. She said that these cancelled bank drafts, as well as the receipts, are presently in her possession. She said that she has received information that other persons were contributing to this same cause, but she did not know the identity of any of these persons. She said that BOWEN has never solicited any contributions from her; however, he did notify her that the cost of supporting one of the Evangelists had increased from $25.00 to $35.00 per month. She has never seen BOWEN and her only contact has been through the United States mails by letter.

She said that she knew very little about BOWEN, but he has advised her in his letters that he is originally from Knoxville, Tennessee. She does not know any thing about his background but understands that he has been in Mexico for about 18 years doing missionary work. In addition to the money sent each month, the Pisgah Home Mission occasionally sends used clothing and other articles to BOWEN to be distributed to the needy.

She said that the only name she ever knew this person by was JOHN HOWARD BOWEN and his last address was Niza 22, Mexico,

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

On a teletype from the Dallas Office which reported the results of the interview of Marina Oswald concerning the alleged threat of Lee Harvey Oswald to shoot former Vice President Richard Nixon, the Director inquired "Approximately what date would the Nixon incident be?"

The Dallas Office ~~today~~ reported that Marina put the date at approximately two weeks after the Walker incident. Since the Walker incident occurred 4-10-63, the date of the Nixon incident would be approximately 4-24-63.

Information developed by the Dallas Office casts considerable doubt on the validity of the story related by Marina Oswald. It will be noted that Mr. Maurice Carlson, President of the Reliance Life and Accident Insurance Company, had previously indicated that former Vice President Nixon was scheduled to appear in Dallas in April, 1963, to receive an award from the chamber of commerce. On recontact Carlson in effect admits he was mistaken in furnishing his first information. A check at the newspaper morgue of the Dallas "Morning News" for the period 3-16 to 5-16-63 was negative as to any publicity concerning a visit of Vice President Nixon to Dallas. It is inconceivable that a person of the public stature of former Vice President Nixon could visit Dallas without some public notification. We have furnished the available information on the Nixon incident to the President's Commission and we will have to completely run this out until we are satisfied that we have arrived at the truth.

ACTION:

The quickest way and most satisfactory way to resolve whether former Vice President Nixon visited or intended to visit in Dallas in 1963 is to ask him. Attached is a teletype to the New York Office instructing that former Vice President Nixon be interrogated to determine if during 1963 he had any invitation or any intention to visit Dallas and whether, in fact, he did so visit in that city.

Attached are four photographic copies, size 3" x 10", of a certified copy of Albert Osborne's birth certificate reflecting that he was born at New Clee, England, which is now part of Grimsby, on 11/12/88.

The original certified copy of Osborne's birth certificate was forwarded to the Bureau with above referenced airtel from Legat, London, and has been assigned number D142.

If an investigative report has been submitted previously regarding exhibit D142, you should prepare a letterhead memorandum, suitable for dissemination, identifying the report in which the pertinent information is set forth. Two photographs should be attached as exhibits to the two copies of the letterhead memorandum designated for The President's Commission and one photograph should be attached to the copy of the letterhead memorandum which will become the Bureau's file copy. The fourth photograph is for the completion of your file. If no investigative report has been submitted regarding exhibit D142, you should prepare an investigative report and attach two photographs as exhibits to the two copies of the investigative report which will be furnished to the President's Commission and attach one photograph to the copy of the investigative report signed by the SAC, which will become the Bureau's file copy.

NOTE:

21 FEB 20 1964 Branigan to Mr. Sullivan 2/26/64 set forth request from President's Commission for recording of Mark Lane's and Marguerite Oswald's appearances and suggested coverage be limited to publicly announced meetings. ReButel instructed Buffalo arrange through reliable sources only to obtain coverage of public appearance of Lane and Oswald at Hotel Buffalo, Buffalo, New York, 2/23/64, such appearances reportedly being planned by Workers World Party. ReBUtel advised that management of Hotel Buffalo had canceled reservations for Lane's appearance; that American Civil Liberties Union locally has protested action and local newspapers reveals show cause order obtained 2/26/64 against Hotel in effort to reverse hotel's cancellation. Hotel to respond to order in court 10 a.m. 2/28/64. If hotel's action upheld in court, Workers World Party (WWP) will attempt to have Lane appear at another location. WWP blames local Police Department and FBI for cancellation and are conducting future picketing of local FBI office. Buffalo advised that in view of above developments no action being taken by Buffalo at this time to obtain recording; that when court's decision rendered consideration will then be given to arranging coverage per Bureau instructions. We should take certain Buffalo is taking necessary action to insure that all feasible efforts are being made to comply with Bureau instructions.

He has been utilizing dual identity of Osborne - Bowen for over thirty years, has claimed birth in Pennsylvania and presently holds Canadian passport under Osborne identity. He was actually born in England. We have interviewed him and he denies sitting next to Oswald on bus. He also denies using dual identity and insists he is John H. Bowen. We are planning to reinterview him. Background in possession of his brother and sisters may be helpful. The reference is apparently to a post office box in Crowell, Texas. You should, if you have not already done so, determine the holder of Box 473, Crowell, Texas, and the reason for this person's post office box address to be in Oswald's address book. For the information of Buffalo and Philadelphia, MARK LANE is carried on RI-A of the NYO and is an Attorney-at-Law with offices in Room 1001, 654 Madison Ave., NYC. He resides at 164 W. 79th St., NYC.

The "New York Herald Tribune" newspaper dated 1/15/64, page 7, column 1, contained an article entitled "Oswald's Mother Hires Lane". This article stated that on 1/14/64, Mrs. MARGUERITE C. OSWALD, mother of accused assassin LEE HARVEY OSWALD announced she had hired MARK LANE to represent her slain son before the Warren Commission investigating the murder of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. According to this article, Mrs. OSWALD stated she had been in contact with LANE during his stay in Fort Worth, Texas, the previous weekend. It was also pointed out that LANE had accepted the case although Mrs. OSWALD stated she had no funds with which to pay him.

On 6/10/63, [redacted] (conceal-reliable in the past) advised that at a meeting of the NYCAHUAC held 5/28/63 at 74 5th Ave., NYC, MARK LANE was elected to the position of Vice-Chairman of the organization.

Buffalo is requested to furnish the NYO with any information regarding future speaking plans of LANE which might have been received from his appearance in that Division on 2/28/64, or from other sources.

The Philadelphia Division will provide coverage of subject's appearance at the Ethical Society, 1906 Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on 3/11/64, pursuant to instructions contained in reButel, 2/26/64.

Philadelphia will also furnish the NYO with any information that may be received concerning future speaking plans of LANE.

Two copies of this communication are being furnished to the Dallas Division for purposes of information in view of their interest in this matter.

New York will continue investigation to determine subject's future speaking plans per Bureau instructions. New York will also furnish Dallas with any information that may be forthcoming concerning future plans of Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD.

Similar matter has been previously received and is in the process of being reported by Dallas. However, in view of the Commission's request, Dallas being instructed to prepare special letterhead memorandum for dissemination to the Commission.

In addition to the above, Commission requested investigation of an alleged signature of Lee Harvey Oswald on a guest register at the "Fox and Hounds," Hubertus, Wisconsin. This matter has already been investigated and previously furnished to the Commission by letter dated 12/23/63. This has been found to be the act of a prankster. Laboratory has positively stated signature in question not Oswald's.

NOTE: By letter 2/24/64 Mr. Rankin, General Counsel, President's Commission, requested additional investigation of the above matter. Our investigation to date consists of Laboratory examination which concluded Oswald did not write signature appearing therein and that further, anonymous call received stating signature placed by probably intoxicated male as prank. However, due to caller's embarrassment, refused to identify prankster. While it would appear this matter has been logically resolved, in view of Commission's request reporter Deschon is being interviewed. LEE HARVEY OSWALD, IS - R - CUBA.

ON JANUARY 23 LAST EMBASSY, MEXICO CITY, MADE AVAILABLE A SPANISH TEXT LETTER DATED DECEMBER 2, 1963, WHICH HAD BEEN DIRECTED TO PRESIDENT LYNDON B. JOHNSON BY PEDRO GUTIERREZ VALENCIA, A CREDIT INVESTIGATION FOR A MEXICO CITY DEPARTMENT STORE. THIS LETTER HAD APPARENTLY BEEN IN POSSESSION OF THE WHITE HOUSE OR STATE DEPARTMENT AT WASHINGTON, D. C., AND FORWARDED TO EMBASSY HERE FOR APPROPRIATE ACTION.

LETTER FROM GUTIERREZ ALLEGES THAT HE WAS AT CUBAN EMBASSY, MEXICO CITY, ON SEPTEMBER 30 OR OCTOBER 1, 1963, ON CREDIT INVESTIGATION OF EMPLOYEE THERE AND UPON LEAVING OBSERVED A CUBAN IN COMPANY OF AMERICAN CITIZEN. THEY WERE ENGAGED IN HEATED DISCUSSION IN ENGLISH INVOLVING "CASTRO, CUBA, AND KENNEDY." HE ADVISED IN LETTER THAT CUBAN WAS COUNTING AMERICAN DOLLARS, THAT BOTH PERSONS DEPARTED AREA IN AN AUTOMOBILE.

GUTIERREZ, A FORMER ASSISTANT PRISON DIRECTOR IN MEXICO CITY AND SELF-AVOWED ANTI-COMMUNIST OF LONG STANDING, FINALLY LOCATED TODAY AND ADVISED AS FOLLOWS:

ON ABOUT SEPTEMBER 30 OR OCTOBER 1 LAST HE VISITED CUBAN EMBASSY HERE TO CONTACT FEMALE EMPLOYEE THERE CONCERNING HER

CREDIT APPLICATION. SHE WAS FOUND NOT TO HAVE BEEN ACCREDITED TO MEXICAN GOVERNMENT AND APPLICATION WAS LATER REJECTED. HE COULD NOT RECALL NAME OF THIS FEMALE EMPLOYEE OF CUBAN EMBASSY BUT FEELS MAY BE ABLE TO LOCATE OLD APPLICATION TO ESTABLISH HER IDENTITY AND DATE OF VISIT TO CUBAN EMBASSY IF APPLICATION NOT DESTROYED IN VIEW OF REJECTION FOR CREDIT.

GUTIERREZ CLAIMED THAT UPON LEAVING CUBAN EMBASSY AND WHILE STILL IN COURTYARD A CUBAN WHO SEEMED TO BE IN A HURRY BUMPED INTO HIM IN PASSING. HE THEN NOTED THAT THE CUBAN WAS ENGAGED IN A HEATED DISCUSSION IN ENGLISH WITH A SECOND INDIVIDUAL WHO WAS APPARENTLY AN AMERICAN CITIZEN; THAT THE CUBAN WAS COUNTING SOME AMERICAN CURRENCY OF UNKNOWN DENOMINATIONS, AND HE HEARD THE WORDS "MISTER CASTRO AND KENNEDY" MENTIONED DURING THEIR DISCUSSION IN THE COURTYARD AND WHILE THEY WERE STILL WALKING TOWARD THE WALL GATE OF THE CUBAN EMBASSY.

ALTHOUGH GUTIERREZ ADMITTEDLY CAN UNDERSTAND VERY LITTLE ENGLISH HE CLAIMED HE BECAME INTERESTED AND WALKED ABOUT TWO YARDS BEHIND THESE PERSONS TO A POINT ON THE SIDEWALK OUTSIDE THE WALL OF THE EMBASSY WHERE HE SAID HE OBSERVED THE CUBAN HAND THE AMERICAN THE MONEY HE HAD BEEN COUNTING.

GUTIERREZ STATED THAT HE NOTED THE AMERICAN PLACED THE MONEY IN HIS LEFT HAND TROUSERS POCKET USING HIS LEFT HAND TO DO SO.

HE RELATED THAT HE CONTINUED TO FOLLOW THESE TWO PERSONS TO THE CORNER ADJACENT TO THE CUBAN EMBASSY AND NOTED THAT THEY ENTERED A "DINA RENAULT" AUTOMOBILE SOLID BEIGE IN COLOR BEARING MEXICAN LICENSE PLATES AND DROVE AWAY.

GUTIERREZ STATED THAT IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY, HE OBSERVED PHOTOGRAPHS OF OSWALD IN VARIOUS MEXICO CITY NEWSPAPERS AND IMMEDIATELY CAME TO THE FIRM CONCLUSION THAT THE AMERICAN HE HAD SEEN WITH THE CUBAN AS INDICATED ABOVE WAS IDENTICAL WITH THE PERSON DEPICTED IN THESE NEWSPAPER PHOTOGRAPHS.

GUTIERREZ FURTHER ADVISED THAT ON OR ABOUT OCTOBER 4, 1963, HE RETURNED TO THE CUBAN EMBASSY AND LOOKED AROUND TO SEE IF HE COULD OBSERVE THE CUBAN HE HAD SEEN WITH THE AMERICAN AND POSSIBLY IDENTIFY THIS INDIVIDUAL AS A CUBAN EMBASSY EMPLOYEE BUT DID NOT OBSERVE THIS INDIVIDUAL AMONG THE CUBAN EMBASSY EMPLOYEES.

GUTIERREZ ALSO CLAIMED THAT TWO DAYS FOLLOWING THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY HE AGAIN RETURNED TO THE CUBAN EMBASSY FOR THE PURPOSE OF TRYING TO IDENTIFY THIS UNKNOWN CUBAN BUT WAS AGAIN UNSUCCESSFUL.

GUTIERREZ TODAY EXAMINED 22 PHOTOGRAPHS OF CURRENT AND RECENT EMPLOYEES OF THE CUBAN EMBASSY AT MEXICO CITY AND STATED THAT NONE OF THE PERSONS DEPICTED ARE IDENTICAL WITH THE CUBAN HE OBSERVED IN THE COMPANY OF THE AMERICAN IDENTIFIED BY HIM AS OSWALD.

A PHOTOGRAPH OF OSWALD WHICH HAD APPEARED IN LIFE MAGAZINE AND DEPICTS THE SUBJECT PASSING OUT PRO-CUBA LITERATURE ON A STREET IN NEW ORLEANS WAS MIXED IN WITH 16 MISCELLANEOUS PHOTOGRAPHS OF OTHER PERSONS AND DEMONSTRATED TO GUTIERREZ AND HE INDICATED NO RECOGNITION OF THIS PARTICULAR PHOTOGRAPH OF OSWALD.

GUTIERREZ APPEARS TO BE INTELLIGENT AND MATURE INDIVIDUAL WHO SEEMS SINCERELY CONVINCED HE SAW OSWALD AT CUBAN EMBASSY ON ONE OF DATES MENTIONED AND TODAY INDICATED ONLY DESIRE IS TO ASSIST U. S. IN STRUGGLE AGAINST COMMUNISM. HE MADE NO MENTION OF POSSIBLE COMPENSATION, HOWEVER, IT HAS BEEN NOTED HE RESIDES IN OLD RUN DOWN APARTMENT BUILDING IN POOR SECTION OF CITY. THE DESCRIPTION PROVIDED OF AMERICAN SEEN BY GUTIERREZ AT CUBAN EMBASSY GENERALLY FITS THAT OF OSWALD EXCEPT THAT HE ESTIMATED AGE AT 27 TO 30 YEARS OF AGE, WITH DARK BROWN HAIR AND VERY LIGHT COMPLEXION WHICH IS AT SLIGHT VARIANCE WITH AVAILABLE DESCRIPTION OF OSWALD.

MATTER BEING FOLLOWED CLOSELY TO DETERMINE WHETHER GUTIERREZ

MARK LANE

An article appearing in "The Milwaukee Journal," a daily newspaper published in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, dated February 17, 1964, set forth that MARK LANE, a New York attorney hired by the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald to defend Oswald before the Warren Commission, spoke before 1000 students at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, on February 16, 1964, at a meeting sponsored by "The Contemporary Affairs Forum" and the Young Socialist Alliance. During the course of his speech, Lane stated that every fact involved in this case that has been checked has been proven absolutely and totally false. He stated that he would not take at face value anything said by the Dallas Police, the FBI or the Secret Service.

On August 6, 1963, (MI T-1) advised that the Contemporary Affairs Forum was a University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, duly authorized student campus organization which had been organized by eleven students, the leadership of which has been active in other pro-Communist-type campus groups. The purpose of the Contemporary Affairs Forum, according to its constitution, is to raise, discuss and act on contemporary, political, social and economic issues in American society.

On February 18, 1964, (MI T-2) advised that the organization, Citizens for Peace and Disarmament, held a program in an apartment located at 2937 North Farwell Avenue, featuring Mark Lane as the guest speaker. [MI T-2] stated that Citizens for Peace and Disarmament sponsored the meeting on February 16, 1964, under the name, Milwaukee Friends of the National Guardian.

According to [MI T-2] approximately 32 persons attended this meeting. The chairman of the meeting introduced Mark Lane as being the defense attorney hired by the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald. He stated that Lane felt that there were many holes in the preconceived guilt of Lee Harvey Oswald as the assassin of President Kennedy.

During the course of Lane's talk, Lane stated that in our democratic society a man is innocent until proven guilty. He said that the doubts and confusion in the aftermath of the assassination of President Kennedy has brought to mind the situation that was created by the Sacco-Vanzetti case, the case of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg and the continuing case of Morton Sobell, which took place during the McCarthy era.

He stated that a long time before Oswald was shot to death in the basement of the Dallas Courthouse, the Dallas officials had concluded that Oswald was without any doubt the assassin of President Kennedy and the killer of Police Officer Tippit. According to Lane, Dallas District Attorney Henry Wade had claimed that after the assassination of President Kennedy Oswald had utilized a taxicab driven by a man named Darryl Click. Lane claimed that a check of all of the taxicab drivers in Dallas failed to reveal anyone by the name of Darryl Click.

He pointed out that there were many flaws in the airtight case against Oswald by the FBI, Secret Service and Dallas Police. He mentioned, in particular, the type of weapon used to assassinate President Kennedy, the doctors' conclusions with regard to the entrance and exit wounds in the President's neck and head and the possibility that the shots could have been fired from the overhead ramp rather than the Texas Book Depository building.

Lane stated that there were many more flaws and that the Justice Department had already privately expressed disappointment with the FBI's report inasmuch as it had left too many questions unanswered.

Lane concluded his talk by stating that if Oswald is innocent, then the assassin of President Kennedy is still at large.

A characterization of Citizens for Peace and Disarmament is attached hereto.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960 issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960 a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA), was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of the YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 6, 1963 that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957 in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 6, 1963 that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the Young Socialist Alliance are located at 125 Fourth Avenue, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

CITIZENS FOR PEACE AND DISARMAMENT

During February, 1963, a source advised that in November, 1962, a group known as the Citizens for Peace and Disarmament was organized in Milwaukee, Wisconsin by John Gilman, the purpose of which group is to strive for peace and disarmament through the utilization of any method necessary to accomplish this goal, and is to be composed of high school and college students and young working people. John Gilman acts as directing and controlling force behind the organization, and James Buxton is the spokesman for the group. During May, 1963 this source advised that the organization continues to operate as stated.

During February, 1963 a second source advised that John Gilman and James Buxton were both members of the State Board of the Communist Party of Wisconsin.

On 2/24/64, Chief RALPH PHILLIPS, Los Gatos, California, Police Department, advised that SEWALL S. BROWN, Jr., age approximately 45 years, has been a resident of the community for many years, and noted that BROWN's father, deceased, was a prominent businessman who had accumulated considerable wealth. PHILLIPS advised that during past ten years, SEWALL BROWN, JR., has been a prolific letter writer and is a self-styled private investigator who has evidenced a "extensive patriotic attitude." PHILLIPS stated that BROWN has regularly submitted information to his Department concerning various situations.

On 2/24/64, BROWN was interviewed at his business address, 14424 Winchester Road, Los Gatos, California. He advised that his letter of 2/11/64, was prompted by his interest in cryptography and he advised that he has developed a theory concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD being a trained agent of the USSR based on his knowledge of cryptography in a study of the published alias of OSWALD, "A. HIDELL."

Since BROWN is in possession of no specific information, it was suggested that any material he might have in his possession would more properly be directed to the San Francisco Office for transmittal to Bureau in the event information was significant. BROWN was readily amenable to suggestion and stated that he is solely prompted by a patriotic desire to be of assistance to his country.

Reference is made to your memorandum of January 30, 1964, to Mr. A. H. Belmont in which it was stated the Special Agent in Charge (SAC) has only limited authority to make payments to security informants without Bureau authority in certain instances and we control this by limiting amount, and by end-of-month accounting procedure which lists all such payments, to whom made, and for what purpose. The Director noted: "Just what is language of this 'limited authority.' H."

Section 107 of the Manual of Instructions provides that the SAC may approve payments to security informants of amounts up to $200 and totaling not more than $200 on a C.O.D. basis in specific instances in which it is necessary and expedient to expend money to obtain information concerning matters or persons under investigation, which is not otherwise obtainable, or to advance expense money to enable an individual to obtain such information. This applies only to individuals who have never been paid on a regular basis for services or expenses on Bureau authorization. In other words, once an individual has been paid on Bureau authority regardless of the amount, this authority of the SAC may not be utilized. The blue slip submitted by the SAC to the Bureau claiming any payments authorized by the SAC must clearly and accurately explain the circumstances and summarize the information obtained. Prior Bureau authority must be obtained to make any additional payment to an individual who has received payments totaling $200.

When payments are made to anyone for information or assistance, either on the SAC's authority or on prior Bureau authority, receipts must be obtained in every instance in which it is possible to so obtain them. If a receipt cannot be obtained for a particular payment, complete circumstances concerning the payment must be set forth by the field office on a voucher at the time reimbursement is claimed at the end of the month. Receipts must clearly show: (1) the date on which the payment was made; (2) the period for

INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

On February 19, 1964, [WF T-1] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Marina Oswald, wife of the accused assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, and her party stayed at the Willard Hotel, Pennsylvania Avenue and 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., during the recent period when she testified before the Presidential Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy. By her party, [WF T-1] meant her child, a nurse, Secret Service Agents, a Mr. John Thorne, and a Mr. Jim Martin. [WF T-1] stated that Thorne was reported to him as her lawyer, while Martin described himself to [WF T-1] as her business manager.

[WF T-1] stated that the Abraham Lincoln Suite had been arranged for Mrs. Oswald through the United States Secret Service; that this suite consists of rooms 301-2 and room 345. He explained that the suite is entered from the hotel hallway into a small alcove or hallway; that off this alcove to the left is room 345 with two beds, and to the right 301 and 302, a combination bedroom and adjoining living room space. The two bedrooms face each other across the common alcove. Entrance to the suite, however, can only be gained through the common entrance from the hotel hallway. Occupants of the suite control access through this common entrance as well as to the individual rooms within the suite.

[WF T-1] advised that registration E4246 in the name of Tom Kelley, Secret Service, was arranged for Marina Oswald for rooms 301-2 of the suite. A date stamp disclosed she registered at 9:23 a.m. on February 2, 1964. A date stamp also revealed her departure from the hotel at 9:41 a.m. on February 9, 1964.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

WF T-1 advised that registration E4247 in the name of Tom Kelley, Secret Service, revealed that room 345 was assigned to unnamed Secret Service Agents; that a date stamp indicated registration at 9:23 a.m. on February 2, 1964. A date stamp on the reverse indicated that departure was at 12:55 p.m. on February 7, 1964.

WF T-1 advised that room 345 was occupied by two Secret Service Agents; that registrations E4236 and E4235 pertain to these two agents and actually are clarifications of registration E4247. WF T-1 advised that Registration Number E4236 in the name of William Carter, Little Rock, Arkansas, revealed he occupied room 345. The time of departure stamped on the reverse is 12:55 p.m., February 7, 1964. WF T-1 advised that Registration Number E4235 in the name of Bob Jamison, Miami, Florida, revealed he occupied room 345. The time of departure stamped on the reverse side is 12:55 p.m., February 7, 1964. No in stamp of registration appeared on E4235 and E4236, but WF T-1 said that the date stamp on registration E4247 of 9:23 a.m., February 2, 1964, applied to them; that they came in with Mrs. Oswald. WF T-1 said that registrations E4235 and E4236 bore a notation that they were associated with the Secret Service.

Thus, WF T-1 pointed out, these two Secret Service Agents checked out of room 345 on the morning of February 7, 1964. He said he had learned that the Secret Service exercised responsibility for Mrs. Oswald only during the period she testified before the Commission.

WF T-1 believed that a nurse stayed with Mrs. Oswald and her child during the period of her testimony; that because of the fact that there was no separate billing for this woman, he believed she was utilized by the Secret Service; that she departed the same time they did. WF T-1 said nurse occupied one of beds in same room as Mrs. Oswald, he believed. Mrs. Oswald's child slept in a crib moved into the suite.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

WF T-1 said that Mrs. Oswald's registration revealed that she did not check out according to a departure stamp thereon until 9:41 a.m. on February 9, 1964.

WF T-1 said that registration number E4310 in the name of Jim Martin, 11011 Farrar, Dallas, Texas, revealed a stamped arrival of 8:00 p.m., February 2, 1964. According to this record, Martin was originally assigned room 633. He subsequently moved to room 625. Then according to a room change or change of rate slip he moved from 625 to room 345 in the Abraham Lincoln Suite on February 7, 1964 at 5:18 p.m., as indicated by a date stamp on the slip. The time of departure stamped on the reverse of the registration form is 2:02 p.m. on February 9, 1964.

WF T-1 said that registration card E4311 for John M. Thorne, 302 W. College, Grand Prairie, Texas, revealed a date stamp showing he checked in at 8:01 p.m. on February 2, 1964. Thorne was originally assigned to room 632, moved to room 618, and then to room 345 of the Abraham Lincoln Suite. According to a room or rate change slip dated February 7, 1964, Thorne moved to 345 from 618 on that date. Although there is no time stamp on this slip, WF T-1 said the change was undoubtedly at the same time as Martin's since the same clerk's name appears on both slips. The time of departure stamped on the registration card reverse is 2:02 p.m., February 9, 1964. No further change of rooms was indicated for Marina Oswald, Martin or Thorne, WF T-1 said.

WF T-1 said that the Presidential Commission was billed for expenses of Mrs. Oswald until the departure of the Secret Service Agents on February 7, 1964. Her subsequent expenses of about $95.00 were billed to: Mr. Jim Martin, Box 1407, Prairie, Texas. Thorne's entire expenses were billed in the same manner.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

WF T-1 said he had gained the impression from the way Mrs. Oswald looked at her business manager, Martin, that she was "sweet" on him. He remarked to an unrecalled Secret Service Agent that Mrs. Oswald seemed to be engrossed with Martin, and the latter remarked, as if in agreement, that he felt sorry for Martin's absent wife. WF T-1 said the housekeeper who handled the suite in question said that Martin and Mrs. Oswald always seemed to be together whenever she was around the suite. WF T-1 said he had no further information in this respect. He did mention that Martin was quite attentive to her child while they were at the hotel, but thought part of this was for publicity effect.

WF T-1 said he had received no complaints whatsoever pertaining to Mrs. Oswald's stay at the hotel. He said that a complaint of any nature would have been brought immediately to his attention.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated February 18, 1964, requesting appropriate investigation to develop full circumstances surrounding the incident involving Marina Oswald and James Herbert Martin. Reference is also made to our letter dated February 19, 1964, concerning interviews of Marina Oswald on February 17 and 18, 1964.

There is enclosed a memorandum dated February 20, 1964, setting forth the results of our interrogation of Marina Oswald on February 19, 1964, concerning the Martin incident. There is also enclosed a copy of a February 19, 1964, memorandum setting forth the results of inquiries conducted at Washington, D. C., concerning the residence at the Willard Hotel of Marina Oswald, Martin and John M. Thorne. Copies of the enclosed memoranda are being furnished to the U. S. Secret Service.

Our interview of Marina Oswald is continuing and further details will be furnished to you as received. In this connection, Mr. William A. McKenzie, Mrs. Oswald's attorney, has requested that Mrs. Oswald not be reinterviewed until his return to Dallas, probably on Friday, February 21, 1964. Accordingly, we will attempt to continue our interrogation of Mrs. Oswald when Mr. McKenzie returns to Dallas.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

On February 19, 1964, while Robert L. Oswald was being interviewed concerning the sex incident at Washington, D. C., involving Marina Oswald, he advised as follows:

On January 13, 1964, James Herbert Martin, then Marina's business agent, told Robert Oswald that Marina had told Martin that when Richard Nixon visited Dallas, date not indicated, Marina found out that Lee Harvey Oswald intended to shoot Nixon. Marina locked Lee Harvey Oswald in the bathroom all day to prevent him from doing so. Marina also related the same story to Robert Oswald on January 13, 1964, during a trip to the cemetery to visit the grave of Lee Harvey Oswald.

Robert Oswald does not know where Lee Harvey Oswald and Marina were living at the time of the alleged intention to shoot Nixon and does not know the date this occurred but vaguely placed Nixon's visit to Dallas as the Summer or early Fall of 1963. Robert does not recall Marina stating, however, she knew Lee Harvey Oswald planned to shoot Nixon.

Maurice Carlson, President of the Reliance Life and Accident Insurance Company, Dallas Texas, advised that Richard Nixon was invited to Dallas in April, 1963, to the Southeast Dallas Chamber of Commerce to receive the Good American Award. At the last minute Richard Nixon was unable to attend. Carlson does not know if press coverage of this contemplated visit was given in Dallas newspapers.

Details of the above were set forth in a letter to Mr. Rankin of The President's Commission under date of February 20, 1964. A copy of this letter is attached.

There is also attached a copy of a letter, with its enclosure, to Mr. Rankin dated February 20, 1964, detailing the results of an interview of Marina Oswald concerning her personal relationship with her former business manager, James Martin.

Attached is a copy of a letter dated February 21, 1964, forwarding to the President's Commission a memorandum received from the Secret Service concerning their knowledge of the relationship between Mrs. Oswald and James Martin.

In connection with our efforts to pin down the allegations regarding the attempt to shoot former Vice President Nixon, the following is noted:

James Herbert Martin was advised of the story by Marina and first reported it to Robert Oswald on January 13, 1964. John M. Thorne, former attorney for Marina Oswald, has declined to be interviewed and has advised that he is also James Martin's attorney and in the presence of Bureau Agents he contacted Martin and advised Martin he should refuse to be interviewed by FBI Agents. Martin took this position.

Robert Oswald claims Marina related the story of the Nixon incident to him on January 13, 1964. Mr. William A. McKenzie, Mrs. Oswald's current attorney, has requested that she not be reinterviewed until he returns to Dallas. McKenzie has been in Washington, D. C., accompanying Robert Oswald during his interrogation before the President's Commission.

SAC Shanklin on February 22, 1964, advised that McKenzie is still in Washington, D. C. Shanklin has been instructed to begin the interview of Marina Oswald immediately upon the return of McKenzie to Dallas. SAC Shanklin has been furtherinstructed to call in the results of this interview. If McKenzie returns to Dallas on Sunday, February 23, 1964, the interview of Marina Oswald will immediately begin and the results will be called in.

In the meantime, it is believed that we should treat these allegations with some reservation. This is particularly true in that our investigation has shown that Lee Harvey Oswald was the dominant figure in the marriage and the fact that Marina would lock him in a bathroom for a full day does not seem in keeping with the personalities involved.

ACTION: This is submitted for the Director's information.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Reference is made to the attached incoming letter from the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) on the "Assassination of President John F. Kennedy" of 2/18/64 which deals with CIA's efforts to assist the President's Commission by checking out information related to Oswald's attempted suicide in Moscow on 10/21/59 as noted in Oswald's diary.

CIA notes that Marina Oswald in her 12/2/63 interview by Bureau Agents stated that she never knew Oswald to speak of or to attempt suicide, that she did not think him capable of suicide and that she did not believe he had ever attempted suicide. She stated she recalled seeing a scar on the inner left wrist of Oswald some time after they were married. According to Marina Oswald, this scar had healed and Oswald evaded answering any of her questions about it.

Reference CIA letter, paragraph 3 and 4 requests that we obtain information regarding the attempted suicide, independent of Marina Oswald's denial of knowledge of same in order to verify or refute the entry in Oswald's diary. CIA would like pertinent information from police, undertakers, the autopsy report and other available sources.

Attached airtel instructs Dallas to develop information from above sources for evidence of the alleged suicide attempt as well as to reinterview Marina Oswald for information additional to that she has already furnished us and to interview Robert Oswald, brother of Lee Harvey Oswald on this matter.

CIA letter, paragraph 5, requested "direct examination by a competent authority" for the scar or scars on Oswald's left wrist. Since this would involve the exhumation of Oswald's body, the President's Commission is being advised by attached letter that while we are collecting available information for CIA in accordance with paragraphs 3 and 4 of their letter, we are taking no action regarding the exhumation and examination of Oswald's body pending instructions from the President's Commission, especially since evidence obtainable would not appear to have a direct bearing on the substance of the inquiry into the assassination of the late President Kennedy.

On February 21, 1964, Father [redacted] St. Mary's Catholic Church, West Washington Street, Greenville, South Carolina, advised he had met FRED LINDSAY in the late summer of 1963 at a local hotel after he had been requested to come there by a Lutheran minister. He said he gave the Sacraments of the Church to LINDSAY and had further confidential conversation with LINDSAY of Priest - parishioner relationship. He said LINDSAY did not mention the late President KENNEDY, nor did he, Father [redacted] furnish any information to local law enforcement agencies as a result of his conversation with LINDSAY. He said he did not recall if LINDSAY was drinking at the time.

He said LINDSAY telephoned him on November 22, 1963, from Atlanta, Georgia, to discuss the assassination of President KENNEDY by mentioning to Father [redacted] that [redacted] would recall their earlier meeting where President KENNEDY was discussed. Father [redacted] said that he and LINDSAY had no earlier discussion about President KENNEDY.

Father [redacted] recently received a telephone call from an unknown Episcopalian minister, San Antonio, Texas, advising him that FRED LINDSAY was in his quarters. Father [redacted] explained to the clergyman his prior association with LINDSAY and that if LINDSAY felt he had information that was necessary to law enforcement personnel that he, LINDSAY, should make same available to them on his own volition and not on any urging by Father [redacted]

Father [redacted] advised that he was of the opinion that LINDSAY needs psychiatric observation, and further believes that LINDSAY has a tendency to dwell on past happenings by discussing them and lending an air of professional background to them by claiming to have knowledge of their reason for happening or real cause.

On February 24, 1964, Reverend [redacted] Pastor of the Lutheran Church of Good Shepherd, 1601 North Pleasantburg Drive, Greenville, South Carolina, advised he had met FRED DALTON LINDSAY in the summer of 1963 at the request of LINDSAY. LINDSAY telephoned him from the Earle Hotel and requested to see Reverend [redacted] since LINDSAY thought he was going to die. [redacted] went to the Earle Hotel and noted LINDSAY was drinking wine. LINDSAY displayed a gun on his bed. LINDSAY was not drunk but talked very freely. LINDSAY told Reverend [redacted] he was a karate expert and desired Sacraments of the Church. When it was determined he was of the Catholic faith, Reverend [redacted] refused and called Father [redacted] of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Reverend [redacted] said that at no time did LINDSAY discuss late President KENNEDY, but LINDSAY indicated he had some connection with the underworld. Since that time LINDSAY telephoned Reverend [redacted] from Atlanta, Georgia, to "pass the time of day." Reverend [redacted] was of the opinion LINDSAY needs psychiatric help and suffers from a fear and guilt complex.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY
11/22/63
DALLAS, TEXAS

PURPOSE:

To recommend the attached letter be sent to the President's Commission in answer to its inquiry concerning Mrs. Shirley Martin of Hominy, Oklahoma, with whom we have had prior unsatisfactory dealings.

DETAILS:

Mr. J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel, President's Commission, by letter dated 2/18/64 advised the Commission had received several communications from Mrs. Martin. In the communications she reportedly showed an interest in Mrs. Ruth Paine of Irving, Texas (Mrs. Oswald resided with Mrs. Paine from 9/24/63 to 11/22/63), and in one of her letters states she had just returned from a visit with Mrs. Paine. Mr. Rankin stated it would be helpful if we could furnish the Commission with any information in our files concerning Mrs. Martin and that in the absence of any such information he desired we interview her so that the Commission could evaluate her interest in the Paines.

BACKGROUND:

We have handled several communications from Mrs. Martin, the latest dated 2/10/64. Some of her letters were directed to the Department of Justice and referred to us, and others were addressed to the Director. One communication asked why we had shown Oswald's mother photographs of Ruby before her son was murdered. This letter was acknowledged and she was told no such photographs had been shown. She immediately wrote back and asked if any photographs had been shown. This communication was received at the same time we were handling a referral from the Department in which Mrs. Martin claimdd to have seen a photograph of an individual on a roof top with a rifle. Since she did not identify the photograph, she was interviewed for this purpose. The Oklahoma City Office also advised Mrs. Martin that all evidence developed by the FBI was being forwarded to the President's Commission and we were making none of the information public as this would be the responsibility of the Commission.

By airtel dated 1/31/64, Oklahoma City advised Mrs. Martin had been contacted on 1/10/64, by SA Jack H. Bales. The photograph was identified as one in the 12/14/63 issue of "The Saturday Evening Post." In view of the Commission's request, two copies of the photograph will be enclosed for Mr. Rankin. Further, we are making efforts to locate the original of the photograph through "The Saturday Evening Post" for the use of the Commission.

Oklahoma City advised during the contact Mrs. Martin took SA Bales' name and credential number and was extremely antagonistic. Her attitude was such that SA Bales believed her to be mentally disturbed. She claimed SA Bales had come to question her and when he had told her he had come in response to communications she had sent to the Department and the FBI, and not to question her, she interrupted and said "you asked me my name, didn't you?" During the course of the conversation she demanded to know Mr. Hoover's age, why he had never married and asked if Agents still had to have their hands "swabbed" before they shook hands with the Director. It was obvious to SA Bales that Mrs. Martin was deliberately attempting to provoke an argument. When told the information developed by the FBI would be furnished to the President's Commission, she interjected, "all," "all of it?"

Her most recent letter to the Director is dated 2/10/64 and she stated she was discouraged to read in the 12/8/63 issue of the "New York Times" that the Secret Service had suggested Marina Oswald would be safer and it would be easier for her if she returned to the Soviet Union rather than to try to live in the United States. She states since Mrs. Oswald has made it clear she does not want to return to the Soviet Union, this forces one to question whether or not her testimony before the Warren Commission was spontaneous. She asks, "What is the law regarding undue pressure?" This letter was not acknowledged, however because she mentioned the Secret Service, a copy of her communication was forwarded to the Secret Service.

Bureau files also indicate Mrs. Martin has written to other prominent individuals such as Senator Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla.), deceased, and has gone as far as to write to Premier Walter Ulbricht of East Germany indicating she had read about the death of a young East German Boy and desired to know their side of the story.

The Oswald's met Ruth Paine through Russian emigre groups as early as April, 1963. This association continued and on 9/24/63 Marina Oswald went to reside with Mrs. Paine who was separated from her husband at that time.

To date we have disseminated to the President's Commission 38 reports on Ruth Paine and her husband.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the attached letter be sent to Mr. Rankin, General Counsel of the President's Commission, outlining our prior experience with Mrs. Martin. In this letter we will point out that the Commission has already received reports relating to the Paines and that we will not interview Mrs. Martin in this matter unless specifically requested to do so by the Commission at this time.

2. Dallas being instructed to interview Mrs. Ruth Paine of Irving, Texas, concerning Mrs. Martin's contact with her and the results will be furnished to the President's Commission. It is pointed out we have interviewed Mrs. Paine on numerous occasions in the past and she has always displayed a cooperative attitude.

3. Will follow efforts of field to locate original of photograph appearing in "The Saturday Evening Post" and will furnish same to the President's Commission as soon as it is located.

Reurlets 1/29/64 and 2/14/64 and Laboratory reports 2/4/64 and 2/26/64 regarding the motion picture cameras of Orville Nix and Mrs. Marie Muchmore. You have advised that both of these individuals desire their cameras be returned after Laboratory examination is completed.

Examination of the cameras by the Laboratory has been completed; however, The President's Commission investigating the assassination is presently making a detailed study of the motion picture films of the assassination and the cameras used in making these films. This study has not been completed and the Commission is most anxious to retain these cameras until the study is completed. Attorneys for the Commission have expressed sincere appreciation for the co-operation thus far extended by Mr. Nix and Mrs. Muchmore and will be most appreciative if these cameras can be retained temporarily.

The above information is being furnished to you for your guidance in the event you receive an inquiry from either Mr. Nix or Mrs. Muchmore regarding the return of their camera, or you may wish to express to them the Commission's feelings so that they will have a better understanding of the need for retaining the cameras. For your confidential information, the Commission has advised they will subpoena the cameras if necessary. If you encounter any difficulty regarding the return of the cameras, you should advise the Bureau.

Synopsis: Information received that EULIS LEE ROBERSON of Selmer, Tenn. had left a notebook at the McNairy County Independent, a weekly newspaper, 2-17-64, in which he claimed that in April, 1963, he had picked up OSWALD and had driven him around and OSWALD had had a pistol and a Communist Party flag or sticker, and the two drove by General WALKER's home. The original source said that this seemed to him to be a step on the part of ROBERSON to seek publicity for himself, and that what was in the notebook could have been obtained from various newspapers. The source said that ROBERSON and his father, Reverend ROBERSON, are noted as big talkers. Brother of EULIS LEE ROBERSON on 2-19-64, said that EULIS LEE ROBERSON had suffered a breakdown while in the service and at one time was a mental patient in a government hospital in Illinois. He said that E. L. ROBERSON exaggerates and imagines things and while referring to the family said, "We don't pay any attention to what he says." ADAMS said this seemed to him to be a step on the part of ROBERSON to seek publicity for himself, and that what was in the notebook could have been obtained from various newspapers. Mr. ADAMS said that ROBERSON and his father, a Reverend ROBERSON, are noted as "big talkers." Tenn.

Mr. ADAMS also stated that ROBERSON had told Mr. WRIGHT that he had been interviewed by the FBI.

On February 18, 1964, Mr. ADAMS made available a copy of the comments appearing in the notebook of EULIS LEE ROBERSON, which copy had been obtained by him from Mr. WILBUR WRIGHT, the Publisher and Editor of the McNairy County Independent. He said he understood that corrections had been made by Mr. WRIGHT and it would appear to him that the contents of this notebook might have been written by someone whose mental stability could be questioned.

WILBUR WRIGHT, Editor and Publisher of the McNairy County Independent, a weekly newspaper of Selmer, Tennessee, advised as follows:

On or about Thursday, February 13, 1964, he received a phone call from a person who identified himself as EULIS LEE ROBERSON of RFD, Selmer, Tennessee. ROBERSON asked him, WRIGHT, whether he would be interested in ROBERSON's story. He questioned ROBERSON as to what he had reference to and was told by ROBERSON that he had had some contact and had knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. WRIGHT said he then told ROBERSON that he might be interested in the story but he would like to check it first.

WRIGHT said on Monday, February 17, 1964, while he was out to lunch, that EULIS LEE ROBERSON left his pocket notebook at the newspaper office. Mr. WRIGHT said he had read notes of ROBERSON and that he had copied them and that he had made some changes, correcting sentence structure and spelling and names and that he had made available a copy of his record of the notebook to Mr. ADAMS of Selmer, U. S. Commissioner. Mr. WRIGHT pointed out that apparently all of the information written in the notebook could have been obtained by hearing radio broadcasts or watching TV news bulletin or by reading various newspapers and magazines. He said he did not plan to publish anything concerning the matter.

EULIS LEE ROBERSON, Route 3, Selmer, Tennessee, advised as follows:

He is age thirty-six, having been born October 13, 1927 at Oxford, Mississippi. He has served in both the United States Air Force and the United States Marine Corps. He served in the U. S. Air Force under Serial No. 18222203 from June of 1946 until October of 1949, when he was honorably discharged. He served in the U. S. Marine Corps under Serial No. 1158191 from December, 1950 until October 30, 1953, when he was honorably discharged. His first wife, SADY INGLE, resides in the Rose Creek Community of McNairy County on the William Goodrum Farm. He has a daughter, SHELLY JUNE ROBERSON, age eight, who resides with her mother. He receives a disability pension from the Veterans Administration as he is rated 50% disabled. His pension amounts to approximately $100 a month.

While in the service he was confined because of his nerves in a hospital at Great Lakes, Illinois for about two weeks. He first said for about two weeks and then said for approximately thirty days. He then stated he had been confined to the hospital at the Carswell Air Force Base, Fort Worth, Texas, on two occasions in 1963, first in February of 1963, and again in March of 1963. He said he had been confined to St. Paul Hospital at Dallas in June of 1963, when he fell from a bridge.

ROBERSON said his present wife is RUTH W. ROBERSON and she resides with her mother, Mrs. MAUDE E. MICHALKIE. The two live at 3319 -9th Street, Dallas. He said he is presently separated from his wife, RUTH.

He said he has been going to the Dallas area for approximately two years. He said in early 1963, he worked for about three days for the Texas Bitulithie Plant at Dallas and then worked about three months for R. N. Adams Construction Company, Dallas.

ROBERSON said that he was in the Dallas area in 1963 until about August 3, 1963, when he went to Houston, Texas and remained there until November 10, 1963, when he went to Chicago. While at Chicago he lived with his mother, Mrs. BESSIE B. ROBERSON, 814 N. Fairfield, Chicago. He said he returned from her residence to Selmer, Tennessee approximately two weeks ago.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

He then made available his pocket notebook which he had secured from the McNairy County Independent on February 19, 1964, and stated that the comments contained in this notebook are true and correct.

He said he had written these comments on Friday night, February 14, 1964. ROBERSON said he was afraid to go to the FBI at Dallas and for that reason he had not advised that agency. He said he had gone to the newspaper at Selmer because Selmer was his hometown and he did not believe the people there knew of his experiences and he wanted to let his knowledge of OSWALD become known.

ROBERSON then stated that he had reported to the FBI in Chicago information concerning the matter and then said that was not true, that he had furnished the information to TIM McCOY of the Chicago Herald American. He said he had talked to someone in Chicago and he believed this person to be Senator CONNERS (phonetic) or Senator COMBS. He said to back his story were his original notes in a brief case in storage at Dallas behind the residence of 3319 Knight, Dallas. He said that OSWALD's gun, the one he had found, was stored there in a brief case.

The following are the comments set out in his pocket notebook:

"Sun Feb 3 1963.

"I was driving from Texarkana, Ark. and I picked Lee Harvey Oswell up and gave him a ride. He told me he was going to Dallas. It took me about Four hours to drive from Texarkana to Dallas when I was about four miles out of Mt Vernon I descovered he had a pistol on him. He had a stick with a Communist Flag on one end of the stick and the other end stuck in The barrel the had blanks in the pistol. If he had of shot it at me I guess I would have been branded. I looked off to the right there was a rail road and There was a train coming (illegible) me. Then I saw a car parked on my side of the road. There was a man standing in front of him. He had a gun in his hand. Pointing it at us. I told Lee Oswell to shoot over his head and scare The man and he did. I looked in my rear view mirrow and saw two state High way patrolman folling me and they stoped But I didn't. I believe if it hadn't been for The girl standing on the side of the road Lee Harvey Oswell would have shot me.

"While driving on to Dallas. He told me he had been in Louisiana handing out fair play pamphlets for Cuba. I didn't

"So I drove on and just as I passed Gen Walkers house I heard a gun shot and I saw Gen Walker sitting at a desk. I turned around and drove back by there and I saw a tall slim gorey headed man come out of some bushes across the st. from Gen Walkers house.

"Friday morning April 5. 1963. I was driving my wife to work to Colombos Piffa bakery where she was employed as a book keeper. After I droped her off on Haskell St. when driving back home I picked Lee Harvey Oswell up again. He told me he sure was worried about what he was going to do. And what he was going to tell his wife about where he was all night. And I ask him where he was and he said he couldn't tell me. And I turned around and drove back toward Haskell st. And on the West side of Centeral Express way he pointed north. And said down there. And thats all I can tell you If I ever told you they would kill me. I said they who. And I finally found out that Tippits had kept him at their house all night. He said Their wives was wallowing all over him all night I ask him why he didn't tell his wife that he had attempted to shoot Gen Walker. He said why tell her that and I said she is Russian isnt she. Oswell said yess. I said she should like it if you attempted to kill a General. He said he was going to tell her that.

"That is one thing I know Lee Oswell didn't do he was blamed for. I drove Oswell down town some place and let him out. Then I didnt see him again for some time, Until about the 15 of June 1963. I had Fell off of a bridge and got hurt. And was out of a job and read a want add where they needed carpenters at Irvin Texas. I got up and left home about 6.30 AM and went north on Industral Blvd. and turned west on highway 114 and drove about four or five miles and crossed a Long river bridge. I was driving slow and I heard some one shooting a gun and yelling I am shooting at the Presidents head.

"I crossed the bridge and come to a business district and stopped and ask the way to Irving. They told me to go the next black top road and turn to the left. and that would take me to Irvin. While driving across from highway 114 to Irving a pickup truck passed me and when I stoped at the next intersection Lee Oswell got out and ask if he could ride in to town with me, and I said sure. I didnt go and apply for the job because it had got two late for me to apply for it. And stopped and called my wife and told her I had picked up a boy that was in Russa for three years and wanted her to meet him.

"I drove back by the house and picked my wife up and we carried him by the Western Union. He said he was expecting some money, Ruth and I was talking about driving off and leaving him in the Western Union when he come out, and got in the car. Ruth my wife ask him what he thought of this country. He said he liked it and liked Texas But he would like to kill Cener Joh Connley. I ask him why He said because he had wrote him a letter and he had completely forgotten to answer it. I told him Mr. Connley was a fine man. And he didn't want to kill him.

"And if I was in his place if President Kennedy every come to Dallas I would leave town. Because if Presendent Kennedy wass killed he would be blamed for it. I had heard everybody cussing about some Government official from Washington ording The Post Office dept to put thirty collard People ahead of the white people with more cenerity than the collard people had. They claimed that the President should be killed. Before I got to the Book place where I let Oswell out I ask him if he was a Cumminist He said no, I am writing a book. And the only way I could have gone to Russa was to pretend to be a Cumminist, and he also told me that he was tryingto go to Cuba.

"I ask him why he didnt make some one fly him to Cuba. He said he was afraid he would get in truble if he did anything like that.

"After that I met The Federal Lady Judge that swore Lindon Johnson in as President and I told her about Oswell and ask her to have some one to watch him and the place he went and the People he met.

"I met Ruth ? and she invited me to come to her house one night. She said they was going to have several speaking Russian Laungages. I got her address and phone No and told her I would come and dressed to go and drove down town and desided not to go. And called her and told her I was afraid if I messed around with any Russians or Russa Laungage my name would be mud. In Dallas - Besides I was only interested in her. She excused me. I have told the F.B.I. Part of my story and told them about my notes being in storage in Dallas. where they could find them.

"I left Dallas in August and left them locked up. And moved to Houston, Texas, and stayed there until Nov. 10, 1963, and went to Chicago And I didn't see or hear of Lee Harvey

Oswell, Until I saw his picture on T.V. accusing him of Killing President Kennedy.

At this point, ROBERSON was advised that it was a violation of Section 1001, Title 18, USC, to make a false statement to a material fact. He was then told he did not have to make a statement, and any statement he made could be used in court against him and no promises could be made to him and he had the right to secure the services of an attorney.

ROBERSON was then asked as to whether he could not be mistaken in some of the comments contained in his notebook and he insisted that what he had said was true and correct, and that under no circumstances did he want to retract anything. The comments listed above from his notebook were read to him and he was questioned concerning each and he alleged what he had said was true.

ROBERSON said he had been arrested in Dallas by Police Officer TIPPIT on July 10, 1963, on a State Warrant issued at Selmer, Tennessee, charging him with taking his daughter from Tennessee to Texas without permission of the mother. He said when he was arrested, "they advised him if he knew Jack Ruby that possibly Ruby would let him have money to make bond."

ROBERSON was questioned as to who they were and he could only state that it was the police officers. He claimed he had seen JACK RUBY a time or two and that he was told that RUBY could take steps to see that he was released from jail. He said he was held a few days and then released.

ROBERSON was questioned as to how he could have seen General WALKER at his home sitting at a desk. He said in explaining this that the lights were on and the window was open and that he could see General WALKER. He was then questioned as to why he had not immediately reported this matter to authorities and he said he had written a letter to the FBI concerning his knowledge of General WALKER and the alleged attempted shooting of General WALKER, and that he had not mailed his letter to the FBI but that instead he had given it to some Internal Revenue Agent at Dallas, Texas and asked this Internal Revenue Agent to mail it to the FBI.

ROBERSON insisted that he did not actually know that OSWALD had fired at General WALKER.

ROBERSON was then questioned as to who could prove his comments in his notebook other than himself. He said said actually nobody could prove them and he doubted whether his wife would admit that she had gone to the Western Union Office with him as alleged in his notes.

ROBERSON then stated that he was glad the notebook contents were not being published in Selmer, even though what he said was true.

The following description was obtained by observation and inquiry:

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY
11/22/63
DALLAS, TEXAS

PURPOSE:

This is to recommend the attached letters be sent to the Attorney General and the President's Commission advising them of information developed by our Detroit Office concerning Mark Lane as well as furnishing appropriate background on Lane.

DETAILS:

Detroit by airtel 2/17/64 advised Mark Lane, New York attorney who is representing Lee Harvey Oswald's mother, spoke before a Detroit, Michigan, church group and stated he planned to get an appointment with the Attorney General so as to present his brief on the Oswald case.

BACKGROUND:

Lane is the oft-married former New York Assemblyman who has reportedly [redacted] Lane is also reported to be closely associated with communist dominated organizations and has been traveling throughout the country making speeches concerning the brief he prepared. He prepared a "defense" brief for Oswald which appeared in the 12/19/63 issue of the "National Guardian," described by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as a virtual official propaganda arm of the Soviet Union.

Lane, in his brief, analyzes and attempts to rebut public statements issued by Dallas District Attorney Henry Wade (former Agent) and offers "defense" arguments on the possibility of Oswald's innocence. Aside from endeavoring to discredit the FBI and other investigating agencies, Lane bases the brief primarily on erroneous, exaggerated or outright false news stories, and alleged interviews with "witnesses." The questions raised by Lane are not new to the Bureau and have been found to be without foundation and based on half-truths and distortions.

ACTION:

1. That the attached letter to the Attorney General be sent advising him of Lane's contemplated visit and furnish him with a copy of the brief and background on Lane.

2. That the attached letter to the President's Commission be sent advising the Commission of Lane's contemplated visit to the Attorney General and furnish them with copies of the brief. The Commission was previously furnished background on Lane.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Secret Service, Los Angeles, California, on 2-22-64 made available to our Los Angeles Office photostatic copies of letter dated 2-20-64 from Warden, Federal Correctional Institute (FCI), Lompoc, California, with enclosed letter by inmate Richard Edward Kendrick to President Johnson setting forth wild allegation concerning Kendrick's participation in plot to assassinate late President Kennedy with Oswald, Ruby and other alleged "Nazis." Warden described Kendrick as completely unstable, unprincipled, young man who cannot be relied upon.

Kendrick interviewed at FCI, Lompoc, California, by Bureau Agents 2-22-64 at which time he told confusing, conflicting story concerning past association with the Nazi Party of the U. S. and involvement in plan to assassinate late President Kennedy. Kendrick, aged 17, claimed father was officer in Marine Corps at Camp Pendleton, California, in 1956-1957 at which time he met Oswald who introduced him to Nazi and communist way of life. Kendrick claimed he is presently Colonel in Nazi Party of U. S. and there are 130 to 140 other members confined at FCI presently working on a moon and space exploration project getting materials from U. S. Government, Oak Ridge, Tennessee. He also alleged Nazi Party and Communist Party are working together to overthrow U. S. Government.

Kendrick stated about May, 1963, after release from previous custody, he was contacted by one Jose Pagua following which he met Pagua at Reno, Nevada. Kendrick reportedly was given $5,000 in cash to buy two rifles with 12 power scopes and to arrange suitable location in Washington, D. C., or Idaho for assassination of President Kennedy. Kendrick was later contacted by Pagua and told Harvey Oswald and Jack Rubinstein had been given assignment to assassinate President Kenned but if they backed out, Kendrick would be given $15,000 as initial payment to handle the job. Kendrick said he would kill the President or anyone else if the price was right. Kendrick indicated his purpose in reporting the above was because he feels Ruby should get the death penalty for killing an ex-Marine and that he would not have cared if he had killed anyone else.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

FCI records indicate Kendrick institutionalized almost continually since November, 1960, and probation report describes Kendrick as sociopathic personality, antisocial type and suffering from severely retarded emotional development. He never had success relating with an adult figure and there is confusion in his concept of who and what he is. He does not understand how to play a masculine role and his sexual relations are very confused. While confined in FCI, Kendrick on one occasion slashed his arm with a razor blade and on 1-24-64 was disciplined for attempting to stab another inmate.

Bureau files contain no information identifiable with Jose Pagua.

No further investigation appears warranted in this matter, however, Los Angeles should appropriately incorporate all pertinent information in form suitable for dissemination to Secret Service and the President's Commission.

Attached is a teletype instructing Los Angeles to immediately submit letterhead memorandum in accordance with the above.

NOTE:

Bon Henderson, Dallas attorney, received a letter through the mail postmarked 2-17-64, at Missoula, Montana, Henderson advised in connection with change of venue hearing in Dallas in the Jack Ruby case he recently testified as a defense witness stating he doubted a fair and impartial trial could be had for Ruby in Dallas County. In letter unknown subject states that it was the laws business to punish Oswald not Ruby and a million Americans will be waiting if he gets loose. Unknown subject also alleges that it looks like Ruby was afraid Oswald was going to tell something on him and theorizes Ruby was probably sending information to Russia. Unknown subject concludes that Ruby will get "his belly full of lead."

This letter does contain an implied threat against Ruby contingent upon the outcome of his murder trial. Dallas suggested Butte may desire to present to U. S. Attorney.

RECD-READING ROOM

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my letter dated February 19, 1964, which reported that Marina Oswald had expressed the belief that she took the photograph of Lee Harvey Oswald with the rifle and pistol using her husband's American camera. She described the camera as grayish in color, something like aluminum.

COMM-FBI

On February 24, 1964, Mr. Robert Lee Oswald, brother of Lee, furnished to a Special Agent of the Dallas Office of this Bureau a Duo-lens Imperial reflex camera which he stated was the property of Lee. This camera is aluminum colored, uses roll film, number 620, has a matching gray plastic carrying strap and is equipped for use with a flash attachment. Robert advised that he obtained this camera from the residence of Mrs. Ruth Paine, Irving, Texas, in December, 1963. At that time it did not contain film. He advised that this camera was purchased by Lee in about 1957 and Lee subsequently left it with Robert in about 1959 when Lee went to Russia. After Lee returned from Russia, he regained possession of this camera and, as far as Robert is aware, retained possession of it until his death. Robert stated that, although this camera is equipped for use with a flash attachment, he had no knowledge that Lee had such an attachment. REC-41 105-82555-2214

On February 25, 1964, this camera was displayed to Marina Oswald and she immediately identified it as the American camera which belonged to her husband and the one which she used to take the photograph of him with the rifle and the pistol.

On February 24, 1964, Robert also made available to a Special Agent of this Bureau an Eastman Baby Brownie box camera which is currently in an inoperable condition. According to Robert, this camera also belonged to Lee and Robert first saw it in about 1953 in New York City when Robert visited his mother at her home in New York City. Robert last saw this camera in about 1958 when Lee gave it to Robert's daughter Cathy. To the best of Robert's knowledge, Lee did not have this latter camera in his possession subsequent to 1953.

Both of the above-mentioned cameras will be retained by this Bureau along with the other items of evidence in this case.

J. Edgar Hoover

"LIFE" MAGAZINE 2-21-64

J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel of the President's Commission, by letter dated 2-21-64 to Mr. Hoover stated that Congressman Ford requested that the Commission ascertain the circumstances under which a photograph of Lee Harvey Oswald, shown with a rifle and a revolver, was released to the press. Mr. Rankin stated he believed this particular picture was made available to "Life" magazine and various newspapers by Mr. Thorne or Mr. Martin on behalf of Marina Oswald.

ACTION TAKEN:

I had Wick contact Mrs. Martha Bucknell, Office Manager of Life Inc. Bureau in Washington who is very friendly. Mrs. Bucknell told Wick today that "Life" magazine purchased the photograph of Lee Harvey Oswald shown with a rifle and a revolver (which appears on "Life" cover of 2-21-64) from Mrs. Marina Oswald through her, then, agent James Martin. Mrs. Bucknell said she understood the photograph came from a family scrapbook maintained by Marina Oswald. Mrs. Bucknell further said that her New York Headquarters cautioned her in connection with this matter by stating that "Life" is concerned by the publication of the photograph, carried on "Life" cover, by other publications and is contemplating suit against those papers which published it. However, "Life" desires that this development be kept confidential. It will, however, be proper to so inform the Commission but it is hoped, said Mrs. Bucknell, that the matter not be widely publicized at this time prior to the actual filing of the suits by "Life."

Mrs. Bucknell said she did not know how any of the other papers obtained a similar photograph. She said she thinks that perhaps the Detroit News reporter in Dallas at the time of the assassination obtained a copy but she is not certain. She stated it would seem likely that Associated Press, which distributed the photograph, obtained a copy from the Dallas Police Department or through its contractual relationship with the Detroit News distributed it to AP clients.

Jerry O'Leary, Jr., of the Washington Evening Star, who arrived in Dallas the night of 11-22-63, advises as follows: Deputy Sheriffs and Dallas Police Department detectives, he believes, arrived at the Payne home in Irving around 2:30 p.m. or 3:00 p.m., Friday, 11-22-63. O'Leary understands that the officers started searching, Mrs. Payne objected, whereupon they told her they would get a search warrant. O'Leary thinks these officers took photographs back to the police department or the Sheriff's Office which they obtained in the Payne residence from Marina Oswald. O'Leary says he believes the photograph carried by "Life" on its 2-21-64 issue was among those taken by the police. O'Leary says that either late the night of 11-22-63 or the morning of 11-23-63, he saw a copy of the photograph in the hands of a police officer.

O'Leary said further that he learned confidentially from George Hunt, who is Managing Editor of "Life" in New York, and a good friend of O'Leary's, that "Life" paid Marina Oswald (through James Martin her agent) $5,000 for the photo in question and others. O'Leary said he understood the Detroit News got the photo the san way, by purchase from Martin. At any rate, on 11-23-63, copies of this photograph were available in Dallas through the police. It is believed that the copy brought back to FBI Headquarters by Special Agent Vincent Drain was a copy obtained from the police.

Jerry ter Horst, Washington Bureau Manager of the Detroit News, today advised Wick that his paper, as well as others, obtained the photo utilized by "Life" on its 2-21-64 issue, from the Associated Press. He said the issue seems somewhat clouded because of the fact that so far as he knows, not a single publication printed the photo until "Life" magazine published it. He said he thought this had something to do with the fact that "Life" magazine claims the photo was purchased, and the other publications, including AP clients, were afraid to publish it before hand because they feared being sued.

RECOMMENDATION:

That this memorandum be referred to the General Investigative Division so that consideration may be given to having our Dallas Office contact the Dallas Police Department and the Sheriff's Office to determine who first obtained the photograph in question, whether copies were made therefrom, what happend to the copies. It may be necessary to interview Mrs. Marina Oswald and Martin to determine their role in this matter and thus clarify how various newspapers came to possess the photograph of Oswald holding the rifle and revolver.

WASHINGTON 25, D.C. 20535

February 20, 1964

LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

In letterhead memorandum dated February 19, 1964 at Washington, D.C. and captioned as above, there is set forth information obtained from [WF T-1] on February 19, 1964 concerning the stay of Marina Oswald at the Willard Hotel, Washington, D.C., during the period when she testified before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy. It will be recalled that a Mr. Jim Martin, described as her business manager, and a Mr. John M. Thorne, described as her lawyer, accompanied Marina during her stay at the hotel.

In addition to that information, [WF T-1] who has furnished reliable information in the past, also advised that Martin and Thorne, according to records, made the following long distance calls:

February 4, 1964

1. A ten minute call to Dallas, Texas, telephone number 327-1188, dialed directly.

2. A 15 minute call to Dallas, Texas, approximately between 11 p.m. and midnight, telephone number 327-0188.

February 6, 1964

1. A 19 minute person-to-person call to a Purdy in New York City, at approximately 3:20 p.m., telephone number 986-8700.

2. A five minute call to Dallas, Texas, at approximately 6:23 p.m., telephone number 327-0188.

2. An eleven minute call to Grand Prairie, Texas, subsequent to the previous call, telephone number AN 4-1889.

3. An eight minute call to Minneapolis, Minnesota, at approximately 11:11 p.m., telephone number 377-9176.

February 7, 1964

1. A seven minute call to Grand Prairie, Texas, telephone number AN 4-1889.

February 8, 1964

1. A four minute call to Grand Prairie, Texas, at approximately 11:09 a.m., telephone number 262-2608.

WF T-1 advised that he had no record of any long distance calls made by Mrs. Marina Oswald while at the hotel.

WF T-1 also said that Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, the mother of the accused assassin, also stayed at the Willard Hotel during her recent stay in Washington, D.C. According to registration number E5400, her entry was recorded as 6:27 p.m. on February 9, 1964, her departure recorded as 2:23 p.m. on February 17, 1964. Mrs. Marguerite Oswald appeared to have a number of well dressed Negro men visiting her room during her stay. WF T-1 said he did not know who they were or what they represented, but suggested they may have been associated with Negro civil rights groups. WF T-1 said her bill was paid by her New York lawyer whose name he could not recall.

Mrs. Oswald originally was assigned to room 731, then subsequently moved to room 512 at end of testifying period.

WF T-1 said that he mentioned to Marina Oswald and to Martin that Mrs. Marguerite Oswald was expected to arrive and stay at that hotel starting that day. He gathered from the unfavorable response that he received that Marina Oswald and her mother-in-law did not get along well and that Marina disliked Oswald's mother.

WF T-1 said Marguerite hardly gave the appearance of a bereaved person. She appeared to be in bright spirits and he had heard that she indicated she expected to get about $25,000 for rights to a contemplated book on her experiences.

WF T-1 also advised that registration E4284 in the name of Claude Davis, Charlotte, North Carolina, indicated that he was a Secret Service employee; that he originally occupied room 304, then room 735. WF T-1 said that no in time was recorded but that he felt Davis was with the Secret Service detachment with Marina Oswald when she arrived and was assigned a room nearby her suite on the same floor at first. He felt subsequent assignment to room 735 was in relation to the protection of Mrs. Marguerite Oswald. The departure time on the reverse was stamped as 7:53 a.m., February 9, 1964.

WF T-1 further said that registration E4283 in the name of Carl Hardy, Seattle, Washington, indicated that he was a Secret Service employee; that he occupied 304 originally, then moved to room 732. Again no in time was indicated for Hardy. WF T-1 said he believed Hardy was part of the Secret Service detachment guarding Marina Oswald when she arrived and was assigned a room nearby her suite on the same floor at the outset. He felt the subsequent room assignment may have been in connection with protection of Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, since room 732 was nearby hers. The stamped date of departure on the reverse of the registration form was 9:27 a.m. on February 13, 1964.

WF T-1 said that registration E4282 was in the name of Allen Dickerson, Louisville, Kentucky. WF T-1 said he believed Dickerson was a Secret Service employee; that he occupied room 643. WF T-1 believed Dickerson was assigned to the protection of the mother. Stamped departure time for Dickerson was 2:30 p.m., February 13, 1964.

On 2-25-64 Mr. J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission advised Inspector Malley that he would like to have the Bureau make arrangements to have any talks or meetings at which Mark Lane appears recorded by any means. Mr. Rankin indicated that he was interested in having the whole meeting recorded as distinguished from Lane's participation. The purpose is that the Commission wants a record so that they can check it and make a determination as to whether they will answer Lane's comments or charges.

Mark Lane has been publicly announced as having been retained by Marguerite Oswald as attorney for her son, Lee Harvey Oswald. He is an unsavory character and is on the Bureau's Reserve Index. He has been making public appearances sponsored by various left-wing organizations. On 2-26-64 Inspector Malley received a request from Howard Willens of the President's Commission for coverage of appearances by Marguerite Oswald. Mr. Willens noted that on the night of the 24th (or 25rd) of February, Marguerite Oswald appeared on a two-hour radio program over radio station KYW, Cleveland, Ohio. The program was called "Contact" and Marguerite Oswald answered questions. Mr. Willens requested that the Bureau check with the radio station to secure a recording of the program if such is available. Willens also noted that allegedly Marguerite Oswald is to appear on a radio program in Boston either on the night of 2-26 or the night of 3-2-64. Willens requested that the Bureau endeavor to arrange to get a recording of this appearance and he asked that the Bureau establish coverage of the future appearances of Marguerite Oswald.

OBSERVATIONS:

It will be noted that the requests of the Commission are extremely broad and if literally interpreted, could pose a serious investigative burden on us which would also be of great potential embarrassment. We do not maintain a physical surveillance on either Mark Lane or Marguerite Oswald. We have no assurance that either or both would not appear at a closed Communist Party (CP) meeting. The only way that we could assure that we covered any appearances at any meetings by these people would be to place them under close physical surveillance and it might be anticipated that they would soon discover this and raise resultant protest.

At the same time, the Commission's request for a recording raises the question as to the desirability of having Agents in attendance at meetings with recording devices on their persons. These meetings could be held in public halls where the management would be sympathetic to communist causes and thus the reliability and cooperation of such individuals would be extremely doubtful.

ACTION:

In view of the above, it is believed that we should limit our coverage to publicly announced meetings and appearances where Lane and/or Marguerite Oswald are to participate. We should limit our coverage to obtaining recordings of these public appearances through contacts and sources and the field should be advised that in any instance where it will be necessary for Bureau personnel to attend a meeting with a recording device, specific Bureau approval will be necessary.

If you approve, there is attached a letter to the Commission defining the coverage that we will attempt to perfect for the future public appearances of Lane and Marguerite Oswald. We are also advising the Commission that as to past public appearances, we will endeavor to obtain a recording or transcript if such are available through contact with reliable individuals only. Our New York Office had previously furnished a letterhead memorandum and a transcript of the meeting which was held at Town Hall, New York City, on the evening of 2-18-64 and these are being furnished to the Commission as enclosures to this letter in addition to a letterhead memorandum from the Milwaukee Office re a meeting before students at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, 2-16-64. Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to our letter of February 20, 1964, setting forth results of our interview with Mr. Robert L. Oswald, brother of Lee Harvey Oswald, on February 18-19, 1964. Your particular attention is directed to page five of our letter reporting information from Robert Oswald to the effect that Lee Harvey Oswald had intended to shoot Mr. Richard Nixon.

For your information, we reinterviewed Mr. Robert Oswald, regarding the Richard Nixon incident, February 24, 1964. Robert Oswald stated the information that Lee Harvey Oswald planned to shoot Mr. Nixon was first relayed to him by James Herbert Martin approximately 2:00 P.M., Sunday, January 12, 1964. He added that he has determined now that his entry in his diary showing the date he received such information from Martin as January 13, 1964, is incorrect.

According to Robert Oswald, Martin told him that Marina had told Martin that Lee Harvey Oswald was going to shoot Nixon one day and when Lee Harvey Oswald went to the bathroom, she locked the door and kept him there all day. Martin furnished no additional details regarding such incident to Robert Oswald and the date of the incident was not mentioned.

On the same day, January 12, 1964, approximately 3:00 P.M., Marina Oswald told Robert Oswald, while they were on route to the cemetery to visit the grave of Lee Harvey Oswald, that Lee was on his way to kill Nixon one day and that he went in the bathroom, at which time Marina locked the door and kept him there all day. Robert Oswald stated he told Marina that James Martin had already told him about the incident and he asked Marina if Lee was very mad. Marina replied that at first Lee was mad but when she let him out of the bathroom, he had calmed down. Robert indicated he asked if Lee had beaten Marina and Marina replied, "No, he didn't spank me." Robert Oswald further advised that he does not know where Marina and Lee were living, does not know how she prevented Lee Harvey Oswald from breaking out of the bathroom and does not know what date this incident occurred. He indicated that at the time he learned this information, he recalled having read in the papers about Nixon being in Dallas and believes he read such article sometime during the fall of 1963.

In conclusion, Robert Oswald stated he had not furnished this information to the FBI or any other Governmental agency until February 19, 1964, when he furnished the information to Special Agents of our Dallas office.

The above is furnished for the information of the Commission. Results of our interview with Marina Oswald concerning the Richard Nixon incident were furnished to the Commission in our letter of February 26, 1964.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

ReBulet to San Antonio dated 2/3/64 and report of SA JAMES E. GARRIS dated 1/27/64 at Oklahoma City.

Referenced letter instructs San Antonio to incorporate certain information appearing in a previous San Antonio communication in an LHM suitable for dissemination. Also, Bureau instructed San Antonio to include background supplied in that particular manner from Oklahoma City in the LHM.

In view of the contents of referenced report, it would appear that an LHM from San Antonio would be unnecessary inasmuch as referenced report set forth the context of the anonymous letter received by San Antonio and background investigation which was set forth by Oklahoma City.

Therefore, no LHM is being submitted, and Secret Service, San Antonio, will not be advised UACB.

NOTE: Diaz Verson in previous interview said that he was told by Dr. Borrell, a writer for Mexican newspaper "Excelsior," that when Oswald was in Mexico in late 9-63 he met at restaurant in Mexico City with Silvia Duran and a functionary of the Cuban Embassy. This allegation was embellished by others and was reported to the White House by a Cuban exile psychologist. Borrell has denied furnishing any such info to Verson. Commission, which is aware of all of this, asked that we polygraph Verson who seems to be the author. Incoming says that Verson now denies attributing such allegation to Borrell.

FBI Laboratory has noted on the FD-192 Forms attached to this yellow item numbers of evidence maintained by FBI Laboratory. Similar notations have been made on FD-192 Forms being returned to Dallas to assist Dallas in correlating this data.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation

Washington, D. C. 20530

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am glad that we had the opportunity to discuss personally on January 28, 1964, the allegations to the effect that Lee Harvey Oswald was an informant of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Since our meeting, the Commission has received many helpful materials from your office concerning these allegations. I wish to acknowledge receipt of your letters dated February 6 and 12, 1964, enclosing your own affidavit as well as various affidavits submitted by agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation who interviewed Lee Harvey Oswald or had responsibility for the supervision of Bureau informants in the areas where Oswald lived. I know that the Commission will consider these submissions, supplemented by your recent interviews of District Attorney Wade and Houston "Post" reporter Hudkins, as important contributions to the Commission's work.

In light of our continuing review of these allegations, I would like to bring to your attention one related matter. Your letter of January 27, 1964, advised the Commission that Special Agent James P. Hosty's name, office telephone number and automobile license number, one digit off, appeared in Oswald's address book. In so informing the Commission, your letter supplied information which appears to have been omitted from an earlier report of the FBI submitted to this Commission.

Specifically, the report of Special Agent Gemberling dated December 23, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, beginning at page 672 purports to set forth the names, addresses and/or phone numbers contained in Oswald's address book. At page 696 of this report, certain entries are set forth with an indication that they appear on page 74 of the address book. Examination of the address book reveals that certain information has been omitted at this point in your report, including Special Agent Hosty's name, a telephone number, o license number, the date "Nov 1, 1963," and an address, "1114 Commerce St Dallas."

The Commission would like to be informed of the circumstances surrounding this omission. More particularly, it would assist the Commission in appraising the significance of this matter if we knew the names of the agents, including supervisors, who prepared this portion of the report or made any decision to omit information from the report. Needless to say, we would like a full explanation.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of February 20, 1964, wherein you requested to be advised of the circumstances surrounding the omission of Special Agent James P. Hosty's name and related data as appearing in Lee Harvey Oswald's address book in our report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated December 23, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, in the Oswald case. You indicated it would assist the Commission in appraising the significance of this matter if it knew the names of the agents, including supervisors, who prepared this portion of the report or made any decision to omit information from the report.

You indicated also that you would like a full explanation.

For your information, I have determined that Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling made the decision as to what information should be included in his report of December 23, 1963. I also determined that Special Agent John T. Kesler had responsibility for reviewing photographic copies of the pages of Lee Harvey Oswald's address book to determine which items needed investigative attention. Such items were set forth as investigative leads to be covered and it was such lead material that was incorporated in Special Agent Gemberling's report of December 23, 1963.

I am enclosing herewith affidavits executed by Special Agents Robert P. Gemberling and John T. Kesler wherein each sets forth his explanation regarding his handling of Lee Harvey Oswald's address book.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

I want you to know that I feel our reporting procedures in this matter are completely logical and sound. This Bureau never purported that Special Agent Gemberling's report of December 23, 1963, contained the complete listing of Lee Harvey Oswald's address book and, as you know, additional items in Oswald's address book not previously reported were furnished to the Commission in the report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated February 11, 1964, at Dallas, Texas.

This Bureau from the beginning of this investigation has developed and reported all available and relevant facts and it will continue to do so.

I trust that this letter and the enclosures thereto will satisfy the requirements of the Commission.

Sincerely yours,

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

San Antonio, Texas

November 28, 1963

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY, November 22, 1963, Dallas, Texas

The Laredo Times, a daily newspaper, Laredo, Texas, in their November 27, 1963, edition, carried an article reflecting that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had purchased approximately $32.00 worth of clothing at the Joe Brand Clothing Store, Laredo, Texas, and that the purchase was verified by Federal Investigators through a receipt found among OSWALD's possessions.

On November 27, 1963, LLOYD HACKLER, Managing Editor, Laredo Times, advised that the above-described article appearing in the Laredo Times of November 27, 1963, was written by Times reporter JAMES PARRISH.

On November 27, 1963, Times reporter JAMES PARRISH advised that the information appearing in the above-described article was received by him from JOSE DE ANDA, a salesman at Joe Brand Clothing Store.

On November 27, 1963, JOSE DE ANDA, Salesman, Joe Brand Clothing Store, advised that a person using the name of VINCENT CHRISTI came into Joe Brand Clothing Store on November 26, 1963, and made a purchase of approximately $6.00 and gave a check for $20.00 drawn on the Union National Bank, Laredo, Texas. The person using the name of CHRISTI was given the difference between his purchase of approximately $6.00 and $20.00, in change. CHRISTI stated to DE ANDA that he was an investigator with the military assigned to the Laredo Air Force Base.

CHRISTI then told DE ANDA that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had purchased approximately $40.00 worth of clothing at Joe Brand Clothing Store and that he, CHRISTI, was checking on the matter. DE ANDA then checked through the old sales receipts, and CHRISTI quickly pointed to one in the amount of $39.89, and said this was the ticket.

DE ANDA stated that there was no name on the ticket and that CHRISTI had no additional information concerning the purchase and did not produce any sales receipt, sales number, or any name, but merely pointed to the sales receipt in the amount of $39.89 as DE ANDA thumbed through the receipts and stated that it was the purchase made by OSWALD.

DE ANDA stated that the receipt that CHRISTI had pointed to, and claimed was the receipt for a purchase made by OSWALD, was a receipt for a purchase made on September 21, 1963, by a person who purchased a jacket for $19.98, some shirts, two $2.50 ties, and paid for the purchases with a 500 peso (Mexican) bill.

JOE BRAND, owner of clothing store, and SEYMON DEUTSCH, Manager, advised on November 27, 1963, that no employee of the store recalls OSWALD ever making any purchase at Joe Brand's.

On November 27, 1963, Captain LEONARD MIDDLEMAN, Provost Marshal, Laredo Air Force Base, advised that no one is stationed at that base by the name of VINCENT CHRISTI or any variation of that name.

SEYMOND DEUTSCH advised on November 27, 1963, that he had telephonically contacted the Union National Bank and they could locate no record of any account in that bank for VINCENT W. CHRISTI.

The Dallas FBI Office advised that files of that office do not reflect any receipt for clothing from Joe Brand Clothing Store, Laredo, Texas, was found among personal effects of OSWALD at Dallas.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Reporting of your investigation in this matter must be meticulously accurate to warrant dissemination of same to President's Commission.

In the future, in this case only, when preparing letterheads for dissemination, do not include therein the usual property statement.

Insure that your investigation of this hoax includes inquiry of all employees of the Joe Brand Clothing Store concerning possibility of Oswald ever having made purchase there.

NOTE: This deals with a hoax perpetrated by a check passer at the Joe Brand Store. The check passer claimed to be an Air Force investigator. He said he was checking on a purchase made at the store by Oswald. He located a sales slip which he claimed related to the purchase by Oswald. Thereafter, he gave the store a check for $20, made a small purchase and departed. SA was instructed to thoroughly run this out.

AFFIDAVIT

I, ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, being duly sworn, depose as follows:

In the performance of my duties as a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, U. S. Department of Justice, I have been acting as a coordinator in connection with the investigation into the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, at Dallas, Texas.

In connection with this assignment the following information is set forth with respect to my instructions and the subsequent handling of the contents of the address book of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On approximately December 14, 1963, I instructed Special Agent JOHN T. KESLER of the Houston FBI Office, who was on special assignment at Dallas, to review photographs of the pages of OSWALD's address book for leads. He was instructed to extract all names and telephone numbers, the identities of which were unknown, together with any other lead information, and to prepare a memorandum for use in setting out such leads.

In connection with this review of the contents of OSWALD's address book, Special Agent JOHN T. KESLER prepared a thirty-page memorandum on multilith, the first page of which was on office memorandum form. The information appearing in this address book:

"Nov. 1 1963
FBI Agent (RI 11211)
JAMES P. HOSTY
MU 8605
1114 Commerce St.
Dallas"

was not included in this thirty-page memorandum inasmuch as the identity of Special Agent HOSTY was known to both Special Agent KESLER and myself and was not lead information.

In connection with the preparation of my report dated December 23, 1963, it was my decision to have page one of Special Agent KESLER's memorandum retyped on plain multilith in order that the retyped page one and the subsequent 29 pages of his memorandum could be used as an insert in my report. This was done solely to avoid necessity for retyping the contents of the entire memorandum for a report. It was recognized that as a result of setting out of leads based on Special Agent KESLER's memorandum that results of investigation pertaining to such leads would be forthcoming and it was considered feasible to have the contents of the address book on which leads were based included in a report in order that when the subsequent results of the leads were reported, such basis would have been previously set forth in a report. No other Agent or supervisory personnel was involved in this decision.

In this connection it should be noted that pages 672 through 701 of my report of December 23, 1963, contain the contents of Special Agent KESLER's memorandum and that pages 673 through 701 bear the typewritten page numbers of Special Agent KESLER's original memorandum.

I had no discussion with Special Agent KESLER concerning the inclusion or exclusion of the data pertaining to Special Agent HOSTY in OSWALD's address book, but Special Agent KESLER was merely following my instructions to extract information which was lead material.

It is pointed out that a report of Special Agent WARREN C. DE BRUEYS at Dallas, Texas, dated December 2, 1963, reflects that Special Agent HOSTY interviewed Mrs. RUTH PAINE at Irving, Texas, on November 1, 1963, and November 5, 1963. Also, the report of Special Agent WARREN C. DE BRUEYS dated December 8, 1963, on page 389 there is set forth the contents of a letter from OSWALD to the Russian Embassy in Washington, D. C., dated November 9, 1963, in which letter

OSWALD made reference to Special Agent HOSTY as "Agent JAMES P. HASTY" and his visit of November 1, 1963.

The additional contents of OSWALD's address book which had not previously been reported were included in my report of February 11, 1964, on pages 279 to 283, and it should be noted that none of the information appearing on these pages was lead information.

At no time during the course of the preparation of my reports and the coordinating of the investigation in this matter did I intentionally exclude any material from any report. As explained above, the fact that Special Agent HOSTY had conducted investigation at the PAINE residence on November 1 had been previously reported, his name, office telephone number and license number of his vehicle were not lead information, newspapers and other news media had given much publicity to the fact that Special Agent HOSTY's name and office telephone number were in OSWALD's address book, and the fact that it was not included in my report of December 23, 1963, was solely because it was not lead material and had not been included in the memorandum prepared by Special Agent JOHN T. KESLER for that reason.

On 2-24-64 I telephonically contacted ASAC Kyle Clark in the Dallas Office referring him to the Dallas teletype 2-20-64 which detailed information concerning among other things a contact with John M. Thorne and it stated that James H. Martin had declined to be interviewed on the advice of his attorney.

ASAC Clark was requested to explain in greater detail the circumstances of Martin's declination.

ASAC Clark stated that during the interview of John Thorne while the agents were in Thorne's office he, Thorne, called Martin and advised Martin that if the agents asked to interview him he, Martin, should furnish no information concerning his dealings or activities with respect to Marina Oswald. At the same time, Thorne called our agent to the telephone and Martin repeated to the agent that he was acting on advice of his attorney and did not consent to an interview with the agents.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned, a Notary Public in and for said County, State of Texas, on this day personally appeared John Thomas Kesler, to me well known, and who, after being by me duly sworn, deposes and says that:

In the performance of my duties as a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, U. S. Department of Justice, I was assigned on special assignment to the Dallas office in connection with the investigation of the assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy on November 22, 1963, at Dallas, Texas.

In connection with this assignment on approximately December 14, 1963, I was instructed by Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling, who was coordinating the investigation, to review photographs of the pages of Lee Harvey Oswald's address book for leads. In connection with this review I prepared a thirty page memorandum on multilith, the first page of which was on office memorandum form. I thereafter used this memorandum for purposes of setting out leads to identify individuals and telephone numbers which were previously unknown in the investigation. In the preparation of this memorandum I did not include data from the address book which was not lead material. I did not include the information appearing in this address book with respect to Special Agent Hosty's name, office telephone number and automobile license number because the identity of Special Agent Hosty was known to me and this was not lead material. I had no discussion with Special Agent Gemberling or anyone else with respect to the exclusion or inclusion of Special Agent Hosty's name in my memorandum.

At the time I prepared the memorandum I did not know that same would be included in a subsequent report.

On 2-26-64 inquiry at office of Attorney FLOYD, Alice, Texas, disclosed FLOYD was then confined to Methodist Hospital, Houston, Texas, as a terminal cancer patient, exact condition not known.

On evening of 2-26-64 Mrs. ALICE NYE, Registered Nurse, Methodist Hospital, Houston, Texas, advised she had been attending Mr. FLOYD for several weeks but he had become decidedly weaker on afternoon of 2-26-64 and was expected to live only a few hours. Mrs. NYE seemed familiar with FLOYD's business associates and indicated that Attorney C. W. PERKINS, FLOYD's senior associate, was undoubtedly familiar with all matters previously handled by FLOYD. Mrs. NYE agreed not to disclose to FLOYD's family that inquiry had been made about him.

The Houston Post dated 2-27-64 reported that JACOB S. FLOYD died on the evening of 2-26-64.

It is expected that Mr. FLOYD will be buried on either 2-28 or 2-29-64, that his law office will be closed over the week-end and that his law partners will undoubtedly be occupied in connection with his funeral. Any inquiry at FLOYD's law office during this period would appear to be inappropriate.

Inasmuch as Attorney C. W. PERKINS and other close associates of FLOYD would very probably be familiar in the matter involving FLOYD's previous association with YLARIO V. ROJAS, Houston recommends that PERKINS be appropriately interviewed on 3-2-64 or 3-3-64 for information of value to the OSWALD investigation. UACB, such interview will be conducted on one of those dates.

THE INFORMATION FROM SUBJECT-S ADDRESS BOOK APPEARING ON PAGES SIX SEVENTY-TWO THROUGH SEVEN HUNDRED ONE OF THE REPORT OF SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING DATED DECEMBER TWENTY-THREE, NINETEEN SIXTY THREE, WAS INFORMATION THAT SA JOHN T. KESLER HAD PREPARED IN MEMORANDUM FORM FROM SUBJECT-S ADDRESS BOOK TO BE USED IN SETTING OUT LEADS TO IDENTIFY INDIVIDUALS, TELEPHONE NUMBERS, ETC., WHICH WERE UNKNOWN AT THE TIME. MEMORANDUM, PAGES TWO THROUGH THIRTY, WERE USED TOGETHER WITH THE RETYPED PAGE ONE AS AN INSERT IN THIS REPORT. IT WILL BE NOTED THAT IN ADDITION TO THE PAGE NUMBERS OF THE REPORT, THERE IS ALSO A TYPEWRITTEN PAGE NUMBER CORRESPONDING TO THE PAGE NUMBER OF THE ORIGINAL MEMORANDUM PREPARED BY SA KESLER FOR EACH PAGE EXCEPT THE RETYPED PAGE ONE, WHICH WAS NECESSARILY RETYPED BECAUSE IT WAS ON OFFICE MEMORANDUM FORM.

NO DISCUSSION WAS HAD BY SA GEMBERLING AND SA KESLER CONCERNING PURPOSELY LEAVING OUT SA HOSTY'S NAME OR ANY OTHER MATERIAL CONTAINED IN THIS ADDRESS BOOK, BUT EVERY EFFORT WAS BEING MADE TO EXTRACT LEAD MATERIAL TO IDENTIFY ITEMS IN THIS ADDRESS BOOK WHICH WERE UNKNOWN AT THE TIME.

IT IS POINTED OUT THAT THE REPORT OF SA WARREN C. DE BRUEYS DATED DECEMBER TWO, NINETEEN SIXTY-THREE, ON PAGE ONE THIRTY-EIGHT REFLECTS SA HOSTY'S CONTACT WITH MRS. RUTH PAINE ON NOVEMBER ONE, NINETEEN SIXTY-THREE AND ON NOVEMBER FIVE, NINETEEN SIXTY-THREE.

ALSO, IT IS POINTED OUT THAT ON PAGE THREE EIGHTY-NINE OF THE REPORT OF SA WARREN C. DE BRUEYS DATED DECEMBER EIGHT, NINETEEN SIXTY-THREE, THERE IS MENTION MADE OF SA HOSTY IN A LETTER BY OSWALD TO THE RUSSIAN EMBASSY AT WASHINGTON, D. C., DATED NOVEMBER

THE ADDITIONAL DATE CONTAINED IN SUBJECT-S ADDRESS BOOK WHICH HAD NOT PREVIOUSLY BEEN REPORTED IN A REPORT WAS INCLUDED IN THE REPORT OF SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING DATED FEB. ELEVEN, NINETEEN SIXTYFOUR, PAGES TWO SEVENTY-NINE THROUGH TWO EIGHTYTHREE, AND ON PAGE TWO EIGHTYTWO THERE IS SET FORTH THE INFO. PERTAINING TO SA HOSTY-S OFFICE TELEPHONE NUMBER AND HIS CAR LICENSE NUMBER.

SA GEMBERLING MADE THE DECISION TO INCLUDE THE MEMORANDUM OF SA KESLER IN HIS REPORT OF DECEMBER TWENTY-THREE, NINETEEN SIXTY-THREE, SOLELY TO AVOID RETYPING OF SAME AND AT THE SAME TIME BELIEVED THAT BY SETTING FORTH THE CONTENTS OF THIS MEMORANDUM THE COVERING OF SUBSEQUENT LEADS BASED ON IT WOULD HAVE RESULTED IN SOME CONTINUITY IN EXPLAINING WHY A PARTICULAR LEAD WAS COVERED. AT NO TIME WAS THERE A DELAY ON PURPOSE IN THE SUBMISSION OF THE ADDITIONAL DATA FROM SUBJECT-S ADDRESS BOOK AS IT WAS WELL KNOWN THROUGH PUBLICITY AS WELL AS THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THE REPORTS OF SA DE BRUEYS DATED DECEMBER TWO AND EIGHT, NINETEEN SIXTYTHREE, THAT SA HOSTY HAD INTERVIEWED MRS. 2-24-64

J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission by letter 2-20-64 noted Bureau letter 1-27-64 advised that SA James P. Hosty's name, office telephone number and automobile license number appeared in Oswald's address book and that this specific information was omitted from the report of SA Gemberling 12-23-63 at Dallas. Rankin asked to be informed of circumstances surrounding omission and requested a "full explanation." Attached Dallas teletype sets forth the explanation of the Dallas Office noting that the information in the address book originally set forth for lead purposes to identify individuals therein and, therefore, Hosty's name not included. Dallas further notes that SA Hosty's contact with Ruth Paine and his identity set forth in Dallas reports dated 12-2-63 and 12-8-63. In addition, Dallas report of SA Gemberling dated 2-11-64 sets forth the information pertaining to SA Hosty's office phone number and car license number. ALBERT GUY BOGARD was interviewed with the use of the polygraph, on February 24, 1964, at the office of the FBI in Dallas, Texas, by SA C. RAY HALL, with SA ARTHUR E. CARTER present during the interview.

BOGARD is a white male, born December 30, 1924, at Coushatta, Louisiana, who advised he completed high school and served in the U. S. Navy from April 24, 1944, to November 22, 1947. He lives at 304 Brighton Avenue, Dallas, Texas.

During the interview BOGARD was asked questions relating to his report that a man who gave his name as LEE OSWALD came to the Downtown Lincoln-Mercury showroom at Dallas, Texas, on November 9, 1963, looked at cars there, and drove one of the automobiles during a demonstration ride. BOGARD was also asked questions regarding his identification of the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as being identical with the person who appeared at Downtown Lincoln-Mercury on November 9, 1963, as he reported.

No significant emotional responses were recorded by the polygraph, when BOGARD was asked relevant questions concerning his report. The responses recorded were those normally expected of a person telling the truth.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

It was, therefore, concluded that after BOGARD viewed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, BOGARD believed that this was a photograph of a person who had been at the Downtown Lincoln-Mercury showroom in Dallas looking at the automobiles there, and had driven a car during a demonstration ride.

INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Inspector James Malley advised that during his meeting with J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission 2-25-64 the latter referred to James Herbert Martin, Marina Oswald's former business manager. Mr. Rankin noted that while talking with John M. Thorne, Marina's former attorney, over the past weekend, the latter mentioned that Martin had gone to Oklahoma. Mr. Rankin noted that Marina had previously taken English lessons from one Paul Gregory and he, in turn, had taken Russian language lessons from Marina. During this period, according to Rankin, it was his recollection that Gregory took her out on a number of evenings. Gregory is now studying at the University of Oklahoma.

Rankin speculated that possibly Martin might have gone to interview Gregory in order to establish the nature of the personal relationship that Marina Oswald might have had with Gregory. (This, of course, would be in support of Martin's own indiscretions.)

Rankin inquired whether the Bureau could discreetly ascertain where Martin might have gone when he allegedly visited Oklahoma.

This was discussed with SAC Shanklin, Dallas, and he advised that the newspapers are presently aware that there is a rift between Martin and Marina Oswald and the newspapers are presently trying to determine the whereabouts of Martin. According to publicity, Shanklin stated that Thorne is alleged to have said that Martin might be in Oklahoma or he might be in Mexico and that he does not know where he is located. Shanklin said that the only discreet inquiry Dallas could make to determine whereabouts of Martin would be to check the airline reservations and manifests for flights out of the city.

SAC Shanklin subsequently advised that James Martin had a reservation aboard Braniff Airlines Flight 130 on 2-21-64. This flight left Dallas 11:25 p.m. and arrived Oklahoma City 12:11 p.m. Martin had a one-way ticket and made his reservation shortly before midnight 2-20-64.

While we are in a position to advise the Commission concerning Martin's trip to Oklahoma City, the only logical way to establish whether he was in contact with Paul Gregory would be to interview Gregory using a pretext.

It will be noted that when WFO made inquiry concerning Marina Oswald's stay at the Willard Hotel, they determined a number of telephone calls that were charged to Martin while he was staying at the hotel. No effort has been made to identify the recipients of these calls since such was not pertinent to the Oswald investigation.

ACTION:

1. Inspector Malley should advise Mr. Rankin of the fact re Martin's trip to Oklahoma City 2-21-64. At that time he should inquire whether the Commission desires that Paul Gregory be interviewed as to whether he has recently been in contact with Martin.

2. In view of the specific interest of the Commission in Martin, Inspector Malley should point out tht we have ascertained that while in Washington he made a number of telephone calls and inquire whether the Commission desires that the recipients of these calls be identified and interviewed.

For your information and future guidance, Mr. J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel, President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, has requested that the Bureau furnish reports to CIA in the following "general areas:"

1. Interviews of Mrs. Marina Oswald.
2. Material pertaining to the Mexican trip.
3. Material pertaining to possible subversive activities by Oswald in the United States.
4. Material pertaining to Oswald's trip to Russia.
5. Correspondence carried on by Oswald with persons in the Soviet Union.

Reports and, where applicable, letterhead memoranda dealing with these topics are furnished to CIA at the same time that two copies of the same communications are furnished to the Commission.

The Commission, in making request for this dissemination to CIA under No. 5 above, asks that "all correspondence carried on by Lee Harvey Oswald with persons in the Soviet Union" be sent to CIA as additional material is developed.

In order that complete dissemination to CIA can be made of the correspondence referred to in No. 5 above, you are requested to furnish a Xerox copy of the untranslated correspondence to the Bureau in order that same can be checked against the Bureau's copy of such material and, thereafter, relayed to CIA.

For your guidance in determining what correspondence should be furnished to CIA, the Bureau does not want to be placed in the position of making any obstacles to CIA's examination of any material that might be of assistance to the Commission.

Please handle promptly.

NOTE:

It is difficult to identify what constitutes "all correspondence carried on by Lee Harvey Oswald," and we have recently obtained additional correspondence. After exhaustive comparison of photographic copies of material at the Bureau, it is believed most feasible to ask Dallas to furnish a set of such material, and on receipt of same it will be checked against material at the Bureau and furnished to CIA.

We have furnished CIA all reports per Rankin's instructions, and after completion of all translations of material available, due to the fact that some correspondence did not require translation, it is extremely difficult to make a review/conclude that all correspondence carried on by Oswald has been included for dissemination to CIA.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your discussion with Inspector J. H. Malley of this Bureau on February 21, 1964, at which time you requested that we make available to the Commission information we could obtain concerning James Herbert Martin. You indicated you did not desire we conduct open investigation in this matter but requested that all information be made available through confidential sources of our Dallas Office.

On February 24, 1964, [redacted] Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, Texas, made available to this Bureau the personnel record for Martin maintained by [redacted] office. This record revealed that Martin was born October 6, 1926, at St. Louis, Missouri. He was employed by the Statler-Hilton Hotel, St. Louis, Missouri, on October 3, 1955, and was transferred to the Dallas Statler-Hilton Hotel on February 21, 1956, as Assistant Manager. He was later made Credit Manager of the hotel. On July 23, 1958, Martin left the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Dallas and was employed as a salesman for the Carte Blanche Credit Card Company, which is a part of the Statler-Hilton Hotel chain. Martin was subsequently employed as Manager of the Gay Nineties, which is a private club located on Maple Avenue, Dallas, Texas. After the Gay Nineties Club closed, Martin was employed by the Jack Murphy Insurance Company, Corrigan Towers, Dallas, Texas.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

[redacted] further advised that approximately one day before Martin left Dallas en route Washington, D. C., "to testify before the Committee," Martin indicated that after "his testimony was taken" he was planning to return to Dallas where a person, unidentified, with plenty of money was to open motels in Dallas and Silver City, New Mexico. The motels were to be known as "Hospitality Inn" and Martin was to be part owner.

On February 24, 1964, [redacted] Statler-Hilton Hotel, Dallas, Texas, advised this Bureau that he was transferred from the [redacted] office of the Statler-Hilton [redacted] and not Martin who was transferred from the St. Louis office about the same time. According to [redacted], both he and Martin worked in the same office, Cavagnaro working as Assistant Reservation Manager and Martin as Credit Manager. [redacted] stated that Martin always had a scheme to get rich quick during the time he knew him and he recalled Martin working as a manager at the Gay Nineties Club in Dallas, Texas. He added that this club was in the name of Clay Martin, no relation to James Herbert Martin, and the club was owned by Mike Abraham, an oil man out of New York, New York.

[redacted] advised this Bureau that the Merchants Retail Credit Association records, Dallas, Texas, contain the name of James Herbert Martin, wife Wanda, residing at 11611 Farrar Street, Dallas, Texas. Martin was listed as the owner of this property and it was indicated he had four dependents. Martin's name first appeared in credit records March 9, 1956, and was last checked February 13, 1959. His credit rating was satisfactory with an indication there was one slow account of $182 owed to the Carte Blanche Credit Card Company.

These credit records also disclosed that Martin was employed by the Statler-Hilton from 1956 to 1959 and was later employed by the Six Flags Inn with no date indicated. Martin was first listed as being in credit records in St. Louis in 1950 and when transferred to Dallas he resided at 939 Shady Side Street, Dallas, Texas. Martin's birth was listed as October 6, 1926, St. Louis, Missouri. His father was listed as Herbert J. Martin, 1010 Pine Street, St. Louis, Missouri.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

Records of the Merchants Retail Credit Association, Dallas, Texas, also reveal that Martin served in the U. S. Navy from 1943 to 1945.

On February 24, 1964, [redacted] Six Flags Inn, Arlington, Texas, advised this Bureau that Martin was employed May 9, 1962, as Club Manager for the private club at the motel and on May 23, 1962, Martin was promoted to Resident Manager of the Inn. According to [redacted] Martin resigned as Resident Manager of the Six Flags Inn December 15, 1963.

For your additional information, your attention is directed to the report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated January 22, 1964, at Dallas, Texas, entitled "Lee Harvey Oswald, aka; IS - R - Cuba." Pages 220 through 222 of Special Agent Gemberling's report set forth additional data concerning Martin developed by this Bureau. Pages 223 and 224 of Special Agent Gemberling's report set forth results of our interview with James Herbert Martin on January 15, 1964.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE: Memo Rosen to Belmont 2-22-64 set forth results of contact of Inspector Malley of the Bureau by Mr. Rankin of the President's Commission. Mr. Rankin indicated that the Commission was endeavoring to have James Martin voluntarily appear before the Commission on Thursday, 2-27-64. Mr. Rankin requested Bureau make available all info it could obtain concerning Martin for the Commission's use in interviewing him. Data herein sets forth the desired background data available thru our Dallas sources.

SAC Shanklin called from Dallas at 11:30 a.m. today relative to the physical surveillance on Marina Oswald. He said that it is a very difficult area to surveil, as it is wide open, with big houses, and the newsmen are following the activities of Marina closely. He feels that if the surveillance is kept on very long it will become known.

I told him that we are getting together the information showing our reinterview with Marina and Robert Oswald and getting this information to the Commission promptly, at which time it may be possible to have them reassess the need for this physical surveillance. I told him we would keep his problem in mind.

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY
REQUEST OF THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION

By letter dated 2/24/64 from Mr. Rankin The Commission has requested a series of photographs of exhibits which will include The Commission's assigned exhibit number in each photograph. The Commission requested that three photographs be made of each exhibit and that any photographs of clothing should be in color. It is indicated that as The Commission makes additional exhibits available they will desire they be similarly photographed. We have commenced work on this matter and are handling on an expedite basis.

We have previously furnished The Commission individual photographs of physical evidence items collected by the FBI during the investigation of the Oswald, Jack Ruby and the assassination of the President cases. The Commission has selected certain of these as being particularly pertinent and has assigned exhibit numbers to them. The Commission in its 2/24/64 letter is now asking that we furnish them with three photographic prints of every item to which they have assigned a Commission exhibit number.

An estimated 2,100, 8" x 10", photographic prints, some in color, will be required to fulfill The Commission's initial request and satisfy our own need for copies of any photographs furnished The Commission. This will take care of The Commission's request with respect to exhibits designated to date; however, as indicated in The Commission's letter this is a continuing project and additional photographic prints are to be made as new exhibit designations are made.

Since this is a substantial undertaking and since the photographic work is to be done by the Administrative Division's Photographic Unit, the project has been coordinated with Assistant Director Callahan and Administrative Division photographic personnel.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated February 18, 1964, requesting this Bureau to undertake appropriate investigation in an effort to develop full circumstances surrounding the incident involving Marina Oswald and James Herbert Martin. As you are aware, results of our inquiries in this matter have been furnished to the Commission.

For your information, Special Agent in Charge J. Gordon Shanklin of our Dallas office has advised that the incident involving Marina Oswald and James Herbert Martin is known to Marina Oswald, Mr. and Mrs. James Herbert Martin, John H. Thorne, Mr. and Mrs. Declan Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oswald, Mr. William McKenzie and Mr. McKenzie's law partner, Mr. Henry Daen.

Mr. Shanklin also advised that the rift between Marina Oswald, James Herbert Martin and John H. Thorne has been noted by the newspapers in Dallas and has been the subject of coverage by the press. The Dallas "Times Herald" contained an article in its February 26, 1964, edition reporting Marina Oswald had switched legal advisers on in-law advice. The article also quoted Thorne as stating that he had spent hundreds of hours representing Marina Oswald, as had Mr. Martin, and "We have a bona fide contract for percent of the money she makes and I intend to enforce it. This action could be opening the door to the courthouse and that door swings both ways."

FROM : A. Rosen

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

Re memo dated 2/25/64 to Sullivan from Branigan relating to James Martin, Marina Oswald's former business manager, possibly going to Oklahoma over the past weekend. Memorandum requested that Mr. Rankin be contacted concerning the desirability of interviewing Paul Gregory, as well as to making inquiry at the Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C., concerning telephone calls made by Martin in order that the persons called could be identified and interviewed.

In the absence of Mr. Rankin, this matter was discussed with Mr. Howard Willens on February 27, 1964, who advised that no effort should be made to interview Paul Gregory in the absence of a specific request from the Commission. Concerning the telephone calls Martin made while at the Willard Hotel, Willens advised that no action should be taken on these at this time.

ACTION:

Mr. Willens desired that the information developed concerning Martin's trip to Oklahoma be furnished to the Commission in writing. The Domestic Intelligence Division has been advised.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to our discussion of February 24, 1964, at which time you requested this Bureau conduct appropriate investigation to determine the contacts and activities of Mrs. Marina Oswald.

We have determined that Marina Oswald has rented a home at 629 Beltline Road, Richardson, Texas, which is located approximately eighteen miles from Dallas, Texas. We have learned Marina Oswald probably will not move into this rented house until sometime during the weekend of February 29 and March 1, 1964, inasmuch as she has not yet purchased sufficient furniture. She had an appointment with her attorney, Mr. William A. McKenzie, to go to Fort Worth, Texas, February 26, 1964, for the purpose of picking up some money donated to her in that city.

COURIER SERVICE FEB 28

Our coverage of Marina Oswald on February 24, 1964, disclosed her only contacts, with the exception of our Agents who interviewed her on that day, were with her attorneys, Mr. William A. McKenzie and Mr. Henry Baer, who is Mr. McKenzie's law partner.

Our coverage of Marina Oswald on February 25, 1964, disclosed she visited a furniture store and an appliance store in Richardson, Texas, at which time she was accompanied by her small child and Declan P. [illegible]. Her contacts were observed by [illegible]

Marina Oswald on February 25, 1964, from 2 p.m. to 5:20 p.m. Her attorney, Henry Baer, appeared at the Ford residence at 2:09 p.m. and departed the residence at approximately 5:45 p.m.

At approximately 8:47 p.m. a man and woman driving an automobile registered to Mr. Isaac Don Levine, R.F.D. 1, Waldorf, Maryland, visited the Ford residence. This couple remained at the Ford residence until approximately 11:10 p.m., February 25, 1964. We have previously been in contact with Mr. Levine at which time he told us that he planned to interview Marina Oswald concerning a possible contract to write a book concerning her. Page 1946 of "Who's Who in America," Volume 32, 1962 - 1963, contains a biographic sketch of Isaac Don Levine.

Our coverage of Marina Oswald on February 26, 1964, revealed she left the residence of Declan Ford approximately 12:50 p.m. accompanied by her small child and Mrs. Ford. The party then proceeded to the office of Marina's attorney, William A. McKenzie, Fidelity Union Life Building, Dallas, Texas. Thereafter, Marina, her child, Mrs. Ford and an unknown individual who is believed to be Mr. McKenzie entered an automobile registered to Mr. McKenzie and proceeded to Fort Worth, Texas. After parking their car, the group proceeded to Room 707, Medical Arts Building, Fort Worth, Texas, which is occupied by Dr. Louis A. Saunders, Executive Secretary for the Fort Worth Area Council of Churches.

At approximately 4:45 p.m., February 26, 1964, Marina Oswald and her party entered the automobile registered to Mr. McKenzie and proceeded to Grand Prairie, Texas. The individual believed to be Mr. McKenzie then proceeded to the office of attorney John M. Thorne in Grand Prairie, Texas, where he remained until approximately 6:35 p.m. Thereafter, the group returned to Dallas, Texas. Marina Oswald, her child and Mrs. Ford then left the individual believed to be Mr. McKenzie and returned to the Ford residence.

The above is being furnished for your information.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE:

Rankin spoke with the Director 2/24/64 and requested Bureau step up our coverage of Marina Oswald. He stated the Commission contemplates bringing Marina back to Washington for further testimony before the Commission as soon as this Bureau completed its interviews with her concerning the [redacted] and Nixon matter. We have furnished the Commission results of our inquiries concerning both of the latter matters.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your discussion with Inspector J. R. Malley of this Bureau February 25, 1964, in connection with James Herbert Martin, Marina Oswald's former business manager. You indicated that you had learned Martin allegedly had gone to Oklahoma and you speculated that the purpose of such trip may have been to contact Paul Gregory, an acquaintance of Marina Oswald. You requested this Bureau to discreetly ascertain where Martin might have gone when he allegedly visited Oklahoma.

FEB 28 3 40 PM '64 FBI REC'D-READING ROOM

For your information, we determined that James Herbert Martin had a reservation aboard Braniff Airlines, Flight 130, on February 21, 1964. This flight left Dallas, Texas, at 11:25 A.M. and arrived at Oklahoma City at 12:11 P.M. Martin had a one-way ticket and made his reservation shortly before midnight, February 20, 1964.

BY COURIER SVC

For your added information, during Martin's stay in Washington, D. C., when he accompanied Marina Oswald when she testified before the Commission, Martin made a number of long-distance telephone calls.

Re Dallas airtel to Bureau, 2/19/64, and Bureau airtel to Dallas, 2/28/64.

Mr. WILLIAM A. MC KENZIE advised on February 18, 1964, that at the time he agreed to become the attorney for ROBERT OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD, he made it clear to them that if any information came into his possession bearing on the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, he would be permitted to furnish such information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. MC KENZIE stated that he felt that as a loyal, patriotic American citizen it was his duty to furnish any and all information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation or other interested Government agencies that would assist in this investigation.

To specifically clarify the statement in Dallas airtel of February 19, 1964, mentioned in referenced Bureau airtel, it is pointed out that he was referring to the receipt of facts surrounding the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, or anything connected thereto with this investigation.

On the memorandum from Mr. Jevons to Mr. Conrad dated today concerning the obtaining by "Life" magazine of the photo of Lee Harvey Oswald holding a rifle, the Director inquired, "I wonder how Life got hold of it (the photograph) as it has copyrighted it."

We know for a fact that the Dallas Police Department had the photograph referred to on the front page of the current issue of "Life" and as published in the Washington Post and Times Herald on page A-3 under an Associated Press credit line. We also learn from Jerry O'Leary of the Evening Star, who was in Dallas, that he personally obtained a copy of the same photo through his sources in the Dallas Police Department while in Dallas. The photograph has had a very widespread dissemination. We have learned from "Life" magazine and "Time" magazine friends that "Life" purchased all the baby and youth pictures of Oswald from Dallas sources from Marina Oswald and from Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, the assassin's mother. The "Life" people will not disclose precisely where each photo was obtained but it is known that they got a great deal of help from the Dallas Police Department.

The FBI, of course, has not made photos of any kind or information available to any newspaper, magazine, TV station or radio station since the inception of this case.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

While discussing other matters with Mr. Howard Willens of the President's Commission on February 20, 1964, Mr. Willens advised the Commission had received from the State Department an FBI report captioned, "Funds transmitted to residents of Russia, Internal Security - Russia," this report having been prepared by SA John W. Fain dated May 12, 1960, Dallas, Texas. Mr. Willens advised this report contains the results of an interview with Marguerite Oswald, the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, and relates that Mrs. Oswald had transmitted a check in the amount of $25 to her son while he was in Russia. Mr. Willens stated that this report was not made available by the FBI; however, some of the information set forth in the May 12, 1960, report is set forth in a subsequent FBI report of SA Fain at Dallas dated July 3, 1961, under the caption, "Lee Harvey Oswald". (The two reports referred to above were reviewed by the Domestic Intelligence Division and Inspector Moore advised the July 3, 1961, report contains a summary of all pertinent information that was set forth in the May 12, 1960, report. This procedure was followed so that all pertinent information concerning Oswald would be set forth in the Case File relating to subject Oswald.)

Mr. Willens advised that the Commission had received from the State Department an FBI report captioned, "Fair Play For Cuba, Internal Security - Cuba" prepared under date of October 25, 1963, by SA Warren C. DeBrueys at New Orleans. Willens states all pertinent information in this report relative to Oswald is set forth in a subsequent FBI report under the caption of "Lee Harvey Oswald."

Willens inquired whether there was any special reason the foregoing reports had not been made available to the Commission or whether the Bureau had summarized the information so that all of the data would be available under the case captioned, "Lee Harvey Oswald." Mr. Willens was advised that the Bureau would be very happy to make available the two reports he had referred to. He was told that all pertinent information had been included in reports under the caption, "Lee Harvey Oswald" and therefore there was no necessity for the Bureau to make the two reports mentioned available to the Commission as they did not contain any new information. He was also advised that based on a check of the Bureau files, all

INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

In accordance with the Director's instructions at 12:15 p.m. today, I immediately put in a call for the SAC in Dallas and talked to ASAC Clark. I advised him that Mr. Rankin had talked with the Director this morning and Rankin was very much interested in knowing who has been seeing Mrs. Marina Oswald and what she has been doing. The Director desires that a "stake out" be placed covering Mrs. Marina Oswald's present residence and that she be under very discreet surveillance when she leaves. He said persons contacting her and individuals she contacts should be identified. I told Clark this surveillance should be instituted immediately and if this presented impossible personnel problems, the Bureau should be advised and an effort would be made to get Dallas assistance.

The Director also instructed that consideration be given to putting technical coverage on the telephone available to Mrs. Marina Oswald. Clark was told to evaluate this immediately and call back later today and advise whether such is feasible. If so, we will expeditiously obtain the Attorney General's authority; that this technical surveillance should be put on as soon as possible.

The Director further said we should press Dallas to be sure the interview with Marina Oswald is conducted today concerning the Nixon matter. As a matter of fact, this interview is set for 1:30 p.m. today and Dallas is to furnish the highlights by telephone and the details by teletype. I told Dallas that the Director had indicated it seems a little incongruous that she had been able to lock her husband in a bathroom for all or part of a day when he was supposed to be a man of violent temper and one would think he would have broken down the door or have broken a window. During our interview with her, we should, therefore, determine what happened when he was locked in the bathroom and what did he do when he was released--did he beat her up or take any other violent action?

Mr. Hoover said we should also immediately interview Robert Oswald concerning the Nixon matter. In this connection, it should be noted that Robert Oswald has been interviewed concerning this matter and we have a signed statement from him.

Memorandum

TO: MR. CALLAHAN

DATE: 2-18-64

FROM: L. J. GAUTHIER

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY AND THE KILLING OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD VISUAL AIDS

As you know, the technical services of the Exhibits Section were made available in preparing suitable exhibits in captioned subject matter. The Director, on 12-19-63, approved letters of commendation for employees of the Exhibits Section, Graphic Presentation Unit, for their assistance in expediting the preparation of exhibits included in the "Investigative Reports" furnished to the Presidential Commission.

In addition to the investigative exhibits, three-dimensional scale models of the assassination and killing sites were completed and delivered to the Commission on 1-17-64. These demonstrative exhibits are being extensively used by the Commission to re-enact to scale the events which happened in each site. By letter dated 1-23-64, the Commission thanked the Director for his cooperation and assistance in furnishing visual aids brochures to each member of the Commission's legal staff describing the three-dimensional exhibits which were set up in the Commission's space on 1-17-64. In Rosen's memo to Belmont, 1-29-64, the comment of Mr. Melvin Eisenberg, member of Commission's legal staff, was set forth as follows:

"The models prepared by the Bureau had been extremely helpful and that without them it would have been impossible for the Commission to have made any conclusion of any kind concerning the location where the shots were fired."

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That Exhibits Specialists Roy H. Rose and Eugene Paul Arey receive letters of commendation for their efforts in gathering, assembling, compiling and analyzing technical facts that are effectively being made available to the Commission through the use of visual aids.

SUBJECT: ALLEGATION THAT OSWALD WAS AN FBI INFORMANT

Reference my memorandum 2/10/64 to you indicating that we had traced down the above-captioned rumor to one Colonel Philip Corso, who is currently employed by Senator Strom Thurmond, Dem.-S.C. Referenced memorandum reported the results of the interview with Colonel Corso on February 10th, 1964. At that time, Colonel Corso indicated that his "sources in CIA had merely presumed that Oswald was an informant for the FBI." I specifically asked Colonel Corso in Senator Thurmond's presence to identify these sources. He promised that he would contact the sources and then contact me again on 2/11/64 to indicate whether the sources would be willing to be interviewed or not.

When Colonel Corso failed to recontact me by 5:00 p.m., 2-11-64, I called him. He stated he had not yet had an opportunity to recontact his sources. He stressed that his sources had no facts but that their belief that Oswald was an informant for the FBI merely stemmed from idle deduction during a conversation. He stated that he was responsible for leading the discussion in this regard inasmuch as, based upon his extensive experiences with military intelligence, he felt that any American citizen who was given a job in the Soviet Union, allowed to marry a Soviet citizen, and allowed to bring his wife back to the United States, could only be an FBI or CIA informant. Colonel Corso indicated that he had no facts whatsoever to base his deductions upon, and neither did his CIA friends. I told him that nevertheless we would like to confront his CIA friends and tell them too that these so-called "deductions" were absolutely false and that this was a scurrilous rumor to be spreading around. Colonel Corso promised to contact me within the next 3 days.

When Colonel Corso did not contact me by the afternoon of 2-25-64, I called him again. He first would not accept the call, but upon the occasion of my second call to him the same afternoon, he came on the phone and apologized by stating that he had been traveling for Senator Thurmond and had not had a chance to call me. We went over the same facts once again whereupon he indicated that inasmuch as his "CIA friends" had no facts whatsoever he did not want to reveal their identity. He emphasized the fact that his allegations had been strictly deductions and had no basis in fact. I told him this was a pretty poor way of doing business, particularly for a man who supposedly had been trained in intelligence operations. I let him know in no uncertain facts of the work he had caused us as well as the fact that I intended advising Senator Thurmond of the outcome of this incident. He asked if I would come up and have lunch with him sometime in the future, and I told him this did not appear to be necessary under the circumstances.

ACTION:

As indicated by memorandum of 2-10-64, Colonel Corso is a "dreamer" who uses no logic in conversation and who is extremely difficult to pin down to specifics. I doubt very seriously that he has any "CIA friends" who have discussed these allegations or made these "deductions" with him. For this reason, I see no basis upon which we could approach CIA and protest this matter.

For record purposes.

Referenced my memorandum to you February 7, 1964, indicating that Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee (SISS), had indicated, following pressure being put on him, that he would contact his source of information to see if that source would talk to me relative to the above-captioned allegation. Sourwine had also indicated, and had reiterated several times, that his source had confirmed this allegation with CIA.

Sourwine called at approximately 2:30 PM, February 10, 1964. He advised he had contacted his source and in view of the seriousness of the situation, his source had agreed to be identified. He named his source as Colonel Philip Corso who is currently employed by Senator Strom Thurmond (D-S.C.). Sourwine indicated that Corso had agreed to being interviewed.

I contacted Colonel Corso in Senator Thurmond's office at approximately 3:15 PM, February 10, 1964. Harry Dent and Fred Buzhardt, Senator Thurmond's Administrative and Legislative Assistants, sat in on the interview. Both men have been very cooperative in the past. I had not previously met Colonel Corso, however, understand that he formerly worked for General Trudeau in Army Intelligence and had some contacts with FBI at that time. Colonel Corso, upon meeting him, and throughout the interview, gave me the definite impression of being a rather shifty-eyed individual who fashions himself a great intelligence expert. As a matter of fact, it was quite difficult to pin him down with questions inasmuch as he insisted on expounding his theories rather than sticking to specifics.

I told Colonel Corso of the information received from Sourwine and that he had been named as the source. I told him the allegation was absolutely false. The point was made that Mr. Hoover had submitted a sworn affidavit to the Warren Commission emphatically denying the allegation and that I desired Colonel Corso to read the affidavit at this time. I told him additionally that if his allegation had been made to other people, I would like to know the names of these people so that they could be confronted. He told me the only other person he had discussed the allegation with was Senator Thurmond.

Colonel Corso stated he did not need to read the affidavit I handed him inasmuch as he would take the FBI's word that Oswald was not an informant. I told him regardless of his confidence he should read the affidavit. He then scanned it quite hurriedly and handed it back to me.

I told Colonel Corso that I would have to insist that he reveal the identity of his source within CIA. He stated he could not do this inasmuch as his source represented "groups" or "individuals" that had been friends of his when he was handling intelligence for the Army. He stated he did not like to violate their confidence. I told him he should realize that this allegation was a very serious one which could do considerable damage to the FBI if it became widely publicized. I mentioned additionally that his refusal might, of course, result in his being subpoenaed or requested to testify before the Warren Commission concerning the withholding of evidence.

Colonel Corso began to backtrack. He stated that his sources had merely told him that they knew the FBI had been in contact with Oswald prior to the assassination of the President. He quickly added that his sources within CIA also felt that Oswald's activity, while in the Soviet Union, represented a State Department operation. Colonel Corso indicated that "if" Oswald had been an informant, while in the Soviet Union, he would have submitted reports to three U. S. employees of the American Embassy in Moscow. He named these individuals as: Angeli, John Vincent Abidian and Hugh Montgomery. Corso stated that Angeli and Montgomery had been declared persona non grata by the Soviet Government and told to leave the Soviet Union. Corso indicated that while he was still with the Army, he received a tip that the three named individuals had received reports from a double agent within the Soviet Union. He stated this double agent could have been Oswald. I asked him if he had any specifics or proof in this regard. He stated he could not prove any of these statements. He then added that this entire matter might be an assumption on the part of CIA inasmuch as his sources had no definite facts whatsoever.

I told Colonel Corso that I wanted to go back over our conversation and to be as specific as possible. I asked him point-blank if his sources within CIA had named Oswald as an FBI informant to him. I asked him for a direct answer. He slowly replied that "groups" or "persons" within CIA, whom he had known for a long time, had told him that Oswald could have been a source of information for the FBI. He stated the same "groups" or "persons" also indicated that Oswald's residence in the Soviet Union represented a State Department operation. Corso added that there was a Communist Party member supposedly in Texas by the name of "Stanford" who knew that Oswald had been an FBI source of information and had related this fact to other parties. I asked

Colonel Corso how he knew this. He stated he could not recall his source of information in this regard, however, apparently "Stanford" had been interviewed by some one and had given them this information. I told Colonel Corso that his ability to be nonspecific was somewhat amazing. He told me he was well-versed in the intelligence game and knew how CIA and the State Department operated. He stated he had no sympathy for CIA inasmuch as that organization had quite often failed to cooperate with him when he was operating with intelligence.

At this stage of the questioning, Colonel Corso again approached the melodramatic by emphatically claiming that he had been concerned only in this matter because he was afraid that the communists were promoting a deliberate smear against the FBI. I asked why he brought in the Communist Party when he had originally claimed that his information had come from CIA. He stated that the information furnished by the communist, "Stanford," apparently represented a deliberate smear attempt on the part of the communists.

I told Colonel Corso that I wanted him to think about this matter and to particularly consider the seriousness of the allegations. I told him he should give me a call by February 11, 1964, and give me a definite answer as to whether he would identify his sources of information. He agreed to do so. I told him also that regardless of whether he identifies his sources or not, we still plan to protest to CIA the falseness and looseness of such allegations. I told Colonel Corso, in the presence of Dent and Buzhardt, that he had seen me carefully making notes during our entire conversation and that I planned to hold him to the substance of those notes.

At this point, Senator Thurmond entered the room and I advised him completely of the falseness of the allegations and exhibited to him the affidavit in question. Senator Thurmond stated he did not need to read the affidavit inasmuch as he had known the allegations were false all along. I told Senator Thurmond that I had requested his assistant, Colonel Corso, to reveal his sources of information so that the FBI could definitely disprove, once and for all, the falseness of the allegations that Oswald was an FBI informant. The Senator replied that he hoped Colonel Corso could comply with our request.

three American State Department employees who "might" have had contact with Oswald in the Soviet Union. This should be made a matter of record in our files. It is suggested that no action be taken to contact CIA at this time until we find out whether or not Colonel Corso will identify his sources. Frankly, considering Colonel Corso's personality and evasiveness, there is a distinct possibility that he made up this allegation strictly based upon his own theories. I will, of course, follow him closely until we get an answer as to his alleged sources of information within CIA.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Mohr

DATE: February 7, 1964

FROM : C. D. DeLoach

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT
ALLEGATIONS THAT OSWALD WAS AN FBI INFORMANT

Senator Jim Eastland, Chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, attempted to telephonically contact me at 4:30 p.m., 2-6-64. I was at the White House at the time in Walter Jenkins' office. Upon being notified, I called Senator Eastland and he asked that I see him at 5 p.m.

I called Senator Eastland off the Senate floor at approximately 5 p.m. and he stated that he wanted to talk in confidence. We then proceeded to his private office in the Senate wing of the Capitol. Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee (SISS) was with the Senator. The Senator locked the door of his office and reiterated that the information he was to furnish me was to be kept in complete confidence. He then asked Sourwine to proceed with the discussion.

Sourwine prefaced his remarks by stating that the SISS did not want to do anything whatsoever that would embarrass the FBI and as a result he was tipping me off on information he had received. He stated that an extremely confidential source of his within the Department of State had advised him that Lee Harvey Oswald was a confidential informant of the FBI's. The same source also alleged that Oswald was paid $200 per month by the FBI. Sourwine indicated that his source had alleged that CIA knew this to be a fact. Sourwine told me that he had requested that his source contact CIA and get absolute confirmation of this matter. Sourwine claimed that his source had recontacted him and had advised that a CIA employee had confirmed that Oswald was in fact an FBI informant.

Senator Eastland spoke up at this point. He stated that Senator Dick Russell, Chairman of the Senate Armed Forces Committee, and a member of the Presidential Commission investigating the assassination, had told him that an individual had recently testified that Oswald was an FBI informant and had received a salary of $200 per month. Senator Eastland added that Senator Russell had also told him that it appeared that Secret Service representatives were attempting to place the blame on the FBI regarding the assassination. Senator Russell reportedly had stated that the Secret Service had clearly pointed out that the FBI had not informed the Secret Service regarding the presence of Oswald in Dallas, Texas. Senator Eastland added that Senators Dirksen, Roman L. Hruska and Senator Everett Dirksen had become somewhat exercised over this matter and that Senator Dirksen had urged that the SISS hold a special meeting to discuss the matter. Senator Eastland quoted Senator Dirksen as stating, "We should give J. Edgar Hoover every opportunity to explain about Oswald." Senator Eastland continued that pressure had also been brought upon him to subpoena the Director for a hearing in this connection. He added he also understood that an FBI Agent by the name of "Stanford" allegedly handled Oswald in his informant capacity with the FBI.

Senator Eastland stated that he wanted me to tell the Director that under no circumstances would he cause the FBI any embarrassment whatsoever. He added, however, that he felt the matter should be clarified before a "storm" broke in the newspapers and on the Hill. He pointed out that several news sources already knew of the above facts and that at least one reporter had contacted him to see what he planned to do about the matter.

Senator Eastland asked that no contacts be made with Senators Dirksen, Russell and Hruska until he had the opportunity to tell these Senators that he, Senator Eastland, had been in contact with the FBI.

I told Senator Eastland and Sourwine that we were well aware of the rumors in question and that the facts as alleged were absolutely false. I told Eastland and Sourwine that we had received the same information from Senator John Tower's office and had put the lie to it at that time. I told them that under no circumstances whatsoever was Oswald ever an informant, an employee, or connected with the FBI in any way whatsoever. I told them that their information undoubtedly came about as the result of Henry Wade, a former Agent, and now a County Prosecutor in Dallas, Texas, testifying before the Warren Commission. I mentioned that Wade had made false statements before the Commission and that we were prepared to prove that those statements were false.

Senator Eastland stated he believed me, however, felt that we should have this information, particularly inasmuch as he was getting considerable pressure, and also because of the fact that he felt that Senator Dirksen might pick up the phone at any moment and call the Director about the matter.

I told Senator Eastland and Sourwine that while their facts were absolutely false, I wanted to advise the Director, and I would be back in touch with them as expeditiously as possible regarding this matter. The Senator reiterated that I check with him prior to contacting Senators Russell, Dirksen and Hruska. I told him I would do this.

After notifying the Director telephonically of the above matter, I read the proposed affidavit that is to be sent to the Warren Commission. Pursuant to the Director's instructions, I will show this affidavit to Senator Eastland, and then Senators Dirksen, Hruska and Russell in that order. This will, of course, be done following delivery of the affidavit to Rankin of the Warren Commission.

I think also it might be a good idea to show this affidavit to Sourwine. At the time of further discussion with Sourwine, I will specifically ask him to identify his source within the State Department so that we may adequately run this rumor down and pin it to the ground. While I doubt that Sourwine will reveal his source, we will at least strongly go on record asking him to do this for our own protection.

I have issued instructions within the Crime Records Division to immediately prepare a public statement, under the Director's signature, in the event that the Director finds it necessary to issue such a statement so that the false rumors concerning Oswald's connections with the FBI can be promptly denied.

ACTION:

1. That I show the attached copy of the affidavit to Senator Eastland and then Senators Russell, Dirksen and Hruska, also to Sourwine, following delivery of the said affidavit to Rankin of the Warren Commission. I will also tell Senator Eastland we have no Special Agent by the name of Stanford and that this allegation is also false. OK after Malley has delivered affidavit to Rankin & Eastland approves signing to the Sen. H

2. That the Crime Records Division immediately prepares public statement for the Director's usage in the event it is believed necessary to publicly refute the false claims that Oswald was an informant of ours.

Yes

3. That I press Sourwine to identify his source within the State Department who has given him this information.

On the morning of 2-8-64 Mr. Lee J. Rankin, General Counsel, telephonically contacted extra duty supervisor, Paul J. Moore, and furnished the following information.

On the night of 2-7-64, one Rosalind Ladler, 292 Garfield Street, Brooklyn, New York, called Mr. Rankin and said she had seen Lee Harvey Oswald, time not mentioned, on Fulton Street, Brooklyn, New York, at which time Oswald was distributing "Fair Play for Cuba" leaflets. Oswald, according to Ladler, was talking to a friend as she passed by and she overheard Oswald speak about the late President Kennedy. Oswald said he hated Kennedy and his friend replied, "Why don't you do something about it?" Oswald allegedly said he might shoot him. Oswald further spoke about some impending trouble in Panama and said he hated Dean Rusk. No one else was present when Ladler overheard this conversation.

Mr. Rankin requested that Ladler be interviewed and any appropriate action taken concerning her story. He also indicated that he desired to know if Ladler's story were a fabrication, and he would like to know what was back of it. On the morning of 2-8-64, Mr. John F. Maybe, Supervisor, New York City, furnished the above information and instructed to locate and interview Ladler on 2-8-64 and furnish the Bureau a teletype summary of information obtained and follow with a letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Approx 1934

Reference is made to your telephonic request of this Bureau on February 8, 1964, concerning a telephone call received by you from one "Rosalind Ladler" (phonetic) of Brooklyn, New York.

On February 8, 1964, Miss Rosalynd Laidler was contacted at her home, 982 Garfield Place, Brooklyn, New York, at which time she stated she had seen Lee Harvey Oswald on Fulton and Jay Streets, Brooklyn, New York, when he was giving out pamphlets for The Fair Play for Cuba Committee one year ago. She stated she overheard him talking to an unknown male. Oswald stated that he was unhappy with President Kennedy and had bought a rifle from a mail-order house in Chicago, Illinois, and was going to kill the President. Miss Laidler then became very incoherent and irrational at which time the interview was brought to a conclusion as it was evident she was very upset.

Mrs. Agnes Laidler, mother of Rosalynd, advised that she tried to stop her daughter from making a telephone call to you and advised that there was no truth to her statements. Mrs. Laidler advised that her daughter is thirty years of age, and is mentally unbalanced. She stated that her daughter has been receiving psychiatric treatment for the past ten years and is always imagining things.

Synopsis:

GEORGE D. MITCHELL who accompanied GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT on a trip to Yugoslavia sponsored by the International Cooperation Administration, U. S. Department of State, during 1957, advised he was not too well acquainted with DE MOHRENSCHILDT and furnished limited information regarding DE MOHRENSCHILDT's background. Results of check of records of the Hoover Institute, Stanford University, Palo Alto, California, where DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT did research work in Summer of 1947, set forth.

- RUC -

DETAILS:

Information set forth below was furnished to SAs PERRY W. WOOTHART and JOHN P. McHUGH on February 28, 1964, by Mr. GEORGE D. MITCHELL, Seismologist, Room 565-A Earth Science Building, University of California, Berkeley, California, who resides at 226 Carquinez Avenue, El Cerrito, California.

MITCHELL stated he was not too well acquainted with GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT but knew him in connection with a trip they both made to Yugoslavia in 1957. This trip was sponsored by the International Cooperation Administration of the U. S. State Department and was for the purpose of doing oil consultant work for the Yugoslavian Government.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

At the time he was approached by the Department of State to undertake the aforementioned trip, MITCHELL was a resident of Dallas, Texas, and DE MOHRENSCHILDT was also a resident of that city where he was self-employed as a petroleum engineer.

They actually left for Yugoslavia sometime around the first week of February, 1957, and prior to that time met about four or five times in Dallas discussing prospects for the trip and arrangements for same to be made with the U. S. Department of State. MITCHELL had not known DE MOHRENSCHILDT prior to that time.

When MITCHELL met DE MOHRENSCHILDT initially, he understood that he was divorced, that his wife was a medical doctor, and that they had one child who was ill with some sort of a blood complication. He related that he never met DE MOHRENSCHILDT's wife or child.

MITCHELL, accompanied by his wife and DE MOHRENSCHILDT, as related above, proceeded to Yugoslavia around the first week of February, 1957. When they left New York City, MITCHELL understood that a girl to whom DE MOHRENSCHILDT was engaged saw him off at the airport; however, neither he nor his wife met this individual nor did he learn her name.

En route to Yugoslavia the MITCHELLs and DE MOHRENSCHILDT stopped over briefly in Paris, and DE MOHRENSCHILDT left MITCHELL and his wife, explaining he was going to meet some cousins of his residing in Paris. MITCHELL indicated he did not learn the names of these persons nor did he meet them.

As arranged with the U. S. Department of State both MITCHELL and DE MOHRENSCHILDT proceeded to Yugoslavia on an eight-month contract. Following the completion of this contract, DE MOHRENSCHILDT returned to the United States while MITCHELL and his wife remained in Yugoslavia for an extra three months.

MITCHELL explained that while he and DE MOHRENSCHILDT were in Yugoslavia, they did not have extensive contact with each other because DE MOHRENSCHILDT went to the places where actual oil drilling was taking place, while MITCHELL stayed in Belgrade with the Government officials responsible for the oil consulting work. MITCHELL stated, in addition staying in Belgrade, he also spent some time in Zagreb and Tulsa, Yugoslavia.

MITCHELL estimates that during the entire period they were in Yugoslavia together, he saw DE MOHRENSCHILDT approximately six times, three or four times in Belgrade, once on the Dalmatian Coast, and about one time in Zagreb. These meetings were brief and dealt principally with the work they were doing for the Yugoslavian Government.

MITCHELL related that during the time he and DE MOHRENSCHILDT were in Yugoslavia, neither of them made any side trips or traveled to other parts of Europe.

MITCHELL stated that he was not subjected to any political indoctrination by the officials of the Yugoslavian Government, and he assures that DE MOHRENSCHILDT likewise was not pressured in this regard. He did state that the Government of Yugoslavia asked him to remain on permanently as an oil consultant which he declined to do. He recalled that DE MOHRENSCHILDT was not asked to remain as there seemed to be some dissatisfaction with his work on the part of the Yugoslavian officials.

MITCHELL stated that following his return to the United States he saw DE MOHRENSCHILDT only once when he ran into him for a few minutes in Dallas. He related he has not seen him and has not had any contact with him since 1958, the date of the above-mentioned casual meeting.

Continuing, MITCHELL stated he did learn from a mutual friend, name unrecalled, that following his return to the United States DE MOHRENSCHILDT had married, and MITCHELL assumes he married the girl who saw him off at the New York Airport. Following the marriage MITCHELL heard that DE MOHRENSCHILDT and his bride had gone on a hiking trip in Mexico.

During their brief acquaintanceship and through general conversation, MITCHELL learned that DE MOHRENSCHILDT was born in Southern Russia; his father was Swedish and his mother was Russian. DE MOHRENSCHILDT talked as though both his parents were deceased. DE MOHRENSCHILDT received his education in Germany, Mitchell believes, but he did not recall where.

As previously noted, at the time MITCHELL first met DE MOHRENSCHILDT, the latter was self-employed in Dallas. MITCHELL knows little regarding his previous employment except he believes that DE MOHRENSCHILDT mentioned he had done foreign consulting work in the petroleum field and mentioned either he had worked in Africa or was interested in working in this field in Africa. In addition, DE MOHRENSCHILDT mentioned he had spent time in Bled, Yugoslavia, prior to travels there with MITCHELL in 1957, but he did not specify when he was there or what he was doing there.

MITCHELL stated that at the present time he can recall no acquaintances or associates of DE MOHRENSCHILDT.

During the brief period of time he knew DE MOHRENSCHILDT, MITCHELL learned very little regarding his financial background but related that money did not seem to worry DE MOHRENSCHILDT. This was not because he had a considerable sum of money but rather he was a "Bohemian type" who seemed able to get along without money. He recalled that DE MOHRENSCHILDT liked the outdoor life and liked to travel.

In summary, MITCHELL stated that his association with DE MOHRENSCHILDT was casual and brief, explaining his wife and he did not find DE MOHRENSCHILDT the type of person to be congenial with because he was an individual who seemed to lack roots and seemed to have a lack of responsibility in his personal life.

MITCHELL could not recall ever discussing politics with DE MOHRENSCHILDT during the period he knew him but related that, if they did have such discussions, DE MOHRENSCHILDT had no political views of an unusual nature which he could recall at this time.

The following investigation was conducted by SA TROY F. WILDER:

RE: DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT

Records of Hoover Institute on War, Revolution, and Peace (Institute), made available on February 28, 1964, by Mrs. WINIFRED TEAGUE, Clerk, reflect the following information concerning DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT:

In a letter dated October 14, 1946, DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT wrote to the Institute identifying himself as Managing Editor of the "Russian Review" at Dartmouth College and expressed an interest in a possible Rockefeller Fellowship in Slavic studies. The Institute received another letter dated February 22, 1947, from DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT stating that he hoped to do research for a "Handbook on Russian Social and Political Thought."

DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT was awarded a Fellowship for Slavic Studies in the amount of $900 to cover a period from June 16 to September 15, 1947, when he would do research at the Institute.

Background information furnished in his letter dated February 22, 1947, is as follows:

He was born in Russia 1902; arrived in America 1920; naturalized 1926. He received a Ph.D from Columbia University, 1936; was the Founder and Editor of the "Russian Review" since 1941. He has been a visiting lecturer in Russian Civilization at Dartmouth; conductor or Editorial Research for "Life" and "Fortune" magazines since 1943; a Director of Tolstoy Foundation, Inc.; engaged in independent writing and lecturing and free lance editorial and research work for New York publications (not named) from 1931-1941; married with one step-son. Publications by him he listed as follows:

Book entitled "Russia In Intellectual Life of 18th Century France"; several articles in magazines; and three historical articles in the Encyclopedia Slavonica (the articles not further identified).

References he listed as follows:

Professor HERBERT E. WEST, Chairman of Department of Comparative Literature, Dartmouth, who, in letter dated April 6, 1947, highly recommended DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT stating he was a man of aristocratic background who fled Russia because of the 1917 Revolution;

Professor ARTHUR T. COLEMAN, Columbia University, Slavic and Eastern European Languages, in a letter dated April 2, 1947, recommended DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT as a first-class scholar;

Professor ERNEST HUNTER WRIGHT, Columbia University, Department of English, in letter dated March 31, 1947, recommended DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT highly and commented that DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT did Graduate work at Yale.

On June 7, 1949, the Belgian American Educational Foundation, Inc., 420 Lexington Avenue, New York, made inquiry of the Institute concerning DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT, saying that DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT planned to be in Europe in the Spring and Summer of 1950 and wanted to give lectures in English on Russia and the Soviet Union. The Institute replied in a letter dated June 14, 1949, stating that DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT did research at the Institute two summers. "As a Slavic Fellow he did not break any records either in his research or participation in Seminars." The letter stated that while DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT was thought to be competent in his field, he was not outstanding. (The file did not reflect any other information indicating that DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT spent other than the Summer of 1947 at the Institute.)

In a letter to the Institute dated November 23, 1951, DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT commented that research done in the Hoover Institute, Summer, 1947, had greatly benefited his work and that his book he was now in the process of writing was entitled "Major Currents on Russian Social and Political Thought, 1800-1917." He expected his book to be finished in 1953.

Mrs. TEAGUE stated that DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT did research at the Institute only in the Summer of 1947 for three months; she thought, however, he had possibly visited the Institute on occasion since then.

San Francisco T-1 advised on February 28, 1964, that he is personally acquainted with DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT. He said that in the Summer of 1947, when DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT was doing research in Slavic Studies at the Hoover Institute, DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT resided with him in Los Altos, California, which is located near Stanford. SF T-1 stated that DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT is a former Czarist Naval Officer and is completely reliable and strongly anti-Communist. He said he fled the Soviet Union when the Communist Revolution took place in 1917. SF T-1 added that he sees DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT every two or three years when they attend the American Historial Association Convention which is held in various cities in the United States.

SF T-1 had some communications concerning DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT, noting that DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT had communicated with him in May of 1962, stating he was making a trip to California by car, that he was driving to Los Angeles, California, and then to Stanford University where he would see T-1. This communication reflects that DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT would visit with a Dr. JUDITH TYBERG, 1162 North Street, Andrews Place, East West Center, Los Angeles. The letter also reflects that DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT could be reached for a short period in June of 1962, in care of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. DUNCAN, Crescent Wood Ranch, Sedona, Arizona.

While in this area DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT stated he would be staying at the Bayside Motel, 2011 Bayshore Blvd., San Francisco, and could also be reached c/o Dr. HARIDAS CHAUDHURI, 3494 21st Street, San Francisco.

SF T-1 noted that DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT visited with him for only a short time one day in 1962, and he learned from him at that time that he had given up his position as Editor of the "Russian Review" and was then devoting time to research concerning India. He was at that time traveling with an Indian student, who was not further identified.

There was no record of DMITRI S. von MOHRENSCHILDT in the files of the Palo Alto Credit Bureau or in the files of the Palo Alto or Los Altos Police Departments.

Reference is made to DL airtel 2-19-64 reporting a contact with William A. McKenzie, who has been retained as Marina and Robert Oswald's attorney.

In the airtel there is a statement "He further related that he was not going to be in receipt of any information which dealt with facts surrounding the President of the United States or anything connected thereto."

On 3-3-64 I asked SAC Shanklin to clarify this statement and he advised that we should add the following phrase at the end of the sentence: "without making it available to the FBI."

SAC Shanklin stated that this phrase had been inadvertently omitted.

UPI-231

(OSWALD)

HOUSTON--LEE HARVEY OSWALD PLOTTED TO KILL FORMER VICE PRESIDENT RICHARD M. NIXON, THE HOUSTON POST TONIGHT SAID IT HAD LEARNED FROM AN ASSOCIATE OF OSWALD'S WIDOW.

POST REPORTER JIM GRISWELL QUOTED JAMES MARTIN OF DALLAS, WHO WAS MRS. MARINA OSWALD'S BUSINESS REPRESENTATIVE UNTIL A FEW DAYS AGO. THE STORY SAID THE PLOT AGAINST NIXON WAS OUTLINED TO THE WARREN COMMISSION INVESTIGATING THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY.

NIXON WAS IN DALLAS THE DAY THE LATE PRESIDENT WAS KILLED.

MARTIN WOULD NOT TELL THE POST HOW HE LEARNED OF OSWALD'S INTENT TO KILL NIXON.

"IT'S PART OF THE TESTIMONY," HE SAID. "I CAN'T COMMENT ON IT."

OSWALD ALSO HAS BEEN IMPLICATED IN AN ATTEMPT UPON THE LIFE OF FORMER MAJ. GEN. EDWIN A. WALKER LAST APRIL IN DALLAS.

MARTIN IS SCHEDULED TO TESTIFY BEFORE THE WARREN COMMISSION THURSDAY IN WASHINGTON.

Oswald

I am sick and tired of the organized letter-writing emanating from the ultra right that repeats the lie that Lee Harvey Oswald was a Communist.

Point 1, Oswald stated that he was not a member of the Communist Party but was a Marxist.

Point 2, the American Communist Party has stated he was not a member. Though I know most of these letter writers wouldn't believe any statement from the Communist Party, perhaps they would believe the FBI, which has stated it found no connection between Oswald and the Communist Party.

Point 3, FBI Dallas informer William Lowery, who spied for the FBI in the Communist Party for 18 years, has said he did not know Oswald and had never heard of him.

Point 4, Oswald had an American passport, which he got in one day's time, and then went to Mexico City to try for visas from both the Cuban and Russian embassies. After being refused by both countries, he returned to Dallas and on Nov. 22 Kennedy was assassinated. Perhaps most people are unaware that the McCarran Act makes it a crime for a Communist even to apply for a passport. Elizabeth Gurley Flynn and Herbert Aptheker, Communist leaders, are fighting in the courts now to get back their passports. Now if Oswald was a Communist, how was it so easy for him to get a passport?

Point 5, Oswald was not even a Marxist. A Marxist is supposed to be a person who is something of an expert on the writings of Marx. I doubt if Oswald had read anything other than "Das Capital." He was a 23-year-old kid who wasn't dry behind the ears politically. The New York Times, Nov. 27, published an interesting interview with a number of experts on Marxism, including Dr. Sidney Hook and Norman Thomas. All of these experts agreed that Oswald was not a Marxist, even if he had said he was. After all, there are people who go around saying they are Napoleon! I would be glad to make copies of this article available to anyone interested, but it was amongst the "subversive" literature seized in the raid on our home.

Point 6, as one reporter pointed out to me, with more than 500 reporters digging into Oswald's past, they can find no political activity except his passing out Fair Play for Cuba leaflets in New Orleans and his trip to the Soviet Union and his being brought back to this country with his way paid by the U.S. government.

No wonder many people suspect, his mother amongst them, that Lee Oswald was an informer for the FBI or perhaps had been recruited by the CIA to be sent to Russia as an agent. This would explain Justice Warren's cryptic remark that maybe not in our lifetime would the truth be known because of national security.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA ~~IS-R-CUBA~~. ALSO KNOWN AS. INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

MARINA OSWALD WAS INTERVIEWED AGAIN TODAY AND SHE ADVISED AS FOLLOWS.

TO HER KNOWLEDGE, OSWALD OWNED BUT ONE RIFLE. HE RECEIVED THAT RIFLE BY MAIL. HE OBTAINED THAT RIFLE DURING THE TIME OF THEIR RESIDENCE ON NEELEY STREET. SHE STATED SHE WAS CONFUSED YESTERDAY WHEN SHE ADVISED OSWALD WAS CLEANING HIS RIFLE AT THE NEELEY ADDRESS IN JAN., SIXTY-THREE.

SHE FIRST SAW THIS RIFLE ON A SHELF IN OSWALD-S ROOM ON NEELEY STREET. SHE NOW ESTIMATES THE TIME SHE FIRST SAW IT TO BE NEAR THE END OF MARCH. ABOUT SEVEN TO TEN DAYS AFTER FIRST SEEING THE RIFLE, SHE TOOK THE PICTURE OF OSWALD WITH THE RIFLE AND THE PISTOL AND THE NEWSPAPER. SHE RECALLS SHE TOOK THE PICTURE ON A SUNDAY. FOLLOWING THIS, SHE RECALLS SEEING OSWALD CLEAN THIS RIFLE FOUR OR FIVE TIMES BEFORE THE WALKER SHOOTING AND ABOUT ONCE AFTER THE WALKER SHOOTING AND BEFORE THE OSWALD-S WENT TO NEW ORLEANS. ON ONE OF THESE OCCASIONS, WHEN HE WAS

CLEANING HIS RIFLE BEFORE THE WALKER INCIDENT, HE SAID HE HAD PRACTICED FIRING WITH THE RIFLE. HE DID NOT SAY WHEN HE HAD PRACTICED FIRING. SHE DEDUCED THAT OSWALD MIGHT HAVE PRACTICED FIRING THE RIFLE ON THE OTHER OCCASIONS WHEN SHE SAW HIM CLEANING THE RIFLE. SHE CANNOT HOWEVER, RECALL ANY SPECIFIC INCIDENT CONNECTED WITH THE OTHER TIMES THAT HE WAS CLEANING THE RIFLE, WHICH WOULD INDICATE THAT HE HAD PRACTICED FIRING. IT WAS POSSIBLE FOR HIM TO HAVE PRACTICED AS THIS WAS THE PERIOD DURING WHICH HE ATTENDED NIGHT SCHOOL, AND SHE WOULD NOT HAVE KNOWN IF HE PRACTICED FIRING INSTEAD OF ATTENDING SCHOOL.

AS RELATED YESTERDAY, SHE RECALLS THE ONE SPECIFIC INCIDENT OCCURRING SOMETIME IN MARCH, SIXTY-THREE, SHE BELIEVES, WHEN OSWALD AND SHE TOOK A WALK FROM THE NEELEY ADDRESS, AT WHICH TIME HE HAD THE RIFLE WRAPPED IN A RAINCOAT. HE SAID HE WAS GOING TO PRACTICE FIRING THE RIFLE. SHE SAW HIM TAKE A BUS FROM THE BUS STOP ABOUT THREE BLOCKS FROM THE NEELEY ADDRESS AND ON BECKLEY AVENUE SHE BELIEVES. SHE DOES NOT KNOW EXACTLY WHICH BUS HE TOOK BUT ASSOCIATES THE NAME "LOVE FIELD" WITH THE TRIP BECAUSE SHE KNOWS THAT A BUS MARKED "LOVE FIELD" STOPS AT THAT BUS STOP, AND SHE RECALLS THAT OSWALD HAD TOLD HER HE HAD PRACTICED FIRING THE RIFLE IN A "FIELD". SHE CAN READ THE ENGLISH WORD

"FIELD". HE SUBSEQUENTLY RETURNED TO THE HOUSE ABOUT NINE O'CLOCK THAT NIGHT.

MARINA SAID SHE BELIEVES SHE TOOK THE PHOTOGRAPH OF OSWALD WITH THE RIFLE WITH THE AMERICAN CAMERA. SHE SAID THIS AMERICAN CAMERA HAD A GRAYISH COLOR, SOMEWHAT LIKE ALUMINUM. IT WAS A BOX TYPE CAMERA, ALTHOUGH SHE IS NOT COMPLETELY SURE AS TO WHETHER THERE WAS AN EXTENDING BELLOWS. SHE RECALLS THAT SHE SIGHTED THE CAMERA BY LOOKING INTO A VIEWER AT THE TOP, INDICATING THE CAMERA WAS A REFLEX-TYPE CAMERA. SHE SAID SHE DID NOT KNOW WHERE THIS CAMERA IS.

MARINA ADVISED SHE JOTTED DOWN THE LICENSE NUMBER OF THE AUTOMOBILE USED BY SA JAMES P. HOSTY, JR. ON AN OCCASION WHEN HE CALLED AT THE PAINE RESIDENCE BECAUSE OSWALD HAD TOLD HER TO JOT DOWN THE LICENSE NUMBER OF ANY FBI AGENT WHO CAME TO THE HOUSE IN ORDER THAT HE WOULD KNOW THAT IT WAS A FBI CAR. SHE GAVE THE PIECE OF PAPER ON WHICH SHE HAD WRITTEN THE LICENSE NUMBER TO OSWALD.

MARINA WILL BE INTERVIEWED AGAIN TOMORROW.

San Antonio instructed by teletype 2-28-64 to interview Santana Jimenez for any specific information he may have concerning association between Residenc and subject and information regarding hotel where subject allegedly stayed. We are not setting forth lead for reinterview of Mrs. Lovin inasmuch as Memphis has advised that person possibly identical with Bowen is presently in Nashville and will be interviewed by Memphis. Bowen is individual who sat next to Oswald during bus trip Texas to Mexico City 9/26-27/63.

A news article appeared in the "Washington Post and Times Herald" on the morning of 2/19/64, headlined "Gun Used to Slay JFK is Linked to Walker Case." This article was accompanied by a photograph purportedly showing Lee Harvey Oswald with a gun in a holster at his hip and holding a rifle. The article stated in part that "police ballistics test report" was made public by Chief Jesse Curry and Chief of Detectives M. W. Stevenson which stated points of comparison of the slug that was aimed at Walker match fragmentations of the bullets which took the President's life. The article went on to state "The ballistics report cannot be final or conclusive but generally the comparison points of the slugs were good." The Director noted "Let me have memo re this ballistics rept & what we know about attached photo." (This clipping is attached.)

The Walker bullet was originally recovered by the Dallas Police Department. However, since the bullet fragments from the assassination were obtained by the FBI directly from the Secret Service and we know of no prior "police ballistics test" on these items, the SAC at Dallas was requested to determine the basis for the article.

SAC, Dallas has telephonically advised that he has discussed the matter appearing in the article mentioned above with Chief Curry of the Dallas Police Department and Chief Curry advised that he gave no such information to the paper and neither did Chief of Detectives Stevenson. Chief Curry further advised that the Dallas Police Department had made no "ballistics test" of this material. Chief Curry did advise, however, that George Carter of the "Dallas Times Herald" was told of the FBI Laboratory results which had been furnished to the Police Department concerning the Walker case. Carter inquired of the Chief if they were going to close the Walker case and Chief Curry told Carter they did not intend to go any further. From this, if Chief Curry is reporting the situation correctly to us, it appears that Carter composed the article as printed in the paper.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA.;

For information, it is noted that the FBI Laboratory report covering the examination of the Walker bullet obtained from the Dallas Police Department indicated that the Walker bullet is the same caliber and is the same type of bullet as the bullet evidence recovered in connection with the assassination of President Kennedy. The Walker bullet was fired from a barrel rifled with four lands and grooves, right twist, and Mannlicher-Carcano rifles of the type used in the assassination are among weapons producing such impressions. However, the report further points out that because of extreme mutilation and distortion of the Walker bullet, it was not possible to determine the brand of the ammunition and whether or not the Walker bullet was fired from Oswald's rifle.

With respect to the photograph accompanying the article, the original photograph was reportedly obtained by the Dallas Police Department from the residence of Mrs. Ruth Paine where Oswald's wife had been living in Irving, Texas. A copy of this photograph was included in the initial FBI report to the President's Commission. This same photograph appeared in the "Evening Star" of 2/18/64, and is featured on the cover of the "Life" magazine currently on newsstands. No information has come to the Bureau's attention that this photograph has appeared in previous newspapers or magazines.

Gun Used to Slay JFK Is Linked to Walker Case

DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 18 (AP) The mail-order rifle believed to have killed President Kennedy was the same one used in an attack on former Gen. Edwin Walker, a police ballistics test report indicated today.

The report was made public by Chief Jesse Curry and Chief of Detectives M. W. Stevenson. Stevenson said points of comparison of the slug that was aimed at Walker match fragmentations of the bullets which took the President's life.

"The ballistics report cannot be final or conclusive," Stevenson said, "but generally the comparison points of the slugs were good."

The report, coupled with Marina Oswald's statements to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and later to the Warren Commission, point to her late husband, Lee Harvey Oswald, as not only the slayer of President Kennedy but also as the sniper who tried to gun down Walker.

Walker, a former Army commander, was alone at his Turtle Creek home when a sniper's bullet tore into his residence, skimmed Walker's head and plowed through a wall.

Someone have memo re this ballistics report & what we know about attached photo.

EVEN TODAY MARINA WAS DEVIOUS CONCERNING THE FIRING PRACTICE UNTIL SHE WAS CAUTIONED TO TELL THE WHOLE TRUTH CONCERNING ALL INCIDENTS, EVENTS AND PERSONS CONCERNING WHICH SHE IS QUESTIONED. QUESTIONING WILL CONTINUE TOMORROW PARTICULARLY ON THIS POINT OF THE FIRING PRACTICE.

SHE DID NOT DISCUSS THE WALKER INCIDENT WITH ANYONE AND DOES NOT BELIEVE OSWALD DID. SHE DENIES PRIOR KNOWLEDGE OF OSWALD'S INTENTIONS TO ASSASSINATE WALKER.

THE RIFLE WAS WRAPPED IN NEW ORLEANS BY OSWALD AND EVIDENTLY TRANSPORTED TO DALLAS IN THE PAINE STATION WAGON ALTHOUGH THIS IS SUPPOSITION ON HER PART. SHE FIRST SW THE RIFLE APPROXIMATELY ONE WEEK AFTER RETURN TO DALLAS IN SEPT. LAST. RIFLE WAS WRAPPED IN THE BLANKET. SHE DID NOT SEE IT AGAIN UNTIL SHOWN IT BY THE COMMISSION DURING HER INTERROGATION IN WASHINGTON.

AS FAR AS SHE KNOWS NEITHER OF THE PAINES KNEW OSWALD HAD A RIFLE OR KNEW THE RIFLE WAS IN THE PAINE GARAGE.

MARINA DESCRIBES MRS. PAINE AS TALKATIVE AND A PERSON YOU COULD NOT TELL A SECRET FOR SHE COULD NOT KEEP IT. MARINA KNOWS NOTHING OF THE QUOTE OCT. THENTYTHIRD END QUOTE ENTRY IN MRS. PAINE'S DIARY.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my letters (two) dated February 17, 1964, dealing with entries in a 1963 calendar maintained by Mrs. Ruth Paine and with the revelations of a confidential source concerning the relationship in Washington, D. C., between James Herbert Martin and Marina Oswald.

Marina Oswald was reinterviewed on February 17 and 18, 1964, in Dallas, Texas. She stated that she first knew about Lee Harvey Oswald's trip to Mexico about one week prior to her departure from New Orleans for Dallas in September, 1963. She previously planned to return to Dallas and Oswald planned to return with her; however, he subsequently decided to go to Mexico for the purpose of entering Cuba.

Marina Oswald stated she did not want to go to Cuba but that she would have joined her husband there later if he had sent for her. She said her husband went to Mexico City from New Orleans by bus and returned from Mexico City to Dallas by the same means. She maintained she did not know the routes he traveled.

She said Oswald traveled alone and subsequent to the trip did not refer to any acquaintances made during his trip to Mexico. She said Oswald took between $160 and $180 with him and on his return, had approximately $70. She said Oswald visited both the Soviet and Cuban Embassies in Mexico City but failed to obtain an entry permit to Cuba. She reported that Oswald, on his return to Dallas, was convinced he would be unable to enter Cuba.

Mrs. Oswald admitted being aware of our interest in her husband's trip to Mexico because of previous close questioning on this point. She said she had not told the interviewing Agents about this trip because she did not like the FBI and as she wanted to save something to tell the Commission.

Mrs. Oswald said further that her husband told her after the General Walker incident that he practiced with a rifle in a field. On a night in January, 1963, when they resided at the Neeley Street address, Oswald was cleaning his rifle and when she questioned him concerning this, he told her he had been practicing that day. She recalled an evening in March, 1963, when Oswald walked with her from their residence with the rifle in a raincoat. After a walk of about four blocks, Oswald boarded a Love Field bus and she went on to a nearby store. When Oswald returned about 9 p.m. he told her he had practiced firing the rifle. At that time Mrs. Oswald said she told her husband he would be arrested and he replied to the effect that no one heard him fire the rifle. Mrs. Oswald said that she did not relate to the Commission the facts concerning her husband's rifle practice in March, 1963.

When pressed concerning her statement regarding Oswald's cleaning his rifle in January, 1963, Mrs. Oswald said that to her knowledge Oswald owned but one rifle which he received by mail sometime during their residence on Neeley Street in Dallas. She stated she was confused when she advised that Oswald was cleaning his rifle at the Neeley Street address in January, 1963. She said she first saw the rifle on a shelf in Oswald's room on Neeley Street and she would estimate the time she first saw it to be near the end of March, 1963. About seven to ten days after first seeing the rifle, she took the picture of Oswald with the rifle, the pistol and the newspapers. Mrs. Oswald said she recalled taking the picture on a Sunday. Following this, she recalled seeing Oswald clean this rifle four or five times before the General Walker incident and on about one occasion after the incident and prior to their move to New Orleans. On one of these occasions while cleaning his rifle before the Walker incident Oswald told her he had practiced firing with the rifle. Oswald did not say when this practice occurred. Mrs. Oswald concluded that her husband may have practiced firing the rifle on the other occasions when she saw him cleaning it. She said she could not recall any specific incident connected with the other occasions that he was cleaning the rifle which would have indicated to her that he had practiced firing it. She said it was possible that Oswald may have practiced with the rifle on these occasions as this was the period during which he attended night school and she would not have known if he practiced firing the rifle instead of attending school.

In connection with the specific incident in March, 1963, when she and Oswald walked from the Neeley Street address at which time Oswald had the rifle wrapped in a raincoat, she recalled Oswald telling her that it was his intention to practice with the rifle. She stated that on that occasion she saw him take a bus from the bus stop about three blocks from the Neeley Street address. She believed this bus stop to be on Beckley Avenue. She said she did not know exactly which bus Oswald boarded but that she associated the name "Love Field" with the trip because she knows that a bus marked "Love Field" stops at the bus stop in question and she recalled that Oswald told her he practiced firing the rifle in a "field." She stated further that she can read the English word "field."

Mrs. Oswald said that she had never discussed with anyone the General Walker incident and she expressed the belief that her husband never discussed the incident with anyone other than herself. She denied prior knowledge of Oswald's intention to assassinate General Walker.

Concerning the presence of Oswald's rifle in the garage of the Paine residence, Mrs. Oswald said the rifle was wrapped in New Orleans by her husband and was evidently transported to Dallas in Mrs. Paine's station wagon. She emphasized that this is supposition on her part. She claims to have first seen the rifle at the Paine residence approximately a week after returning to the Dallas area in September, 1963. She said the rifle was wrapped in the blanket and that she had not seen it again until it was displayed to her by the Commission during her interrogation in Washington. She maintains that as far as she knows neither Michael Paine nor his wife knew that her husband had a rifle or knew the rifle was in the Paine garage. Mrs. Oswald described Mrs. Ruth Paine as talkative and as a person who could not maintain a confidence. She said that she knew nothing of the notation at the top of the page of Mrs. Paine's calendar for the month of March, 1963.

She said further that two or three days after the General Walker incident she smelled smoke in their residence on Neeley Street whereupon she determined Oswald was in the bathroom burning pages from a loose-leaf notebook which he said contdined his plan to assassinate General Walker. She saw a bus schedule in the notebook and said that Oswald had two photographs in his hand. Upon asking to see them, she determined they were pictures of a house, at which time Oswald identified them as photographs of General Walker's home. She said she does not know which camera Oswald utilized to take these pictures, although she believes it was the American-made camera. She expressed the belief that Oswald developed and printed the photographs himself at his place of employment.

She maintained that Oswald had two cameras, one of Russian manufacture, a photograph of which she identified. She said the other was an American-made box-type camera but not the Stereo Realist, a photograph of which was displayed to her. She maintained she had never seen the Stereo Realist. She said that she could not identify the Minox light meter and that she cannot find any photographic negatives among her effects.

Mrs. Oswald said that she believed she took the photograph of Oswald with the rifle and pistol with her husband's American camera. She said that this camera was grayish in color, something like aluminum and she described it as a box-type camera although she was not completely sure as to whether there was an extended bellows. She recalled that she sighted the camera by looking into a viewer at the top. She maintained that she does not know where this camera is presently located.

Concerning the presence of the license number of the Government automobile utilized by Special Agent James P. Hosty, Jr., which number appeared in Oswald's address book, Mrs. Oswald admitted jotting down the license number of Agent Hosty's automobile on an occasion when he called at the Paine residence. She said she did this because Oswald told her to jot down the license number of any car used by any FBI Agent who came to the house in order that he would know it was an FBI car. She said she gave to Oswald the piece of paper on which she wrote the license number.

During the interview Mrs. Oswald volunteered that she had broken with her manager, James H. Martin, and with her attorney, John M. Thorne, because she believes them to be dishonest with her money. She said that Martin told her shortly after Christmas she had received about $60,000 in donations. She said that early in December, 1963, she was presented a contract for signing which called for Martin to receive fifteen per cent and Thorne ten per cent of all donations and future earnings. She said that Leon Gopadze, Secret Service Agent then on special assignment in Dallas, translated the contract for her and advised her not to sign it. Later, and still in early December, 1963, she said she signed the contract to give Martin fifteen per cent and Thorne ten per cent of future earnings only.

She complained that Martin is delaying giving her the money deposited for her and she believes him dishonest. She said further that Martin professed his love for her daily when she resided in his home. She said that it is her desire to obtain her money, rent a house and then later build a house in Dallas.

Our interview of Marina Oswald is continuing and further details will be furnished to you as received.

Sincerely yours,

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - Cuba

The Director inquired why the teletypes which provided the information contained in the letter to Mr. Rankin, dated 2/19/64, were not routed to him upon receipt.

The first teletype was received in the Domestic Intelligence Division at 7:30 a.m., 2/18, and the second teletype was received in the Bureau at 12:13 a.m. on the morning of 2/19. I have talked with Mr. Sullivan and the facts are these:

We reinterviewed Marina Oswald on 2/17/64 relative to her knowledge of Lee Oswald's trip to Mexico and possible target practice by Oswald with his rifle, bearing in mind she had previously told us she had no knowledge of these items, but had apparently indicated to the President's Commission that she did have knowledge. The results of this interview were received in the Domestic Intelligence Division by teletype at 7:30 a.m. on 2/18. Rather than sending this teletype in to the Director, a letter to Rankin was immediately prepared so that the Director would only have to read the information once.

This letter was sent through on the early afternoon of 2/18. However, on studying the letter, supervisors in the Domestic Intelligence Division noted that Marina Oswald said she had seen Oswald cleaning his rifle in January, 1963, which was prior to the time he purchased the rifle, and thus raised a question whether he had another rifle. The letter was stopped and Dallas was telephonically requested to reinterview Marina and clear this up.

The second teletype, which shows the results of this reinterview on 2/18, was incorporated in the letter to Rankin which was sent through under date of 2/19/64.

As the Director is aware, we do have a system whereby items of importance are sent to the Director's office the first thing each morning. In this instance, believing that the letter to Rankin would reach the Director shortly after the teletype was received, the teletype was not sent in, in order to save the Director from reading the information twice.

I believe the system we have is sound. After I leave at night, incoming teletypes are sent to the night supervisors, who deliver all but the most routine to my office early the next morning. We screen them here and send anything of importance in to the Director before 9 a.m. In this particular instance, the supervisor thought that the letter would be prepared immediately and therefore the teletype was not sent to my office.

Mr. Sullivan and I have discussed this. We recognize the necessity that the Director be advised immediately on matters of importance. Mr. Sullivan has taken this up with his supervisors to insure that there will be no delay and that teletypes which the Director should have reach the Director immediately.

As an incidental matter, the second teletype should have been stamped into the Domestic Intelligence Division on the morning of 2/19, as it was not received in the Bureau until 12:13 a.m. on the morning of 2/19. The time stamp in question at the Domestic Intelligence Division was functioning incorrectly and has now been repaired.

March 2, 1964

BY COURIER SERVICE

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated February 24, 1964, requesting this Bureau to reinterview Mrs. Ruth Paino and to conduct any additional investigation deemed appropriate to determine the exactness of Mrs. Paine's memory regarding her stay with Marina Oswald at a motel in Texas just across the Louisiana line on the night of September 23, 1963.

On February 5, 1964, Mr. Mike Carrier, Rambler Motel, Waskom, Texas, was contacted by an agent of this Bureau in connection with another matter, at which time he advised that he and his brother, Eugene Carrier, operate this motel assisted by Mrs. Eugene Carrier.

Mike Carrier further volunteered that his brother, Eugene Carrier, had read in the newspaper of Mrs. Paine's and Marina Oswald's trip from New Orleans, Louisiana, to Dallas, Texas. In going through registration records, Eugene Carrier then discovered a card in the name of Mrs. Ruth Paine, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas. This card was dated for September 23, 1963, for two persons in Room 10 at the rate of $6 and they were driving a Chevrolet with Texas license NK 4041. The identity of the second person is not recorded on the registration card.

Mike Carrier stated the writing on the registration card is in the handwriting of the motel guest with the exception of the "9-23-63," which is in his handwriting.

Mr. Carrier further stated he is unable to recall Mrs. Ruth Paine or the other guest who occupied Room 10 and that he has discussed this matter with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carrier and they also are unable to recall these particular guests. He stated that all of them have seen photographs of Lee Harvey Oswald, Marina Oswald and Jack Ruby but cannot recall any of them as having been a guest of the motel at any time.

Mr. Carrier made available the above-described registration card and requested that it be returned to him when no longer needed. A copy will be furnished to you.

The following description of the Rambler Motel is based on the observations of a representative of this Bureau. The motel is several years old and is located on the south side of U. S. Highway 80 in the east end of the business district of Waskom, Texas, approximately three blocks from the Texas-Louisiana state line. It is a one-story brick construction, "L" shaped, with one section running north and south and the other running east from this section. It contains approximately 20 connected units.

On February 28, 1964, Mrs. Ruth Paine was reinterviewed by a representative of this Bureau at which time she was exhibited a picture of the above-mentioned registration card. Mrs. Paine advised this card is in her handwriting and identified the 1963 Texas license number NK 4041 as being her license number. This license number was also observed by a representative of this Bureau on her 1955 Chevrolet four-door station wagon, two-tone green in color, at the time of this interview.

Mrs. Paine described the motel as being located on the south side of the road shortly after leaving the State of Louisiana coming into Texas; however, she did not remember the name of the town nor the name of the motel. She stated Marina Oswald was with her at the time and she believes Marina stayed in the car while she, Mrs. Paine, registered. Mrs. Paine described this motel as a ten to fifteen unit motel "L" shaped in design with one portion running north and south and the other running from the south end of the first portion directly east. She does not remember the color of the motel, but stated she and Marina occupied a room near the middle section which runs east from the south end of the first portion. She stated the entire motel is one story and did not appear to be new. The only parking available is in front of the entrance to the motel rooms.

The above is being furnished for the information of the Commission.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
Department of Justice
Washington, D.C. 20530

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The reports to the Commission by the Federal Bureau of Investigation show that Mrs. Ruth Paine and Mrs. Marina Oswald stayed in a motel in Texas just across the Louisiana line on or about September 23, 1963. In particular, the Report of Special Agent Gemberling dated November 30, 1963, quotes Mrs. Paine as saying that she and Marina Oswald stayed at such a motel the night of September 23, and her calendar bears a notation that she left New Orleans September 23 and arrived in Irving, Texas, on September 24.

Other information contained in various Federal Bureau of Investigation reports raises a question as to the exactness of Mrs. Paine's memory on this point. The precise date upon which these two women spent the night at this motel might assist the Commission in ascertaining the time of certain actions of Lee Harvey Oswald himself.

We would appreciate an effort by the Federal Bureau of Investigation to establish the aforementioned date with exactness by re-interview of Mrs. Ruth Paine to obtain a description of the motel and then an attempt to secure the registration records of the motel in question, or by any other means deemed appropriate by the Bureau.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely

J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel

BURRIS AND CAMPOS CONSIDER ROJAS IS QUOTE A LIAR UNQUOTE WHO ATTEMPTS TO EXPLOIT OTHERS FOR MONEY.

DA SAM BURRIS HAS IN HIS FILES ALL CORRESPONDENCE AND RECORDS PERTAINING TO THIS MATTER AND STATED NO SUCH RECORDS WERE RETAINED BY JACOB FLOYD, SR., NOR BY FLOYD'S ASSOCIATES IN LAW FIRM. BURRIS STATED HE WOULD BE PERFECTLY WILLING TO TESTIFY AT ANY TIME CONCERNING THESE MATTERS IF SUCH TESTIMONY WOULD BE HELPFUL AND WOULD GLADLY FURNISH AVAILABLE RECORDS.

IN VIEW OF ABOVE, PROMPTLY REINTERVIEW ROJAS UTILIZING APPROPRIATE MEXICAN AUTHORITIES PINNING HIM DOWN CONCERNING ALL DISCREPANCIES DEVELOPED TO DATE IN THIS MATTER.

NOTE: Rojas, a Mexican citizen in Mexico, has furnished wild allegation that he knew Oswald in company with unidentified Cubans and American named Albert were attempting to smuggle Cuban propaganda material into Mexico and plotted assassination of President Kennedy. Numerous discrepancies in this account have been developed, including alleged trip to Nuevo Laredo where he allegedly met Oswald. Info developed indicating Rojas' trip to Nuevo Laredo paid for by prominent Alice, Texas, attorney Floyd now deceased in connection with investigation for murder of his son by Mexican who fled to Mexico after murder and which resulted in considerable publicity. Rojas was brought to Houston at that time based on letter claiming he had pertinent info. However, he reportedly could furnish no info of interest. Appears Rojas is opportunist who projects self into prominent cases for publicity. Legat, Mexico, awaiting results of above interviews prior to reinterviewing Rojas.

Reairtel with enclosed letterhead memorandum, both dated 2-22-64.

A review of referenced letterhead memorandum indicates following additional investigation warranted with regard to allegation that President Kennedy was not killed by Oswald.

Bufiles disclose following background data regarding Gilberto W. Pelipich Sariol who turned over letter received by his wife to the Miami Office: 109-534, Serial 1862, page 23

Pelipich entered Miami, Florida, 5-23-60 on a B-2 visitor's visa valid to 6-23-60. He possessed a Cuban passport issued 8-17-59 valid to 8-17-64. He overstayed his visa and surrendered himself to the Miami office of INS. He was a bookkeeper in Cuba and worked privately for a former "Major of Navy," Pelayo Balbin. He claimed physical persecution as he was charged with having collaborated with officials of the Batista government.

Pelipich and his wife, Diamelba, should be reinterviewed to determine whether they have knowledge of anyone in Cuba who may know their present address in Miami and/or anyone who would send such a letter to them possibly using the alias of Manuel Gomes.

The writer states the assassin of President Kennedy is a Mexican named "Duglas" indicating that Oswald knew nothing about Kennedy's death. He further predicts the deaths of Panamanian President Roberto Chiari and Mexican President Adolfo Lopez Mateos during February or March, 1964. Information concerning threat to Presidents of Panama and Mexico separately furnished Bureau under caption "Threat Against Presidents of Panama and Mexico" and has been handled by Nationalities Intelligence. Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - R

Synopsis: REVEREND FOWLER, Duluth, Minnesota, attended an anti-communist meeting at Shreveport, Louisiana, 2/17 to 2/21/64 and learned from some of those in attendance, which included General EDWIN WALKER and Dr. FERNANDO PENABAZ, that LEE HARVEY OSWALD shot at and deliberately missed General WALKER and that the assassination of President KENNEDY arose from an agreement between President KENNEDY and Premier KHRUSHCHEV, involving the elimination of FIDEL CASTRO. CASTRO reportedly learned of this agreement and made his own plans for the elimination of President KENNEDY. OSWALD reportedly made a trip to Mexico prior to President KENNEDY's assassination and returned to the United States with $10,000.00 and the assignment of shooting President KENNEDY. OSWALD was later shot by JACK RUBY because he did not follow the escape plan after the shooting of President KENNEDY and to prevent him from revealing the assassination plot. REVEREND FOWLER was also told that OSWALD and RUBY were two of six members of a communist cell active in Dallas, Texas.

-RUC-

DETAILS: AT DULUTH, MINNESOTA

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On February 23, 1964, Special Agent MALFORD O. EID learned that Reverend FREDERICK CURTIS FOWLER, Presbyterian Church, Duluth, Minnesota, during a speech at his church on the same date had played a tape recording of a debate between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and CARLOS BRINGUIERE at New Orleans, Louisiana, regarding the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

--- See appendix page for characterization of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

During this speech, Reverend FOWLER stated LEE HARVEY OSWALD shot at and deliberately missed General EDWIN WALKER and that the assassination of President KENNEDY arose from an agreement between President KENNEDY and Premier KHRUSHCHEV involving the elimination of FIDEL CASTRO. Reverend FOWLER also made the statement that LEE OSWALD had made a trip to Mexico before President KENNEDY's assassination and had returned to the United States with $10,000 and the job of assassinating President KENNEDY. Reverend FOWLER said after the shooting of President KENNEDY, OSWALD did not follow the escape plan and because of this and to prevent him from revealing the assassination plot, he was shot by JACK RUBY.

On February 26, 1964, Reverend FOWLER advised Special Agent MALFORD O. EID as follows:

The tape recording of a debate between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and CARLOS BRINGUIERE, which he played during his speech on February 23, 1964, had been obtained by him from the Christian Crusade, Tulsa, Oklahoma. The moderator of the tape recorded debate was BILLY JAMES HARGIS, Publisher of the "Weekly Crusader" Tulsa, Oklahoma. Reverend FOWLER stated HARGIS was not the origin moderator. HARGIS' voice has been dubbed in to replace the original moderator, whose identity is not known to Reverend FOWLER.

Reverend FOWLER related that he attended an Anti-Communist Faculty Meeting in Shreveport, Louisiana from February 17-21, 1964. Representatives from twenty-five states attended, among these were General EDWIN WALKER, BILLY JAMES HARGIS and Dr. FERNANDO PENABAZ, a newspaper reporter for the "Fort Lauderdal News", Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

One night during this four day meeting, these individuals and Reverend FOWLER spent several hours in General WALKER's room discussing various matters, which included the assassination of President KENNEDY. During this discussion, General WALKER stated LEE OSWALD had shot at him and deliberately missed as part of a prearranged plan by the Communists. He stated the Communists felt that if he, WALKER, a conservative, were also shot at, this would make his shooting and that of President KENNEDY appear as the work of a crank. Reverend FOWLER stated Dr. PENABAZ was in complete agreement with General WALKER's theory in this regard.

Reverend FOWLER stated that during the four day meeting in Shreveport, Louisiana, he had been told by Dr. PENABAZ that the assassination of President KENNEDY arose from an agreement between President KENNEDY and Premier KHRUSHCHEV for the elimination of FIDEL CASTRO with the provision that Cuba would remain Communistic. CASTRO reportedly learned of this agreement and then made his own plans for the elimination of President KENNEDY. Reverend FOWLER stated Dr. PENABAZ also informed him that LEE OSWALD went to Cuba before the shooting of President KENNEDY and returned to the United States with $10,000 and the assignment of shooting President KENNEDY.

Reverend FOWLER stated information pertaining to the agreement between Premier KHRUSHCHEV and President KENNEDY and LEE OSWALD's trip to Cuba and his return to the United States with $10,000 has appeared in an article in "National Review", a publication out of New York City. Reverend FOWLER stated the "National Review" article indicated that a "New York Times" reporter had obtained, from a very good source, the story about OSWALD's trip to Mexico and his subsequent return to the United States with $10,000. The reporter reportedly had called the story in to the "New York Times" and it was prepared for publication but was then mysteriously withheld and was never published. Reverend FOWLER stated he did not learn the reason for the withholding of this article.

Reverend FOWLER stated that OSWALD, on his return from Cuba, was accompanied by one QUENTIN PINO, a Cuban or Mexican who now resides in Texas, who was to take OSWALD to Cuba after the assassination.

After shooting President KENNEDY, OSWALD was to follow an escape plan which called for him to wear a jacket of a particular color and after the shooting he was to take a taxicab to a location near the home of JACK RUBY. Then while walking toward RUBY's home he was to be picked up by a representative of PINO and then be taken to Cuba. Reverend FOWLER stated he had been informed by Dr. PENABAZ that OSWALD did not wear a jacket of the prescribed color and therefore was not picked up by Pino's representative. OSWALD then panicked and when stopped by a policeman he shot the policeman and thereafter, JACK RUBY killed OSWALD for not following the escape plan and to prevent him from revealing the assassination plot.

Reverend FOWLER also stated the garage mechanic who furnished information regarding OSWALD entering the Dallas, Texas, theater after the assassination has since been mysteriously killed.

Reverend FOWLER stated that Dr. PENABAZ informed him he had received his information regarding the agreement between Premier KHRUSHCHEV and President KENNEDY, CASTRO's reaction and the trip by LEE OSWALD to Mexico and Cuba, and his subsequent return to the United States with $10,000 in the company of QUENTIN PINO from one of his good friends in Cuba.

Reverend FOWLER stated that during conversations in General WALKER's room in Shreveport, Louisiana, General WALKER informed the group that LEE OSWALD and JACK RUBY were two of six members of a Communist Cell which was active in Dallas, Texas, at the time of President KENNEDY's assassination. Reverend FOWLER stated he was unable to recall definitely if QUENTIN PINO was also named as one of the six members.

APPENDIX

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening In Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. Charles A. Santos-Buch identified himself and Robert Taber as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and Taber obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence is negligible.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Broadway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the Fall of 1962 and was filled by Vincent "Ted" Lee, who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed Lee has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations including the CP and the SWP when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, Lee has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. Lee feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

The CP and the SWP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Date February 24, 196

Mr. HAROLD E. MC DERMID, Attorney, 123 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised that on November 23, 1963, he placed a phone call from his residence, 727 East 60th Street, Chicago, Illinois, person to person, to LEE HARVEY OSWALD, then being held at the Dallas City Jail, Dallas, Texas. He stated this call was placed in an effort on his part to offer his services as a defense attorney for OSWALD. He advised he had done considerable research in connection with another case into legal psychiatry and psychiatric terminology. He stated that when he saw a television news clip on November 23, 1963, on which OSWALD, then in custody, made reference to the fact that he had no counsel, MC DERMID decided to offer his services.

MC DERMID advised that he was unable to complete his person-to-person call to OSWALD, at which time he made a station-to-station call to the Dallas Police Department. He spoke to a man identifying himself as a Dallas City Police Officer, whose name he could not recall. This individual advised MC DERMID that OSWALD was not available at that moment to receive a telephone call but that MC DERMID's offer to serve as a defense attorney would be furnished to OSWALD. Following this phone call, MC DERMID sent a follow-up telegram addressed to LEE H. OSWALD in care of City Hall, Dallas, Texas. This telegram MC DERMID called in to Western Union on November 23, 1963, from his own residence phone, according to the best of his recollection. He made a copy of the telegram sent to OSWALD and furnished the wording from this copy as follows: "On television you requested counsel. If you have not been able to obtain counsel and desire counsel you may request a conference." This telegram was signed H. MC DERMID, Attorney, and according to his recollection, probably contained his business address, 123 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

MC DERMID advised that since this incident he has made a request of Western Union to furnish him a copy of the above telegram with no success to date. Western Union did, however, confirm to MC DERMID the fact that the above telegram was delivered.

MC DERMID advised that he had not been personally acquainted with OSWALD and knew nothing of this man until November 22, 1963, when he learned that OSWALD was arrested and charged with the assassination of President KENNEDY. MC DERMID advised

Mrs. COLEEN NIEBER, Assistant Medical Record Librarian, Illinois Research Hospital, 840 South Wood, Chicago, Illinois, advised that one ROBERT J. KLONOWSKI had been treated as a patient at this hospital on several occasions as follows:

March 30, 1946 - September 1, 1946
February 18, 1948 - October 22, 1948
November 15, 1948 - November 16, 1948
August 8, 1949 - October 4, 1949
April 21, 1950 - April 22, 1950
December 30, 1952 - February 4, 1953

According to these records, KLONOWSKI was treated under the Orthopedic Department. His residence is shown variously as 7135 Harlem and 4621 Grace, both Chicago, Illinois.

Mrs. NIEBER advised that patients at this hospital have no specific physician and that no actual medical record can be released without the specific written authorization of the patient involved. She added that it was quite likely that most of KLONOWSKI's medical records would have been destroyed due to the number of years since he was last treated here.

Enclosed for each recipient is one copy of a self-explanatory letter directed to Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy, wife of Attorney General, from a Miss Mary C. Regan, 33 Liberty Street, New York, New York.

Bufiles contain no information identifiable with Mary C. Regan based on data available.

The Paul Bethel referred to by Regan is described as a former U. S. diplomat who served in Cuba and who is presently associated with the Citizens Committee for a Free Cuba (CCFC), 1425 G Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. Bufiles reveal Bethel appears to be identical with Paul Duane Bethel, subject of a Bureau Special Inquiry - State Department Public Law 402, 80th Congress (Voice of America) investigation during December, 1949, and January, 1950, which investigation was favorable. (Bufile 123-4198 and WFO file 123-3879)

Paul Duane Bethel is also subject of an AEA - A investigation conducted in 1957 (Bufile 116-433638 and WFO file 123-3879) which investigation was favorable. This investigation disclosed that Bethel entered on duty as a clerk, Department of State, Washington, D. C., 8-22-49. He subsequently served as Foreign Affairs Analyst; Resident Officer, Office of U. S. High Commissioner for Germany; and served in other posts in Bavaria, Germany and Japan for Department of State.

New York airtel 12-4-63 captioned "Fidel Castro Ruz, IS - Cuba," copy to WFO, also sets forth information received during interview with Daniel James, Executive Secretary, CCFC, 1425 G Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., indicating that Paul Bethel, an associate of James with CCFC, is the former press attache at the American Embassy in Havana, Cuba, and was reportedly the source of certain information furnished by James at that time concerning Cuban matters.

Bufiles further disclose that Daniel James, above, was interviewed by Agents of WFO 11-23-63 concerning the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. James advised his files contain no information relating to Lee Harvey Oswald with exception of information furnished by Jose Lanusa, Cuban Student Directorate (CSD), Miami, which relates to Oswald's attempt to infiltrate student anti-Castro group July, last, at New Orleans. Lanusa, when interviewed, stated he had been in contact with Paul Bethel, an officer of CCFC in Washington, D. C., on 11-23-63 at which time he had furnished information concerning a plot by Fidel Castro to assassinate leaders of the U. S. if they planned or engaged in aggression against Cuba.

WFO is instructed to immediately locate and interview Paul Bethel concerning statements allegedly made by him according to Regan. Specifically pin down statements that assassination of President Kennedy was communist plot of Castro or Khrushchev and that he, Bethel, had received information from sources he considers reliable that Jack Ruby has been in Cuba three times since U. S. broke relations with Cuba. Determine exact nature of statements made by Bethel on alleged radio program and basis for statements made. Set out any additional leads necessary to resolve allegations. Submit results in letterhead memorandum form suitable for dissemination to President's Commission and the Attorney General.

New York check indices and advise of any pertinent information regarding Mary C. Regan. Letter of acknowledgment sent Regan by Bureau 3-2-64.

NOTE:

Regan directed letter to Mrs. Robert Kennedy indicating she had heard a Mr. Paul Bethel on the Barry Gray Program, Station WMCA, New York, at which time he indicated that his own personal feeling was that assassination of President Kennedy was plot of communists and he found it strange that in light of so much evidence concerning Oswald's leftist and communist activities that this angle apparently was being played down. He further stated he had received information from sources he considers most reliable and trustworthy that Jack Ruby had been in Cuba three times since U. S. broke relations with Cuba, and was willing to pass along his information to anyone interested. Bethel reportedly is associated with a Citizens Committee for a Free Cuba in Washington, D. C., an anti-Castro organization.

The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated February 18, 1964, requesting this Bureau to undertake investigation in an effort to develop full circumstances surrounding the incident involving Marina Oswald and James Herbert Martin.

Our letter of February 20, 1964, set forth results of our interview with Robert Lee Oswald on February 13 and 19, 1964, in this matter; our letter of February 20, 1964, set forth results of our interview with Marina Oswald on February 19, 1964, in this matter; and our letter of February 21, 1964, forwarded to the Commission a memorandum we received from the U. S. Secret Service dated February 19, 1964, setting forth information concerning its protective detail for Mrs. Marina Oswald during her stay in Washington, D. C., when she testified before the Commission.

Enclosed herewith are copies of signed statements we obtained from Marina Oswald, Robert Lee Oswald, Declan P. Ford and Mrs. Declan P. Ford concerning the relationship between Mrs. Marina Oswald and James Herbert Martin.

For your added information, Mrs. Vada Oswald, wife of Robert Lee Oswald, has informed this Bureau that Marina Oswald told her that James Herbert Martin had professed his love for her and that she had consented to sexual relations with Martin at the Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C.

after the U. S. Secret Service had ended its protective custody of Marina. According to Mrs. Vada Oswald, Marina Oswald told her that after the U. S. Secret Service vacated its space adjoining Marina Oswald's room at the Willard Hotel, John Thorne and James Martin moved into the room.

Vada Oswald added that she recalls Marina told her that she consented to sexual relations with Martin after he insisted that he loved her and told her he would divorce his wife.

Vada Oswald further stated that on February 11, 1964, Marina Oswald went to Martin's home and was confronted by Mrs. Martin who asked questions of Marina regarding Marina's relationship with Martin. Marina apparently evaded these questions as best she could but after she returned to the Robert Oswald residence, Marina called Mrs. Martin and, after making sure Mr. Martin was listening on the telephone extension, Marina proceeded to relate to Mrs. Martin the details of her relationship with Martin. After this call, Marina indicated to Vada Oswald that she wanted nothing further to do with Martin because she felt he was just after her money. Mrs. Vada Oswald continued that on the night of February 12, 1964, John Thorne came to the Robert Oswald residence with Kathy Ford and thereafter Marina left the Robert Oswald residence and moved to the Ford residence. Vada Oswald stated Marina took such action because she felt she was inconveniencing Robert and Vada Oswald and because she enjoyed talking in Russian to Kathy Ford who speaks Russian.

Vada Oswald further stated that from what Marina told her, Marina had sexual intercourse with Martin only at Washington, D.C. after the U. S. Secret Service ceased its protective custody of her.

For your added information, we also contacted Mr. John M. Thorne on February 19, 1964, in this matter. Thorne stated he became attorney for Marina Oswald and her agent, James Herbert Martin, in early December, 1963, and that a contract dated December 5, 1963, was signed shortly thereafter in the presence of Robert Oswald and at the same time a contract was drawn up between Marina and Robert Oswald. Mr. Thorne advised that on February 2, 1964, Marina Oswald, her daughter June, James Herbert Martin, six Secret Service agents and he, Thorne, traveled to Washington, D. C. All members of the party stayed at the Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C. Thorne and Martin were given separate rooms on the sixth floor and Marina and her child and the Secret Service agents were assigned the "Lincoln Suite" on the third floor.

According to Thorne, the President's Commission discharged the U. S. Secret Service from protecting Marina Oswald on Thursday, February 6, 1964, after Marina completed her testimony before the Commission. Marina, however, requested the Secret Service to remain one additional night and Thorne stated he also requested the U. S. Secret Service to continue to protect Marina. As a result, according to Thorne, the U. S. Secret Service agents stayed through the night of February 6, 1964, and moved out on the afternoon of February 7, 1964. Thorne stated his desire for continued U. S. Secret Service protection for Marina was because he feared interference from newspaper representatives. He stated that Martin had some appointments with newspaper and magazine representatives in Washington, D. C., on Saturday, February 8, 1964, and that Martin, Marina and he returned to Dallas on the afternoon of February 8, 1964.

Mr. Thorne continued that after U. S. Secret Service agents moved out of Marina's suite at the Willard Hotel he and Martin moved into the space that had been occupied by the U. S. Secret Service. When we asked Mr. Thorne if he had any personal knowledge or other information as to the conduct of Marina Oswald and Martin during their visit to Washington, D. C., Mr. Thorne stated he would decline to answer this question on the basis that any information he might have directly or indirectly or personally observed would be privileged He stated that should Marina herself furnish any information as to the relationship between Marina and Martin the privilege would be removed so far as she was concerned but would still extend to Martin whom he considers his client.

Mr. Thorne further stated he had received a letter from Marina Oswald purporting to terminate his services as an attorney. However, he still considers himself as her attorney as well as the attorney for Martin, and he feels Marina Oswaldcannot unilaterally terminate their contract dated December 5, 1963.

During our interview with Mr. Thorne, he also stated he intended to advise Mr. Martin of the probability that Federal Bureau of Investigation agents would attempt to interview him in this matter and that he would advice Mr. Martin not to consent to such interview.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

We also contacted Mr. James Herbert Martin on February 10, 1964, and he declined an interview with us in this matter on the advice of his attorney.

Any additional data developed by this Bureau bearing on the relationship between Marina Oswald and James H. Martin will be immediately forwarded to the Commission.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Enclosures (4)

NOTE: Based upon our dissemination to the Commission that Marina Oswald and James H. Martin had apparently engaged in sexual intercourse during Marina's stay in Washington, D. C., when she appeared before the Commission, Mr. Rankin by letter dated 2-18-64 requested this Bureau conduct certain investigation concerning this incident. Mr. Rankin was particularly interested in determining whether the incident occurred at a time when Marina was under protective custody of the Secret Service; whether she was in fact forcibly subjected to intercourse against her will; when and with whose assistance she decided to dismiss Martin and Thorne and circumstances surrounding her taking up residence with the Fords. We have now resolved each of these points and our letters to the Commission setting forth results of interviews with Robert Lee Oswald, Marina Oswald and the Secret Service report which we furnished to the Commission furnished data we developed on such incident. We are now furnishing signed statements from the principals involved and are setting forth results of our contact with Vada Oswald, confident of Marina in this incident, and our efforts to interview Thorne and Martin regarding the incident. Previous details [illegible] in this matter have been furnished U.S. Secret Service in view of its interest in the incident. A copy of instant letter to Rankin is also being furnished Secret Service by liaison so it will be cognizant of up-to-date developments in our investigation of the incident.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter dated February 17, 1964, advising the Commission regarding the information recently furnished by Robert Oswald through a Bureau confidential source to the effect that Marina Oswald was forcibly made to have intercourse with her business manager, James Herbert Martin, sometime during her recent stay in Washington when she testified before this Commission.

After receiving this information from you, I inquired of the Secret Service as to the period of their protective surveillance, the rooms occupied by Marina Oswald and Mr. Martin during their stay in Washington, and the existence of any notice Secret Service personnel may have had of the situation.

The Secret Service has informed me that during the period of their surveillance James Martin and John Thorne were assigned quarters in the Willard Hotel on a different floor than the one on which Marina Oswald was located, and that its personnel occupied a room which was part of Marina's suite until the early afternoon of Friday, February 7, when at Marina Oswald's request, protective surveillance was discontinued. I am informed also that after the surveillance was discontinued Mr. Thorne transferred from the quarters he had occupied to the bedroom formerly occupied by Secret Service personnel in the suite still occupied by Marina Oswald. It is not yet known with certainty whether Mr. Martin did likewise. If such were the case, however, it is possible that Marina Oswald and Messrs. Thorne and Martin occupied the suite together without surveillance on the night of February 7-8, 1964.

I would appreciate very much if you would have your Bureau undertake an appropriate investigation of the matter in an effort to develop the full circumstances surrounding the referred to incident. In the judgment of the Commission it is important to ascertain: (1) whether the intercourse between Martin and Marina Oswald occurred at a time when she was under the protective surveillance of the Secret Service; (2) whether she was in fact forcibly subjected to intercourse against her will; (3) when and with whose assistance she decided to dismiss James Martin and John Thorne from further association with her business interests; and (4) the circumstances surrounding her taking up residence with the Declan P. Fords.

In pursuing your investigation the Commission respectfully suggests that among the persons interviewed regarding the alleged incident, your Bureau obtain, if practicable, signed statements from: Marina Oswald, James Martin, John Thorne, Robert Oswald and the Declan P. Fords. The statements of the latter three will probably be limited to what, if anything, Marina stated to them about the alleged incident.

Thank you for your continued cooperation in the work of this Commission.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

1. On page 163 of the Report prepared by SA Gemberling dated November 30, 1963, it is stated that the FBI Laboratory has determined that "the rifle, K1, is a 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano Italian military rifle, Model 91/38." On page 39 of the Report prepared by SA Gemberling dated January 22, 1964, it is stated that the Bureau's Confidential Informant DL T-1 has reported that the K1 rifle is "a Model 91 Rifle, 7.35 caliber, 1938 Modification" and that "the description of a 'Mannlicher-Carcano' Rifle is in error." Could you please inform us of the proper designation of the rifle, including its name and caliber, and of the actual caliber, as measured by micrometer.

2. Could you please obtain and send to us originals or (if necessary) photographic copies of all documents relating to the K1 rifle, including the related purchase orders, invoices, shipping documents, bills of lading, shipping records, receipts, sales records, inventory records, etc. of Crescent Firearms, Inc., Fred W. Kupp, North Penn Transfer, Inc., Lifschultz Fast Freight Company, Klein's Sporting Goods, Inc. and United States Post Office. In this connection, we note that photographs of two of these items have been previously furnished to us at pages 15 and 18 of Volume I of your Book of Exhibits. We wonder whether you could furnish us with sharper reproductions, since much of the text on pages 15 and 18 cannot be easily read.

3. On page [illegible] of the Report prepared by SA Gemberling on December 10, 1963, it is stated that on July 5, 1962, Century Arms, Incorporated of St. Albans, Vermont, sent to Aldens of Chicago a shipment of 6.5 mm. Italian carbine rifles, including a rifle bearing the serial number 2776, which had been received by Century Arms from Empire Sporting Goods of Montreal, Quebec, Canada. Could you please obtain and send to us originals or (if necessary) photographic copies of all documents relating to this rifle, including the related purchase orders, invoices, shipping documents, bills of lading, shipping records, receipts, sales records, inventory records, etc. of Empire Sporting Goods, Century Arms, Inc., Aldens, and any other person or firm which owned or handled this rifle.

4. Could you please furnish us with the following data relating to the Kl rifle: (a) weight; (b) length; (c) length of largest component when disassembled; (d) length of time required to (i) disassemble and (ii) reassemble; (e) what tools, if any, are needed to perform these operations; (f) if any tools are needed, whether such tools have been found or were generally available at the Beckley Street rooming house, the Paine garage or the Texas School Book Depository; and (g) how far, in what direction, and at what angle to the Kl rifle an ejected cartridge travels.

5. On page 395 of the Report prepared by SA Gemberling dated November 30, 1963, it is stated that on November 25, 1963, Dial P. Ryder, the service manager of the Irving Sport Shop, located repair tag number 18374, undated, bearing the name "Oswald" as the owner of a gun being repaired and reflecting the work as "drill and tap $4.50" and "bore sight $1.50" which work said Mr. Ryder was done between November 1 and November 14, 1963. On page 65 of the Report prepared by SA Gemberling on December 23, 1963, it is stated that according to Mrs. Edith Whitworth, Oswald came into the Irving Furniture Mart, on November 6, 7, or 8, 1963, in the belief that it was a gun repair shop, and was directed to a gun repair shop approximately a block and a half away. Could you please furnish us with repair tag 18374. Also, could you please furnish us with information relating to the following questions: (a) was the sight on the Kl rifle definitely mounted when Oswald received it, as indicated at page 3 of the Report of SA Shanahan dated December 10, 1963; (b) if it was, is there any evidence that it was subsequently remounted; (c) did any persons with the name "Oswald" other than Lee and Marina Oswald live within the general area served by the Irving Sport Shop at the time in question; (d) if so, have these persons been interviewed to determine if any of them brought a gun into the Irving Sport shop to have a scope mounted; (e) is the Irving Sport Shop within one block and a half of the Irving Furniture Mart; (f) if it is not, how far away is it, and is there any gun repair shop within the immediate area of the Irving Furniture Mart.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, Northeast
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Enclosed for your information are two copies of a self-explanatory communication from our Detroit Office dated February 17, 1964, concerning attorney Mark Lane. Also enclosed are two copies of Lane's defense brief for Oswald which appeared in the December 19, 1963, issue of the "National Guardian."

The Attorney General is being furnished copies of the above Detroit communication, background data on Mark Lane similar to that information previously furnished you by this Bureau as well as the brief appearing in the "National Guardian."

The House Committee on Un-American Activities has stated the "National Guardian" has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia, although the publication denies having any affiliation with the Communist Party.

Sincerely yours,

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are eight copies, and for Dallas one copy, of a LHM indicating that MARK LANE is going to attempt to get an appointment with AG KENNEDY to present the brief he has prepared, as well as other evidence he has developed, concerning the assassination to the AG.

Information in the attached LHM was obtained by SA LAWRENCE M. COOPER, Jr., who attended the speech by LANE. A complete report will be submitted under caption of the OSWALD case and this LHM is submitted since it is not known if the Bureau, the OO and the Dept. are aware of LANE's intention to contact the AG.

It is noted that LANE said a complete copy of the brief has appeared in a previous issue of the "National Guardian," date not specified. The Detroit Office does not have a copy of this issue available, but it is assumed this information has been made available to the Bureau.

Re: Assassination of President John F. Kennedy, 11/22/63, Dallas, Texas

On February 14, 1964, Mark Lane, who described himself as a New York Attorney and the attorney for Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, made a speech at the Central Methodist Church, Woodward and Adams Streets, Detroit, Michigan.

During this speech, Lane said that he had prepared a brief concerning the Oswald case and that in about two weeks he was going to seek to obtain an appointment with United States Attorney General Robert Kennedy in order to present this brief, as well as other evidence he had developed in this matter, to the Attorney General.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Detroit, Mich
Feb 16, 1964

The regular Friday night S.W.P. Forum was cancelled and everyone was invited to go to the central Methodist Church located at Woodward and Adams to hear a lawyer named Mark Lane give a talk about Lee Harvey-Oswald.

The talk was attended by about 250 people. There was several male and female negro's in the crowd.

Mark Lane said that if Oswald was tried at the very beginning before Ruby shot him he would have been acquitted of the killing of Kennedy and he also felt if he had lived and was tried today-he would be acquited. Lane also said that had Oswald lived and been tried he could not have gotten a fair trial any place in the United States as they had him judged guilty before his trial and this was a mockery of our judicial system which says a man is presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond any reasonable doubet by a court of law. Lane then went on to say that he had checked the records and in his opinion Oswald was innocent of killing President Kennedy. He said he checked statements of the doctors who worked trying to save Kennedy and they first stated the fatal shot hit him in the throat and went down. If Oswald shot Kennedy it would have had to be in the back of the neck as the caravan was beyond the depository building. A few days later after the F.B.I. talked to the doctors, they changed their story that the fatal shot entered through the back of the skull. The next false-hood that a taxi driver picked up Oswald and the Dallas Police Dept gave his name which I forget. Lane said upon checking with the taxi company they never had anybody work for them by the name given. Lane then went on to say that the police said it was a german rifle that killed Kennedy but changed it to an italian one like Oswalds. Lane also said he checked with the manufacturer of the rifle and he said the rifle could not have done the job. He also said that the F.B.I. knew all about Oswalds past and he should have been picked up as a security risk. Instead on the day of the killing the F.B.I. was busy following and harassing the people in Dallas who believed in school intergration. Lane said it was also proved that the chicken bones found up on the sixth floor were two days old and not as the police first said he ate the chicken while waiting to kill the president. The police said when Oswald was picked up in the show he was terribly nervous and that he tried to kill a policeman with a pistol he had but it misfired and the firing pin left a mark on the bullet. After bullestics checked the bullet and found it didn't have any marks on it the police chief didn't refute his statement butsaid so it had no marks on it and passed it off. As to Oswald being so nervous in the show this was also a falsehood and he explained why. He said after the shooting a policeman ran into the bldg and while Oswald was drinking a pop put his gun in his ribs and Oswalds boss said that he told the policeman that Oswald worked for him and that Oswald was not nervous at the time but was extremely calm. Lane also said that after the first shot which one police office thought came from up a hill and from a different direction the police officer chased two people but nothing more was said about it. Lane also implied that there seemed to be a conspiracy between the Dallas Police and Jack Ruby to do away with Oswald. Lane said because of the importance of the case extreme care should have been taken for Oswald's safety instead of putting him on display for anyone to kill him. Lane said he was going to go around the country informing people of what had happened and not what they had read in the papers after everything was brain washed and then put in the paper.

In letterhead memorandum dated February 26, 1964, at Washington, D. C., and captioned as above, there is set forth information obtained from WF T-1, a confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past, on February 25, 1964, concerning the stay of Marina Oswald at the Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C., during the period when she testified before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy. It will be recalled that a Mr. Jim Martin, described as her business manager, and a Mr. John M. Thorne, described as her lawyer, accompanied Marina Oswald during her stay at the hotel.

WF T-1 advised on February 26, 1964, that he had subsequently determined that a Willard Hotel employee, Frank Creagen, observed Marina Oswald and child, Mr. Martin and another man depart from the Willard Hotel with luggage about 3:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 8, 1964.

WF T-1 also advised on February 26, 1964, that he has now determined that the bill covering Marina Oswald's stay at the Willard Hotel included the night of February 7, 1964, but that she was not charged for the night of February 8, 1964.

The third entry set out is "Box 437, Crowell, Texas, 684-3271." The entry in the address book is actually "Box 473, Crowell, Texas, 684-3271."

The Bureau's attention is called to page 201 of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 1/7/64 wherein it is reflected that telephone No. 684-3271 at Crowell, Texas, is listed to Mrs. J. S. On February 25, 1964, WF T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following additional information concerning Mrs. Marina Oswald, wife of accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald; and her party, who stayed at the Willard Hotel, Pennsylvania Avenue and 14th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., during the recent period when she testified before the Presidential Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy.

WF T-1 advised that he had previously reported on February 19, 1964, that Registration No. E4246, in the name of Tom Kelley, Secret Service, was arranged for Marina Oswald for Rooms 301-302 of the Abraham Lincoln Suite, and that a date stamp disclosed she registered at 9:23 a.m. on February 2, 1964. A date stamp also revealed her departure from the hotel as being 9:41 a.m. on February 9, 1964.

WF T-1 advised that he had previously reported on February 19, 1964, that Registration No. E4310, in the name of Jim Martin, and Registration No. E4311, in the name of John M. Thorne, revealed their time of departure from the hotel was stamped 2:02 p.m. on February 9, 1964.

On February 25, 1964, WF T-1 stated that in most cases the departure date stamp is placed on a guest's registration card at the time he settles his account and actually departs from the hotel. He said that the departure stamp is normally interpreted in this respect as an indication of the actual departure time of an individual.

INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

WF T-1 stated that in some cases when a guest pays his bill prior to checking out, but does not depart the hotel with baggage at that moment, the registration card is not stamped with a departure time and date until he is seen departing or the hotel maids' report reflects the room has been vacated. In these latter cases the date stamp would not reflect the actual date and time a guest departed, but would be a day late and would reflect the same date as the hotel maids' report. He explained that in this particular case the departure date stamp would reflect the time of administrative action by the hotel clerk, rather than the actual departure time of the guests.

WF T-1 advised that he ascertained from the hotel maids' report submitted February 9, 1964, that Rooms 301-2 and 345 were not occupied on the night of February 8, 1964. This report is based only on the maids' observation that no personal items were left and that the beds in those rooms did not appear to be used, thus requiring no maids' services.

WF T-1 advised that he recalled that on Saturday, February 8, 1964, about 10:30 a.m., he talked with Mr. Jim Martin, Mrs. Marina Oswald and her child for about twenty minutes in the Willard Hotel lobby. They inquired about ground transportation to Dulles International Airport and he advised them to take a taxicab from the hotel to 12th and K Streets, N. W., where they could get a bus to Dulles Airport.

WF T-1 said that they did not check out of the hotel after his conversation with them, and he does not know when they actually departed. He said that he contacted the doorman and bellboys who were on duty during the day shift on February 8, 1964, and ascertained from them that although they were all alert concerning the presence of this party in the hotel, none of them actually saw them depart.

WF T-1 stated that he observed that Jim Martin signed for the hotel bill on the morning of February 8, 1964, but did not check out at that time. WF T-1 said he told the registration clerk at that time that Martin and Oswald were not leaving the hotel then.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

WF T-1 felt that inasmuch as the Oswald party gave no indication of final departure from the hotel, no departure date was stamped on their registration cards at that time.

WF T-1 noted that registration cards for Rooms 301 and 302 were together in the hotel file, separate from the card for Room 345. He conjectured that the clerk may have pulled the card for Rooms 301-2 at the same time and having just received the maids' report of February 9, 1964, reflecting these rooms vacant, stamped departure date on each as 9:41 a.m. February 9, 1964.

WF T-1 stated that the clerk may have inadvertently failed to pull the registration card for Room 345 at the same time as the cards for Rooms 301-302. He said this may account for the difference in the departure time between the occupants of these rooms in the same suite.

WF T-1 advised that the registration records of the Willard Hotel reflect that no one occupied the Abraham Lincoln Suite on February 9, 1964.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my letter dated February 20, 1964, which reported that Mr. Robert L. Oswald, brother of Lee Harvey Oswald, stated he had telephonically contacted Marina Oswald at the Martin home in Dallas, Texas, on the evening of February 8, 1964. Reference is also made to my letter dated February 20, 1964, which enclosed a copy of a February 19, 1964, memorandum setting forth the results of inquiries conducted at Washington, D. C., concerning the residence at the Willard Hotel of Marina Oswald, James Herbert Martin and John M. Thorne. That memorandum reported that, according to a Willard Hotel date stamp, Marina Oswald departed from this hotel at 9:41 a.m. on February 9, 1964.

Enclosed is a memorandum dated February 26, 1964, which contains additional information concerning the date Marina Oswald departed from the Willard Hotel. You will note that although a date stamp on hotel records indicates Marina Oswald, Martin and Thorne departed on February 9, 1964, the hotel maids' report prepared and submitted on February 9, 1964, shows that the quarters assigned to this group were not occupied during the night of February 8, 1964.

It was subsequently ascertained from the source mentioned in the enclosed memorandum that this source learned on the afternoon of February 26, 1964, that a hotel employee observed Marina Oswald and child, accompanied by Martin and

KA ZERMA (possibly "kazarma," meaning "barracks.")

Text (continuation of the Libretto, Act One, Scene One, of the opera):

... as a gloomy shadow, absorbed in his unhappy thoughts. He loves a girl, whose name he does not know and does not want to know, for she cannot become his wife due to her position and wealth. But he still lives in a hope of this unrealizable bliss. When Prince Eletsky tells his friends about his forthcoming marriage and German recognizes in his fiancee the girl he loves, he is overcome with despair. "A silent reproach" of his glance inspires fear for herself in Liza and terror in the countess, her grandmother. (Notation in the left margin: translation of the words "Nemoy ukor" - silent reproach.) And German feels that a meeting with the countess will play a decisive role in his life and sees in her a gloomy personification of his fate. The appearance of the old countess provides a pretext for Tomsky to tell his friends a fantastic story about the countess and three successively winning cards, which were supposedly named to the countess in the days of her youth by the Count St. Germain, a celebrity of those times, who wishes to win her favors. (Notation in the text: translation of the word "yakoby" - supposedly.) The countess reveals them to her husband at first, then to a lover. But a phantom (of the count) warns her:

You will receive a mortal blow,
From the third one, who, ardently and passionately in love,
Will come to extort from you by force
Three cards, three cards, three cards ...

Jokingly, friends suggest to German to try to find out the secret of the countess.

German, shaken by the fact that Liza is to become the wife of another, decides to win Liza's love at any price, even at the cost of his own life.

Scene Two

Liza's friends celebrate at her house her engagement to Prince Eletsky. Agitated by her last meeting with German, Liza tries to suppress her growing love for him. But, remaining alone, she is powerless to restrain her passionate impulse. (The word "impulse" (poryv) is underlined.) German, appearing at this moment, through the force of his passion, compels Liza to listen to his declaration of love. Unexpected entrance of the old countess revives in him the memory of the Tomsky's story about the three cards and German rushes to Liza, to find forgetfulness in his love, the power of which conquers Liza's attempt at resistance.

SECOND ACT

Scene Three

At a ball in the house of a nobleman of Catherine the Great's court; there is dancing and a pastoral play is presented (sentimental scenes about the life of shepherds and shepherdesses) in the style of 18th century. German's friends, conspiring to tease him, remind him all evening about the secret of the old countess and the three cards. This idea is beginning to get hold of German. (Words "tayne" (secret) and "ovladevat" (get hold) are underlined.)

Prince Eletsky, seeing Liza's preoccupation offers her some friendly advice and help, but Liza is completely engrossed in her love. (Notation in the margin on the left of line 3 is a translation of the first word of the line "Knyaz" - Prince.) Seeing German at last, she hands over to him the key from the bedroom of the countess, through which he has to pass into her room, in order to "decide all," their future. But German is already in the power of a fatal idea and sees in this the command of fate - to learn the secret of the countess. (The word "taynu" (secret) is underlined.

THIRD ACT

Scene Four

At night, after the ball, German enters the bedroom of the countess. A portrait of the countessin her youth supports in him a feverish desire to learn the secret, and German hides in the bedroom. The countess enters, surrounded by a flock of maids and companions, who try to anticipate her every thought and wish. The countess, living in the past and despising the present, begins to reminisce about her youth, her life in Paris at the French court, a song from the opera "Gretry" which she sang in the presence of the French King, and on this, she falls asleep. German, who wakes her up by his appearance, begs, implores and adjures her, invoking everything she holds most dear, to disclose to him her secret. Not getting any answer, German starts to threaten her and points his pistol at her. Countess dies. Liza, who has been waiting for German all the time, runs at the noise. Stricken by the death of the countess and believing German her murderer, Liza orders him to leave. German, spiritually devastated by the wreck of his hopes, goes away, leaving Liza alone.

Scene 5

Barracks. (The notation "barracks" is written over the Russian word "Kazarma.") German is on duty. He reads a note from Liza requesting him to come to Kanavka at midnight for explanation. Staggered by his experiences, German tries in vain "to forget and to sleep." In the howling of the wind, under the impression of the funeral of the countess, he hears the funeral dirges; he again sees the scene of the funeral services. He believes he sees the ghost of the countess who finally names to him the long-wished-for three cards, on the condition that he marry Liza.

ACT FOUR

Scene Six

Liza, exhausted by the thought that German is the culprit in the death of the countess, is waiting for him near Kanavka, hoping that he "will come and disperse the suspicion." German, already completely dominated by his insane idea, indifferently tries to calm her and then invites her to run away with him to the gambling house. Liza, listening to his raving, convinced with terror that her suspicions were justified, and, still, out of her love for him, attempts to restrain and save him. But all is in vain. German no longer recognizes her. Liza, certain now of his insanity, throws herself in despair into the Neva river.

Scene Seven

Gambling house. Card players are amusing themselves, before starting their usual "business," and sing a traditional "card-players'" song. German appears unexpectedly and begins to play, to the amazement of everyone. He wins two times in succession, astounding the players with his stakes. Jubilant, he compares life with a game and proclaims as the highest wisdom:

Abandon the struggle,
Grasp the moment of luck.

His challenge to put his entire winnings at stake is accepted by Prince Eletsky who came to avenge Liza. The Queen of Spades taken by German instead of an ace is beaten. He has lost. He sees the old countess in this card, loses his mind and stabs himself. Before dying he regains his sanity and dies with the thought of Liza.

Notation below the text: the words "zakalyvatsya" (to stab oneself) and "zakalyvaetsya" (stabs himself) (repeated twice) are written in ink.

Beautiful Elizabeth Taylor received as a present from her current husband, Eddie Fisher, during their stay in London, a magnificent (superb) Persian cat, named Eros. The cat was acquired for a large sum of money. But the transaction was cancelled quite soon because of the previous owner of the cat, Mrs. Peggy Denton. It turned out that information had reached Mrs. Peggy Denton, who as any respectable Englishwoman does not only breed cats but loves them fanatically, that Eros did not feel himself too well in the Taylor-Fisher household, because he could not stand the irregular way of life of his new owners. Mrs. Denton demanded the return of the cat. On the photo is Elizabeth Taylor without a cat.

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF
PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY
11-22-63
DALLAS, TEXAS

Howard Willens of the President's Commission and Administrative Assistant to J. Lee Rankin called to advise that the "Life" magazine picture of Lee Harvey Oswald holding a rifle has been the subject of comment by James Martin, former manager of Marina Oswald. Martin was fired by her at the suggestion of Robert Oswald.

Willens stated that Martin yesterday stated to either Rankin or one of the members of the staff that a lawyer named Ed Murray of the "Detroit Free Press" indicated that the picture in "Life" magazine came from a leak in the Commission.

Willens asked whether we could talk to Ed Murray and check into this.

Before initiating any inquiries, I asked Willens whether we could tell Murray that the Commission had requested this interview because he obviously would be interested to know why we approached him on this matter. I also told Willens that we ought to be in a position beforehand to indicate to Murray whether this information came from Martin or someone else.

In addition, it was indicated that inasmuch as Willens was merely relaying information which had been furnished to him by Rankin which in turn had been relayed by a member of the staff, a question is always raised in paraphrasing the original story that it may have been changed in its context.

I told Willens that in a matter of such importance as this it would be well to have the exact text of the conversation which took place between the staff member and Mr. Martin so that it could be examined carefully before we ask any questions. I suggested to Willens that perhaps he may wish to discuss this further with Rankin and determine the position which the Commission desires to take and that we would be guided accordingly.

Willens advised me that he would discuss this matter further with Rankin the early part of next week and he would then be in touch with the Bureau. He therefore did not desire any interview at this time and withdrew his request.

ACTION TO BE TAKEN:

We will await further advice from Willens on this matter, and if a request is received to inquire into this matter, we will suggest that such a request be in writing from the Commission.

Dear Mr. McKenzie:

At my request, you are dictating this letter in the presence of myself, your secretary, Miss Joan Connelly, and your partner, Mr. Henry Baer. I have today retained you to represent me as my attorney in connection with my appearance on Thursday, February 20, 1964, before the President's Commission, headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren of the Supreme Court.

You have likewise been employed to represent me as my attorney in any other matters relating to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and the subsequent death of my brother in which I may be involved.

This letter shall constitute your full and unequivocal authority to release, give and tell the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the United States Department of Justice any and all evidence on all matters relating to or which may be uncovered by yourself or told to you by me in connection with the death of President Kennedy and the death of my brother. I hereby grant you full authority to release any and all information whatsoever which I may give you or which may be told to you by me or others or which may be furnished to you in the form of documentary evidence of any nature to the Federal Bureau of Investigation in your full and complete discretion. The purpose of this authorization being to make certain that all the facts which I have are known to the Federal Bureau of Investigation or any other Federal investigative body to which the Federal Bureau of Investigation is authorized to divulge information.

I deem this letter of authorization necessary in order that the truth may be fully developed and further by reason of the attorney-client relationship existing between us. In other words, I give you this full authorization to release any information so that there can be no question of ethics involved in your representation of me as my attorney.

Further, you are authorized to furnish the President of the Dallas Bar Association as well as the Federal Bureau of Investigation a copy of this letter in connection with your employment by me and my desire for the truth to be given to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. McKenzie:

At my request, you are dictating this letter in the presence of myself, my friends, Mr. & Mrs. Declan P. Ford, with whom I am now living at their residence, 14037 Brookcrest Drive, Dallas, Texas, and your secretary, Miss Joan Connelly. I have today retained you to represent me as my attorney in any matters, business or otherwise, relating to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and the subsequent death of my husband in which I may be involved.

This letter shall constitute your full and unequivocal authority to release, give and tell the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the United States Department of Justice any and all evidence on any and all matters relating to or which may be uncovered by yourself or told to you by me or others in connection with the death of President Kennedy and the death of my husband or any other matters or facts involving my husband. Dallas, Texas

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY,
11/22/63, DALLAS, TEXAS

On February 28, 1964, Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 W. 5th Street, Irving, Texas, furnished the following information to SAs Bardwell D. Odum and James P. Hosty:

Sometime in the latter part of January or early part of February, 1964, she received a telephone call from Mrs. Shirley Martin. Mrs. Martin stated she was in Dallas and would like to know if she could come out to talk to Mrs. Ruth Paine about the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Mrs. Paine told her to come on out.

A short time later, Mrs. Martin arrived at Mrs. Paine's residence in Irving with her (Mrs. Martin's) four children, ages 9 through 18, and dog. She spent about two hours at Mrs. Paine's home questioning her about Lee Harvey Oswald and about the assassination of President Kennedy in general. Mrs. Paine told her what she knew about Oswald. Mrs. Martin indicated she was conducting her own investigation of the assassination and had come to Dallas from Hominy, Oklahoma, for this purpose. Mrs. Martin stated that while her husband did not approve of her venture she was not convinced that Lee Harvey Oswald had shot President Kennedy although at the same time she was not convinced he had not killed him.

Mrs. Martin statsd she felt the evidence was not fully incriminating as far as Lee Harvey Oswald was concerned and she wanted to satisfy herself as to the facts. She indicated she had spent most of her time in Dallas retracing the route of Oswald following the shooting of President Kennedy and had timed the alleged escape route of Oswald following the shooting.

Mrs. Martin stated she did not believe the gun photographed at the police department was the same gun which was being held by Oswald in a picture released to the press later. She referred to a photograph taken sometime prior to the assassination showing Oswald holding a rifle.

Since the date of her contact with Mrs. Paine, Mrs. Martin has called on the telephone from her home in Hominy, Oklahoma, many times and has written almost daily letters to Mrs. Paine all along the same line, looking for inconsistencies in the case and seeking to find out why Oswald shot President Kennedy if such was the case.

Mrs. Paine characterized Mrs. Martin as a "bright nut," explaining that Mrs. Martin has an excellent mind up to a certain point but in her opinion reaches certain conclusions, which may be foregone conclusions, in spite of the evidence.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated February 18, 1964, relating to Mrs. Shirley Martin of Hominy, Oklahoma, and our reply to your letter dated February 26, 1964. In our letter of February 26, 1964, you were advised we were making efforts to obtain the original of a photograph appearing on page 25 of the December 14, 1963, issue of "The Saturday Evening Post." In addition, it was pointed out the results of an interview with Mrs. Ruth Paine of Irving, Texas, concerning her knowledge of Mrs. Martin would be furnished.

Enclosed for your assistance are two copies of a self-explanatory communication from our Dallas, Texas, Office dated February 29, 1964, relating to the interview with Mrs. Paine.

On February 27, 1964, Mr. Don A. Schanche, Managing Editor of "The Saturday Evening Post," 666 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, advised he had been contacted by you approximately two weeks previously and at that time furnished you with several various size photographic prints reproduced from the original negative of the photograph in question. In view of the above and in the absence of a specific request from you, no further effort will be made to obtain the original negative from Mr. Schanche.

This concludes our inquiry into the above matters.

NOTE: See Rosen to Belmont memo captioned, "Assassination of President John F. Kennedy, 11/22/63, Dallas, Texas," dated 2/25/64, RDR:vhm, for full details.

Briefly, Commission by letter 2/18/64 advised it had received several communications from Mrs. Martin with whom we have had prior unsatisfactory dealings. Mrs. Martin apparently displayed an interest in Mrs. Paine. The Commission requested background on Mrs. Martin. In addition, we furnished the Commission a photographic copy of page 25 of the Post wherein a figure had been identified by Mrs. Martin as the "assassin." By letter 2/26/64 to the Commission, we advised Mrs. Paine was to be interviewed and that we were endeavoring to obtain the original of the photograph.

Bureau files reveal [Day] has corresponded with the Bureau, has contacted various offices and was once a victim in a Bureau-investigated White Slave Traffic Act case. She is mentally unstable, has admitted having been in the state hospital at St. Louis, Mo., on three occasions, has had several illegitimate children and is an admitted prostitute. This letter was referred to the Bureau by the Department.

Please do something for me I know too much and need to talk with ____ after March 3, 1964 The FBI doesn't want to help and threatens what they will have done like throwing me in a mental Hospt. I met Aswald in Los Angeles Calif May or June I'm sure it was June 14 I went out with him between 15th and 17th June 1963 Now if you don't want to believe me check on it I met him downtown Los Angeles by burleque theater at Hot Dog stand or donut shop I'll tell you more when I speak with you That was my real reason for wanting speak with Bobby Kennedy because if I could speak with ___ he might understand why I'm harrassed by so many supposedly respectable citizens I could only remember he used name of Lee I wasn't believed please believe I'm telling truth as I remember it I do have a photographic memory even though no one believes me. Well for now this all I want to say.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY, 11/22/63, DALLAS, TEXAS

Enclosed are nine copies of a letterhead memorandum concerning an article which appeared in the 11/1/63 issue of "Neues Europa". Also enclosed is a thermofax copy of the article in the German language.

The thermofax copy of the article was furnished to this office on 2/17/64 by GORDON H. JACKSON, JR., 3065 Union Street, San Diego, California, who stated he is a member of the John Birch Society. He said that he was advising the FBI of this article because it appears that considerable effort is being expended to shift the blame for the assassination from the Communists to "right wing extremists".

JACKSON also furnished a translation of the article which is set out in the letterhead memorandum. He said that he could not vouch for the accuracy of the translation.

ASSASSINATION OF
PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY,
NOVEMBER 22, 1963,
DALLAS, TEXAS

GORDON H. JACKSON, JR., 3965 Union Street, San Diego, California, advised on February 17, 1964, that an article appeared in the November 1, 1963, issue of 'Neues Europa', which he described as a West German paper. Mr. JACKSON furnished the following translation of the article, which was written in the German language:

'Coexistence With Deadly Result'

'Assassination Plans Against Khrushchev and Kennedy

'Turning to the American and Soviet Secret Services -- 1964: the opponents of coexistence are getting active in the West and in the East

'Not only Peking is opposing the Moscow Nuclear Test Ban Treaty; in American and Soviet military circles there are also opponents of the Nuclear Test Ban and of East-West coexistence policies. Influential military personalities in the United States have criticized the Moscow Treaty and have altogether rejected coexistence with Communism. From Moscow, Western observers report that in the Soviet Union there also exists a group of high military men who reject peaceful coexistence of Communism and Capitalism and who completely agree with the concepts of Mao Tse Tung.

'1964/65 may bring in the USSR a regular conspiracy against Khrushchev. In Moscow it is expected that Peking will try to activate the conspirators. 'Activate' can, in this case, mean nothing but 'do away with Khrushchev'. Khrushchev, who has very strong backing by the Soviet people, will not resign voluntarily.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY, NOVEMBER 22, 1963, DALLAS, TEXAS

In the USA overtures have been made between dissatisfied military men and financial and economic circles who aspire to a furthering of gigantic defense industry. Certain defense producers finance the propaganda against all efforts of coexistence. Washington is sure that in 1964/65 increased activity from this source must be expected. Any further steps toward coexistence may bring about in the USA conditions similar to those created by the OAS. Bombings and assassinations may indeed hamper coexistence policies. Reports went to President Kennedy, according to which, in southern states traces have been found of a secret organization of dissatisfied Southerners and opponents of East-West coexistence who have allied themselves and are plotting to assassinate President Kennedy.

'In the coming year the American Secret Service will have more than enough to do just to keep the growing number of Kennedy opponents under control. Also, in 1964 Khrushchev will intensify his security program if it is not to be 'efforts of coexistence with deadly result'.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY, 11/22/63, DALLAS, TEXAS

Enclosed for Legat, Bonn are two copies of an LHM dated 2/20/64, relative to information received from a Gordon M. Jackson, Jr. of San Diego, California, by our San Diego Office. The translation of the article appearing in the 11/1/63 issue of "Neues Europa" furnished by Mr. Jackson, has been verified by Bureau translators.

The "Neues Europa" (News Europe) appears to be published by the Publishing House Neues Europa GmbH (Limited Liability Company). No information relative to its place of publication, policy, etc. can be gathered from the Thermofax copy of the article which was furnished the Bureau by the San Diego Office.

In view of the statements appearing in this article particularly that which indicates a plot to assassinate President Kennedy, Legat, Bonn should immediately, through appropriate sources, attempt to ascertain where this newspaper is published and thereafter conduct necessary inquiries in order to determine the basis for such remarks. It should be noted that the article is signed Dr. Soto.

JAMES JOSEPH DELANEY

On the night of March 3, 1964, James J. Delaney, Airman Third Class, Ent Air Force Base, Colorado Springs, Colorado, advised the Denver Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that on the day after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy (November 23, 1963), he had hitchhiked from Colorado Springs to Denver, Colorado. He was picked up by a man driving a 1955 Cadillac with a Texas license. In the back seat was a high-powered rifle with a "scope." The man said he had driven from Dallas and made the statement that he had had no trouble getting out of Dallas. Delaney said that the incident had been bothering him, and he did not know why he had not previously reported it.

James Joseph Delaney was determined to be an Airman Third Class assigned to the 4700 Communications Squadron, Ent Air Force Base, Colorado Springs, Colorado.

On March 4, 1964, James Joseph Delaney was located at the Honey Bucket, a beer bar and restaurant, 504 East Pikes Peak Avenue, and advised that he had been drinking at the Honey Bucket on the night of March 3, 1964, and had been somewhat intoxicated when he decided to put in a telephone call to the Denver Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

He stated that he had been hitchhiking between Denver and Colorado Springs, Colorado, the day after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy (November 23, 1963) and was picked up at Castle Rock about 3:30 p.m. and given a ride to Denver. He said the man who picked him up was driving a 1955 Cadillac white convertible, and he noted the Texas license number as PP-5335. He said that what struck him as unusual about this person was the fact that he casually made a comment to him about what a tragic thing it had been that President Kennedy had been killed. He said the driver of the car merely shrugged and barely made any comment whatsoever; was extremely casual about the matter, and acted unconcerned.

In addition, he said the man said he had traveled straight through from Dallas, Texas, the night of November 22, 1963.

He said he asked the man, "How was it in Dallas?", and the man said something to the effect that it was pretty hectic, but he had no trouble "getting out of Dallas." The man also pointed to a high-powered rifle which bore a telescopic sight and a Monte Carlo stock which was lying on the back seat. He also made the comment that he had a "hell of a time" getting out of town.

Delaney also stated that this individual also told him during the conversation that he had received a "general" type discharge from the Marine Corps. He also mentioned that he would be staying at Denver at the Colorado Hotel and also mentioned that he was employed by the Texaco Company painting service stations.

Delaney described this person as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	25 years
Height	6 feet 3 inches
Weight	190 pounds
Build	Medium
Hair	Brown, somewhat long
Complexion	Tanned
Characteristics	Nice looking; wearing sport shirt, white levis, and cowboy boots.

Delaney said that this individual had a very small dog in the back seat which was brown in color and looked like a Chihuahua.

Delaney said that the reason he had not reported this incident before is because he felt that the assassination case was cleared up with the arrest of Lee Harvey Oswald; however, he said that newspaper and other publicity media had referred to Oswald as the "accused" slayer of the President; and when Delaney was drinking at the Honey Bucket on the night of March 3, 1964, he began to think about the incident that had happened to him on November 23, 1963, and decided to call the information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation Office at Denver. He said he had written the Texas license number on a piece of paper which he had saved until this interview.

Delaney is single and was born January 5, 1944 at Chicago, Illinois. He is assigned to the 4700 Communications Squadron, Ent Air Force Base, Colorado Springs, Colorado, and is a teletype operator and cryptograph operator. His home address is 638 South 18th Avenue, Maywood, Illinois. He lives in the barracks at Ent Air Force Base. He received an interim top secret clearance November 20, 1963.

Mr. Elton Hobbs, Texas Oil Company, 805 West 38th Street, Denver, Colorado, advised on March 5, 1964, that his company does not have on their payroll directly as Texas Company employees any painters. He advised further that all painting of service stations is done by contract with various painting contractors. Mr. Hobbs added that the description of the unknown individual does not suggest anyone to him that is in the employ of the Texas Company in the Denver area.

Mr. Francis Dejmal, Manager, Colorado Hotel, 406 17th Street, Denver, Colorado, advised on March 5, 1964, that his records reflect that several individuals registered in his hotel on the afternoon of November 23, 1963; however, none of these individuals furnished a Texas address and the hotel does not require a record of the vehicles driven by their guests. He advised further that the hotel would turn away any guest with a pet, such as a dog. He continued that he does not recall anyone being a guest in his hotel who answers the description of the unknown individual described above.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

The February 13, 1964, article in "Il Messaggero" indicates that MARGUERITE OSWALD, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, had stated to members of the Commission that she was convinced in her own mind that her son had in the past worked for the CIA and that he had been forced to take the responsibility for the assassination of President Kennedy.

The article in the February 25, 1964, issue of "L'Unita" makes reference to the wounding in Dallas, Texas, a month ago of WARREN REYNOLDS, one of the few persons who witnessed the escape of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the scene of the shooting of Policeman TIPPIT, and also makes reference to the mysterious hanging in her prison cell of BETTY MAC DONALD, fiancee of REYNOLDS and friend of JACK RUBY.

SECONDO UNA DICHIARAZIONE DELLA MADRE

Lee Oswald sarebbe stato agente del servizio segreto

La signora ha dichiarato che il figlio era stato costretto ad assumersi la responsabilità dell'uccisione del Presidente Kennedy

Washington, 12 febbraio

La signora Marguerite Oswald, madre del presunto assassino del Presidente Kennedy, ha dichiarato oggi ai membri della Commissione d'inchiesta Warren di essere convinta che il figlio aveva operato nel passato quale agente del servizio segreto americano e che il 22 novembre scorso era stato costretto ad assumersi la responsabilità della uccisione del Capo dell'Esecutivo. Alla fine della sua deposizione dinanzi alla Commissione, la signora ha parlato ai giornalisti per circa mezz'ora ed ha ribadito la sua certezza nell'innocenza del figlio. «Mi rendo conto — ella ha aggiunto — che in quanto essere umano egli potrebbe essere colpevole, ma le prove specifiche da me raccolte dimostrano il contrario. Sono sicura cioè che il vero assassino di Kennedy è tuttora a piede libero».

La signora ha annunziato che dedicherà tutto il suo tempo alla ricerca del vero responsabile e verrà coadiuvata in questa missione dall'avvocato newyorchese Mark Lane. Si tratta di un legale che condivide i punti di vista di Marguerite Oswald ed ha già pronunziato numerosi discorsi negli Stati Uniti sostenendo la tesi dell'innocenza di Lee Oswald.

Il supremo magistrato Earl Warren ha comunque posto in una diversa prospettiva il contributo dato dalla signora allo svolgimento dell'inchiesta. Egli ha ad esempio notato che Marguerite Oswald non ha prodotto prove concrete dell'arruolamento di suo figlio nella «Central Intelligence Agency». «La signora — ha dichiarato il magistrato — sostiene che le sue informazioni e le lettere scrittele dal figlio la hanno convinta dell'ipotesi — ed io insisto nell'uso di questo termine da lei stessa usato — che egli fosse un agente...». Warren ha aggiunto che la sua deposizione non ha rivelato fatti nuovi, tali cioè da alterare sostanzialmente il quadro della situazione come esso è emerso finora per i membri della Commissione. Sempre secondo il Warren le sue dichiarazioni sono state comunque molto utili: «La signora dice di essere convinta dell'innocenza del figlio — ha concluso il magistrato supremo —, ammette la possibilità teorica che egli sia stato l'autore del crimine, ma insiste sulla tesi che siano stati altri a commetterlo».

Nuovi capitoli del «giallo» Kennedy 105 1242

Impiccata in cella un'amica di Ruby

Un testimone a carico di Oswald misteriosamente ferito diventa muto

DALLAS — Jack Ruby fotografato qualche tempo fa tra due ballerine del suo locale

NEW YORK, 24

Due fatti nuovi, a dir poco sconcertanti, sono venuti ad aggiungere un nuovo capitolo al «giallo» di Dallas, dimostrando fra l'altro che Jack Ruby non doveva essere del tutto nel torto quando proclamava con tracotanza ai giornalisti: «I am above everybody. They cannot move me». («Sono al disopra di tutti. Essi non possono toccarmi»).

L'industriale Warren Reynolds, una delle poche persone che affermarono di aver visto Lee Oswald fuggire dal luogo dove l'agente Tippit giaceva morto, è stato ferito a revolverate circa un mese fa. E' sopravvissuto, ma probabilmente resterà muto per sempre, perché la pallottola che lo ha colpito alla tempia ha leso i centri nervosi che regolano l'uso della parola.

Ma questo non è ancora nulla. Per l'attentato a Reynolds, venè fermato un certo John Garner. John Garner si difende dicendo che, nel momento in cui hanno sparato a Reynolds, lui si trovava con la «fidanzata» Betty Mac Donald. Betty conferma l'alibi. Garner è rilasciato. Chi è Betty? Una delle «ragazze di Ruby», cioè una delle «strip-teaseuses» dell'assassino di Oswald. Gira e rigira, si ritorna così al punto di partenza: a Rubinstein, uno dei personaggi-chiave dell'assassinio di Kennedy...

Passo qualche giorno. Betty Mac Donald, «casualmente» coinvolta in una di quelle risse che di tanto in tanto movimentano la vita nei locali notturni (è così facile provocarle...) viene arrestata e tradotta in carcere. Ancora pochi giorni, e Betty viene trovata morta, impiccata nella sua cella. «Suicidio», è la versione ufficiale.

Lo strano ferimento di Warren Reynolds e la stranissima morte di Betty Mac Donald, in teoria, potrebbero anche non aver nulla a che fare con il «caso» Kennedy-Oswald-Tippit-Ruby. Ogni anno, nel Texas, vengono consumati diecimila delitti, di cui novemila restano impuniti. Nella sola Dallas, sempre ogni anno, avvengono più assassini che in tutta la Gran Bretagna, e ciò si spiega anche col fatto che le armi da fuoco si possono comprare così facilmente come le canne da pesca (lo spiega Jon Brinbridge, nel suo volume «Texas sbalorditivo»). Niente di strano, quindi, se alcuni «amici» di Ruby, più o meno indirettamente coinvolti nell'attentato a Kennedy, o nell'uccisione di Oswald, vengono gravemente feriti o soppressi in una città dove il sangue scorre con tanta frequenza per le strade.

Tuttavia, il nuovo capitolo del «giallo» politico che ebbe inizio con la morte di Kennedy presenta singolari analogie con un'altra faccenda: uno dei migliori amici di Ruby, accusato di tentata corruzione nei confronti dello sceriffo di Dallas, arrestato, condannato, quindi scarcerato e posto in libertà provvisoria, fu poco tempo dopo misteriosamente strangolato. Tutto questo induce alcuni a dire che la cosa peggiore, per Ruby, sarebbe ora un'assoluzione... benché si possa morire anche in carcere, impiccati... In conclusione, sembra assai probabile che il Reynolds e la Mac Donald fossero due bocche, ciascuna nel suo settore di conoscenze, troppo loquaci, e che «qualcuno» abbia voluto chiuderle per sempre. Resta un interrogativo: perché la polizia ha taciuto su questi fatti per oltre un mese? Ma la risposta non sarà poi tanto difficile trovarla, con un po' di pazienza.

A Dallas, frattanto, i difensori di Ruby hanno consegnato al giudice Joe Brown un'eccezione procedurale, secondo cui tutti quelli che hanno assistito all'uccisione di Oswald trasmessa «in diretta» dalla TV non possono giudicare l'imputato. Analoga eccezione è stata presentata alla Corte Suprema del Texas, che — si apprende in serata — ha respinto l'eccezione.

Re Bureau teletype to Dallas 2/27/64.

Referenced teletype reflected that the Bureau had received information that recently WILLIAM A. McKENZIE, Attorney for MARINA OSWALD, was in touch with Mr. RANKIN of the President's Commission and indicated he had information that animosity existed between the FBI and Secret Service in Dallas.

A Letterhead Memorandum is attached which refutes such impression that may have been gained by conversation with McKENZIE. This was in the form of a letter written by McKENZIE to the Dallas Office and is being set forth verbatim. This letter was dictated in the presence of SAs VINCENT E. DRAIN and JOSEPH J. HANLEY.

In an interview with McKENZIE on 2/28/64, McKENZIE stated he wanted to advise the Bureau on a confidential basis certain information for the Bureau's benefit. He stated he did not wish to become involved in any unpleasantness with the Commission and therefore desired that such information not be disseminated outside the Bureau which is being set forth.

McKENZIE related that while at the President's Commission during 2/20, 21, and 22/64, one of the Assistant Legal Counsel to the Commission, BURT JENNER (phonetic), did a great deal of the questioning of ROBERT OSWALD before the Commission. He related that some of the questions by JENNER were calculated to get an answer that JENNER desired. McKENZIE stated that specifically he remembered JENNER asking the question two or three times of ROBERT OSWALD "Did the FBI ever harass you during the course of the interview of you or MARINA OSWALD?" He stated he cannot remember the exact terminology but other questions that were asked were such as "Do you think the various agencies such as the FBI and the Secret Service are doing a good job or if not what do you think is the trouble?" McKENZIE stated these were not the exact phraseologies used in the questions but he did not like the vein in which they were asked.

TEXAS V D.C

On February 21, 1964, while McKENZIE and ROBERT OSWALD were returning from lunch to resume the afternoon session of questioning of ROBERT OSWALD by the Commission, he was approached by a writer from the New York Times and he told this individual he could not answer any questions and the writer said he was waiting on Mr. JENNER and would talk to him. McKENZIE stated he observed JENNER talking with this writer from the New York Times. On the following Saturday, 2/22/64, an article appeared in the New York Times by the same writer who had approached him the day before and who had talked to JENNER to the effect that ROBERT OSWALD had testified to certain facts. McKENZIE stated the facts of this article were erroneous. At the Saturday session, 2/22/64, only one member of the Commission was present and that was Mr. ALLEN DULLES. At this session, JENNER did most of the questioning. McKENZIE related that after seeing the article in the New York Times he told Mr. DULLES on 2/22/64 while the Commission was in session that there was a leak in the Commission. McKENZIE told Mr. DULLES that if information was to be leaked to the press about what his client testified to then he, McKENZIE, would immediately halt the testimony of ROBERT OSWALD. McKENZIE stated that he told DULLES he was fairly certain but could not prove who the person was who leaked the information and further that that person was on the staff of the Commission and at that very moment was sitting in the Commission room. McKENZIE stated that JENNER's face flushed and it was obvious that JENNER became angry although he did not say anything. Mr. DULLES stated he agreed with McKENZIE that if information was being leaked out of the Commission that further testimony should be halted but that he assured Mr. McKENZIE there would be no further leaks from the Commission to the press.

DL 100-10461

On Monday, 2/24/64, McKENZIE related that Mr. LEE RANKIN, counsel for the Commission, called him by long distance telephone and said, "Bill, I understand that you know who is the person on the Commission staff who is leaking information to the press." McKENZIE related he told RANKIN that in his own mind he was satisfied he knew the person who was responsible for the leak to the New York Times but since he could not prove same he did not want to name that person.

McKENZIE stated that he, at the conclusion of the testimony, read a statement to the press stating that information contained in the New York Times story of 2/22/64 was erroneous and false.

McKENZIE stated on another occasion at the Commission in the beginning of ROBERT OSWALD's appearance before the Commission he, McKENZIE, was called into RANKIN's office with another attorney whose name he does not recall. At this conference with RANKIN and the other attorney, RANKIN said, "Bill, the Chief Justice wants to know all about you," whereupon McKENZIE replied, "Yes, and I would like to know something about the Chief Justice." McKENZIE stated he did not mean this in a facetious manner. McKENZIE stated he was not of the same political philosophy as the Chief Justice and that he made same plain to RANKIN.

The LHM may be disseminated to whomever the Bureau deems advisable however McKENZIE requested that the other information furnished not be disseminated outside the Bureau and if it becomes necessary that such be disseminated that it not be attributed to him; although it is the truth, McKENZIE feels that since he will have to probably appear again before the Commission he does not desire to get into any arguments with them.

"I would like to further state that when I became counsel for Robert Oswald and Marina Oswald, that I did it with their full understanding and written consent that any information which came into my possession, pertaining to the investigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and the events thereafter, would be turned over to the FBI.

"Sincerely yours,

PURPOSE:

To recommend that authority be granted to re-interview Marina Oswald's new attorney, William A. McKenzie to obtain his permission to advise the Commission of statements he made to this Bureau in confidence concerning the actions of one of its staff.

BACKGROUND:

By memorandum dated 3/3/64 I advised you that McKenzie had been interviewed by our Dallas Office concerning an alleged statement he made to the Commission that animosity existed between the Secret Service and our Dallas Office. McKenzie in unmistakable clear terms categorically denied the allegation and in fact praised the Bureau and the Secret Service for the job they were doing in this matter. The Commission was furnished the above information by letter dated 3/3/64.

DETAILS:

While being interviewed on 2/28/64 concerning the above matter, McKenzie stated he wanted to advise the Bureau, on a confidential basis, of certain information which he felt would be of interest to us. McKenzie pointed out he did not want to become involved in any unpleasantness with the Commission since it is possible he may have to appear before the Commission again.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont

McKenzie related that while representing Robert Lee Oswald at the President's Commission on 2/20, 21, and 22/64 one of the assistant legal counsels, Burt Jenner (Albert E. Jenner, Jr.), did a great deal of questioning of Robert Oswald. McKenzie stated some of Jenner's questions were calculated to obtain the answer that Jenner desired, for example, he recalled Jenner asking the question two or three times "Did the FBI ever harass you during the course of the interview of you or Marina Oswald?" While not recalling the exact terminology of other questions asked by Jenner, he indicated he did not like the vein in which they were asked and were couched such as "Do you think the various agencies such as the FBI and the Secret Service are doing a good job or if not, what do you think is the trouble?"

McKenzie states on 2/21/64 while he and Robert Oswald were returning from lunch he was approached by a writer for the "New York Times" for an interview. McKenzie states he told this writer that he could not answer any questions at which time the writer indicated he was waiting for Mr. Jenner. McKenzie states he subsequently observed Jenner talking with the writer from the "New York Times" and that on the following Saturday, 2/22/64, an article appeared in the "New York Times" by the same writer wherein certain erroneous statements were attributed to the testimony of Robert Oswald.

During the Commission's session on Saturday, 2/22/64, only one member of the Commission was present, namely Mr. Allen Dulles. At this session Jenner did most of the questioning. McKenzie stated after seeing the article in the "New York Times" he told Mr. Dulles one of the staff members was "leaking" information and if this information was to be "leaked" to the press, about what his client testified to, then he, McKenzie, would immediately stop Oswald from testifying. McKenzie continued that he advised Mr. Dulles he was fairly certain who the person was who leaked the information and further that that person was now present. According to McKenzie Jenner's face flushed and it was observed Jenner became angry although he did not say anything. According to McKenzie Mr. Dulles agreed with him that if this information was being leaked from the Commission further testimony should be halted but he assured McKenzie there would be no further leaks to the press.

On Monday, 2/24/64, McKenzie related that Mr. Rankin telephonically contacted him in Dallas and stated "Bill, I understand that you know who is the person on the Commission's staff who is leaking to the press." McKenzie stated he informed Rankin that in his own mind he was satisfied he knew who this person was, but since he could not prove it he refrained from naming the individual. McKenzie concluded by indicating on another occasion while at the Commission during the beginning of Robert Oswald's testimony, he, McKenzie, was called into Rankin's Office with another attorney whose name he does not recall. At this conference Mr. Rankin stated "Bill, the Chief Justice wants to know about you," whereupon McKenzie replied, "Yes, I would like to know something about the Chief Justice." McKenzie stated he did not mean this in a facetious manner but stated he was not of the same political philosophy as the Chief Justice and this was made clear to Mr. Rankin.

NEW YORK TIMES ARTICLE:

The United Press International (UPI) under date of 2/22/64 reported that Robert L. Oswald and his attorney William A. McKenzie appeared before the President's Commission on this date and both Oswald and McKenzie charged that a published report of Oswald's purported secret testimony before the Commission was false. According to UPI, a story in the "New York Times" said that Oswald told the Commission he believed his brother Lee Harvey Oswald had been trained as a communist agent during a two year period when the younger Oswald had defected to the Soviet Union.

The UPI continues that Allen Dulles had angrily stated that the above statement was not in the testimony and that he denied the statement was ever made. Mr. Dulles indicated he would discuss this story with Chief Justice Earl Warren and other Commission members.

Attorney McKenzie is reported to have read a lengthy statement to newsmen in which he charged that the "New York Times" article was filled with "irresponsible inaccurancies," and that neither he nor his client revealed any testimony and would not do so. Attorney McKenzie is reported to have charged that one statement in the "New York Times" article in which Robert Oswald was quoted as believing his brother's denial of guilt in President Kennedy's death was "grossly untrue." McKenzie is quoted as stating "misleading, careless and inaccurate printing of the news by any responsible news media violates in my mind every principle of a free press."

ALBERT E. JENNER, JR.

Bureau files reveal the following concerning Albert E. Jenner, Jr., a member of the Commission's staff. He was born in Chicago, Illinois, in 1907, educated at the University of Illinois and admitted to the Illinois Bar in 1930. No investigation has been conducted by this Bureau concerning him. He has served as a Special Assistant Attorney General of the State of Illinois since 1956, and is a member of the U. S. Supreme Court Advisory Committee on Federal Civil Rules.

An informant who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that one Albert E. Jenner, Jr., of Chicago, was a member of the National Lawyers Guild in 1940, which guild had been cited as a communist front by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities in its report issued 3/29/44.

It would not appear that permitting us to present this information to Mr. Rankin would result in his being treated any differently by the Commission in the future in view of his comments to Mr. Rankin concerning Chief Justice Warren and his statement concerning the "New York Times" article before the Commission.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the attached communication be sent to Dallas instructing re-interview of Attorney McKenzie to seek his permission to disseminate the information furnished by him to the Commission.

O.K. H

2. This matter will be closely followed at the Bureau and if Attorney McKenzie permits us to disseminate the information furnished by him, the Commission will be promptly advised.

MR. WADE WAS CONTACTED BY ME, AND IT WAS POINTED OUT TO HIM THAT WE KEEP GETTING INDICATIONS THAT HIS ASSISTANT, WILLIAM ALEXANDER, IS THE SOURCE OF THE RUMORS THAT OSWALD WAS AN FBI INFORMANT. IT WAS POINTED OUT TO HIM THAT ALEXANDER HAS BEEN INTERVIEWED AND DENIED HAVING ANY INFORMATION IN THIS REGARD. IT WAS ALSO POINTED OUT THAT IF ALEXANDER DOES HAVE ANY INFORMATION WE WANT HIM TO PUT IT ON THE LINE OR STOP TALKING. WADE SAID HE FELT THAT ANY INFORMATION ALONG THIS LINE WAS THE OLD RUMOR, AS HE HAS TOLD ALEXANDER TO STOP TALKING AND THAT HE (WADE) IS AT PRESENT THE ONLY ONE ON HIS STAFF SUPPOSED TO TALK TO THE PRESS. HE VOLUNTEERED THAT HE HAD HEARD NOTHING REGARDING THIS RUMOR AROUND THE COURTHOUSE IN RECENT WEEKS. HE STATED THAT THIS RUMOR OF OSWALD BEING AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI OR CIA HAD NO PLACE IN THE TRIAL OF RUBY, AND THAT IT WOULD NOT BE BROUGHT UP BY HIM. Reurairtel 2/13/64 requesting Bureau advise the identity of source of the information regarding interview with Leighton Colin Hinkson and whether such information should be included in details of next Dallas report.

For your information the source of the information concerning Leighton is the Office of Security, Department of State. Bureau has taken up with the State Department the classification of data it furnished concerning Hinkson, and State Department has found it necessary to contact its source in British Honduras to resolve this matter. As soon as advice is received from the State Department, Bureau will furnish appropriate instructions as to whether such data should be included in a Dallas report prepared for dissemination to the Commission.

NOTE:

Our investigation of Oswald, aimed at identifying people who may have had contact with him, disclosed that one Leighton Colin Hinkson had been in Nuevo Laredo during October, 1963. Through State Department channels we had Hinkson interviewed at which time he denied any knowledge of contact with Oswald. State Department furnished results of its interview by letter dated 2/10/64 classified "Secret." We are checking with State to determine whether State can be identified as the source of the interview of Hinkson and whether results on such interview can be declassified so the entire report containing such interview of Hinkson will not have to be classified "Secret." Bartlett is following this matter closely with State Department.

Re Bureau letter to Dallas January 10, 1964.

Enclosed is the sling used on the rifle in the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

On January 23, 1964, WILLIAM R. MC EWAN, Branch Manager, United-Car Fastener Corporation, 1066 West Mockingbird Lane, was shown the enclosed sling and he was unable to furnish any additional information as to who manufactured this sling or for what purpose this sling may have been used for.

He stated, however, that his company had manufactured the "Pull The Dot" fasteners which bear the stamp "United-Car" on the reverse side. He said that these were military fasteners with their number AN 227-68B and were manufactured for the Army and Navy. Mr. MC EWAN stated that it was quite possible that the sling was some type of military equipment possibly used by either the U. S. Army or U. S. Navy. He suggested that this sling by displayed to several officers of the U. S. Army and the U. S. Navy in an effort to identify what this sling was used for.

In view of the above, the FBI Laboratory may desire to contact several officers from the U. S. Army and U. S. Navy, Washington, D. C., in an effort to identify this sling.

U. S. Embassy in Mexico has furnished Legat with letter directed to President Lyndon B. Johnson dated 12-2-63 by Pedro Gutierrez Valencia, a department store credit investigator and former assistant prison director in Mexico.

Gutierrez allegedly saw an individual now believed by him to have been Lee Harvey Oswald while conducting credit inquiry at Cuban Embassy in Mexico around the first of October, 1963. Oswald reportedly was engaged in a heated discussion with an unidentified Cuban believed to have been employed by the Cuban Embassy, during which the names Castro and Kennedy were overheard. While walking through courtyard to gate, Cuban allegedly was counting American money which he gave to Oswald as both entered Renault auto and drove away. The discussion was in the English language, however, Gutierrez admittedly speaks or understands very little English.

Investigation to date has failed to establish exact date of above, identity of Cuban involved nor corroborate or disprove allegation. Gutierrez has identified newspaper photo of Oswald appearing in a Mexican newspaper, however, could not identity a recent photo of Oswald passing out Fair Play for Cuba Committee literature in New Orleans when displayed with other photos. Gutierrez states, however, he reportedly followed Oswald and the Cuban at two-yard intervals throughout courtyard.

By cablegram 2-12-64 Legat, Mexico, was instructed to intensify efforts to definitely resolve above allegation, including (1) display of photo to Gutierrez of former Cuban Consul General Eusebio Azcue with whom we know Oswald had heated discussion at Cuban Embassy in Mexico; (2) display of photo, eliminating background, of unidentified white male, possibly American, taken by CIA in Mexico which bears resemblance to Oswald to determine whether possible identical with individual believed by Gutierrez to have been Oswald. CIA clearance being obtained for this. (3) conduct additional Exhibit D - 106 is a three-page manifest of Transportes Frontera Bus Company covering trip number 2 for bus number 340, departing from Mexico City for Laredo, Texas, on October 2, 1963. The results of the FBI Laboratory examination of this manifest are reflected on page 52 of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated January 7, 1964.

With respect to the above described manifest, it should be noted that seats one and three are listed in the name "FCO. Saucedo" together with their corresponding ticket numbers and a destination of Monterrey. This individual is identical with Francisco Saucedo Velez, driver of the bus on this particular trip. Saucedo was interviewed at considerable length on December 7, 1963, at which time he explained that frequently he makes reservations for friends of his in his own name simply as a favor to these friends. Although he had no independent recollection concerning this particular trip, he presumed he had made the reservations for two friends who subsequently purchased their tickets and utilized the seats reserved by him.

It should also be noted that seat four is listed under the name of "Oswld" with a destination of "Lared" and that no ticket number is listed. Extensive investigation at the offices of the Transportes Frontera Bus Company in Monterrey on December 10, 1963, resulted in the location there of all tickets whose numbers are listed on the bus passenger list. It was pointed out by them that the ticket numbers prefixed with the number 39 were tickets from Mexico City to Monterrey and those prefixed with the number 10 were tickets covering passage from Mexico City to Nuevo Laredo. Officials of the company were unable to locate a ticket covering Oswald's passage. They also pointed out that the figures below the passenger's names, "9 Laredo, 7 Monterrey", indicated the number of passengers for each destination. It will be noted that without taking Oswald into account, there are nine ticket numbers listed with the prefix 10, and seven ticket numbers bearing the prefix 39, indicating passage from Mexico City to Monterrey. Including Oswald, there are actually ten passengers listed with a destination of Laredo.

On January 21, 1964, Gilberto Cazares Garza, Chief of Mexican Immigration, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, advised that he could find no cancellation of tourist permits for October 3, 1963, on the following persons:

Sra. Landeros
Juana (last name unknown)
Sra. Morlaes
Rafael Flores
Ganstiere
Angel Perez
Sra. Aguilar
Luz Tricarco
Constantino Garcia

The above names appeared on the passenger list of the Transportes Frontera Bus Line, bus number 340, which left Mexico City on October 2, 1963, and the name Oswald appears on the manifest.

Cazares stated that his records did reflect, however, that one Juana Maria Alaniz, married, age 47, American, who had entered Mexico on October 1, 1963, and whose destination in Mexico was Monterrey, tourist card number 626392, had departed Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on October 3, 1963, and her destination in the United States was San Antonio, Texas. Cazares stated that Alaniz was traveling by bus. It was subsequently determined by interview of Alaniz that she was on a different bus line, the Transportes Del Norte, and that she knew nothing about Oswald and after viewing a photograph of him, could not remember ever seeing him.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Gutierrez reportedly saw Oswald at Cuban Embassy, Mexico City, around 10/1/63 when Oswald had argument with unidentified Cuban after which Cuban passed money to Oswald, got into a Renault and drove away. We are checking.

Rojas volunteered wild story re association with three unidentified Cubans and an unidentified American who were in contact with Oswald re smuggling Cuban propaganda material into Mexico and plotting to assassinate President Kennedy. We agree that Assistant Legal Attache Garcia handle interview of Solis personally since CIA interrogation inadequate.

RE: ALBERT OSBORNE, aka John Howard Bowen

JOHN HOWARD BOWEN first came to Appalachia, Va., about 20 years ago and spoke at a Baptist church, since then Mrs. LOUISE FULLER FRALEY, Appalachia, Va., started to send him some money on occasions to help him in his alleged missionary work in Mexico. As a result of Mrs. FRALEY's interest, Mrs. JOE CRIDLIN and her son, GEORGE FULLER CRIDLIN, both Jonesville, Va., became interested in BOWEN's work and have sent money to him. BOWEN returned to Appalachia, Va., about one and one-half years ago and spoke at the First Baptist Church, spending the night with Mrs. FRALEY. The present whereabouts of BOWEN are unknown. In December, 1963, BOWEN reportedly had sprained his back and was going to Hot Springs, Ark., for treatment, but later, in a letter to Mrs. CRIDLIN, he informed her that when he got to Hot Springs his back did not hurt him and he returned to the Mexican border and the sprain still did not hurt him.

A check of letters exchanged between BOWEN and these people indicates the following:

GEORGE FULLER CRIDLIN, Jonesville, Va., sent BOWEN $14.00 in January, 1964, to Niza 22, Mexico, D.F.

Mrs. CRIDLIN received a letter postmarked Chattanooga, Tenn., 1-22-64, with return address JOHN HOWARD BOWEN, Niza 22, Mexico, D. F., which contained a receipt for $50.00 for money sent him on a receipt of Mixteca Baptist Church.

BOWEN has an address of Box 308, Loredo, Texas, where he requests money and clothing to be sent to him.

A letter postmarked 11-28-63, Madrid, with return address of Plaza de las Cortes 2, Madsia, Espana, indicating he was returning the next week.

He has previously had the address of Av. Juarez 8, Mexico, D. F.

He is acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. FRED ALLEN, 1400 North 4th, Knoxville, Tenn., and a Deacon, identity unknown, of the First Baptist Church, Knoxville, Tenn., reportedly furnished him sufficient money to support his mission for three years.

A photo of ALBERT OSBORNE was identified by Mrs. FRALEY as the person she knew as BOWEN who was in her home one and one-half years ago.

Nine (9) copies of investigative inserts are being furnished to Dallas.

Each Office receiving a copy of this is requested, based on information set out above, to endeavor to determine the whereabouts of BOWEN and conduct the investigation requested by the Bureau in accordance with Bureau's instructions as set out in referenced Bureau airtel.

Information copies are being furnished Atlanta, Cincinnati, Detroit, and Memphis due to their interest in this phase of investigation.

Erick's letter to Aleck is in English. At the end is a short note as follows:

"To Marina:

We are now having warm weather; much sunshine.

"I have much to keep me busy. I was at Paul's at the Zicherov's. Anita and I went to the lying-in room to see children (she herself thrust it upon me). Inna promises to write to you. Why don't you write me? All the best. Kiss June."

Item #257 :

Typewritten letter to Harvey Oswald (Sic) dated May 3, 1961.

USSR

University of the Friendship of Nations named for Patrice Lumumba

Number 3/266 3 May 1961

Esteemed citizen Harvey Oswald!

We ask you to pardon us for the delay in answering your application for studies at the University of the Friendship of Nations, named for Patrice Lumumba.

It is evident to us that you desire to study at the University of the Friendship of Nations, however, regretfully, we may not satisfy your request in view of the fact that the University was created exclusively for youths of the underprivileged countries of Asia, Africa, and Latin America. Concerning citizens of other countries or stateless citizens, they may be accepted in any other institution of higher learning of the Soviet Union in accordance with existing regulations for them.

With regards,
Chief of the information Department and student welcoming

XIII. RULES FOR REGISTRATION OF RESERVISTS

1. A reservist should:

(a) Secure military registration at his place of residence: in a city - at a military commissariat; in a rural locality, as well as in a city which does not have military commissariat - at the military registration section of the local Council of Workers' Deputies;

2. Draft Registration Certificate can be surrendered on a written receipt:

(a) Upon arrival at the military unit for training - at the headquarters of the unit;

(b) On demand of a military commissariat, military registration section, court or investigative organs;

(c) In cities - to a house management for registration (at the same time as the passport is surrendered for registration) and for removal from registration. No one else has the right to take away one's Draft Registration Certificate, except organs and persons indicated above.

3. In changing of a permanent residence (or temporarily, for a period over one month and a half, and for over three months for travel on official business, study, or medical treatment) a reservist should:

(a) Upon arrival in a city or district of another military commissariat in the same city, surrender to the house management, together with passport, his Draft Registration Certificate, for completion of military registration;

(b) At departure from the city or to a territory of another military commissariat in the same city, surrender to the house management, together with passport, his Draft Registration Certificate for removal from military registration;

(c) Upon arrival at a rural locality, personally appear within three days at a village (or settlement) council, for military registration;

(d) At departure from a rural locality to another locality or territory of another village council of the same district, personally appear at a village (or settlement) council for removal from registration.

4. Upon receiving his Draft Registration Certificate at a military commissariat, after discharge from military service into reserves, or after being attached to the reserves after passing through a regular draft, the reservist must register not later than three days after his arrival at the place of residence chosen by him.

5. During temporary departures for periods of less than one month and a half, and for a period up to three months for travel on official business, for study, or medical treatment, a reservist should inform the registration organ where he is registered regarding this.

6. In changing of the surname or name, educational qualifications, party membership, position, place of work or residence, a reservist should appear in five days at the military registration organ where he is registered with his Draft Registration Certificate and documents confirming these changes.

7. On suffering injury or serious illness, disabling for work, reservist should submit a declaration to a military commissariat at the place of residence for an appointment for (physical) re-examination.

8. In all cases of summons from the military commissariat, or military registration section, reservist should appear punctually at the specified time, with his Draft Registration Certificate and passport, and in addition, a Party or Komsomol card if member or candidate of the CPSU or the Komsomol.

9. Reservist is subject to a fine up to 100 rubles for a loss of his Draft Registration Certificate by reason of carelessness (Decree of the Presidium of the Suprome Soviet of the USSR, of July 30, 1940).

10. For a violation of the rules of registration, reservists are subject to a fine in an administrative order up to 50 rubles. A repetition of the violation of the rules results in a correctional labor sentence up to one month or a fine up to 200 rubles, imposed by a court order (Decree of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the USSR, of July 30, 1940).

Enclosed herewith are original and carbon of the samples of the typewriting from the typewriter of VICTOR COHEN, of Tapachula, Mexico. It is noted that a typewritten letter in Spanish was received by Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY from an ERNESTO FLORES LUNA, not further identified, accusing VICTOR COHEN of pro-CASTRO activities and of having been in contact with subject.

It is requested that enclosed samples be checked against the letter directed to the Attorney General to determine if they were produced by the same machine.

RICHARD EDWARD KENDRICK

By letter dated February 20, 1964 Greig V. Richardson, Warden of the Federal Correctional Institution, Lompoc, California, advised Mr. Leon I. Gopadoze, U. S. Secret Service, Los Angeles, that Kindrick had written a letter to President Johnson in which Kindrick stated that he could give testimony regarding the assassination of President Kennedy. The letter was intercepted by prison authorities and was never sent to President Johnson.

Richard Edward Kendrick, Number 4119-LC, was interviewed at the Federal Correctional Institution, Lompoc, California, where he is confined and on February 22, 1964 Kendrick furnished the following information to Special Agents of the FBI:

He was born at Stockton, California on May 9, 1946. In October, 1960, while residing at 3215 Larkdale Place, San Diego, California, he joined the Nazi Party of the United States. He was recruited by one Jose Pagua who also resided on Larkdale Place in San Diego, and was about 25 years of age, and did not work except in recruiting persons for the Nazi Party. He paid a $10.00 membership fee, and was given a membership card which was signed by Pagua, but he does not know the present whereabouts of the card.

In 1956 or 1957, he resided with his mother and former step-father, Captain Harold Louis Kendrick, United States Marine Corps, in a house provided for the Captain of the Guard at Camp Pendleton, California, where his step-father was stationed. While living at Camp Pendleton he would hang around the barracks and became acquainted with a Marine Corps member named Harvey Oswald, who he believes to be identical with the Oswald accused of killing the late President John F. Kennedy, because Oswald mentioned in a conversation in 1956 or 1957, that he had a good friend in Dallas, Texas, named Jack Rubinstein. He later came in contact with Oswald at the Marine Corps Recruiting Depot at San Diego, California, in 1960, at which time he introduced Oswald to the Nazi and Communist ways of life. When it was pointed out to Kendrick that he was only 14 years of age in 1960, he stated that the actual fact that he introduced Oswald to Jose Pagua, who in turn introduced Oswald to the Nazi and Communist way of life. He continued that the aim and purpose of the Nazi Party is to overthrow the government of the United States, and that the Nazi Party and the Communist Party are working together in this regard, and that many persons belong to both organizations since both have the same goal.

Kenrick continued as follows:

There are between 130 and 140 members of the Nazi Party confined at the Federal Correctional Institution, Lompoc, California, at the present time. Kendrick holds the rank of Colonel in the Nazi Party, but a Lieutenant Colonel confined at the Federal Correctional Institution actually has more authority because he is in charge of the major project of the Nazi party at the prison, that of working on a moon and space exploration plan, and materials for the project are being obtained from the United States Government and from Oak Ridge, Tennessee. There are 60 members of the Communist Party confined at the Federal Correctional Institution. He does not wish to name any of the members of the Nazi Party or Communist Party who he knows to be confined at the prison.

He was arrested at San Diego, California, in October, 1960, on a charge of burglary, and was in custody at the Juvenile Hall, San Diego, and in the custody of the California Youth Authority until June 27, 1961, when he was released on parole. On July 16, 1961, he was picked up in Stockton, California, for hit and run driving, and his parole was revoked, and he was returned to the custody of the California Youth Authority, and remained in custody continuously until April 21, 1963, when he was again released on parole, and went to live with his new step-father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Pastorino, 2658 West Princeton Avenue, Stockton, California. On or about May 11, 1963, he received a letter from Jose Pagua from Reno, Nevada, requesting that he come to Reno about an important matter, and stating that Tom Mc Beth, who had been a schoolmate of Kendrick at San Diego, would meet Kendrick at the bus station in Reno. He does not know how Pagua knew he was no longer in custody, or how Pagua obtained his address in Stockton. Pagua did not tell him when to come to Reno, but he assumed that Pagua wanted him to come right away, and left Stockton by Bus within 40 minutes after receiving the letter from Pagua. He left Stockton about 10:00 A.M. and arrived at Reno about 5:20 P.M. on the same day. He met Tom Mc Beth at the Bus Depot, who was driving a 1950 Ford bearing California license plates. Mc Beth drove him to Hotel Nevada in Reno, and told him to register under an alias. Kendrick registered as John Green, 32nd and 16th Avenues, Naval Aviaonics Facilities, Indianapolis, Indiana, and was given room number 6. At about 10:00 P.M. on the same date, Mc Beth came to the room, and asked if it was all right to bring Jose Pagua to the room, and upon obtaining Kendrick's permission, brought Pagua and another man who was introduced as Doctor Joseph Manele, to Kendrick's room. Pagua asked Kendrick if he needed some money, and Kendrick replied that he did, whereupon Pagua gave him $5000.00 in $10.00 and $20.00 bills, which was contained in a shoe box. Pagua told Kendrick to buy two of the best rifles he could find with 12 power scopes on them, and that he would return the following night to see what Kendrick had purchased, and that if Kendrick tried to run off with the money he would not get out of Reno alive. Pagua and Doctor Manele left the room, and Mc Beth remained. Kendrick counted the money and found that it was exactly $5000.00. Mc Beth stated he had another person to introduce to Kendrick and left and brought back a man who he introduced as Ronald Kelly Brown, age 18, who was staying in Room Number 9 at Hotel Nevada.

On the following day, Kendrick and Ronald Kelly Brown, went to a Sporting Goods Store which carried guns and was located one block North of Virginia Street on the left hand side of the street facing North, just across the street from the railroad tracks. He gave Brown some money and Brown purchased two M-1, 30 caliber semi-automatic carbines at a cost of $79.95 each, by showing his Selective Service card for identification. At the same time Kendrick purchased two 44 caliber Rueger Magnum single shot Hawkeye pistols, at $124.00 each, by claiming he was 18 years of age, and getting Brown to vouch for him. They took the weapons back to his hotel room, and at about 8:00 p.m. on the same date, Tom Mc Bride, Jose Pagua, and Doctor Johph Manele came to his room, and Kendrick showed Pagua the guns, and gave him the receipts. He tried to give Pagua the money he had left, but Pagua told him to keep the money. Pagua stated he had a little job if anyone was interested; that he wanted to start a revolt in the United States by shooting the President, and that the Nazi Party could then take over the country. Kendrick asked who had been picked out for the job, and Pagua stated he had picked Harvey Oswald and Jack Rubinstein. Kendrick asked Pagua whether Oswald and Rubinstein were members of the Nazi Party, and Pagua stated that they were members. Pagua then asked Kendrick to pick out a spot where it would be easy to get close to the President while touring, either in Idaho or Washington, D.C. Pagua asked Kendrick if he would go ahead with the job of shooting the President if Oswald and Rubinstein backed out, and Kendrick asked how much he would get for the job. Pagua said that Kendrick would get an initial payment of $15,000.00, and that after Kendrick had picked out a spot for the assassination attempt, he could write to Pagua at Room 15, Hotel Nevada, Reno, Nevada, and tell him where they should meet to discuss the plans. Pagua told Kendrick to buy a used car since it would arouse suspicion if a person as young as Kendrick paid cash for a new car.

On the following evening Kendrick and Ronald Kelly Brown went to a back room at the Palace Club in Reno and lost $3500.00 gambling, same being a part of the money which Pagua had given Kendrick. Since Kendrick only had about $1,200.00 left, he and Brown decided to steal a car instead of buying one, and consequently stole a 1963 Ford Station Wagon from a used car lot in Reno, and started toward Stockton, since Kendrick wanted to pick up some clothes before starting out to look for a spot to shoot the President. Near Quincy, California, they were stopped by a Sheriff because the stolen car was smoking, but he did not see the two rifles which were hidden under a mattress in the back seat, or the pistols, since one was in the glove compartment, and the other was on the front seat under a paper sack. They explained to the Sheriff they had put the wrong kind of oil in the car, and the Sheriff said he would radio ahead to the next town in order that the police could escort them to a garage when they arrived in the town, rather than stopping them. They were afraid that the police might find the guns, and the money, and therefore hid the two rifles and two pistols in a ravine in the mountains about 200 yards from the highway, and buried the money in a strong box under an old tree, at a depth of four feet, by using a shovel they found in the stolen station wagon. Kendrick knows the place where the money is buried but will not reveal the location, and he believes that Brown may have already been released from jail and obtained the money from the hiding place. They also threw away a bowling ball, some bridles, and some horse medicine which they found in the stolen station wagon.

When Kendrick and Brown arrived in Crescent Mills, California, they were stopped by the police and arrested for the theft of the stolen station wagon in which they were traveling, since the police said they had just received information requesting that they be on the lookout for a station wagon stolen in Nevada.

While in jail at Susanville, California, and later while in jail at Quincy, California, he received letters from Jose Pagua, asking how he had come to be arrested and what had happened to their plan. The jailer in each instance allowed him to read the letter from Pagua but would not allow him to keep the letter.

Kendrick stated he has not seen or heard from Oswald since 1960. When it was pointed out to Kendrick that in his written statement he had indicated he had contact with Oswald in the Sacramento Jail and in the Susanville Jail by letter, he stated that he had made a mistake and should have indicated that it was Pagua with whom he had been in contact by letter while in jail.

RICHARD EDWARD KENDRICK

Kendrick stated he does not believe that Oswald actually shot the President because he had received information that Oswald met with an accident some time ago while on his way to another country, and suffered a shoulder injury which prohibited Oswald from firing a shoulder weapon larger than 22 caliber. Further that he had an idea who actually shot the President, but that he did not intend to reveal the information because he did not want to involve the party who he had in mind.

Kendrick stated he did not know the actual details in regard to the shooting of the President. When it was pointed out to Kendrick that in his written statement he had stated that Oswald was not alone in the room, and that Ruby had received $15,000.00, and that Ruby is a member of the Nazi Party, having been introduced to the Nazi Party by Oswald, Kendrick stated he had just written those things in order to get someone to come in to talk to him.

Kendrick stated that his motive in furnishing the above information was because he felt that Ruby should get the death penalty for killing an ex-Marine, and that he would not have cared had Ruby killed anyone other than an ex-Marine. He advised that he is very fond of the Marine Corps, but does not care for any of the other branches of the military service.

Kendrick stated that he believed that the government of the United States should be overthrown by the Nazi Party, since he felt that conditions would be much better if the Nazi Party was running the government.

Kendrick stated that he would not hesitate to kill the President of the United States, or any other person, if the price was right. Further that he felt that about $25,000.00 would be a fair price for killing a person.

Kendrick advised that he considers himself an excellent shot with either a rifle or a pistol.

The following description of Richard Edward Kendrick was obtained at the time of interview of Kendrick on February 22, 1964, and from a review of the records of the Federal Correctional Institution, Lompoc, California, on the same date:

RICHARD EDWARD KENDRICK

Warden Greig V. Richardson, Federal Correctional Institution (FCI), Lompoc, California, advised Special Agents of the FBI on February 22, 1964 that the files of the FCI reflect that Richard Edward Kendrick was sentenced on July 2, 1963, in the Northern Division of California, Northern District, Sacramento, California, to serve a minority term (three years, ten months, seven days) under the Federal Juvenile Delinquency Act, for the offense of interstate transportation of a stolen motor vehicle. Further that Kendrick has forfeited 28 days statutory good time and has had 14 days good time withheld, and at the present time his sentence is expected to expire on July 31, 1966. He informed that Kendrick was originally confined at the Englewood Federal Correctional Institution, Englewood, Colorado, on July 13, 1963, and was transferred to the Federal Correctional Institution, Lompoc, California, on January 29, 1964.

He informed that Kendrick was in the custody of the California Youth Authority from January 19, 1961, until June 27, 1961, and again from July 17, 1961, until April 20, 1963, and that Kendrick was arrested for his present offense on May 14, 1963, and has been in custody continuously since that time.

He stated that a pre-sentence report on Kendrick prepared by Donald L. Chamlee, United States Probation Officer, Sacramento, California, on June 28, 1963, states as follows:

"While in the California Youth Authority Defendant received a psychiatric evaluation and he was described as a sociopathic personality, anti-social type. Psychological evaluations in February of 1961 found a person suffering from severely retarded emotional development. Defendant never had any success in adequately relating with an adult figure. There is marked confusion in his concept of who and what he is...Does not understand how to play a masculine role. Sexual roles were found to be very confused."

He stated that while Kendrick was confined at the Englewood Federal Correctional Institution seven days good time was withheld from Kendrick on September 10, 1963 for hiding out and seven days good time was withheld on October 25, 1963, for making derogatory remarks to an officer and admitting escape planning. Further that on January 24, 1964, Kendrick was sentenced to a forfeiture of 28 days of statutory good time for a stabbing assault on a fellow prisoner, and the investigation revealed that the assault was premeditated and was the first of several assaults planned by Kendrick and another prisoner. Further that upon interview Kendrick stated he was sorry that the victim of the stabbing was not killed, and that he and the other prisoner had made the assault on the victim "for kicks."

He informed that a Disciplinary Report prepared on Kendrick by Correctional Officer A. Richardson, Englewood Federal Correctional Institution, reflects that at 7:10 P.M. on August 4, 1963, Richardson observed Kendrick in this room slashing his wrist with a razor blade, and that Kendrick released a tourniquit which was around his upper arm just as Richardson entered the room, causing blood to gush from the wound, and that upon being questioned Kendrick stated, "Why not cut myself, life is not worth living in this place." The report of the investigating Lieutenant reflects that Kendrick was treated by the medical staff for superficial cuts on his forearm, and after a long conseling session in which Kendrick stated that he had cut himself just to see how much it would hurt, and that he had no intention of killing himself, Kendrick was sent back to his quarters. The report of the Adjustment Committee reflected that Kendrick was very depressed and admitted that he wanted to do away with himself. Further that Kendrick was referred to Doctor Wood, and no disciplinary action was recommended.

Warden Richardson stated that following careful review of Kendrick's file he is of the opinion that Kendrick is a sociopathic personality, who is emotionally unstable, and completely unreliable.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

ReButel 2/23/64 instructing that letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination to Secret Service and President's Commission be furnished Bureau concerning captioned matter and reLAlet with enclosed letterhead memorandum, both dated 2/28/64.

A review of referenced letterhead memorandum indicates appropriate consideration was not given to the fact that this memorandum would be disseminated to the President's Commission and Secret Service in view of the following obvious errors included therein:

Relet indicates in paragraph 3 complainant in this matter is Richard Edward Kendrick; however, paragraph 4 states interview conducted with Kindrick; Throughout letterhead memorandum various spellings such as Kindrick, Kendrick and Kenrick are utilized. It is presumed this is one and the same individual, as no information is set forth indicating otherwise.

Other misspellings such as "black" for "block," page 3, last paragraph, line 3, and "figute" for "figure," page 8, paragraph 3, line 9, are included.

Relet also fails to contain a reference and status is indicated as pending. It is presumed this status relates to the over-all investigation of captioned subject in your division rather than investigation of the complaint of Kendrick based on comments previously made in Los Angeles airtel 2/23/64.

Referenced memorandum also appears to ramble and is poorly phrased throughout. For example, page 1, paragraph 2, of referenced memorandum is not clear as to whether subject was interviewed once or twice; however, Los Angeles airtel 2/23/64 indicates only one interview. This should be clarified.

Page 2, last paragraph is rambling and disjointed, utilizing four "ands" in one sentence.

Inasmuch as Kendrick is a complainant rather than subject in this matter, it is preferable that the letterhead memorandum be captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald" rather than Richard Edward Kendrick. Also for your information and future guidance in preparing future memoranda expressly for dissemination to the President's Commission, the Bureau's property statement should be deleted.

While it is recognized that Kendrick's allegation is wild and unsupported and that Kendrick himself reportedly is mentally unstable, the President's Commission has expressed an interest in receiving all hoax-type allegations concerning this matter and communications prepared in this regard should be detailed, factual, clearly stated and prepared in such a manner that no embarrassment to the Bureau would result from public and/or official consumption of same. Documents submitted to the President's Commission may conceivably be made available to the public in the future and this should be kept in mind at all times.

In view of the above and noting re letterhead memorandum has already been disseminated to Secret Service locally, explanations should be obtained from responsible personnel and you should submit your recommendations concerning administrative action.

Immediately submit revised letterhead memorandum correcting, rewording and rephrasing where necessary. It is also suggested that comments be obtained from Warden, Federal Correctional Institute (FCI), Lompoc, California, and incorporated therein concerning allegations of Nazi and communist activity within FCI. Secret Service should be appropriately advised locally.

allegation regarding Kendrick's participation in plot to assassinate President Kennedy with Oswald, Ruby and other alleged "Nazi." Warden described Kendrick as completely unstable, unprincipled young man who cannot be relied upon. Bureau instructed Los Angeles to furnish information in letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination to Secret Service and President's Commission. Dr. and Mrs. JOHN MC FARLAND, 7A Riversdale Road, Liverpool, England were contacted by Detective Inspector WILLIAM BESTALL of the Liverpool City Constabulary on February 12, 1964.

The MC FARLANDs viewed the photos of ALBERT OSBORNE and JOHN HOWARD BOWEN. They definitely identified the photo of OSBORNE taken October, 1963 as being identical with the man they previously described who sat next to OSWALD on the bus trip into Mexico on September 26, 27, 1963. They were not that positive in identifying the other photos, however.

Mrs. MC FARLAND stated that she remembered OSBORNE as speaking with a slight North England accent and when she questioned OSBORNE if he had ever been in England he replied in the negative, stating that his mother was English. She was led to believe by OSBORNE that he was an American citizen and had traveled in Mexico extensively as he appeared to know intimately the countryside they were passing through while on the bus trip from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City.

Both the MC FARLANDs were specifically questioned as to whethey they had any knowledge of previous trips OSWALD had made to Mexico and they replied they were under the impression OSWALD had never been to Mexico before because he appeared to be completely ignorant about the country and language.

The Hotel Cuba never came into their conversation with either OSWALD or OSBORNE. Mrs. MC FARLAND stated OSBORNE was carrying a haversack type bag containing canned food and she was under the impression he was returning to some sort of school or mission in Mexico and she believed it was at Cuernavaca.

On February 15, 1964 Detective Sergeant J. STANDISH, Grimsby Police, England, conducted investigation and interviewed relatives of ALBERT OSBORNE in the Grimsby area. The persons interviewed were WALTER OSBORNE, who resides in an old people's home in Grimsby and is ALBERT OSBORNE's brother. The other individual interviewed was a Mrs. LILLIE FEATHERSTONE, sister to ALBERT OSBORNE who resided at Station Road, Greatcoates, Lincolnshire and is a rural district outside Grimsby.

Both WALTER OSBORNE and Mrs. FEATHERSTONE immediately identified all photos as being that of their brother, ALBERT. They stated that ALBERT was born in Grimsby and left England as a young man with a Lincolnshire Army regiment for Gibraltar and Bermuda. This was some time prior to World War I as by that time he was in Canada and studied for the ministry and served as a chaplain in the Canadian Army during the period 1914-1918.

They stated it was almost 40 years before ALBERT returned to England and that very little was actually known of his life. He corresponded infrequently with them and they have heard that he was married and had a son but have no idea of the present whereabouts of them.

They did state however that for approximately the last five years they have used the address in corresponding with him as ALBERT OSBORNE, care of JOHN H. BOWEN, Box 308, Laredo, Texas and they continued to use that address until ALBERT suddenly appeared in Grimsby in early November 1963. According to WALTER OSBORNE, ALBERT traveled to Prestwick, Scotland in the company of a group of scientists who were going to Iceland to photograph a volcano which has emerged there from the ocean. It is not known whether he got off the plane in Prestwick before or after the expedition did the photographing in Iceland, however, he traveled over night by train from Prestwick and arrived early in the morning at Mrs. FEATHERSTONE's home. He remained there four or five days and left for London stating he was going on to Spain.

Mrs. FEATHERSTONE then received a letter dated December 14, 1963 postmarked New York City, in which ALBERT stated he had arrived back in the United States at New York on December 5, 1963.

WALTER stated he heard from ALBERT by letter postmarked Mexico, January 8, 1963 in which ALBERT used the following return address: Emilio Corranza 4A, Texmelucan, Pue. Mexico. He said that he had destroyed the envelope so that it was not possible for Sergeant STANDISH to determine from where the letter had been sent.

Neither WALTER OSBORNE or Mrs. FEATHERSTONE were able to shed any light on the name JOHN H. BOWEN except that ALBERT had told them in the past to write to him care of that name in Laredo. They had never heard him mention BOWEN in any of his letters or in conversation with him.

Mrs. FEATHERSTONE advised, however, that she has a sister, a Mrs. ADA AMOS, who resides on Manchester Street, Gary, Indiana and it is the only other relative she has who resides in the United States. She added she does not think Mrs. AMOS and ALBERT have been in close contact over the years as Mrs. AMOS visited them in Grimsby a few years ago and at that time advised she had seen or heard very little from her brother, ALBERT, even though they were in the same country.

BELLI WAS ADVISED THAT WE HAD RECEIVED INFORMATION FROM A RELIABLE SOURCE THAT HE HAD STATED LEE HARVEY OSWALD WAS A SECURITY-TYPE INFORMANT OF THE FBI, FOR A PERIOD OF THIRTEEN WEEKS. HE WAS INFORMED THAT THERE WAS ABSOLUTELY NO TRUTH IN THIS AND THAT I DESIRED TO SECURE FROM HIM ANY AND ALL INFORMATION WHICH HE HAD IN THIS REGARD.

BELLI STATED THAT AROUND THE FIRST OF THE YEAR HE HAD SEEN AN ARTICLE IN THE "HOUSTON POST" BY LONNIE HUDKINS WHICH ARTICLE WAS A RUMOR TO THE EFFECT THAT OSWALD MIGHT HAVE BEEN AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI OR CIA, AND SUBSEQUENT TO THAT ARTICLE, BELLI SUBPOENAED HUDKINS TO APPEAR AS A WITNESS IN THE CHANGE OF VENUE HEARING BEFORE JUDGE JOE B. HE HEARD ANOTHER RUMOR AROUND THE COURT HOUSE TO THE EFFECT THAT OSWALD MIGHT HAVE BEEN AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI. BELLI RELATED THAT HE QUESTIONED HUDKINS DURING THE VENUE HEARING AS HE FELT THAT THE PROSECUTION MIGHT TRY TO USE HIM AT A LATER DATE. JUDGE BROWN, IN THE VENUE HEARING, REFUSED TO PERMIT HUDKINS TO ANSWER HIS QUESTIONS AFTER OBJECTIONS OF THE PROSECUTION. BELLI STATED THAT HE THOUGHT AT THE TIME AND STILL DOES THINK THAT THESE RUMORS ORIGINATED WITH WILLIAM ALEXANDER, ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY, WHO HAD TRIED TO PLANT OTHER RUMORS ON HIM AND THAT IT WAS BELLI-S FEELING THAT ALEXANDER THOUGHT BELLI MIGHT FALL FOR THIS TRAP. BELLI STATED THAT HE PLACED NO CREDENCE WHATSOEVER IN THE RUMOR THAT OSWALD WAS AN INFORMANT AND EVEN IF THERE WAS ANY CREDENCE TO SUCH, HE DID NOT THINK THAT SUCH INFORMATION HAD ANY PLACE IN THE JACK RUBY TRIAL. HE POINTED OUT THAT IF HE BROUGHT THIS UP IN THE TRIAL, HE WOULD CERTAINLY HAVE TO PROVE IT AND HE WOULD NEVER THINK OF DOING SO WITHOUT SEEING IF IT WERE TRUE, FROM THE FBI.

BELLI STATED THAT HE HAD TALKED TO NUMEROUS REPORTERS AND NEWS MEDIA DURING THE PAST SEVERAL WEEKS AND HE COULD NOT RECALL

TO WHOM ALL HE HAD TALKED HOWEVER HE DID RECALL TO THE BEST OF HIS MEMORY THAT APPROXIMATELY THREE WEEKS AGO SOMEONE ASKED HIM IF HE HAD HEARD THE RUMOR THAT OSWALD HAD BEEN AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI AND HE BELIEVES THAT THE PERSON ASKING THIS QUESTION WAS A REPORTER. TO THE BEST OF BELLI-S MEMORY, HE STATED HE TOLD THIS PERSON THAT HE HAD HEARD THE RUMOR AROUND THE COURT HOUSE. HE DOES NOT RECALL EXACTLY WHAT HE SAID BUT HE IS CERTAIN HE NEVER SAID ANYTHING TO THE EFFECT THAT OSWALD HAD BEEN AN INFORMANT BELLI WAS EMPHATICALLY ADVISED THAT LEE HARVEY OSWALD HAD NEVER BEEN AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI. HE AGAIN REITERATED THAT HE DOES NOT THINK, AND NEVER DID PLACE ANY CREDENCE IN THIS RUMOR THAT OSWALD WAS AN INFORMANT.

BELLI WAS ALSO ADVISED THAT WE RECEIVED INFORMATION THAT HE HAD ALSO STATED THAT JACK LEON RUBY HAD BEEN AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI FOR A PERIOD OF EIGHT WEEKS. BOTH HE AND TONAHILL STATED THAT THEY HAD AT NO TIME EVER HEARD ANYONE STATE THAT RUBY WAS AN INFORMANT OR INFER THAT HE WAS AN INFORMANT. BELLI INSISTED THAT HE BE PERMITTED TO CALL HIS OTHER CO-COUNSEL,

TO THE ROOM, PHILLIP ~~*~~ BURLESON AND ASK HIM IF HE HAD EVER HEARD THIS RUMOR. BURLESON, UPON BEING ASKED THE SAME QUESTION AS TO WHETHER OR NOT HE HAD EVER HEARD OF RUBY BEING AN INFORMANT OR RUMOR TO THAT EFFECT, ADVISED THAT HE HAD NEVER HEARD ANY RUMOR FROM ANYONE TO THAT EFFECT. BELLI, TONAHILL AND BURLESON ALL STATED THAT THEY HAD NEVER TOLD ANYONE OR INFERRED TO ANYONE THAT RUBY WAS AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI. BELLI STATED THAT HE BELIEVED HE AND HIS CO-COUNSEL WOULD HAVE KNOWN IF RUBY HAD BEEN AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI, SINCE THEY HAD QUESTIONED RUBY IN DETAIL ABOUT HIS ENTIRE LIFE AND HE IS CERTAIN RUBY WOULD HAVE TOLD THEM IF HE HAD BEEN AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI. HE STATED RUBY HAD NEVER MENTIONED IN ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER, CO-OPERATING WITH THE FBI.

UPON CONCLUSION, BELLI STATED THAT HE WAS GETTING "DAMN TIRED" OF ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY WILLIAM ALEXANDER PLANTING RUMORS WHICH ALEXANDER THOUGHT BELLI MIGHT FALL FOR AND IT WAS HIS OPINION THAT ALEXANDER WAS PROBABLY THE SOURCE CONCERNING THE RUMOR THAT OSWALD WAS AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI.

BELLI THEN SPECIFICALLY ASKED ME IF RUBY HAD EVER BEEN AN INFORMANT AS THIS THE FIRST HE HAD EVER HEARD OF IT AND I ADVISED BELLI THAT RUBY HAD NEVER BEEN AN INFORMANT OF THE FBI. HE ASKED NO FURTHER QUESTIONS.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. W. C. Sullivan

DATE: 3/3/64

FROM : D. J. Brennan, Jr.

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

By letter dated 2/8/64 to the Director from Mr. U. Alexis Johnson, Deputy Under Secretary of State, he inquired if the Bureau had any objection to State furnishing copies of telegrams to the Warren Commission investigating the assassination of President Kennedy. He specifically referred to 10 telegrams sent to the Secretary of State from the U. S. Ambassador to Mexico copies of which were in the Bureau's possession. By letter dated 2/12/64 we advised State that the Bureau had no objection, however, it was up to State Department to determine if these telegrams should be sent to the Commission.

On 2/28/64, Mr. Joseph W. Scott, Deputy Director, Bureau of Intelligence and Research, State, advised that there are two additional telegrams (Bureau has copies) from the U. S. Ambassador to Mexico which were received through Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) channels. CIA would normally send them to the Commission. Mr. Scott said that CIA has now advised State that they are leaving the dissemination of these telegrams up to State. Mr. Scott wanted the Bureau to know that State is sending these two additional telegrams to the Warren Commission together with the 10 telegrams mentioned in their communication to the Bureau dated 2/8/64. Mr. Scott said that inasmuch as all 12 of these telegrams are in this same category, they will forward them to the Commission within the next day or two inasmuch as they feel the Commission should have the full benefit of all material available in this matter.

Internal Security - R - Cuba

The Honorable Richard M. Nixon, former Vice President of the United States, was contacted on February 28, 1964 by an Assistant Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Mr. Nixon advised that the only time he was in Dallas, Texas during 1963 was two days prior to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. He vaguely thought there was some invitation extended during the early part of 1963, probably in April, for him to come to Dallas, but that it never materialized, nor did he give any consideration to going there. Mr. Nixon could not even recall the circumstances surrounding the invitation, but did observe that conceivably there could have been some publicity indicating that he had been invited to come to Dallas. Mr. Nixon said that if anything more concrete comes to his mind or after his secretary checks his records which would indicate the circumstances surrounding this, he would immediately notify the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He did say positively that he had no intention of visiting Dallas during April 1963.

NOTE:

Minneapolis furnished information indicating that Reverend Fowler at a meeting at his church at which he was the speaker reportedly made numerous comments pertaining to the assassination of President Kennedy. In addition to playing tape recordings of interview of Oswald in New Orleans regarding FPCC, he stated there was CP cell in Dallas with six members, two of whom were Ruby and Oswald, that Oswald had been given job to assassinate President Kennedy following which he was to be taken to Cuba. Minneapolis advised it was going to interview Reverend Fowler for all facts and obtain source of his statements following which communication suitable for dissemination would be submitted. Bureau files fail to indicate same has been done.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 3-5-64

The attached memo reflects the results of interview of Richard M. Nixon, former Vice President, concerning his plans to visit Dallas. It is noted that Mr. Nixon observed that conceivably there could have been some publicity indicating he had been invited to come to Dallas. Our Dallas Office has previously checked the newspaper morgue of the "Dallas Daily News" for the period 3/16-5/16/63. This check was negative as to any publicity concerning visit of Vice President Nixon to Dallas. Dallas Office will now be instructed to conduct an exhaustive search of newspaper morgues to determine if there was any publicity. Results of the interview of Mr. Nixon will be furnished to the Commission.

Referenced teletype on page 2 reveals information concerning a tape recording of a telephone conversation made February 18, 1964, by Mark Lane with one "Miss Hill," a Dallas woman who heard four to six shots.

Dallas Texas

Based on information furnished, "Miss Hill" cannot be identified in Bureau files. It is noted that Dallas report of SA Robert P. Gemberling, dated 11/30/63, page 35, reveals an interview with one Jean Hill, 9402 Bluff Creek, who may or may not be identical. Dallas is requested to identify and interview Hill if not previously conducted. For further information, it was noted in an issue of the "National Guardian" that one "Miss Hill," possibly identical to the individual who made the telephone tape recording, was described as a school teacher.

Dallas is requested to submit results of interview in a letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination excluding the property stamp.

Mark Lane, volunteer defense lawyer for Lee Harvey Oswald, criticized investigation by the FBI and Secret Service. In his speech, he utilized affidavits alledged to have been secured from the Dallas District Attorney's Office and gave blackboard drawings furnishing 3 versions of how the President was shot attempting to prove that the first bullet cold not have been fired by Oswald. Lane then played the tape recording of the telephone conversation made 2/18/63 with "Miss Hill." Based on information furnished, "Miss Hill" cannot be identified in Bureau files. /

Mr. William A. McKenzie, Fidelity Union Tower, Dallas, Texas, is currently serving as attorney for Marina Oswald and Robert Lee Oswald, brother of Lee Harvey Oswald.

The Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory for 1964 contains a short biographic sketch of Mr. McKenzie on page 6317. This biographic sketch is as follows:

> William A. McKenzie, born Columbus, Georgia, March 13, 1923; admitted to bar, 1949, Texas. Preparatory education, Texas A. & M. College (B.S., 1946); legal education, Southern Methodist University (LL.B., 1949). Fraternity: Phi Alpha Delta. Assistant District Attorney, Dallas County, Texas, 1949-1950. Member: Dallas and American Bar Associations; State Bar of Texas. (Captain, U.S.A.R., 1942-1946).

A check of Bureau files has disclosed no derogatory information identifiable with Mr. McKenzie.

SAC J. Gordon Shanklin of the Dallas Office has advised that Mr. McKenzie is a highly respected lawyer in the Bar circles in Dallas and appears sincere in attempting to elicit the truth from Marina and Robert Oswald. According to SAC Shanklin, Mr. McKenzie has indicated a desire to cooperate completely with the FBI and the President's Commission in the assassination matter. Mr. McKenzie has informed our Dallas Office that he does not desire to represent Robert Lee Oswald or Marina Oswald if they started lying to him and he has impressed that fact upon them. We have informed the Commission of such statement by Mr. McKenzie.

The following investigation was conducted by SA CARL F. FREEMAN on 3/3/64, at Las Vegas, Nevada.

It is noted that Mercury, Nevada, is not a city or town with family dwellings but is an atomic testing site under the control of Atomic Energy Commission.

UDELL BUNCE, Security Supervisor of Atomic Energy Commission and the Mercury Test Site, advised that their badge, name check, and request for clearance files failed to reveal any identifiable information with the last name of ROMANIUK or any similar name.

Mr. BUNCE further advised there are numerous prime contractors and innumerable subcontractors at Mercury, Nevada, and he has no information concerning any businesses or shops having closed or who contemplate closing at the test site.

LYNN HAGEL, Clark County Sheriff's Office, and CARMEN THOMPSON, Las Vegas Police Department, both advised that a check of their files failed to reveal any information under the name ROMANIUK.

ReSAletterhead memoranda 2/21/64 and 2/24/64 concerning Fred Dalton Lindsay and Charlotte teletypes 2/21/64 and 2/24/64 on same matter. Referenced letterhead memorandum of 2/21/64 reported that Lindsay stated, when first interviewed, that four months before the assassination he had informed Father Mullins of a plan to assassinate President Kennedy. Referenced letterhead memorandum of 2/24/64 reported Lindsay as advising his first story was completely untrue. Charlotte teletype of 2/21/64 reporting the interview with Father Edward E. Mullins, Greenville, South Carolina, substantiates that Lindsay never discussed President Kennedy with Mullins. Charlotte should submit results of this interview with Mullins in letterhead memorandum form suitable for dissemination to the Commission as evidence that Lindsay's first story was untrue. Charlotte should also include in letterhead memorandum results of interview with Reverend Theodore Hafner and fact that Lindsay did not discuss President Kennedy with him so as to complete picture of Lindsay's contacts with clergymen in Greenville, South Carolina. If these clergymen furnished their information in confidence, they should be recontacted and advised of the need to furnish this information to the Commission and requested to consent to this.

San Antonio teletype of 2/22/64 set forth that information regarding Lindsay came to San Antonio's attention through Reverend James Joseph who is mentioned in referenced letterhead memorandum of 2/24/64. Likewise, the Bureau believes a more complete picture of this episode can be furnished the Commission if the results of the interview with Reverend Joseph are also set forth in letterhead memorandum. Reverend Joseph. Inasmuch as Reverend Joseph requested that his identity be protected, San Antonio should recontact him. Explain to him that Lindsay in interview admitted talking with him. Advise him that, since Lindsay mentioned him, the results of the interview with him should be furnished the Commission so as to complete the record on this matter and request his permission to report the interview with him to the Commission using his name. Furnish results of interview with Joseph in letterhead memorandum form suitable for dissemination.

Both Charlotte and San Antonio note that per current instructions the Bureau property stamp is not to be included on any letterhead memoranda which will go to the Commission. Handle expeditiously.

NOTE:

Lindsay first told the story ~~containing~~ information he allegedly had about the assassination, but later said it was completely untrue. Charlotte's interview with Father Mullins substantiates to a certain extent that Lindsay was not telling the truth when first interviewed and this information from Father Mullins should be submitted in form suitable for dissemination to the Commission. Re Pittsburgh airtel to Dallas 1/27/64.

On 2/26/64, SA JOHN EDWARD DAILEY obtained the following information from LESLIE HOLLANDSWORTH, #71 Parsons Road, Room #29, U. S. Naval Ordnance Test Station, China Lake, California, employed as a cook at the Commissioned Officers Mess.

BUSTER D. MITCHELL, Charleston, West Virginia, is a relative of his, and he had a conversation in a bar with MITCHELL during November, 1963. This conversation concerned integration and the attendant problems in the southern states, and he recalls during this conversation he said that "there would be hell to pay" in the South before integration was completed, referring to the possibility of more race riots such as had occurred in the past.

He denied he made a statement that "you are going to hear something soon that is really going to shock the country," or that he later wrote MITCHELL a letter telling him not to repeat this statement. He said that MITCHELL, in conversation after the assassination, with a deputy U. S. Marshal who is a cousin of his, apparently told him that HOLLANDSWORTH had made a statement about what would happen in the future, and in this way it was repeated to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

D-75 3. A box containing a silver bracelet with the inscription "Marina" on it. - SA ODUM

(These books have various notations in them as noted in FD-302 reflecting interview of MRS. RUTH PAINE on 12/4/63. A notation in the back of the English-Spanish dictionary reads, "Buy bracelet", and the bracelet is the one purchased by OSWALD in Mexico City.
When this case is closed, these items should be returned to MRS. PAINE or to MRS. MARINA OSWALD since they are the property of the OSWALDS.)

Photos of Items #1 through #455; A through Z; AA through AN:

1. Five boxes containing photographs of items belonging to subject and wife MARINA acquired by the Dallas PD from the RUTH PAINE residence, 2515 West 5th St., Irving, Texas, and from the last residence of subject, 1026 N. Beckley, Dallas.

   These photographs consist of four sets of photographs on large, rough paper and two sets prepared on smaller, glossy photographic paper, and one partial set on larger, glossy photographic paper.

   It will be noted the glossy photographs (small) were taken after examination by the Laboratory and the writing is not too distinct on many of the exhibits.

   It is believed these exhibits should be retained for an indefinite period for reference work.

   (See Inventory List maintained in 1-A Exhibit File of 100-10461 for a complete listing of the photographed items.)

   (Original evidence maintained FBI Lab; these are photos of items of evidence which photos were furnished to Dallas by the Bureau. Re Bulet to Dallas, 2/17/64, enclosing copies of FD-192.

Enclosed are the revised FD-192's which include the location of evidence and also the evidence item number where known, as requested in referenced letter.

There were originally enclosed to the Bureau two separate FD-192's on Dallas file 105-1716 regarding two rolls of film being maintained as evidence. The film was first forwarded to the Bureau by letter dated 1/6/64, and a request was made that photographs be prepared and returned to Dallas. The Bureau returned the film and photographs by letter dated 1/14/64, and when received at Dallas, a second FD-192 was inadvertently prepared. The enclosed forms should replace all those originally submitted.

Re Los Angeles airtel to Bureau 2/19/64, enclosing a picture from a film clip of President KENNEDY's appearance in Houston, Texas, in September, 1960, which film clip was taken from a documentary film of Wolper Production entitled "Making of the President, 1960".

For the information of the Bureau and Los Angeles, it is noted that LEE HARVEY OSWALD left for Russia on September 19, 1959, and remained there until his return to the United States from Russia in June, 1962. Therefore, it does not appear possible that the individual in the film clip could be LEE HARVEY OSWALD and no further investigation being conducted in connection with this film clip UACB.

NOTE:

A source made available to the Los Angeles Office a film clip concerning the late President Kennedy when latter made a personal appearance in Houston, Texas, in September, 1960, when he gave a speech on religion before the Texas Ministerial Council. Source and his associates believed an individual depicted in the audience listenin to President Kennedy's speech greatly resembled Oswald. Dallas has the film clip in question and Bureau has not yet seen it. Desirable we review it and, thereafter, instruct Houston to conduct appropriate investigation re matter. Although Oswald was in Russia from October, 1959, to June, 1962, desirable we resolve this allegation since Commis likely will be interested in it.

By memorandum 3-3-64 it was recommended that Liaison work out immediate arrangements with State Department to have a Bureau Agent travel to Haiti for the purpose of interviewing the subject concerning his statement that he had been told by an FBI Agent that Lee Harvey Oswald was completely harmless. Dallas Office was instructed to submit their recommendations as to the Agent who should handle the interview.

ASAC Kyle Clark, Dallas, called 3-4-64 and advised that in response to the Bureau's inquiry, they were of the opinion that SA W. James Wood was best qualified to handle the interview of De Mohrenschildt in Haiti. According to Clark, SA Wood is completely familiar with the background of the captioned investigation and he is a mature Agent with considerable experience on security work.

A review of the personnel file of SA W. James Wood reflects that he first entered on duty as a stenographer in May, 1941. He became a Special Agent 3-15-48 and has since served in several field offices and resident agencies. He was assigned to the Los Angeles Office commencing 3-2-53 where his services were almost continuously used on security-type cases. During his career he has been censured on three occasions, commended on five occasions and most recently received a cash award 11-28-62 for a superior performance over an extended period of time. Dallas Office previously noted that the Agent handling the interview should be familiar with a prior interview of the subject which was conducted in February, 1945. This was called ASAC Clark was instructed to have SA Wood make application for a passport so that he could be ready to proceed to Haiti as soon as arrangements are worked out with State Department. Liaison is contacting State Department in this regard.

ACTION:

Dallas states that SA Wood is the best qualified Agent to handle this assignment. The personnel action which was instituted against SA Wood in December, 1963, is not such as to preclude this type of assignment.

Re Bureau airtel to Legat, Mexico City, 2/13/64.

Review of investigation which has been conducted shows that form "Passenger Immigration Questionnaire - Leaving the United States", dated 9/16/59 was executed by OSWALD.

Liberty Hotel registration shows OSWALD registered at Liberty Hotel 9/17/59.

Log of SS MARION LYKES shows that four passengers embarked at Army Base, New Orleans, at 3:15 PM, 9/19/59 and SS MARION LYKES sailed at 6:24 AM 9/20/59.

C. H. DAVIS, President, Travelers Consultants, Inc., 124 Camp Street, New Orleans, La., advised 2/28/64 that a receipt dated 9/17/59 was issued to LEE HARVEY OSWALD for $220.75 for one-way passage from New Orleans to Le Harve, France, aboard the SS MARION LYKES.

ODELL NICHOLS, Manager, Liberty Hotel, 137 South Liberty Street, New Orleans, advised on 2/28/64 that two "permanent" guests who resided in the hotel during 1959 might recall OSWALD. He identified them as WALTER MARTIN, a United Cab driver who is currently in Charity Hospital

ELEANOR GORMAN, aka "Skip", LaSalle Hotel, New Orleans, on 2/28/64, observed a photograph of OSWALD and advised she did not know him and could furnish no information concerning him.

A review of the issues of the Times Picayune, a New Orleans daily newspaper, from September 16, 1959 to September 20, 1959, inclusive, and a review of the New Orleans States-Item, a New Orleans newspaper, issues ofrom September 16, 1959 through September 19, 1959, inclusive, was made and no information of pertinence was observed in these newspapers.

It is believed that without any more specific information no further inquiry is warranted at this time to develop facts concerning OSWALD's activity in New Orleans for the brief period of time he was in this area prior to his departure for Europe.

Such investigation should be included in the next report prepared by the New Orleans Office for dissemination to the President's Commission.

1 - Dallas (100-10461)

NOTE:

New Orleans is attempting to pinpoint activities of Oswald in New Orleans immediately prior to his departure for Russia on 9/20/59. We have received a allegation that Elizabeth Mora, prominent in communist circles in Mexico City, confided to a source in Mexico City that the only way Oswald could be linked to Mexico was through his activities before traveling to the Soviet Union and that she felt such activities occurred in New Orleans. Oswald was in New Orleans only three or four days prior to taking a ship to Europe on 9/19/59 and we have developed no information concerning possible contacts he may have had in New Orleans during this period.

MRS. OSWALD FURTHER SAID ~~QUOTE~~ "NO ONE CAN PROVE HE USED THE GUN" ~~UNQUOTE.~~

MRS. OSWALD STATES HER SON WAS WORKING FOR GOVERNMENT, BUT GOVERNMENT WILL NOT OR CANNOT VERIFY SAME.

SHE WENT INTO SON'S BACKGROUND, WHY HE LEFT SCHOOL BEFORE HE GRADUATED, THAT SHE WAS A WIDOW AND HAD DIFFICULTY CARING FOR HER FAMILY; THAT SUBJECT WAS A CIVIL AIR PATROL CADET AND HAD TRIED UNSUCCESSFULLY TO JOIN THE MARINE CORPS AT SIXTEEN YEARS OF AGE. SHE ADMITTED SUBJECT WAS READING COMMUNIST LITERATURE AT THE AGE OF FIFTEEN OR SIXTEEN BUT SAID ~~QUOTED~~ "THIS WAS HOW YOU ACQUIRE KNOWLEDGE" UNQUOTE; THAT HER SON ON HIS SEVENTEENTH BIRTHDAY JOINED THE MARINE CORPS, SERVED OVERSEAS AND WAS DISCHARGED APPROXIMATELY THREE YEARS LATER BECAUSE SHE WAS ILL AND THAT HE SHORTLY THEREAFTER DEFECTED TO RUSSIA. MRS. OSWALD SAID SHE NEVER HEARD FROM ANY GOVERNMENT AGENCY IN THIS REGARD AND THAT WHILE SUBJECT WAS IN RUSSIA SHE HEARD FROM HIM REGULARLY.

END PAGE THREE

MRS. OSWALD SAID SHE HAD THE PREVIOUS WEEK MADE A SERIES OF RECORDS WHICH WILL BE RELEASED IN APRIL, SIXTY FOUR. SHE INDICATED SHE WILL READ SOME OF THIS CORRESPONDENCE ON THESE RECORDS TO SHOW THE COUNTRY THE TYPE OF BOY THE SUBJECT REALLY WAS.

KENNEDY, AS MODERATOR, ALLOWED INDIVIDUALS TO TELEPHONE QUESTIONS TO HIS GUEST DURING PROGRAM. SEVERAL CALLERS EXPRESSED INDIGNATION AT STATION FOR ALLOWING MRS. OSWALD A PLATFORM FOR AIRING HER VIEWS . OTHER CALLERS COMMENDED STATION. QUESTIONS WHICH MRS. OSWALD ANSWERED RANGED FROM WHAT ARE HER FINANCES AND WHO IS SUBSIDIZING HER TO WHAT HER PRESENT FAMILY RELATIONSHIP IS WITH HER DAUGHTER-IN-LAW AND THE REMAINING MEMBERS OF HER FAMILY.

SUITABLE RECORDINGS OF PROGRAM OBTAINED FOR BUREAU. WILL BE FURTHER REVIE?D BY BOSTON AND LETTERHEAD MEMO WILL BE SUBMITTED PROMPTLY.

Lee Oswald

Dear Mr. Rankin:

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past has advised that Marina Oswald was in contact with William A. McKenzie, her attorney, on March 2, 1964. According to our source, Mr. McKenzie informed Marina Oswald that he had been in contact with John M. Thorne and Mr. Thorne's partner, Mr. Leach. Mr. McKenzie told Marina that Thorne and Leach want $40,000 for their work and that James Herbert Martin wants $20,000.

Our source further advised that Mr. McKenzie asked Marina Oswald if she would settle for $7,500 each. Marina Oswald was concerned over such proposition and asked Mr. McKenzie whether the money would come from donations. Mr. McKenzie advised her that it would. Marina Oswald then informed Mr. McKenzie that she would have to think the proposition over.

NOTE:

John Thorne is the former attorney of Marina Oswald and James Martin is the former business manager of Marina. She has dismissed both, but previously signed contracts with them which may have legal binding on her. Her current attorney, McKenzie, is trying to straighten the matter out.

The source is a highly confidential source of the Dallas Office as reported in Dallas teletype to the Bureau 3/2/64.

Enclosed are the revised FD-192's which include the location of evidence and also the evidence item number where known, as requested in referenced letter.

There were originally enclosed to the Bureau two separate FD-192's on Dallas file 105-1716 regarding two rolls of film being maintained as evidence. The film was first forwarded to the Bureau by letter dated 1/6/64, and a request was made that photographs be prepared and returned to Dallas. The Bureau returned the film and photographs by letter dated 1/14/64, and when received at Dallas, a second FD-192 was inadvertently prepared. The enclosed forms should replace all those originally submitted.

Re Los Angeles airtel to Bureau 2/19/64, enclosing a picture from a film clip of President KENNEDY's appearance in Houston, Texas, in September, 1960, which film clip was taken from a documentary film of Wolper Production entitled "Making of the President, 1960".

For the information of the Bureau and Los Angeles, it is noted that LEE HARVEY OSWALD left for Russia on September 19, 1959, and remained there until his return to the United States from Russia in June, 1962. Therefore, it does not appear possible that the individual in the film clip could be LEE HARVEY OSWALD and no further investigation being conducted in connection with this film clip UACB.

NOTE:

A source made available to the Los Angeles Office a film clip concerning the late President Kennedy when latter made a personal appearance in Houston, Texas, in September, 1960, when he gave a speech on religion before the Texas Ministerial Council. Source and his associates believed an individual depicted in the audience listening to President Kennedy's speech greatly resembled Oswald. Dallas has the film clip in question and Bureau has not yet seen it. Desirable we review it and, thereafter, instruct Houston to conduct appropriate investigation re matter. Although Oswald was in Russia from October, 1959, to June, 1962, desirable we resolve this allegation since Commie likely will be interested in it.

By memorandum 3-3-64 it was recommended that Liaison work out immediate arrangements with State Department to have a Bureau Agent travel to Haiti for the purpose of interviewing the subject concerning his statement that he had been told by an FBI Agent that Lee Harvey Oswald was completely harmless. Dallas Office was instructed to submit their recommendations as to the Agent who should handle the interview.

ASAC Kyle Clark, Dallas, called 3-4-64 and advised that in response to the Bureau's inquiry, they were of the opinion that SA W. James Wood was best qualified to handle the interview of De Mohrenschildt in Haiti. According to Clark, SA Wood is completely familiar with the background of the captioned investigation and he is a mature Agent with considerable experience on security work.

A review of the personnel file of SA W. James Wood reflects that he first entered on duty as a stenographer in May, 1941. He became a Special Agent 3-15-48 and has since served in several field offices and resident agencies. He was assigned to the Los Angeles Office commencing 3-2-53 where his services were almost continuously used on security-type cases. During his career he has been censured on three occasions, commended on five occasions and most recently received a cash award 11-23-62 for a superior performance over an extended period of time. Dallas Office previously noted that the Agent handling the interview should be familiar with a prior interview of the subject which was conducted in February, 1945. This was called ASAC Clark was instructed to have SA Wood make application for a passport so that he could be ready to proceed to Haiti as soon as arrangements are worked out with State Department. Liaison is contacting State Department in this regard.

ACTION:

Dallas states that SA Wood is the best qualified Agent to handle this assignment. The personnel action which was instituted against SA Wood in December, 1963, is not such as to preclude this type of assignment.

NOTE:

It has not been possible through bus company or immigration records to identify Oswald's fellow passengers on the 10/2-3/63 bus trip from Mexico City to Nuevo Laredo. It is possible that some of the bus company employees may recognize the names of some of the passengers as regular travelers and through this meanswe may be able to identify and interview some of them. There is a discrepancy on the manifest, in that it notes there are 16 travelers, however, 17 were actually manifested.

Re Bureau airtel to Legat, Mexico City, 2/13/64.

Review of investigation which has been conducted shows that form "Passenger Immigration Questionnaire - Leaving the United States", dated 9/16/59 was executed by OSWALD.

Liberty Hotel registration shows OSWALD registered at Liberty Hotel 9/17/59.

Log of SS MARION LYKES shows that four passengers embarked at Army Base, New Orleans, at 3:15 PM, 9/19/59 and SS MARION LYKES sailed at 6:24 AM 9/20/59.

C. H. DAVIS, President, Travelers Consultants, Inc., 124 Camp Street, New Orleans, La., advised 2/28/64 that a receipt dated 9/17/59 was issued to LEE HARVEY OSWALD for $220.75 for one-way passage from New Orleans to Le Harve, France, aboard the SS MARION LYKES.

ODELL NICHOLS, Manager, Liberty Hotel, 137 South Liberty Street, New Orleans, advised on 2/28/64 that two "permanent" guests who resided in the hotel during 1959 might recall OSWALD. He identified them as WALTER MARTIN, a United Cab driver who is currently in Charity Hospital and "Skip", a barmaid, who used to work in Duffy's Tavern.

WALTER MARTIN, Ward 415 West, Charity Hospital, on 2/28/64 observed a photograph of OSWALD and advised he did not know him and could furnish no information concerning him.

ELEANOR GORMAN, aka "Skip", LaSalle Hotel, New Orleans, on 2/28/64, observed a photograph of OSWALD and advised she did not know him and could furnish no information concerning him.

A review of the issues of the Times Picayune, a New Orleans daily newspaper, from September 16, 1959 to September 20, 1959, inclusive, and a review of the New Orleans States-Item, a New Orleans newspaper, issues ofrom September 16, 1959 through September 19, 1959, inclusive, was made and no information of pertinence was observed in these newspapers.

It is believed that without any more specific information no further inquiry is warranted at this time to develop facts concerning OSWALD's activity in New Orleans for the brief period of time he was in this area prior to his departure for Europe.

Such investigation should be included in the next report prepared by the New Orleans Office for dissemination to the President's Commission.

1 - Dallas (100-10461)

NOTE:

New Orleans is attempting to pinpoint activities of Oswald in New Orleans immediately prior to his departure for Russia on 9/20/59. We have received a allegation that Elizabeth Mora, prominent in communist circles in Mexico City, confided to a source in Mexico City that the only way Oswald could be linked to Mexico was through his activities before traveling to the Soviet Union and that she felt such activities occurred in New Orleans. Oswald was in New Orleans only three or four days prior to taking a ship to Europe on 9/19/59 and we have developed no information concerning possible contacts he may have had in New Orleans during this period.

Re: Lee Harvey Oswald

Dear Mr. Rankin:

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past has advised that Marina Oswald was in contact with William A. McKenzie, her attorney, on March 2, 1964. According to our source, Mr. McKenzie informed Marina Oswald that he had been in contact with John M. Thorne and Mr. Thorne's partner, Mr. Leach. Mr. McKenzie told Marina that Thorne and Leach want $40,000 for their work and that James Herbert Martin wants $20,000.

Our source further advised that Mr. McKenzie asked Marina Oswald if she would settle for $7,500 each. Marina Oswald was concerned over such proposition and asked Mr. McKenzie whether the money would come from donations. Mr. McKenzie advised her that it would. Marina Oswald then informed Mr. McKenzie that she would have to think the proposition over.

Re Phoenix airtel to Bureau, 2/26/64, enclosing a copy of New York airtel to Bureau, 2/13/64.

The following investigation was conducted by SA MARION C. STREET:

AT KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI:

On 3/3/64, DONALD H. JANSON, News Correspondant, New York Times, Kansas City Power and Light Building, advised that he has no written record, but recalls while in Dallas covering the assassination of President KENNEDY, he wrote an article which appeared in the New York Times and which in part told of OSWALD being in Laredo, Texas, where he purchased clothing.

Mr. JANSON advised that the story was prepared late in the day and the portion concerning Laredo was taken from an Associated Press story which had appeared in an evening edition of a Dallas paper. He said he had attempted to verify this story by calling Laredo, Texas, but it was late in the day and his story was sent on to New York. The next day he did call a department store in Laredo, name not recalled but he believes it to be a prominent store, and talked to either the manager or a spokesman for the store. He also contacted Mrs. PAYNE where OSWALD had lived. He was unable to confirm the story that OSWALD had purchased clothing from the department store in Laredo, therefore, in the article submitted to New York Office, he retracted the previous day's reporting of the Laredo incident.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Conrad

DATE: March 5, 1964

FROM : C. F. Downing

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka.
IS - R - CUBA

By letter dated 3/2/64, J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel, The President's Commission, referred three foreign language letters for translation, which had previously been received by the Commission.

One letter in Spanish was written by Juan Perez, Piedras 676, Buenos Aires, Argentina, who expresses the general love for President Kennedy and the feeling that Oswald was, indeed, the assassin and that "many of us are potential assassins of Oswald."

Another letter in Swedish was written by Malcolm C. Karlsson, Hedemora, Sweden and enclosed newspaper clippings on how the case (sic) is felt in Europe. The clippings possibly from a Stockholm newspaper, issue of 2/15/64, are entitled "Sensational Facts About the Murder in Dallas" and pertain to a "private investigation in Dallas" by Attorney Mark Lane, whose story allegedly appeared in the "National Guardian" and dealt with the "legend of the Dallas police."

A third letter, actually consisting of two letters in German, one addressed to Mr. Earls Warrens and the other to Rubinstein ("Jack Ruby") was anonymously written. Both are highly incoherent, completely confused, and evidence anti-Semitic feelings.

ACTION:

Attached for approval is a proposed reply to Rankin dated 3/6/64 furnishing the required translations.

TO : The Director

DATE: 3/6/64

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages A1151-A1152. Congressman Dulski, (D) New York, extended his remarks concerning need for legislation providing for Federal jurisdiction over persons charged with attacks upon the life of the President, Vice President, and successors to the Presidency. He pointed out that he was introducing such legislation. Mr. Dulski included a statement concerning Federal jurisdiction for such legislation in which reference is made to a 1936 case against George W. Barrett who killed Special Agent Nelson B. Klein on August 16, 1935. Barrett had contended that the punishment for his crime was exclusively within the jurisdiction of the State wherein the crime was committed. The court held there was no merit to this contention. The statement inserted by Dulski further says "As the Oswald case shows, State investigation leaves much to be desired from the standpoint of proper, if not due, process of law."

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY
11-22-63
DALLAS, TEXAS

Mr. J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel of the President's Commission, by letter dated 3-4-64 advised that in connection with the proposed examination of two witnesses by the Commission on 3-11-64 the Commission would like to have a number of exhibits available. Concerning the exhibits, this request has been referred to the Laboratory and these items will be delivered to the Commission prior to March 11 in accordance with whatever arrangements the Commission desires.

Item four in Mr. Rankin's letter refers to a number of articles of clothing, including the trousers that were worn by Oswald at the time of his arrest. The trousers worn by Oswald when he was arrested were the same trousers he was wearing when he was killed by Jack Ruby. These trousers are, at the present time, in the custody of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department, and are the same trousers which were brought from Dallas to Washington, D. C., by an Agent of the Dallas Office and remained in Washington, D. C., from Sunday through Thursday while Marina Oswald was testifying.

We also made available to the President's Commission color photographs of these trousers. Mr. Howard Willens, of the President's Commission, was telephonically advised on 3-5-64 of the foregoing information concerning the trousers and the fact that the Jack Ruby trial is now in progress in Dallas. Consequently, it would appear desirable for the Commission, if they desire these trousers, to make arrangements for the trousers to be turned over to the Commission. Mr. Willens stated for the time being the Bureau should disregard this request concerning the trousers and they would try to get along with the color photographs unless other requests were made.

Items five, six and eight of Mr. Rankin's letter call for very extensive drawings, photographing and other requests which are of the time-consuming nature.

Memo to Mr. Belmont from A. Rosen
Re: Assassination of President Kennedy

The Dallas Office has been telephonically furnished the requests. They were told to review the requests immediately, determine what information could be obtained without difficulty, whether the Dallas Office could handle the remaining requests, or whether it would be necessary to have expert craftsman assistance in preparing the material desired. The Dallas Office was told to give consideration, if necessary, to having the drawings, etc., made on a commercial basis or whether they desired to have assistants from the Exhibits Section of the Bureau. Dallas will make recommendations concerning this matter on 3/6/64, bearing in mind the necessity for handling these requests at the earliest possible date.

In the absence of Mr. Rankin, Mr. Howard Willens of the President's Commission was contacted concerning the extensive requests contained in the 3/4/64 letter from Mr. Rankin. Mr. Willens was advised that their letter of 3/4/64 was received in the Bureau 3/5/64, the Dallas Office had been requested to comply with the desires of the Commission, but due to the nature of the extensive requests we could not guarantee that the requests of the Commission could be complied with by 3/11/64. Mr. Willens stated that with regard to the request for the first-floor plat of the Texas School Book Depository Building which they requested to have by 3/6/64, they would appreciate receiving it no later than 3/10/64 if this was possible. He desired to be advised as soon as practical how long it would take for the information set forth in the 3/4/64 letter to be obtained. Mr. Willens was advised that he would be given an approximate date when these requests could be complied with as soon as possible.

ACTION:

There is attached a letter to Mr. Rankin confirming the conversation with Mr. Willens.

ADDENDUM JRM:mpd 3/6/64:

E.W. Shanklin called today and advised the Dallas Office did not have personnel who were qualified to handle the drawings and other items requested by Mr. Rankin. He requested that the Bureau send Inspector Gauthier of the Exhibits Section, as well as a qualified photographer, to assist the Dallas Office in carrying out the requests. Inspector Gauthier has been advised of this request and is making the necessary preparations to go to Dallas immediately.

RECOMMENDATION: It is recommended that Inspector Gauthier immediately proceed to Dallas and take with him whatever help he needs in carrying out the requests of Mr. Rankin and that a qualified photographer also be sent to Dallas.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

In connection with the proposed examination of Buell Wesley Frazier and Linnie Mae Randle by the Commission on March 11, we would like to have the following exhibits available:

1. The wrapping paper in the shape of a large bag which is marked Q10 in an FBI laboratory report dated November 23 addressed to the Dallas Chief of Police, lab file number PC-78243BX, D-436461AX. Also, we would like to have the "paper and tape sample from Shipping Department, Texas Public School Book Depository," referred to in said FBI laboratory report as K2. In addition, we would like to have the replica paper sack which was used in connection with an interview of Linnie Mae Randle on December 1 by FBI Special Agents Bardwell D. Odum and Gibbon A. McNeely, a resume of said interview appearing at pages 298-299 of the report of Special Agent Robert Gemberling dated December 10. This replica sack was also used by Odum and McNeely in an interview on December 1 with Buell Wesley Frazier appearing at pages 294-297 of said Gemberling report of December 10.

2. We would also like to have available the rifle, Exhibit K1. It may be necessary to have the rifle stripped down.

3. For these witnesses, as well as for other witnesses, it would be helpful to have available another Mannlicher-Carcano 6.5 mm. rifle of the same type known as Exhibit K1. It is not necessary that this be available on March 11, but we would like to have this as soon as possible.

4. We would like to have three items of Oswald's clothing for possible identification by Mrs. Randle and Buell Wesley Frazier. One of these would be the jacket that was subsequently found in the Texas School Book Depository Building. Another, would be the so-called rust colored sport shirt with a hole in the right sleeve referred to at page 304 of the aforementioned Gemberling report. In addition, we would like to have the shirt and trousers worn by Oswald at the time of his arrest, together with all trousers found at the residence on North Beckley at the time of the search, and the jacket with the zipper found near the Tippit shooting.

5. We would like to have a plat of the immediate locale in Irving, Texas, which would show the Paine residence, the Randle-Frazier residence, and the surrounding lots and streets across which Oswald may have walked. We suggest that if this land has been platted, there should be a plat available at the County Court House, that would show the size and dimensions of the lots and on this plat it could be superimposed to scale the outlines of the improvements. In particular, we are concerned with showing the Randle-Frazier house and carport as accurately as possible, including a location of windows.

6. We would like a photograph of the Irving, Texas, area which would show the Randle-Frazier house and carport with windows and also have shots taken from the viewpoint of a person looking out of these windows or coming out of the door along the path or route followed by Oswald on the morning of November 22. According to the interview with Mrs. Randle appearing on pages 288-289 of said Gemberling report, she saw Oswald walking diagonally from Fifth Street in a northeasterly direction, across Westbrook Street toward the back of her house while she was standing at her sink looking out the window. She says she opened the back door a slight bit to see what he was doing, and saw him go to the far side of her brother's car which was parked just north of the carport and headed in an easterly direction toward Westbrook Street and saw Oswald open the right rear door of the car. To double-check the credibility and accuracy of her testimony, we would like to have these plats be made so as to show accurately these reference points so that we can verify whether or not a person with such a line of vision would be able to see what Mrs. Randle states in her interviews. Also, if there are any photographs of the Frazier car, we would like these available.

7. We would also like to have the application for driver's license for Oswald, together with the application for employment with the photographic concern to be used to examine the witness Frazier.

8. We would like to have a plat available of the Texas School Book Depository Building; with particular reference to the employee parking lot where Frazier parked his car on that morning and the entry way used by Oswald which Frazier described as "the first door in the back of the Depository Building," and also any other entry ways from this area together with a plat of the first floor so that Frazier can describe and show the course he took upon entering into the building. We would also like to have pictures of the exterior and interior of the building at this point. We would like to make sure that the first floor plat is available to us not later than March 9. — 10 In addition, as soon as possible, but not necessarily by March 9, could you please furnish us with complete floor plans of the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh floors of the Texas School Book Depository Building. Could you please indicate on these plans the location of the employees' lunch rooms, dressing room, and soft drink dispenser, and the location and position, when found, of (1) the three spent 6.5 mm cartridge cases, (2) the C 14 rifle, (3) the C 10 wrapping-paper bag, (4) any "Ten Rolling Readers" cartons found in the area immediately adjacent to the crime scene, (5) the clipboard referred to at page 381 of SA Gemberling's Report dated December 10, 1963, (6) the blue jacket referred to at page 209 of SA Gemberling's Report dated December 23, 1963, and (7) the finger and palm prints of Lee Harvey Oswald found on the cartons at the crime scene. In the case of any finger and palm prints, could you please indicate the finger or palm which left the print and the direction in which the finger or palm pointed. Also, could you please indicate where "Ten Rolling Readers" cartons were generally stored.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

With reference to your letter of March 4, 1964, wherein you requested a number of exhibits and other desired information in connection with the proposed examination of Buell Wesley Frazier and Linnie Mae Randle, the following will confirm conversation with Mr. Howard Willens of your office.

In Item four on page two of the referenced letter, mention was made of trousers worn by Oswald at the time of his arrest. Mr. Willens was advised that the trousers in question were also worn by Oswald at the time he was killed by Jack Ruby, that these trousers are in the possession of the Dallas, Texas, Police Department and these trousers are the same trousers that were brought from Dallas to Washington, D. C., and kept in Washington, D. C., by an Agent of our Dallas Office while Marina Oswald was being questioned by the President's Commission. He was advised that color photographs of the trousers were made available to the Commission and that in view of the fact that the Jack Ruby trial is now in progress, it would appear desirable that, if the trousers were necessary for the Commission, appropriate arrangements should be made with Dallas authorities by the President's Commission. Mr. Willens advised that the request concerning the trousers should be disregarded at this time.

Mr. Willens was advised in connection with Items five, six and eight of your letter that these requests appear to be very extensive in nature and could possibly require considerable time to obtain the desired information. He was advised that in view of the fact that these requests were not received until March 5, 1964, it was possible the information would not be available by March 11, 1964; however, our Dallas Office has been requested to comply with the requests as fast as possible. Mr. Willens advised that the President's Commission would appreciate it if the first-floor plat of the Texas School Book Depository Building, which had been requested to be available by March 9, 1964, could be made available no later than March 10, 1964.

In view of the extensive nature of the requests, you will be advised as soon as possible the approximate date the FBI can complete the various requests contained in your letter. With reference to the items mentioned in paragraphs one, two and three, they will be delivered to the President's Commission on the morning of March 11, 1964, at 9:00 a.m. If you desire other arrangements, please advise.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY
11/22/63
DALLAS, TEXAS

PURPOSE:

To recommend the attached letter be sent to the President's Commission to further clarify information in its letter dated 2/24/64.

DETAILS:

Mr. Rankin, President's Commission, by letter 2/24/64 advised Mr. Jones Harris of New York City appeared at the Commission and brought with him several photographic enlargements of a section of one photograph depicting the Presidential motorcade passing the Texas School Book Depository Building. Mr. Harris believed the figure of an individual standing in the doorway of this building was identical with Lee Harvey Oswald. The pictures were brought to our attention for whatever action we deemed appropriate and will be retained.

The second item in Mr. Rankin's letter related to a previously resolved allegation that Lee Harvey Oswald's name appeared on a guest register of the "Fox and Hounds" restaurant, Hubertus, Wisconsin. Harris states upon learning of this rumor (apparently through the press) he corresponded with one Robert L. Dishon, a reporter for the "Milwaukee Journal" and Dishon felt there was "something to the rumor".

RE: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY

Mr. Rankin stated he was furnishing this to us for our information and for use in conducting an interview of Dishon "if you agree one should be conducted."

BACKGROUND:

No information identifiable with Mr. Jones Harris or Robert L. Dishon could be located in Bureau files.

The photograph identified by Mr. Harris as resembling Oswald was investigated previously and was in the process of being reported by Dallas. Although Commission'. did not make a specific request, Dallas was instructed to furnish a letterhead memorandum for the Commission, establishing this individual is Billy Nolan Lovelady, an employee of the Texas School Book Depository Building. The Commission is being furnished enlargements of Lovelady's photograph which shows his resemblance to Oswald.

With regard to the alleged signature of Oswald on the register of "Fox and Hounds," the Commission, in addition to our memorandum dated 12/13/63 entitled "Hoaxes, False Reports and Irresponsible Reporting" was furnished the report of SA Richard C. Thompson dated 12/2/63 at Milwaukee which fully sets out our thorough investigation of this matter. Our investigation clearly disclosed the signature was not written by Oswald; and that on 11/30/63 we received an anonymous telephone call indicating that one man of a party of 3 couples had inscribed the name of Lee Oswald on the register.

Although the Commission did not make a specific request, Milwaukee was instructed to interview Dishon to insure every logical aspect of this matter is run out. Dishon was merely suspicious of the manager who was not cooperating with him in his unofficial inquiries and Dishon felt this lack of cooperation was an indication the manager was "hiding something significant." Dishon could furnish no information of value.

ACTION:

That the attached letter be sent to the President's Commission furnishing it with the results of our inquiries.

The following items were received from your office with your letter dated 12/13/63, and no "C" designations were assigned to these items since the items were used only for control purposes.

OBTAINED FROM DALLAS POLICE DEPARTMENT, DALLAS, TEXAS

Maxwell House coffee can containing paraffin
One and one-half inch paint brush
Three one-fourth pound blocks of Gulfwax paraffin
Sample of diphenylbenzidine used by personnel of Dallas City-County Criminal Investigation Laboratory, Dallas, Texas

The Gulfwax paraffin and diphenylbenzidine samples were not retained since they were not evidentiary items.

The following item was received from your office with your letter dated 12/21/63:

Plastic bottle containing tap water from Dallas, Texas. This water sample was similarly used only for control purposes and was not retained.

The paraffin casts, Q53A through Q53G, were analyzed by neutron activation analyses at Oak Ridge National Laboratories, Research Reactor Site, Oak Ridge, Tennessee. The Union Carbide Corporation personnel at this site who worked on the actual analyses of these specimens with the FBI Laboratory examiners were Dr. Frank F. Dyer and Mr. Joel F. Emery.

You have been previously furnished photographs of specimens Q53A through Q53G and Q54 through Q58. These are the only specimens which have been assigned "C" designations.

If a report has been previously submitted regarding any of the above exhibits, you should prepare a letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination identifying the report in which the pertinent information is set forth.

If no investigative report has been submitted regarding these exhibits, then you should prepare one. Two copies should be designated for the President's Commission and the copy which is signed by the SAC will be retained as the Bureau's file copy.

It is to be noted that the Commission was previously furnished photographs of all items in this report which have been assigned "C" numbers.

Results of examination:

The paraffin casts, Q53A through Q53G, were analyzed by neutron activation analyses to determine if these paraffin casts from Oswald, which were made, chemically treated and washed by the Dallas law enforcement authorities bore any deposits which couldbe specifically associated with the rifle cartridge cases found in the Texas School Book Depository Building following the President's assassination. result of these examinations, the deposits found on the paraffin casts from the hands and cheek of Oswald could not be specifically associated with the rifle cartridges. Elements (barium and antimony) were found on the casts; however, these same elements were found in powder residues both from the above rifle cartridge cases and from the revolver cartridge cases which were fired from Oswald's revolver reportedly between the time of the assassination and the time of apprehension.

No characteristic elements were found by neutron activation analyses which could be used to distinguish the rifle from the revolver cartridges.

In view of the fact that the paraffin casts were not made until after the reported firing and handling of the fired revolver, no significance could be attached to the residues found on the casts other than the conclusion that barium and antimony in these residues are present in amounts greater than would be expected to be found on the hands of an individual who has not recently fired a weapon or handled a fired weapon.

No identifiable particles of powder residues were found in the envelopes and sacks, Q54 through Q58.

The submitted evidence is being retained.

Addendum: Mr. William S. Lyon, Dr. Frank F. Dyer and Mr. Joel F. Emery all of Union Carbide Corporation, Oak Ridge, Tennessee, who have studied data from Oswald's casts concurred in conclusion of this Laboratory report.

Reurairtel 2/28/64 and Buairtel 3/3/64.

Pursuant to your request in reairtel, there are enclosed three sets of slides (27 slides in each set) and five sets of photographic prints (27 prints in each set) made at the time of the autopsy on the body of Oswald by Dr. Earl Forrest Rose, Dallas County Medical Examiner. The prints were made from the slides and are identical with them.

You noted in reairtel that you are preparing a letterhead memorandum in connection with this phase of the investigation. The sets of slides and photograph prints should be enclosed with the letterhead memorandum as follows:

	Sets of Slides	Sets of Prints
For Commission	1	2
For CIA	1	1
For Bureau	0	1

One set of slides and one set of photographic prints are for your file. Since the Laboratory has already retained one set of the slides, no other set of slides should be designated for Bureau. Submit the letterhead memorandum reporting this phase of the investigation promptly together with the enclosures noted above.

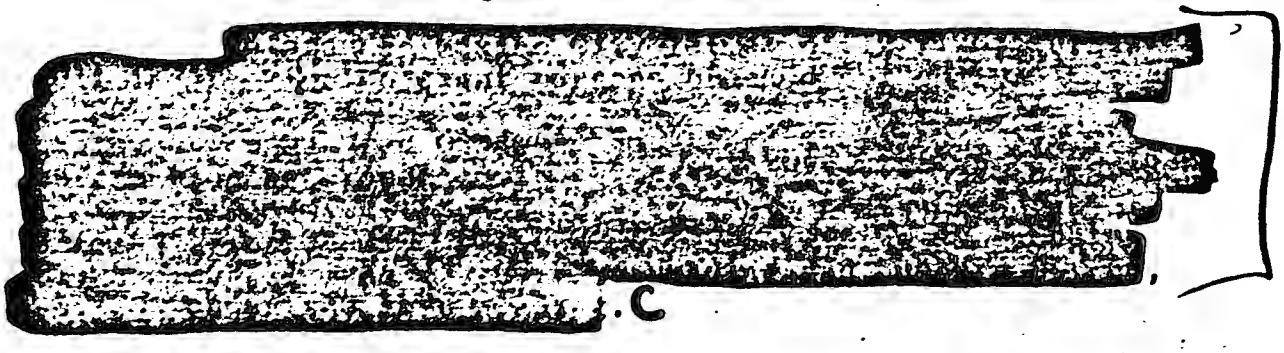
ReBucab 2/14/64 instructed that all individuals who departed from Nuevo Laredo 10/3/63 during the shift following that of ALBERTO ARZAMENDI CHAPA be identified. This has been done and the results set forth in the letterhead memorandum. Since a great percentage of the travelers leaving Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on 10/3/63 departed during the shift following the one in which OSWALD departed and in the interest of thoroughness, all travelers departing Nuevo Laredo on 10/3/63 on tourist cards have been listed in the letterhead memorandum and leads have been set forth below to locate and interview all of these travelers. u

Referenced San Antonio airtel of 12/3/63 listed some of the names appearing in the attached letterhead memorandum and set forth leads to locate and interview these people. The results of investigation growing out of these leads were not furnished to the Mexico City Office and it is not known which of the persons listed in the San Antonio airtel and duplicated in the attached letterhead memorandum were located and interviewed. Offices for whom leads are set forth below who have located and interviewed any of the persons mentioned should ignore the leads so far as these persons are concerned. u



If investigation has already been conducted to interview these eight people, leads set forth below concerning them should be ignored. u

Referenced Mexico City letter of 2/20/64 forwarded to the Bureau three Xerox copies each of the form FM-11 covering departures at Nuevo Laredo on 10/3/63 and entries at the same place on 9/26/63. If the attached letterhead memorandum is disseminated to the Presidential Commission, it is suggested the Bureau may desire to furnish one copy each of the FM-11 departures (covering persons traveling on FM-5 tourist cards and FM-8 tourist cards) to the Commission.

COPIES

It will be noted that the number of copies designated for the various domestic field offices is not uniform. Copies were designated on the basis of the number of leads for each field office, and for this reason there is a variation in the number of copies. It is suggested that the Bureau furnish the corresponding number of copies of the letterhead memorandum to each field office listed, a sufficient number of copies of the letterhead memorandum having been furnished for this purpose.

REQUEST OF BUREAU

If not previously done, the Bureau is requested to prepare and furnish to all offices receiving leads herewith sufficient copies of the best available photograph or photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. In view of the fact that some offices have numerous leads, it is suggested that, if necessary to furnish same, the number of copies of the photograph be provided to coincide with the number of copies of this airtel and enclosure designated for each office.

The Bureau is requested to determine the desirability and best method of conducting investigation in the foreign countries listed hereinunder in connection with the persons identified by the forms FM-5 and FM-8 in connection with each. If it is determined that coverage is feasible, it is suggested that photographs be provided to the agency handling same with the request that the individual, in each instance, be located, shown a photo of OSWALD, and interviewed concerning his knowledge of the latter's activities, travel in Mexico, and departure from Mexico, with particular attention to his probable destination at the time he left Mexico on October 3, 1963:

AT ARUBA, DUTCH WEST INDIES

With respect to FM-5, numbered 84, will locate, interview and display photograph of OSWALD to JUAN MATEO DE CUBA on the basis of the following information:

It appears from his past record that SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON is sincerely pro-American and was greatly distressed to think that it was desired by any branch of the U.S. government that he take a lie detector test. He admitted listening to many newspaper reporters while in Mexico City and he does not have such speculation, comments and facts attributed with any accuracy to specific sources from whom he received them. Dr. EDUARDO BORRELL NAVARRO is the only person whose name he knew and he therefore attributed everything to him.

he admitted, as set forth in the LHM, that he had practically no first hand information to attribute to BORRELL NAVARRO, but tried to establish that he had probably been misunderstood by SA JAMES J. O'CONNOR. When interrogated on 2/29/64, he admitted he had not been misunderstood and furnished the data as set forth, admitting in fact, that he had lied in an effort to sustain an irresponsible story he first circulated without realizing it would become serious.

Cuba Mexico

SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON was interviewed by Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Miami, Florida, on February 27, 1964, at which time he furnished the following information:

DIAZ VERSON resides at 8770 S.W. 21st Street, Westchester, Miami, Florida. He is a Cuban exile, formerly associated with the Cuban police in 1933, Chief of Cuban Military Intelligence Service during the period 1948 to 1952, but primarily a newspaperman by profession.

He had been previously interviewed by a Special Agent of the FBI on January 4 and 9, 1964, on which dates he furnished data which he had obtained while attending a Congress of the International Federation of Professional Newspaper Organizations (FIOPP), in Mexico City, from November 20, 1963 to November 29, 1963.

He stated he knew absolutely nothing first hand concerning the visit of LEE HARVEY OSWALD to Mexico or of persons contacted by OSWALD while in Mexico. He stated, as previously reported, that he did have contact with Dr. EDUARDO BORRELL NAVARRO, who is employed by the Mexican newspaper EXCELSIOR, but stated he did not, and does not, attribute to Dr. BORRELL NAVARRO the information regarding the contact of OSWALD with SILVIA DURAN, an employee of the Cuban Consulate at a Mexico City restaurant.

Mexico Cuba

DIAZ stated the only contact of OSWALD discussed by him with BORRELL NAVARRO was that of the visit of OSWALD to the Cuban Consulate in Mexico, and the fact that SILVIA DURAN was picked up and interviewed by the

Mexico

Mexican police. He said there was some speculation and talk regarding the identity of the specific official of the Cuban Consulate or Embassy with whom DURAN may have placed OSWALD in contact. DIAZ VERSON stated Dr. BORRELL NAVARRO never stated that OSWALD went to a restaurant in Mexico City called the Caballo Blanco or possibly the Caballo Bayo, where OSWALD and DURAN allegedly met an official of the Cuban Embassy. DIAZ VERSON stated he did not discuss with BORRELL NAVARRO the allegation that OSWALD was a guest in the house of SILVIA DURAN while he was in Mexico.

DIAZ VERSON stated the matter of OSWALD allegedly meeting with DURAN at the restaurant and allegedly being a guest in her home, were strictly unidentified questions, comments and the voicing of thoughts and speculation by a rather large group of Latin American newspapermen in the offices of EXCELSIOR on the night of November 25, 1963.

DIAZ VERSON stated that after ANGEL FERNANDEZ VARELA was interviewed by the FBI in Miami, Fla., he came to DIAZ VERSON and asked: "Just what were those details about OSWALD meeting DURAN in some cabaret or restaurant in Mexico City and the introduction of OSWALD to an official of the Cuban Embassy?" FERNANDEZ VARELA admitted he had not understood the story too well and perhaps had confused it "a little" when he retold it.

On February 29, 1964, upon being further interviewed concerning variations in his accounts of the above events, and especially the sources responsible for certain specific statements, DIAZ VERSON admitted that he did make statements to a Special Agent of the FBI on January 4 and 9, 1964, slightly at variance with each other, and both at variance with what he related to another Special Agent of the FBI on February 27, 1964. He stated he did not do this out of malice or bad faith, or with intent to mislead anyone. He declared he did not regard anything he heard, or said he had heard in Mexico, as evidence, or of serious importance; he stated he had engaged in loose talk and repeated theory and speculation, and when challenged as to his sources, he was ashamed to admit an irresponsible naming of sources.

DIAZ VERSON explained he went to FIOPP in Mexico City as mentioned above; he did not go to investigate anything, and consequently, when visiting the newspaper office of EXCELSIOR, he did not listen closely to the eighteen or twenty newsmen who were there, expressing ideas, theories and speculation, regarding the visit of LEE HARVEY OSWALD to Mexico.

DIAZ VERSON stated he took no notes on what was said by the reporters as he knew at the time it was only speculation and newsman conversation; Dr. BORRELL NAVARRO was the only person present whose name he knew and DIAZ VERSON simply attributed some things said to BORRELL NAVARRO which BORRELL NAVARRO did not say. DIAZ VERSON believed all others present in the offices of EXCELSIOR were Mexicans.

DIAZ VERSON stated he cannot honestly separate, as to source, what he heard from about twenty newsmen, what he read in Mexico City newspapers, and what he heard from Dr. BORRELL NAVARRO.

DIAZ VERSON stated he was extremely distressed and ashamed of his irresponsible talk as he is a professional newsman. He said he writes for AHORA, a Spanish language newspaper in New York, and writes special articles for various other Spanish language periodicals. He stated he has written nothing concerning what he heard regarding the OSWALD case in Mexico, as he recognized he had nothing newsworthy, and no facts which he could substantiate.

DIAZ VERSON declined to take a polygraph examination stating it would only humiliate him further, and show what he had already admitted.

With regard to a relationship between BORRELL NAVARRO and HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO, DIAZ VERSON stated BORRELL NAVARRO is a Cuban, only temporarily residing in exile in Mexico City. HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO and wife, SILVIA, are Mexicans. DIAZ VERSON stated that Cuba protested the arrest and interrogation of SILVIA DURAN by the Mexican Police; the Mexican Foreign Office rejected the protest, and in doing so, stated DURAN NAVARRO and wife are Mexican citizens. DIAZ VERSON stated this was the account published in Mexico City newspapers, and he concluded the same maternal name of NAVARRO for BORRELL NAVARRO and DURAN NAVARRO is only coincidence.

Synopsis:

Mrs. DYKES unable to state how her name came into BOWEN's possession. She advised no one told her they had sent her name to BOWEN but surmised as much when BOWEN sent her letter requesting aid for his mission in Mexico. She stated it was possible that he could have obtained her name from mailing list as she contributes to number of organizations. Mrs. ADA AMOS, sister of OSBORNE or BOWEN advised she has not communicated with brother for many years due to disagreement in borrowing money. She advised brother served in British Army in India and later immigrated to the United States in 1914. He has settled in the southeast part of the United States. OSBORNE visited sister in England in December, 1964. She is unaware of OSBORNE using name of BOWEN.

Mrs. WILMA DYKES, 1038 South Whitcomb Street, Indianapolis, Indiana, advised that she and her husband are from Tennessee and while residing there were active in The Southern Baptist Church. She stated that since they have moved to Indianapolis, Indiana, they have not been associated with any church group.

Mrs. DYKES stated that she felt it was her duty to contribute to various religious organizations.

She advised that sometime ago, date unrecalled, she received a brochure from BOWEN concerning his mission and missionary work in Mexico and requesting financial aid. She stated that due to the fact it was a Baptist Mission she decided to contribute to his mission.

Mrs. DYKES was unable to advise how her name came into BOWEN's possession. She stated the possibility existed that he obtained her name from a mission mailing list or from one of the Baptist organizations back home in Tennessee.

Mrs. ADA AMOS, 353 Marshall Street, Gary, Indiana, 80 years of age, advised that ALBERT OSBORNE is her brother. She related that she has not been in touch with ALBERT for many years and does not know his current address or whereabouts. She presumed that he might be in England as one of her sisters communicated with her in late December, 1963, advising that ALBERT had visited with her and other relatives in England in December.

Mrs. AMOS furnished the following personal history concerning her brother ALBERT:

She stated ALBERT was born November 12, 1889, in Grimsby, England. His parents are JAMES and EMILY COLE OSBORNE, both deceased. ALBERT attended primary schools in the town of Grimsby. He left school at an early age and was subsequently employed in a grocery store in Grimsby. He enlisted in the English Army in 1908 and following training in England, he was assigned with the Royal Armed Forces in India. The rest of his entire enlistment in the Army was spent in India. ALBERT subsequently bought himself out of the English Army in 1914. He immigrated to the United States in 1914 and settled in the southern part of the country. She recalled that most of his early years in the United States were spent in the State of Tennessee. She was unable to remember his places of residences in Tennessee. She recalled he was occupied as a preacher but was unable to remember his particular church affiliation. She also mentioned that ALBERT was occupied as an actor and lecturer and frequently participated in plays and gave talks on his career in India.

Mrs. AMOS stated that ALBERT married, however, she does not know his wife's maiden name or her current whereabouts. She stated that ALBERT had one son, who was reported killed in action while serving in the United States Armed Forces in World War II. ALBERT has a daughter-in-law and grandson living in the United States, however, she was unable to furnish their current location or their identities.

On 2/26/64 at Gary, Indiana File # IP 105-3399

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

She also recalled that ALBERT once resided in Laredo, Texas, but was unable to recall his residence or the occupation he pursued in that area. She vaguely recalled that ALBERT, on occasions, was affiliated with some Christian Association and was occupied in fulfilling engagements and talks on Life in India. At one period he was affiliated with a boys camp in the South, possibly in Tennessee. It was her recollection, from ALBERT's rather infrequent correspondence with other relatives that he had traveled to Mexico, crossing into that country from such places as Laredo and El Paso, Texas. She was unable to recall any information concerning ALBERT's possible travels to Canada, Spain or Scotland.

She also stated that ALBERT, at one time, resided in the cities of New York and Washington, D.C. She did not know his occupation or residences in these particular cities. She stated that she does not know whether ALBERT ever became a naturalized United States citizen. She also stated that she was unable to recall whether he had ever lived in Canada or had acquired Canadian citizenship.

Mrs. AMOS stated that she had only seen her brother ALBERT on one occasion in the last 55 years. She stated that ALBERT, approximately 20 years ago, visited at her home in Gary but only remained one night. She stated at that particular time he was involved in preaching and lecturing. She stated that she has not been in close contact with him because of a minor disagreement over the borrowing of money. She recalled sending him some money on one occasion, approximately 30 years ago and although ALBERT repaid her the sum, he had subsequently corresponded with her sisters complaining about the transaction. She recalled that during the 1920's, ALBERT wrote her requesting funds and she recalled sending the money to him in care of a JOHN HOWARD BOWEN at an address in New York City. She asserted that she does not have any knowledge of her brother ALBERT using a dual identity of BOWEN or ever utilizing any other name than his true name. In recalling the name "JOHN HOWARD BOWEN" she vaguely remembered transmitting money to ALBERT and believed that she sent it in care of BOWEN's address in New York City.

Mrs. AMOS advised that during his early years, ALBERT had manifested talent as an artist and spent much time in sketching and drawing. However, she stated she has never heard of ALBERT having any technical or scientific skills and never heard of him being involved in oceanography or other scientific projects.

Mrs. AMOS informed that her brothers: WILL, JIM, FRANK and ABBOTT OSBORNE and her sister RHODA are dead. She said that she and ALBERT have the following living relatives:

ARTHUR OSBORNE (brother)
Residing in Horncastle, Hopecastle, England;

WALTER OSBORNE (brother)
Residing in the Old Peoples Home, Scather Road, Scather, England;

Mrs. ROSETTA GELL (sister)
87 Stheliers Road, Cleethorpes, Lincolnshire, England;

Mrs. FLORRY BOND (sister)
32 Owenit Street, Abbeywood,
London SE 2, England and

Mrs. EMILY FEATHERSTONE, (sister)
Residing in Grimsby, England.

Mrs. AMOS reiterated that she has not been in close contact with her brother ALBERT during the past 55 years and therefore would be unable to supply any detailed information concerning his life and activities during this period of time. She related that her sisters, Mrs. ROSETTA GELL, Mrs. FLORRY BOND and Mrs. EMILY FEATHERSTONE have all been in closer contact with ALBERT through the years and might be able to furnish more detailed and recent information relating to his activities. She mentioned that her sister, ROSETTA, corresponded with her about Christmas time, 1963, informing her that ALBERT visited with her and the other sisters in December, 1963, during his visit to England. However, ROSETTA did not elaborate concerning ALBERT's visit or explain any of his recent activities.

REC'D-READING ROOM MAR 6 4 55 PM '64

Enclosed is copy of letter from the President's Commission dated 3/3/64 requesting certain investigation be conducted based on testimony by Marina Oswald before the Commission. You should afford this matter your immediate and continuous attention, handling as follows:

Item #1 - Self-explanatory. Handle in accordance with the Commission's request. You will note that the Commission's letter is in error in that it refers to subject's residence on Elsbeth Street, Fort Worth, rather than Dallas.

Item #2 - Sutel your recommendations as to what additional investigation can be logically done to answer the Commission's inquiry.

Item #3 - Self-explanatory. Handle in accordance with the Commission's request.

Item #4 - The "yellow legal cap yellow sheet" referred to in the Commission's letter was not received at the Bureau and by separate communication the Commission has been requested to furnish same. This item is undoubtedly identical to Evidence Item Number D24 (Q42), which is described in Dallas report 12/10/63, pages 330 and 331. You should immediately contact George Bouhe and attempt to secure from him handwriting specimen in the Russian wording of D24. When obtaining this specimen from Bouhe, do not exhibit D24 to him for copying. After obtaining appropriate handwriting specimen from Bouhe, you should ascertain from him if the handwriting on this item is his and, if so, request him to also identify the English handwriting appearing on that document and obtain from him his full knowledge of this particular item. According to the Commission's letter, Marina Oswald identified the English handwriting as her own and stated that this document related to her study of the English language.

Item # 5 - By separate letter the Commission has been advised that an examination of the handwriting of subject does not disclose whether he is left-handed or right-handed. No further action regarding this item should be taken.

Item #6 - The 15 power telescope is Evidence Item Number 375 and the hunting knife is Evidence Number B5. Photographs of these two items have been furnished to you. Bureau Laboratory's examination with respect to the telescope showed that it contained the following identifying information "15X Telescope Wollensak U.S.A." The hunting knife appears to be of extremely poor quality and the only identifying information on this item is the stamped notation "Imperial Prov. R.I. USA." In the event the Paines are unable to identify these two items, you should immediately set out leads to identify the manufacturer for purpose of verifying from a representative of those companies whether or not it is feasible to trace these two items. It would appear extremely doubtful that these items can be traced. Handle immediately and submit results in form suitable for dissemination.

NOTE:

Instructions concerning Item #2 were coordinated with Supervisor Rogge, Division Six, and Division Six will follow that item with the Commission. Information concerning Item #6 was obtained from Laboratory Supervisor Frazier.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka

By letter of 2/25/64, J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel, The President's Commission, forwarded an address book, Item B-29 (Commission Exhibit 18), found at the residence of Oswald. It was suggested that it would be of interest to know which entries were made with the same inks for the purpose of establishing relationships between entries. Special reference was made to a page in the booklet reserved for entries under the Russian equivalent for our letter "K" and to Oswald's signature in the register of a Mexico City hotel.

It is not scientifically possible to identify one ink with another one due to the absence of individual identifying characteristics although it is possible to detect differences. From an identification standpoint, similarity of dye compositions can be determined but this is not sufficient to establish identity. We are so advising the Commission.

The Laboratory has found that certain entries on the address book page specifically referred to by the Commission have been made with different inks and that certain hand printing concerning which the Commission has expressed interest was prepared by Oswald. A photocopy of the Mexican hotel registration, referred to by the Commission has been previously examined in the Laboratory and we were able to identify this signature as having been written by Oswald. In view of this positive identification it would not appear that an analysis of the ink of which the signature is composed would serve any apparent purpose; however, we are offering to explore the possibility of obtaining this original registration from Mexico City for examination if the Commission desires.

A letter setting forth the Laboratory's findings and enclosing the booklet, Item B-29, is being forwarded to the Commission.

INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Enclosed for your information is a memorandum dated March 4, 1964, prepared by the New York Office of this Bureau relating to a letter to you dated February 10, 1964. This letter, the contents of which are set forth in the enclosed memorandum, was written by Mecislovas Razgaitis, 1225 Bushwick Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, and furnished to this Bureau on February 12, 1964. Mr. Razgaitis wrote that he had met Lee Harvey Oswald in New York in 1960. For your information inquiry to date has indicated that Oswald was in the Soviet Union in 1960.

Your attention is directed to the second paragraph on page 3 which advises that on being interviewed Mr. Razgaitis became emotionally upset and it was necessary for Agents of this Bureau to calm him in order to continue the interview.

In view of the above information no further action is contemplated by this Bureau. Copies of the enclosed memorandum are being furnished to the President's Commission and to the United States Secret Service.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Thank you for your letter of February 26, 1964, enclosing two copies of three individual documents relating to the appearance of Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald at Town Hall in New York City on February 18, 1964, and Mark Lane's appearance before students at the University of Wisconsin on February 16, 1964.

The Commission recognizes the limitations of the coverage currently being implemented by your Bureau to the publicly announced appearances of Mr. Lane and/or Mrs. Marguerite Oswald.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Re New York airtel to Bureau 2/28/64 which requests coverage of a meeting on 3/11/64 at the Ethical Society, 1906 Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia, under the auspices of the Philadelphia Friends of the National Guardian.

The Ethical Society describes itself as a religion which affirms no creed. Over the years the Ethical Society has granted the use of its hall to numerous iconoclastic causes, many of them left wing. Because of their known sympathies, it is not considered possible to arrange coverage through the leadership of this group.

Arrangements have been made through an established source at Radio Station WFIL Philadelphia, Pa to have that station attempt to openly tape record the affair for the purpose of using excerpts in news broadcasts and to make the recording available to us. No news releases announcing the affair have been made and the only known publicity is the announcement in National Guardian and a similar item in the 3/3/64 issue of the Morning Freiheit.

WFIL will have to make arrangements with those in charge of the meeting to arrange above coverage and this office will keep in close touch with WFIL.

If WFIL is denied permission to record the proceedings, Philadelphia will cover through having sources attend. Philadelphia does not plan to ask authority to attempt to surreptitiously record the proceedings because of the great possibility of embarrassment should this be discovered.

NOTE:
Memorandum Mr. Branigan to Mr. Sullivan 2/26/64 set forth requests from President's Commission for recording appearances of Mark Lane and Marguerite Oswald. Butel 2/26/64 to New York, Dallas and Buffalo, instructed that coverage should be limited to publicly announced meetings and recordings should be obtained only through reliable sources. Offices advised that specific Bureau approval required in the event it is considered necessary for Bureau personnel to attend meetings with recording devices. Philadelphia airtel 3/5/64 advised of attempts to cover Lane appearance on 3/11/64. We should make certain Philadelphia is taking necessary action to insure that all feasible efforts are being made to comply with Bureau instructions.

MURCHISONS /CLINT MURCHISON/, WHO IS WELL KNOWN TO BUREAU.

INFORMANT ADVISED MARINA CONTACTED KATHERINE FORD NIGHT OF MARCH THREE, NINETEEN SIXTYFOUR, AND MARINA WAS STILL CONCERNED WHETHER DECLAN FORD IS UPSET WITH HER. MARINA, ACCORDING TO INFORMANT, AGAIN GAVE MRS. FORD RUNNING ACCOUNT OF MC KENZIE-S CONVERSATION WITH ROBERT AND DISCUSSED PENDING LAWSUIT WITH MARTIN. MARINA SAID PERHAPS MARTIN TOLD HIS WIFE, WANDA, IN REGARD TO THEIR AFFAIR, THAT THIS IS ONLY A PLAY WHILE HE WILL MAKE MONEY AND STATED SHE DOES NOT CHERISH THE IDEA OF APPEARING IN COURT WITH MARTIN. MARINA AND MRS. FORD MENTIONED WANDA MARTIN CLAIMED SHE ACTED AS A SERVANT TO MARINA. MARINA STATED THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS OF HER MONEY WAS USED AND WANDA COULD AFFORD TO BE A SERVANT.

MARINA SAID GEORGE BOUHE AND ANNA RAY VIISITED HER ON MARCH THREE, NINETEEN SIXTYFOUR. MARINA SAID BOUHE TOLD HER HE ASKED THE FBI WHETHER FBI IS SATISFIED WITH HIS INFORMATION. MRS. FORD SAID SHE ADVISED THE FBI SOUHE DID NOT LIKE LEE HARVEY OSWALD BUT TRIED TO HELP MARINA. MRS. FORD MENTIONED ZINA /NOT FURTHER IDENTIFIED/ WHO WAS BORN APPARENTLY IN TURKEY OR MOLDAVIA BUT CLAIMED SHE WAS BORN IN SOVIET UNION AND RESIDED IN

TURKEY. MRS. FORD SAID ZINA WAS OF JEWISH ORIGIN AND DESCRIBED HER AS ATTRACTIVE PERSON BUT UNCOUTH, WHO, ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS WHILE VISITING FORDS, AS A JOKE, TOLD WHICHEVER MAN SHE SEEMED TO LIKE THAT SHE WOULD GO TO BED WITH HIM. MARINA SAID A WOMAN WOULD FEEL ASHAMED AFTER HEARING PROFANITIES /SPOKEN BY ZINA/ ESPECIALLY FROM ANOTHER WOMAN. MARINA SAID SHE THINKS LELIA /NOT FURTHER IDENTIFIED/ IS A NICE, THOUGH UNHAPPY WOMAN. MARINA TOLD MRS. FORD THAT GEORGE BOUHE SAID THERE IS MORE INTEREST IN JEANNE DE MOHRENSCHILDT THAN IN GEORGE DE MOHRENSHILDT. MRS. FORD ASKED, "WHERE, IN HAITI?" MARINA SAID YES. MARINA EXPLAINED GEORGE BOUHE SAID THERE WERE MORE QUESTIONS CONCERNING JEANNE THAN GEORGE FROM THE FBI. MRS. FORD ADVISED DE MOHRENSCHILDT WAS A GOOD PERSON BEFORE HE STARTED SEEING JEANNE. MRS. FORD MENTIONED GEORGE BOUHE IS GOING TO EUROPE ON VACATION IN MARCH OR APRIL AND THAT BOUHE WAS IN MEXICO DURING THE SUMMER. SHE SAID THAT THEY, THE FORDS, ALSO WERE IN MEXICO DURING THE SUMMER. MARINA ASKED MRS. FORD HOW SHE KNEW THEY /LEE AND MARINA/ LEFT FOR NEW ORLEANS. MRS. FORD REPLIED THAT LYDIA /NOT FURTHER IDENTIFIED, POSSIBLY LYDIA DYMITRUK, PREVIOUSLY INTERVIEWED/ TOLD HER SHE SAW MARINA IN A STORE AND MARINA WAS PREGNANT AT THE TIME.

ON MARCH FOUR, NINETEEN SIXTYFOUR, [redacted] ADVISED MARINA CONTACTED MRS. FORD TO DETERMINE IF MC KENZIE HD OFFERED ANYTHING TO DECLAN FORD AS YET. MARINA WAS CONCERNED BECAUSE DECLAN HAS NO WORK. MRS. FORD MENTIONED THEY HAVE INCOME FROM OTHER SOURCES BUT WOULD LIKE DECLAN TO HAVE A WELL-PAYING JOB. MARINA SUGGESTED DECLAN CAN FIND WORK IN MEXICO BUT MRS. FORD EXPLAINED HE WOULD HAVE TO WORK FOR THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT IN MEXICO, INDICATING THEY DID NOT WANT TO DO THAT. MARINA ASKED WHEN LYDIA IS COMING AND MRS. FORD SAID SHE IS DUE TOMORROW AND WILL STOP AT FORDS- HOUSE.

ON MARCH FOUR, NINETEEN SIXTYFOUR, SAME INFORMANT ADVISED DECLAN FORD CONTACTED WILLIAM MC KENZIE CONCERNING LETTER LEVINE NOT FURTHER IDENTIFIED, WROTE TO MARINA IN WHICH LEVINE HAD TALKED WITH MEREDITH PRESS AND GOT OKAY FOR THEM TO SPEND ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS A WEEK ON BABY SITTER SO THAT HE AND MARINA CAN START ON BOOK. THIS POSSIBLY REFERS TO ISAAC DON LEVINE.

[redacted] ADVISED HE LEARNED ON MARCH TWO, NINETEEN SIXTYFOUR, KATHERINE FORD, WHILE VISITING MARINA AT HER RESIDENCE, DISCUSSED PRESENTS GIVEN BY MARTIN TO MARINA. HE SAID MARINA MADE STATEMENT THAT SECRET SERVICE AND FBI KNOW EVERYTHING ABOUT THE WHOLE AFFAIR.

THIS INFORMANT SAID THAT LATER ON MARCH TWO, NINETEEN SXITYFOUR, DECLAN AND KATHERINE FORD VISITED MARINA AND CONTINUED TO DISCUSS HER BUSINESS AS TO SIGNING OF CONTRACTS.

ON MARCH THREE, NINETEEN SIXTYFOUR, [redacted] STATED GEORGE BOUHE VISITED MARINA AND WAS THERE WITH ANNA RAY AND ANNA-S SON, NAMED PAUL. BOUHE MENTIONED JEANNE DE MOHRENSCHILDT AND FACT JEANNE WORKED AT ONE TIME FOR NEIMAN-MARCUS. MARINA MENTIONED SHE HAS NO MONEY. BOUHE DESCRIBED DE MOHRENSCHILDT AS PLEASANT PERSON AND STATED DE MOHRENSCHILDT GAVE BOUHE HIS CAR, SAYING THAT SHOULD BOUHE EVER NEED FBI IN WASHINGTON, TO CALL HIM, DE MOHRENSCHILDT. INFORMANT STATED HE WAS NOT TOO CLEAR REGARDING THIS INFORMATION. BOUHE MENTIONED HE HAS HEARD SOMEWHERE THAT MARINA HAS SOME SORT OF A LOVER.

ON MARCH FOUR, NINETEEN SIXTYFOUR, AGENTS OBSERVED KATHERINE FORD TOOK MARINA TO NEARBY SHOPPING VILLAGE WHERE THEY WENT SHOPPING. MARINA REMAINS AT HER RESIDENCE MOST OF THE TIME AND HAS INDICATED TO FORDS SHE IS LONELY.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 3-4-64

On 2-24-64 Rankin requested that Marina Oswald's activities be closely followed to determine people contacting her. It is noted in attached that Marina Oswald alleges that her attorney stated Martin (her former business manager) wanted to inform Commission concerning happening in Washington, apparently referring to Martin and Oswald having sexual intercourse, and that Warren stated this did not pertain to case and refused to hear this data. This is quite strange inasmuch as we conducted extensive investigation concerning this incident at specific request of Commission. We are advising Commission by letter of this information.

MARINA WANTS TO TAKE THE CASE TO COURT. MARINA SAID MCKENZIE TOLD HER MARTIN WANTED TO TELL THE COMMISSION WHAT HAPPENED IN WASHINGTON, BUT WARREN DID NOT EVEN WANT TO HEAR ABOUT IT AND DOES NOT WANT IT TO BE IN THE REPORT. WARREN TOLD MARTIN, ACCORDING, TO MARINA, THAT THIS DOES NOT PERTAIN TO THE CASE AND FOR HIM TO BE SILENT ABOUT IT. MRS. FORD THINKS THORNE AND MARTIN MAY HOLD THIS OVER MARINA'S HEAD AS A THREAT. LATER ON NIGHT OF MARCH TWO LAST MARINA CONTACTED KATHERINE FORD STATING SHE MIGHT LIKE TO CONTACT GEORGE BOUHE (RETIRED ACCOUNTANT PREVIOUSLY INTERVIEWED IN THIS INVESTIGATION). MARINA SEEMED CONCERNED, AND ASKED MRS. FORD NOT TO RESENT THIS AND NOT TO THINK SHE WILL BE ASKING BOUHE FOR ADVICE BUT INDICATED SHE IS LONELY. SHE STATED BOUHE MIGHT VISIT HER.

INFORMANT ADVISED MARINA CONTACTED BOUHE AND INVITED HIM OUT FOR A CUP OF TEA. BOUHE DECLINED, STATING IT WAS TOO LATE AND THIS WAS NO TIME FOR MEN TO COME TO SEE MARINA. BOUHE INDICATED MRS. FORD IS VERY ANGRY WITH HIM. MARINA TOLD BOUHE SHE THINKS THERE WILL BE A COURT SUIT, AND MENTIONED THAT THORNE AND LEECH ARE ASKING FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS AND MARTIN IS ASKING TWENTY THOURSAND DOLLARS. BOUHE ASKED IF DECLAN FORD IS HER MANAGER, AND MARINA ADVISED SHE HAS NO OFFICIAL MANAGER BUT MAY USE FORD AS ONE. MARINA SAID SHE TOLD MCKENZIE HE IS EXPENSIVE, AND MCKENZIE TOLD HER THE ONLY REASON HE SITS IN DURING FBI INTERVIEWS IS TO LEARN MORE DETAILS WHICH MAY BE OF HELP TO HIM IN THE FIGHT WITH MARTIN. MARINA THINKS THORNE WOULD PREFER A SETTLEMENT. SHE THINKS MARTIN USED HER MONEY TO FEED HIS FAMILY DURING HIS UNEMPLOYMENT PERIOD. BOUHE MENTIONED HE IS NOT WORKING NOW AND IS RETIRED BUT HAS TWELVE CLIENTS COMPRISED OF BANKERS, LAWYERS,

AND GEOLOGISTS. HE IS SIXTY YEARS OF AGE AND DOES HIS WORK AT HOME. MARINA INDICATED THAT ANNA RAY WOULD BE OVER ON THE MORNING OF MAR THREE SIXTYFOUR, FOR A VISIT. MARINA THINKS DECLAN FORD IS HONEST AND A GOOD BUSINESSMAN. BOUHE INDICATED IT IS STRANGE THAT THE FORDS APPEAR TO BE ANGRY WITH HIM. INFORMANT SAID MARINA WOULD NOT GIVE BOUHE HER PHONE NUMBER, AND BOUHE TOLD HER HE DID NOT WANT TO MEET WITH HER IN THE PRESENCE OF THE FORDS. BOUHE THEN MENTIONED LEVINE, WHO WRITES FOR MEREDITH PRESS, AND SAID HE WOULD TRY TO VISIT MARINA MARCH THREE.

INFORMANT SAID HE LEARNED LATER MRS. FORD CONTACTED MARINA AGAIN MARCH TWO, AND WAS APPARENTLY UPSET WITH MARINA BECAUSE OF MARINA'S CONTACT WITH BOUHE. MARINA ASSURED MRS. FORD SHE DOES NOT INTEND TO TO TAKE BOUHE'S ADVICE. MRS. FORD APPEARED VERY INTERESTED IN MARINA'S DISCUSSION WITH BOUHE. MARINA WAS TROUBLED THAT MRS. FORD WAS UPSET BECAUSE OF BOUHE. MRS. FORD REMINDED MARINA THAT SHE HAD PROMISED NOT TO TALK WITH BOUHE WITHOUT A THIRD PARTY PRESENT. MRS. FORD SAID DECLAN FEELS HE CANNOT GIVE MARINA ADVICE SINCE A BIT LATER SOMEONE ELSE GIVES HER OTHER ADVICE. MARINA SAID SHE WILL LISTEN TO NO ONE EXCEPT DECLAN, AND SHE WANTS DECLAN TO BE HER MANAGER. SHE POINTED OUT TO MRS. FORD THAT THE FACT DECLAN WILL BE HER MANAGER DOES NOT MEAN SHE CANNOT SPEAK TO ANYONE ELSE. MRS. FORD SAID THAT LEVINE GIVES IMPRESSIONS THAT THEY HAVE SOME SORT OF ORAL UNDERSTANDING FOR MARINA'S WRITING. MARINA BELIEVES SHE DOES NOT WANT LEVINE

TO HANDLE HER WORK. MARINA GAVE MRS. FORD HER WORD SHE WILL NOT SIGN ANY CONTRACTS WITHOUT DECLAN FORD. SHE ADDED SHE DOES NOT INTEND TO HAVE ANY DISCUSSIONS WITH LEVINE ANY MORE. MARINA TOLD MRS. FORD SHE ASSURED MC KENZIE SHE TRUSTS HIM AND WANTS TO RETAIN HIM AS HER ATTORNEY.

INFORMANT SAID THAT LATER ON MAR TWO MARINA AGAIN CONTACTED GEORGE BOUHE AND TOLD BOUHE NOT TO GIVE LEVINE HER ADDRESS, THAT SHE DOES NOT WANT LEVINE BOTHERING HER.

INFORMANT ADVISED THAT LATER ON THE NIGHT OF MAR TWO DECLAN FORD VISITED MARINA AT HER RESIDENCE.

INFORMANT STATED DECLAN FORD CONTACTED ILYA MAMANCOV IN RICHARDSON, TEXAS, (MAMANCOV PREVIOUSLY INTERVIEWED). FORD ASKED IF ILYA WAS CALLED AS A TRANSLATOR FOR MARINA DURING THE EARLY DAYS OF THE INVESTIGATION. ILYA SAID HE WAS THERE THE FIRST DAY, FRIDAY NIGHT AFTER THE ASSASSINATION. FORD WAS INTERESTED IF ILYA HAD EVER TRANSLATED CONTRACTS BETWEEN MARTIN AND MARINA. ILYA SAID MARTIN TOLD HIM SHE UNDERSTANDS ENGLISH PRETTY WELL AND UNDERSTANDS SHE DOES NOT NEED A TRANSLATOR. ILYA SAID HE DOES NOT BELIEVE MARINA KNOWS ENGLISH THAT WELL. INFORMANT STATED FORD APPEARED TO BE PREPARING A DEFENSE FOR MARINA IN THAT ILYA HAD OFFERED HIS SERVICES AS A TRANSLATOR FOR MARINA BUT MARTIN HAD TURNED THIS SERVICE DOWN.

INFORMANT ADVISED MARINA SPEAKS VERY LITTLE ENGLISH BUT APPARENTLY IS ABLE TO UNDERSTAND AND COMMUNICATE WELL ENOUGH TO GET ALONG WITH ENGLISH CONVERSATIONS. HE POINTED OUT THAT ALL CONVERSATIONS BETWEEN MRS. FORD, BOUHE, AND MARINA ARE IN THE RUSSIAN LANGUAGE.

ON MORNING OF MAR THREE LAST, AGENTS OBSERVED WHITE MALE, WHITE FEMALE, AND SMALL CHILD, DRIVING CAR REGISTERED TO POLLOCK RAY, VISITING MARINA AT HER RESIDENCE.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my letter dated February 20, 1964, relating to a letter directed to the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the Serbo-Croatian language relating to Charles Watkins.

Enclosed for your information are two copies each of two communications, one from our Jacksonville, Florida, Office, dated February 24, 1964, and one from our New York City Office, dated March 3, 1964, which are self-explanatory.

This concludes our inquiries into this particular matter.

NOTE:

For full details see Rosen to Belmont memo, dated 2/19/64, captioned, "Assassination of President John F. Kennedy, 11/22/63, Dallas, Texas," RDR:mlt.

Briefly, this matter concerns the receipt of an anonymous letter at the Bureau, postmarked in Paris, France, in the above language which, when translated, apparently was intended for Chief Justice Warren. The translated letter implicated one Charles Watkins in the assassination and also accused him of being associated with Cuban communists. This material was furnished to the Commission and it was indicated because of the allegations we were checking it out. Based on investigation by our Jacksonville and New York Offices it was ascertained that the subject of the anonymous letter was Charles Leggett Watkins of New York City. It appears Watkins' wife, Margaret, has a brother, Stephen Relic, who resides in Paris, France, and whom she had been supporting. When this support stopped approximately two years ago he sent many threatening letters to them. According to Mrs. Watkins, her brother never works, has been in and out of jail in Europe on six occasions, and she has no doubt it was he who sent the anonymous letter. This concludes our inquiries and results being furnished the Commission as promised.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

As you are aware, Marina Oswald recently testified before the Commission over a period of four days and members of the Commission staff are currently reviewing her transcript. Thus far, several items suggest that additional investigation be conducted and the Commission has requested me to pass them on to your Bureau for that purpose. After the review mentioned above has been completed, additional items may suggest themselves, however, for the time being we would appreciate the following:

(1) Marina made reference to "two thick books on the history of the United States" which were carefully read by Lee Harvey Oswald while they were residing on Elsbeth Street in Fort Worth, Texas, which do not appear to be part of the inventory of items in the possession of either your Bureau or Texas authorities. The Commission feels the books may have significant value in terms of underlining and marginal notation, and accordingly requests an appropriate investigation of Mrs. Paine and the Dallas Police to determine their identity and location.

(2) At one point in her Commission testimony, Marina flatly states that the rifle she saw at their Neeley Street, Dallas, Texas address, did not have a scope on it. Later in her testimony she stated that she saw the scope on the rifle at a later date and that it had probably been on before, although she had not paid attention initially.

In this connection, we are aware that the report of Special Agent Warren De Brueys dated December 2, 1963, at page 655 contains an interview of Mr. Waldman, an official of the Klein's Sporting Goods, Chicago, Illinois, in which he stated that the Store's records indicated the rifle believed to be used by Oswald in the assassination of President Kennedy was shipped to Dallas

105-82555-2423

REC 26

12 MAR 1964

SOVIET

"by parcel post not broken down with bolts and scope intact." We are further aware that another Bureau report, that of Special Agent Shanahan, dated December 10, 1963, includes an interview of Mr. Mitchell Scibor, another Klein Sporting Goods employee, in which the latter stated that the store's records were such as to indicate that if normal procedures were followed, the scope was attached to the rifle when the store shipped it to Dallas. Supplementing paragraph numbered 5 of my letter to you dated February 21, 1964, the Commission desires that an attempt be made to confirm or negate the apparent fact that the scope was attached to the rifle when it was shipped to Dallas would be most helpful because if, in fact, the scope was mounted when shipped, then Marina may have been viewing a different weapon. On the other hand, should your investigation show that the rifle sold by Klein's was shipped without the scope attached, then Oswald would have had to have it mounted if, in fact, Oswald used that gun and scope at the time of the Walker incident, which followed the shipment by approximately two weeks.

(3) Marina testified that Lee Harvey Oswald practiced with the rifle in the vicinity of Love Field while they lived at their Neeley Street, Dallas, Texas, address during the period, March 3, 1963 to April 24, 1963. She further stated that she assumes Oswald fired the weapon during this period because she saw him clean it. The Commission believes that a thorough investigation of the Love Field area together with any rifle ranges in the vicinity is appropriate. It further believes that a check of the route which Oswald would take to get to Love Field might indicate the store where he may have purchased ammunition and obtained scope mounting service if such was required by him.

(4) When testifying before the Commission, Marina identified the enclosed yellow legal cap yellow sheet, on which are written Russian words with an English interlineal translation. She stated that the Russian words were written by George Bouhe, and that she wrote the English words and that this document related to her study of the English language. This document is probably the one referred to in Special Agent Robert Gemberling's report, dated December 10, 1963. The Commission would appreciate a handwriting identification to confirm or refute the alleged fact that the Russian words appearing thereon were written by George Bouhe. In addition, if this document is not the one referred to by Agent Gemberling as indicated above, we would appreciate your so advising.

(5) Marina testified that Lee Harvey Oswald was right-handed. Marguerite Oswald in her testimony, contradicts this and claims he was left-handed. If feasible, an examination of the handwriting of Lee Harvey Oswald should be undertaken to settle this question.

(6) During her testimony, Marina stated she was unable to identify the 15 power telescope and a hunting knife with a 4-5 inch blade submitted by the Bureau. Accordingly, we would appreciate further investigation as to whether these items belong to the Paines and if not, an attempt to trace their origin and ownership.

For your further information, we wish to advise that during her testimony before the Commission, Marina stated that she believes Lee Harvey Oswald did not know how to drive. Inasmuch as different persons interviewed have made statements which leave the question unconclusively determined, we are passing the information so that you may be aware of her sworn statement in this regard.

Thank you for your continuing cooperation in the work of this Commission.

Sincerely,

J. Lee Rankin

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated March 3, 1964, wherein you requested that additional investigation be conducted by this Bureau based upon the Commission's review of the testimony of Marina Oswald before the Commission.

Investigation has been initiated with respect to items number one, two, three and six in accordance with your request. With respect to item number four, the "yellow legal cap yellow sheet" referred to as being enclosed in your letter was not received by this Bureau. In order that a handwriting examination can be made concerning that item, it is requested that it be furnished to this Bureau. In connection with item number one, your letter refers to Lee Harvey Oswald's residence on Elsbeth Street, Fort Worth, Texas. Our investigation has disclosed that he resided on Elsbeth Street, Dallas, Texas, and in our handling of your request concerning that item, we are assuming that you mean Elsbeth Street, Dallas, Texas.

With regard to item number five, an examination of the handwriting of Lee Harvey Oswald does not disclose whether he is left-handed or right-handed. It is noted that normally the handwritings of individuals do not contain

NOTE:

This item on Director's Special List. Marina Oswald recently testified before the Commission over a period of four days. Following partial review of her testimony, the Commission requested that additional investigation be conducted concerning the following: (1) Locate two thick books on history of United States carefully read by Oswald while residing on Elsbeth Street, Fort Worth, which do not appear to be part of any inventory items obtained to date. (2) To determine whether rifle in possession of Oswald did or did not have mounted scope when shipped from factory. (Our investigation shows that according to records of company which shipped rifle to Oswald, rifle had "scope intact" at time of shipment.) Investigative Div. is handli Commission's inquiries regarding this item. (3) Conduct additiona investigation vicinity of Love Field, Dallas, to determine possible location of site where Oswald may have practiced with rifle, according to Marina. *(4) (5) Conduct handwriting examination to definitely determine whether Oswald right or left-handed. Information reported above concerning this item obtained from Supervisor Cadigan. (6) Ascertain whether 15 power telescope and hunting knife furnished to Commission belonged to the Paines or, if not, trace origin and ownership. By separate communicatio field given specific instructions concerning investigation desire in order to comply with the Commission's request.

*(4) Make handwriting examination of above-mentioned "yellow sheet".

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
U. S. Department of Justice
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

As you know, one of the pieces of evidence inventoried by your Bureau and submitted to the Commission is the enclosed address book found at the residence of Lee Harvey Oswald after his apprehension.

An examination of the booklet shows that the many different entries in the booklet were made with different inks and pens. A particular example, and one which relates to Oswald's Mexican trip shortly before the assassination of our late President, appears on one of the pages reserved for entries under the Russian equivalent for our letter "K".

In connection with this page, it appears to the layman's eye that the great majority of the words written thereon were written with the same ink pen and not in Oswald's handwriting. However, the entry "Sylvia Duran" seems to have been inserted later, apparently by Oswald, with a dark blue ball point pen. Another entry apparently was added - perhaps by Oswald - with a lighter blue ball point pen. This appears to be an alternate telephone number of the Soviet Embassy in Mexico City. On this page there is also the matter of an over-writing - again probably by Oswald with a ball point pen - of four numerals which appear to have been originally written with the ink pen previously referred to.

The Commission believes that some possibly valuable information might be obtained from an analysis resulting in a determination as to which entries in the address book were made with the same inks.

10 MAR 11 1964

EXP. PROC.

MAR 12 1964

In this way, relationships between different entries and connections between names, addresses and telephone numbers which are not otherwise apparent, might be brought to light by such an analysis. So too, this pen and ink analysis might profitably be extended to other documents such as Oswald's registration at the Hotel Del Comercio in Mexico City. Profit would be realized, for example, if it could be determined that Oswald used the same ball point pen to write the "Sylvia Duran" entry which he used to write his hotel registration. Such a development might tend to demonstrate that he met Duran before he registered at the hotel.

We, of course, will be guided by your advice as to the practicalities involved and solicit your suggestions in the matter.

Sincerely,

J. Lee Rankin

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of February 25, 1964, with which you enclosed a small address book covered in gray plastic, Item B-29 (Commission Exhibit 18), with a request for certain specified analyses of entries appearing therein.

In general, inks are not susceptible to identification one with another. Scientific analysis will disclose differences or that dye composition is similar; however, similarity of composition would not establish that the same pen or the same ink was used in preparing two questioned writings. Since ink identifications are not scientifically possible, no effort has been made to compare the various inks in the address book, Item B-29. While no ink identifications are possible, we have made certain other examinations in response to your inquiry regarding the specific writings in the address book which you cited as examples.

The figures, "(15 60 55)," and the overwritten figures, "35 56," in ball-point pen ink were not written with the ball-point pen cartridge used to write the name, "SYLVIA DURAN," on the page to which your letter made reference.

It has not been possible to determine whether the figures, "(15 60 55)," and the overwritten figures, "35 56," were or were not written with the same ball-point pen cartridge. A further determination would require removal of small samples of these inks from the page. This may prove the two to be different or that their dye composition is similar. However, as previously stated, similarity of composition would not be sufficient to establish that the same pen or ink was used.

Investigation has disclosed Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of late President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, made a trip from Nuevo Laredo, Mexico to Mexico City, Mexico, on a Flecha Roja (Red Arrow) Bus, on September 26 - 27, 1963. The bus departed Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, at approximately 2:00 PM, September 26, 1963, and arrived Mexico City during the morning of September 27, 1963. Other passengers on the bus included Patricia Clare Winston and Pamela Lillian Mumford, of Sidney, Australia, and Doctor and Mrs. John Bryan McFarland, Liverpool, England.

During interviews, Misses Winston and Mumford, as well as Doctor and Mrs. McFarland, have identified Lee Harvey Oswald as a passenger on the bus, on the above referred to trip, and state Oswald sat beside an elderly white male.

Miss Mumford and Doctor and Mrs. McFarland have identified photographs of Albert Osborne, who is also known as John Howard Bowen, taken October, 1963, and on February 8, 1964, as being identical with the elderly white male that sat beside Oswald on the bus trip of September 26 - 27, 1963. Mexico Trip

Miss Winston has previously examined a photograph of Osborne that was taken in about 1954 and said it could possibly be a photograph of the person that sat beside Oswald on the above referred to trip. Miss Winston presently resides with her parents at Flat 4, #8 Wood Street, Sidney, Australia.

It is requested the photographs (4) of Albert Osborne, also known as John Howard Bowen, taken in October, 1963 and on February 8, 1964, be exhibited to Patricia Clare Winston, Flat 4, #8 Wood Street, Manley, Sidney, Australia, to see if she can

Re: Appearance of Mrs. Marguerite Oswald on Radio Station WBZ, Boston, Massachusetts March 4, 1964

Mass. Files T.T. D.C

A source who has provided reliable information in the past advised on February 26, 1964 that Marguerite Oswald, mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, was scheduled to appear on March 4, 1964 as a guest on the Bob Kennedy radio program called "Contact" on WBZ radio, Boston, Massachusetts.

On March 4, 1964, Mrs. Oswald did appear on the WBZ radio program "Contact", from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Bob Kennedy, as moderator of this discussion, question and answer type program, opened the radio program by introducing Mrs. Marguerite Oswald as the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald. and said that currently in Dallas there is a man on trial who took it upon himself to deprive America from learning the answers to two most important questions, one, "Did Lee Harvey Oswald kill President Kennedy?"and two, "Why did he do it?". Kennedy reported that the one woman who knew him longer and probably better than anybody else, is the guest of "Contact". Mrs. Oswald, Kennedy said, has indicated to him that she has additional important information on this case which she will reveal during the course of the program.

Mass.

Kennedy also introduced on the program one Samuel Robinson, as a Boston attorney and an Executive Committee member of the Massachusetts Civil Liberties Union, described as an organization devoted to guaranteeing those accused of the most devastating crimes of the fair trial they deserve under our Constitution.

2 COPIES DESTROYED
21 FEB 20 1972

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Kennedy asked Robinson to comment on what, in his opinion, would have happened legally if Lee Harvey Oswald had lived. Did the Civil Liberties Union think he was treated fairly or would it have been difficult to get a fair trial since Oswald had been already judged guilty in the eyes of many persons throughout the Nation? Robinson replied that, in his opinion, Oswald would have received a fair trial, and the fact that the Warren Commission has appointed the President of the American Bar Association to represent Oswald, is an indication of the concern of every lawyer that Oswald certainly would have received a fair trial.

Kennedy and Robinson discussed at length the type of a case the State had against Oswald. Such items of evidence as the rifle alleged to have been used in the assassination and how it was traced to Oswald; the handwriting specimens obtained in ordering the rifle; palm prints obtained from the scene of the crime, and the fact that Oswald's widow indicated that the rifle in question was missing from the family garage after the shooting of President Kennedy. On the strength of such evidence as discussed, Robinson was of the opinion that the Dallas, Texas Police Department had a relatively strong case against Oswald. Robinson said the only objection in his opinion that could be raised in regard to this evidence was the fact that it all had been presented to the public by the police, and as a result of this the public could have been prejudiced. Mrs. Marguerite Oswald said that she had recently completed three days of testimony in Washington, D.C. in behalf of her son before the Warren Commission. She said that in her opinion the Commission was fair, but that they would not be able to arrive at a true conclusion in this matter since the right to cross examine was not allowed by the Commission members. She stated that the FBI and the Secret Service had questioned people in her and her family's neighborhood shortly after the assassination of President Kennedy, and had asked numerous questions about her son, Lee Harvey Oswald. This information gained by the FBI she considers to be speculation and rumors because if they asked someone who thought well of her son and his family the replies would be complimentary. If the agents asked someone who did not like her son and family the replies in her opinion would be derogatory. This she said is the type of information the FBI and Secret Service have presented to the Warren Commission.

Mrs. Oswald said she feels her son is not guilty because she heard and saw him on TV and radio say, "I didn't do it. I didn't kill anybody." Mrs. Oswald said, "I believe my son." She said that he was not able to prove his innocence because he was murdered and shot down. Mrs. Oswald pointed out that no one actually saw her son shoot President Kennedy and reminded her listeners that the gun could have been her son's gun, but that no one saw him use it or proved that he used it.

former C.I.I.A. D.C. TEXAS

Kennedy raised the question at that point if Mrs. Oswald was aware of the fact that a recent statement had been given much publicity to the effect that her daughter-in-law, Marina Oswald, had prevented Lee Harvey Oswald from carrying out a plot to assassinate Vice President Nixon during a proposed visit to Dallas by locking him in a room of their home. Mrs. Oswald ridiculed this statement by saying that her daughter-in-law did not possess the physical capabilities to accomplish this, and said that the press has accused her son of shooting some new personage each and every day.

Mrs. Oswald then indicated that she was sure her son was in the employ of the U.S. Government, and then said she was going to divulge information that had never before been discussed. This information consisted of a statement by Mrs. Oswald to the effect that Lee Harvey Oswald, when he was 15½ years of age, was a Civil Air Patrol cadet. She said that while he was in the Civil Air Patrol, a civilian who she believes was associated with the Civil Air Patrol, induced Lee Oswald to join the United States Marines. Mrs. Oswald said she was living in New Orleans at that time, and that her son had left school without her knowledge and tried to obtain her consent to have him enlist in the U.S. Marines. She stated that a Marine Recruiting Officer also appeared at her home and tried to get her permission to allow Lee Oswald to enlist in the Marines, however, she refused. She said that her son, Lee Harvey Oswald, at the age of 15 or 16, was reading communist books, and that she knew he was reading these books. According to Mrs. Oswald, her son obtained these books in the public library, and was also studying a Marine Manual that had been left in her home by another son, who was a member of the United States Marines at that time. The point Mrs. Oswald said she wanted to make was that at the age of 16, Lee Harvey Oswald was studying communism and the Marine Manual to become an agent for our intelligence services.

According to Mrs. Oswald, on her son's 17th birthday he joined the United States Marines, and after 3 years was discharged because of her ill health, and that three days later he defected to Russia. According to Mrs. Oswald, Lee Harvey Oswald had studied the Russian language while a member of the U.S. Marines. Mrs. Oswald said she thought it was odd that a government agency did not want to question her about her son's defection to Russia.

Kennedy, as moderator, allowed individuals to telephone questions to his guests while the program was in progress. Several callers expressed indignation at the station for allowing Mrs. Oswald, an "obviously disturbed person," a platform for such a serious subject. Other callers commended the station. Questions Mrs. Oswald answered ranged from what her current finances were to who is subsidizing her for this trip. According to Mrs. Oswald, she said that she received nothing for the broadcast, however, the radio station, WBZ, had paid for her plane fare and hotel bill. Mrs. Oswald was also asked questions concerning her present relationships with her daughter-in-law and the remaining members of her family. Mrs. Oswald was also asked questions about the alleged need of Lee Harvey Oswald's obtained psychiatric care as a child and his career in the United States Marine Corps. She was also asked about the manner in which her son was discharged from the Marine Corps. Other callers sought from Mrs. Oswald information concerning her son's love of firearms and the fact that he was connected with alleged communist front groups. Mrs. Oswald maintained that she was not interested in these side events concerning her son's Marine Corps history or the fact that he was interested in guns or the fact that ballistic tests indicated that he was involved in the assassination. She said her main interest is in showing that her son was murdered without benefit of counsel or trial, which is not our American way of life. She denied that her son had any connection with the slaying of Dallas Police Officer Tippit on the day President Kennedy was assassinated, or that he had made attempts on the life of General Walker. Mrs. Oswald re-affirmed her conviction that her son was working for the Government, but said the Government cannot or will not verify this fact. Mrs. Oswald said that she is attempting to show the people of the United States that her son is not the horrid person that the press has made him out to be and said that in this connection she has recently made a record in New York which contains correspondence between her and her son while he was in Russia, which will indicate his true personality. She indicated that this record would be released to the public sometime in April of 1964.

This memorandum contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

All of the above reels are fully identified by a sticker attached to the outside of the box containing the specific reel.

Mr. BASCOMB furnished these tapes to the Cleveland Office on the late afternoon of February 28, 1964; however, due to a technical difficulty at the KYW Studio, they were not fully reproduced from the KYW library original which necessitated another re-recording.

The Bureau is being furnished the six - 7" reels of tape recordings under separate cover.

In connection with the NELSON G. KARL, who appears on instant program, the 1963 Cleveland Telephone Directory reflects a NELSON G. KARL, who is an attorney with offices in the Engineers Building, Cleveland.

The files of the Cleveland Office reflect that [redacted] on May 5, 1954, made available a postal card postmarked April 21, 1954, which announces that on April 24, 1954, a Mr. NELSON. KARL, Attorney, Engineers Building (Cleveland), representing the Cleveland Civil Liberties Union, was a speaker at a public meeting held at 6411 St. Clair Avenue, Cleveland. The speakers subjects were listed as "The McCarthy Row" and "McCarthy - Saint or Sinner".

The indices of the Cleveland Office contain no references identifiable with NELSON G. KARL; however, it is believed that NELSON G. KARL is probably identical to the NELSON KARL representing the Cleveland Civil Liberties Union in 1954. However, for the purposes of the letterhead memorandum, he is self-described in such a manner as to provide a sufficient characterization of himself.

The Boston Office will make arrangements with Radio Station WBZ, Boston, Massachusetts, to obtain the tape recordings of BOB KENNEDY's program "Contact", on which MARGUERITE OSWALD was to have appeared Wednesday, February 26, 1964, or possibly March 2, 1964. It is noted that Mrs. OSWALD claims to have knowledge of something wonderful that happened to subject which has never been made public. Arrangements should be made to obtain two recordings of the program, one for the Bureau, and one for the President's Commission, and a summary should be made thereof as a letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination UACB.

No further investigation is contemplated by the Cleveland Office.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Mr. PERRY BASCOMB, General Manager, Radio Station KYW, Cleveland, Ohio, on February 28, 1964, related that MARGUERITE OSWALD, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, appeared on a KYW Radio program known as HARV MORGAN's "Contact" on February 24, 1964, between 10:00 PM and 12:00 midnight.

He explained that the specific topic of the "Contact" program on February 24, 1964, was entitled "LEE OSWALD - Killer or Victim" and that the special guest, MARGUERITE OSWALD, was on the program via a long-distance telephone line from New York City. He stated the program is moderated by a member of the KYW Staff, HARV MORGAN, and that the radio audience telephones the radio station with questions they put directly to the special guest, and both the radio audience participant as well as the answer of the special guest are heard by the radio audience. In addition, he noted that a Mr. NELSON G. KARL, a Cleveland attorney, appeared on the program as sort of a special moderator and as a quasi legal advisor to MARGUERITE OSWALD solely in connection with her appearance on this program. The radio audience participants telephoning the radio station with their questions are not identified by name.

Mr. BASCOMB furnished a tape recording of the broadcast of February 24, 1964, which is summarized as follows:

Mr. HARV MORGAN on February 24, 1964, identified his program as the "Contact" program and stated that the topic of the evening was "LEE OSWALD - Killer or Victim". He announces that the special guest for the evening is Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and that she is participating via a long distance telephone line from New York City.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

In her initial comments Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD advises that her son had been exploited and that he should not have received the exceedingly large amount of publicity which occurred following the assassination. She advises that on TV she heard her son say "I didn't do it" and noted that no one can be proven guilty in a few hours time; no one saw him shoot President KENNEDY and she just knows that he is innocent. Mrs. OSWALD advises that she is fighting for our American way of life and that "a man is innocent until proven guilty". She states that it was this factor which motivated her to help represent her son before the Warren Commission.

Mr. MORGAN then interjects a few comments in his opening statement to the effect that an individual is innocent until he is proven guilty and that this is the question of prime importance, and noted that monumental efforts are being taken in this direction.

Mr. MORGAN then introduces NELSON G. KARL, who describes himself as an attorney who is interested in civil liberties and Constitutional rights. Mr. KARL advises that he subscribes to the thought that a man is innocent until he is proven guilty and that his appearance on the program is not in the defense or prosecution of LEE OSWALD and, until all the evidence is accounted for, we must reserve judgment in this matter.

On a prerecorded statement of Mrs. OSWALD she states that her son was tried, convicted and murdered within a few hours time. She states the case is not closed and that her son is not guilty until proven so. She then advises that I want to retract my story of MARINA OSWALD --- she is a beautiful woman --- I do not see MARINA as a Washington socialite but I recall her as the plain Russian girl with stringy hair. The first few days after LEE was accused of the assassination of the President MARINA did not believe that he was guilty. However, after eight weeks of protection by the Secret Service and FBI, during which period no one could see her, she now believes that OSWALD killed KENNEDY and has stated that even if the Warren Commission says her husband is innocent, she will always believe that LEE killed

KENNEDY. I say she was brainwashed and that she could only know facts that were given to her by the Secret Service as to what was going on as she only reads Russian. She is now a modern American girl and she is not permitted to see me and she has avoided seeing me.

At this point Mr. NELSON G. KARL points out that Mrs. OSWALD has the right to express her opinion in free speech under the Constitution. He states that to date the Warren Commission has not issued a report and we have had only a smattering of information from the newspapers concerning these hearings. My purpose is to afford her legal representation as though I were her attorney.

MARGUERITE OSWALD then states that her purpose is to bring her case before the American people. I feel sorry about this and firmly believe in the American way of life and believe justice should be done. When records are released America will see a different boy than previously pictured. This boy has been exploited and not one good thing has been said about him. His living philosophy will be shown in letters written to me from Russia.

I have known and felt since 1959, but have no proof, that LEE was not a defector but a government agent. I did make a mistake in Washington when I said he was a CIA man. Now I know he could have been with any one of the many U. S. intelligence agencies. Why wasn't LEE under surveillance by the FBI; he was not under FBI surveillance because he was a government agent.

In January, 1961, I went to the State Department and received "red carpet treatment" from high State Department officials, which also led me to believe he, LEE OSWALD, was in the employment of the United States Government, as I don't believe this is the treatment afforded ordinary citizens like myself. Also, LEE implied to a Mrs. BATES, who was helping him write a book about his experiences in Russia, that he was a government agent. I also believe he had Russian language training in the Marine Corps because of a letter I received from the Albert Schweitzer Institute while he was in Russia which indicated that he had the equivalent of one year's training in the Russian language. LEE was always fond of the Marines and spoke highly of his relationship with the Marine Corps, which also led me to believe that he was a government agent.

Further, OSWALD was not on the "FBI List", and no one could understand this but myself. (inference that OSWALD was a government agent)

I also believe that LEE OSWALD was "set up" to defect to Russia and that when he returned to the United States he attempted to obtain an honorable discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps, and I felt that he was doing this in order to make a living and not to expose his connection with the government.
